Introduction to the Gospel of Matthew

Part 1: General Introduction

Outline of the Book of Matthew

1. The birth of Jesus Christ and the beginning of his ministry (1:1—4:25)
2. Jesus' Sermon on the Mount (Chapters 5:1—7:28)
3. Jesus illustrates the kingdom of God through acts of healing (8:1—9:34)
4. Jesus' teaching about mission and the kingdom (9:35—10:42)
5. Jesus' teaching about the gospel of the kingdom of God. The rise of opposition to him (11:1—12:50)
6. Jesus' parables about the kingdom of God (13:1—52)
7. Further opposition to Jesus and misunderstanding of the kingdom of God (13:53—17:57)
8. Jesus' teaching about life in the kingdom of God (18:1—35)
9. Jesus ministers in Judea (19:1—22:46)
10. Jesus' teaching about the final judgment and salvation (23:1—25:46)
11. The crucifixion of Jesus, his death and resurrection (26:1—28:19)

What is the book of Matthew about?

The Gospel according to Matthew is one of four books in the New Testament that describe some of the life of Jesus Christ, but focus especially on his work. The four Gospels emphasize different aspects of who Jesus was and what he did. Matthew intended to show that Jesus was the Messiah, chosen by God to save Israel. It seems clear that Matthew had mainly Jewish readers in mind, when he explained to his readers that Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament prophecies about the Messiah. (See: Christ, Messiah)

How should the title of this book be translated?

Translators may choose to call this book by its traditional title, “The Gospel of Matthew,” or “The Gospel according to Matthew.” Or they may choose a title that may be clearer, for example, “The Good News about Jesus that Matthew wrote.” (See: How to Translate Names)

Who wrote the Book of Matthew?

The book does not give the reader the name of the author. Since early Christian times, however, it has been generally believed that the author is Matthew, one of Jesus' disciples.

Part 2: Important Religious and Cultural Concepts

What is the “kingdom of heaven?”

Matthew speaks of “the kingdom of heaven” in the same way that other gospel writers speak of the kingdom of God. This is the teaching that God will one day rule perfectly over all people and all creation everywhere. This means that everyone to whom the blessings of God’s kingdom come will completely accept his rule and will perfectly love him.

What were Jesus’ teaching methods?

Jesus came to be regarded as a rabbi, a teacher of God’s law, by the people. He followed some standard methods of other religious teachers in Israel: he had students, called disciples; he also made up parables, fictional stories, in order to teach various principles.

Part 3: Important Translation Issues

Why does Matthew often refer to Jesus as the “Son of Man”?

Matthew shows Jesus as adopting this title for himself. It is a reference to Daniel 7:13—14, where a person described as “a son of man,” that is, someone who looked like a human being, received authority from God to rule over the nations forever, and to be worshiped by all people forever. Besides being human, this person must also be God, because God would never allow someone other than himself to be worshiped. Because the Jews of Jesus’ time did not use “Son of Man” as a title for anyone, Jesus used it for himself to help them come to understand who he was truly was. (See: Son of Man, son of man)

Translating the title “Son of Man” can be difficult in many languages. A literal translation might be easily misunderstood by readers. Translators can consider alternatives, such as “The Human One.” An explanatory footnote might be useful also.

What are the major issues in the text of the Book of Matthew?

The text of some English translations do not agree concerning what to include. This is because of the discovery of more accurate manuscripts. The follow are the most significant issues in Matthew:

- “Bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you” (5:44)
- “For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen” (6:13)
- “Many are called, but few are chosen” (20:16)
- “But this kind of demon does not go out except with prayer and fasting” (17:21)
- “For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost” (18:11)
- “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widows’ houses, while you make a show of long prayers. You will therefore receive greater condemnation.” (23:14)

Translators are advised not to translate these passages. However, if older Bible versions exist in their region that have some of these verses, it is not wrong to translate them. If they are translated, they should be put inside square brackets ([]) to indicate that they are probably not original to Matthew’s Gospel. (See: Textual Variants)

What are the Synoptic Gospels?

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke are called the Synoptic Gospels because they share a large amount of textual material. However, the authors often used the same accounts and the same teachings of Jesus to emphasize different aspects of his life, ministry, and message.

When the text is the same or almost the same among two or three gospels, it is said to be “parallel.” When these parallel passages are translated, the wording in the project language should be kept the same as much as possible.

Matthew 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 1:23, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Genealogy

A genealogy is a list which records a person's ancestors or descendants. Such lists were very important in determining who had the right to be king, because the king's authority was usually passed down or inherited from his father. It was also common for any important person to have a recorded genealogy.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Use of the passive voice

The passive voice is used very purposefully in this chapter to indicate that Jesus was not conceived through a sexual relationship. Here, the passive voice presents the Holy Spirit as the one who began Mary's conception of the baby Jesus. Because many languages do not have a passive voice, translators must find other ways to present the same truths. (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 1:1-3

UDB:

¹ This is the record of the ancestors of Jesus the Messiah, the descendant of King David and of Abraham. ² Abraham was the father of Isaac. Isaac was the father of Jacob. Jacob was the father of Judah and of his brothers. ³ Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah, and their mother was Tamar. Perez was the father of Hezron. Hezron was the father of Ram.

ULB:

1 ¹ The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ son of David son of Abraham. ² Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers. ³ Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- son, son of
- David
- Abraham, Abram
- Isaac
- Jacob, Israel
- Judah
- Tamar

translationNotes:

- General Information: - The author begins with Jesus' genealogy in order to show that he is a descendant of King David and of Abraham. The genealogy continues through 1:17.
- The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ - You could translate this as a complete sentence. AT: "This is the list of the ancestors of Jesus Christ."
- son of David son of Abraham - There were many generations between Jesus, David, and Abraham. Here "son" means "descendant." AT: "a descendant of David, who was a descendant of Abraham"
- son of David - Sometimes the phrase "son of David" is used as a title, but here it seems to be used only to identify Jesus' ancestry.
- Abraham was the father of Isaac - "Abraham became the father of Isaac" or "Abraham had a son Isaac" or "Abraham had a son named Isaac." There are different ways you could translate this. Whichever way you translate it here, it would be best to translate it the same way throughout the list of Jesus' ancestors.

- Isaac the father ... Jacob the father - Here the word “was” is understood. AT: “Isaac was the father ... Jacob was the father” (See: Ellipsis)
- Perez and Zerah ... Hezron ... Ram - These are names of men. (See: How to Translate Names)
- Perez the father ... Hezron the father - Here the word “was” is understood. AT: “Perez was the father ... Hezron was the father” (See: Ellipsis)

Matthew 1:4-6UDB:

⁴ Ram was the father of Amminadab. Amminadab was the father of Nahshon. Nahshon was the father of Salmon. ⁵ Salmon and his wife Rahab, a non-Jewish woman, were the parents of Boaz. Boaz was the father of Obed. Obed's mother was Ruth, another non-Jewish woman. Obed was the father of Jesse. ⁶ Jesse was the father of King David. David became the father of Solomon; Solomon's mother was the wife of Uriah.

ULB:

⁴ Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon. ⁵ Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, Obed the father of Jesse. ⁶ Jesse was the father of David the king, David the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah.

translationWords:

- Boaz
- Rahab
- Ruth
- Jesse
- David
- king

translationNotes:

- Amminadab the father ... Nahshon the father - Here the word "was" is understood. AT: "Amminadab was the father ... Nahshon was the father" (See: Ellipsis)
- Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab - "Salmon was the father of Boaz, and Boaz's mother was Rahab" or "Salmon and Rahab were the parents of Boaz"
- Boaz the father ... Obed the father - Here the word "was" is understood. AT: "Boaz was the father ... Obed was the father" (See: Ellipsis)
- Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth - "Boaz was the father of Obed, and Obed's mother was Ruth" or "Boaz and Ruth were the parents of Obed"
- David the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah - Here the word "was" is understood. "David was the father of Solomon, and Solomon's mother was Uriah's wife" or "David and the wife of Uriah were the parents of Solomon" (See: Ellipsis)
- the wife of Uriah - "the widow of Uriah." Solomon was born after Uriah died.

- ancestor, father, forefather
- Jotham
- Ahaz
- Hezekiah
- Manasseh
- Josiah
- Babylon, Babylonian

translationNotes:

- Amon - Sometimes this is translated "Amos."
- Josiah was an ancestor of Jechoniah - A more specific term for "ancestor" can also be used, particularly if the word "ancestor" would only be used for someone who lived before one's grandparents. AT: "Josiah was a grandfather of Jechoniah"
- at the time of the deportation to Babylon - "when they were forced to move to Babylon" or "when the Babylonians conquered them and made them go live in Babylon." If your language needs to specify who went to Babylon, you could say "the Israelites" or "the Israelites who lived in Judah."
- Babylon - Here this means the country of Babylon, not just the city of Babylon.

Matthew 1:15-17

UDB:

¹⁵ Eliud was the father of Eleazar. Eleazar was the father of Matthan. Matthan was the father of Jacob. ¹⁶ Jacob was the father of Joseph. Joseph was Mary's husband, and Mary was Jesus' mother. Jesus is the one who is called the Messiah.

¹⁷ The list of Jesus' ancestors is as follows: fourteen of them from the time when Abraham lived to the time when King David lived. There were another fourteen from the time when David lived until the time when the Israelites went away to Babylon, and then yet another fourteen from then until the time when the Messiah was born.

ULB:

¹⁵ Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob. ¹⁶ Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ. ¹⁷ All the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Christ fourteen generations.

translationWords:

- Joseph (NT)
- Mary, the mother of Jesus
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Christ, Messiah
- generation
- Abraham, Abram
- David
- Babylon, Babylonian

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The author concludes Jesus' genealogy, which began in 1:1.

Matthew 1:18-19

UDB:

¹⁸ This is the account of what happened just before Jesus the Messiah was born. Mary, his mother, had promised to marry Joseph, but before they lived together as husband and wife, they found out that she was expecting a child by the Holy Spirit's power. ¹⁹ Now Joseph, who was to be her husband, was a man who obeyed God's commands, so he decided not to marry her. But he did not want to shame her in front of other people. So he decided to quietly drop his plans to marry her.

ULB:

¹⁸ The birth of Jesus Christ happened in the following way. His mother, Mary, was engaged to marry Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ Her husband, Joseph, was a righteous man, and he did not want to disgrace her publicly. So he decided to secretly end his engagement with her.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Mary, the mother of Jesus
- Joseph (NT)
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- righteous, righteousness

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This begins a new part of the story in which the author describes the events leading up to the birth of Jesus.
- His mother, Mary, was engaged to marry Joseph - "His mother, Mary, was going to marry Joseph." Parents normally arranged the marriages of their children. AT: "The parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, had promised her in marriage to Joseph" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- His mother, Mary, was engaged - Translate in a way that makes it clear that Jesus was not already born when Mary was engaged to Joseph. AT: "Mary, who would be the mother of Jesus, was engaged" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- before they came together - "before they got married." This may refer to Mary and Joseph sleeping together. AT: "before they had slept together" (See: Euphemism)
- she was found to be pregnant - This can be stated in active form. AT: "they realized that she was going to have a baby" or "it happened that she was pregnant" (See: Active or Passive)
- by the Holy Spirit - The power of the Holy Spirit had enabled Mary to have a baby before she had slept with a man.

- Her husband, Joseph - Joseph had not married Mary yet, but when a man and woman promised to marry each other, Jews considered them husband and wife though they did not live together. AT: “Joseph, who was supposed to marry Mary” or “Joseph” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- end his engagement with her - “cancel their plans to get married”

Matthew 1:20-21

UDB:

²⁰ While he was seriously considering this, an angel whom the Lord sent surprised him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, descendant of King David, do not be afraid to marry Mary. For what has been conceived in her is there by the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a son. Since it is he who will save his people from their sins, name him 'Jesus.'"

ULB:

²⁰ As he thought about these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, because the one who is conceived in her is conceived by the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

translationWords:

- angel, archangel
- Lord
- dream
- son, son of
- David
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- save, safe
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- As he thought - "As Joseph thought"
- appeared to him in a dream - "came to him while Joseph was dreaming"
- son of David - Here "son" means "descendant."
- the one who is conceived in her is conceived by the Holy Spirit - This can be stated in active form. AT: "the Holy Spirit caused Mary to become pregnant with this child" (See: Active or Passive)
- She will give birth to a son - Because God sent the angel, the angel knew the baby was a boy.
- you will call his name - "you must name him" or "you must give him the name." This is a command.
- for he will save - Translator may add a footnote that says "The name 'Jesus' means 'the Lord saves.'"
- his people - This refers to the Jews.

Matthew 1:22-23

UDB:

²² All this happened to make come true what the Lord told the prophet Isaiah to write long ago. Isaiah wrote, ²³ "Listen, a virgin will become pregnant and will give birth to a son.

They will call him Immanuel"— which means, "God is with us."

ULB:

²² All this happened to fulfill what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

²³ "Behold, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call his name Immanuel"— which means, "God with us."

translationWords:

- fulfill
- Lord
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- virgin

translationNotes:

- General Information: - The author quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that Jesus' birth was according to scripture. (See: Background Information)
- All this happened - The angel is no longer speaking. Matthew is now explaining the importance of what the angel said.
- what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet - This can be stated in active form. AT: "what the Lord told the prophet Isaiah to write long ago" (See: Active or Passive)
- Behold ... Immanuel - Here Matthew quotes the prophet Isaiah.
- Behold - "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you." This word adds emphasis to what is said next.
- Immanuel - This is a male name. (See: How to Translate Names)
- which means, "God with us." - This is not in the book of Isaiah. Matthew is explaining the meaning of the name "Immanuel." You could translate it as a separate sentence. AT: "This name means 'God with us.'"

- angel, archangel
- Lord
- command, to command, commandment
- sleep with, have relations with, lovemaking

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The author concludes his description of the events leading up to the birth of Jesus.
- as the angel of the Lord commanded - The angel had told Joseph to take Mary as his wife and to name the child Jesus.
- he took her as his wife - “he married Mary”
- to a son - “to a male baby” or “to her son.” Make sure it is clear that Joseph is not portrayed as the actual father.
- And he called his name Jesus - “Joseph named the child Jesus”

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of verses 6 and 18, which are quotations from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

“His star”

This is probably a reference to a star that the learned men believed to be the sign of a new king of Israel. (See: sign, proof, reminder)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“Learned men”

English translations use many different words to translate this phrase. These terms include “magi” and “wise men.” These men could have been scientists or astrologers. It is best to translate this with the generic term, “learned men,” if possible.

Matthew 2:1-3

UDB:

¹ Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in the province of Judea during the time that King Herod the Great ruled there. Some time after Jesus was born, some men from very far away to the east who studied the stars came to the city of Jerusalem. ² They asked people, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We have seen a star in the east that shows us he has been born, so we have come to worship him.”

³ When King Herod heard about what those men were asking, he became very worried. Many of the people in Jerusalem also became worried.

ULB:

² ¹ After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem saying, ² “Where is he who was born King of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him.” ³ When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Bethlehem, Ephrathah
- Judea
- Herod the Great
- learned men, astrologers
- Jerusalem
- King of the Jews
- worship

translationNotes:

- General Information: - A new part of the story begins here and continues through the end of the chapter. The writer tells about Herod’s attempt to kill the new King of the Jews.
- Bethlehem of Judea - “the town of Bethlehem in the province of Judea” (UDB)
- in the days of Herod the king - “when Herod was king there”
- Herod - This refers to Herod the Great.
- learned men - “men who studied the stars” (UDB)
- from the east - “from a country far east of Judea”
- Where is he who was born King of the Jews? - The men knew from studying the stars that the one who would become king had been born. They were trying to learn where he was. AT: “A baby who will become the king of the Jews has been born. Where is he?”

- his star - They were not saying that the baby was the rightful owner of the star. AT: “the star that tells about him” or “the star that is associated with his birth”
- in the east - “as it came up in the east” or “while we were in our country”
- worship - Possible meanings are 1) they intended to worship the baby as divine, or 2) they wanted to honor him as a human king. If your language has a word that includes both meanings, you should consider using it here.
- he was troubled - “he was worried.” Herod was worried that this baby would replace him as king.
- all Jerusalem - Here “Jerusalem” refers to the people. Also, “all” means “many.” Matthew is exaggerating to emphasize how many people were worried. AT: “many of the people in Jerusalem” (UDB) (See: Metonymy and Hyperbole)

Matthew 2:4-6UDB:

⁴ Then Herod called together all the ruling priests and teachers of the Jewish laws. He asked them where the prophets had predicted that the Messiah was to be born. ⁵ They said to him, "He will be born in the town of Bethlehem, here in the province of Judea, because the prophet Micah wrote long ago, ⁶ 'You who live in Bethlehem in the land of Judah, your town is certainly very important, because a man from your town will become a ruler. He will guide my people who live in Israel.'"

ULB:

⁴ Herod brought together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, and he asked them, "Where is the Christ to be born?" ⁵ They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what was written by the prophet,

⁶ 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the leaders of Judah,
for from you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.'"

translationWords:

- Herod the Great
- chief priests
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Christ, Messiah
- Bethlehem, Ephrathah
- Judea
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- shepherd, to shepherd
- Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 6, the chief priests and scribes of the people quote the prophet Micah to show that the Christ would be born in Bethlehem.
- In Bethlehem of Judea - "In the town of Bethlehem in the province of Judea"
- this is what was written by the prophet - This can be stated in active form. AT: "this is what the prophet wrote long ago" (See: Active or Passive)

- you, Bethlehem, ... are not the least among the leaders of Judah - Micah was speaking to the people of Bethlehem as if they were with him but they were not. Also, “are not the least” can be translated with a positive phrase. AT: “you, people of Bethlehem, ... your town is among the most important towns in Judah” (See: Apostrophe and Litotes)
- who will shepherd my people Israel - Micah speaks of this ruler as a shepherd. This means he will lead and care for the people. AT: “who will lead my people Israel as a shepherd leads his sheep” (See: Metaphor)

- learned men, astrologers
- Bethlehem, Ephrathah
- word
- worship

translationNotes:

- Herod secretly called the learned men - This means that Herod talked to the learned men without other people knowing.
- to ask them exactly what time the star had appeared - This can be translated as a direct quotation. AT: “and he asked them, ‘When exactly did this star appear?’” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- what time the star had appeared - It is implied that the learned men told him when the star appeared. AT: “what time the star had appeared. The learned men told Herod when the star first appeared” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- young child - This refers to Jesus.
- bring me word - Here “word” is a metonym for “message” or “new.” AT: “let me know” or “tell me” or “report back to me” (See: Metonymy)
- worship him - Translate this as you did in 2:2.

So they left for their country, but instead of traveling back on the same road, they went on a different road.

ULB:

¹¹ They went into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother. They bowed down and worshiped him. They opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² God warned them in a dream not to return to Herod, so they departed to their own country by another way.

translationWords:

- Mary, the mother of Jesus
- bow, bow down
- worship
- gold
- frankincense
- myrrh
- dream
- Herod the Great

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to the house where Mary, Joseph, and the young Jesus were living.
- They went - “The learned men went”
- their treasures - Here “treasures” refers to the boxes or bags they used to carry their treasures. AT: “the containers that held their treasures” (See: Metonymy)
- God warned them - “Afterwards, God warned the learned men.” God knew that Herod wanted to harm the child.

Matthew 2:13-15UDB:

¹³ After the men who studied the stars left Bethlehem, an angel from the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. He said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee into the country of Egypt. Stay there until I tell you that you should leave, because King Herod is about to send soldiers to look for the child so that they can kill him.” ¹⁴ So Joseph got up that same night; he took the child and his mother, and they fled into Egypt. ¹⁵ They stayed there until King Herod died, and then they left Egypt again. In this way, what God had told the prophet Hosea to write came true,

“I have called my son to come out of Egypt.”

ULB:

¹³ After they had departed, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt. Remain there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.” ¹⁴ That night Joseph rose and took the young child and his mother and departed into Egypt. ¹⁵ He remained there until the death of Herod. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

translationWords:

- angel, archangel
- Lord
- Joseph (NT)
- dream
- Egypt, Egyptian
- Herod the Great
- fulfill
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- call, calling, called, call out
- son, son of

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 15, the writer quotes the prophet Hosea to show that the Christ would spend time in Egypt.
- they had departed - “the learned men had departed”
- appeared to Joseph in a dream - “came to Joseph while he was dreaming”
- Get up, take ... flee ... Remain ... you - God is speaking to Joseph, so these should all be singular forms. (See: Forms of You)

- until I tell you - The full meaning of this statement can be made explicit. AT: “until I tell you it is safe to come back” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- I tell you - Here “I” refers to God. The angel is speaking for God.
- He remained - It is implied that Joseph, Mary, and Jesus remained in Egypt. AT: “They remained” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- until the death of Herod - Herod does not die until 2:19. This statement describes the length of their stay in Egypt, and it does not say that Herod died at this time.
- Out of Egypt I have called my son - “I have called my son out of Egypt”
- my son - In Hosea this refers to the people of Israel. Matthew quoted it to say that this was true of God’s Son, Jesus. Translate it using a word for son that could refer to the only son or the first son.

translationWords:

- fulfill
- Jeremiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- voice
- Ramah
- Rachel

translationNotes:

- General Information: - The writer quotes the prophet Jeremiah to show that the death of all of the male children in the region of Bethlehem was according to scripture.
- Then was fulfilled - This can be stated in active form. AT: "This fulfilled" or "Herod's actions fulfilled" (See: Active or Passive)
- what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet - This can be stated in active form. AT: "what the Lord spoke long ago through the prophet Jeremiah" (See: Active or Passive)
- A voice was heard ... they were no more - Matthew is quoting the prophet Jeremiah.
- A voice was heard - This can be stated in active form. AT: "People heard a voice" or "There was a loud sound" (See: Active or Passive)

- Rachel weeping for her children - Rachel lived many years before this time. This prophecy shows Rachel, who has died, weeping for her descendants.
- she refused to be comforted - This can be stated in active form. AT: “no one could comfort her” (See: Active or Passive)
- because they were no more - “because the children were gone and would never return.” Here “were no more” is a mild way of saying they are dead. AT: “because they were dead” (See: Euphemism)

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of verse 3, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

“Bear fruit worthy of repentance”

Fruit is a common image in the Scriptures. It is used to describe the results of either good or bad behavior. In this chapter, good fruit is the result of living as God commands. (See: fruit, fruitful)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“The kingdom of heaven is near”

Scholars debate whether the “kingdom of heaven” was present at this time or still coming. English translations frequently use the phrase “at hand,” but this can create difficulty in translating. Other versions use the phrases “is coming near” and “has come near.”

Matthew 3:1-3UDB:

¹ While Jesus was still in the town of Nazareth, John, whom the people called the Baptizer, went to a desolate place in the province of Judea. He was preaching to the people who came there. He kept saying, ² “You must stop sinning, because God’s rule from heaven is near, and he will reject you if you do not stop sinning.” ³ When John began preaching, then came true what Isaiah the prophet had said long ago. He said,

”In the wilderness people hear someone shouting to anyone who comes,
 ’Get ready to receive the Lord when he comes!
 Get everything ready for him!’”

ULB:

³ ¹ In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea saying, ² “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.” ³ For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

”The voice of one calling out in the wilderness,
 ’Make ready the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.’”

translationWords:

- John (the Baptist)
- preach
- desert, wilderness
- Judea
- repent, repentance
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- Isaiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- voice
- Lord

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story where the writer tells of the ministry of John the Baptist. In verse 3, the writer quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that John the Baptist was God’s appointed messenger to prepare for Jesus’ ministry.

- In those days - This is many years after Joseph and his family left Egypt and went to Nazareth. This is probably near the time that Jesus begins his ministry. AT: “Some time later” or “Some years later”
- Repent - This is plural in form. John is speaking to the crowds. (See: Forms of You)
- the kingdom of heaven is near - The phrase “kingdom of heaven” refers to God ruling as king. This phrase is only in the book of Matthew. If possible, use the word “heaven” in your translation. AT: “our God in heaven will soon show himself to be king” (See: Metonymy)
- For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying - This can be stated in active form. AT: “For Isaiah the prophet was speaking of John the Baptist when he said” (See: Active or Passive)
- The voice of one calling out in the wilderness - This can be expressed as a sentence. AT: “The voice of one calling out in the wilderness is heard” or “They hear the sound of someone calling out in the wilderness”
- Make ready the way of the Lord ... make his paths straight - These two phrases mean the same thing. (See: Parallelism)
- Make ready the way of the Lord - “Get the road ready for the Lord.” Doing this represents being prepared to hear the Lord’s message when he comes. People do this by repenting of their sins. translationWords:

- John (the Baptist)
- camel
- honey, honeycomb
- Jerusalem
- Judea
- Jordan River
- baptize, baptism
- confess, confession
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- Now ... wild honey - The word "Now" is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew tells background information about John the Baptist. (See: Background Information)
- wore clothing of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist - This clothing symbolizes that John is a prophet like the prophets from long ago, especially the prophet Elijah. (See: Symbolic Action and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region - This refers to the people from those areas. Here the word "all" means "many." Matthew is emphasizing how many people went to John the Baptist. (See: Metonymy and Hyperbole)
- They were baptized by him - This can be stated in active form. AT: "John baptized them" (See: Active or Passive)

translationWords:

- Pharisee
- Sadducee
- baptize, baptism
- serpent, snake, viper
- wrath, fury
- fruit, fruitful
- repent, repentance
- Abraham, Abram
- ancestor, father, forefather

translationNotes:

- General Information: - John the Baptist begins to rebuke the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- You offspring of poisonous snakes, who - This is a metaphor. Here "offspring" means "having the characteristic of." Poisonous snakes are dangerous and represent evil. This can be stated as a separate sentence. AT: "You evil poisonous snakes! Who" or "You are evil like poisonous snakes! Who" (See: Metaphor)
- who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? - John uses a question to rebuke the Pharisees and Sadducees because they were asking him to baptize them so that God would not punish them, but they did not want to stop sinning. AT: "you cannot flee from God's wrath like this.” or “do not think that you can flee from God’s wrath just because I baptize you.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

- flee from the wrath that is coming - The word “wrath” is being used to refer to God’s punishment because his wrath precedes it. AT: “run away from the punishment that is coming” or “escape because God is about to punish you” (See: Metonymy)
- Bear fruit worthy of repentance - The phrase “bear fruit” is a metaphor referring to a person’s actions. AT: “Let your actions show that you have truly repented” (See: Metaphor)
- We have Abraham for our father - “Abraham is our ancestor” or “We are descendants of Abraham.” The Jewish leaders thought that God would not punish them since they are descendants of Abraham. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- For I say to you - This adds emphasis to what John is about to say.
- God is able to raise up children for Abraham even out of these stones - “God could make physical descendants out of even these stones and give them to Abraham”

Matthew 3:10-12UDB:

¹⁰ God is ready right now to punish you, just like a man who starts to chop away the roots of a fruit tree that does not give good fruit. He will chop down every tree like that and throw it into the fire.”

¹¹ ”As for me, I am not very important, because I baptize you only with water. I do it when people are sorry for having sinned. But someone else will come soon who will do very powerful things. He is so much greater than I, that I do not even deserve to carry his sandals.

He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire. ¹² He is holding his winnowing fork, ready to separate the good grain from the bad chaff. He is ready to clear out all the bad chaff from where he has threshed the grain. He will take the righteous people home, as a farmer puts his wheat into his storehouse; but he will burn the wicked people, like one burns the chaff, in a fire that never goes out.”

ULB:

¹⁰ Already the ax has been placed against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. ¹¹ I baptize you with water for repentance. But he who comes after me is mightier than I, and I am not worthy even to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹² His winnowing fork is in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather his wheat into the storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with fire that can never be put out.”

translationWords:

- ax
- fruit, fruitful
- fire
- baptize, baptism
- repent, repentance
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- sandal
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- winnow, sift
- thresh, threshing
- wheat
- storehouse
- chaff

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - John the Baptist continues to rebuke the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- Already the ax has been placed against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire - This metaphor means God is ready to punish sinners. This can be stated in active form. AT: “God has his axe and he is ready to cut down and burn any tree that grows bad fruit” or “As a person gets his axe ready to cut down and burn a tree that grows bad fruit, God is ready to punish you for your sins” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)
- for repentance - “to show that you have repented”
- But he who comes after me - Jesus is the person who comes after John.
- is mightier than I - “is more important than I am”
- He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire - This metaphor compares John’s baptism with water to the future baptism with fire. This means John’s baptism only symbolically cleanses people of their sins. The baptism by Holy Spirit and fire will truly cleanse people of their sins. If possible, use the word “baptize” in your translation to keep the comparison to John’s baptism. (See: Metaphor)
- His winnowing fork is in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor - This metaphor compares the way Christ will separate the righteous people from the unrighteous people to the way a man separates wheat grain from chaff. AT: “Christ is like a man whose winnowing fork is in his hand” (See: Metaphor)
- His winnowing fork is in his hand - Here “in his hand” means the person is ready to act. AT: “Christ is holding a winnowing fork because he is ready” (See: Idiom)
- winnowing fork - This is a tool for tossing wheat up into the air to separate the wheat grain from the chaff. The heavier grain falls back down and the unwanted chaff is blown away by the wind. It is similar in shape to a pitchfork but with wide tines made of wood. (See: Translate Unknowns)
- to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor - Christ is like a man with a winnowing fork who is ready to clear off his threshing floor.
- his threshing floor - “his ground” or “the ground where he separates the grain from the chaff”
- gather his wheat into the storehouse ... burn up the chaff with fire that can never be put - This is a metaphor showing how God will separate righteous people from evil people. The righteous will go to heaven like wheat into a farmer’s storehouse, and God will burn the people who are like chaff with a fire that will never be put out. (See: Metaphor)
- can never be put out - This can be stated in active form. AT: “will never burn out” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 3:13-15UDB:

¹³ During that time, Jesus went from the district of Galilee to the Jordan River, where John was. He did this so John could baptize him. ¹⁴ When Jesus asked John to baptize him, John refused; he said, "I need you to baptize me! But you are not a sinner, so why do you come to me?" ¹⁵ But Jesus said to him, "Baptize me now, because in this way we two will do everything that God requires." Then John agreed to baptize him.

ULB:

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. ¹⁴ But John kept trying to stop him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" ¹⁵ Jesus responded and said to him, "Permit it now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness." ¹⁶ After that, Jesus immediately came up out of the water. Just then, it was as though the sky was opened, and Jesus saw God's Spirit coming down and sitting on him, in the form of a dove. ¹⁷ Then God spoke from heaven and said, "This is my Son. I love him, and I am very pleased with him."

ULB:

¹⁶ After he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove and resting upon him. ¹⁷ Behold, a voice came out of the heavens saying, "This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him."

translationWords:

- baptize, baptism
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- dove, pigeon
- voice
- beloved
- Son of God, the Son, Son

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the end of the part of the story about John the Baptist and describes what happened after he baptized Jesus.
- After he was baptized - This can be stated in active form. AT: "After John baptized Jesus" (See: Active or Passive)
- behold - The word "behold" here alerts us to pay attention to the surprising information that follows.
- the heavens were opened to him - This can be stated in active form. AT: "Jesus saw the sky open" or "God opened the heavens to Jesus" (See: Active or Passive)
- coming down like a dove - Possible meanings are 1) this is simply a statement that the Spirit was in the form of a dove or 2) this is a simile that compares the Spirit coming down upon Jesus gently, the way a dove would. (See: Simile)
- a voice came out of the heavens saying - "Jesus heard a voice from heaven." Here "voice" refers to God speaking. AT: "God spoke from heaven" (UDB) (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of verses 6, 10, 15 and 16, which are quotations from the Old Testament.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“The kingdom of heaven is near”

“If you are the Son of God”

In English, the reader can understand this statement in 4:6 as indicating that Satan does not know whether Jesus is the Son of God. Because Satan probably knows that Jesus is the Son of God, it should not be translated in this way. It can be translated as “because you are the Son of God.” (See: Satan, devil, evil one and Son of God, the Son, Son)

Matthew 4:1-4UDB:

¹ Then God's Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness for the devil to tempt him. ² After he had not eaten food day and night for forty days, he was hungry. ³ Satan, the tempter, came to him and said, "If you are really the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread for yourself!" ⁴ But Jesus said to him, "No! I will not do this, because God has said in the scriptures, 'For people to truly live, they must have more than food; they must listen to every word that God has spoken.'"

ULB:

⁴ ¹ Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ² When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³ The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread." ⁴ But Jesus answered and said to him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes out of the mouth of God.'"

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- desert, wilderness
- tempt, temptation
- Satan, devil, evil one
- fast
- Son of God, the Son, Son
- bread
- written
- word
- God

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the writer begins a new part of the story in which Jesus spends 40 days in the wilderness, where Satan tempts him. In verse 4, Jesus rebukes Satan with a quotation from Deuteronomy.
- Jesus was led up by the Spirit - This can be stated in active form. AT: "the Spirit led Jesus" (See: Active or Passive)
- to be tempted by the devil - This can be stated in active form. AT: "so the devil could tempt Jesus" (See: Active or Passive)

- the devil ... The tempter - These refer to the same being. You may have to use the same word to translate both.
- he had fasted ... he was hungry - These refer to Jesus.
- forty days and forty nights - “40 days and 40 nights.” This refers to 24-hour periods. AT: “40 days” (See: Numbers)
- If you are the Son of God, command - It is best to assume that Satan knew that Jesus is the Son of God. Possible meanings are 1) this is a temptation to do miracles for Jesus’ own benefit. AT: “You are the Son of God, so you can command” or 2) this is a challenge or accusation. AT: “Prove that you are the Son of God by commanding”
- the Son of God - This is an important title that describes the relationship between the Jesus and God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- Son of God - This is an important title for Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- command these stones to become bread - You could translate this with a direct quotation. AT: “say to these stones, ‘Become bread!’” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- bread - Here “food” refers to food in general. AT: “food” (See: Synecdoche)
- It is written - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Moses wrote this in the scriptures long ago” (See: Active or Passive)
- Man shall not live on bread alone - This implies that there is something more important to life than food.
- but by every word that comes out of the mouth of God - Here “word” and “mouth” refer to what God says. AT: “but by listening to everything that God says” (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 4:5-6UDB:

⁵ Then the devil took Jesus to Jerusalem, the city that was especially for God. He set him on the highest part of the temple ⁶ and said to him, "If you are truly the Son of God, jump down to the ground. You will, of course, not be hurt, because God has said in the scriptures,

'God will command his angels to protect you.

They will lift you up in their hands when you are falling, and they will keep you from even hitting your foot on a stone.'"

ULB:

⁵ Then the devil took him into the holy city and set him on the highest point of the temple building, ⁶ and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written,

'He will command his angels to take care of you,' and,

'They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not hit your foot against a stone.'"

translationWords:

- Satan, devil, evil one
- holy city
- temple
- Son of God, the Son, Son
- written
- angel, archangel

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 6, Satan quotes from the Psalms in order to tempt Jesus.
- If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down - It is best to assume that Satan knew that Jesus is the Son of God. Possible meanings are 1) this is a temptation to do a miracle for Jesus' own benefit. AT: "Since you are truly the Son of God, you can throw yourself down" or 2) this is a challenge or accusation. AT: "Prove that you are truly the Son of God by throwing yourself down" (UDB).
- Son of God - This is an important title that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)

- throw yourself down - “let yourself fall to the ground” or “jump down”
- for it is written - This can be stated in active form. AT: “for the writer wrote in the scriptures” or “for it says in the scriptures” (See: Active or Passive)
- He will command his angels to take care of you - “God will command his angels to take care of you.” This can be translated with a direct quotation. AT: “God will say to his angels, ‘Take care of him’” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- They will lift you up - “The angels will hold you”

- Lord
- kingdom
- splendor
- bow, bow down
- worship

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 7, Jesus rebukes Satan with another quotation from Deuteronomy.
- Again it is written - It is understood that Jesus is quoting scripture again. This can be stated in active form. AT: “Again, I will tell you what Moses wrote in the scriptures” (See: Active or Passive and Ellipsis)
- You must not test - Here “you” refers to anyone. AT: “One should not test” or “No person should test”
- Again, the devil - “Next, the devil”
- He said to him - “The devil said to Jesus”
- All these things I will give you - “I will give you all these things.” The tempter is emphasizing here that he will give “all these things,” not just some of them.

¹⁴ He went there so that these words that the prophet Isaiah had written long ago might come true:

¹⁵ "The regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, regions by the road going to the Sea, on the eastern side of the Jordan River, regions in Galilee, home of many non-Israelites!

¹⁶ Those people do not know God, as if they were in darkness, but they will learn the truth, as if a bright light had shone on them.
Yes, they have been very afraid of dying,
But a brilliant light has shone upon them!"

ULB:

¹⁴ This happened to fulfill what was said by Isaiah the prophet,

¹⁵ "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles!

¹⁶ The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a light arisen."

translationWords:

- fulfill
- Isaiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Zebulun
- Naphtali
- Jordan River
- Galilee, Galilean
- Gentile
- darkness
- light
- death, die, dead

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verses 15 and 16, the writer quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that Jesus' ministry in Galilee was a fulfillment of prophecy.
- This happened - This refers to Jesus going to live in Capernaum.
- what was said - This can be stated in active form. AT: "what God said" (See: Active or Passive)
- The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali ... Galilee of the Gentiles! - All of these territories describe the same area. This can be translated as a complete sentence. AT: "In the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali ... in the territory of Galilee live many Gentiles!"
- toward the sea - This is the Sea of Galilee.
- The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light - Here "darkness" refers to moral darkness or sin, which separates people from God. And, "light" refers to God's true message that saves people from their sin. This is the image of people who were without hope now having hope coming from God. (See: Metaphor)
- to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a light arisen - This basically has the same meaning as the first part of the sentence. Here "region and shadow of death" refers to spiritual death or a separation from God. (See: Parallelism and Metaphor)

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus calls more men to be his disciples.
- He called them - “Jesus called John and James.” This phrase also means that Jesus invited them to follow him, live with him, and become his disciples.
- immediately - “at that moment”
- left the boat ... and followed him - It should be clear that this is a life change. These men are no longer going to be fishermen and are leaving the family business to follow Jesus for the rest of their lives.

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the end of the part of the story about the beginning of Jesus' ministry in Galilee. These verses summarize what he did and how the people responded. (See: End of Story)
- teaching in their synagogues - "teaching in the synagogues of the Galileans" or "teaching in the synagogues of those people"
- preaching the gospel of the kingdom - Here "kingdom" refers to God's reign as king. AT: "preaching the good news about how God will show himself as king" (UDB) (See: Metonymy)
- every kind of disease and sickness - The words "disease" and "sickness" are closely related but should be translated as two different words if possible. "Disease" is what causes a person to be sick.
- sickness - is the physical weakness or affliction that results from having a disease.
- those possessed by demons - This can be stated in active form. AT: "the demon-possessed" or "those whom demons control" (See: Active or Passive)
- the epileptic - "those who had seizures" or "those with diseases that caused them to have fits"
- paralytic - "those who could not walk"
- the Decapolis - This name means "the Ten Towns" (UDB). This is the name of a region to the southeast of the Sea of Galilee. (See: How to Translate Names)

Matthew 5 General Notes

Structure and Formatting

Matthew 5-7, traditionally called The Sermon on the Mount, forms one lengthy teaching by Jesus. The chapter divisions cause needless confusion here. A title could help the reader understand that these chapters form one section or unit. The translator should be aware that there is some question about the teaching applies to Israel, the church or the future kingdom of God.

5:3-10, known as the Beatitudes or Blessings, has been set apart by using indentation, with each line beginning with the word “blessed.” This indentation highlights the poetic form of this teaching.

Special concepts in this chapter

“His disciples”

It is possible to refer to anyone who followed Jesus as a follower or disciple. Jesus selected twelve of his followers to become his inner circle, the twelve disciples. They would later become known as the apostles. It may have significance that this teaching was for the twelve apostles.

Matthew 5:1-4UDB:

¹ When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mount. He sat down there and taught his followers. They came near to him to listen to him. ² Then he began to teach them by saying,

³ "God is pleased with people who admit that they need him;
he will agree to rule over them from heaven.

⁴ God is pleased with people who mourn because of this sinful world;
he will encourage them.

ULB:

⁵ ¹ When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. ² He opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

³ "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- bless, blessed, blessing
- spirit, spiritual
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story in which Jesus begins to teach his disciples. This part continues through the end of chapter 7 and is frequently called the Sermon on the Mount.
- General Information: - In verse 3, Jesus begins to describe the characteristics of people who are blessed.
- He opened his mouth - This is an idiom. AT: "Jesus began to speak" (See: Idiom)
- taught them - The word "them" refers to his disciples.
- the poor in spirit - This means someone who is humble. AT: "those who know they need God" (See: Idiom)

- for theirs is the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “for God in heaven will be their king” (See: Metonymy)
- those who mourn - Possible reasons they are sad are 1) the sinfulness of the world or 2) their own sins or 3) the death of someone. Do not specify the reason for mourning unless your language requires it.
- they will be comforted - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will comfort them” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 5:5-8UDB:

⁵ God is pleased with people who are humble;

they will inherit the earth that God will make new.

⁶ God is pleased with people who desire to live righteously just as someone might wish to eat and drink;

he will make them able to live righteously.

⁷ God is pleased with people who act mercifully toward others;

he will act mercifully toward them.

⁸ God is pleased with people who try to do only that which pleases him;

some day they will be where God is and will see him.

ULB:

⁵ Blessed are the meek,

for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷ Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

⁸ Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

translationWords:

- bless, blessed, blessing
- meek, meekness
- inherit, inheritance, heritage, heir
- righteous, righteousness
- mercy, merciful
- pure, purify, purification
- heart
- God

translationNotes:

- the meek - “the gentle” or “those who do not rely on their own power”
- they will inherit the earth - “God will give them the entire earth”
- hunger and thirst for righteousness - This metaphor means a person should strongly desire to do what is right. AT: “desire to live right as much as they desire food and drink” (See: Metaphor)
- they will be filled - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will fill them” or “God will satisfy them” (See: Active or Passive)
- the pure in heart - “people whose hearts are pure.” Here “heart” refers to a person’s desire. AT: “those who only want to serve God” (See: Metonymy)
- they will see God - Here “see” means they will be able to live in God’s presence. AT: “God will allow them to live with him”

Matthew 5:9-10UDB:

⁹ God is pleased with people who help other people to live peacefully;

he will regard them as his own children.

¹⁰ God is pleased with people who live righteously; and he is honored when their righteous lives are the reason why evil people insult and treat them badly.

God rules over these righteous people from heaven.

ULB:

⁹ Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰ Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

translationWords:

- bless, blessed, blessing
- peace, peaceful
- sons of God
- persecute, persecution
- righteous, righteousness
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- the peacemakers - These are the people who help others to have peace with one another.
- for they will be called sons of God - This can be stated in active form. AT: “for God will call them his children” or “they will be children of God” (See: Active or Passive)
- sons of God - It is best to translate “sons” with the same word your language would naturally use to refer to a human son or child.
- those who have been persecuted - This can be stated in active form. AT: “those people whom others treat unfairly” (See: Active or Passive)
- for righteousness' sake - “because they do what God wants them to do”
- theirs is the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “for God in heaven will be their king.” See how you translated this in 5:3. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 5:11-12

UDB:

¹¹ God is pleased with you when other people insult you, and he is honored when they do evil things to you and when they tell lies about you, saying that you are evil because you believe in me. ¹² When that happens, rejoice and be glad, because God will give you a great reward in heaven. Remember, that is how they persecuted the prophets who lived long ago.

ULB:

¹¹ Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil things against you falsely for my sake. ¹² Rejoice and be very glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For in this way people persecuted the prophets who lived before you.

translationWords:

- bless, blessed, blessing
- persecute, persecution
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- rejoice
- reward
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes describing the characteristics of people who are blessed.
- Blessed are you - The word “you” is plural. (See: Forms of You)
- say all kinds of evil things against you falsely - “say all kinds of evil lies about you” or “say bad things about you that are not true”
- for my sake - “because you follow me” or because you believe in me”
- Rejoice and be very glad - “Rejoice” and “be very glad” mean almost the same thing. Jesus wanted his hearers not merely to rejoice but to do even more than rejoice if possible. (See: Doublet)

Matthew 5:13-14

UDB:

¹³ What salt does for food, this is what you will do for the world. But if salt loses its power, no one can make it good again. People just throw it out and walk over it. ¹⁴ What light does for people in the dark, this is what you will do for the world. All people will see you, just as they see a city built on a hillside.

ULB:

¹³ You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt has lost its taste, how can it be made salty again? It is never again good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. ¹⁴ You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.

translationWords:

- light

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about how his disciples are like salt and light.
- You are the salt of the earth - Possible meanings are 1) just as salt makes food good, a disciple of Jesus must influence the people of the world so that they will be good. AT: "You are like salt for the people of the world" or 2) just as salt preserves food, a disciple of Jesus must keep people from becoming totally corrupt. AT: "As salt is for food, you are for the world" (See: Metaphor).
- if the salt has lost its taste - Possible meanings are 1) "if the salt has lost its power to do things that salt does" (UDB) or 2) "if the salt has lost its flavor." (See: Metaphor)
- how can it be made salty again? - "how can it be made useful again?" Jesus uses a question to teach the disciples. AT: "there is no way for it to become useful again" (See: Rhetorical Question and Metaphor)
- except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet - This can be stated in active form. AT: "except for people to throw it out into the road and walk on it" (See: Active or Passive)
- You are the light of the world - This means Jesus' followers bring the message of God's truth to all the people who do not know God. AT: "You are like a light for the people of the world" (See: Metaphor)
- A city set on a hill cannot be hidden - At night when it is dark, people can see the city lights shining. This can be stated in active form. AT: "During the night, no one can hide the lights that shine from a city on a hill" or "Everyone sees the lights of a city on a hill" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

Matthew 5:15-16

UDB:

¹⁵ After people light a lamp, they never put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on a lampstand in their houses in order that it can shine on everyone there. ¹⁶ Similarly, you need to do what is right in such a way that other people can see what you do. When they see it, they will praise your Father who is in heaven.”

ULB:

¹⁵ Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather on the lampstand, and it shines for everyone in the house. ¹⁶ Let your light shine before people in such a way that they see your good deeds and praise your Father who is in heaven.

translationWords:

- light
- lamp
- lampstand
- works, deeds, work, acts
- praise
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- Neither do people light a lamp - “People do not light a lamp”
- put it under a basket - “place the lamp under a basket.” This is saying it is foolish to create light only to hide it so people do not see the light of the lamp.
- Let your light shine before people - This means a disciple of Jesus should live in such a way that others can learn about God’s truth. AT: “Let your lives be like a light that shines before people” (See: Metaphor)
- your Father who is in heaven - It is best to translate “Father” with the same word your language would naturally use to refer to a human father.

Matthew 5:17-18UDB:

¹⁷ "You should not suppose that I have come to you in order to do away with the laws that God gave Moses or what the prophets wrote. Instead, I came to cause to happen what those things said would happen. ¹⁸ This is a true saying: God may remove the heaven and the earth, but God will not remove anything from those laws, not even the smallest details or a tiny dot used to end a sentence, until God makes everything he put in the law happen, just as he said it would.

ULB:

¹⁷ Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets. I have come not to destroy them, but to fulfill them. ¹⁸ For truly I say to you that until heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things have been accomplished.

translationWords:

- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- fulfill
- amen, truly
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about how he has come to fulfill the Old Testament law.
- the prophets - This refers to what the prophets wrote in the scriptures. (See: Metonymy)
- truly I say to you - "I tell you the truth." This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- until heaven and earth pass away - Here "heaven" and "earth" refer to the entire universe. AT: "as long as the universe lasts" (See: Merism)
- not one jot or one tittle - "not even the smallest written letter or the smallest part of a letter. This is a metaphor referring to something in the scriptures that may not seem to be important. AT: "not even the laws that seem unimportant" (See: Metaphor)
- all things have been accomplished - This can be stated in active form. AT: "all things have happened" or "God causes all things to happen" (See: Active or Passive)
- all things - The phrase "all things" refers to everything in the law. AT: "everything in the law" or "all that is written in the law" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 5:19-20UDB:

¹⁹ Because that is true, if you break the commands that are the least important, you will be the least important person under God's rule from heaven. But if you keep all those commands and teach others to obey God as you are obeying him, you will become very important in God's rule from heaven. ²⁰ I tell you that you must obey those laws better than the teachers of the law, and you must do what is right from your heart. And you must do better than the Pharisees or you will never come under the rule of God from heaven.

ULB:

¹⁹ Therefore whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I say to you that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will in no way enter the kingdom of heaven.

translationWords:

- command, to command, commandment
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- righteous, righteousness
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee

translationNotes:

- whoever breaks - "whoever disobeys" or "whoever ignores"
- the least one of these commandments - "any of these commandments, even the least important one"
- will be called - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will call that person" or "God will call them" (See: Active or Passive)
- least in the kingdom of heaven - The phrase "kingdom of heaven" refers to God's rule as king. This phrase is found only in Matthew. If possible use "heaven" in your translation. AT: "the least important in his heavenly kingdom" or "the least important under the rule of our God in heaven" (See: Metonymy)
- keeps them and teaches them - "obeys all these commandments and teaches others to do the same"
- great - "most important"
- For I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- you ... your ... you - These are plural. (See: Forms of You)

- that unless your righteousness exceeds ... you will in no way enter - This can be stated in a positive form. AT: “that your righteousness must exceed ... in order to enter” (See: Double Negatives)

If you say to someone, 'You are worthless,' a governing council will judge you. If you say to someone, 'You are a fool,' God will throw you into the fire in hell.

ULB:

²¹ You have heard that it was said to them in ancient times, 'Do not kill,' and, 'Whoever kills will be in danger of the judgment.' ²² But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'You worthless person!' will be in danger of the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of hell.

translationWords:

- judge, judgment
- brother
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- council
- fool, foolish, folly
- fire
- hell, lake of fire

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach about how he has come to fulfill the Old Testament law. Here he begins to speak about murder and anger.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The word "you" in "You have heard" and "I say to you" is plural. The command "You will not kill" is singular, but you may need to translate it as plural.
- it was said to them in ancient times - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God told our ancestors long ago" (See: Active or Passive)
- Whoever kills will be in danger of the judgment - Here "the judgment" implies that a judge will condemn the person to die. AT: "A judge will condemn anyone who kills another person" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- kill ... kills - This word refers to murder, not to all forms of killing.
- But I say - The "I" is emphatic. This indicates that what Jesus says is equally important to the original commands from God. Try to translate this phrase in a way that shows that emphasis.

- brother - This refers to a fellow believer, not to a literal brother or a neighbor.
- will be in danger of the judgment - It seems here Jesus is not referring to a human judge but rather to God condemning the person who is angry with his brother. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- worthless person ... fool - These are insults for people who cannot think correctly. “Worthless person” is close to “brainless,” where “fool” adds the idea of disobedience to God.
- council - This was likely a local council, not the main Sanhedrin in Jerusalem.

ULB:

²⁵ Agree with your accuser quickly while you are with him on the way to court, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. ²⁶ Truly I say to you, you will never come out from there until you have paid the last bit of money you owe.

translationWords:

- accuse, accusation, accuser
- hand, right hand, to hand over
- judge
- prison, prisoner, imprison
- amen, truly

translationNotes:

- Agree with your - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All occurrences of “you” and “your” are singular, but your language may require you to translate them as plurals. (See: Forms of You)
- your accuser - This is a person who blames someone for doing something wrong. He takes the wrongdoer to court to accuse him before a judge.
- may hand you over to the judge - Here “hand you over” means to give someone into the control of someone else. AT: “will let the judge deal with you” (See: Idiom)
- the judge may hand you over to the officer - Here “hand you over” means to give someone into the control of someone else. AT: “the judge will give you over to the officer” (See: Idiom)
- officer - a person who has authority to carry out the decisions of a judge
- you may be thrown into prison - This can be stated in active form. AT: “the officer might put you in prison” (See: Active or Passive)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

ULB:

²⁹ If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your body parts should perish than that your whole body should be thrown into hell. ³⁰ If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your body parts should perish than that your whole body should go into hell.

translationWords:

- stumbling block, stone of stumbling
- perish, perishing, perishable
- hell, lake of fire

translationNotes:

- If your - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All instances of “you” and “your” are singular, but you may have to translate them as plurals. (See: Forms of You)
- If your right eye causes you to stumble - Here “eye” refers to what a person sees. And, “stumble” is a metaphor for “sin.” AT: “if what you see causes you to stumble” or “if you want to sin because of what you see” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)
- right eye ... right hand - This means the most important eye or hand, as opposed to the left eye or hand. You may need to translate “right” as “better” or “stronger.” (See: Idiom)
- pluck it out - “forcefully remove it” or “destroy it.” If the right eye is not specifically mentioned, you may need to translate this “destroy your eyes.” If eyes have been mentioned, you may need to translate this “destroy them.”
- pluck it out ... cut it off - Jesus is exaggerating about how a person should respond to their sin to emphasize how serious he is. (See: Hyperbole)
- throw it away from you - “get rid of it”

- one of your body parts should perish - “you should lose one part of your body”
- than that your whole body should be thrown into hell - This can be stated in active form. AT: “than for God to throw your whole body into hell” (See: Active or Passive)
- If your right hand causes - In this metonymy, the hand stands for the actions of the whole person. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 5:31-32

UDB:

³¹ "God has said in the scriptures, 'If a man is divorcing his wife, he should write a document on which he states that he is divorcing her.' ³² But now listen to what I say to you: a man may divorce his wife only if she has committed adultery. If a man divorces his wife for any other reason, she commits adultery if she marries someone else. And the man who marries her also commits adultery."

ULB:

³¹ It was also said, 'Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' ³² But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress. Whoever marries her after she has been divorced commits adultery.

translationWords:

- divorce
- sexual immorality
- adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach about how he has come to fulfill the Old Testament law. Here he begins to speak about divorce.
- It was also said - God is the one who "said." Jesus uses the passive here to make it plain that it is not God or God's word that he disagrees with. Rather, he is saying that a divorce is just only if it occurs for the right reason. A divorce can be unjust even if the man obeys the command to give a written notice. (See: Active or Passive)
- sends his wife away - This is a euphemism for divorce. (See: Euphemism)
- let him give - "he must give"
- But I say - The "I" is emphatic. This indicates that what Jesus says is equally important to the original commands from God. Try to translate this phrase in a way that shows that emphasis. See how you translated this in 5:22.
- makes her an adulteress - It is the man who divorces the woman improperly who "causes her to commit adultery." In many cultures it would be normal for her to remarry, but if the divorce is improper, such a remarriage is adultery.
- her after she has been divorced - This can be stated in active form. AT: "her after her husband has divorced her" or "the divorced woman" (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 5:33-35

UDB:

³³ "You have also heard that long ago people were told, 'You should never swear an oath by making up a lie! Instead, you should make your promises as you would if the Lord himself were standing before you.' ³⁴ But now I will say to you something more: Do not swear an oath for any reason! Do not ask the place where God lives in heaven to guarantee what you promised. That is where his great seat of power is and from where he rules over all things. ³⁵ And do not swear any oath on the promise that the earth would witness it. Do not do this, because the earth is where God rests his feet. Never swear an oath by the city of Jerusalem, because Jerusalem is the city that belongs to God, our great King.

ULB:

³³ Again, you have heard that it was said to those in ancient times, 'Do not swear a false oath, but carry out your oaths to the Lord.' ³⁴ But I say to you, swear not at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵ nor by the earth, for it is the footstool for his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

translationWords:

- oath, swear, swear by
- throne
- God
- footstool
- Jerusalem
- king

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach about how he has come to fulfill the Old Testament law. Here he begins to speak about swearing oaths.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The "you" in "you have heard" and "I say to you" are plural. The "you" in "you will not swear" and "you will carry" are singular.
- Again, you - "Also, you" or "Here is another example. You"
- you have heard that it was said ... false oath - Jesus makes it plain here that he agrees with God and his word. But, he is telling his hearers not to use what does not belong to them to try to make people believe their words. AT: "your religious leaders have said to you that God told ... false oath" (See: Active or Passive)

- Do not swear a false oath, but carry out your oaths - Possible meanings are 1) do not swear to the Lord that you will do something then not do it, or 2) do not swear by the Lord that you know something to be true when you know that it is not true.
- But I say - The “I” is emphatic. This indicates that what Jesus says is equally important to the original commands from God. Try to translate this phrase in a way that shows that emphasis. See how you translated this in 5:22.
- swear not at all ... city of the great King - Here Jesus means a person should not swear on anything. It seems some were teaching that it was less offensive if a person did not keep an oath if they swore by something other than God, such as swearing by heaven, earth, or Jerusalem. Jesus says this is just as bad because they all belong to God.
- swear not at all - If your language has a plural form for commands, use it here. “You will not swear a false oath” allows the hearer to swear but forbids false oaths. “Swear not at all” forbids all oaths.
- it is the throne of God - Here “throne” refers to God’s rule as king. AT: “it is from here that God rules” (See: Metonymy)
- it is the footstool for his feet - This metaphor means the earth also belongs to God. AT: “it is like a footstool where a king rests his feet” (See: Metaphor)
- for it is the city of the great King - “for it is the city that belongs to God, the great king”

UDB:

³⁶ Also, do not promise that you will do something and then say that they should cut off your head if you do not do it. How could you promise something so important, when you are not even able to change the color of one hair on your head. ³⁷ If you talk about doing something, just say 'Yes, I will do it,' or 'No, I will not do it.' If you say anything more than that, it is Satan, the Evil One, who has suggested that you talk this way."

ULB:

³⁶ Neither swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your speech be, 'Yes, yes,' or 'No, no.' Anything that is more than this is from the evil one.

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Previously Jesus told his hearers that God's throne, footstool, and earthly home are not theirs to swear by. Here he says that they may not swear even by their own heads.
- your ... you - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All occurrences of these words are singular, but you may have to translate them as plurals. (See: Forms of You)
- swear - This refers to taking an oath. See how you translated this in 5:34.

Instead, if someone insults you by striking you on one cheek, turn your other cheek toward that person so he can strike it also.

ULB:

³⁸ You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹ But I say to you, do not resist one who is evil. Instead, whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.

translationWords:

- evil, wicked, wickedness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach about how he has come to fulfill the Old Testament law. Here he begins to speak about retaliating against an enemy.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The word "you" in "You have heard" and "I say to you" is plural. The phrase "whoever strikes you" is addressed to singular "you," but you may have to translate it as plural "you." (See: Forms of You)
- You have heard that it was said - Jesus agrees with God and his word. But, he does not agree with the way the religious leaders had applied God's word. This can be stated in active form. AT: "Your religious leaders have told you that God said." See how you translated this in 5:33. (See: Active or Passive)
- eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth - The law of Moses allowed a person to harm a person in the same way he had harmed him, but he could not harm him worse.
- But I say - The "I" is emphatic. This indicates that what Jesus says is equally important to the original commands from God. Try to translate this phrase in a way that shows that emphasis. See how you translated this in 5:22.
- one who is evil - "an evil person" or "someone who harms you" (UDB)
- strikes ... your right cheek - To strike the side of a man's face was an insult in Jesus' culture. As with the eye and the hand, the right cheek is the more important one, and striking that cheek was a terrible insult.
- strikes - "slaps." This means hitting someone with the back of an open hand.

- turn to him the other also - “let him hit your other cheek also”

ULB:

⁴⁰ If anyone wishes to go to court with you and takes away your coat, let that person also have your cloak. ⁴¹ Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to anyone who asks you, and do not turn away from anyone who wishes to borrow from you.

translationWords:

- courtyard, court

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All “you” and “your” are singular, as are the commands “let,” “go,” “give,” and “do not turn away,” but you may have to translate them as plurals. (See: Forms of You)
- coat ... cloak - The “coat” was worn close to the body, like a heavy shirt or a sweater. The “cloak,” the more valuable of the two, was worn over the “coat” for warmth and also used as a blanket for warmth at night.
- let that person also have - “give also to that person”
- Whoever - “If someone.” It is implied that this is a Roman soldier. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- one mile - This is one thousand paces, which is the distance a Roman soldier could legally force someone to carry something for him. If “mile” is confusing, it can be translated as “one kilometer” or “a far distance.”
- with him - This refers to the one who compels you to go.
- go with him two - “go the mile he forces you to go, then go another mile.” If “mile” is confusing, you can translate it as “two kilometers” or “twice as far.”
- and do not turn away from - “and do not refuse to lend to.” This can be stated in a positive form. AT: “and lend to”

translationWords:

- neighbor
- pray, prayer
- persecute, persecution
- son, son of
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- good, goodness
- righteous, righteousness
- unjust, unjustly, injustice

Matthew 6 General Notes

Structure and Formatting

Matthew 6 continues Jesus' extended teaching known as "The Sermon on the Mount."

The translator may wish to set apart the prayer in 6:9-11 by using indentation. Since this chapter quickly shifts from one topic to another, it is possible to use a line of space between topic to distinguish between them more easily.

Matthew 6:1-2UDB:

¹ "Make certain when you do good deeds do not do them to let other people watch so they will think highly of you. God, your Father who is in heaven, will not give you any reward. ² So whenever you give something to the poor, do not make other people notice it as if playing a trumpet. That is what the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the main roads in order that people might praise them. That is the only reward the hypocrites will receive!

ULB:

6 ¹ Take heed that you do not do your acts of righteousness before people to be seen by them, or else you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. ² So when you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may have the praise of people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward.

translationWords:

- righteous, righteousness
- reward
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- alms
- trumpet
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- synagogue
- praise
- amen, truly
- receive

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach his disciples in his Sermon on the Mount, which began in 5:3. In this section, Jesus addresses the "acts of righteousness" of alms, prayer, and fasting.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All "you" and "your" are plural.
- before people to be seen by them - It is implied that those who see the person will honor him. This can be stated in active form. AT: "in front of people just so that they can see you and give you honor for what you have done" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- do not sound a trumpet before yourself - This metaphor means to do something that purposefully gets people's attention. AT: "do not draw attention to yourself like someone who plays a loud trumpet in a crowd" (See: Metaphor)
- Truly I say to you - "I tell you the truth." This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

That is the only reward they will get. ⁶ But as for you, when you pray, go into your private room and close the door in order to pray to God, your Father, whom no one can see. He observes you and will reward you. ⁷ When you pray, do not repeat words many times as the people who do not know God do when they pray. They think that if they use many words, their gods will listen to them and give them what they ask for.

ULB:

⁵ When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners, so that they may be seen by people. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward. ⁶ But you, when you pray, enter your inner chamber. Shut the door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. Then your Father who sees in secret will reward you. ⁷ When you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

translationWords:

- pray, prayer
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- synagogue
- amen, truly
- receive
- reward
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- Gentile

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about prayer.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All "you" and "your" in verses 5 and 7 are plural; in verse 6 they are singular, but you may have to translate them as plural. (See: Forms of You)
- so that they may be seen by people - It is implied that those who see them will give them honor. This can be stated in active form. AT: "so that people will see them and give them honor" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)
- Truly I say to you - "I tell you the truth." This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

- enter your inner chamber. Shut the door - “go to a private place” or “go where you can be alone”
- Father who is in secret - Possible meanings are 1) no one can see God, or 2) God is in that private place with the person praying.
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- your Father who sees in secret - “your Father will see what you do in private and”

Matthew 6:16-18

UDB:

¹⁶ When you keep from eating food in order to please God, do not look sad as the hypocrites look. They make their faces appear sad in order that people will see that they are not eating food. Keep in mind that is the only reward those people will get! ¹⁷ Instead, each of you, when you keep from eating food, should comb your hair and wash your face as usual, ¹⁸ in order that other people will not notice that you are fasting. But God, your Father, whom no one can see, will observe that you are not eating food. He sees you even though no one else sees you, and he will reward you.

ULB:

¹⁶ Moreover, when you fast, do not have a mournful face as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces so that they may appear to people as fasting. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward. ¹⁷ But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸ so that it would not appear to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret, will reward you.

translationWords:

- fast
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- amen, truly
- receive
- reward
- anoint, anointed
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about fasting.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All occurrences of “you” and “your” in verses 17 and 18 are singular, but you may want to translate them as plural to match the plural “you” in verse 16. (See: Forms of You)
- Moreover - “Also”
- they disfigure their faces - The hypocrites would not wash their faces or comb their hair. They did this purposely to draw attention to themselves so that people would see them and give them honor for fasting.
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

- anoint your head - “put oil in your hair” or “groom your hair.” To “anoint” the head here is to take normal care of one’s hair. It has nothing to do with “Christ” meaning “anointed one.” Jesus means that people should look the same whether they are fasting or not.
- Father who is in secret - Possible meanings are 1) no one can see God, or 2) God is in that private place with the person praying. See how you translated this in 6:6.
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- who sees in secret - “who sees what you do in private.” See how you translated this in 6:6.

Matthew 6:19-21

UDB:

¹⁹ Do not selfishly accumulate large quantities of money and material goods for yourselves on this earth, because the earth is where everything perishes where moths ruin clothing, rust destroys metals, and thieves steal what belongs to other people. ²⁰ Instead, do deeds that will please God so that you store up treasures in heaven. Nothing perishes in heaven. In heaven no moths can ruin clothing, there is no rust, and there are no thieves who could steal. ²¹ Remember that whatever is most important to you, that is what you will be thinking about.

ULB:

¹⁹ Do not store up for yourselves treasures on the earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰ Instead, store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹ For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

translationWords:

- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- heart

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about money and possessions.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of “you” and “your” are plural, except in verse 21, where they are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- treasures - “riches”
- where moth and rust destroy - “where moth and rust ruin treasures”
- moth - a small, flying insect that destroys cloth
- rust - a brown substance that forms on metals
- store up for yourselves treasures in heaven - This is a metaphor that means do good things on earth so God will reward you in heaven. (See: Metaphor)
- there will your heart be also - Here “heart” means a person’s thoughts and interests. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 6:22-24UDB:

²² "Your eyes are like a lamp for your body, because they enable you to see things. So if you see things as God sees them, it will be as if your whole body were full of light. ²³ But if your eyes are bad, you are not able to see things well. You will be in complete darkness. How greedy you will be!

²⁴ "No one is able to serve two different masters at the same time. If he tried to do that, he would hate one of them and love the other one, or he would be loyal to one of them and despise the other one. Similarly, you cannot worship God and money at the same time."

ULB:

²² The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore, if your eye is good, the whole body is filled with light.

²³ But if your eye is bad, your whole body is full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is actually darkness, how great is that darkness! ²⁴ No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

translationWords:

- lamp
- light
- darkness
- serve, service
- lord, master, sir

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of "you" and "your" are all singular, but you may need to translate them as plurals. (See: Forms of You)
- The eye is the lamp of the body ... how great is that darkness - This compares healthy eyes that allow a person to see to diseased eyes that cause a person to be blind. This is a metaphor referring to spiritual health. Often Jewish people used the phrase "bad eye" to refer to greed. The meaning is: if a person is completely devoted to God and sees things the way he does, then they are doing what is right. If a person is greedy for more, then he is doing what is evil. (See: Metaphor)
- The eye is the lamp of the body - This metaphor means the eyes allow a person to see just as a lamp helps a person see in the dark. AT: "Like a lamp, the eye allows you to see things clearly" (See: Metaphor)

- eye - You may have to translate this as plural, “eyes.”
- if your eye is bad - This does not refer to magic. Jewish people often used this as a metaphor for someone who is greedy. (See: Metaphor)
- for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other - Both of these phrases mean basically the same thing. They emphasize that a person cannot love and be devoted both to God and money at the same time. (See: Parallelism)
- You cannot serve God and wealth - “You cannot love God and money at the same time”

Matthew 6:25-26

UDB:

²⁵ That is why I tell you that you should not worry about things that you need in order to live. Do not worry about whether you will have enough food to eat and things to drink, or enough clothes to wear. The way you conduct your lives is much more important than those things. ²⁶ Think about the birds. They do not plant seeds, and they do not harvest crops or gather produce into barns. They always have food to eat because God, your Father who is in heaven, provides food for them.

ULB:

²⁵ Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink—or about your body, what you will wear. For is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? ²⁶ Look at the birds in the air. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not more valuable than they are?

translationWords:

- sow, sower, plant
- reap, reaper
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the instances of “you” and “your” are all plural. (See: Forms of You)
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- to you - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals.
- is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. AT: “obviously life is more than what you eat, and your body is more than what you wear” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- barns - places to store crops
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

Matthew 6:27-29UDB:

²⁷ None of you can, just by worrying, add years to your life. You cannot add even one minute to your life! So you should not worry about things you need.

²⁸ You should also not worry about whether you will have enough clothes to wear. Think about the way flowers grow in the fields. They do not work to earn money, and they do not make their own clothes. ²⁹ But I tell you that even though King Solomon, who lived long ago, wore very beautiful clothes, his clothes were not as beautiful as one of those flowers.

ULB:

²⁷ Which one of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his lifespan? ²⁸ Why are you anxious about clothing? Think about the lilies in the fields, how they grow. They do not work, and they do not spin cloth. ²⁹ Yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.

translationWords:

- Solomon
- glory, glorious

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. All instances of “you” and “your” are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- Which one of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his lifespan? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. AT: “None of you can, just by worrying, add years to your life. You cannot add even one minute to your life! So you should not worry about things you need.” (UDB) (See: Rhetorical Question)
- one cubit - A cubit is a measure of a little less than half a meter. Here it is a metaphor for adding time to how long a person will live. (See: Biblical Distance and Metaphor)
- Why are you anxious about clothing? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. AT: “You should not be worried about what you will wear.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Think about - “Consider”
- lilies - a kind of wild flower (See: Translate Unknowns)
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- was not clothed like one of these - This can be stated in active form. AT: “did not wear clothes that are as beautiful as these lilies” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 6:30-31

UDB:

³⁰ God makes the wild plants very beautiful, but they grow in the field for only a short time. One day they grow, and the next day people will throw them into an oven to burn them. But you are more important to God than wild plants are, and you live much longer. So trust in God, you who have so little faith! ³¹ So do not worry and say, ‘Will we have anything to eat?’ or ‘Will we have anything to drink?’ or ‘Will we have clothes to wear?’

ULB:

³⁰ If God so clothes the grass in the fields, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you of little faith? ³¹ Therefore do not be anxious and say, ‘What will we eat?’ or, ‘What will we drink?’ or, ‘What clothes will we wear?’

translationWords:

- God
- faith

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of “you” and “your” are plural.
- so clothes the grass - This is a metaphor that means God makes the flowers beautiful. (See: Metaphor)
- grass - If your language has a word that includes “grass” and the word you used for “lilies” in the previous verse, you can use it here.
- is thrown into the oven - The Jews at that time used grass in their fires to cook their food. This can be stated in active form. AT: “someone throws it into a fire” or “someone burns it” (See: Active or Passive)
- how much more will he clothe you ... faith? - Jesus is using a question to teach the people. AT: “he will certainly clothe you ... faith” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- you of little faith - “you who have such little faith.” Jesus is scolding the people because they have little faith in God.
- Therefore - “Because of all of this”

³² Those who do not know God are always worrying about things like that. But God, your Father who is in heaven, knows that you need all those things. ³³ Instead, make it the most important thing that God should rule over the entire world and that everyone should do what he requires. If you do that, he will give you all the things that you need. ³⁴ So do not be worried about what will happen to you the next day, because when that day comes, you will have enough to be concerned about. So do not worry ahead of time.”

ULB:

³² For the Gentiles search for these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. ³³ But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you. ³⁴ Therefore, do not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. translationWords:

- Gentile
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- righteous, righteousness
- evil, wicked, wickedness

translationNotes:

- For the Gentiles search for these things - “for the Gentiles are concerned about what they will eat, drink, and wear”
- your heavenly Father knows that you need them - Jesus is implying that God will make sure their basic needs are met.
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- seek first his kingdom and his righteousness - Here “kingdom” refers to God’s rule as king. AT: “concern yourselves with serving God, who is your king, and doing what is right” (See: Metonymy)
- all these things will be given to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will provide all these things for you” (See: Active or Passive)
- Therefore - “Because of all this”
- tomorrow will be anxious for itself - Jesus is describing “tomorrow” as if it is a person who can worry. Jesus means that a person will have enough to worry about when the next day comes. (See: Personification)

Matthew 7 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Since this chapter shifts quickly from one topic to another, it is possible to use a line of space between topic to distinguish between the more easily.

Special concepts in this chapter

Matthew 5-7

Matthew 5-7 together form one sermon or teaching by Jesus. The chapter divisions causes confusion here.

“By their fruits you will know them”

Fruit is a common image in the scriptures. It is used to describe the results of either good or bad behavior. In this chapter, good fruit is the result of living as God commands. (See: fruit, fruitful)

Matthew 7:1-2

UDB:

¹ Do not talk about how sinfully others have acted, in order that God will not say how sinfully you have acted. ² If you condemn other people, God will condemn you. To the same extent that you condemn others, you will be condemned.

ULB:

7 ¹ Do not judge, and you will not be judged. ² For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure that you measure, it will be measured out to you.

translationWords:

- judge, judgment

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach his disciples in his Sermon on the Mount, which began in 5:3.
- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of “you” and the commands are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- Do not judge - It is implied here that “judge” has the strong meaning of “condemn harshly” or “declare guilty.” AT: “Do not condemn people harshly” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- you will not be judged - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will not condemn you harshly” (See: Active or Passive)
- For - Be sure the reader understands the statement in 7:2 is based on what Jesus said in 7:1.
- with the judgment you judge, you will be judged - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will condemn you in the same way you condemn others” (See: Active or Passive)
- measure - Possible meanings are 1) this is the amount of punishment given or 2) this is the standard used for judgment.
- it will be measured out to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will measure it out to you” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 7:3-5

UDB:

³ None of you should be concerned about someone else's small faults! That would be like noticing a speck of straw in that person's eye. But you should be concerned about your own big faults because you do not notice a huge wooden plank in your own eye. ⁴ You should not say to other people about their minor faults, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye!' while you still have a wooden plank in your own eye. ⁵ If you do that, you are a hypocrite! You should first remove the plank out of your own eye before trying to get the speck out of someone else's eye."

ULB:

³ Why do you look at the tiny piece of straw that is in your brother's eye, but you do not notice the log that is in your own eye? ⁴ How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the piece of straw that is in your eye,' while the log is in your own eye? ⁵ You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the piece of straw that is in your brother's eye.

translationWords:

- brother
- hypocrite, hypocrisy

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of "you" and "your" are all singular, but you may need to translate them as plurals.
- Why do you look ... but you do not notice the log that is in your own eye? - Jesus uses this question to challenge the people to pay attention to their own sins before they pay attention to another person's sins. AT: "do not look ... but ignore the log that is in your own eye" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the tiny piece of straw that is in your brother's eye - This is a metaphor that refers to the less important faults of a fellow believer. (See: Metaphor)
- tiny piece of straw - "speck" (UDB) or "splinter" or "bit of dust." Use a word for the smallest thing that commonly falls into a person's eyes.
- brother - All occurrences of "brother" in 7:3-5 refer to a fellow believer, not to a literal brother or a neighbor.
- the log that is in your own eye - This is a metaphor for a person's most important faults. A log could not literally go into a person's eye. Jesus is emphasizing that a person should pay attention to his own more important faults before he deals with another person's less important faults. (See: Metaphor and Hyperbole)

- log - the largest part of a tree that someone has cut down
- How can you say ... your own eye? - Jesus asks this question to challenge the people to pay attention to their own sins before they pay attention to another person's sins. AT: "You should not say ... your own eye." (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULB:

⁶ Do not give what is holy to the dogs, and do not throw your pearls in front of the hogs. Otherwise they may trample them underfoot, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

translationWords:

- holy, holiness
- pig, swine, pork

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of "you" and "your" are all plural.
- dogs ... hogs - Jews considered these animals dirty, and God told the Jews not to eat them. They are metaphors for wicked people who do not value holy things. It would be best to translate these words literally. (See: Metaphor)
- pearls - These are similar to round, valuable stones or beads. They are a metaphor for the knowledge of God or precious things in general. (See: Metaphor)
- they may trample - "the pigs may trample"
- and then turn and tear - "and the dogs will then turn and tear"

Matthew 7:7-10

UDB:

⁷ "Keep asking God for what you need, and keep expecting him to give it to you. ⁸ For everyone who asks God for something, and who expects him to give it to him, will receive it.

⁹ If your son asked you for bread, no one among you would give him a stone, would he? ¹⁰ If your son asked you for a fish, no one among you would give him a snake, would he?

ULB:

⁷ Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸ For everyone who asks, receives; everyone who seeks, finds; and to the person who knocks, it will be opened. ⁹ Or which one of you, if his son asks for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

translationWords:

- son, son of
- bread

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of "you" and "your" are all plural. (See: Forms of You)
- Ask ... Seek ... Knock - These are metaphors for praying to God. The verb form shows that we are to keep praying until he answers. If your language has a form for continuing to do something over and over, use it here. (See: Metaphor)
- Ask - This means to request things from God. (UDB)
- it will be given to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will give you what you need" (See: Active or Passive)
- Seek - "Seek from God what you need"
- Knock - To knock on a door was a polite way to request that the person inside the house or room open the door. If knocking on a door is impolite or not done in your culture, use the word that describes how people politely ask for doors to be opened. AT: "Tell God you want him to open the door"
- it will be opened to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will open it for you" (See: Active or Passive)
- Or which one of you ... a stone? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. AT: "There is not one person among you ... a stone." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- a loaf of bread - This refers to food in general. AT: "some food" (See: Synecdoche)

- stone ... fish ... snake - These nouns should be translated literally.
- Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? - Jesus asks another question to teach the people. It is understood that Jesus is still referring to a man and his son. AT: “And there is not one person among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Ellipsis)

Matthew 7:11-12

UDB:

¹¹ You know how to give good things to your children, even though you are evil. So God, your Father who is in heaven, will even more certainly give good things to those who ask him.

¹² So in whatever way you want others to act toward you, that is the way you should act toward them, because that is the meaning of God's law and of everything that the prophets wrote long ago.

ULB:

¹¹ Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him? ¹² Therefore, whatever things you want people to do to you, you should also do to them, for this is the law and the prophets.

translationWords:

- evil, wicked, wickedness
- good, goodness
- gift
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus is talking to a group of people about what might happen to them as individuals. The instances of “you” and “your” are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- how much more will your Father in heaven give ... him? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. AT: “then your Father in heaven will most certainly give ... him” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- whatever things you want people to do to you - “whatever way you want others to act toward you” (UDB)
- for this is the law and the prophets - Here “law” and “prophets” refer to what Moses and the prophets wrote. AT: “for this is what Moses and the prophets teach in the scriptures” (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 7:13-14

UDB:

13-14 “Going to live forever with God in heaven is difficult; it is like a difficult road that you should take. There is another road, one that most people take. That road is wide; they walk on until they reach a wide gate, but when they go through it, they will die. So I am telling you to take the difficult road and enter the narrow gate to live forever with God in heaven.”

ULB:

¹³ Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many people who go through it. ¹⁴ But the gate is narrow and the way is difficult that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

translationWords:

- gate, gate bar
- life, live, living, alive

translationNotes:

- General Information: - When you translate, use appropriate words for “wide” and “broad” that are as different from “narrow” as possible in order to emphasize the differences between the two sets of gates and ways.
- Enter through the narrow gate ... few who find it - This is an image of a person traveling on a road and entering into a kingdom through a gate. One kingdom is easy to enter; the other is hard to enter. This is a metaphor that means a person must accept the more difficult life of obeying God to receive eternal life. If they choose an easier life of not obeying God, they will enter into hell. (See: Metaphor)
- Enter through the narrow gate - You may need to move this to the end of verse 14: “Therefore, enter through the narrow gate.”
- gate ... way - Possible meanings are 1) this refers to the gate to enter a kingdom and the road that leads to the gate. If so, you may want to reverse the order as in the UDB. Or, 2) the “gate” and “way” both refer to the entrance to the kingdom. If so, you do not need to change the order.
- to destruction ... to life - These abstract nouns can be translated with verbs. AT: “to the place where you will die ... to the place where you will live” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Matthew 7:15-17

UDB:

¹⁵ Watch out for people who come to you and say falsely that they are telling you what God has said. They are like wolves that have covered themselves with sheepskins to appear harmless but will attack you. ¹⁶ By seeing the fruit that plants produce you know what kind of plants they are. Thornbushes cannot produce grapes and thistles cannot produce figs, so no one thinks of picking grapes from thorns or figs from thistles. ¹⁷ Here is another example: all good fruit trees produce good fruit, but all rotten trees produce worthless fruit.

ULB:

¹⁵ Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but are truly ravenous wolves. ¹⁶ By their fruits you will know them. Do people gather grapes from a thornbush or figs from thistles? ¹⁷ In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but the bad tree produces bad fruit.

translationWords:

- false prophet
- sheep, ram, ewe
- wolf, wolves, wild dogs
- fruit, fruitful
- grape
- thorn, thistle
- fig

translationNotes:

- Beware of - "Be on guard against"
- who come to you in sheep's clothing but are truly ravenous wolves - This metaphor means false prophets will pretend like they are good and want to help you, but they are really evil and will do you harm. (See: Metaphor)
- By their fruits you will know them - This metaphor refers to a person's actions. AT: "Just as you know a tree by the fruit that grows on it, you will know false prophets by how they act" (See: Metaphor)
- Do people gather ... thistles? - Jesus uses a question to teach the people. The people would have known that the answer is no. AT: "People do not gather ... thistles." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- every good tree produces good fruit - Jesus continues to use the metaphor of fruit to refer to good prophets who produce good works or words. (See: Metaphor)
- the bad tree produces bad fruit - Jesus continues to use the metaphor of fruit to refer to bad prophets who produce evil works. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 7:18-20

UDB:

¹⁸ No good fruit tree produces worthless fruit, and no rotten tree produces good fruit. ¹⁹ Workers chop down and burn up all the trees that do not produce good fruit. ²⁰ By seeing what plants produce, you know what kind of plants they are. Similarly, when you see what the people who come to you do, you will know if they truly produce good or not.

ULB:

¹⁸ A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a bad tree produce good fruit. ¹⁹ Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ²⁰ So then, you will recognize them by their fruits.

translationWords:

- good, goodness
- fruit, fruitful

translationNotes:

- Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire - Jesus continues to use fruit trees as a metaphor to refer to false prophets. Here, he only states what will happen to the bad trees. It is implied that the same thing will happen to the false prophets. (See: Metaphor and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- is cut down and thrown into the fire - This can be stated in active form. AT: “a person will cut it down and burn it” (See: Active or Passive)
- you will recognize them by their fruits - The word “their” can refer to either the prophets or the trees. This metaphor implies that the fruit of trees and the deeds of prophets both reveal whether they are good or bad. If possible, translate this in a way so that it can refer to both trees and prophets. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 7:21-23UDB:

²¹ Even though many people habitually call me Lord, pretending that they have my authority, God will not agree to rule from heaven over some of them, because they do not do what he desires. My Father will agree to rule over only those who do what he wants. ²² On the day that God judges everyone, many people will say to me, ‘Lord, we spoke God’s message as your representatives! As your representatives we drove out demons from people! And as your representatives, many times we performed mighty deeds!’ ²³ Then I will publicly say to them, ‘I have never admitted that you belonged to me. Go away from me, you who do what is evil!’”

ULB:

²¹ Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²² Many people will say to me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, in your name drive out demons, and in your name do many mighty deeds?’ ²³ Then will I openly declare to them, ‘I never knew you! Get away from me, you evildoers!’

translationWords:

- Lord
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- will of God
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- name
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- works, deeds, work, acts
- declare, declaration
- evildoer

translationNotes:

- will enter into the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “will live with God in heaven when he shows himself to be king” (See: Metonymy)

- those who do the will of my Father who is in heaven - “whoever does what my Father in heaven desires”
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- in that day - Jesus said “that day” knowing his hearers would understand he was referring to the day of judgment. You should include “the day of judgment” only if your readers would not understand otherwise. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- did we not prophesy ... drive out demons ... do many mighty deeds? - The people use a question to emphasize that they did these things. AT: “we prophesied ... drove out demons ... did many mighty deeds” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- we - This “we” does not include Jesus. (See: Exclusive “We”)
- in your name - Here “name” means with the power and authority of Jesus. (See: Metonymy)
- mighty deeds - “miracles”
- I never knew you - This means the person does not belong to Jesus. AT: “You are not my follower” or “I have nothing to do with you” (See: Idiom)

UDB:

²⁴ So then, anyone who hears what I say and does what I command, will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. ²⁵ Even though the rain came down and the river flooded, and the winds blew and beat against that house, it did not fall down because it had been built on solid rock.

ULB:

²⁴ Therefore, everyone who hears my words and obeys them will be like a wise man who built his house upon a rock. ²⁵ The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall down, for it was built on the rock.

translationWords:

- word
- obey, obedient, obedience
- wise, wisdom
- flood

translationNotes:

- Therefore - “For that reason”
- my words - Here “words” refers to what Jesus says. (See: Metonymy)
- like a wise man who built his house upon a rock - Jesus compares those who obey his words to a person who builds his house where nothing can harm it. (See: Simile)
- rock - This is the bedrock below the topsoil and clay, not a large stone or boulder above the ground.
- it was built - This can be stated in active form. AT: “he built it” (See: Active or Passive)

So you should obey what I have told you.”

ULB:

²⁶ But everyone who hears my words and does not obey them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. ²⁷ The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew and struck that house. And it fell, and its destruction was complete.”

translationWords:

- word
- obey, obedient, obedience
- fool, foolish, folly
- flood

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the end of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which began in 5:3.
- like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand - Jesus continues the simile from the previous verse. He compares those who do not obey his words to foolish house-builders. Only a fool would build a house on a sandy place where rain, floods, and wind can sweep the sand away. (See: Simile)
- fell - Use the general word in your language that describes what happens when a house falls down.
- and its destruction was complete - The rain, floods, and wind completely destroyed the house.

- General Information: - These verses describe how the people in the crowds reacted to Jesus' teaching in the Sermon on the Mount. (See: End of Story)
- It came about that when - This phrase shifts the story from Jesus' teachings to what happened next. AT: "Then" or "After"
- were astonished by his teaching - It is clear in 7:29 that they were amazed not just at what Jesus taught but also the way he taught it. AT: "were amazed because of the way he taught"

Special concepts in this chapter

Miracles

Jesus' miracles in this chapter appear to indicate that he had authority over things beyond human control. They also show that worship of Jesus is the proper response to his deeds. (See: authority)

Matthew 8:1-3UDB:

¹ When Jesus went down from the hillside, large crowds followed him. ² After Jesus left the crowds, a man who had a skin disease came and knelt before him. He said to Jesus, “Lord, please heal me, because I know you are able to heal me if you are willing to.” ³ Then Jesus stretched out his hand and touched the man. He said to him, “I am willing to heal you, and I heal you now!” Immediately the man was healed from his sickness.

ULB:

8 ¹ When Jesus had come down from the hill, large crowds followed him. ² Behold, a leper came to him and bowed before him, saying, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.” ³ Jesus reached out his hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing. Be clean.” Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- leprosy, leper, leprous
- bow, bow down
- Lord
- clean, cleanse

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story that contains several accounts of Jesus healing people. This theme continues through 9:35. (See: Introduction of a New Event)
- When Jesus had come down from the hill, large crowds followed him - “After Jesus came down from the hill, a large crowd followed him.” The crowd may have included both people who had been with him on the mountain and people who had not been with him.
- Behold - The word “behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- a leper - “a man who had leprosy” or “a man who had a skin disease” (UDB)
- bowed before him - This is a sign of humble respect before Jesus. (See: Symbolic Action)
- if you are willing - “if you want to” or “if you desire.” The leper knew that Jesus had the power to heal him, but he did not know if Jesus would want to touch him.
- you can make me clean - Here “clean” means to be healed and to be able to live in the community again. AT: “you can heal me” or “please heal me” (UDB) (See: Idiom)
- Be clean - By saying this, Jesus healed the man. (See: Imperatives - Other Uses)

- Immediately - “Right away”
- he was cleansed of his leprosy - The result of Jesus saying “Be clean” was that the man was healed. This can be stated in active form. AT: “he was well” or “the leprosy left him” or “the leprosy ended” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 8:4

UDB:

⁴ Then Jesus said to him, “Make sure that now you do not report about my healing you to any one other than the priest. Then go to the temple in Jerusalem and give the offering that Moses commanded so people will know about it.”

ULB:

⁴ Jesus said to him, “See that you say nothing to any man. Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

translationWords:

- priest, priesthood
- gift
- Moses
- command, to command, commandment
- testimony, testify

translationNotes:

- to him - This refers to the man that Jesus just healed.
- say nothing to any man - “do not say anything to anyone” or “do not tell anyone I healed you”
- show yourself to the priest - Jewish law required that the person show his healed skin to the priest, who would then allow him or her to return to the community, to be with other people. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them - The law of Moses required that someone healed of leprosy give a thanksgiving offering to the priest. When the priest accepted the gift, people would know that the man had been healed. Lepers were ostracized, banned from the community, until they had proof of their healing. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- to them - This can possibly refer to 1) the priests or 2) all the people or 3) the critics of Jesus. If possible, use a pronoun that could refer to any of these groups. (See: Pronouns)

Matthew 8:5-7

UDB:

⁵ When Jesus went to the city of Capernaum, a Roman officer who commanded one hundred soldiers came to him. He begged Jesus to help him. ⁶ He said to him, “Lord, my servant is lying in bed at home and is paralyzed, and he has severe pain.” ⁷ Jesus said to him, “I will go to your house and heal him.”

ULB:

⁵ When Jesus had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him and asked him, ⁶ saying, “Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed and in terrible pain.” ⁷ Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

translationWords:

- Capernaum
- centurion
- Lord
- servant, slave, slavery
- heal, cure

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to a different time and place and tells of Jesus healing another person.
- came to him and asked him - Here “him” refers to Jesus.
- paralyzed - One who is unable to move because of disease or stroke.
- Jesus said to him - “Jesus said to the centurion”
- I will come and heal him - “I will come to your house and make your servant well”

Matthew 8:8-10

UDB:

⁸ But the officer said to him, "I am not worthy for you to come into my house. Instead, just say that my servant is healed, and he will be healed. ⁹ It is the same way with me. I am a soldier; I have to obey my commanders, and I also have soldiers that I command. When I say to one of them 'Go!' he goes. When I say to another 'Come!' he comes. When I say to my slave, 'Do this!' he does it." ¹⁰ When Jesus heard this, he marveled. He said to the crowd that was walking with him, "Listen to this: I have never before found anyone who trusts in me as much this non-Jewish man. Not even in Israel, where I would expect people to believe in me, have I found anyone who trusts so much in me!

ULB:

⁸ The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, only say the word and my servant will be healed. ⁹ For I also am a man who is placed under authority, and I have soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ¹⁰ When Jesus heard this, he was amazed and said to those who were following him, "Truly I say to you, I have not found anyone with such faith in Israel.

translationWords:

- centurion
- Lord
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- word
- heal, cure
- authority
- warrior, soldier
- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- amen, truly
- faith
- Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

translationNotes:

- under my roof - "my house" (See: Idiom)
- say the word - Here "word" represents a command. AT: "give the command" (See: Metonymy)

- will be healed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “will become well” (See: Active or Passive)
- who is placed under authority - This can be stated in active form. AT: “who is under the authority of someone else” (See: Active or Passive)
- under authority ... under me - To be “under” someone means to be less important and to obey the commands of someone more important. (See: Idiom)
- soldiers - “skilled fighters”
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- I have not found anyone with such faith in Israel - Jesus’ hearers would have thought that the Jews in Israel, who claim to be children of God, would have greater faith than anyone. Jesus is saying they are wrong and that the centurion’s faith was greater. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 8:11-13UDB:

¹¹ I tell you truly that many other non-Jewish people will believe in me also, and they will come from distant countries, including those far to the east and far to the west, and they will sit down to feast with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when God will rule from heaven over everything completely. ¹² But as for the Jews whom God intended to rule—he will throw them into hell, where there is total darkness. There they will weep because of their suffering, and they will grind their teeth because they will have severe pain.” ¹³ Then Jesus said to the officer, “Go home. What you believed will happen.” Then the officer went home and found out that his servant had become well at the exact time that Jesus told him that he would heal him.

ULB:

¹¹ I tell you, many will come from the east and the west, and they will recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.” ¹³ Jesus said to the centurion, “Go! As you have believed, so may it be done for you.” And the servant was healed at that very hour.

translationWords:

- Abraham, Abram
- Isaac
- Jacob, Israel
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- son, son of
- darkness
- gnash teeth, grind teeth
- centurion
- believe, believe in, belief
- hour

translationNotes:

- you - Here “you” is plural and refers to “those who were following him” in 8:10. (See: Forms of You)
- from the east and the west - Using the opposites “east” and “west” is a way of saying “everywhere.” AT: “from everywhere” or “from far away in every direction” (See: Merism)
- recline at the table - People in that culture would lie down beside the table while eating. This phrase indicates that all those at the table are family and close friends. The joy in the kingdom of God is frequently spoken of as if the people there were feasting. AT: “live as family and friends with” (See: Metonymy)

- in the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “when our God in heaven shows that he is king” (See: Metonymy)
- the sons of the kingdom will be thrown - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will throw the sons of the kingdom” (See: Active or Passive)
- the sons of the kingdom - The phrase “sons of” refers to those who belong to something, in this case the kingdom of God. There is also irony here because the “sons” will be thrown out while the strangers will be welcomed. AT: “those who should have allowed God to rule over them” (See: Idiom and Irony)
- the outer darkness - This expression refers to the eternal destiny of those who reject God. AT: “the dark place away from God” or “hell” (UDB) (See: Metonymy)
- weeping and grinding of teeth - This represents extreme sadness and suffering.
- so may it be done for you - This can be stated in active form. AT: “so I will do it for you” (See: Active or Passive)
- the servant was healed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Jesus healed the servant” (See: Active or Passive)
- at that very hour - “at the exact time Jesus said he would heal the servant”

ULB:

¹⁴ When Jesus had come into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. ¹⁵ Jesus touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and started serving him.

translationWords:

- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- serve, service

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to a different time and place and tells of Jesus healing another person.
- Jesus had come - The disciples were probably with Jesus, but the focus of the story is on what Jesus said and did, so introduce the disciples only if needed to avoid wrong meaning.
- Peter's mother-in-law - "the mother of Peter's wife"
- the fever left her - If your language would understand this personification to mean that the fever could think and act on its own, this can be translated as "she became better" or "Jesus healed her." (See: Personification)
- got up - "got out of bed"

Matthew 8:16-17

UDB:

¹⁶ That evening when the Sabbath ended, the crowd brought to Jesus many people whom demons controlled, and other people who were sick. He made the demons leave just by speaking to them, and he healed all the people who were sick. ¹⁷ When he did this, he made come true what the prophet Isaiah had written, ‘He freed people from being sick, and he made them well.’

ULB:

¹⁶ When evening had come, the people brought to Jesus many who were controlled by demons. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. ¹⁷ In this way was fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, “He himself took our sickness and bore our diseases.”

translationWords:

- demon-possessed
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- spirit, spiritual
- word
- heal, cure
- fulfill
- Isaiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to later that evening and tells of Jesus healing more people and casting out demons.
- General Information: - In verse 17, the writer quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that Jesus’ healing ministry was a fulfillment of prophecy.
- When evening had come - Because Jews did not work or travel on the Sabbath, “evening” may imply after the Sabbath. They waited until evening to bring people to Jesus. You do not need to mention the Sabbath unless you need to avoid wrong meaning. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- many who were controlled by demons - This can be stated in active form. AT: “many whom demons controlled” (UDB) or “many whom demons had possessed” (See: Active or Passive)
- He drove out the spirits with a word - Here “word” stands for a command. AT: “He commanded the spirits to leave” (See: Metonymy)

- was fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Jesus fulfilled the prophecy that the prophet Isaiah had spoken to the people of Israel” (See: Active or Passive)
- took our sickness and bore our diseases - Matthew is quoting the prophet Isaiah. These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize that he healed all of our diseases. AT: “healed those who were sick and made them well” (See: Parallelism)

ULB:

¹⁸ Now when Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave instructions to leave for the other side of the Sea of Galilee. ¹⁹ Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” ²⁰ Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”

translationWords:

- Sea of Galilee, Sea of Chinnereth, Lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Tiberias
- instruct, instruction
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- teacher, Teacher
- Son of Man, son of man

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts and tells about Jesus’ response to some people who wanted to follow him.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- he gave instructions - “he told his disciples”
- Then - This means after Jesus “gave instructions” but before he could get into the boat.
- wherever - “to any place”
- Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests - Jesus answers with this proverb. This means even wild animals have somewhere to rest. (See: Proverbs)
- Foxes - Foxes are animals like dogs. They eat nesting birds and other small animals. If foxes are unknown in your area, use a general term for dog-like creatures or other furry animals. (See: Translate Unknowns)
- holes - Foxes make holes in the ground to live in. Use the appropriate word for the place where the animal you use for “foxes” lives.
- the Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)

- nowhere to lay his head - This refers to a place to sleep. AT: “no place of his own to sleep”

²¹ Another man who was one of Jesus' disciples said to him, "Lord, permit me first to go home. After my father dies I will bury him, and then I will come with you." ²² But Jesus said to him, "Come with me now. The people who are as good as dead, let them wait for their own people to die."

ULB:

²¹ Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father." ²² But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

translationWords:

- disciple
- Lord

translationNotes:

- allow me first to go and bury my father - It is unclear whether the man's father has died and he will bury him immediately, or if the man wants to stay for a longer amount of time until his father dies so he can bury him then. The main point is that the man wants to do something else first before he follows Jesus.
- leave the dead to bury their own dead - Jesus does not mean literally that dead people will bury other dead people. Possible meanings of "the dead": 1) it is a metaphor for those who will soon die, or 2) it is a metaphor for those who do not follow Jesus and are spiritually dead. The main point is that a disciple must not let anything delay him from following Jesus. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 8:23-25UDB:

²³ Then Jesus got into the boat and his disciples followed him. ²⁴ Suddenly strong winds blew on the water, and very high waves were splashing into the boat and filling it. But Jesus was sleeping. ²⁵ They went and woke him up, and said to him, “Lord, rescue us! We are about to drown!”

ULB:

²³ When Jesus had entered a boat, his disciples followed him into it. ²⁴ Behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But Jesus was asleep. ²⁵ The disciples came to him and woke him up, saying, “Save us, Lord; we are about to die!”

translationWords:

- disciple
- save, safe
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to the account of Jesus calming a storm as he and his disciples cross the Sea of Galilee.
- entered a boat - “got onto a boat”
- his disciples followed him - Try to use the same words for “disciple” and “follow” that you used in (8:21-22).
- Behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. Your language may have a way of showing this. AT: “Suddenly” (UDB) or “Without warning”
- there arose a great storm on the sea - This can be stated in active form. AT: “a powerful storm arose on the sea” (See: Active or Passive)
- so that the boat was covered with the waves - This can be stated in active form. AT: “so that the waves covered the boat” (See: Active or Passive)
- woke him up, saying, ”Save us - Possible meanings are 1) they first woke Jesus and then they said, “Save us” or 2) as they were waking Jesus up, they were saying “Save us.”
- us ... we - If you need to translate these words as inclusive or exclusive, then inclusive is best. The disciples probably meant they wanted Jesus to save the disciples and himself from drowning. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- we are about to die - “we are going to die”

translationNotes:

- to them - “to the disciples”
- Why are you afraid ... faith? - Jesus was rebuking the disciples with this rhetorical question. AT: “You should not be afraid ... faith” or “There is nothing for you to be afraid of ... faith.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- you of little faith - “you who have such little faith.” Jesus is scolding the people because they have little faith in God. See how you translated this in 6:30.
- What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him? - “Even the winds and the sea obey him! What sort of man is this?” This rhetorical question shows that the disciples were surprised. AT: “This man is unlike any man we have ever seen! Even the wind and the waves obey him!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- even the winds and the sea obey him - For people or animals to obey or disobey is not surprising, but for wind and water to obey is very surprising. This personification describes the natural elements as being able to hear and respond like people. (See: Personification)

Matthew 8:28-29UDB:

²⁸ When they came to the east side of the lake, they arrived in the region where the Gadarenes lived. Then two men whom demons controlled came out of the burial caves where they were living. Because they were extremely violent and attacked people, no one dared to travel on the road there. ²⁹ Suddenly they shouted to Jesus, “You are the Son of God! Because you have nothing in common with us, leave us alone! Have you come here to torture us before the time God has appointed to punish us?”

ULB:

²⁸ When Jesus had come to the other side and to the country of the Gadarenes, two men who were controlled by demons met him. They were coming out of the tombs and were very violent, so that no traveler could pass that way. ²⁹ Behold, they cried out and said, “What do we have to do with you, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the set time?”

translationWords:

- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- tomb, grave, burial place
- Son of God, the Son, Son
- time

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the author returns to the theme of Jesus healing people. This begins an account of Jesus healing two demon-possessed men.
- to the other side - “to the other side of the Sea of Galilee”
- country of the Gadarenes - The Gadarenes were named after the town of Gadara. (See: How to Translate Names)
- two men who were controlled by demons - This can be stated in active form. AT: “two men whom demons were controlling” (See: Active or Passive)
- They ... were very violent, so that no traveler could pass that way - The demons that were controlling these two men were so dangerous that no one could go through that area.
- Behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. Your language may have a way of showing this.
- What do we have to do with you, Son of God? - The demons use a question but they are being hostile toward Jesus. AT: “Do not bother us, Son of God!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Son of God - This is an important title for Jesus, which describes his relationship to God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

- Have you come here to torment us before the set time? - Again, the demons use a question in a hostile way. AT: “You should not disobey God by punishing us before the specific time God has set when he will punish us!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Matthew 8:30-32

UDB:

³⁰ There was a large herd of pigs grazing not far away. ³¹ So the demons begged Jesus and said, "You are going to drive us out of these men, so send us into those pigs!" ³² Jesus said to them, "If that is what you want, go!" So the demons left the men and entered the pigs. Suddenly the whole herd of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the water and drowned.

ULB:

³⁰ Now a herd of many pigs was there feeding, not too far away from them. ³¹ The demons kept imploring Jesus and saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into that herd of pigs." ³² Jesus said to them, "Go!" The demons came out and went into the pigs. And behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep hill into the sea and they died in the water.

translationWords:

- flock, herd
- pig, swine, pork
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- cast out, drive out, throw out

translationNotes:

- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew tells background information about a herd of pigs that had been there before Jesus arrived. (See: Background Information)
- If you cast us out - It is implied that the demons knew that Jesus was going to cast them out. AT: "Because you are going to cast us out" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- us - This is exclusive, meaning the demons only. (See: Exclusive "We")
- to them - This refers to the demons inside the men.
- The demons came out and went into the pigs - "The demons left the man and entered the pigs"
- behold - This alerts us to pay attention to the surprising information that follows.
- rushed down the steep hill - "ran quickly down the steep slope"
- died in the water - "they fell into the water and drowned"

Matthew 8:33-34

UDB:

³³ The men who were tending the pigs became afraid and ran into the town and reported everything that had happened, including what had happened to the two men whom demons had controlled. ³⁴ Then it seemed as if all the people who lived in that town went to meet Jesus. When they saw him and the two men whom demons had controlled, they pleaded with Jesus to leave their region.

ULB:

³³ The men who had been tending the pigs ran away. And when they went into the city they reported everything, especially what happened to the men who had been controlled by demons. ³⁴ Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.

translationWords:

- demon-possessed
- beg, beggar

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This concludes the account of Jesus healing two demon-possessed men.
- tending the pigs - “taking care of the pigs”
- what happened to the men who had been controlled by demons - This can be stated in active form. AT: “what Jesus did to help the men whom demons had controlled” (See: Active or Passive)
- Behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. It may involve different people than the previous events. Your language may have a way of showing this.
- all the city - This means the people of the city. Most or many of the people came to see Jesus but not necessarily every person. (See: Metonymy and Hyperbole)
- their region - “their area”

Matthew 9 General Notes

Important figures of speech in this chapter

There are many different figures of speech in this chapter. It was also common for Jesus to use analogies and metaphors in his teaching. His way of teaching was intended to encourage faith in him. (See: Metaphor and faith)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“And,” “but”

Some English translations begin many sentences in this chapter with the word “and” or “but” to indicate a sequence of events in the narrative. The ULB usually eliminates these words because the context of the narrative itself indicates that the events occur in sequence. It is acceptable add these words if it is helpful in your translation.

Matthew 9:1-2UDB:

¹ Jesus and his disciples got into the boat. They sailed over the lake and went to Capernaum, the city where he was staying. ² Some people brought to him a man who was paralyzed and who was lying on a sleeping pad. When Jesus perceived that they believed that he could heal the paralyzed man, he said to him, “Young man, be encouraged! I forgive your sins.”

ULB:

⁹ ¹ Jesus entered a boat, crossed over, and came into his own city. ² Behold, they brought to him a paralyzed man lying on a mat. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “Son, be of good cheer. Your sins have been forgiven.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- faith
- son, son of
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- forgive, forgiveness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The writer returns to the theme, which he began in 8:1, of Jesus healing people. This begins an account of Jesus healing a paralyzed man.
- Jesus entered a boat - It is implied that the disciples were with Jesus. (See: Active or Passive)
- a boat - This is probably the same boat as in 8:23. You only need to specify this if needed to avoid confusion.
- into his own city - “to the town where he lived.” This refers to Capernaum.
- Behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. It may involve different people than the previous events. Your language may have a way of showing this.
- they brought - “some men from the city”
- their faith - This refers to the faith of the men and may also include the faith of the paralyzed man.
- Son - The man was not Jesus’ real son. Jesus was speaking to him politely. If this is confusing, it can also be translated “My friend” or “Young man” or even omitted.
- Your sins have been forgiven - This can be stated in active form. AT: “I have forgiven your sins” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 9:3-6UDB:

³ Some of the men who taught the Jewish laws said among themselves, “This man thinks he is God; he cannot forgive sins!” ⁴ Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he said, “You should not think evil thoughts! ⁵ What is easier, to tell him that his sins are forgiven or to tell him to get up and walk? ⁶ So I am going to do something in order that you may know that God has authorized me, the Son of Man, to forgive sins.” Then he said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, pick up your sleeping pad, and go home!”

ULB:

³ Behold, some of the scribes said among themselves, “This man is blaspheming.” ⁴ Jesus knew their thoughts and said, “Why are you thinking evil in your hearts? ⁵ For which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? ⁶ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins, ... ” he said to the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your mat, and go to your house.”

translationWords:

- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- blasphemy, blaspheme, blasphemous
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- heart
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- forgive, forgiveness
- Son of Man, son of man
- authority

translationNotes:

- Behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. It may involve different people than the previous events. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- among themselves - Possible meanings are 1) each one was thinking to himself, or 2) they were speaking among themselves.
- blaspheming - Jesus was claiming to be able to do things the scribes thought only God can do.
- knew their thoughts - Jesus knew what they were thinking either supernaturally or because he could see them talking to each other.

- Why are you thinking evil in your hearts? - Jesus used this question to rebuke the scribes. (See: Rhetorical Question)
- evil - This is moral evil or wickedness, not simply error in fact.
- in your hearts - Here “hearts” refers to their minds or their thoughts. (See: Metonymy)
- For which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? - Jesus uses a question to challenge the scribes. He does not mean one action is harder for him than the other. He is reminding the scribes that they believe when God heals a person’s body it means he has forgiven them of their sins. AT: “For you know it is just as easy to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ as it is to say, ‘Get up and walk’.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? - This can be translated as an indirect quotation. AT: “it is just as easy to tell a person his sins are forgiven as it is to tell him to get up and walk” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- Your sins are forgiven - Here “your” is singular. This can be stated in active form. AT: “I have forgiven your sins” (See: Forms of You and Active or Passive)
- that you may know - “I will prove to you.” The “you” is plural. (See: Forms of You)
- your mat ... your house - Here “you” is singular. (See: Forms of You)
- go to your house - Jesus is not forbidding the man to go elsewhere. He is giving the man the opportunity to go home.

Matthew 9:7-9UDB:

⁷ Immediately the man got up, picked up his sleeping pad, and went home! ⁸ When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck. They praised God for giving such authority to people.

⁹ As Jesus was going away from there, he saw a man named Matthew. He was sitting at a table where he collected taxes for the Roman government. Jesus said to him, “Come with me and be my disciple!” So Matthew got up and went with him.

ULB:

⁷ Then the man got up and went away to his house. ⁸ When the crowds saw this, they were amazed and praised God, who had given such authority to people. ⁹ As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man named Matthew, who was sitting at the tax collection’s tent. He said to him, “Follow me.” He got up and followed him.

translationWords:

- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- praise
- God
- authority
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Matthew, Levi
- tax, taxes

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This concludes the account of Jesus healing a paralyzed man. Jesus then calls a tax collector to be one of his disciples.
- who had given - “because he had given”
- such authority - This refers to the authority to declare sins forgiven.
- As Jesus passed by from there - This phrase marks the beginning of a new part of the story. If your language has a way for doing this, you could consider using it here.
- passed by - “was leaving” or “was going”
- Matthew ... him ... He - Church tradition says that this Matthew is the author of this Gospel, but the text gives no reason to change the pronouns from “him” and “He” to “me” and “I.”
- He said to him - “Jesus said to Matthew”
- He got up and followed him - “Matthew got up and followed Jesus.” This means Matthew became Jesus’ disciple.

ULB:

¹⁰ As Jesus sat down to eat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinful people came and dined with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinful people?”

translationWords:

- tax collector
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- disciple
- Pharisee
- teacher, Teacher

translationNotes:

- General Information: - These events occur at the house of Matthew the tax collector.
- the house - This is probably Matthew’s house, but it could also be Jesus’ house. Specify only if needed to avoid confusion.
- behold - This marks the beginning of another event in the larger story. It may involve different people than the previous events. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- When the Pharisees saw it - “When the Pharisees saw that Jesus was eating with the tax collectors and sinful people”
- Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinful people? - The Pharisees use this question to criticize what Jesus is doing. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Keep in mind that I came to you, not to invite people who think that they are righteous to turn away from their sinful lives and come to me, but to invite people who know they are sinners."

ULB:

¹² When Jesus heard this, he said, "People who are strong in body do not need a physician, only those who are sick. ¹³ You should go learn what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I came, not to call the righteous to repent, but sinners."

translationWords:

- mercy, merciful
- sacrifice, offering
- righteous, righteousness
- repent, repentance
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- General Information: - These events occur at the house of Matthew the tax collector.
- When Jesus heard this - Here "this" refers to the question the Pharisees asked about Jesus eating with tax collectors and sinners.
- People who are strong in body do not need a physician, only those who are sick - Jesus answers with a proverb. He means that he eats with these kinds of people because he has come to help sinners. (See: Proverbs)
- People who are strong in body - "People who are healthy"
- physician - "doctor" (UDB)
- those who are sick - The phrase "need a physician" is understood. AT: "people who are sick need a physician" (See: Ellipsis)
- You should go learn what this means - Jesus is about to quote the scriptures. AT: "You should learn the meaning of what God said in the scriptures"
- You should go - Here "you" is plural and refers to the Pharisees. (See: Forms of You)
- I desire mercy and not sacrifice - Jesus is quoting what the prophet Hosea wrote in the scriptures. Here, "I" refers to God.
- For I came - Here "I" refers to Jesus.

- the righteous - Jesus is using irony. He does not think there are any people who are righteous and do not need to repent. AT: “those who think they are righteous” (See: Irony)

translationWords:

- disciple
- John \(the Baptist\)
- Pharisee
- fast
- bridegroom

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The disciples of John the Baptist question the fact that Jesus’ disciples do not fast.
- do not fast - “continue to eat regularly”
- Can wedding attendants be sorrowful while the bridegroom is still with them? - Jesus uses a question to answer John’s disciples. They all knew that people do not mourn and fast at a wedding celebration. Jesus uses this proverb to show that his disciples do not mourn because he is still there with them. (See: Rhetorical Question and Proverbs)
- But the days - “But the time” (See: biblical time: day)
- the bridegroom will be taken away from them - This can be stated in active form. AT: “the bridegroom will not be able to be with them any longer” or “someone will take the bridegroom away from them” (See: Active or Passive)
- will be taken away - Jesus is probably referring to his own death, but this should not be made explicit here in the translation. To maintain the imagery of a wedding, it is best to just state that the bridegroom will not be there any longer.

ULB:

¹⁶ No man puts a piece of new cloth on an old garment, for the patch will tear away from the garment, and a worse tear will be made.

translationWords:translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to answer the question that the disciples of John had asked.
- No man puts a piece of new cloth on an old garment - This proverb means that people who know only the old traditions are not eager to accept new ones. (See: Proverbs)
- garment - “clothing”
- the patch - “the piece of new cloth.” This is the piece of cloth used to cover a hole in the old garment.

ULB:

¹⁷ Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will be spilled, and the wineskins will be destroyed. Instead, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both will be preserved.”

translationWords:

- wine, wineskin, new wine

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to answer the question that disciples of John had asked.
- Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins - Jesus uses another proverb to answer John’s disciples. This means the same as the proverb in 9:16.
- Neither do people put - “Neither does anyone pour” (UDB) or “People never put”
- new wine - This refers to wine that has not fermented yet. If grapes are unknown in your area, use the general term for fruit. AT: “grape juice” (See: Translate Unknowns)
- old wineskins - This refers to wineskins that have been used many times.
- wineskins - “wine bags” or “skin bags” (UDB). These were bags made out of animal skins.
- the wine will be spilled, and the wineskins will be destroyed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “and this will ruin the wineskin and spill the wine” (See: Active or Passive)
- the skins will burst - When the new wine ferments and expands, the skins tear open because they can no longer stretch out.
- fresh wineskins - “new wineskins” or “new wine bags.” This refers to wineskins that no one has used.
- both will be preserved - This can be stated in active form. AT: “this will keep safe both the wineskin and the wine” (See: Active or Passive) ¹⁸ While Jesus was saying these things to them, behold, an official came and bowed down to him. He said, “My daughter has just now died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” ¹⁹ Then Jesus got up and followed him, and so did his disciples.

translationWords:

- bow, bow down
- disciple

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins an account of Jesus bringing to life the daughter of a Jewish official after she had died.
- these things - This refers to the answer Jesus gave John’s disciples about fasting.
- behold - The word “behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- bowed down to him - This is a way someone would show respect in Jewish culture. (See: Symbolic Action)
- come and lay your hand on her, and she will live - This shows that the Jewish official believed Jesus had the power to bring his daughter back to life.
- his disciples - “Jesus’ disciples”

Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was instantly made well.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- turn, turn away, turn back
- courage, courageous
- faith

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This describes how Jesus healed another woman while he was on the way to the Jewish official’s house.
- Behold - The word “Behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- had severe bleeding - “had a severe flow of blood.” She was probably bleeding from her womb even when it was not the normal time for it. Some cultures may have a polite way of referring to this condition. (See: Euphemism)
- twelve years - “12 years” (See: Numbers)
- garment - “robe”
- For she had said to herself, “If only I touch his clothes, I will be made well” - She thought this before she touched Jesus. You can put this statement earlier as in the UDB. (See: Order of Events)
- If only I touch his clothes - According to Jewish law, because she was bleeding she was not supposed to touch anyone. She touches his clothes so that Jesus’ power would heal her and yet (she thought) he would not know that she touched him. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

- But - “Instead.” What the woman hoped would happen did not happen.
- Daughter - The woman was not Jesus’ real daughter. Jesus was speaking to her politely. If this is confusing, it can also be translated “Young woman” or even omitted.
- Your faith has made you well - “Because you believed in me, I will heal you”
- the woman was healed from that hour - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Jesus healed her at that moment” (See: Active or Passive)

ULB:

²³ When Jesus came into the official's house, he saw the flute players and the crowds making much noise. ²⁴ He said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead, but she is asleep." But they laughed at him in mockery.

translationWords:

- flute, pipe
- mock, ridicule, scoff at

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This returns to the account of Jesus bringing the daughter of the Jewish official back to life.
- official's house - This is the Jewish leader's house.
- the flute players and the crowds making much noise - This is a common way to mourn for someone who has died.
- flute players - "people who play flutes"
- Go away - Jesus was speaking to many people, so use the plural command form if your language has one.
- the girl is not dead, but she is asleep - Jesus is using a play on words. It was common in Jesus' day to refer to a dead person as one who "sleeps." But here the dead girl will get up, as though she had only been sleeping. (See: Euphemism) translationWords:translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This completes the account of Jesus bringing the daughter of the Jewish official back to life.
- General Information: - Verse 26 is a summary statement that describes the result of Jesus raising this girl from the dead.
- When the crowd had been put outside - This can be stated in active form. AT: “After Jesus had sent the crowd outside” or “After the family had sent the people outside” (See: Active or Passive)
- got up - “got out of bed.” This is the same meaning as in 8:15.
- The news about this spread into all that region - “The people of that whole region heard about it” (UDB) or “The people who saw that the girl was alive started telling everyone in the whole area about it”

UDB:

²⁷ As Jesus went away from there, two blind men followed him and shouted, “Have mercy on us and heal us, you Descendant of King David!” ²⁸ Jesus went into the house, and then the blind men went in, too. Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to heal you?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord!”

ULB:

²⁷ As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him. They kept shouting and saying, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!” ²⁸ When Jesus had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I can do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.”

translationWords:

- mercy, merciful
- David
- believe, believe in, belief
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of Jesus healing two blind men.
- As Jesus passed by from there - As Jesus was leaving the region
- passed by - “was leaving” or “was going”
- followed him - This means they were walking behind Jesus, not necessarily that they had become his disciples.
- Have mercy on us - It is implied that they wanted Jesus to heal them. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Son of David - Jesus was not David’s literal son, so this may be translated as “Descendant of David” (UDB). However, “Son of David” is also a title for the Messiah, and the men were probably calling Jesus by this title.
- When Jesus had come into the house - This could be either Jesus’ own house (UDB) or the house in 9:10.
- Yes, Lord - The full content of their answer is not stated, but it is understood. AT: “Yes, Lord, we believe you can heal us” (See: Ellipsis)

ULB:

²⁹ Then Jesus touched their eyes and said, “Let it be done to you according to your faith.” ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus strictly commanded them and said, “See that no one knows about this.” ³¹ But the two men went out and spread the news about this throughout that region.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- faith
- command, to command, commandment

translationNotes:

- touched their eyes and said - It is not clear whether he touched both men’s eyes at the same time or used only his right hand to touch one then the other. As the left hand was customarily used for unclean purposes, it is most likely that he used only his right hand. It is also not clear whether he spoke as he was touching them or touched them first and then spoke to them.
- Let it be done to you according to your faith - This can be stated in active form. AT: “I will do as you have believed” or “Because you believe, I will heal you” (See: Active or Passive)
- their eyes were opened - This means they were able to see. This can be stated in active form. AT: “God healed their eyes” or “the two blind men were able to see” (See: Idiom and Active or Passive)

ULB:

³² As those two men were going away, behold, a mute man possessed by a demon was brought to Jesus. ³³ When the demon had been driven out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were astonished and said, “This has never been seen before in Israel!” ³⁴ But the Pharisees were saying, “By the ruler of the demons, he drives out demons.”

translationWords:

- demon-possessed
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel
- Pharisee
- ruler, rulers, rule

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the account of Jesus healing a demon-possessed man who could not speak and how people responded.
- behold - The word “behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- a mute man ... was brought to Jesus - This can be stated in active form. AT: “someone brought a mute man ... to Jesus” (See: Active or Passive)
- mute - not able to talk
- possessed by a demon - This can be stated in active form. AT: “whom a demon had possessed” or “whom a demon was controlling” (See: Active or Passive)
- When the demon had been driven out - This can be stated in active form. AT: “After Jesus had forced the demon out” or “After Jesus had commanded the demon to leave” (See: Active or Passive)

- the mute man spoke - “the mute man began to speak” or “the man who had been mute spoke” or “the man, who was no longer mute, spoke”
- The crowds were astonished - “The people were amazed”
- This has never been seen - This can be stated in active form. AT: “This has never happened before” or “No one has ever done anything like this before” (See: Active or Passive)
- he drives out demons - “he forces demons to leave”
- he drives - The pronoun “he” refers to Jesus.

Matthew 9:35-36UDB:

³⁵ Then Jesus and his disciples went through many of the cities and towns in the district of Galilee. He was teaching in the synagogues and preaching the good news about how God will rule from heaven. He also was healing the people who had various diseases and illnesses. ³⁶ When he saw the crowd of people, he pitied them because they were upset and worried. They were like sheep that do not have a shepherd.

ULB:

³⁵ Jesus went about all the cities and the villages. He continued teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness. ³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged. They were like sheep without a shepherd.

translationWords:

- teach, teaching, teacher, taught
- synagogue
- preach
- good news, gospel
- kingdom
- heal, cure
- compassion, compassionate
- sheep, ram, ewe
- shepherd, to shepherd

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Verse 35 is the end of the part of the story that began in 8:1 about Jesus' healing ministry in Galilee. (See: End of Story)
- General Information: - Verse 36 begins a new part of the story where Jesus teaches his disciples and sends them to preach and heal as he has done.
- all the cities - Jesus went to many or most of the cities but not necessarily every one of them. AT: "many of the cities" (See: Hyperbole)
- cities ... villages - "large villages ... small villages" or "large towns ... small towns"
- the gospel of the kingdom - Here "kingdom" refers to God's rule as king. See how you translated this in 4:23.

- all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness - “every disease and every sickness.” The words “disease” and “sickness” are closely related but should be translated as two different words if possible. “Disease” is what causes a person to be sick. “Sickness” is the physical weakness or affliction that results from having a disease.
- They were like sheep without a shepherd - This simile means they did not have a leader to take care of them. AT: “The people did not have a leader” (See: Simile)

ULB:

³⁷ He said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. ³⁸ Therefore urgently pray to the Lord of the harvest, so that he may send out laborers into his harvest."

translationWords:

- disciple
- harvest
- labor, laborer
- pray, prayer
- Lord
- send, send out, sent

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus uses a proverb about harvesting to tell his disciples how they should respond to the needs of the crowds mentioned in the previous section.
- The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few - Jesus uses a proverb to respond to what he is seeing. Jesus means there are a lot of people who are ready to believe God but only few people to teach them God's truth. (See: Proverbs)
- The harvest is plentiful - "There is plenty of ripe food for someone to collect"
- laborers - "workers"
- pray to the Lord of the harvest - "pray to God, because he is in charge of the harvest"

Matthew 10 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

The sending of the twelve disciples

A large section of this chapter discusses Jesus' sending of the twelve disciples to share his message about the kingdom of heaven. They were to limit their ministry to Israel and not share this news with the Gentiles. Jesus' instructions gives the reader the impression that they were not to waste any time. There is a sense of urgency in his tone.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

The twelve disciples

The following are the list of the twelve disciples: In Matthew: Simon (Peter), Andrew, James son of Zebedee, John son of Zebedee, Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas, Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddeus, Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot.

In Mark: Simon (Peter), Andrew, James the son of Zebedee, and John the son of Zebedee (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, sons of thunder), Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot,

In Luke: Simon (Peter), Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James, the son of Alphaeus, Simon, who was called the Zealot, Judas, the son of James, and Judas Iscariot,

It is probable that Thaddaeus and Jude, the son of James, are two names of the same person.

"The kingdom of heaven is near"

This phrase has great theological significance. Scholars often debate whether the "kingdom of heaven" was present at this time or still coming. English translations frequently use the phrase "at hand," but this can create difficulty in translating. Other translations use the phrase "is coming near" and "has come near."

Matthew 10:1UDB:

¹ Jesus told his twelve disciples to come to him. Then he gave them the power to drive out evil spirits that controlled people. He also enabled them to heal people who had all kinds of diseases or who were sick in all kinds of ways.

ULB:

10¹ Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to drive them out, and to heal all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- authority
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- heal, cure

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins an account of Jesus sending out his twelve disciples to do his work.
- called his twelve disciples together - “summoned his 12 disciples” (See: Numbers)
- gave them authority - Be sure that the text clearly communicates that this authority was 1) to drive out unclean spirits and 2) to heal disease and sickness.
- to drive them out - “to make the unclean spirits leave”
- all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness - “every disease and every sickness.” The words “disease” and “sickness” are closely related but should be translated as two different words if possible. “Disease” is what causes a person to be sick. “Sickness” is the physical weakness or affliction that results from having a disease.

Matthew 10:2-4

UDB:

² Here is a list of the twelve disciples, whom he called apostles. They were Simon, to whom he gave the new name Peter; Andrew, Peter's younger brother; James, the son of Zebedee; John, the younger brother of James; ³ Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew, the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot; and Judas Iscariot, who later made it possible for the Jewish leaders to arrest Jesus.

ULB:

² Now the names of the twelve apostles were these. The first, Simon (whom he also called Peter), and Andrew his brother; James son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ³ Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who would betray him.

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the author provides the names of the twelve apostles as background information.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew tells background information about the twelve apostles. (See: Background Information)
- twelve apostles - This is the same group as the "twelve disciples" in 10:1.
- first - This is first in order, not in rank. (See: Ordinal Numbers)

- the Zealot - Possible meanings are 1) “the Zealot” is a title that indicates he was part of the group of people who wanted to free the Jewish people from Roman rule. AT: “patriot” or “nationalist” or 2) “the zealous one” is a description that indicates he was zealous for God to be honored. AT: “passionate”
- Matthew the tax collector - “Matthew, who was a tax collector”
- who would betray him - “who would betray Jesus”

Matthew 10:5-7UDB:

⁵ When Jesus was about to send his twelve. postles to tell the good news to people in various places, he gave them these instructions: "Do not go where the non-Jews live or into the towns where the Samaritans live. ⁶ Instead, go to the people of Israel; they are like sheep who have strayed away from their shepherd. ⁷ When you go to them, proclaim to them that God will soon rule from heaven.

ULB:

⁵ These twelve Jesus sent out. He instructed them and said, "Do not go to any place where Gentiles live, and do not enter any town of the Samaritans. ⁶ Go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷ And as you go, preach and say, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.'

translationWords:

- the twelve, the eleven
- send, send out, sent
- instruct, instruction
- Gentile
- Samaria, Samaritan
- sheep, ram, ewe
- house
- preach
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here Jesus begins to give instructions to his disciples about what they should do and expect when they go to preach.
- General Information: - Although verse 5 begins by saying that he sent out the twelve, Jesus gave these instructions before he sent them out. (See: Order of Events)
- These twelve Jesus sent out - "Jesus sent out these twelve men" or "It was these twelve men whom Jesus sent out"
- sent out - Jesus sent them out for a particular purpose.
- He instructed them - "He told them what they needed to do" or "He commanded them"
- lost sheep of the house of Israel - This is a metaphor comparing the entire nation of Israel to sheep who have strayed from their shepherd (UDB). (See: Metaphor)
- house of Israel - This refers to the nation of Israel. AT: "people of Israel" or "descendants of Israel" (See: Metonymy)
- and as you go - Here "you" is plural and refers to the twelve apostles. (See: Forms of You)

- The kingdom of heaven has come near - The phrase “kingdom of heaven” refers to God ruling as king. This phrase is only in the book of Matthew. If possible, use the word “heaven” in your translation. AT: “Our God in heaven will soon show himself to be king.” See how you translated this in 3:2. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 10:8-10UDB:

⁸ Heal sick people, cause dead people to become alive, heal people with leprosy and bring them back into society, and cause demons to leave those whom they control. Do not charge any money for helping people, because God did not charge you anything for helping you. ⁹ Do not take any money with you, ¹⁰ nor a bag for what belongs to you. Do not take an extra tunic, nor sandals in addition to what you are wearing, nor a walking stick. Every worker deserves to get pay from the people for whom he works, so you deserve to receive food from the people to whom you go.

ULB:

⁸ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. ⁹ Do not carry any gold, silver, or copper in your purses. ¹⁰ Do not take a traveling bag for your journey, or an extra tunic, or sandals, or a staff, for a laborer deserves his food.

translationWords:

- heal, cure
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- death, die, dead
- clean, cleanse
- leprosy, leper, leprous
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- gold
- silver
- tunic
- sandal
- staff
- labor, laborer

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about what they should do when they go to preach.
- you ... your - These are plural and refer to the twelve apostles. (See: Forms of You)
- Freely you have received, freely give - There is information here that is not stated, but it is understood. AT: "I helped you and taught you God's truth for free. Therefore, you should not make other people pay for you to help them or to teach them God's truth" (See: Ellipsis)

- gold, silver, or copper - These are metals out of which coins were made. This list is a metonym for money, so if the metals are unknown in your area, translate the list as “money.” (See: Metonymy)
- purses - This means “belts” or “money belts,” but it can refer to whatever might be used to carry money. A belt is a long strip of cloth or leather worn around the waist. It was often wide enough that it could be folded and used to carry money.
- traveling bag - This could either be any bag used to carry things on a journey, or a bag used by someone to collect food or money.
- an extra tunic - Use the same word you used for “tunic” in 5:40.
- laborer - “worker”
- his food - Here “food” refers to anything a person needs. AT: “what he needs” (See: Synecdoche)

Matthew 10:11-13UDB:

¹¹ In any town or village that you enter, find a person who wants you to stay in his home. ¹² As you go into that house, call upon God to do good to the people who live there. Stay in that home until you leave that town or village. ¹³ If the people who live in that house receive you well, God will indeed do good to them. But if they do not receive you well, then your prayer will not help them, and God will not do them good.

ULB:

¹¹ Whatever city or village you enter, find who is worthy in it, and stay there until you leave. ¹² As you enter into the house, greet it. ¹³ If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace come back to you.

translationWords:

- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- house
- peace, peaceful

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about what they should do when they go out to preach.
- you ... your - These are plural and refer to the twelve apostles. (See: Forms of You)
- Whatever city or village you enter - “Whenever you enter a city or village” or “Every city or village you go into”
- city ... village - “large village ... small village” or “large town ... small town.” See how you translated this in 9:35.
- worthy ... not worthy - In 10:11-13 a “worthy” person refers to a person who is willing to welcome the disciples. Jesus compares this person to one who is “not worthy,” a person who does not welcome the disciples.
- stay there until you leave - The full meaning of the statement can be made explicit. AT: “stay in that person’s house until you leave the town or village” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- As you enter into the house, greet it - The phrase “greet it” means greet the house. A common greeting in those days was “Peace be to this house!” Here “house” refers to the people who live in the house. AT: “As you enter into the house, greet the people who live in it” (See: Metonymy)

- the house is worthy - Here “house” refers to those who live in the house. AT: “the people who live in that house receive you well” (UDB) or “the people who live in that house treat you well” (See: Metonymy)
- let your peace come upon it - The word “it” means the house. Here “house” refers to the people who live in the house. AT: “let peace come upon it” or “the people who live in that house will live in peace” (See: Metonymy)
- your peace - This is the peace the apostles are to ask God to bring upon the people in the house.
- if it is not worthy - The word “it” means the house. Here “house” refers to the people who live in the house. AT: “if they do not receive you well” (UDB) or “if they do not treat you well” (See: Metonymy)
- let your peace come back to you - Possible meanings are 1) if the household was not worthy, then God would hold back peace or blessings from that household or 2) if the household was not worthy, then the apostles were supposed to do something, such as asking God not to honor their greeting of peace. If your language has a similar meaning of taking back a greeting or its effects, that should be used here.

Matthew 10:14-15

UDB:

¹⁴ If the people who live in any house or town do not welcome you, nor listen to your message, leave that place. As you leave, shake off the dust from your feet. By doing that, you will warn them that God will reject them as they rejected what you said. ¹⁵ Note this carefully: At the time when God judges all people, he will punish the wicked people who lived in Sodom and Gomorrah. But if the people of any city reject you, God will punish them even more severely.

ULB:

¹⁴ As for those who do not receive you or listen to your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵ Truly I say to you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

translationWords:

- receive
- amen, truly
- Sodom
- Gomorrah
- judgment day

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about what they should do when they go to preach.
- As for those who do not receive you or listen - “If no people in that house or city will receive you or listen”
- you ... your - This is plural and refers to the twelve apostles. (See: Forms of You)
- listen to your words - Here “words” refers to what the disciples say. AT: “listen to your message” (UDB) or “listen to what you have to say” (See: Metonymy)
- city - You should translate this the same way you did in 10:11.
- shake off the dust from your feet - “shake the dust off your feet as you leave.” This is a sign that God has rejected the people of that house or city. (See: Symbolic Action)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- it shall be more tolerable - “the suffering shall be less”
- the land of Sodom and Gomorrah - This refers to the people who lived in Sodom and Gomorrah. AT: “the people who lived in the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah” (See: Metonymy)
- that city - This refers to the people in the city that does not receive the apostles or listen to their message. AT: “the people of the city that does not receive you” (See: Metonymy)

ULB:

¹⁶ See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves. ¹⁷ Watch out for people! They will deliver you up to councils, and they will whip you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ And you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

translationWords:

- send, send out, sent
- sheep, ram, ewe
- wolf, wolves, wild dogs
- wise, wisdom
- serpent, snake, viper
- dove, pigeon
- deliver, deliverer, deliverance
- council
- synagogue
- governor, govern, proconsul, government
- king
- testimony, testify
- Gentile

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples. Here he begins to tell them about the persecution they will endure when they go out to preach.
- See - The word "See" here adds emphasis to what follows. AT: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"
- I send you out - Jesus is sending them out for a particular purpose.

- as sheep in the midst of wolves - Sheep are defenseless animals that wolves often attack. Jesus is stating that the people may harm the disciples. AT: “as sheep among people who are like dangerous wolves” or “as sheep among people who act the way dangerous animals act” (See: Simile)
- be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves - Jesus is telling the disciples they must be cautious and harmless among the people. If comparing the disciples to serpents or doves is confusing, it might be better not to state the similes. AT: “act with understanding and caution, as well as with innocence and virtue” (See: Simile)
- Watch out for people! They will - You can translate with “because” to show how these two statements relate. AT: “Watch out for people because they will” (See: Connecting Words)
- deliver you up to - “betray you to” or “give you up to” or “have you arrested and tried by”
- councils - “courts.” These are local religious leaders or elders who together keep peace in the community.
- whip you - “beat you with a whip”
- you will be brought - This can be stated in active form. AT: “they will bring you” or “they will drag you” (See: Active or Passive)
- for my sake - “because you belong to me” (UDB) or “because you follow me”
- to them and to the Gentiles - The pronoun “them” refers either to the “governors and kings” or to the Jewish accusers.

Matthew 10:19-20TFT

¹⁹ When the religious leaders arrest you, do not be worried about what you will say to them, because at that very time the Holy Spirit will tell you the words that you should say. ²⁰ It is not that you will decide what to say. Instead, you will say what the Spirit of your heavenly Father tells you to say.

UDB:

¹⁹ When those people arrest you, do not be worried about what you will say to them, because the words that you should say will come to you. ²⁰ It is not that you will decide what to say. Instead, you will say what the Spirit of your heavenly Father tells you to say.

ULB:

¹⁹ When they deliver you up, do not be anxious about how or what you will speak, for what to say will be given to you in that hour. ²⁰ For it is not you who will speak, but the Spirit of your Father who will speak in you.

translationWords:

- deliver, deliverer, deliverance
- hour
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the persecution they will endure when they go out to preach.
- When they deliver you up - “When people give you over to the councils.” The “people” here are the same “people” as in 10:17.
- you ... your - These are plural and refer to the twelve apostles. (See: Forms of You)
- do not be anxious - “do not worry”
- how or what you will speak - “how you are to speak or what you are to say.” The two ideas may be combined: “what you are to say” (See: Hendiadys)
- for what to say will be given to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: “for the Holy Spirit will tell you what to say” (See: Active or Passive)
- in that hour - Here “hour” means “right then.” AT: “right then” or “at that time” (See: Metonymy)

- the Spirit of your Father - If necessary, this can be translated as “the Spirit of God your heavenly Father” or a footnote can be added to make it clear that this refers to God the Holy Spirit and not to the spirit of an earthly father.
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- in you - “through you”

Matthew 10:21-23

UDB:

²¹ They will take you to the authorities to die because you believe in me. For example, people will do that to their brothers, and fathers will do that to their children. Children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. ²² Many people will hate you because you trust in me. But anyone who faithfully trusts in me until they die, those people God will save. ²³ When people in one city cause you to suffer, escape to another city. Note this: I, the Son of Man, will certainly return to earth before you have finished going from one town to another town throughout Israel and telling people about me.

ULB:

²¹ Brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against their parents and cause them to be put to death. ²² You will be hated by everyone because of my name. But whoever endures to the end, that person will be saved. ²³ When they persecute you in this city, flee to the next, for truly I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man has come.

translationWords:

- brother
- death, die, dead
- ancestor, father, forefather
- name
- endure, endurance
- save, safe
- persecute, persecution
- amen, truly
- Son of Man, son of man

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the persecution they will endure when they go out to preach.
- Brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child - The phrase “a father his child” can be translated as a complete sentence. AT: “Brothers will deliver up their brothers to death, and fathers will deliver up their children to death” (See: Ellipsis)
- deliver up - “betray” or “give up.” See how you translated this in 10:17.
- to death - The abstract noun “death” can be translated in a concrete, more detailed way. AT: “to the courts so that the authorities can execute them” (See: Abstract Nouns)

- rise up against - “rebel against” (UDB) or “turn against”
- and cause them to be put to death - This can be translated in active form. AT: “and have them put to death” or “and have the authorities execute them” (See: Active or Passive)
- You will be hated by everyone - This can be translated in active form. AT: “Everyone will hate you” or “All people will hate you” (See: Active or Passive)
- You - This is plural and refers to the twelve disciples. (See: Forms of You)
- because of my name - Here “name” refers to the entire person. AT: “because of me” or “because you trust in me” (UDB) (See: Metonymy)
- whoever endures - “whoever stays faithful”
- to the end - It is not clear whether the “end” means when a person dies, when the persecution ends, or the end of the age when God shows himself to be king. The main point is that they endure as long as necessary.
- that person will be saved - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will deliver that person” (See: Active or Passive)
- in this city - Here “this” does not refer to a specific city. AT: “in one city”
- flee to the next - “flee to the next city”
- truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- has come - “arrives”

Matthew 10:24-25

UDB:

²⁴ A disciple should not expect to be greater than his teacher, and servants are not superior to their master. ²⁵ You do not expect that people will treat a student better than they treat his teacher, or that they will treat a servant better than they treat his master. Similarly, because I am your teacher and master, you can expect that people will mistreat you, because they have mistreated me. I am like the ruler of a household, whom they call Satan. If they act that badly toward me, how do you think they will act toward you?"

ULB:

²⁴ A disciple is not greater than his teacher, nor a servant above his master. ²⁵ It is enough for the disciple that he should be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much worse would be the names they call the members of his household!

translationWords:

- disciple
- teacher, Teacher
- servant, slave, slavery
- lord, master, sir
- house
- Beelzebul
- household

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the persecution they will endure when they go out to preach.
- A disciple is not greater than his teacher, nor a servant above his master - Jesus is using a proverb to teach his disciples a general truth. Jesus is emphasizing that the disciples should not expect people to treat them any better than the people treat Jesus. (See: Proverbs)
- A disciple is not greater than his teacher - "A disciple is always less important than his teacher" or "A teacher is always more important than his disciple"
- nor a servant above his master - "and a servant is always less important than his master" or "and a master is always more important than his servant"
- It is enough for the disciple that he should be like his teacher - "The disciple should be satisfied to become like his teacher"

- be like his teacher - If necessary, you can make explicit how the disciple becomes like the teacher. AT: “know as much as his teacher knows” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- and the servant like his master - If necessary, you can make explicit how the servant becomes like the master. AT: “and the servant should be satisfied to become only as important as his master” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- If they have called the master ... how much worse ... they call ... the members of his household - Again Jesus is emphasizing that since people have mistreated him, his disciples should expect people to treat them the same or worse.
- how much worse would be the names they call the members of his household - “the names that they call the members of his household will certainly be much worse” or “they will certainly call the members of his household much worse names”
- If they have called - “Since people have called”
- the master of the house - Jesus is using this as a metaphor for himself. (See: Metaphor)
- Beelzebul - This name can either be 1) transcribed directly as “Beelzebul” or 2) translated with its original, intended meaning of “Satan.”
- his household - This is a metaphor for Jesus’ disciples. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 10:26-27UDB:

²⁶ "Do not be afraid of those people. Everything that is unknown to people, God wants you now to reveal it. He does not want you to hide what is true, neither to keep it secret. ²⁷ So, instead of being afraid, what I say to you secretly as people do at night, tell it publicly as people do during the daytime. What I say to you privately as people do when they whisper to you, proclaim it publicly.

ULB:

²⁶ Therefore do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be known. ²⁷ What I tell you in the darkness, say in the daylight, and what you hear softly in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops.

translationWords:

- fear, afraid, fear of Yahweh
- reveal, revelation
- proclaim, proclamation

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the persecution they will endure when they go out to preach.
- do not fear them - Here "them" refers to the people who mistreat followers of Jesus.
- there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be known - Both of these statements mean the same thing. Jesus is emphasizing that God will make all things known. This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will reveal the things that people hide" (See: Parallelism and Active or Passive)
- What I tell you in the darkness, say in the daylight, and what you hear softly in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops - Both of these statements mean the same thing. Jesus is emphasizing that the disciples should tell everyone what he tells the disciples in private. AT: "Tell people in the daylight what I tell you in the darkness, and proclaim upon the housetops what you hear softly in your ear" (See: Parallelism)
- What I tell you in the darkness - Here "darkness" means "in private." AT: "What I say to you secretly" or "The things I am telling you privately" (See: Metaphor)
- say in the daylight - Here "daylight" means "in public." AT: "say openly" or "say publicly" (See: Metaphor)
- what you hear softly in your ear - This is a way of referring to whispering. AT: "what I whisper to you" (See: Idiom)

- proclaim upon the housetops - Housetops where Jesus lived were flat, and people far away could hear anyone speaking with a loud voice. Here “housetops” refers to any place where all people can hear. AT: “speak loudly in a public place for all to hear” (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 10:28-31

UDB:

²⁸ Do not be afraid of people who are able to kill your body but are not able to destroy your soul. Instead, fear God, because he is able to destroy both your body and your soul in hell. ²⁹ Think about the sparrows. They have so little value that you can buy two of them for only one small coin. But when any sparrow falls to the ground and dies, God, your heavenly Father, knows it, because he knows everything. ³⁰ He knows everything about you, too. He even knows how many hairs you have on your head! ³¹ God values you much more than he values sparrows. So, do not be afraid of people who threaten to kill you!

ULB:

²⁸ Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul. Instead, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. ³⁰ But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹ Do not fear. You are more valuable than many sparrows.

translationWords:

- fear, afraid, fear of Yahweh
- soul
- hell, lake of fire
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the persecution they will endure when they go to preach.
- General Information: - Here Jesus also begins to give reasons why his disciples should not be afraid of the persecution they might experience.
- Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul - This is not distinguishing between people who cannot kill the soul and people who can kill the soul. No person can kill the soul. AT: "Do not be afraid of people. They can kill the body, but they cannot kill the soul" (See: Distinguishing versus Informing or Reminding)
- kill the body - This means to cause physical death. If these words are awkward, they can be translated as "kill you" or "kill other people."
- body - the part of a person that can be touched, as opposed to the soul or spirit
- kill the soul - This means to harm people after they have physically died.
- soul - the part of a person that cannot be touched and that lives on after the physical body dies

- fear him who is able - You can add “because” to clarify why people should fear God. AT: “fear God because he is able” (See: Connecting Words)
- Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? - Jesus states this proverb as a question to teach his disciples. AT: “Think about the sparrows. They have so little value that you can buy two of them for only one small coin.” (UDB). (See: Proverbs and Rhetorical Question)
- sparrows - These are very small, seed-eating birds. AT: “small birds” (See: Translate Unknowns)
- a small coin - This is often translated as the least valuable coin available in your country. It refers to a copper coin worth about one-sixteenth of a day’s wage for a laborer. AT: “very little money”
- not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge - This can be stated in a positive form. AT: “your Father knows when even one sparrow dies and falls to the ground” (See: Double Negatives)
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- even the hairs of your head are all numbered - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God knows even how many hairs are on your head” (See: Active or Passive)
- numbered - “counted”
- You are more valuable than many sparrows - “God values you more than many sparrows”

Matthew 10:32-33

UDB:

³² If people are willing to tell others that they belong to me, I will also acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven that they belong to me. ³³ But if they are afraid to say in front of others that they belong to me, I will tell my Father, who is in heaven, that they are not mine.”

ULB:

³² Therefore everyone who confesses me before men, I will also confess before my Father who is in heaven. ³³ But he who denies me before men, I will also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

translationWords:

- confess, confession
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the reasons why they should not be afraid of the persecution that they might experience.
- everyone who confesses me before men - “whoever tells others that he is my disciple” or “anyone who acknowledges before other people that he is loyal to me”
- I will also confess before my Father who is in heaven - You can make explicit the information that is understood. AT: “I will also acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven that these people belong to me” (See: Ellipsis)
- my Father who is in heaven - “my heavenly Father”
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- he who denies me before men - “if anyone denies to other people that he is loyal to me” or “whoever refuses to acknowledge to others that he is my disciple”
- I will also deny before my Father who is in heaven - You can make explicit the information that is understood. AT: “I will deny before my Father who is in heaven that this person belongs to me” (See: Ellipsis)

Matthew 10:34-36

UDB:

³⁴ "Do not think that I came to earth to cause people to live together in peace. Because I have come, some of those who follow me will die. ³⁵ Because I came to earth, people who do not believe in me will be against those who do believe in me. For example, some sons will oppose their fathers, some daughters will oppose their mothers, and some daughters-in-law will oppose their mothers-in-law. ³⁶ This shows that sometimes a person's enemies will be members of his own household.

ULB:

³⁴ Do not think that I came to bring peace upon the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ³⁶ A man's enemies will be those of his own household.

translationWords:

- peace, peaceful
- sword
- adversary, enemy
- household

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the reasons why they should not be afraid of the persecution that they might experience.
- Do not think - "Do not suppose" or "You must not think"
- upon the earth - This refers to the people who live on the earth. AT: "to the people of the earth" or "to people" (See: Metonymy)
- a sword - This refers to division, fighting, and killing among people. (See: Metonymy)
- set - "turn" or "divide" or "separate"
- a man against his father - "a son against his father"
- A man's enemies - "A person's enemies" or "A person's worst enemies"
- those of his own household - "members of his own family"

Matthew 10:37-39UDB:

³⁷ People who love their fathers or mothers more than they love me are not worthy to belong to me. And people who love their sons or daughters more than they love me are not worthy to belong to me. ³⁸ If you are not ready to die because you belong to me, then you are not worthy to belong to me. ³⁹ People who deny that they believe in me in order to escape dying will not live with God eternally, but people who are willing to lose their lives because they trust in me, will live with God eternally.”

ULB:

³⁷ He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me. And he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. ³⁸ He who does not pick up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. ³⁹ He who finds his life will lose it. But he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

translationWords:

- love
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- cross
- life, live, living, alive

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the reasons why they should not be afraid of the persecution that they might experience.
- He who ... is not worthy - Here “he” means any person in general. AT: “Those who ... are not worthy” or “If you ... you are not worthy” (See: When Masculine Words Include Women)
- loves - The word for “love” here refers to “brotherly love” or “love from a friend.” AT: “cares for” or “is devoted to” or “is fond of”
- worthy of me - “deserve to belong to me” or “worthy to be my disciple”
- pick up his cross and follow after me - “carry his cross and follow me.” The cross represents suffering and death. Taking up the cross represents being willing to suffer and die. AT: “must obey me even to the point of suffering and dying” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)
- pick up - “take up” or “pick up and carry”
- He who finds ... will lose ... he who loses ... will find - Jesus uses a proverb to teach his disciples. This should be translated with as few words as possible. AT: “Those who find ... will lose ... those who lose ... will find” or “If you find ... you will lose ... if you lose ... you will find” (See: Proverbs)

- finds - This is a metaphor for “keeps” or “saves.” AT: “tries to keep” or “tries to save” (See: Metaphor)
- will lose it - This does not mean the person will die. It is a metaphor that means the person will not experience spiritual life with God. AT: “will not have true life” (See: Metaphor)
- who loses his life - This does not mean to die. It is a metaphor that means a person considers obeying Jesus more important than his own life. AT: “who denies himself” (See: Metaphor)
- for my sake - “because he trusts me” or “on my account” or “because of me.” This is the same idea as “for my sake” in 10:18.
- will find it - This metaphor means the person will experience spiritual life with God. AT: “will find true life” (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 10:40-41UDB:

⁴⁰ "God considers that everyone who welcomes you, welcomes me, and he considers that everyone who welcomes me welcomes him, the one who sent me. ⁴¹ Those who welcome someone because they know that person is a prophet—they will receive the same reward that prophets receive from God. Likewise, those who welcome a person because they know that person is righteous—they will receive the reward that righteous people receive from God.

ULB:

⁴⁰ He who welcomes you welcomes me, and he who welcomes me also welcomes him who sent me. ⁴¹ He who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. And he who welcomes a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

translationWords:

- send, send out, sent
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- reward
- righteous, righteousness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to instruct his disciples about the reasons why they should not be afraid of the persecution that they might experience.
- He who - The word "He" refers to anyone in general. AT: "Whoever" or "Anyone who" or "The one who" (See: When Masculine Words Include Women)
- welcomes - This means to receive someone as a guest.
- you - This is plural and refers to the twelve apostles to whom Jesus is speaking. (See: Forms of You)
- welcomes me - Jesus means it is the same as welcoming him. AT: "it is like he is welcoming me" or "it is as if he were welcoming me"
- welcomes him who sent me - This means when someone welcomes Jesus it is the same as welcoming God. AT: "it is as if he were welcoming God the Father who sent me"
- because he is a prophet - Here "he" does not refer to the person who is welcoming. It refers to the person being welcomed.
- a prophet's reward - This refers to the reward that God gives the prophet, not to the reward that a prophet gives to another person.

- he is a righteous man - Here “he” does not refer to the person who is welcoming. It refers to the person being welcomed.
- a righteous man’s reward - This refers to the reward God gives to a righteous person, not a reward that a righteous person gives to another person.

ULB:

⁴² Whoever gives to one of these little ones, even a cup of cold water to drink, because he is a disciple, truly I say to you, he will in no way lose his reward.”

translationWords:

- disciple
- amen, truly
- reward

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes instructing his disciples about what they should do and expect when they go to preach.
- Whoever gives - “Anyone who gives”
- one of these little ones - “one of these lowly ones” or “the least important of these.” The phrase “one of these” here refers to one of Jesus’ disciples.
- because he is a disciple - “because he is my disciple.” Here “he” does not refer to the one giving but to the unimportant one.
- truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- he will ... his reward - Here “he” and “his” refer to the one who is giving.
- in no way lose - “God will not deny him.” This has nothing to do with having a possession taken away. It can be stated in positive form. AT: “God will certainly give him”

Matthew 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of 11:10, which is a quotation from the Old Testament, and 11:17.

Some scholars believe that 11:20 begins a new stage in the ministry of Christ because of Israel's rejection of him.

Special concepts in this chapter

Hidden revelation

After 11:20, Jesus begins to reveal information about himself and about the plans of God the Father, while hiding this information from those who reject him. (See: 11:25)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

"The kingdom of heaven is near"

Matthew 11:1-3

UDB:

¹ When Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples about what they should do, he sent them to various Israelite towns. Then he went to teach and preach in other Israelite towns in that area.

² While John the Baptizer was in prison, he heard what the Messiah was doing. So he sent some of his disciples to him ³ to ask him, “Are you the Messiah whom the prophets said would come, or is it someone else that we should expect to come?”

ULB:

11 ¹ It came about that when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities. ² Now when John heard in the prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent a message by his disciples ³ and said to him, “Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- instruct, instruction
- disciple
- preach
- John (the Baptist)
- prison, prisoner, imprison
- works, deeds, work, acts
- Christ, Messiah

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story where the writer tells of how Jesus responded to disciples of John the Baptist. (See: Introduction of a New Event)
- It came about that when - This phrase shifts the story from Jesus’ teachings to what happened next. AT: “Then” or “After”
- instructing - “teaching” or “commanding.”
- his twelve disciples - This refers to the twelve chosen apostles of Jesus. (See: Numbers)
- in their cities - Here “their” refers to all the Jews in general.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- when John heard in the prison about - “When John, who was in prison, heard about” or “When someone told John, who was in prison, about.” Even though Matthew has not yet told the readers that King Herod put John the Baptist in jail, the original audience would have been familiar with the story and understood the implicit information here. Matthew will give more information later about John the Baptist, so it is probably best not to make it explicit here.

- he sent a message by his disciples - John the Baptist sent his own disciples with a message to Jesus.
- and said to him - The pronoun “him” refers to Jesus.
- Are you the one who is coming - “Are you the one whom we are expecting to come.” This is another way to refer to the Messiah or Christ.
- should we look for another - “should we be expecting someone else.” The pronoun “we” refers to all Jews, not only John’s disciples.

Matthew 11:4-6UDB:

⁴ Jesus answered John's disciples, "Go back and report to John what you hear me telling people and what you see me doing. ⁵ I am making blind people to see again and lame people to walk. I am healing people who have leprosy. I am making deaf people to hear again and dead people to become alive again. I am telling the poor people God's good news. ⁶ Also tell John that God is pleased with people who do not stop believing in me because they do not like what I am doing."

ULB:

⁴ Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and report to John what you see and hear. ⁵ Blind people are receiving sight, lame people are walking, lepers are being cleansed, deaf people are hearing again, dead people are being raised back to life, and needy people are being told the good news. ⁶ And blessed is whoever finds no occasion of stumbling over me."

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- report
- John (the Baptist)
- leprosy, leper, leprous
- clean, cleanse
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- good news, gospel
- bless, blessed, blessing
- stumble

translationNotes:

- report to John - "tell John"
- lepers are being cleansed - This can be stated in active form. AT: "I am healing lepers" (See: Active or Passive)
- dead people are being raised back to life - This can be stated in active form. AT: "I am causing those who have died to be alive again" (See: Active or Passive)
- needy people are being told - This can be stated in active form. AT: "I am telling needy people" (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 11:7-8

UDB:

⁷ When John's disciples had gone away, Jesus began to talk to the crowd of people about John. He said to them, "When you went out into the wilderness to see John, what was it you expected to see? You did not go there just to look at the tall grass blowing in the wind, did you? ⁸ So what kind of person did you expect to see? Surely not a man who was wearing expensive clothes. No! You know very well that people who wear clothes like that reside in kings' palaces and not in the wilderness.

ULB:

⁷ As these men went on their way, Jesus began to say to the crowds about John, "What did you go out in the desert to see—a reed being shaken by the wind? ⁸ But what did you go out to see—a man dressed in soft clothing? Really, those who wear soft clothing live in kings' houses.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- John (the Baptist)
- desert, wilderness
- reed, reeds
- king

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to talk to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- What did you go out in the desert to see—a reed ... wind? - Jesus uses a question to cause the people to think about what kind of person John the Baptist is. AT: "Surely you did not go out to the desert to see a reed ... wind!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- a reed being shaken by the wind - Possible meanings are 1) Jesus mean the literal plants by the Jordan River or 2) Jesus is using a metaphor to mean a kind of person. AT: "a man who easily changes his mind and is like a reed blowing back and forth in the wind" (See: Metaphor)
- being shaken by the wind - This can be translated in active form. AT: "swaying in the wind" or "blowing in the wind" (See: Active or Passive)
- But what did you go out to see—a man ... clothing? - Jesus uses a question to cause the people to think about what kind of person John the Baptist is. AT: "And, surely you did not go out to the desert to see a man ... clothing!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- dressed in soft clothing - "wearing expensive clothing." Rich people wore this kind of clothing.
- Really - This word adds emphasis to what follows. AT: "Indeed"

- kings' houses - "kings' palaces" (UDB)

Matthew 11:9-10UDB:

⁹ So really, what kind of person did you expect to see? A prophet? Oh, yes! But let me tell you this: John is not just any ordinary prophet. ¹⁰ He is the one to whom God was referring when someone wrote in the scriptures and said, ‘Notice this! I am sending my messenger to go ahead of you to prepare the people for your coming.’

ULB:

⁹ But what did you go out to see—a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. ¹⁰ This is he of whom it was written,

‘See, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.’

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- written
- messenger
- face

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to talk to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- General Information: - In verse 10, Jesus quotes the prophet Malachi to show that the life and ministry of John the Baptist fulfilled prophecy.
- But what did you go out to see—a prophet? - Jesus uses a question to make the people think about what kind of man John the Baptist is. AT: “But surely you went out to the desert to see a prophet!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- and much more than a prophet - This can be translated as a complete sentence. AT: “he is not an ordinary prophet” or “he is more important than a normal prophet” (See: Ellipsis)
- This is he of whom it was written - This can be stated in active form. AT: “This is what the prophet Malachi wrote long ago about John the Baptist” (See: Active or Passive)
- I am sending my messenger - The pronouns “I” and “my” refer to God. Malachi is quoting what God said.
- before your face - Here “your” is singular, because God was speaking to the Messiah in the quotation. Also, “face” refers to the whole person. AT: “in front of you” or “to go ahead of you” (See: Forms of You and Synecdoche)

- prepare your way before you - This is a metaphor that means the messenger will prepare the people to receive the Messiah's message. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 11:11-12

UDB:

¹¹ Note this: of all the people who have ever lived, God does not consider any of them to be greater than John the Baptizer. At the same time, God considers those that are not important over whom he will agree to rule from heaven are greater than John. ¹² From the time that John the Baptizer preached until now, some people have been trying to make God rule from heaven in their own way, and they have been using force for this purpose.

ULB:

¹¹ I say to you truly, among those born of women no one is greater than John the Baptist. Yet the least important person in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and men of violence take it by force.

translationWords:

- amen, truly
- John (the Baptist)
- suffer, suffering
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to talk to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- I say to you truly - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- among those born of women - This is a way of referring to all humans. AT: “out of all people who have ever lived” (See: Idiom)
- no one is greater than John the Baptist - This can be stated in positive form. AT: “John the Baptist is the greatest” or “John the Baptist is the most important”
- the least important person in the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” is used only in Matthew. If possible, try to keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “the least important person under the rule of our God in heaven” (See: Metonymy)
- is greater than he is - “is more important than John is”
- From the days of John the Baptist - “From the time John began preaching his message” (See: biblical time: day)
- the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and men of violence take it by force - There are various possible interpretations of this verse. The ULB and UDB assume that it means that some people want to use God’s kingdom for their own selfish purposes, and that they are willing to use force against other people to accomplish this. Other versions assume a positive interpretation, that the call to enter the kingdom of God has become so urgent, that people must act in an extreme manner in order to answer that call and to resist the temptation to sin further. A third interpretation is that violent people are harming God's people and trying to stop God from ruling.

Matthew 11:13-15

UDB:

¹³ Everything that I am saying about John is just what you can read in what the prophets have written and what the law has been saying until the time of John the Baptizer. ¹⁴ Not only that, but if you are willing to try to understand this, I will tell you that John is in fact the second Elijah, the prophet who was to come in the future. ¹⁵ If you want to understand this, you must think carefully about what I have just said.

ULB:

¹³ For all the prophets and the law have been prophesying until John. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, the one who was to come. ¹⁵ He who has ears to hear, let him listen.

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- John (the Baptist)
- Elijah

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to talk to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- all the prophets and the law have been prophesying until John - Here “prophets and the law” refer to the things that the prophets and Moses wrote in scripture. AT: “for these are the things that the prophets and Moses have prophesied through the scriptures until the time of John the Baptist” (See: Metonymy)
- and if you - Here “you” is plural and refers to the crowd. (See: Forms of You)
- he is Elijah, the one who was to come - “he” refers to John the Baptist. This does not mean John the Baptist is literally Elijah. Jesus means John the Baptist fulfills the prophecy about “Elijah, who is to come” or the next Elijah. AT: “when the prophet Malachi said that Elijah would return, he was speaking about John the Baptist”
- He who has ears to hear - This is a way of referring to everyone listening. AT: “Everyone who is listening to me” (See: Idiom)
- let him listen - Here “listen” means paying attention. AT: “must pay careful attention to what I am saying” (See: Metonymy)

¹⁶ But you and the other people who are alive now, you are like children who are playing games in the marketplace. Some of them call to their friends, ¹⁷ ‘We played happy music on the flute for you, but you refused to dance! Then we sang sad funeral songs for you, but you refused to cry!’

ULB:

¹⁶ To what should I compare this generation? It is like children playing in the marketplace, who sit and call to one another ¹⁷ and say, ‘We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We mourned, and you did not weep.’

translationWords:

- generation
- flute, pipe
- mourn, mourning

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to talk to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- To what should I compare this generation? - Jesus uses a question to introduce a comparison between the people of that day and what children might say in the marketplace. AT: “This is what this generation is like” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- this generation - “the people living now” or “these people” or “you people of this generation”
- It is like children playing in the marketplace ... and you did not weep - Jesus uses a parable to describe the people who were alive at that time. He compares them to a group of children who are trying to get the other children to play with them. But, no matter way they do, the other children will not join them. Jesus means that it does not matter if God sends someone like John the Baptist, who lives in the desert and fasts, or someone like Jesus, who celebrates with sinners and does not fast. The people, most specifically the Pharisees and religious leaders, still remain stubborn and refuse to accept God’s truth. (See: Parables and Simile)
- marketplace - a large, open-air area where people buy and sell items
- We played a flute for you - “We” refers to the children sitting in the marketplace. Here “you” is plural and refers to the other group of children. (See: Forms of You)
- and you did not dance - “but you did not dance to the happy music”
- We mourned - This means they sang sad songs like women did at funerals. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- and you did not weep - “but you did not cry with us”

Matthew 11:18-19UDB:

¹⁸ I say this because you are dissatisfied with both John and me! When John came and preached to you, he did not eat good food and did not drink wine, like most people do. But you rejected him and said, ‘A demon is controlling him!’ ¹⁹ I, the Son of Man, was not like John. I eat the same food and drink wine as other people do. But you also reject me and say, ‘Look! This man eats too much food and drinks too much wine, and he is friends with tax collectors and other sinners!’ But anyone who is truly wise will show it by doing good deeds.”

ULB:

¹⁸ For John came not eating bread or drinking wine, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’ ¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking and they say, ‘Look, he is a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by her deeds.”

translationWords:

- John (the Baptist)
- bread
- wine, wineskin, new wine
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- Son of Man, son of man
- drunk, drunkard
- tax collector
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- wise, wisdom
- justify, justification
- works, deeds, work, acts

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes talking to the crowds about John the Baptist.
- not eating bread or drinking wine - Here “bread” refers to food. It does not mean that John never ate food. It means he fasted often, and when he ate he did not eat good, expensive food. AT: “frequently fasting and not drinking alcohol” or “not eating good food and drinking wine” (UDB) (See: Synecdoche and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- they say, ‘He has a demon.’ - This can be translated as an indirect quote. AT: “they say that he has a demon” or “they accuse him of having a demon” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- they say - All occurrences of “they” refer to the people of that generation, and most specifically to the Pharisees and religious leaders.

- The Son of Man - Jesus is referring to himself. AT: “I, the Son of Man,” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- came eating and drinking - This is the opposite of John’s behavior. This means more than just consuming the normal amount of food and drink. It means Jesus celebrated and enjoyed good food and drink like other people did.
- they say, ‘Look, he is a gluttonous man - This can be translated as an indirect quote. AT: “they say that he is a gluttonous man” or “they accuse him of eating too much” If you translated “The Son of Man” as “I, the Son of man,” the indirect quote could be translated as “they say that I am a gluttonous man” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations and First, Second or Third Person)
- he is a gluttonous man - “he is a greedy eater” or “he continually eats too much food”
- a drunkard - “a drunk” or “he continually drinks too much alcohol”
- But wisdom is justified by her deeds - This is a proverb that Jesus applies to this situation, because the people who rejected both him and John were not being wise. Jesus and John the Baptist are the wise ones, and the results of their deeds prove it. (See: Proverbs)
- wisdom is justified by her deeds - Here “wisdom” is described as a woman who is proven to be right by what she does. Jesus means that the results of a person’s actions prove that he is truly wise. This can be stated in active form. AT: “The results of a person’s deeds prove that he is wise” (See: Personification and Active or Passive)

Matthew 11:20-22

UDB:

²⁰ The people, who lived in the towns in the area where Jesus was, saw him perform many miracles. But they did not turn away from their sinful behavior. So Jesus began to rebuke them by saying to them, ²¹ "You people who live in the city of Chorazin and you in the city of Bethsaida, how terribly you will suffer! I did great miracles in your cities, but you did not stop sinning. If I had done these things in the cities of Tyre and Sidon of long ago, those wicked people would certainly have stopped sinning; they would have put on rough clothing and sat in the cold ashes of their fires, so sorry they would have been. ²² Let me tell you this: God will punish the wicked people who lived in the cities of Tyre and Sidon, but he will punish you even more severely on the final day when he judges all people.

ULB:

²⁰ Then Jesus began to rebuke the cities in which most of his mighty deeds were done, because they had not repented. ²¹ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²² But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- rebuke
- mighty, might
- works, deeds, work, acts
- repent, repentance
- woe
- Tyre, Tyrians
- Sidon, Sidonians
- sackcloth
- judgment day

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus begins to rebuke the people of the cities where he previously did miracles.
- rebuke the cities - Here "the cities" refers to the people who live there. AT: "rebuke the people of the cities" (See: Metonymy)
- cities - "towns"

- in which most of his mighty deeds were done - This can be translated in active form. AT: “in which he did most of his mighty deeds” (See: Active or Passive)
- mighty deeds - “mighty works” or “works of power” or “miracles”
- Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! - Jesus speaks as if the people of the cities of Chorazin and Bethsaida were there listening to him, but they were not. (See: Apostrophe)
- Woe to you - “How terrible it will be for you!” Here “you” is singular and refers to the city. If it is more natural to refer to the people instead of a city, you could translate with a plural “you.” (See: Forms of You)
- Chorazin ... Bethsaida ... Tyre ... Sidon - The names of these cities are used as metonyms for the people living in these cities. (See: Metonymy and How to Translate Names)
- If the mighty deeds ... in sackcloth and ashes - Jesus is describing a hypothetical situation that could have happened in the past, but it did not. (See: Hypothetical Situations)
- If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you - This can be translated with active forms. AT: “If I had done the mighty deeds among the people of Tyre and Sidon that I have done among you” (See: Active or Passive)
- which were done in you ... than for you - Here the “you” is plural and refers to Chorazin and Bethsaida. If it is more natural for your language, you could use a dual “you” to refer to the two cities, or a plural “you” to refer to the people of the cities. (See: Forms of You)
- they would have repented long - The pronoun “they” refers to the people of Tyre and Sidon.
- repented - “shown they were sorry for their sins”
- it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you - Here “Tyre and Sidon” refers to the people who live there. AT: “God will show more mercy to the people of Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than to you” or “God will punish you more severely at the day of judgment than the people of Tyre and Sidon” (See: Metonymy)
- than for you - The implied information can be made explicit. AT “than for you, because you did not repent and believe in me, even though you saw me do miracles” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

On the contrary, you will go down to where God punishes people after they die! If I had done these same miracles in Sodom of long ago, those wicked people would certainly have stopped sinning, and their city would have been here even today. But you have not stopped sinning. ²⁴ Let me tell you this: God will punish the wicked people who lived in Sodom, but he will punish you even more severely on the final day when he judges all people.”

ULB:

²³ You, Capernaum, do you think you will be exalted to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades. For if in Sodom there had been done the mighty deeds that were done in you, it would still have remained until today. ²⁴ But I say to you that it shall be easier for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you.”

translationWords:

- Capernaum
- exalt, exaltation
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- hades, sheol
- Sodom
- mighty, might
- works, deeds, work, acts
- judgment day

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to rebuke the people of the cities where he previously did miracles.
- You, Capernaum - Jesus now speaks to the people in the city of Capernaum as if they were listening to him, but they were not. The pronoun “you” is singular and refers to Capernaum throughout these two verses. (See: Apostrophe)
- You - All occurrences of “you” are singular. If it is more natural to refer to the people of the city, you could translate with a plural “you.” (See: Forms of You)
- Capernaum ... Sodom - The names of these cities refer to the people living in Capernaum and in Sodom. (See: Metonymy)

- do you think you will be exalted to heaven? - “do you think you will be raised up to heaven?” Jesus uses a rhetorical question to rebuke the people of Capernaum for their pride. It can be stated in active form: AT: “you cannot raise yourself up to heaven” or “the praise of other people will not raise you up to heaven” or “God will not bring you up to heaven like you think he will” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)
- you will be brought down to Hades - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will send you down to Hades” (See: Active or Passive)
- For if in Sodom ... it would still have remained until today - Jesus is describing a hypothetical situation that could have happened in the past, but it did not. (See: Hypothetical Situations)
- if in Sodom there had been done the mighty deeds that were done in - This can be stated in active form. AT: “if I had done the mighty deeds among the people of Sodom that I have done among you” (See: Active or Passive)
- mighty deeds - “mighty works” or “works of power” or “miracles”
- it would still have remained - The pronoun “it” refers to the city of Sodom.
- I say to you - This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- it shall be easier for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you - Here “land of Sodom” refer to the people who lived there. AT: “God will show more mercy to the people of Sodom in the day of judgment than to you” or “God will punish you more severely in the day of judgment than the people of Sodom” (See: Metonymy)

Instead, you have revealed them to people who accept your truth just as little children believe what an adult tells them. ²⁶ Yes, Father, you have done that because it seemed good to you to do so."

²⁷ Then Jesus said to the people, "God, my Father, has revealed to me all the things that I need to know in order to do my work. Only my Father knows who I really am. Furthermore, only I and those people to whom I wish to reveal him really know him.

ULB:

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to those who are untaught, like little children. ²⁶ Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. ²⁷ All things have been entrusted to me from my Father. And no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- praise
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- Lord
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- earth, earthly
- wise, wisdom
- understand, understanding
- reveal, revelation
- Son of God, the Son, Son

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verses 25 and 26, Jesus prays to his heavenly Father while still in the presence of the crowd. In verse 27, he begins to address the people again.
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- Lord of heaven and earth - "Lord who rules over heaven and earth." The phrase "heaven and earth" is a merism that refers to all people and things in the universe. AT: "Lord who rules over the whole universe" (See: Merism)

- you concealed these things ... and revealed them - It is not clear what is meant by “these things.” If your language needs to specify what is meant, an alternative translation might be best. AT: “you concealed these truths ... and revealed them”
- you concealed these things from - “you hid these things from” or “you have not made these things known to.” This verb is the opposite of “revealed.”
- from the wise and understanding - These nominal adjectives can be translated as adjectives. AT: “from people who are wise and understanding” (See: Nominal Adjectives)
- the wise and understanding - Jesus is using irony. He does not think these people are really wise. AT: “people who think they are wise and understanding” (See: Irony)
- revealed them - “made them known.” The pronoun “them” refers to “these things” earlier in this verse.
- to those who are untaught - “to those who are ignorant”
- like little children - Jesus compares an ignorant person to a little child. Jesus is emphasizing that many of those who believe him are not well educated or think of themselves as wise. (See: Simile)
- for so it was well-pleasing in your sight - The phrase “in your sight” is a metonym that stands for how a person considers something. AT: “for you considered it good to do this” (See: Metonymy)
- All things have been entrusted to me from my Father - This can be stated in active form. AT: “My Father has entrusted all things to me” or “My Father has given everything over to me” (See: Active or Passive)
- All things - Possible meanings are 1) God the Father has revealed everything about himself and his kingdom to Jesus or 2) God has given all authority to Jesus.
- my Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- no one knows the Son except the Father - “only the Father knows the Son”
- no one knows - Both times Jesus uses this phrase, the word “knows” means more than just knowing the person. It means knowing the person intimately because they have a special relationship.
- the Son - Jesus was referring to himself in the third person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- Son - This is an important title for Jesus, the Son of God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- no one knows the Father except the Son - “only the Son knows the Father”

I will let you rest from all that. ²⁹ Submit to me, like an ox to its yoke, and learn what I have to teach you. I am gentle and humble, and you will truly rest. ³⁰ For the load I will give you is light, and you will carry it easily.”

ULB:

²⁸ Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

translationWords:

- labor, laborer
- burden
- rest
- yoke
- meek, meekness
- heart
- soul

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes speaking to the crowd.
- all you - All occurrences of “you” are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- who labor and are heavy burdened - Jesus is speaking about the people as if they are animals, which their masters have made to carry too much weight on their backs. This is a metaphor for all the laws and rules the Jewish leaders expect the people to obey. AT: “who labor under all the laws the religious leaders place on you” (See: Metaphor)
- I will give you rest - “I will allow you to rest from your labor and burden”
- Take my yoke on you - Jesus continues the metaphor. Jesus is inviting the people to become his disciples and follow him. (See: Metaphor)
- I am meek and lowly in heart - Here “meek” and “lowly in heart” mean basically the same thing. Jesus combines them to emphasize that he will be much more kind than the religious leaders. AT: “I am gentle and humble” (UDB) or “I am very gentle” (See: Doublet)
- lowly in heart - This is an idiom that means “humble.” (See: Idiom)
- you will find rest for your souls - Here “soul” refers to the entire person. AT: “you will find rest for yourselves” or “you will be able to rest” (See: Synecdoche)

- For my yoke is easy and my burden is light - Both of these phrases mean the same thing. Jesus is emphasizing that it is easier to obey him than it is the Jewish law. AT: “For what I place on you, you will be able to carry because it is light” (See: Parallelism)
- my burden is light - The word “light” here is the opposite of heavy, not the opposite of dark.

Structure and Formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of 12:18-21, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

The Sabbath

Obedience to the Sabbath is an important part of this chapter. However, Jesus distinguishes between following the Sabbath the way God commanded and following the rules the Pharisees created about the Sabbath. (See: Sabbath)

“Blasphemy against the Spirit”

There is a great deal of controversy regarding properly identifying this specific sin. However, it seems to involve insulting the Holy Spirit and his work. Since part of his work is to convince people that they are sinners and that they need God’s forgiveness, anyone who mocked this truth would be unwilling to come in repentance to God. For this reason, he would not be forgiven. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Brother and Sisters

This chapter introduces the concept of “spiritual” brothers and sisters. Scripture uses these terms to refer to the relationship between fellow Israelites. Here, those who follow Jesus are now referred to as brothers and sisters. (See: spirit, spiritual and brother)

Matthew 12:1-2UDB:

¹ On a Sabbath at that time, Jesus and the disciples were walking past some grain fields. Because the disciples were hungry, they began to pick some of the heads of grain and eat them, something that the law of Moses allowed. ² Some Pharisees saw them doing that, so they said to Jesus, “Look! Your disciples are doing work on our day of rest. The law does not allow that!”

ULB:

12 ¹ At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. ² But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to Jesus, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Sabbath
- grain
- disciple
- Pharisee
- unlawful

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story where the writer tells of growing opposition to Jesus’ ministry. Here, the Pharisees criticize his disciples for picking grain on the Sabbath.
- At that time - This marks a new part of the story. AT: “A little later”
- grainfields - a place to plant grain. If wheat is unknown and “grain” is too general, then you can use “fields of the plant they made bread from.” (See: Translate Unknowns)
- pluck heads of grain and eat them ... do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath - Picking grain in others’ fields and eating it was not considered stealing. The question was whether one could do this otherwise lawful activity on the Sabbath.
- to pluck heads of grain and eat them - “to pick some of the wheat and eat it” or “to pick some of the grain and eat it”
- heads of grain - This is the topmost part of the wheat plant. It holds the mature grain or seeds of the plant.
- the Pharisees - This does not mean all of the Pharisees. AT: “some Pharisees”
- See - “Look” (UDB). The Pharisees use this word to draw attention to what the disciples are doing.

Matthew 12:3-4

UDB:

³ But Jesus answered, "It is written in the scriptures what our ancestor King David did when he and the men with him were hungry. ⁴ David entered the Sacred Tent where they worshiped God and ate the bread that had been on display before God. But according to the law of Moses, only priests were permitted to eat that bread, but David and the men who were with him ate it.

ULB:

³ But Jesus said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him? ⁴ He went into the house of God and ate the bread of the presence, which was unlawful for him to eat and unlawful for those who were with him, but lawful only for the priests.

translationWords:

- David
- house of God, Yahweh's house
- unlawful
- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- priest, priesthood

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus responds to the Pharisees' criticism.
- to them - "to the Pharisees"
- Have you never read ... with him? - Jesus uses a question to respond to the criticism of the Pharisees. Jesus is challenging them to think about the meaning of the scriptures they have read. AT: "I know you have read about ... with him" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the house of God - During the time of David there was no temple yet. AT: "the tabernacle" or "the place for worshiping God"
- bread of the presence - This is sacred bread that priests placed before God in the tabernacle. AT: "bread that the priest placed before God" or "the sacred bread" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- those who were with him - "the men who were with David"
- but lawful only for the priests - "but, according to the law, only the priest could eat it"

ULB:

⁵ And have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath but are guiltless? ⁶ But I say to you that one greater than the temple is here.

translationWords:

- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- Sabbath
- temple
- profane

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- and have you not read in the law ... but are guiltless? - Jesus uses a question to respond to the criticism of the Pharisees. Jesus is challenging them to think about the meaning of what they have read in the scriptures. AT: “And, you have read in the law of Moses ... but are guiltless”
- profane the Sabbath - “do on the Sabbath what they would do on any other day”
- are guiltless - “God will not punish them” or “God does not consider them guilty”
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- one greater than the temple - “someone who is more important than the temple.” Jesus was referring to himself as the one greater. (See: First, Second or Third Person)

ULB:

⁷ If you had known what this meant, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless. ⁸ For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

translationWords:

- mercy, merciful
- sacrifice, offering
- condemn, condemnation
- Son of Man, son of man
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- General Information: - In verse 7, Jesus quotes the prophet Hosea to rebuke the Pharisees.
- If you had known what this meant, ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless - Here Jesus quotes scripture. AT: “The prophet Hosea wrote this long ago: ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice.’ If you had understood what this meant, you would not have condemned the guiltless” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- I desire mercy and not sacrifice - In the law of Moses, God did command the Israelites to offer sacrifices. This means God considers mercy more important than the sacrifices.
- I desire - The pronoun “I” refers to God.
- the guiltless - This can be translated as an adjective. AT: “those who are not guilty” (See: Nominal Adjectives)
- Son of Man - Jesus is referring to himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- is Lord of the Sabbath - “rules over the Sabbath” or “makes the laws about what people can do on the Sabbath”

Matthew 12:9-10

UDB:

⁹ After Jesus left there that day, he went into a synagogue. ¹⁰ There he saw a man with a withered hand. The Pharisees kept wanting to debate with Jesus about the Sabbath, so one of them asked him, “Does God permit us to heal people on our day of rest?” They were hoping that Jesus would commit a sin by saying something wrong.

ULB:

⁹ Then Jesus left from there and went into their synagogue. ¹⁰ Behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. The Pharisees asked Jesus, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” so that they might accuse him of sinning.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- synagogue
- Pharisee
- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- heal, cure
- Sabbath
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the scene shifts to a later time when the Pharisees criticize Jesus for healing a man on the Sabbath.
- Then Jesus left from there - “Jesus left the grainfields” or “Then Jesus left”
- their synagogue - “a synagogue.” Here “their” refers to the Jews in general not just the Pharisees from the previous section.
- Behold - The word “Behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- a man who had a withered hand - “a man who had a paralyzed hand” or “a man with a crippled hand”
- The Pharisees asked Jesus, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” so that they might accuse him of sinning - “The Pharisees wanted to accuse Jesus of sinning, so they asked him, ‘Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?’”
- Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? - “According to the law of Moses, may a person heal another person on the Sabbath?”

- so that they might accuse him of sinning - They did not just want to accuse Jesus in front of the people. The Pharisees wanted Jesus to give an answer that contradicted the law of Moses so they could take him before a judge and legally charge him with breaking the law. translationNotes:

- General Information: - This account explains how the actions of Jesus fulfilled one of the prophecies of Isaiah.
- As Jesus perceived this, he - “Jesus was aware of what the Pharisees were planning, so he”
- withdrew from - “departed from” or “left”
- not to make him known to others - “not to tell anyone else about him”
- that it might come true, what - This can be translated as a new sentence. AT: “This fulfilled what”
- what had been said through Isaiah the prophet, saying - This can be stated in active form. AT: “what God had said long ago through the prophet Isaiah”

translationWords:

- servant, slave, slavery
- chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect
- beloved
- soul
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- judge, judgment
- Gentile

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here Matthew quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that Jesus' ministry fulfilled scripture.
- See - "Look." God used this word to introduce a new person.
- my ... I - All occurrences of these words refer to God. Isaiah is quoting what God said to him.
- in whom my soul is well pleased - Here "soul" refers to the whole person. AT: "and I am very pleased with him" (See: Synecdoche)
- and he will - "and my servant will"
- announce judgment - Here "judgment" does not mean "punishment." It means the servant will tell the Gentiles that God is just, and he will save them.

neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰ He will not break any bruised reed;

he will not quench any smoking flax, until he sends out judgment to victory.

²¹ And the Gentiles will have confidence in his name.”

translationWords:

- voice
- reed, reeds
- judge, judgment
- Gentile
- name

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Matthew continues to quote the prophet Isaiah.
- neither will anyone hear his voice in - Here “voice” refers to the whole person. AT: “And he will not speak loudly” (See: Synecdoche)
- his ... He - All occurrences of these words refer to God’s chosen servant.
- in the streets - This is an idiom that means “publicly.” AT: “in the cities and towns” (See: Idiom)

- He will not break any bruised reed; he will not quench any smoking flax - Both of these statements mean the same thing. They are metaphors emphasizing that God's servant will be gentle and kind. Both "bruised reed" and "smoking flax" represent weak and hurting people. If the metaphor is confusing, you could translate the literal meaning. AT: "He will be kind to weak people, and he will be gentle to those who are hurting" (See: Parallelism and Metaphor)
- bruised reed - "damaged plant"
- he will not quench - "he will not put out"
- smoking flax - This refers to a lamp wick after the flame has gone out and when it is only smoking.
- flax, until - This can be translated with a new sentence: "flax. This is what he will do until"
- he leads justice to victory - "until he succeeds in bringing my justice and salvation to the people." The meaning of the abstract noun "judgment" can be translated as "just" or "save." AT: "the people know that I am just, and I will save them" (See: Abstract Nouns)
- in his name - Here "name" refers to the whole person. AT: "in him" (See: Synecdoche)

- Then someone blind and mute, possessed by a demon, was brought to Jesus - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Then someone brought to Jesus a man who was blind and mute because a demon was controlling him” (See: Active or Passive)
- someone blind and mute - “someone who could not see and could not talk”
- All the crowds were amazed - “All the people who had seen Jesus heal the man were greatly surprised”
- the Son of David - This is a title for the Christ or Messiah.
- Son of - Here this means “descendant of.”

translationWords:

- Pharisee
- miracle, wonder, sign
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- Beelzebul
- prince, princess
- kingdom
- desolate, desolation

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 25, Jesus begins to respond to the Pharisees’ accusation that he healed the man by the power of Satan.
- this miracle - This refers to the miracle of the healing of a blind, deaf, and demon-possessed man.
- This man does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub - This can be stated in a positive form. “This man is only able to cast out the demon because he is a servant of Beelzebub” (See: Double Negatives)
- This man - The Pharisees avoid calling Jesus by name to show they reject him.
- the prince of the demons - “the chief of the demons”
- Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand - Jesus uses a proverb to respond to the Pharisees. Both of these statements mean the same thing. They emphasize that it would not make sense for Beelzebub to use his power to fight other demons. (See: Proverbs and Parallelism)

- Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate - Here “kingdom” refers to those who live in the kingdom. This can be translated in active form. AT: “A kingdom will not last when its people fight among themselves” (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)
- every city or house divided against itself will not stand - Here “city” refers to the people who live there. And, “house” refers to a family. AT: “it ruins a city or a family when the people fight each other” (See: Metonymy)

ULB:

²⁶ If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How will his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? Because of this? For this reason they will be your judges.

translationWords:

- Satan, devil, evil one
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- judge, judgment

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees' accusation that he healed the man by the power of Satan.
- If Satan drives out Satan - The second use of Satan refers to the demons that serve Satan. AT: "If Satan works against his own demons" (See: Metonymy)
- Satan ... Beelzebul - Both names refer to the same person.
- How then will his kingdom stand? - Jesus uses a question to challenge the Pharisees. AT: "Satan's kingdom cannot stand" or "Satan's kingdom will not last" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- by whom do your sons drive them out? - Jesus uses another question to challenge the Pharisees. AT: "then you must say your followers also drive out demons by the power of Beelzebul. But, you know this is not true". (See: Rhetorical Question)
- your sons - Jesus was speaking to the Pharisees. The phrase "your sons" refers to their followers. This was a common way of referring to those who follow teachers or leaders. AT: "your followers" (See: Metaphor)
- For this reason they will be your judges - "Because your followers cast out demons by the power of God, they prove that you are wrong about me."

translationWords:

- cast out, drive out, throw out
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- But if I - Here "if" does not mean Jesus is questioning how he drives out demons. Here Jesus uses the word to introduce a true statement. AT: "But, because I"
- then the kingdom of God has come upon you - "then the kingdom of God has arrived among you." Here "kingdom" refers to God's rule as king. AT: "this means God is establishing his rule among you" (See: Metonymy)
- come upon you - Here "you" is plural and refers to the people of Israel. (See: Forms of You)
- And how can anyone enter the house ... belongings from his house - Jesus uses a parable to continue his response to the Pharisees. Jesus means he can drive out demons because he is more powerful than Satan. (See: Parables)
- And how can anyone enter ... without tying up the strong man first? - Jesus uses a question to teach the Pharisees and the crowd. AT: "No one can enter ... without tying up the strong man first” or “If a person wants to enter ... he must first tie up the strong man” (See: Rhetorical Question)

- without tying up the strong man first - “without taking control of the strong man first”
- Then he will steal - “The he can steal” or “Then he will be able to steal”
- who is not with me - “who does not support me” or “who does not work with me”
- is against me - “opposes me” or “works against me”
- the one who does not gather with me scatters - Jesus is using a metaphor that refers to a person either gathering the flock of sheep to a shepherd or making them scatter away from the shepherd. Jesus means that a person is either helping to make people become disciples of Jesus or he is making people reject Jesus. (See: Metaphor)

But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, that will not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come.

translationWords:

- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- blasphemy, blaspheme, blasphemous
- forgive, forgiveness
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- word
- Son of Man, son of man

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- say to you - Here “you” is plural. Jesus is speaking directly to the Pharisees, but he is also teaching the crowd. (See: Forms of You)
- every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will forgive every sin that people commit and every evil thing they say” or “God will forgive every person who sins or says evil things” (See: Active or Passive)
- blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will not forgive the person who speaks evil things about the Holy Spirit” (See: Active or Passive)
- And whoever speaks any word against the Son of Man - Here “word” refers to what someone says. AT: “And if a person says anything bad about the Son of Man” (See: Metonymy)
- the Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)

- that will be forgiven him - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will forgive a person for that” (See: Active or Passive)
- that will not be forgiven him - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will not forgive that person”
- neither in this world, nor in that which is to come - Here “this world” and “that which is to come” refer to the present life and the next life. AT: “in this life or in the next life” or “now or ever” (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 12:33-35

UDB:

³³ "When you see some fruit from a tree, you decide whether the fruit is good or bad. If it is good, then you know that its tree is also good. If I am doing good things, then you should know whether or not I am good. ³⁴ You are like the children of poisonous snakes! You cannot say anything good, because you are evil. What a person says shows what is inside him. ³⁵ Good people speak good things. That is because it is like they have stored up all these good things in a safe place and can bring them out at any time. But evil people speak evil things. That is because it is like they have stored up all these evil things and bring them out at any time from the place where they store them.

ULB:

³³ Make a tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴ You offspring of vipers, since you are evil, how can you say good things? For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man from the good treasure of his heart produces what is good, and the evil man from the evil treasure of his heart produces what is evil.

translationWords:

- fruit, fruitful
- offspring
- heart
- evil, wicked, wickedness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- Make a tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad - Possible meanings are 1) "If you make a tree good, its fruit will be good, and if you make the tree bad, its fruit will be bad" or 2) "If you consider a tree to be good, it will be because its fruit is good, and if you consider it tree to be bad, it will be because its fruit is bad." This was a proverb. People were to apply its truth to how they can know whether a person is good or bad.
- good ... bad - "healthy ... diseased"
- a tree is recognized by its fruit - This can be stated in active form. AT: "people know whether a tree is good or bad by looking at its fruit" (See: Active or Passive)
- You offspring of vipers - Here "offspring" means "having the characteristic of." Vipers are poisonous snakes that are dangerous and represent evil. See how you translated a similar phrase in 3:7. (See: Metaphor)
- You ... you - These are plural and refer to the Pharisees. (See: Forms of You)

- how can you say good things? - Jesus uses a question to rebuke the Pharisees. AT: “you cannot say good things” or “you can only say evil things” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks - Here “abundance of the heart” refers to the thoughts in a person’s mind. The “mouth” represents a person here. AT: “what a person says with his mouth reveals what is in his mind” (See: Metonymy and Synecdoche)
- The good man from the good treasure of his heart produces what is good, and the evil man from the evil treasure of his heart produces what is evil - Jesus speaks about the “heart” as if it is a container that a person fills with good or evil things. This is a metaphor that means what a person says reveals what the person is truly like. If you want to keep this imagery see the UDB. You can also translate the literal meaning. AT: “A man who is truly good will speak good things, and the man who is truly evil will speak evil things” (See: Metaphor)

UDB:

³⁶ I tell you that on the day when God judges, he will make people recall every useless word they have spoken, and he will judge the people by what they have said. ³⁷ God will either declare that you are righteous based on the words that you have spoken, or else he will condemn you based on what you have said.”

ULB:

³⁶ And I say to you that in the day of judgment people will give an account for every idle word they will have said. ³⁷ For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

translationWords:

- judgment day
- word
- justify, justification
- condemn, condemnation

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes his response to the Pharisees' accusation that he healed the man by the power of Satan.
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- people will give an account for - “God will ask people about” or “people will have to explain to God”
- every idle word they will have said - Here “word” refers to something that someone says. AT: “every harmful thing they will have said” (See: Metonymy)
- you will be justified ... you will be condemned - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will justify you ... God will condemn you” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 12:38-40

UDB:

³⁸ Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish laws responded to Jesus, “Teacher, we want to see you perform a miracle that will convince us that God sent you.” ³⁹ Then Jesus said to them, “You people have already seen me perform miracles, but you are evil, and you do not faithfully worship God! You want me to prove that God sent me, but God will show you only one miracle. It will be like what happened to Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰ Jonah was in the stomach of a huge fish for three days and nights before God caused him to come out. Similarly, for three days and nights I, the Son of Man, will be deep in the earth, and then God will cause me to live again.

ULB:

³⁸ Then certain scribes and Pharisees answered Jesus and said, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you.” ³⁹ But Jesus answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign. But no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰ For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the big fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

translationWords:

- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- teacher, Teacher
- miracle, wonder, sign
- adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress
- generation
- Jonah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The dialogue in these verses happens immediately after Jesus responded to the Pharisees’ accusation that he healed a man by the power of Satan.
- General Information: - In verse 39, Jesus begins to rebuke the scribes and Pharisees.
- wish - “want”
- to see a sign from you - You can make explicit why they want to see a sign. AT: “to see a sign from you that proves what you say is true” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

- An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign ... given to it - Jesus is speaking to his present generation. AT: “You are an evil and adulterous generation who demands signs from me ... given to you” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- adulterous generation - Here “adulterous” is a metaphor for people who are not faithful to God. AT: “unfaithful generation” or “godless generation” (See: Metaphor)
- seeks for a sign - This request angers Jesus because of the religious leaders skeptical attitude about Jesus. He had already performed many miracles, but they still did not believe him. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- no sign will be given - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will not give a sign” (See: Active or Passive)
- except the sign of Jonah the prophet - “except the same sign God gave to Jonah the prophet”
- three days and three nights - Here “day” and “night” mean complete 24-hour periods. AT: “three complete days” (See: Merism)
- the Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- in the heart of the earth - This means inside a physical grave. (See: Idiom)

Matthew 12:41UDB:

⁴¹ When God judges everyone, the people who lived in the city of Nineveh will stand in front of him beside you people. But they stopped sinning when Jonah warned them. Now I have come to you, and I am far more important than Jonah was, but you have not stopped sinning. So God will judge you.

ULB:

⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation of people and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and see, someone greater than Jonah is here.

translationWords:

- Nineveh, Ninevite
- judgment day
- generation
- condemn, condemnation
- repent, repentance
- preach

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to rebuke the scribes and Pharisees.
- The men of Nineveh - “The citizens of Nineveh”
- will stand up at the judgment with this generation - “will stand up on the judgment day and accuse this generation”
- this generation - Jesus means the people living during his time.
- and will condemn it - It will actually be God who condemns Jesus’ generation. AT: “and God will listen to the citizens of Nineveh and condemn this generation” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- and see - “and look.” This emphasizes what Jesus says next.
- someone greater - “someone more important”
- someone - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)

So when God judges everyone, the queen of Sheba will stand in front of him beside you people, and she will condemn you.”

ULB:

⁴² The Queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn it. She came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and see, someone greater than Solomon is here.

translationWords:

- queen
- judgment day
- generation
- wise, wisdom
- Solomon

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to rebuke the scribes and Pharisees.
- Queen of the South - This refers to the Queen of Sheba. Sheba is a land south of Israel. (See: How to Translate Names)
- will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation - “will stand up on the judgment day and accuse the men of this generation.” See how you translated a similar statement in 12:41.
- this generation - This means the people living during the time Jesus was preaching.
- condemn it - It will actually be God who condemns Jesus’ generation. AT: “and God will listen to the citizens of Nineveh and condemn this generation.” See how you translated a similar statement in 12:41. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- She came from the ends of the earth - Here “ends of the earth” is an idiom that means “far away.” AT: “She came from very far away” (See: Idiom)
- She came - This statement explains why the Queen of the South will condemn Jesus’ generations. AT: “For she came” (See: Connecting Words)
- and see - “and look.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- someone greater - “someone more important”
- someone - Jesus is speaking about himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)

- than Solomon is here - You can make explicit the implicit meaning of Jesus' statement. AT: "than Solomon is here, yet you do not listen. That is why God will condemn you" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 12:43-45UDB:

⁴³ "Sometimes when an evil spirit leaves a person, it wanders around in desolate areas, seeking someone in whom he can rest. If he does not find anyone, ⁴⁴ he says to itself, 'I will return to the person in whom I used to live.' So he goes back and finds that the Spirit of God is not in control of that person's life. The person's life is like a house that has been swept clean and everything put in order, but it is empty. ⁴⁵ Then this evil spirit goes and gets seven other spirits that are even more evil, and they all enter that person and begin living there. So although that person's condition was bad before, it becomes much worse. That is what you wicked people who have heard me teach will experience."

ULB:

⁴³ When an unclean spirit has gone away from a man, it passes through waterless places and looks for rest, but does not find it. ⁴⁴ Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' Having returned, it finds that house swept out and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all come in to live there. Then the final condition of that man becomes worse than the first. It will be just like that with this evil generation."

translationWords:

- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- generation

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to rebuke the scribes and Pharisees.
- When an unclean spirit ... with this evil generation - Jesus tells a parable to warn the people of the danger of not believing him. (See: Parables)
- waterless places - "dry places" or "places where no people live"
- does not find it - Here "it" refers to rest.
- Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' - This can be translated as a statement rather than a quotation. AT: "So, the unclean spirit decides to return to the house from which it came"
- to my house from which I came - This is a metaphor for the person in whom the unclean spirit was living. AT: "to the place I left" (See: Metaphor)
- it finds that house swept out and put in order - This can be stated in active form. AT: "the unclean spirit finds that someone has swept the house clean and has put everything in the house where it belongs" (See: Active or Passive)

- that house swept out and put in order - Again, “house” is a metaphor for the person in whom the unclean spirit was living. Here, “swept out and put in order” suggests that no one is living in the house. Jesus means when an unclean spirit leaves a person, the person must invite the Holy Spirit to live in him or else the demon will come back. (See: Metaphor)
- It will be just like that with this evil generation - This means that if the people of Jesus’ generation do not believe him and become his disciples, they will be in a worse situation than they were before he came.

⁴⁶ While Jesus was still speaking to the crowd, his mother and his younger brothers arrived. They stood outside the house, and they wanted to speak with him. ⁴⁷ Someone said to him, “Your mother and your younger brothers are standing outside the house, and they want to talk to you.”

ULB:

⁴⁶ While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. ⁴⁷ Someone said to him, “Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you.”

translationWords:translationNotes:

- General Information: - The arrival of Jesus’ mother and brothers becomes an opportunity for him to describe his spiritual family.
- behold - The word “behold” alerts us to a new people in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- his mother - This is Mary, Jesus’ human mother.
- his brothers - These are probably other children born to Mary. But, it is possible they are Jesus’ cousins.
- seeking to speak - “wanting to speak”
- Someone said to him, “Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you.” - This can be translated as an indirect quotation. AT: “Someone told Jesus that his mother and brothers were outside and wanted to speak to him” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)

ULB:

⁴⁸ But Jesus answered and said to him who told him, “Who is my mother? And who are my brothers?” ⁴⁹ Then he stretched out his hand toward his disciples and said, “See, here are my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, that person is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- will of God
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This is the end of the part of the story that began in 12:1, where the writer tells of growing opposition to Jesus’ ministry.
- who told him - The details of the message the person told Jesus are understood and not repeated here. AT: “who told Jesus that his mother and brothers wanted to speak to him” (See: Ellipsis)
- Who is my mother and who are my brothers? - Jesus uses these questions to teach the people. AT: “I will tell you who are really my mother and brothers” (UDB) (See: Rhetorical Question)
- See - “Look.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- here are my mother and my brothers - This is a metaphor that means Jesus’ disciples belong to Jesus’ spiritual family. This is more important than belonging to his physical family. (See: Metaphor)
- whoever - “anyone”
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

- that person is my brother, and sister, and mother - This is a metaphor meaning that those who obey God belong to Jesus' spiritual family. This is more important than belonging to his physical family. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 13 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 13:14-15, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

This chapter begins a new section. It contains some of Jesus' parables about the kingdom of heaven.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Parables

A parable is a short story used to illustrate a moral or religious lesson. In this chapter, the parables, reveal truth about the kingdom of heaven to those who have faith in Jesus. They also conceal these same truths from those who reject Jesus (13:11-13). These parables usually take the form of stories.

Synecdoche and Merism

In this chapter, Matthew references the eyes seeing and the ears hearing. This chapter uses these figures of speech to encourage his reader to understand these parable's lessons.

Matthew 13:1-2

UDB:

¹ That same day Jesus, along with the disciples, left the house where he was teaching and went to the shore of the Sea of Galilee. He sat down there, ² and a very large crowd gathered around him to listen to him teach. In order to have a little room, he got into a boat and sat down to teach them. The crowd stood on the shore and listened to him.

ULB:

13 ¹ On that day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. ² A very large crowd gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat in it, while the whole crowd stood on the beach.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Sea of Galilee, Sea of Chinnereth, Lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Tiberias

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story where Jesus begins to teach the crowds, using parables, about the kingdom of heaven.
- On that day - These events happened on the same day as those in the previous chapter. (See: biblical time: day)
- sat beside the sea - It is implied that he sat down to teach the people. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- out of the house - It is not mentioned at whose house Jesus was staying.
- so he got into a boat - It is implied that Jesus got into a boat because it would make it easier to teach the people. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- a boat - This was probably an open, wooden fishing boat with a sail. (See: Translate Unknowns)

Matthew 13:3-6

UDB:

³ He taught them using many parables. He said, "Listen! A man went out to his field to sow seeds. ⁴ As he was scattering the seeds over the soil, some of the seeds fell on the path. But some birds came and ate those seeds. ⁵ Other seeds fell on ground where there was not much soil on top of the rock. Those seeds sprouted very soon, because the sun quickly warmed the shallow soil. ⁶ But when the young plants came up, they became too hot in the sunlight, and they dried up because they did not have deep roots.

ULB:

³ Then Jesus said many things to them in parables. He said, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow seed. ⁴ As he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. Immediately they sprang up, because the soil had no depth. ⁶ But when the sun had risen, they were scorched because they had no root, and they withered away.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- parable
- sow, sower, plant

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven by telling a parable about a person who sows seeds.
- Jesus said many things to them in parables - "Jesus told them many things in parables"
- to them - "to the people in the crowd"
- Behold - "Look" or "Listen." This word calls attention to what is to be said next. AT: "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"
- a farmer went out to sow seed - "a farmer went out to scatter seeds in a field"
- As he sowed - "As the farmer scattered the seed"
- beside the road - This refers to a "path" next to the field. The ground there would have been hard from people walking on it.
- devoured them - "ate all the seeds"
- rocky ground - This is ground full of rocks with just a thin layer of soil on top of the rocks.
- Immediately they sprang up - "The seeds quickly sprouted and grew"
- they were scorched - This can be stated in active form. AT: "the sun scorched the plants, and they became too hot" (See: Active or Passive)

- they withered away - “the plants became dry and died”

Matthew 13:7-9

UDB:

⁷ Other seeds fell on ground that had thorny weeds. The thorny weeds grew together with the young plants, and they crowded out the plants. ⁸ But other seeds fell on good soil, and the plants grew and produced a lot of grain. Some plants produced one hundred times as many seeds as were planted. Some plants produced sixty times as much. Some plants produced thirty times as much. ⁹ If you are able to understand this, you should consider carefully what I have just said.”

ULB:

⁷ Other seeds fell among the thorn plants. The thorn plants grew up and choked them. ⁸ Other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. ⁹ He who has ears, let him listen.”

translationWords:

- seed
- thorn, thistle
- grain

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes telling a parable about a person who sows seeds.
- fell among the thorn plants - “fell where plants with thorns grew”
- choked them - “choked the new sprouts.” Use your word for the way weeds prevent other plants from growing well.
- produced grain - “produced a crop” or “grew more seeds” or “gave fruit”
- some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty - You can make clear the understood information as was done in the UDB. (See: Ellipsis)
- one hundred ... sixty ... thirty - “100 ... 60 ... 30” (See: Numbers)
- He who has ears - This is a way of referring to everyone listening. AT: “Everyone who is listening to me.” See how you translated this in 11:15. (See: Idiom)
- let him listen - Here “listen” means paying attention. AT: “must pay careful attention to what I am saying.” See how you translated this in 11:15. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 13:10-12

UDB:

¹⁰ The disciples approached Jesus later and asked him, “Why do you use parables when you speak to the crowd?” ¹¹ He answered, “God is revealing to you what he did not reveal before, about how he is ruling from heaven. But he has not revealed it to these other people. ¹² Those who are able to think about what I say and understand it, God will enable them to understand more. But those who are not able think carefully about what I say will forget even what they already know.

ULB:

¹⁰ The disciples came and said to Jesus, “Why do you talk to the crowd in parables?” ¹¹ Jesus answered and said to them, “You have been given the privilege of understanding mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. ¹² Because whoever has, even more will be given. translationWords:

- disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- parable
- understand, understanding
- mystery, hidden truth
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Jesus explains to his disciples why he teaches with parables.
- to them - Here “them” refers to the disciples.
- You have been given the privilege of understanding mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given - This can be translated with the active form and supplying implied information. AT: “God has given you the privilege of understanding mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but God has not given it to these people” or “God has made you able to understand mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but he has not enabled these people” (See: Active or Passive and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- You - This is plural and refers to the disciples. (See: Forms of You)
- mysteries of the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” occurs only in the book of Matthew. If possible, try to keep it in your translation. AT: “the secrets about our God in heaven and his rule” (See: Metonymy)
- whoever has - “whoever has understanding” or “whoever receives what I teach”

- even more will be given - This can be translated in active form. AT: “God will give him more understanding” (See: Active or Passive)
- whoever does not have - “whoever does not have understanding” or “whoever does not receive what I teach”
- even what he has will be taken away from him - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will take away even what he has” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 13:13-14UDB:

¹³ That is why I use parables when I speak to people, because although they see what I do, they do not understand what it means, and although they hear what I say, they do not really learn what it means. ¹⁴ What these people do completely fulfills what God told the prophet Isaiah to say long ago,

You will hear what I say, but you will not understand it.

You will see what I do, but you will not learn what it means.

ULB:

¹³ So I talk to them in parables, because although they see, they do not really see. And although they hear, they do not really hear, neither do they understand. ¹⁴ To them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, that which says, ‘While hearing you will hear, but you will in no way understand;

while seeing you will see, but you will in no way perceive.

translationWords:

- parable
- understand, understanding
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Isaiah
- fulfill

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to explain to his disciples why he teaches in parables.
- General Information: - In verse 14, Jesus quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that the people’s failure to understand Jesus’ teaching is a fulfillment of prophecy.
- to them ... they - All occurrences of “them” and “they” refer to the people in the crowd.
- Though they are seeing, they do not see; and though they are hearing, they do not hear, or understand. - Jesus uses this parallelism to tell and emphasize to the disciples that the crowd refuses to understand God’s truth. (See: Parallelism)

- although they see, they do not really see - The second use of “see” here means understand. It can be made explicit what they see. AT: “though they see the things I do, they do not understand them” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- although they hear, they do not really hear, neither do they understand - It can be made explicit what the people hear. AT: “though they hear what I say, they do not understand what I truly mean” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- To them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, that which says - This can be stated in active form. AT: “They are fulfilling what God said long ago through the prophet Isaiah”
- While hearing you will hear, but you will in no way understand; while seeing you will see, but you will in no way perceive - This begins a quote from the prophet Isaiah about the unbelieving people of Isaiah’s day. Jesus is using this quote to describe the very crowd that was listening to him. These statements are again parallel and emphasize that the people refuse to understand God’s truth. (See: Parallelism)
- While hearing you will hear, but you will in no way understand - “You will hear things, but you will not understand them.” You can make explicit what the people will hear. AT: “You will hear what God says through the prophets, but you will not understand its true meaning” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- while seeing you will see, but you will in no way perceive - You can make explicit what the people will see. AT: “you will see what God does through the prophets, but you will not understand it” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 13:15UDB:

¹⁵ God also said to Isaiah,

These people have become unable to really listen to me;

They have become unable to really hear what I say.

It is as if they wanted to keep their eyes shut,

As if they did not really want to see anything,

As if they did not really want to hear anything.

They are like this so they will not think they must stop sinning;

They are like this so they will not think they need for me to save them.

ULB:

¹⁵ For this people's heart has become dull, and they are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes,

so they should not see with their eyes,

or hear with their ears, or understand with their hearts,

so they would turn again,

and I would heal them.'

translationWords:

- heart
- turn, turn away, turn back
- heal, cure

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes quoting the prophet Isaiah.
- For this people's heart ... I would heal them - In 13:15 God describes the people of Israel as if they have physical diseases that cause them to be unable to learn, to see, and to hear. God wants them to come to him so he will heal them. This is all a metaphor describing the people's spiritual condition. It means the people are stubborn and refuse to receive and understand God's truth. If they would, then they would repent and God would forgive them and welcome them back as his people. If the meaning is clear, keep the metaphor in your translation. (See: Metaphor)

- this people's heart has become dull - Here "heart" refers to the mind. AT: "these people's minds are slow to learn" or "these people can no longer learn" (See: Metonymy)
- they are hard of hearing - They are not physically deaf. Here "hard of hearing" means they refuse to listen and learn God's truth. AT: "they refuse to use their ears to listen" (See: Metonymy)
- they have closed their eyes - They have not literally closed their eyes. This means they refuse to understand. AT: "they refuse to use their eyes to see" (See: Metonymy)
- so they should not see with their eyes, or hear with their ears, or understand with their hearts, so they would turn again - "so that they are not able to see with their eyes, hear with their ears, or understand with their heart, and as a result turn again."
- turn again - "turn back to me" or "repent"
- I would heal them - "have me heal them." This means God would heal them spiritually by forgiving their sins and receiving them again as his people. AT: "have me receive them again" (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 13:16-17UDB:

¹⁶ But as for you, God has made you able because you realize what I have done and because you understand what I say. ¹⁷ Note this: many prophets and righteous people who lived long ago longed to see what you are seeing me do, but they did not see it. They longed to hear the things that you have been hearing me say, but they did not hear what you hear me say.”

ULB:

¹⁶ But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷ Truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things that you see, and did not see them. They desired to hear the things that you hear, and did not hear them.

translationWords:

- bless, blessed, blessing
- amen, truly
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- righteous, righteousness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes explaining to his disciples why he teaches with parables.
- But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear - Both of these statements mean the same thing. Jesus is emphasizing that they have pleased God because they have believed what Jesus has said and done. (See: Parallelism)
- But blessed are your eyes, for they see - Here “eyes” refers to the whole person. AT: “You are blessed because your eyes are able to see” (See: Synecdoche)
- your ... you - All occurrences of these words are plural and refer to the disciples. (See: Forms of You)
- and your ears, for they hear - Here “ears” refer to the whole person. You can also make clear the understood information. AT: “and you are blessed because your ears are able to hear” (See: Synecdoche and Ellipsis)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- the things that you see - You can make explicit what they have seen. AT: “the things you have seen me do” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- the things that you hear - You can make explicit what they have heard. AT: “the things you have heard me say” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

¹⁸ Now listen to me explain the parable I told you. ¹⁹ Some people hear about how God is ruling but do not understand it. They are like the path where some of the seeds fell. Satan, the evil one, comes and causes these people to forget what they have heard.

ULB:

¹⁸ Listen then to the parable of the farmer who sowed his seed. ¹⁹ When anyone hears the word of the kingdom but does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the seed that was sown beside the road.

translationWords:

- parable
- sow, sower, plant
- word
- kingdom
- understand, understanding
- Satan, devil, evil one
- heart

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here Jesus begins to explain to his disciples the parable about a person who sows seeds, which he began in 13:3.
- the word of the kingdom - Here “word” refers to a message. And “kingdom” refers to God’s rule as king. AT: “the message about God’s rule as king” (See: Metonymy)
- the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart - Jesus speaks of Satan causing the person to forget what he has heard as if he were a bird snatching the seed from the ground. AT: “The evil one causes him to forget the message that he has heard just like a bird that snatches away seed from the ground” (See: Metaphor)
- the evil one - This refers to Satan. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- snatches away - Try to use a word that means to grab something away from someone who is the rightful owner.
- what has been sown in his heart - This can be translated in active form: AT: “the message that God sowed in his heart” or “the message that he heard” (See: Active or Passive)
- in his heart - Here “heart” refers to the mind of the hearer. (See: Metonymy)
- This is the seed that was sown beside the road - “This is the meaning of the seed that was sown beside the road” or “The road where seed was sown represents this person”

Matthew 13:20-21UDB:

²⁰ Some people hear God's message and immediately accept it joyfully. They are like the rocky places where some seeds fell. ²¹ But because it does not penetrate deeply into their hearts, they believe it for only a short time. They are like the plants that did not have deep roots. When others treat them badly and make them suffer because they believe in what I have told them, they sin by refusing to believe in it any longer.

ULB:

²⁰ What was sown on rocky ground is the person who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, ²¹ yet he has no root in himself and he endures for a while. When tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, he quickly falls away.

translationWords:

- sow, sower, plant
- word
- receive
- joy, joyful
- endure, endurance
- tribulation
- persecute, persecution
- stumble

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to explain to his disciples the parable about a person who sows seeds.
- What was sown on rocky ground - The phrase "what was sown" refers to seed that fell. AT: "The seed that fell on rocky ground" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- What was sown on rocky ground is - "The rocky ground where seed was sown represents" or "The rocky ground where seed fell represents"
- the person who hears the word - In the parable, the seed represents the word.
- the word - This represents God's message. AT: "the message" or "God's teaching" (See: Metonymy)
- receives it with joy - Believing the word is spoken of as receiving it. AT: "joyfully believes it" (See: Metaphor)

- yet he has no root in himself and he endures for a while - “Yet he has shallow roots and only lasts for a little while.” The root represents what makes a person continue to believe God’s message. AT: “But like a plant that does not grow deep roots, he only endures for a little while” (See: Metaphor)
- he quickly falls away - Here “falls away” means to stop believing. AT: “immediately he falls away” or “he quickly stops believing the message” (See: Metaphor)

ULB:

²² What was sown among the thorn plants, this is the person who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. ²³ What was sown on the good soil, this is the person who hears the word and understands it. He bears fruit and makes a crop, yielding one hundred times as much as was planted, some sixty, and some thirty times as much."

translationWords:

- sow, sower, plant
- thorn, thistle
- word
- world, worldly
- deceive, deceit, deception, deceptive
- fruit, fruitful

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to explain to his disciples the parable about a person who sows seeds.
- What was sown - This refers to seed that was sown or that fell. AT: "The seed that was sown" or "The seed that fell" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- What was sown among the thorn plants - "the ground with the thorn plants where seed was sown"
- this is the person - "this represents the person"
- the word - Here "the word" represents God's message. AT: "the message" or "God's teaching" (See: Metonymy)
- the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word - Jesus speaks about the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches distracting a person from obeying God's word as if they were weeds that could wind around a plant and keep it from growing. AT:

“as weeds prevent good plants from growing, the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches keep this person from listening to God’s word” (See: Metaphor)

- cares of the world - “the things in this world that people worry about”
- the deceitfulness of riches - Jesus describes “riches” as if it were a person who could deceive someone. This means people think having more money will make them happy, but it will not. AT: “the love of money” (See: Personification)
- he becomes unfruitful - The person is spoken of as if he were a plant. Being unfruitful represents being unproductive. AT: “he becomes unproductive” or “he does not do what God wants.” (See: Metaphor)
- What was sown on the good soil - “The good soil where seeds were sown”
- He bears fruit and makes a crop - The person is spoken of as if he were a plant. AT: “Like a healthy plant that bears a crop of fruit, he is productive” (See: Metaphor)
- yielding one hundred times as much as was planted, some sixty, and some thirty times as much - The phrase “as much as was planted” is understood following each of these numbers. AT: “Some people produce 100 times as much as was planted, some produce 60 times as much, and some produce 30 times as much.” See how you translated this in 13:8. translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- parable
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- sow, sower, plant
- seed
- adversary, enemy
- wheat

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven by telling a parable about a field with both wheat and weeds growing in it. (See: Parables)
- The kingdom of heaven is like a man - The translation should not equate the kingdom of heaven to a man, but rather the kingdom of heaven is like the situation described in the parable. (See: Simile)
- The kingdom of heaven is like - Here "kingdom of heaven" refers to God's rule as king. The phrase "kingdom of heaven" is used only in Matthew. If possible, use "heaven" in your translation. AT: "When our God in heaven shows himself to be king, it will be like" (See: Metonymy)
- good seed - "good food seeds" or "good grain seeds." The audience probably thought that Jesus was talking about wheat. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- his enemy came - "his enemy came to the field"

- weeds - These weeds look like food plants when they are young, but their grain is poison. AT: “bad seed” or “weed seeds” (UDB)
- When the blades sprouted - “When the wheat seeds sprouted” or “When the plants came up”
- produced their crop - “produced grain” or “produced the wheat crop”
- then the weeds appeared also - “then people could see there were weeds in the field also”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- parable
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- true, truth, come true
- foundation, founded
- world, worldly

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the author quotes from the Psalms to show that Jesus’ teaching in parables fulfilled prophecy.
- All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables. And without parables he said nothing to them - Both sentences mean the same thing. They are combined to emphasize that Jesus taught the crowds only with parables. (See: Parallelism)
- All these things - This refers to what Jesus taught beginning at 13:1.
- he said nothing to them without a parable - “he taught them nothing except by parables.” The double negative can be expressed in a positive way. AT: “everything he taught them he said in parables” (See: Double Negatives)
- what had been said through the prophet might come true, when he said - This can be stated in active form. AT: “he made come true what God told one of the prophets to write long ago” (UDB) (See: Active or Passive)

- when he said - “when the prophet said”
- I will open my mouth - This is an idiom that means to speak. AT: “I will speak” (See: Idiom)
- things that were hidden - This can be stated in active form. AT: “things that God has kept hidden” (See: Active or Passive)

The weeds are the sons of the evil one, ³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers are angels.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- parable
- sow, sower, plant
- seed
- Son of Man, son of man
- world, worldly
- son, son of
- kingdom
- Satan, devil, evil one
- adversary, enemy
- harvest
- reap, reaper
- angel, archangel

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to the house where Jesus and his disciples were staying. Jesus begins to explain to them the parable of the field that had both wheat and weeds, which he told beginning in 13:24.

- went into the house - “went indoors” or “went into the house where he was staying”
- He who sows - “The sower”
- the Son of Man - Jesus is referring to himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- the sons of the kingdom - Here “sons of” means to belong to or to have the same character as someone or something. AT: “the people who belong to the kingdom” (See: Idiom)

⁴⁰ The weeds are gathered and burned. That represents what will happen when God judges all people, when the world will end. It will be like this: ⁴¹ I, the Son of Man, will send my angels, and they will gather from among all that I am ruling the things that cause others to sin and all those who violate God's will. ⁴² The angels will throw those people into the fires of hell. There those people will weep and grind their teeth because of the great pain that they are suffering. ⁴³ However, the people who have lived as he wants them to will shine out as brightly as the sun shines. They will shine out because God, their Father, will rule over them. If you are able to understand this, you should think carefully about what I have just said."

ULB:

⁴⁰ Therefore, as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so will it be at the end of the world. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all the things that cause sin, and those who commit iniquity. ⁴² They will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. ⁴³ Then will the righteous people shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him listen.

translationWords:

- fire
- world, worldly
- Son of Man, son of man
- angel, archangel
- kingdom
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- commit, committed, commitment
- iniquity
- gnash teeth, grind teeth
- righteous, righteousness
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes explaining to his disciples the parable of the field with both wheat and weeds.
- Therefore, as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire - This can be translated in active form. AT: "Therefore, as people gather up weeds and burn them in the fire" (See: Active or Passive)

- end of the world - “end of the age”
- The Son of Man will send out his angels - Here Jesus is speaking of himself. AT: “I, the Son of Man, will send out my angels” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- those who commit iniquity - “those who are lawless” or “evil people”
- furnace of fire - This is a metaphor for the fires of hell. If the term “furnace” is not known, “oven” can be used. AT: “fiery furnace” (See: Metaphor)
- weeping and grinding of teeth - This represents extreme sadness and suffering. See how you translated this in 8:12.
- shine like the sun - If this simile is not understandable in your language, you can use: “be as easy to see as the sun.” (See: Simile)
- Father - This is an important title for God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- He who has ears - This is a way of referring to everyone listening. AT: “Everyone who is listening to me.” See how you translated this in 11:15. (See: Idiom)
- let him listen - Here “listen” means paying attention. AT: “must pay careful attention to what I am saying.” See how you translated this in 11:15. (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 13:44-46UDB:

⁴⁴ "God's ruling from heaven is so precious it is like a man who found a great treasure that another person had buried in a field. When this man dug it up, he buried it again so no one else would find it. Then he went and sold all his possessions to obtain money to buy that field. He then went and bought the field, and so he was able to acquire that treasure.

⁴⁵ Also, God ruling from heaven is so precious it is like what a merchant did who was looking for good quality pearls to buy. ⁴⁶ When he found one very costly pearl that was for sale, he sold all his possessions to acquire enough money to buy that pearl. Then he went and bought it.

ULB:

⁴⁴ The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. A man found it and hid it. In his joy he goes, sells everything he possesses, and buys that field. ⁴⁵ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is a merchant looking for valuable pearls. ⁴⁶ When he found one pearl of very great value, he went and sold everything that he possessed and bought it.

translationWords:

- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- joy, joyful
- possess, possession

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven by telling two parables about people who sold their possessions to purchase something of great value. (See: Parables)
- General Information: - In these two parables, Jesus uses two similes to teach his disciples what the kingdom of heaven is like. (See: Simile)
- The kingdom of heaven is like - Here "kingdom of heaven" refers to God's rule as king. The phrase "kingdom of heaven" is used only in Matthew. If possible, use "heaven" in your translation. AT: "When our God in heaven shows himself to be king, it will be like." See how you translated this in 13:24. (See: Metonymy)
- like a treasure hidden in a field - This can be stated in active form. AT: "a treasure that someone had hidden in a field" (See: Active or Passive)
- treasure - a very valuable and precious thing or collection of things
- hid it - "covered it up"

- sells everything he possesses, and buys that field - The implied information is that the person buys the field to take possession of the hidden treasure. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- like a man who is a merchant looking for valuable pearls - The implied information is that the man was looking for valuable pearls that he could buy. (See: Simile and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- a merchant - a trader or wholesale dealer who often obtains merchandise from distant places
- valuable pearls - A “pearl” is a smooth, hard, shiny, white or light-colored bead formed inside mollusks in the sea and highly prized as a gem or to make into valuable jewelry. AT: “fine pearls” or “beautiful pearls” (See: Translate Unknowns)

Matthew 13:47-48UDB:

⁴⁷ When God rules from heaven, it is like what certain fishermen did with the fish they caught in a lake with a large net. They caught all kinds of fish, both useful and worthless fish. ⁴⁸ When the net was full, the fishermen pulled it up onto the shore. Then they sat there and put the good fish into buckets, but they threw the worthless ones away.

ULB:

⁴⁷ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea, and that gathered creatures of every kind. ⁴⁸ When it was filled, the fishermen drew it up on the beach. Then they sat down and gathered the good things into containers, but the worthless things they threw away.

translationWords:

- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- kind, kinds
- fishermen, fishers
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven by telling a parable about fishermen who use a large net to catch fish. (See: Parables)
- the kingdom of heaven is like a net - The kingdom is not like the net, but the kingdom draws all kinds of people like a net catches all kinds of fish. (See: Simile)
- the kingdom of heaven is like - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” is used only in Matthew. If possible, use “heaven” in your translation. ⁴⁹ This is like what will happen to people when the world ends. The angels will come to where God is judging people and will separate the wicked people from the righteous ones. ⁵⁰ They will throw the wicked people into the fire in hell. And those wicked people will weep and gnash their teeth because of the intense pain they are suffering.”

ULB:

⁴⁹ It will be this way at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous. ⁵⁰ They will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

translationWords:

- world, worldly
- angel, archangel
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- righteous, righteousness
- fire
- gnash teeth, grind teeth

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus explains the parable about fishermen who use a large net to catch fish.
- end of the world - “end of the age”
- come - “come out” or “go out” or “come from heaven”
- the wicked from among the righteous - These nominal adjectives can be stated as adjectives. AT: “the wicked people from the righteous people” (See: Nominal Adjectives)
- They will throw them - “The angels will throw the wicked people”
- furnace of fire - This is a metaphor for the fires of hell. If the term “furnace” is not known, “oven” can be used. AT: “fiery furnace.” See how you translated this in 13:42. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 13:51-53

UDB:

⁵¹ Then Jesus asked the disciples, “Do you understand all these parables I have told you?” They said to him, “Yes, we understand them.” ⁵² Then he said, “Those teachers and interpreters who understand these parables and act accordingly under the rule of God from heaven are like a house owner who shares both new things and old things out of his storage room.”

⁵³ When Jesus had finished telling these parables, he took the disciples and left that area.

ULB:

⁵¹ Have you understood all these things?” The disciples said to him, “Yes.” ⁵² Then Jesus said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is the owner of a house, who draws out old and new things from his treasure.” ⁵³ Then it came about that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from that place.

translationWords:

- disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- parable

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus describes the kingdom of heaven by telling a parable about a person who manages a household. This is the end of the part of the story about Jesus teaching the crowds about the kingdom of heaven through using parables.
- Have you understood all these things?” The disciples said to him, “Yes.” - If necessary, both direct quotations can be translated as indirect quotations. AT: “Jesus asked them if they had understood all this, and they said that they did understand” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- has become a disciple to the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. The phrase “kingdom of heaven” is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “has learned the truth about our God in heaven, who is king” or “has submitted himself to God’s rule” (See: Metonymy)
- is like a man who is the owner of a house, who draws out old and new things from his treasure - Jesus speaks another parable. He compares scribes, who know very well the scriptures that Moses and the prophets wrote, and who also now accept Jesus’ teachings, to a house owner who uses both old and new treasures. (See: Parables)

- treasure - A treasure is a very valuable and precious thing or a collection of things. Here it may refer to the place where these things are stored, the “treasury” or “storeroom.”
- Then it came about that when - This phrase shifts the story from Jesus’ teachings to what happened next. AT: “Then” or “After”

Matthew 13:54-56UDB:

⁵⁴ Then they went to the town of Nazareth, the hometown of Jesus. On the Sabbath he began to teach the people in the synagogue. The result was that the people there were astonished. But some said, "This man is just an ordinary person like us! So how is it that he knows so much and understands so much? And how is it that he is able to do such miracles? ⁵⁵ He is just the son of the carpenter, is he not? His mother is Mary, and his younger brothers are James, Joseph, Simon and Judas! ⁵⁶ And his sisters also live here in our town. So how is he able to teach and do all these things?"

ULB:

⁵⁴ Then Jesus entered his own region and taught the people in their synagogue. The result was that they were astonished and said, "Where does this man get his wisdom and these miracles from? ⁵⁵ Is not this man the carpenter's son? Is not his mother Mary? And his brothers, are they not James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And his sisters, are they not all among us? So where does this man get all these things from?"

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- synagogue
- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- wise, wisdom
- miracle, wonder, sign
- Mary, the mother of Jesus
- James (brother of Jesus)

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story that runs through 17:27, where the writer tells of continued opposition to Jesus' ministry and teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Here, the people of Jesus' home town reject him.
- his own region - "his hometown." This refers to the town of Nazareth where Jesus grew up. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- in their synagogue - The pronoun "their" is referring to the people of the region.
- they were astonished - "they were amazed"
- Where does this man get his wisdom and these miracles from? - "How can an ordinary man like this be so wise and do such great miracles?"

- Is not this man the carpenter's son? Is not his mother's called Mary? Are not his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? Are not all his sisters with us? Where did he get all these things?" - The crowd uses this series of questions to show their surprise that an ordinary person from their region could do all these things. AT: "Jesus is just a carpenter's son. We know his mother, Mary. And his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas, and his sisters all live among us. An ordinary man should not be able to do these things!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the carpenter's son - A carpenter is someone who makes things with wood or stone. If "carpenter" is not known, "builder" can be used.

Matthew 14 General Notes

Structure and formatting

14:3-12 mentions events that have previously occurred. Therefore, there is a break in the chronology of the narrative. The purpose of this break is explanatory; the translator will find it necessary to signal this break.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Irony

Herod believe that breaking an oath was dishonorable, so he ordered the execution of John the Baptist. However, the murder for which he was responsible was a much greater evil. This is irony. (See: Irony)

Matthew 14:1-2UDB:

¹ During that time the ruler Herod Antipas heard reports about Jesus performing miracles. ² He said to his servants, “That must be John the Baptizer. He must have risen from the dead, and that is why he has power to do these miracles.”

ULB:

14 ¹ About that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus. ² He said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead ones. Therefore these powers are at work in him.”

Matthew 14:3-5UDB:

3-4 This is what happened to make Herod think this. Herod had married Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, while Philip was still living. So John kept saying to him, “What you have done is against God’s law!” Then, to please Herodias, Herod told his soldiers to arrest John. They bound him with chains and put him in prison. ⁵ Herod wanted to order his men to execute John, but he was afraid of the general public, because they believed that John was a prophet speaking for God.

ULB:

³ For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife. ⁴ For John had said to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her as your wife.” ⁵ Herod would have put him to death, but he feared the people, because they regarded him as a prophet.

translationWords:

- Herod Antipas
- John (the Baptist)
- prison, prisoner, imprison
- Herodias
- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- death, die, dead
- fear, afraid, fear of Yahweh
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the author begins to tell about how Herod had executed John the Baptist. These events occur some time before the event in the previous verses. (See: Order of Events)
- General Information: - The writer recounts the story of John the Baptist’s death in order to show why Herod reacted the way he did when he heard about Jesus.
- For Herod ... as your wife - If needed, you can reverse the order of events in 9:3-4 as in the UDB. (See: Order of Events)
- Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison - It says that Herod did these things because he ordered others to do them for him. AT: “Herod ordered his soldiers to arrest and bind John the Baptist and put him in prison” (See: Metonymy)
- Philip’s wife - Philip is the name of Herod’s brother. (See: How to Translate Names)

- For John had said to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her as your wife.” - This can be expressed as an indirect quote, if needed. AT: “For John had said to him that it was not lawful for him to have her as his wife” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- For John had said to him - “For John had kept saying to Herod”
- It is not lawful - Philip was still alive when Herod married Herodias. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

So her daughter went back and said to Herod, "I want you to cut off the head of John the Baptizer and bring it here on a platter to show that he is really dead!" ⁹ The king was now very sorry that he had promised to give Herodias' daughter whatever she wanted. But because he had called on God to hear him make that promise, and because all his guests had heard him do so, he felt that he had to do what he had said. So he ordered his servants to do what she wanted.

ULB:

⁸ After being instructed by her mother, she said, "Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Baptist." ⁹ The king was very upset by her request, but because of his oath and because of all those at dinner with him, he ordered that it should be done.

¹³ After Jesus heard that news, he took just the disciples with him and went by boat on the Sea of Galilee to a place where no one lived.

After the crowds heard about where they had gone, they left their towns and followed them, walking along the shore. ¹⁴ When Jesus came to the shore, he saw a very large crowd waiting for him. He felt sorry for them, and he healed the sick people who were among them.

ULB:

¹³ Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to an isolated place. When the crowds heard of it, they followed him on foot from the cities. ¹⁴ Then Jesus came before them and saw the large crowd. He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- compassion, compassionate
- heal, cure

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - These verses describe how Jesus reacted when he heard that Herod had executed John the Baptist.
- General Information: - These verses give background information about the miracle that Jesus is about to perform by feeding five thousand people. (See: Background Information)
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- heard this - “heard what happened to John” or “heard the news about John”
- he withdrew - “he left” or “he went away from the crowd.” It is implied that Jesus’ disciples went with him. AT: “Jesus and his disciples left” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

¹⁹ Jesus told the crowd of people who had gathered there to sit on the grass. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish. He looked up toward heaven, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. Then he gave the pieces to his disciples, and they distributed them to the crowd. ²⁰ All the people ate until they were no longer hungry. Then some people gathered the pieces that were left over and filled twelve baskets with them. ²¹ About five thousand men ate at that time, not counting the women and children!

ULB:

¹⁹ Then Jesus ordered the crowd to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish. Looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd. ²⁰ They all ate and were filled. Then they took up what remained of the broken pieces of food—twelve baskets full. ²¹ Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- bless, blessed, blessing
- disciple
- basket

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This concludes the account of Jesus feeding five thousand people.
- sit down - “lie down.” Use the verb for the position people in your culture usually are in when they eat.
- took - “held in his hands.” He did not steal them. (See: Idiom)
- broke the loaves - “tore the loaves”
- loaves - “loaves of bread” or “whole breads”
- Looking up - Possible meanings are 1) “While looking up” or 2) “After looking up.”
- and were filled - This can be translated in active form. AT: “until they were full” or “until they were no longer hungry” (UDB). (See: Active or Passive)
- they took up - “the disciples gathered up” or “some people gathered up”
- twelve baskets full - “12 baskets” (See: Numbers)
- Those who ate - “Those who ate the bread and the fish” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

- five thousand men - “5,000 men” (See: Numbers)

Matthew 14:22-24

UDB:

²² Right after that happened, Jesus told the disciples to get in the boat and to go ahead of him to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. In the meantime, he was going to send the crowd home. ²³ After he sent the crowd away, he went up into the hills to pray by himself. When it was evening, he was still there alone. ²⁴ By this time the disciples were a long distance from the shore. The wind was blowing very hard opposite to how the disciples were trying to sail; the wind made very large waves that were tossing the boat back and forth in the water.

ULB:

²² Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he sent away the crowds. ²³ After he had sent away the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone. ²⁴ But the boat was now a long way from land, being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was blowing against them.

- pray, prayer

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The following verses describe events that happened right after Jesus fed the five thousand people.
- General Information: - These verses give background information about the miracle that Jesus is about to perform of walking on water.
- Immediately - “Right after Jesus had fed all the people,”
- When evening came - “Late in the evening” or “When it became dark”
- being tossed about by the waves - “and the disciples could not control the boat because of the large waves”
- for the wind was blowing against them - “for their boat was sailing into the wind” or “for the wind was against them” and they could not make progress because of the wind.

Matthew 15 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of 15:8-9, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

“Traditions”

The “traditions of the elders,” that is, the oral laws, are an important concept in this chapter. These were the rules that the religious leaders among the Jews developed in order to ensure that the Laws of Moses were obeyed. However, these rules often became in practice more important than the provisions in the law of Moses themselves. Jesus rebuked the religious leaders for this, which made them angry. (See: law, law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh)

Jews and Gentiles

The response to Jesus of the Canaanite woman, a Gentile, stood in great contrast with the refusal of the Jewish leaders to acknowledge Jesus’ teachings as true. This fact also implied a strong rebuke to those leaders.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Sheep

People are often pictured as sheep in scripture. In this chapter, the image of sheep illustrates that the Jews were spiritually lost without a proper leader to guide them.

Matthew 15:1-3UDB:

¹ Then some Pharisees and men who taught the Jewish laws came from Jerusalem to talk to Jesus. They said, ² “We see that your disciples disobey the traditions of our ancestors! They do not perform the proper ritual of washing their hands before they eat!” ³ Jesus answered them, “And I see that you refuse to obey God’s commands just so that you can follow what your ancestors taught you!

ULB:

15 ¹ Then some Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem. They said, ² “Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat.” ³ Jesus answered and said to them, “And you—why do you violate the commandment of God for the sake of your traditions?”

translationWords:

- Pharisee
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Jerusalem
- disciple
- tradition
- elder
- command, to command, commandment
- God

translationNotes:

- General Information: - The scene shifts to events that occurred some time after events of the previous chapter. Here Jesus responds to the criticisms of the Pharisees. (See: Introduction of a New Event)
- Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? - The Pharisees and scribes use this question to criticize Jesus and his disciples. AT: “Your disciples do not respect the rules that our ancestors have given us” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- traditions of the elders - This is not the same as the law of Moses. This refers to later teachings and interpretations of the law given by religious leaders after Moses.
- they do not wash their hands - This washing is not only to clean hands. This refers to a ceremonial washing according to the tradition of the elders. AT: “they do not wash their hands properly” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

- Then why do you violate the commandment of God for the sake of your traditions? - Jesus answers with a question to criticize what the religious leaders do. Matthew 15:4-6

UDB:

⁴ God gave these two commands: ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and ‘People who speak evil about their father or mother must be executed.’ ⁵ But you tell the people, ‘You can say to your father or mother, “What I was going to give to you to help provide for you, I have now promised to give to God.”’ ⁶ When you do that, you think that you do not need to give anything to your parents. In that way you ignore what God commanded, just so that you can follow what your ancestors taught you!

ULB:

⁴ For God said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and ‘He who speaks evil of his father or mother, will surely die.’ ⁵ But you say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother “Whatever help you would have received from me is now a gift given to God,”’ ⁶ that person does not need to honor his father. In this way you have made void the word of God for the sake of your traditions.

translationWords:

- God
- honor, to honor
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- death, die, dead
- gift
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture
- tradition

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the Pharisees.
- General Information: - In verse 4, Jesus quotes twice from Exodus to show how God expects people to treat their parents.
- will surely die - “the people will surely execute him”
- But you say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother “Whatever help you would have received from me is now a gift given to God,”’ that person does not need to honor his father - This has a quotation within a quotation. If necessary you can translate them as indirect quotations. AT: “But you teach that a person does not need to honor his parents by giving them something that may help them if the person tells his parents that he has already given it as a gift to God” (See: Quotes within Quotes and Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- But you say - Here “you” is plural and refers to the Pharisees and scribes. (See: Forms of You)

- does not need to honor his father - It is implied that “his father” means “his parents.” This means the religious leaders taught that a person does not need to show respect to his parents by taking care of them. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- you have made void the word of God for the sake of your traditions - “you have made your traditions more important than God’s commands”

translationWords:

- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- Isaiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- honor, to honor
- heart
- worship
- vain, vanity
- doctrine

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes his response to the Pharisees and scribes.
- General Information: - In verses 8 and 9, Jesus quotes the prophet Isaiah to rebuke the Pharisees and scribes.
- Well did Isaiah prophesy about you - "Isaiah told the truth in this prophecy about you"
- when he said - It is implied that Isaiah is speaking what God told him. AT: "when he told what God said" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- This people honors me with their lips - Here "lips" refers to speaking. AT: "These people say all the right things to me" (See: Metonymy)
- me - All occurrences of this word refer to God.

- but their heart is far from me - Here “heart” refers to a person’s thoughts or emotions. This phrase is a way of saying the people are not truly devoted to God. AT: “but they do not really love me” (See: Metonymy and Idiom)
- They worship me in vain - “Their worship means nothing to me” or “They only pretend to worship me”

ULB:

¹⁰ Then he called the crowd to himself and said to them, "Listen and understand— ¹¹ Nothing that enters into the mouth defiles a person. Instead, what comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a person."

translationWords:

- defile, be defiled

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach the crowd and his disciples about what defiles a person and why the Pharisees and scribes were wrong to criticize him.
- Listen and understand - Jesus is emphasizing the importance of what he is about to say. The implied information can be made explicit. AT: "Listen carefully to what I say so that you may understand its meaning" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- enters into the mouth ... comes out of the mouth - Jesus is contrasting what a person eats to what a person says. Jesus means that God is concerned with what a person says rather than what a person eats. (See: Metonymy)

translationWords:

- disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Pharisee
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- pit

translationNotes:

- the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement - This can be stated in active form. AT: “this statement made the Pharisees angry” or “this statement offended the Pharisees” (See: Active or Passive)
- Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up - This is a metaphor. Jesus means that the Pharisees do not actually belong to God, so God will remove them. (See: Metaphor)
- my heavenly Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- will be rooted up - This can be stated in active form. AT: “my Father will uproot them” or “my Father will take them out of the ground” or “my Father will remove them” (See: Active or Passive)
- Let them alone - The word “them” refers to the Pharisees.
- blind guides ... both will fall into a pit - Jesus uses another metaphor to describe the Pharisees. Jesus means that the Pharisees do not understand God’s commands or how to please him. Therefore, they cannot teach others how to please God. (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 15:21-23

UDB:

²¹ After Jesus took the disciples and left the district of Galilee, they all went toward the region where the cities of Tyre and Sidon are located. ²² A woman from the group of people called Canaanites who live in that region came to Jesus. She kept shouting to him, “Lord, you are the descendant of King David, you are the Messiah! Have pity on me and my daughter! She is suffering very much because a demon controls her.” ²³ But Jesus did not answer her at all. The disciples said to him, “Tell her to leave because she keeps bothering us by shouting behind us as we go along.”

ULB:

²¹ Then Jesus went away from there and withdrew toward the regions of the cities of Tyre and Sidon. ²² And behold, a Canaanite woman came out from that region. She shouted out and said, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is very tormented by a demon.” ²³ But Jesus answered her not a word. His disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away, for she is shouting after us.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Tyre, Tyrians
- Sidon, Sidonians
- Canaan, Canaanite
- mercy, merciful
- Lord
- son, son of
- David
- torment
- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- disciple

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This begins an account of Jesus healing the daughter of a Canaanite woman.
- Jesus went away - It is implied that the disciples went with Jesus. AT: “Jesus and his disciples went away” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- behold, a Canaanite woman came - The word “behold” alerts us to a new person in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this. AT: “there was a Canaanite woman who came”

- a Canaanite woman came out from that region - “a woman from the group of people called Canaanites who live in that region” (UDB). The country of Canaan no longer existed by this time. She was a part of a people group that lived near the cities of Tyre and Sidon.
- Have mercy on me - This phrase implies that she is requesting that Jesus heal her daughter. AT: “Have mercy and heal my daughter” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Son of David - Jesus was not David’s literal son, so this may be translated as “Descendant of David” (UDB). However, “Son of David” is also a title for the Messiah, and the woman may have been calling Jesus by this title.
- my daughter is severely tormented by a demon - This can be stated in active form. AT: “a demon is tormenting my daughter very much” (See: Active or Passive)
- answered her not a word - Here “word” refers to what a person says. AT: “said nothing” (See: Metonymy)

²⁴ Jesus said to her, “God has sent me only to the people of Israel, because they are like sheep who have lost their way.” ²⁵ But the woman came closer to Jesus and knelt down in front of him. She pled, “Lord, help me!” ²⁶ Then he told her, “It is not good for someone to take food that has been prepared for his children and throw it to the little dogs in the house.”

ULB:

²⁴ But Jesus answered and said, “I was not sent to anyone except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” ²⁵ But she came and bowed down before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” ²⁶ He answered and said, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- send, send out, sent
- sheep, ram, ewe
- house
- Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel
- bow, bow down
- bread

translationNotes:

- I was not sent to anyone - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God did not send me to anyone” (See: Active or Passive)
- to the lost sheep of the house of Israel - This is a metaphor comparing the entire nation of Israel to sheep who have strayed from their shepherd. See how you translated this in 10:6. (See: Metaphor)
- she came - “the Canaanite woman came”
- bowed down before him - This shows that the woman is humbling herself before Jesus. (See: Symbolic Action)
- It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs - Jesus responds to the woman with a proverb. The basic meaning is that it is not right to take what is supposed to belong to Jews and give it to non-Jews. (See: Proverbs)
- little dogs - Use words here for dogs of any size that people keep as pets.
- the children’s bread - Here “bread” refers to food in general. AT: “the children’s food” (See: Synecdoche)
- the little dogs - The Jews considered dogs to be unclean animals. Here they are used as an image for non-Jews.

translationNotes:

- even the little dogs eat some of the crumbs that fall from their masters’ tables - The woman responds by using the same imagery as Jesus used in the proverb he just spoke. She means non-Jews should be able to have a small amount of the good things Jews are throwing away. (See: Metaphor)
- little dogs - Use words here for dogs of any size that people keep as pets. Translate this is you did in 15:26.
- Let it be done - This can be stated in active form. AT: “I will do” (See: Active or Passive)
- her daughter was healed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Jesus healed her daughter” or “her daughter became well” (See: Active or Passive)
- at that hour - This is an idiom. AT: “at exactly the same time” or “immediately” (See: Idiom)

Matthew 15:29-31UDB:

²⁹ Then Jesus and his disciples went away from that area, back to the Sea of Galilee. Then Jesus climbed the hill near there and sat down to teach the people. ³⁰ Large crowds kept coming to him for the next two days and brought lame, crippled, and blind people, those who were unable to talk, and many others who had various sicknesses. They laid them in front of Jesus so that he would heal them. And he healed them. ³¹ The crowd saw him heal people who could not talk, crippled people, lame people, and blind people, and they were amazed. They said, “Praise God who rules over us in Israel!”

ULB:

²⁹ Jesus left that place and went near to the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a hill and sat there. ³⁰ Large crowds came to him. They brought with them lame, blind, mute, and crippled people, and many others who were sick. They presented them at Jesus’ feet, and he healed them. ³¹ So the crowd marveled when they saw the mute persons speak, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. They praised the God of Israel.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Sea of Galilee, Sea of Chinnereth, Lake of Gennesaret, Sea of Tiberias
- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- praise
- God
- Israel, Israelites, nation of Israel

translationNotes:

- General Information: - These verses give background information about the miracle that Jesus is about to perform by feeding four thousand people. (See: Background Information).
- lame, blind, mute, and crippled people - “those who could not walk, those who could not see, those who could not talk, and those whose arms or legs did not function”
- They presented them at Jesus’ feet - Here “feet” means they placed the sick in front of Jesus. AT: “The crowds brought the sick people to Jesus” (See: Synecdoche)

I do not want to send them away while they are still hungry, because if I did that, they might faint on the way home.” ³³ The disciples said to him, “In this place where nobody lives, we cannot possibly obtain enough food to feed such a large crowd!” ³⁴ Jesus asked us, “How many loaves do you have?” They answered him, “We have seven small loaves and a few small cooked fish.” ³⁵ Then Jesus told the people to sit on the ground.

ULB:

³² Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me for three days already and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away without eating, or they may faint on the way.” ³³ The disciples said to him, “Where can we get enough loaves of bread in such a deserted place to satisfy so large a crowd?” ³⁴ Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.” ³⁵ Then Jesus commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- compassion, compassionate
- biblical time: day
- bread
- command, to command, commandment

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of Jesus feeding four thousand people with seven loaves of bread and a few small fish.
- or they may faint on the way - “because they might faint on the way”
- Where can we get enough loaves of bread in such a deserted place to satisfy so large a crowd? - The disciples use a question to state that there is nowhere to get food for the crowd. AT: “There is nowhere nearby that we can get enough bread for such a large crowd” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Seven, and a few small fish - The understood information can be made clear. AT: “Seven loaves of bread, and a few small fish” (See: Ellipsis)

Matthew 16 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

Bread

Bread is a special image in 16:5-12. Jesus used his disciples' discussion about bread to warn them against the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees. He spoke of these teachings as if they were yeast, the ingredient that causes bread to rise before it is baked.

At the same time, the mention of bread in this chapter is meant to remind the readers that Jesus fed the five thousand with bread (see: 14:13-21) and also the four thousand (see: 15:29-39). The implication is that Jesus gives good "bread" (teaching), but that the Pharisees and Sadducees do not.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

16:21 forms a break in the narrative. At this point, Matthew makes a comment about Jesus' actions that will extend into the future. It is important that the translator clearly signal that this comment is about the future, embedded in the narrative.

The use of paradox

This is a statement that seems absurd, that appears to contradict itself. A paradox occurs in this chapter: "Whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it" (16:24-28).

Matthew 16:1-2UDB:

¹ Some Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and said to him, “Show us that God has really sent you to us! Do a miracle in the sky and use his power to convince us!” ² He answered them, “In our country, if the sky is red in the evening, we say, ‘It will be good weather tomorrow.’

ULB:

16 ¹ The Pharisees and Sadducees came and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from the sky. ² But he answered and said to them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’

translationWords:

- Pharisee
- Sadducee
- test
- miracle, wonder, sign
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This begins an encounter between Jesus and the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- tested him - Here “tested” is used in a negative sense. AT: “challenged him” or “wanted to trap him”
- When it is evening - “When the sun is setting”
- fair weather - This means clear, calm, and pleasant weather.
- for the sky is red - As the sun is setting, Jews knew that if the color of the sky changes to red, it is a sign the next day will be clear and calm.

Matthew 16:3-4UDB:

³ But if the sky is red in the morning we say, ‘It will be stormy weather today.’ By looking at the sky, you can tell what the weather will be, but when you see the things that are now happening all around you, you do not understand what God is doing. ⁴ You evil people have seen me perform miracles, but you do not faithfully worship God. So I will do no miracle for you, except the miracle that happened to Jonah the prophet, who spent three days inside a huge fish but came out again.” Then Jesus left them and sailed away, along with his disciples.

ULB:

³ And in the morning you say, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and overcast.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. ⁴ An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” Then Jesus left them and went away.

translationWords:

- sign, proof, reminder
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress
- generation
- Jonah
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues his response to the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- When it is evening ... When it is morning - “When the sun is going down ... When the sun is coming up”
- foul weather - “cloudy, stormy weather”
- red and overcast - “red and cloudy”
- You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky - “You know how to look at the sky and understand what kind of weather you will have”
- but you cannot interpret the signs of the times - “but you do not know how to look at what is happening right now and understand what it means”
- An evil and adulterous generation - Here “adulterous” is a metaphor for people who are not faithful to God. AT: “unfaithful generation” or “godless generation.” See how you translated this in 12:39. (See: Metaphor)

- seeks for a sign - This request angers Jesus because of the religious leaders skeptical attitude about Jesus. He had already performed many miracles, but they still did not believe him. See how you translated this in 12:39. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- no sign will be given to it - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will not give a sign.” See how you translated this in 12:39. (See: Active or Passive)
- except the sign of Jonah - “except the same sign God gave to Jonah the prophet.” See how you translated this in 12:39.

Matthew 16:5-8UDB:

⁵ They all sailed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. Then the disciples realized that they had forgotten to take anything to eat with them. ⁶ At that point, Jesus said to them, “Be careful not to accept the yeast that the Pharisees and Sadducees want to give you.” ⁷ They tried to make sense out of what Jesus had told them, and they said to each other, “He must have said that because we forgot to bring anything to eat!” ⁸ But Jesus knew what they were saying and answered them, “I am disappointed that you think it was because you forgot bring bread that I talked about the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees. You believe only a little what I am able to do for you.

ULB:

⁵ When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. ⁶ Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” ⁷ The disciples reasoned among themselves and said, “It is because we took no bread.” ⁸ Jesus was aware of this and said, “You of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves and say that it is because you have taken no bread?”

translationWords:

- disciple
- bread
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- yeast, leaven
- Pharisee
- Sadducee
- faith

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to a later time. Jesus uses an opportunity to warn his disciples about the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- the other side - You can make clear the understood information. AT: “the other side of the lake” or “the other side of the Sea of Galilee” (UDB) (See: Ellipsis)
- the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees - Here “yeast” is a metaphor that refers to evil ideas and wrong teaching. Translate as “yeast” here and do not explain its meaning in your translation. This meaning will be made clear in 16:12. (See: Metaphor)
- reasoned among themselves - “discussed with each other”
- You of little faith - “You who have such little faith.” Jesus is scolding the people because they have little faith in God. See how you translated this in 6:30.

- why do you reason ... taken no bread? - Jesus uses a question to rebuke his disciples for not understanding what he just said. ULB:

⁹ Do you not yet perceive or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered up? ¹⁰ Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

translationWords:

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to warn his disciples about the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- Do you not yet perceive or remember ... you gathered up? - Jesus uses a question to rebuke the disciples. AT: "Surely you remember ... you gathered up!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- five thousand ... four thousand - "5,000 ... 4,000" (See: Numbers)
- Or the seven loaves ... you took up? - "Do you also not remember the seven loaves ... you took up?" Jesus uses a question to rebuke his disciples. AT: "Surely you also remember the seven loaves ... you took up!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

Matthew 16:13-16UDB:

¹³ When Jesus and his disciples entered into the region near the city of Caesarea Philippi, he asked them, “Who do people say that I, the Son of Man, really am?” ¹⁴ They answered, “Some people say that you are John the Baptizer, who has come back to life again. Others say that you are the prophet Elijah, who has returned from heaven as God promised. Still others say that you are the prophet Jeremiah or one of the other prophets who lived long ago, who has come back to life again.” ¹⁵ Jesus said to them, “What about you? Who do you say that I am?” ¹⁶ Simon Peter said to him, “You are the Messiah! You are the Son of the all-powerful God.”

ULB:

¹³ Now when Jesus came to the regions near Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” ¹⁴ They said, “Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.” ¹⁵ He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” ¹⁶ Answering, Simon Peter said, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

translationWords:

- Caesarea, Caesarea Philippi
- Philippi
- Son of Man, son of man
- John (the Baptist)
- Elijah
- Jeremiah
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- Christ, Messiah
- Son of God, the Son, Son

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts to a later time. Jesus asks his disciples if they understand who he is.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline or to introduce a new person. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- the Son of Man - Jesus is referring to himself. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- the Son of the living God - This is an important title for Jesus that shows his relationship to God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

- the living God - Here “living” contrasts the God of Israel to all the false gods and idols that people worshiped. Only the God of Israel is alive and has power to act.

You will be the support for the group of those who believe in me, like a large rock supports a great building. And even the powers of death will not be strong enough to stand up against it."

ULB:

¹⁷ Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. ¹⁸ I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church. The gates of Hades will not prevail against it."

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- bless, blessed, blessing
- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- flesh
- blood
- reveal, revelation
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- church, Church
- gate, gate bar
- hades, sheol

translationNotes:

- Simon Bar Jonah - "Simon, son of Jonah" (UDB) (See: How to Translate Names)
- flesh and blood have not revealed - Here "flesh and blood" refers to a human being. AT: "a human did not reveal" (See: Synecdoche)
- this to you - Here "this" refers to Peter's statement that Jesus is the Christ and the Son of the Living God.
- but my Father who is in heaven - The understood information can be made clear. AT: "but it was my Father in heaven who revealed this to you" (See: Ellipsis)
- my Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- I also say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

- you are Peter - The name Peter means “rock.” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- upon this rock I will build my church - This is a metaphor that means Peter will be the leader for the community of people who believe in Jesus. (See: Metaphor)
- The gates of Hades will not prevail against it - Here “Hades” is spoken of as if it were a city surrounded by walls with gates that keep dead people in and other people out. Here “Hades” represents death, and its “gates” represent its power. Possible meanings are 1) “the powers of death will not overcome my church” or 2) “my church will break down the power of death the way an army breaks into a city.” (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

Matthew 16:21-23UDB:

²¹ From that time Jesus began to teach the disciples that it was necessary for him to go to the city of Jerusalem. There the ruling elders, the chief priests, and the men who taught the Jewish laws would cause him to suffer and die. Then on the third day after that, he would come alive again. ²² But Peter took Jesus aside and began to scold him for saying these things. He said, "Lord, may God never permit that to happen to you! That must certainly not happen!" ²³ Then Jesus turned to look at Peter, and he said to him, "Get out of my sight, because Satan is speaking through you. You are trying to get me to sin. You are not thinking what God thinks, but only what people think!"

ULB:

²¹ From that time Jesus started to tell his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, suffer many things at the hand of the elders and chief priests and scribes, be killed, and be raised back to life on the third day. ²² Then Peter took him aside and rebuked him, saying, "May this be far from you, Lord; may this never happen to you." ²³ But Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you do not care for the things of God, but for the things of people."

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- Jerusalem
- suffer, suffering
- hand, right hand, to hand over
- elder
- chief priests
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- biblical time: day
- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- rebuke
- Lord
- Satan, devil, evil one
- stumbling block, stone of stumbling
- God

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus foretells his death and begins to tell his disciples what it will cost to follow him.

- From that time - After Jesus commanded his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ, he began sharing with them what must happen in Jerusalem.
- suffer many things at the hand of the elders and chief priests and scribes - Here “hand” refers to power. AT: “where the elders, chief priests, and scribes will cause him to suffer” (See: Metonymy)
- be killed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “they will kill him” (See: Active or Passive)
- be raised back to life on the third day - This can be stated in active form. AT: “on the third day, God would make him alive again” (See: Active or Passive)
- third day - (See: Ordinal Numbers)
- May this be far from you - This is an idiom that means “may this never happen.” AT: “No” or “Never” or “May God forbid this” (See: Idiom)
- Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me - Jesus means that Peter is acting like Satan because Peter is trying to prevent Jesus from accomplishing what God sent him to do. AT: “Get behind me, because you are acting like Satan! You are a stumbling block to me” or “Get behind me, Satan! I call you Satan because you are a stumbling block to me” (See: Metaphor)

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone of you wants to trust me and go where I am going, you must put away your own desires and purposes, and you must take up your own cross, and go where I lead you. ²⁵ Whoever tries to save his own life, will find that instead of saving his life, he loses it. But whoever loses his life for me, he will find his life. ²⁶ People might get everything they want in this world, but if they do not become my disciples, they gain nothing and they even lose their own lives. What could anyone give in exchange for their own life?"

ULB:

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶ For what does it profit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? What can a person give in exchange for his life?"

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- cross
- save, safe
- life, live, living, alive
- profit, profitable

translationNotes:

- follow me - Following Jesus here represents being one of his disciples. AT: "be my disciple" or "be one of my disciples" (See: Metaphor)
- must deny himself - "must not give in to his own desires" or "must forsake his own desires"
- take up his cross, and follow me - "carry his cross and follow me." The cross represents suffering and death. Taking up the cross represents being willing to suffer and die. AT: "must obey me even to the point of suffering and dying" (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)
- and follow me - Following Jesus here represents obeying him. AT: "and obey me" (See: Metaphor)
- For whoever wants - "For anyone who wants"
- will lose it - This does not mean the person must necessarily die. It is a metaphor that means the person will consider obeying Jesus as being more important than his own life. (See: Metaphor)
- for my sake - "because he trusts me" or "on my account" or "because of me"

- will find it - This metaphor means the person will experience spiritual life with God. AT: “will find true life” (See: Metaphor)
- For what does it profit a person ... his life? - Jesus uses a question to teach his disciples. AT: “It does not profit a person ... his life” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- if he gains the whole world - Jesus uses a hyperbole to emphasize that nothing in the world is as valuable as having true life with God. AT: “if he gains everything in the world” (See: Hyperbole)
- but forfeits his life - “but he loses his life”
- What can a person give in exchange for his life? - Jesus uses a question to teach his disciples. AT: “There is nothing that a person can give to regain his life” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Matthew 16:27-28UDB:

²⁷ Listen carefully. I, the Son of Man, will leave this earth, but I will return, and the angels of heaven will accompany me. At that time I will have the glorious light that my Father has, and I will reward everyone according to what they did when they were alive in this world. ²⁸ Listen carefully! Some of you who are here now will see me, the one who came from heaven, when I return as king. You will see this before you die!”

ULB:

²⁷ For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels. Then he will reward every person according to what he has done. ²⁸ Truly I say to you, there are some of you who are standing here, who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

translationWords:

- Son of Man, son of man
- glory, glorious
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- angel, archangel
- works, deeds, work, acts
- amen, truly
- death, die, dead
- kingdom

translationNotes:

- the Son of Man ... his Father ... Then he - Here Jesus refers to himself in the third person. AT: “I, the Son of man ... my Father ... Then I” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- in the glory of his Father - “having the same glory as his Father”
- with his angels - “and the angels will be with him.” If you translate the first part of the sentence with Jesus speaking in the first person, you can translate this as “and my Father’s angels will be with me.” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- his Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and the Son of Man, Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- you - All occurrences of this word are plural and refer to the disciples. (See: Forms of You)
- will not taste death - Here “taste” means to experience. AT: “will not experience death” or “will not die” (See: Idiom)

- until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom - Here “kingdom” refers to the Son of Man ruling as king. AT: “until they see the Son of Man coming to rule as king” (See: Metonymy)
- until they see - Jesus is still talking about the disciples. AT: “until you see”

Special concepts in this chapter

Elijah

The prophet Malachi prophesied that one day Elijah would return before the Messiah came. Jesus explains that John the Baptist fulfilled this prophecy by serving God in the same manner as Elijah. (See: prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess and Christ, Messiah)

“He [Jesus] was transfigured”

The glory of God is seen as a great, brilliant light in scripture. God’s grandeur always produces fear in the person who sees it. Such an event, presented in this chapter, is called the “transfiguration,” in which Jesus is changed or transfigured so that he shows some of his divine glory. (See: glory, glorious and fear, afraid, fear of Yahweh)

Matthew 17:5-8UDB:

⁵ While Peter was speaking, a bright cloud came over them. They heard God speaking about Jesus from inside the cloud. He said to them, “This is my Son. I love him. He pleases me very much. So you must listen to him!” ⁶ When the three disciples heard God speaking, they were exceedingly afraid. As a result, they fell facedown on the ground. ⁷ But Jesus went to them and touched them and said to them, “Stand up! Do not be afraid anymore!” ⁸ And when they looked up, they saw that Jesus was the only one who was still there.

ULB:

⁵ While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, there was a voice out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. - disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- faith
- amen, truly

translationNotes:

- we - Here “we” refers to the speakers but not the hearers. (See: Exclusive “We”)
- Why could we not cast it out? - “Why could we not make the demon come out of the boy?”
- For I truly say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- if you have faith even as small as a grain of mustard seed - Jesus compares the size of a mustard seed to the amount of faith needed to do a miracle. A mustard seed is very small, but it grows into a large plant. Jesus means it only takes a small amount of faith to do a great miracle. (See: Simile)

translationWords:

- Capernaum
- tax, taxes
- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- teacher, Teacher
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- foreigner, foreign, alien

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here the scene shifts again to a later time when Jesus teaches Peter about paying the temple tax.
- When they - “When Jesus and his disciples”
- the half-shekel tax - This was a tax that Jewish men paid to support the temple in Jerusalem. AT: “the temple tax” (See: Fractions and Biblical Money and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- the house - “the place where Jesus was staying”

translationWords:

- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- foreigner, foreign, alien
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- tax collector
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to teach Peter about paying the temple tax.
- General Information: - This is the end of the part of the story that began in 13:54, where the writer tells of continued opposition to Jesus’ ministry and teaching about the kingdom of heaven.
- When Peter said, “From foreigners” - If you translated Jesus’ questions as statements in 17:25, you may need to give an alternate response here. AT: When Peter said, “Yes, that is correct. Kings collect taxes from foreigners” You could also state it as an indirect quotation. AT: “After Peter agreed with Jesus” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- From foreigners - In modern times, leaders usually tax their own citizens. But, in ancient times, the leaders often taxed the people they had conquered rather than their own citizens.
- subjects - people under a ruler or king
- But so that we do not cause the tax collectors to sin, go - “But we do not want to make the tax collectors angry. So, go.”

- throw in a hook - Fishermen tied hooks to the end of a line, then threw it in the water to catch fish. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- its mouth - “the fish’s mouth”
- a shekel - a silver coin worth four days’ wages (See: Biblical Money)
- Take it - “Take the shekel”

Matthew 18 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

What should you do if “your brother sins against you”?

In this chapter, Jesus teaches that it is important for his followers to end conflicts among themselves. He teaches that the local group of believers should be ready to help this to happen in a way that honors God.

The church is also responsible for encouraging believers to repent if they sin. (See: repent, repentance and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

¹ At that precise time the disciples approached Jesus and asked him, “Who among us will be the most important when God makes you king from heaven?” ² Jesus called a child to come, and he placed that child in their midst. ³ He said, “I tell you the truth: If you do not change and become as humble as little children, surely you will not come under the rule of God from heaven.

ULB:

18 ¹ In that same time the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” ² Jesus called to himself a little child, set him among them, ³ and said, “Truly I say to you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will in no way enter the kingdom of heaven.

translationWords:

- disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- amen, truly
- repent, repentance
- like, likeness
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- General Information: - This is the beginning of a new part of the story that runs through 18:35, where Jesus teaches about life in the kingdom of heaven. Here, Jesus uses a little child to teach the disciples.
- Who is greatest - “Who is the most important” or “Who among us will be the most important” (UDB)
- in the kingdom of heaven - The phrase “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “in God’s kingdom” or “when our God in heaven establishes his rule on earth” (See: Metonymy)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- unless you turn ... you will in no way enter - This can be stated in positive form. AT: “you must change ... in order to enter” (See: Double Negatives)
- become like little children - Jesus uses a simile to teach the disciples that they should not be concerned with who is most important. They should be concerned with becoming humble like a child. (See: Simile)

- enter the kingdom of heaven - The phrase “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. Matthew 18:4-6UDB:

⁴ The people who become as humble as this child will be the most important people among those over whom God will rule from heaven. ⁵ Also, whenever people welcome a child like this one because they love me, God considers that they are welcoming me.”

⁶ ”If a person causes someone who believes in me to sin, even if it is someone who people think is as unimportant as this little child, God will severely punish that person. He will punish that person worse than if someone had thrown him into the sea’s deep waters with a heavy stone tied to his neck!

ULB:

⁴ Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me. ⁶ But whoever causes one of these little ones who believes in me to sin, it would be better for him that a great millstone should be hung about his neck, and that he should be sunk into the depths of the sea.

translationWords:

- humble, humility
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- receive
- name
- believe, believe in, belief
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues teaching the disciples that they need to be humble like a child if they want to be important in God’s kingdom. (See: Simile)
- is the greatest - “is the most important” or “will be the most important”
- in the kingdom of heaven - The phrase “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is used only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “in God’s kingdom” or “when our God in heaven establishes his rule on earth” (See: Metonymy)
- in my name - Here “my name” refers to the entire person. AT: “because of me” or “because he is my disciple” (See: Metonymy)
- receives me - Jesus means it is the same as welcoming him. AT: “it is like he is welcoming me” and “it is as if he were welcoming me”

- a great millstone should be hung about his neck, and that he should be sunk into the depths of the sea - This can be stated in active form. AT: “if someone put a great millstone around his neck and threw him into the deep sea” (See: Active or Passive)
- millstone - This is a large, heavy, circular stone used for grinding wheat grain into flour. AT: “a heavy stone”

UDB:

⁷ How terrible it will be for those who cause others to sin. There will always be temptations to sin, but how terrible it will be for anyone to cause another person to sin. ⁸ So if you are wanting to use one of your hands or feet to sin, stop using that hand or foot! Even if you have to cut it off so you will not sin! Suppose you had only one hand or one foot and still lived forever with God, how much better is that than if you had both hands and both feet and God threw you into the eternal fire in hell because of your sin.

ULB:

⁷ Woe to the world because of times of stumbling! For it is necessary that those times come, but woe to the person through whom those times come! ⁸ If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown into the eternal fire having two hands or two feet.

translationWords:

- woe
- world, worldly
- stumble
- everlasting, eternal, eternity
- hell, lake of fire

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to use a little child to teach the disciples and warns against the terrible consequences of causing children to sin.
- to the world - Here “world” refers to people. AT: “to the people of the world” (See: Metonymy)
- because of times of stumbling - Here “stumbling” is a metaphor for sin. AT: “because of the things that cause people to sin” (See: Metaphor)
- that those times come - “that those things come that cause people to sin”
- the person through whom those times come - “any person who causes others to sin”
- If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you - Jesus uses a hyperbole here to emphasize how serious he is. Jesus means a person must do anything necessary to remove from their lives what causes them to sin. (See: Hyperbole)
- your ... you - All occurrences of these words are singular. Jesus is speaking to all people in general. It may be more natural for your language to translate with a plural “you.” (See: Forms of You)

- into life - “into eternal life”
- than to be thrown into the eternal fire having two hands or two feet - This can be stated in active form. AT: “than to have both hands and feet when God throws you into the eternal fire” (See: Active or Passive)

translationWords:

- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- angel, archangel
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- See that - "Be careful that" or "Be sure that"
- you do not despise any of these little ones - "you do not think of these little ones as being unimportant." This can be stated in positive form. AT: "you show respect to these little ones"
- For I say to you - This add emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven - Jewish teachers taught that only the most important angels could be in God's presence. Jesus means that the most important angels speak to God about these little ones. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- always look on the face of my Father - This is an idiom that means they are in God's presence. AT: "are always close to my Father" or "are always in the presence of my Father" (See: Idiom)

¹² What do you think you would do in the following situation? If you had one hundred sheep and one of them got lost, you would surely leave the ninety-nine sheep that were on the hillside and go and search for the lost one, would you not? ¹³ If you found it, I affirm to you that you would rejoice very much. You would be happy that ninety-nine sheep did not stray away, but you would rejoice even more because you had found the sheep that had strayed away. ¹⁴ In the same way that the shepherd does not want one of his sheep to stray away, so God, your Father in heaven, does not want even one of these children to go to hell.”

ULB:

¹² What do you think? If anyone has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the hillside and go off seeking the one that went astray? ¹³ And if he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. ¹⁴ In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

translationWords:

- sheep, ram, ewe
- astray, go astray, led astray, stray
- amen, truly
- rejoice
- will of God
- ancestor, father, forefather
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- perish, perishing, perishable

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to use a little child to teach the disciples and tells a parable to explain God’s care for people.
- What do you think? - Jesus uses this question to get people’s attention. AT: “Think of how people act” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- you ... your - All occurrences of these words are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- If anyone ... that did not go astray - Jesus uses a parable to teach his disciples. (See: Parables)

If he listens to you, you will have gained your brother. ¹⁶ But if he does not listen to you, take one or two others along with you, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified.

translationWords:

- brother
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- witness, eyewitness
- word

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach his disciples about forgiveness and reconciliation.
- your brother - This refers to a fellow believer in God, not a physical brother.
- you will have gained your brother - "you will have made your relationship with your fellow believer good again"
- so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified - Here "mouth" and "word" refer to what a person says. This can be stated in active form. AT: "so that two or three witnesses may verify that what you say about your fellow believer is true" (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)

ULB:

¹⁷ And if he refuses to listen to them, tell the matter to the church. If he also refuses to listen to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

translationWords:

- church, Church
- Gentile
- tax collector

translationNotes:

- if he refuses to listen to them - “if your fellow believer refuses to listen to the witnesses who came with you”
- to the church - “to the whole community of believers”

translationWords:

- amen, truly
- earth, earthly
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- name

translationNotes:

- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- you - All occurrences of this word are plural. (See: Forms of You)
- bind ... bound ... release ... released - This metaphor means that God in heaven will approve of what Peter allows or forbids on earth. See how you translated these in 16:19. (See: Metaphor)
- will be bound ... will be released - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will bind ... God will release” (See: Active or Passive)
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- if two of you - It is implied that Jesus means “if at least two of you” or “if two or more of you.” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- they ... them - These refer to the “two of you.” AT: “you ... you”
- my Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)

translationWords:

- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Lord
- brother
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- forgive, forgiveness

translationNotes:

- seven times - “7 times” (See: Numbers)
- seventy times seven - Possible meanings are 1) “70 times 7” (ULB) or 2) “77 times” (UDB). If using a number would be confusing, you can translate it as “more times than you can count” or “you must always forgive him.” (See: Numbers)

ULB:

³⁴ His master was angry and handed him over to the torturers until he would pay all that was owed. ³⁵ So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.”

translationWords:

- lord, master, sir
- hand, right hand, to hand over
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- brother
- heart

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes his parable about forgiveness and reconciliation.
- General Information: - This is the end of the part of the story that began in 18:1, where Jesus teaches about life in the kingdom of heaven.
- His master - “The king”
- handed him over - “gave him over.” Most likely the king himself did not take the first servant to the torturers. AT: “he ordered his servants to give him over” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- to the torturers - “to those who would torture him”

Special concepts in this chapter

Jesus' teaching about divorce

In this chapter, Jesus teaches about divorce as a response to a challenge from Pharisees. Jesus bases his teaching on God's original intentions in creating marriage. Jesus implicitly shows the mistakes that the religious leaders made in their traditions about marriage.

ULB:

³ Pharisees came to him, testing him, saying to him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?” ⁴ Jesus answered and said, “Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female?”

translationWords:

- Pharisee
- test
- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- divorce
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to teach about marriage and divorce.
- came to him - “came to Jesus”
- testing him, saying to him - Here “tested” is used in a negative sense. AT: “and challenged him by asking him” or “and wanted to trap him by asking him”
- Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female? - Jesus uses a question to respond to the Pharisees. AT: “Surely you have read that in the beginning when God created people he made them male and female” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Matthew 19:5-6

UDB:

⁵ That explains why God said, ‘When a man and woman marry, they should no longer live with their fathers and mothers. Instead, the two of them must live together, and they will become so closely united that they are like one person.’ ⁶ Consequently, although they functioned as two separate people before, they now become as if they were one person. Since that is true, a man must not separate from his wife whom God has joined to him.”

ULB:

⁵ And he who made them also said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and join to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’? ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one tear apart.”

translationWords:

- flesh
- God

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 5, Jesus quotes from Genesis to show that a husband and wife should not divorce.
- He who made them also said, ‘For this reason ... flesh’? - This is a continuation of the question that Jesus uses to respond to the Pharisees in 19:3. This direct quotation can be stated as an indirect quotation. AT: “And surely you know that God also said that this is the reason ... flesh” (See: Rhetorical Question and Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- For this reason - This is a part of the quotation from Genesis story about Adam and Eve. In that context the reason a man will leave his father and mother is because God created a woman to be the man’s companion.
- join to his wife - “stay close to his wife” or “live with his wife”
- and the two will become one flesh - This is a metaphor that emphasizes the unity of a husband and a wife. AT: “and they will become like one person” (See: Metaphor)
- So they are no longer two, but one flesh - This is a metaphor that emphasizes the unity of a husband and a wife. AT: “So a husband and wife are no longer like two persons, but they are like one person” (See: Metaphor)

But when God first created a man and a woman, he did not intend for them to separate from each other. ⁹ I am telling you emphatically that God considers that any man who divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery, unless his first wife has committed adultery.”

ULB:

⁷ They said to him, “Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of divorce and then to send her away?” ⁸ He said to them, “For your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not that way. ⁹ I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. And the man who marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery.”

translationWords:

- Moses
- command, to command, commandment
- divorce
- hard, hardness, harden
- heart
- sexual immorality
- adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

translationNotes:

- They said to him - “The Pharisees said to Jesus”
- command us - “command us Jews”
- certificate of divorce - This is a document that legally ends the marriage.
- For your hardness of heart - The phrase “hardness of heart” is an idiom that means “stubborn.” AT: “Because you are stubborn” (See: Idiom)
- your hardness ... allowed you ... your wives - Here “you” and “your” are plural. Jesus is speaking to the Pharisees, but Moses gave this command many years earlier to their ancestors. Moses’ command applied to all Jewish men in general. (See: Forms of You)
- from the beginning - Here “beginning” refers to when God first created man and woman. (See: Metonymy)

- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- and marries another - You can make clear the understood information. AT: “and marries another woman” (See: Ellipsis)
- and the man who marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery - Many early texts do not include these words. (See: Textual Variants)

Matthew 19:10-12UDB:

¹⁰ The disciples said to him, “If that is true, it is better for men never to marry!” ¹¹ He answered, “Not every man is able to accept this teaching, but only the men whom God enables to accept it. ¹² There are men who do not marry because their private parts have been defective ever since they were born. There are other men who do not marry because they have been castrated. Then there are still other men who decide not to marry in order to serve God better as he rules from heaven. You who are able to understand what I have said about marriage should accept it and obey it.”

ULB:

¹⁰ The disciples said to Jesus, “If that is the case of a man with his wife, it is not good to marry.” ¹¹ But Jesus said to them, “Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those who are allowed to accept it. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were so born from their mother’s womb. And there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men. And there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven’s sake. He who is able to receive this teaching, let him receive it.”

translationNotes:

- who are allowed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “whom God allows” or “whom God enables” (See: Active or Passive)
- For there are eunuchs who were so born from their mother’s womb - You can make explicit the implicit information. AT: “For there are different reasons that men do not marry. For instance, there are men who are born eunuchs” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men - This can be stated in active form. AT: “And there are men whom other men have made eunuchs” (See: Active or Passive)
- eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs - Possible meanings are 1) “men who have made themselves eunuchs by removing their private parts” or 2) “men who choose to remain unmarried and sexually pure.” (See: Metaphor)

- for the sake of the kingdom of heaven - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is found only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “so they can better serve our God in heaven” (See: Metonymy)
- receive this teaching ... receive it - “accept this teaching ... accept it”

Matthew 19:13-15UDB:

¹³ Then some little children were brought to Jesus in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the people for doing that. ¹⁴ But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and do not stop them! It is people who are humble and trusting like they are who belong to the rule of God from heaven.” ¹⁵ Jesus then laid his hands on the children to bless them. Then he left that place.

ULB:

¹³ Then some little children were brought to him so that he would lay his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ But Jesus said, “Permit the little children, and do not forbid them to come to me, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such ones.” ¹⁵ He placed his hands on the children, and then he went away from there.

translationWords:

- pray, prayer
- disciple
- rebuke
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus receives and blesses little children.
- some little children were brought to him - This can be stated in active form. AT: “some people brought little children to Jesus” (See: Active or Passive)
- Permit - “Allow”
- do not forbid them to come to me - “do not stop them from coming to me”
- for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such ones - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is found only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “for when our God in heaven establishes his rule on earth, he will be king over such as these” or “for God will allow such as these into his kingdom” (See: Metonymy)
- belongs to such ones - “belongs to those who are like children.” This is a simile that means those who are humble like children will enter God’s kingdom. (See: Simile)

Matthew 19:16-17

UDB:

¹⁶ As Jesus was walking along, a young man approached him and said to him, “Teacher, what good deeds must I do in order to live with God forever?” ¹⁷ Jesus said to him, “Why are you asking me about what is good? Only one being is good and really knows what is good. That being is God. But in order to answer your question about desiring to live with God forever, I will tell you to keep the commandments that God gave Moses.”

ULB:

¹⁶ Behold, a man came to Jesus and said, “Teacher, what good thing must I do that I may have eternal life?” ¹⁷ Jesus said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? Only one is good, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

²⁰ The young man said to Jesus, “I have always obeyed all those commandments. What else must I do in order to live with God forever?” ²¹ Jesus said to him, “If you desire to be exactly how God wants you to be, go home, sell everything that you have, and give the money to poor people. The result will be that you will be wealthy in heaven. Then come, follow me, and be my disciple!” ²² When the young man heard those words, he went away feeling sad, because he was very rich and did not want to give away everything he owned.

ULB:

²⁰ The young man said to him, “All these things I have obeyed. What do I still need?” ²¹ Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” ²² But when the young man heard what Jesus said, he went away sorrowful, for he had many possessions.

Matthew 20:1-2

UDB:

¹ "The way God rules from heaven compares to what the owner of an estate did. Early in the morning the owner of the estate went to the marketplace, where people who wanted work gathered. He went there to hire laborers to work in his vineyard. ² He promised the men whom he hired that he would pay them the standard wage for working one day. Then he sent them to his vineyards.

ULB:

20 ¹ For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ² After he had agreed with the workers for one denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

- mock, ridicule, scoff at
- crucify
- biblical time: day
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus foretells his death and resurrection a third time as he and his disciples travel to Jerusalem.
- going up to Jerusalem - Jerusalem was on top of a hill so people had to travel up to get there.

- See, we are going - Jesus uses the word “See” to tell the disciples they must pay attention to what he is about to tell them.
- we are going - Here “we” refers to Jesus and the disciples. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- the Son of Man will be delivered - This can be stated in active form. AT: “someone will deliver the Son of Man” (See: Active or Passive)
- Son of Man ... him ... he - Jesus is referring to himself in the third person. If necessary, you can translate these in the first person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- They will condemn ... for them to mock - The chief priests and scribes will condemn and deliver him to the Gentiles, and the Gentiles will mock Jesus.
- to flog - “to whip him” or “to beat him with whips”
- third day - (See: Ordinal Numbers)
- he will be raised up - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will raise him up” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 20:20-21

UDB:

²⁰ Then the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee, brought her two sons to Jesus. She bowed down before Jesus and asked him to do her a favor. ²¹ Jesus said to her, “What do you want me to do for you?” She said to him, “Permit these two sons of mine to sit in the places of most honor when you become king, one on your right hand and the other on your left.”

ULB:

²⁰ Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Jesus with her sons. She bowed down before him and asked for something from him. ²¹ Jesus said to her, “What do you wish?” She said to him, “Command that these my two sons may sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your kingdom.”

translationWords:

- Zebedee
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- bow, bow down
- command, to command, commandment
- right hand
- kingdom

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - In response to the question that the mother of two of the disciples asks, Jesus teaches his disciples about authority and serving others in the kingdom of heaven.
- the sons of Zebedee - This refers James and John.
- at your right hand ... at your left hand - These refer to having positions of power, authority, and honor. (See: Metonymy)
- in your kingdom - Here “kingdom” refers to Jesus ruling as king. AT: “when you are king” (See: Metonymy)

Matthew 20:22-24UDB:

²² Jesus said to her and her sons, “You do not understand what you are asking for. Can you suffer like I am about to suffer?” James and John answered him, “Yes, we are able to do that.” ²³ Then Jesus said to them, “Yes, you will suffer as I will suffer. But I am not the one who chooses the ones who will sit next to me and rule with me. God, my Father, will give those places to the ones whom he appoints.”

²⁴ When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had requested, they became angry with them because they also wanted to rule with Jesus in the positions of most honor.

ULB:

²² But Jesus answered and said, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.” ²³ He said to them, “My cup you will indeed drink. But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.” ²⁴ When the other ten disciples heard this, they were very angry with the two brothers.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- right hand
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- disciple

translationNotes:

- You do not know - Here “you” is plural and refers to the mother and the sons. (See: Forms of You)
- Are you able - Here “you” is plural, but Jesus is only talking to the two sons. (See: Forms of You)
- drink the cup that I am about to drink - This is an idiom that means to experience suffering. AT: “go through the suffering I am about to go through” (See: Idiom)
- They said - “The sons of Zebedee said” or “James and John said”
- My cup you will indeed drink - This is an idiom that means to experience suffering. AT: “You will indeed suffer as I will suffer” (See: Idiom)
- right hand ... left hand - These refer to having positions of power, authority, and honor. See how you translated this in 20:21. (See: Metonymy)

- it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father - This can be stated in active form. AT: “my Father has prepared those places, and he will give them to whom he chooses” (See: Active or Passive)
- my Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- heard this - “heard what James and John had asked Jesus”
- they were very angry with the two brothers - If necessary, you can make explicit why the ten disciples were angry. AT: “they were very angry with the two brothers because each of them wanted to sit in the places of honor next to Jesus” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 20:25-28UDB:

²⁵ So Jesus called all of them together and said to them, "You know that those who rule the non-Jews enjoy showing them that they are powerful. Their chief rulers enjoy commanding the people under them. ²⁶ You should not be like them. On the contrary, everyone among you who wants God to consider him great must become a servant for the rest of you. ²⁷ Yes, and everyone among you who wants God to consider him to be the most important must become a servant for the rest of you. ²⁸ You should imitate me. Even though I am the Son of Man, I did not come for others to serve me. On the contrary, I came in order to serve them and to allow them to kill me, so that my dying would be like a payment to rescue many people from being punished for their sins."

ULB:

²⁵ But Jesus called them to himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles subjugate them, and their important men exercise authority over them. ²⁶ But it must not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant. ²⁷ And whoever wishes to be first among you must be your servant, ²⁸ just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- ruler, rulers, rule
- Gentile
- authority
- servant, slave, slavery
- Son of Man, son of man
- serve, service
- ransom

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus finishes teaching his disciples about authority and serving others.
- called them - "called the twelve disciples"
- the rulers of the Gentiles subjugate them - "the Gentile kings forcefully rule over their people"
- their important men - "the important men among the Gentiles"
- exercise authority over them - "have control over the people"
- whoever wishes - "whoever wants" or "whoever desires"

- to be first - “to be important”
- the Son of Man ... his life - Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. If necessary, you can translate this in the first person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- did not come to be served - This can be stated in active form. AT: “did not come so that other people would serve him” or “did not come so that other people would serve me” (See: Active or Passive)
- but to serve - You can make clear the understood information. AT: “but to serve other people” (See: Ellipsis)
- to give his life - This is an idiom. AT: “to die” (See: Idiom)
- as a ransom for many - The word “ransom” usually refers to setting someone free from prison or slavery. Here it is a metaphor for Jesus saving people from God punishing them for their sins. (See: Metaphor)
- for many - You can make clear the understood information. AT: “for many people” (See: Ellipsis)

Matthew 20:29-31UDB:

²⁹ As they were leaving the city of Jericho, a large crowd of people followed them. ³⁰ As they walked along, they saw two blind men sitting alongside the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they yelled to him, “Lord, Descendant of King David, you are the Messiah! Take pity on us!” ³¹ People in the crowd scolded them and told them to be quiet. But the blind men yelled even louder, “Lord, Descendant of King David, you are the Messiah! Have pity on us!”

ULB:

²⁹ As they went out from Jericho, a great crowd followed him. ³⁰ And two blind men were sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us.” ³¹ The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be quiet, but they cried out even more loudly, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us.”

translationWords:

- Jericho
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Lord
- son, son of
- David
- mercy, merciful
- rebuke

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins an account of Jesus healing two blind men.
- As they went - This refers to the disciples and Jesus.
- followed him - “followed Jesus”
- There were two blind men were sitting - This is sometimes translated as “Behold, there were two men sitting.” The writer is alerting us to a new people in the story. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- When they heard - “When the two blind men heard”
- was passing by - “was walking by them”
- Son of David - Jesus was not David’s literal son, so this may be translated as “Descendant of King David” (UDB). However, “Son of David” is also a title for the Messiah, and the men were probably calling Jesus by this title.

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent all the lines of 21:5,16 and 42, which are quotations from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Donkey

The way in which Jesus entered into Jerusalem, mounted on a donkey, was similar to the way a king would have entered into a city after a great victory. It was traditional for the kings of Israel to ride donkeys instead of horses. Jesus could not have ridden two animals at the same time. It is best to translate this as it appears in the ULB without trying to reconcile these two passages. (See: Mark 11:1-7)

Hosanna

This is what the people shouted in order to welcome Jesus into Jerusalem. It was an exclamation of praise, although it was a word in Hebrew meaning, "Save us!"

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

"The kingdom of God will be taken away from you"

Scholars are divided over the meaning of this phrase. An essential question is: would this be a permanent or temporary event? If possible, leave both these possibilities open in your translation.

Matthew 21:1-3

UDB:

1-2 As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the village of Bethphage, near the Mount of Olives. Jesus said to two of his disciples, "Go to the village just ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey and her colt that are tied up. Untie them and bring them here to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you about your doing that, tell him, 'The Lord needs them.' He will then allow you to lead them away."

ULB:

21 ¹ As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ² saying to them, "Go into the next village, and you will immediately find a donkey tied up there, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you about that, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and that person will immediately send them with you."

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- disciple
- Jerusalem
- Mount of Olives
- send, send out, sent
- donkey, mule
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. Here he gives his disciples instructions about what they are to do.
- Bethphage - This is a village near Jerusalem. (See: How to Translate Names)
- a donkey tied up - You can state this in active form. AT: "a donkey that someone has tied up" (See: Active or Passive)
- tied up there - You can make explicit how the donkey is tied. AT: "tied up there to a post" or "tied up there to a tree" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

4-5 When all this happened, what one of the prophets had written came true. That prophet had written, “Tell the people who live in Jerusalem, ‘Look! Your king is coming to you! He will come humbly. He will show that he is humble, because he will be riding on a colt, the offspring of a donkey.’”

ULB:

⁴ Now this came about that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled. He said,

⁵ ”Tell the daughter of Zion,
 ’See, your King is coming to you,
 Humble and riding on a donkey,
 And on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- fulfill
- Daughter of Zion
- king
- humble, humility
- donkey, mule

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the author quotes the prophet Zechariah to show that Jesus fulfilled prophecy by riding a donkey into Jerusalem.

Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew explains how Jesus’ actions fulfill scripture.

this came about that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled - This can be stated in active form. AT: “this happened so that Jesus would fulfill what God spoke through the prophet long ago” (See: Active or Passive) through the prophet - It can be made explicit what prophet spoke this. AT: “through Zechariah the prophet” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) the daughter of Zion - The “daughter” of a city means the people of the city. AT: “the people of Zion” or “the people who live in Zion”

Zion - This is another name for Jerusalem.

on a donkey—on a colt, the foal of a donkey - The phrase “on a colt ... ” is explaining that the donkey is a young animal - a young, male donkey ===== Links: ===== * Introduction to the Gospel of Matthew * Matthew 21 General Notes * Matthew 21 Translation Questions

Hosanna in the highest!”

¹⁰ When Jesus had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred and said, “Who is this?” ¹¹ The crowds answered, “This is Jesus the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- son, son of
- David
- bless, blessed, blessing
- name
- Lord
- Jerusalem
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Nazareth, Nazarene
- Galilee, Galilean

translationNotes:

- Hosanna - This word means “save us” but can also mean “praise God!”

- the son of David - Jesus was not David's literal son, so this may be translated as "descendant of king David" (UDB). However, "Son of David" is also a title for the Messiah, and the crowd was probably calling Jesus by this title.

Matthew 21:12-14UDB:

¹² Then Jesus went into the temple courtyard and chased out all of those who were buying and selling things there. He also overturned the tables of those who were changing Roman coins for temple tax money, and he overturned the seats of those who were selling pigeons for sacrifices. ¹³ Then he said to them, “A prophet wrote in the scriptures that God said, ‘I want my house to be a place where people pray to me,’ but you people have made it into a place where robbers gather!”

¹⁴ After that, many blind people and lame people came to Jesus in the temple in order that he would heal them, and he did so.

ULB:

¹² Then Jesus entered the temple. He cast out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and turned over the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. ¹³ He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you make it a den of robbers.”

¹⁴ Then the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- temple
- cast out, drive out, throw out
- dove, pigeon
- written
- pray, prayer
- heal, cure

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of Jesus entering into the temple.
- General Information: - In verse 13, Jesus quotes the prophet Isaiah to rebuke the vendors and money changers.
- Jesus entered the temple - Jesus did not enter the actual temple. He entered the courtyard around the temple. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- who bought and sold - Merchants were selling animals and other items that travelers bought to offer the proper sacrifices at the temple.
- He said to them - “Jesus said to those who were changing money and buying and selling things”
- It is written - This can be stated in active form. AT: “The prophets wrote long ago” or “God said long ago” (See: Active or Passive)

- My house will be called - This can be stated in active form. AT: “My house will be” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 21:15-17UDB:

¹⁵ The high priests and the men who taught the people the Jewish laws saw the marvelous deeds that Jesus did. They also saw the children shouting in the temple, “We praise the Messiah, the descendant of King David!” They were indignant. ¹⁶ They asked him, “How can you tolerate this? Do you hear what these people are shouting?” Then Jesus said to them, “Yes, I hear them, but if you remembered what you have read in the scriptures about children praising me, you would know that God is pleased with them. The psalmist wrote, saying to God, ‘You have taught infants and other children to praise you perfectly.’”

¹⁷ Then Jesus left the city. The disciples went with him to the village of Bethany, and they stayed there that night.

ULB:

¹⁵ But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things that he did, and when they heard the children shouting in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they became very angry. ¹⁶ They said to him, “Do you hear what these people are saying?” Jesus said to them, “Yes! But have you never read, ‘Out of the mouths of babes and nursing infants you have perfected praise?’” ¹⁷ Then Jesus left them and went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

translationWords:

- chief priests
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- temple
- David
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- praise
- Bethany

translationNotes:

- General Information: - In verse 16, Jesus quotes from the Psalms to justify how the people had responded to him.
- the marvelous things - “the wonderful things” or “the miracles.” This refers to Jesus healing the blind and lame people in 21:14.
- Hosanna - This word means “save us” but can also mean “praise God!” See how you translated this in 21:09.

- the Son of David - Jesus was not David's literal son, so this may be translated as "descendant of king David" (UDB). However, "Son of David" is also a title for the Messiah, and the crowd was probably calling Jesus by this title. See how you translated this in 21:09.
- they became very angry - It is implied that they were angry because they did not believe Jesus was the Christ and they did not want other people praising him. AT: "they became very angry because people were praising him" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Do you hear what these people are saying? - The chief priests and scribes ask this question to rebuke Jesus because they are angry with him. AT: "You should not allow people to say these things about you!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- But have you never read ... praise'? - Jesus asks this question to remind the chief priests and scribes of what they have studied in the scriptures. AT: "Yes, I hear them, but you should remember what you read in the scriptures ... praise'" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Out of the mouths of babes and nursing infants you have perfected praise - The phrase "out of the mouths" refers to speaking. AT: "You caused little children and nursing infants to speak perfect praise" (See: Metonymy)
- Jesus left them - "Jesus left the chief priests and scribes"

translationWords:

- disciple
- marvel, wonder, amazed, astonished
- fig
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- amen, truly
- faith
- pray, prayer
- receive

translationNotes:

- How did the fig tree immediately wither away? - The disciples use a question to emphasize how surprised they are. AT: “We are astonished that the fig tree has dried up so quickly!” (UDB). (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- if you have faith and do not doubt - Jesus expresses the same idea both positively and negatively to emphasize that this faith must be genuine. AT: “if you truly believe” (See: Doublet)
- wither away - “dry up and die”
- you will even say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ - You can translate this direct quotation as an indirect quotation. This can also be stated in active form.

AT: “you will even be able to tell this mountain to get up and throw itself into the sea” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations and Active or Passive)

Matthew 21:25-27UDB:

²⁵ Where did John the Baptizer get his authority to baptize those who came to him? Did he get it from God or from people? The chief priests and elders debated among themselves about what they should answer. They said to each other, "If we say, 'It was from God,' he will say to us, 'Then you should have believed his message!'" ²⁶ But if we say, 'It was from people,' the crowd might react violently against us, because all the people believe that John was a prophet whom God had sent." ²⁷ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know where John got his authority from." Then Jesus said to them, "Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you who gave me the right to do the things I did here yesterday."

ULB:

²⁵ The baptism of John—from where did it come? From heaven or from men?" They discussed among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'" ²⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, because they all view John as a prophet." ²⁷ Then they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

translationWords:

- baptize, baptism
- John (the Baptist)
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- believe, believe in, belief
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- authority

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues to respond to the religious leaders.
- from where did it come? - "where did he get that authority?"
- If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' - This has quotes within a quote. You could translate the direct quotations as an indirect quotations. AT: "If we say that we believe John received his authority from heaven, then Jesus will ask us why we did not believe John" (See: Quotes within Quotes and Direct and Indirect Quotations)

Matthew 21:28-30

UDB:

²⁸ "Tell me what you think about what I am about to tell you. There was a man who had two sons. He went to his older son and said, 'My son, go and work in my vineyard today!' ²⁹ But the son said to his father, 'I will not go!' But later he changed his mind, and he went to the vineyard and worked. ³⁰ Then the father approached his younger son and said what he had said to his older son. That son said, 'Sir, I will go and work in the vineyard today.' But he did not go there.

ULB:

²⁸ But what do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.' ²⁹ The son answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind and went. ³⁰ And the man went to the second son and said the same thing. This son answered and said, 'I will go, sir,' but he did not go.

translationWords:

- son, son of
- vineyard
- mind
- lord, master, sir

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus tells a parable about two sons to rebuke the religious leaders and to illustrate their unbelief. (See: Parables)
- But what do you think? - Jesus uses a question to challenge the religious leaders to think deeply about the parable he will tell them. AT: "Tell me what you think about what I am about to tell you" (UDB). (See: Rhetorical Question)

Matthew 21:31-32UDB:

³¹ So which of the man's two sons did what their father desired?" They answered, "The older son." Then Jesus said to them, "So think about this: God will be kind to the tax collectors and prostitutes by agreeing to rule over them much sooner than he will agree to rule over you. This is true, even though you condemn those people because they ignore the law of Moses. ³² I say this to you because, even though John the Baptizer explained to you how to live in the right way, you did not believe his message. But tax collectors and prostitutes believed his message, and they turned away from their sinful behavior. In contrast, even though you saw that they changed, you refused to stop sinning, and you did not believe John's message."

ULB:

³¹ Which of the two sons did his father's will?" They said, "The first one." Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes will enter the kingdom of God before you do. ³² For John came to you in the path of righteousness, but you did not believe him, while the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And you, when you saw that happen, did not even repent later in order to believe him.

translationWords:

- amen, truly
- tax collector
- prostitute, harlot, whore
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- John (the Baptist)
- righteous, righteousness
- believe, believe in, belief
- repent, repentance

translationNotes:

- They said - "The chief priests and elders said"
- Jesus said to them - "Jesus said to the chief priests and elders"
- Truly I say to you - "I tell you the truth." This phrase adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- the tax collectors and the prostitutes will enter the kingdom of God before you do - Here "kingdom of God" refers to God's rule as king. AT: "when God establishes his rule on earth, he will agree to bless the tax collectors and prostitutes by ruling over them before he agrees to do that for you" (See: Metonymy)

- before you do - Possible meanings are 1) God will accept the tax collectors and prostitutes sooner than he will accept the Jewish religious leaders, or 2) God will accept the tax collectors and prostitutes instead of the Jewish religious leaders.
- John came to you - Here “you” is plural and refers to all the people of Israel not just the religious leaders. AT: “John came to the people of Israel” (See: Forms of You)
- in the way of righteousness - This is an idiom that means John showed the people the right way to live. AT: “and told you the way God wants you to live” (See: Idiom)

Matthew 21:33-34UDB:

³³ "Listen to another parable that I will tell you. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He built a fence around it. He made a place to collect the juice that would come out of the grapes. He also built a tower in which someone could sit to guard that vineyard. He rented the vineyard to some men who would care for it and give him some of the grapes in return. Then he went away to another country. ³⁴ When it was time to harvest the grapes, the landowner sent some of his servants to the men who were caring for the vineyard to get his share of the grapes that the vineyard had produced.

ULB:

³³ Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner. He planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a watchtower, and rented it out to vine growers. Then he went into another country. ³⁴ When the time of the fruit harvest approached, he sent some servants to the vine growers to get his fruit.

translationWords:

- parable
- vineyard
- winepress
- watchtower, tower
- fruit, fruitful
- harvest
- servant, slave, slavery

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - To rebuke the religious leaders and illustrate their unbelief, Jesus tells a parable about rebellious servants. (See: Parables)
- a landowner - "a person who owned a piece of property"
- a hedge - "a wall" or "a fence"
- dug a winepress in it - "dug a hole in the vineyard to press the grapes"
- rented it out to vine growers - "put vine growers in charge of the vineyard." The owner still owned the vineyard.

translationWords:

- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture
- cornerstone
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Here Jesus begins to explain the parable of the rebellious servants.
- General Information: - Jesus quotes the prophet Isaiah to show that God will honor the one whom the religious leaders reject.
- Jesus said to them - It is unclear to whom Jesus asks the following question. If you need to make "them" specific, use the same audience as you did in 21:41.
- Did you never read ... eyes'? - Jesus uses a question to make his audience think deeply about what this scripture means. AT: "Think about what you have read ... eyes" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- The stone which the builders rejected has been made the cornerstone - Jesus is quoting from the Psalms. This is a metaphor that means the religious leaders, like builders, will reject Jesus, but God will make him the most important in his kingdom, like the cornerstone in a building. (See: Metaphor)

- has been made the cornerstone - This can be stated in active form. AT: “has become the cornerstone” (See: Active or Passive)

translationWords:

- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- nation
- fruit, fruitful

translationNotes:

- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- to you - Here “you” is plural. Jesus was speaking to the religious leaders and also to the Jewish people in general. (See: Forms of You)
- the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation that produces its fruits - Here “kingdom of God” refers to God’s rule as king. This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will reject you, the Jewish people, and he will be king over people from other nations who bear fruit” (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)
- that produces its fruits - This is an idiom that refers to obedience. AT: “that obeys God’s commands” (See: Idiom)
- Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces - Here, “this stone” is the same stone as in 21:42. This is a metaphor that means the Christ will destroy anyone who rebels against him. This can be stated in active form. AT: “The stone will break into pieces anyone who falls on it” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Matthew 22 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of verse 44, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Wedding Feast

In the parable of the wedding feast (22:1-14), Jesus taught that it was important to accept God's invitation of salvation. In Jewish culture, paradise—life with God after death—was often pictured as a feast. Here Jesus pictures it as a wedding feast that a king prepares for his son, who has just gotten married. In addition, Jesus emphasizes that not all people whom God invites will properly prepare themselves to participate. These people will be thrown out from the feast.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Implicit meaning

Like the other gospel writers, Matthew assumes that his readers will understand many situations that he presents, so he does not give much explanation. He says, for example, in 22:15-22, that the Pharisees attempted to trick Jesus into saying wrong things, but he assumes that the readers will understand why their question for Jesus was a dangerous one to answer (22:16). They expected that Jesus in his answer would anger either the Jewish people or the Roman authorities.

Paradox

This is a statement that seems absurd or appears to contradict itself. In this chapter, Jesus quotes a psalm referencing that David calls his son "lord," that is, master. The Jews always expected that ancestors would be greater than their descendants. In this passage, Jesus is trying to gradually lead his hearers to the true understanding that the Messiah will himself be divine, and that he, Jesus, is in fact the Messiah.

- Caesar

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins an account of the religious leaders trying to trap Jesus with several difficult questions. Here the Pharisees ask him about paying taxes to Caesar.
- how they might entrap Jesus in his own talk - "how they could cause Jesus to say something wrong so they could arrest him"
- their disciples ... Herodians - The disciples of the Pharisees supported paying taxes only to Jewish authorities. The Herodians supported paying taxes to the Roman authorities. It is implied that the Pharisees believed that no matter what Jesus said, he would offend one of these groups. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

- Herodians - These were officials and followers of the Jewish king Herod. He was friends with Roman authorities. (See: How to Translate Names)
- you do not show partiality between people - “you do not show special honor to some people” or “you do not consider some people more important than other people”
- to pay taxes to Caesar - People did not pay taxes directly to Caesar but to one of his tax collectors. AT: “to pay the taxes that Caesar requires” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 22:18-19

UDB:

¹⁸ But Jesus knew that what they really wanted to do was evil. They were wanting him to say something that would get him in trouble with either the Jewish authorities or the Roman authorities. So he said to them, "You are hypocrites; you want me to say something for which you can accuse me. ¹⁹ Show me one of the coins with which people pay the Roman tax." So they showed him a coin called a denarius.

Matthew 23 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

Hypocrites

The hypocrisy of the Pharisees is the major theme in this chapter. Jesus remarks that the religious rules developed by the Pharisees are impossible for anyone to keep, but that they Pharisees then persuade the people that they are guilty for not keeping them. In addition, their rules give them excuses for not obeying God with sincere hearts.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Name calling

In most cultures, it is wrong to insult people. Many of the words in this chapter directed at the Pharisees can be taken as insults. They are called “hypocrites,” “blind guides,” “fools,” and “serpents.” Jesus uses these words to describe and condemn their behavior.

Paradox

This is a statement that seems absurd or appears to contradict itself. For example, “he who is greatest among you will be your servant” (23:11-12)

ULB:

23 ¹ Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples. ² He said, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. ³ Therefore whatever they command you to do, do these things and observe them. But do not imitate their deeds, for they say things but then do not do them.

- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- devour
- receive
- son, son of
- hell, lake of fire

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to rebuke the religious leaders because of their hypocrisy.
- But woe to you - “How terrible it will be for you!” See how you translated this in 11:21.
- You shut the kingdom of heaven against people - Here “kingdom of heaven” refers to God’s rule as king. This phrase is found only in the book of Matthew. If possible, keep “heaven” in your translation. AT: “You prevent people from accepting our God in heaven as their king” (See: Metonymy)

- you do not enter it - “you do not accept God as your king”
- neither do you allow those about to enter to do so - “neither do you allow those who want to accept God as their king to do so”
- you go over sea and land - This is an idiom that means they go to distant places. AT: “you travel great distances” (See: Idiom)
- to make one convert - “to make one person accept your religion”
- son of hell - Here “son of” is an idiom that means “one belonging to.” AT: “person who belongs in hell” or “person who should go to hell” (See: Idiom)
- devour widows’ houses - In the footnote, “devour” is an idiom that means to take by force. AT: “steal everything from women who have no men to protect them” (See: Idiom)

Matthew 23:16-17UDB:

¹⁶ "You Jewish leaders, how terribly God will punish you! You are like blind people who try to lead others. You say, 'If someone asks the temple to confirm that he will do something as if the temple were a person, then if he does not do what he promised, it means nothing. But if he asks the gold in the temple to confirm that he will do something, then he must do it.' ¹⁷ You are fools, and you are like people who are blind! The gold that is in the temple is important, but the temple is even more important, because it is the temple that makes the gold to be only for God.

ULB:

¹⁶ Woe to you, you blind guides, you who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound to his oath.' ¹⁷ You blind fools! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold holy?

translationWords:

- woe
- oath, swear, swear by
- temple
- gold
- bind, bond, bound
- holy, holiness

translationNotes:

- blind guides ... blind fools - The Jewish leaders were spiritually blind. Although they thought of themselves as teachers, they were unable to understand God's truth. See how you translated "blind guides" in 15:14. (See: Metaphor)
- by the temple, it is nothing - "by the temple does not have to keep his oath"
- is bound to his oath - "is tied to his oath." Being required to do what one has said he would do in an oath is spoken of as if he is tied to the oath. AT: "must do what he promised to do" (See: Metaphor)
- Which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold holy? - Jesus uses this question to rebuke the Pharisees because they treated the gold as if it were more important than the temple. AT: "The temple that has dedicated the gold to God is more important than the gold!" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the temple that makes the gold holy - "the temple that makes the gold belong to God alone"

¹⁸ Also you say, ‘If someone asks the altar to confirm that he will do something as if the altar were a person, then if he does not do what he promised, it means nothing. But if he asks the gift that he has placed on the altar to confirm that he will do something, then he must do it.’ ¹⁹ You are like people who are blind. The gift that you put on the altar is important, but the altar is even more important because it is the altar that makes the gift only for God.

ULB:

¹⁸ And, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is bound to his oath.’ ¹⁹ You blind people! Which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift holy?

translationWords:

- oath, swear, swear by
- altar
- gift
- bind, bond, bound
- holy, holiness

translationNotes:

- And - The understood information can be made clear. AT: “And you also say” (See: Ellipsis)
- it is nothing - “he does not have to do what he has sworn to do” or “he does not have to keep his oath”
- the gift - This is an animal or grain that a person would bring to God by putting it on God’s altar.
- is bound to his oath - “is tied to his oath.” Being required to do what one has said he would do in an oath is spoken of as if he is tied to the oath. AT: “must do what he promised to do” (See: Metaphor)

Matthew 23:20-22

UDB:

²⁰ So those who promise to do something and then ask the altar to confirm that they will do it, they are also asking everything on the altar to do the same thing. ²¹ Yes, and those who promise to do something and then ask the temple to confirm that they will do it, they are also asking that God, to whom the temple belongs, will confirm the same thing. ²² And those who promise to do something and then ask heaven to confirm that they will do it, they are asking the throne of God to confirm that they will do it, and they are also asking God, who sits on that throne, to confirm the same thing.”

ULB:

²⁰ Therefore, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. ²¹ And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by him who lives in it. ²² And he who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who sits on it.

translationWords:

- altar
- temple
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- throne

translationNotes:

- by everything on it - “by all the gifts that people have placed on it”
- by him who lives in it ... by him who sits on it - Both of these refer to God the Father.

Matthew 23:23-24UDB:

²³ "You teachers of the law and you Pharisees, how terribly God will punish you! You are hypocrites because, even though you give to God a tenth of the herbs you produce, such as mint, dill, and cummin, you do not obey God's laws that are more important. For example, you do not act justly toward others, you do not act mercifully toward people, and you take things away from other using force. It is good to give a tenth of your herbs to God, but you should also obey these other more important laws. ²⁴ You leaders are like blind people who are trying to lead others. You are careful not to offend God by swallowing even the smallest insect when you drink water, but you act as badly as if you were swallowing a camel!

ULB:

²³ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, but you have left undone the weightier matters of the law—justice and mercy and faith. But these you ought to have done and not to have left the other undone. ²⁴ You blind guides, you who strain out a gnat but swallow a camel!

translationWords:

- woe
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- tenth, tithe
- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- just, justice, justly
- mercy, merciful
- faith
- camel

translationNotes:

- Woe to you - "How terrible it will be for you!" See how you translated this in 11:21.
- mint and dill and cumin - These are various leaves and seeds people used to make food taste good. (See: Translate Unknowns)
- you have left undone - "you have not obeyed"
- the weightier matters - "the more important matters"
- But these you ought to have done - "You ought to have obeyed these more important laws"

- and not to have left the other undone - This can be stated in positive form. AT: “while also obeying the less important laws” (See: Double Negatives)
- You blind guides - Jesus uses this metaphor to describe the Pharisees. Jesus means that the Pharisees do not understand God’s commands or how to please him. Therefore, they cannot teach others how to please God. See how you translated this metaphor in 15:14. (See: Metaphor)
- you who strain out a gnat but swallow a camel - Being careful to follow the less important laws and ignoring the more important laws is as foolish as being careful not to swallow the smallest unclean animal but eating the meat of the largest unclean animal either purposely or unknowingly. AT: “you are as foolish as a person who strains out a gnat that falls into his drink but swallows a camel” (See: Metaphor and Hyperbole)
- strain out a gnat - This means to pour a liquid through a cloth to remove a gnat from a drink.
- gnat - a small flying insect

- Woe to you - "How terrible it will be for you!" See how you translated this in 11:21.
- For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence - This is a metaphor that means the scribes and Pharisees appear pure on the outside to others, but on the inside they are wicked. (See: Metaphor)
- they are full of greed and self-indulgence - "they want what others have, and they act in the interest of the self"
- You blind Pharisee - The Pharisees were spiritually blind. Although they thought of themselves as teachers, they were unable to understand God's truth. (See: Metaphor)
- Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside may become clean also - This is a metaphor that means that if they would become pure in their inner being, then the result is that they would be pure on the outside as well. (See: Metaphor)

ULB:

²⁷ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean. ²⁸ In the same way, you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

translationWords:

- woe
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- tomb, grave, burial place
- death, die, dead
- unclean
- righteous, righteousness
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- iniquity

translationNotes:

- you are like whitewashed tombs ... unclean - This is a simile that means the scribes and Pharisees may appear to be pure on the outside, but they are wicked on the inside. (See: Simile)
- whitewashed tombs - "tombs that someone has painted white." The Jews would paint tombs white so that people would easily see them and avoid touching them. Touching a tomb would make a person ceremonially unclean. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

translationWords:

- woe
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- Pharisee
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- tomb, grave, burial place
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- righteous, righteousness
- biblical time: day
- ancestor, father, forefather
- bloodshed
- testimony, testify
- son, son of

translationNotes:

- of the righteous - This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. AT: "of the righteous people" (See: Nominal Adjectives)
- in the days of our fathers - "during the time of our forefathers"
- we would not have been participants with them - "we would not have joined with them"
- shedding the blood of - Here "blood" refers to life. To shed blood means to kill. AT: "killing" or "murdering" (See: Metonymy)
- you are sons - Here "sons" means "descendants."

translationWords:

- ancestor, father, forefather
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- serpent, snake, viper
- offspring
- judge, judgment
- hell, lake of fire

translationNotes:

- You also fill up the measure of your fathers - Jesus uses this as a metaphor meaning the Pharisees will complete the wicked behavior that their forefathers started when they killed the prophets. AT: “You also finish the sins your ancestors began” (See: Metaphor)
- You serpents, you offspring of vipers - Serpents and vipers are the same thing. They are dangerous and often symbols of evil. AT: “You are as evil as dangerous and poisonous snakes” (See: Doublet and Metaphor)
- offspring of vipers - Here “offspring” means “having the characteristic of.” See how you translated a similar phrase in 3:7.
- how will you escape the judgment of hell? - Jesus uses this question as a rebuke. AT: “there is no way for you to escape the judgment of hell!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

You also killed all the prophets who lived between the times that those two men lived. ³⁶ Think about this: You people who have observed my ministry, it is you whom God will punish for killing all those prophets!"

ULB:

³⁴ Therefore, see, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify. And some of them you will whip in your synagogues and chase from city to city. ³⁵ The result is that upon you will come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar. ³⁶ Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

translationWords:

- send, send out, sent
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- wise, wisdom
- scribe, expert in the Jewish law
- crucify
- synagogue
- bloodshed
- Abel
- righteous, righteousness
- Zechariah (OT)
- sanctuary
- altar
- amen, truly
- generation

translationNotes:

- I send - "I will send." Here "I" refers to Jesus.

- upon you will come all the righteous blood shed on the earth - The phrase “upon you will come” is an idiom that means to receive punishment. And, “blood” refers to a person’s life. To shed blood means to kill. AT: “God will punish you for the murders of all the righteous people” (See: Idiom and Metonymy)
- from the blood ... to the blood - The word “blood” refers to a person’s life. Here it means “bloodshed” or murder. AT: “from the murder ... to the murder” (See: Metonymy)
- Abel ... Zechariah - Abel was the first victim of murder, and Zechariah was probably thought to be the last to be murdered, by Jews in the temple. These two men represent all the murdered righteous people. (See: Synecdoche)
- Zechariah - This Zechariah was not the father of John the Baptist.
- whom you killed - Jesus does not mean the people to whom he is speaking actually killed Zechariah. He means their ancestors did.
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.

translationWords:

- Jerusalem
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- stone, stoning
- house
- bless, blessed, blessing
- name
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus mourns over the people of Jerusalem because they reject every messenger that God sends to them.
- Jerusalem, Jerusalem - Jesus speaks to the people of Jerusalem as though they were the city itself. (See: Apostrophe and Metonymy)
- those who are sent to you - This can be stated in active form. AT: "those whom God sends to you" (See: Active or Passive)
- your children - Jesus is speaking to Jerusalem as if it is a woman and the people are her children. AT: "your people" or "your inhabitants" (See: Metaphor)
- just as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings - This is a simile that emphasizes Jesus' love for the people and how he wanted to take care of them. (See: Simile)
- hen - a female chicken. You can translate with any bird that protects her children under her wing. (See: Translate Unknowns)

- your house is left to you desolate - “God will leave your house, and it will be empty”
- your house - Possible meanings are 1) “the city of Jerusalem” or 2) “the temple.” (See: Metonymy)
- I say to you - This adds emphasis to what Jesus says next.
- Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord - Here “in the name” means “in the power” or “as a representative.” AT: “He who comes in the power of the Lord is blessed” or “He who comes as the representative of the Lord will be blessed.” See how you translated this in 21:9. Structure and Formatting

In this chapter, Jesus begins to prophesy about the future leading up to his return as king of the universe. (See: prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess)

Special concepts in this chapter

“The end of the world”

In this chapter, Jesus gives an answer to his disciples when they ask how they will know when he will come again. (See: Symbolic Prophecy)

The example of Noah

In the time of Noah, there was a great flood which God sent as punishment for the sins of man. There were many warnings about this coming flood, but it actually began suddenly. In this chapter, Jesus draws a comparison between that flood and the last days. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“Let”

The ULB uses this word to begin several commands of Jesus, such as “let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains” (24:16), “let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out anything that is in his house” (24:17), and “and let him who is in the field not return to take his cloak” (24:17). There are many different ways to form a command. Translators must select the most natural ways in their own languages.

Matthew 24:12-14UDB:

¹² Because more and more people will disobey God's laws, many believers will no longer love each other. ¹³ But all those who keep on believing to the end of their lives, God will save them. ¹⁴ Furthermore, believers will preach the good news about how God is ruling in every part of the world, in order to announce it to all people groups. Then the end of the world will come."

ULB:

¹² Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³ But the one who endures to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ This gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations. And then the end will come.

translationWords:

- iniquity
- multiply
- love
- endure, endurance
- save, safe
- good news, gospel
- kingdom
- preach
- testimony, testify
- nation

translationNotes:

- iniquity will be multiplied - This can be stated in active form. AT: "people will sin more and more" (See: Active or Passive)
- the love of many will grow cold - Possible meanings are 1) "many people will no longer love other people" or 2) "many people will no longer love God." (See: Idiom)
- the one who endures - "whoever stays faithful"
- to the end - It is not clear whether the "end" means when a person dies, or when the persecution ends, or the end of the age when God shows himself to be king. The main point is that they endure as long as necessary.
- will be saved - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will deliver that person" (See: Active or Passive)
- This gospel of the kingdom will be preached - Here "kingdom" refers to God's rule as king. This can be stated in active form. AT: "People will speak this message about God's rule" (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)

- all the nations - Here, “nations” stands for people. AT: “all people in all places” (See: Metonymy)
- Then the end - “The end of the world” or “The end of the age”

Matthew 24:15-18

UDB:

¹⁵ "But before the world ends, the disgusting person who will defile the holy temple and cause people to abandon it will stand in the temple. Daniel the prophet spoke and wrote about that long ago. May everyone who reads this pay attention, because I am warning you. ¹⁶ When you see that happen in the temple, those of you who are in the region of Judea must flee to the higher hills! ¹⁷ Those who are outside their houses must not go back into their houses to get things before they run away. ¹⁸ Those who are working in a field should not turn back to get their outer clothing before they flee.

ULB:

¹⁵ Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (let the reader understand), ¹⁶ "let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, ¹⁷ let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house, ¹⁸ and let him who is in the field not return to take his cloak.

translationWords:

- abomination, abominable
- desolate, desolation
- Daniel
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- holy place, most holy place
- Judea

translationNotes:

- the abomination of desolation - "the shameful one who defiles the things of God"
- which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet - This can be stated in active form. AT: "about which Daniel the prophet wrote" (See: Active or Passive)
- let the reader understand - This is not Jesus speaking. Matthew added this to alert the reader that Jesus was using words that they would need to think about and interpret.
- let him who is on the housetop - Housetops where Jesus lived were flat, and people could stand on them.

Matthew 24:19-22UDB:

¹⁹ How terrible it will be for pregnant women at that time, and for women who will be nursing their babies, because it will be very difficult for them to run away! ²⁰ Pray that you will not have to flee in the winter when it will be hard to travel, or on the Sabbath, the day of rest; ²¹ because people will suffer very severely when those things happen. People have never suffered that severely since God created the world until now, and no one will ever suffer like that again. ²² If God had not decided to shorten that time when people will suffer so much, everyone would die. But he has decided to shorten it because he is concerned about the people whom he has chosen.”

ULB:

¹⁹ But woe to those who are with child and to those who are nursing infants in those days! ²⁰ Pray that your flight will not occur in the winter or on a Sabbath. ²¹ For there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be again. ²² Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened.

translationWords:

- woe
- biblical time: day
- pray, prayer
- Sabbath
- tribulation
- flesh
- save, safe
- chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect

translationNotes:

- those who are with child - This is a polite way to say “pregnant women.” (See: Euphemism)
- in those days - “at that time”
- that your flight will not occur - “that you do not have to flee” or “that you do not have to run away”
- winter - “the cold season”
- Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved - This can be stated in positive and active form. AT: “If God does not shorten the time of suffering, everyone will die” (See: Double Negatives and Active or Passive)
- flesh - “people.” Here, “flesh” is poetic way of saying all people. (See: Synecdoche)

- those days will be shortened - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God will shorten the time of suffering” (See: Active or Passive)

- false prophet
- miracle, wonder, sign
- astray, go astray, led astray, stray
- chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues speaking to his disciples.
- do not believe it - "do not believe the false things they have said to you"
- so as to lead astray - This is an idiom. AT: "so as to cause people to disobey God" (See: Idiom)
- astray, if possible, even the elect - This can be translated as a separate sentence. AT: "astray. If possible, they will even cause the elect to disobey God"

²⁶ So if someone says to you, ‘Look, the Messiah is in the wilderness!’ do not go there. Likewise, if someone says to you, ‘Look, he is in a secret room!’ do not believe that person, ²⁷ because just like lightning flashes from the east to the west and people see it, in the same way, when the Son of Man returns again, everyone will see. ²⁸ It will be clear to everyone just as when you see vultures gathering you know that an animal carcass is there.”

ULB:

²⁶ Therefore, if they say to you, ‘Look, he is in the wilderness,’ do not go out to the wilderness. Or, ‘See, he is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it. ²⁷ For as the lightning shines out from the east and flashes all the way to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸ Wherever a dead animal is, there the vultures will gather.

translationWords:

- Christ, Messiah
- desert, wilderness
- Son of Man, son of man

translationNotes:

- if they say to you, ‘Look, he is in the wilderness,’ - This can be stated as an indirect quotation. AT: “if someone tells you that the Christ is in the wilderness” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- Or, ‘See, he is in the inner rooms,’ - This can be stated as an indirect quotation. AT: “Or, if someone tells you that the Christ is in the inner room” (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- in the inner rooms - “in a secret room” (UDB) or “in secret places”
- as the lightning shines ... so will be the coming - This means the Son of Man will come very fast and he will be easy to see. (See: Simile)
- the Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- Wherever a dead animal is, there the vultures will gather - This is probably a proverb that the people of Jesus’ time understood. Possible meanings are 1) when the Son of Man comes, everyone will see him and know that he has come, or 2) wherever spiritually dead people are, false prophets will be there to tell them lies. (See: Proverbs)

ULB:

²⁹ But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

translationWords:

- tribulation
- biblical time: day

translationNotes:

- immediately - "right away"
- the tribulation of those days - "that time of suffering"
- the sun will be darkened - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will make the sun dark" (See: Active or Passive)
- the powers of the heavens will be shaken - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will shake things in the sky and above the sky" (See: Active or Passive)

They will see me, the Son of Man, coming on the clouds with power and great glory. ³¹ He will send his angels to the earth from everywhere in the heavens. When they hear the trumpet's loud blast, they will gather together God's people—the ones he has chosen—from across the whole earth."

ULB:

³⁰ Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. ³¹ He will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

translationWords:

- sign, proof, reminder
- Son of Man, son of man
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- tribe
- power, powers
- glory, glorious
- angel, archangel
- trumpet
- chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect

translationNotes:

- the Son of Man ... He ... his - Jesus is speaking about himself in the third person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- all the tribes - Here "tribes" refers to people. AT: "all the people of the tribes" or "all the people" (See: Metonymy)
- He will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet - "When the trumpet sounds, he will send his angels" or "When an angel blows the trumpet, he will send his angels"
- they will gather - "his angels will gather"
- his elect - These are the people whom the Son of Man has chosen.
- from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other - Both of these mean the same thing. They are idioms that mean "from everywhere." AT: "from all over the world" (See: Parallelism and Idiom)

37-39 It will be like what happened when Noah lived. Until the flood came, the people did not know that anything bad would happen to them. They were eating and drinking as usual. Men were getting married, and parents were giving their daughters to men to marry them. They were doing all this until the day that Noah and his family entered the big boat. And then the flood came and drowned all those who were not in the boat. Similarly, the unbelieving people will not know when the Son of Man will return.

ULB:

³⁷ As the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day that Noah entered the ark, ³⁹ and they knew nothing until the flood came and took them all away—so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

ULB:

⁴⁰ Then two men will be in a field—one will be taken, and one will be left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding with a mill—one will be taken, and one will be left. ⁴² Therefore be on your guard, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

translationWords:

- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus begins to tell his disciples to be ready for his return.
- Then - This is when the Son of Man comes.
- one will be taken, and one will be left - Possible meanings are 1) the Son of Man will take one away to heaven and will leave the other on earth for punishment or 2) the angels will take one away for punishment and leave the other for blessing. (See: Active or Passive)
- mill - a tool for grinding
- Therefore - “Because of what I have told you”

translationWords:

- faithful, faithfulness
- wise, wisdom
- servant, slave, slavery
- lord, master, sir
- household
- bless, blessed, blessing
- amen, truly

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus continues his proverb of a master and servants to illustrate that his disciples should be prepared for his return.
- So who is the faithful and wise servant whom his master ... time? - Jesus uses this question to make his disciples think. AT: "So who is the faithful and wise servant? translationWords:

- evil, wicked, wickedness
- servant, slave, slavery
- heart
- lord, master, sir
- drunk, drunkard
- hour
- hypocrite, hypocrisy
- gnash teeth, grind teeth

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes his proverb of a master and servants to illustrate that his disciples should be prepared for his return. (See: Proverbs)
- says in his heart - Here “heart” refers to the mind. AT: “thinks in his mind” (See: Metonymy)
- My master has been delayed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “My master is slow to return” or “My master will not return for a long time” (See: Active or Passive)
- on a day that the servant does not expect and at an hour that he does not know - Both of these statements mean the same thing. They emphasize that the master will come when the servant is not expecting him. (See: Parallelism)
- make his fate - “treat him”

- cut him in pieces - This is an idiom that means to make the person suffer terribly. (See: Idiom)

Structure and Formatting

This chapter continues the teaching of the previous chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

The parable of the ten virgins

Among the Jews, when a marriage was arranged, there was a period of time before the wedding. At the end of this time, the young man would go to his bride's house, where she was waiting for him. The wedding ceremony would then take place. With great celebration they would then travel to the groom's home, where there would be a feast. (See: Symbolic Prophecy)

Jesus makes use of these customs to tell his parable of the ten virgins (25:1-13).

Matthew 25:1-4UDB:

¹ "God's rule from heaven will be like what happened to ten unmarried girls who got ready to go to a wedding feast. They were to take their lamps and go wait for the bridegroom to come. ² Now five of these girls were foolish, and five were wise. ³ The foolish girls took their lamps, but they did not take any extra olive oil for them. ⁴ But wise girls took oil in their flasks as well as in their lamps.

ULB:

25 ¹ Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. ² Five of them were foolish and five were wise. ³ For when the foolish virgins took their lamps, they did not take any oil with them. ⁴ But the wise virgins took containers of oil along with their lamps.

translationWords:

- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- virgin
- lamp
- bridegroom
- fool, foolish, folly
- wise, wisdom
- oil

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus tells a parable about wise and foolish virgins to illustrate that his disciples should be prepared for his return. (See: Parables)
- the kingdom of heaven will be like - Here "kingdom of heaven" refers to God's rule as king. The phrase "kingdom of heaven" is used only in Matthew. If possible, use "heaven" in your translation. AT: "when our God in heaven shows himself to be king, it will be like." See how you translated this in 13:24. (See: Metonymy)
- lamps - These could have been 1) lamps or 2) torches made by putting cloth around the end of a stick and wetting the cloth with oil.
- Five of them - "Five of the virgins"
- did not take any oil with them - "had with them only the oil in their lamps"

⁵ The bridegroom was taking a long time to come, and it became late at night. So all the girls became sleepy and fell asleep. ⁶ In the middle of the night someone woke them up by shouting, 'Here he is! The bridegroom is arriving! Go outside and meet him!'

ULB:

⁵ Now while the bridegroom was delayed, they all got sleepy and slept. ⁶ But at midnight there was a cry, 'Look, the bridegroom! Go out and meet him.'

translationWords:translationNotes:

- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Jesus starts to tell a new part of the story.
- while the bridegroom was delayed - This can be stated in active form. AT: "while the bridegroom was taking a long time to arrive" (See: Active or Passive)
- they all got sleepy - "all ten virgins got sleepy"
- there was a cry - "someone shouted"

Matthew 25:10-13UDB:

¹⁰ But while the foolish girls were on their way to buy oil, the bridegroom arrived. Then the wise girls, who were ready, went with him into the wedding hall, where the bride was waiting. Then the door was closed. ¹¹ Later, the rest of the girls came to the wedding hall, and they called to the bridegroom, ‘Sir, open the door for us!’ ¹² But he said to them, ‘The truth is that I do not know you, so I will not open the door for you!’” ¹³ Then Jesus continued by saying, “So, in order that this does not happen to you, stay prepared because you do not know when it will be.”

ULB:

¹⁰ While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. ¹¹ Afterward the other virgins also came and said, ‘Master, master, open for us.’ ¹² But he answered and said, ‘Truly I say to you, I do not know you.’ ¹³ Watch therefore, for you do not know the day or the hour.

translationWords:

- feast
- virgin
- lord, master, sir
- amen, truly
- watch, watchman
- biblical time: day
- hour

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus concludes the parable about the ten virgins. (See: Parables)
- they went away - “the five foolish virgins went away”
- to buy - The understood information can be stated clearly. AT: “to buy more oil” (See: Ellipsis)
- those who were ready - These are the virgins who had extra oil.
- the door was shut - This can be stated in active form. AT: “the servants shut the door” (See: Active or Passive)
- open for us - This implicit information can be stated explicitly. AT: “open the door for us so we can come inside” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Truly I say to you - “I tell you the truth.” This adds emphasis to what the master says next.
- I do not know you - “I do not know who you are.” This is the end of the parable.

- you do not know the day or the hour - Here “day” and “hour” refer to an exact time. The implied information can be stated explicitly. AT: “you do not know the exact time when the Son of Man will return” (See: Metonymy and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 25:14-16UDB:

¹⁴ "When the Son of Man returns from heaven as king, it will be like a man who was about to go on a long journey. He called his servants together and gave them each some of his wealth to invest and gain more money for him. ¹⁵ He gave them money according to their ability to use it. For example, he gave one servant five bags of gold, he gave another servant two bags, and he gave another servant one bag. Then he left on his journey. ¹⁶ The servant who had received five bags of gold went immediately and used that money to gain five more bags.

ULB:

¹⁴ For it is like when a man was about to go into another country. He called his own servants and gave over to them his wealth. ¹⁵ To one of them he gave five talents, to another he gave two, and to yet another he gave one talent. Each one received an amount according to his own ability, and that man went on his journey. ¹⁶ The one who received the five talents went at once and invested them and made another five talents.

translationWords:

- servant, slave, slavery

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Jesus tells a parable about faithful and unfaithful servants to illustrate that his disciples should remain faithful during his absence and be prepared for his return. (See: Parables)
- it is like - "the kingdom of heaven is like" (See: 13:24)
- was about to go - "was ready to go" or "was to go soon"
- gave over to them his wealth - "put them in charge of his wealth"
- his wealth - "his property"
- five talents - A "talent" was worth twenty years' wages. Avoid translating this into modern money. The parable is comparing the relative amounts of five, two, and one, as well as the large amount of wealth involved. AT: "five bags of gold" (UDB) (See: Biblical Money)
- according to his own ability - The implicit information can be stated explicitly. AT: "according to each servant's skill in managing wealth" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Matthew 26 General Notes

Structure and Formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of verse 31, which present quotations from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Sheep

This is a common image used in Scripture to refer to the people of Israel. In 26:31, however, “the sheep” refers to Jesus’ disciples, who ran away when he was arrested.

Passover

Jesus’ death occurs in connection with the Passover Festival because he is the fulfillment of the Passover lamb. It is his sacrificial death that frees us from God’s condemnation.

The eating of the body and blood

This ceremony, often called “The Lord’s Supper,” the “Eucharist” or “Holy Communion,” is practiced in nearly all churches to this day in remembrance of Christ’s sacrifice for the sins of humanity. It is done in obedience to Jesus’ instructions to his disciples in 26:26-28.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Shame and cowardice

Throughout this chapter, the actions of the Jewish leaders are shameful and cowardly. They were afraid of the people whom they were to lead. The subtleness of their shameful and cowardly actions may be difficult to express in translation.

Judas’ kiss for Jesus

Judas is recorded in 26:49 as kissing Jesus in order to signal to the soldiers which man to arrest. Among the Jews, kissing was a common way to greet someone. They had different kinds of kisses for people of different levels of status. Since Jesus’ was Judas’ teacher, Judas probably kissed his hand as a sign of respect and submission.

“Destroy the temple of God”

In 26:61, two men accuse Jesus of wishing for the temple in Jerusalem to be destroyed so he can rebuild it “in three days.” They were probably accusing Jesus of insulting the temple and therefore, indirectly, of insulting God. Matthew does not actually record Jesus as saying this, but John 2:19 does.

The expression “in three days” should be understood in the Jewish way as, “within three days,” not “after three days.”

¹ When Jesus had finished saying all those things, he said to the disciples, ² “You know that two days from now we will celebrate the Passover festival. At that time someone will hand the Son of Man over to those who will nail him to a cross.”

ULB:

26 ¹ It came about that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, ² “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified.”

- It came about that when - This phrase shifts the story from Jesus' teachings to what happened next. AT: “Then” or “After”
- all these words - This refers to all that Jesus taught starting in 24:3.
- the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified - This can be stated in active form. AT: “some men will give the Son of Man to other people who will crucify him” (See: Active or Passive)

Matthew 26:3-5

UDB:

³ At the same time the chief priests and the Jewish elders gathered in the home of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas. ⁴ There they planned how they could arrest Jesus in some tricky way so that they could have him executed. ⁵ But they said, “We must not do it during the Passover festival, because if we do it then, the people might riot.”

ULB:

³ Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas. ⁴ They plotted together to arrest Jesus stealthily and kill him. ⁵ For they were saying, “Not during the feast, so that a riot does not arise among the people.”

Matthew 26:6-9

UDB:

⁶ While Jesus and his disciples were in the village of Bethany, they ate in the home of Simon, whom Jesus had healed of leprosy. ⁷ During the meal, a woman came into the house. She was carrying a beautiful stone jar containing very expensive perfume. She went up to Jesus as he was eating and poured all the perfume on his head. ⁸ When the disciples saw that, they were very angry. One of them said, "It is terrible that this perfume was wasted! ⁹ We could have sold it and gotten a lot of money for it! Then we could have given the money to poor people."

ULB:

⁶ Now while Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷ as he was reclining at table, a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it upon his head. ⁸ But when his disciples saw it, they became angry and said, "What is the reason for this waste? ⁹ This could have been sold for a large amount and given to the poor."

translationWords:

- Bethany
- leprosy, leper, leprous
- disciple
- angry, anger
- waste, wasteland

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of a woman pouring expensive oil on Jesus before his death.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- Simon the leper - It is implied that this is a man whom Jesus had healed from leprosy. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- he was reclining - "Jesus was lying on his side." You can use your language's word for the position people usually are in when they eat.
- a woman came to him - "a woman came to Jesus"
- alabaster jar - This is a costly container made of soft stone. (See: Translate Unknowns)
- ointment - oil that has a pleasing smell
- she poured it upon his head - The woman does this to honor Jesus.

Matthew 26:17-19

UDB:

¹⁷ On the first day of the week-long Festival of Bread with No Yeast, the disciples went to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to prepare the meal for the Passover Celebration so that we can eat it with you?” ¹⁸ Jesus instructed two of the disciples about what they should do. He said to them, “Go into the city to a man with whom I have previously arranged this. Tell him that I, the Teacher, say this: ‘The time that I told you about is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover meal with my disciples at your house, and I have sent these two to prepare the meal.’” ¹⁹ So the two disciples did as Jesus told them. They went and prepared the Passover meal in that man’s house.

ULB:

¹⁷ Now on the first day of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover meal?” ¹⁸ He said, “Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.”’” ¹⁹ The disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover meal.

translationWords:

- unleavened bread, Festival of Unleavened Bread
- disciple
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Passover
- teacher, Teacher
- hand, right hand, to hand over

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of Jesus celebrating the Passover with his disciples.
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- He said, “Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, “The Teacher says, “My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.”” - This has quotations within quotations. You can state some of the direct quotations as indirect quotations. AT: “He told his disciples to go into the city to a certain man and tell him that the Teacher says to him, ‘My time is at hand. ²³ He replied, "The one who will enable my enemies to arrest me is the one of you who is dipping bread into the sauce in the dish along with me. ²⁴ It is certain that I, the Son of Man, will die, because that is what the scriptures say about me. But there will be terrible punishment for the man who enables my enemies to arrest me! It would be better for that man if he had never been born!" ²⁵ Then Judas, the one who was going to betray him, said, "Teacher, surely it is not I!" Jesus replied, "Yes, you are admitting it."

ULB:

²³ He answered, "The one who dips his hand with me in the dish is the one who will betray me. ²⁴ The Son of Man will go, just as it is written about him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born." ²⁵ Judas, who would betray him said, "Is it I, Rabbi?" Matthew 26:47-48UDB:

⁴⁷ While Jesus was still speaking, Judas arrived. Even though he was one of the twelve disciples, he came to enable Jesus' enemies to arrest him. A large crowd carrying swords and clubs was coming with him. The chief priests and elders had sent them. ⁴⁸ Judas had previously arranged to give them a signal. He had told them, "The man whom I will kiss is the one you want. Arrest him!"

ULB:

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came. A large crowd came with him from the chief priests and elders of the people. They came with swords and clubs. ⁴⁸ Now the man who was going to betray Jesus had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him."

translationWords:

- Judas Iscariot
- the twelve, the eleven
- chief priests
- elder
- sword
- betray, betrayer
- kiss
- seize

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of when Judas betrayed Jesus and the religious leaders arrested him.
- While he was still speaking - "While Jesus was still speaking"
- clubs - large pieces of hard wood for hitting people
- Now ... Seize him - Here "Now" is used to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew tells background information about Judas and the signal he planned to use to betray Jesus. (See: Background Information)
- saying, "Whomever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him." - This direct quotation can be stated as an indirect quotation. AT: "saying that whomever he kissed was the one they should seize" (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)
- Whomever I kiss - "The one I will kiss" or "The man whom I will kiss" (UDB)
- kiss - This was a respectful way to greet one's teacher.

Matthew 26:49-50UDB:

⁴⁹ He immediately went to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Teacher!” Then he kissed Jesus. ⁵⁰ Jesus replied, “Friend, what you are about to do, do it quickly.” Then the men who came with Judas stepped forward and seized Jesus.

ULB:

⁴⁹ Immediately he came up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” And he kissed him. ⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, “Friend, do what you have come to do.” Then they came, laid hands on Jesus, and seized him.

translationWords:

- Rabbi, Rabboni
- kiss
- seize

translationNotes:

- he came up to Jesus - “Judas came up to Jesus”
- kissed him - “met him with a kiss”
- Then they came - Here “they” refers to the people with clubs and swords that came with Judas and the religious leaders.
- laid hands on Jesus, and seized him - “grabbed Jesus and arrested him”

Matthew 26:51-54UDB:

⁵¹ Suddenly, one of the men who was with Jesus pulled his sword out of its sheath. He struck the servant of the high priest to kill him, but only cut off his ear. ⁵² Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back in its sheath! All those who try to kill others with a sword—someone else will kill them with a sword! ⁵³ Do you think that if I asked my Father, he would not immediately send more than twelve armies of angels to help me? ⁵⁴ But if I did that, what the prophets have written in the scriptures about what will happen to the Messiah would not be fulfilled."

ULB:

⁵¹ Behold, one of those who was with Jesus stretched out his hand, drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. ⁵² Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back in its place, for all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword. ⁵³ Do you think that I could not call upon my Father, and he would send me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, that this must happen?"

translationWords:

- sword
- servant, slave, slavery
- high priest
- perish, perishing, perishable
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- angel, archangel
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture
- fulfill

translationNotes:

- Behold - The word "behold" here alerts us to pay attention to the surprising information that follows.
- who take up the sword - The implied information can be stated explicitly. AT: "who pick up a sword to kill others" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- will perish by the sword - "will die by means of the sword" or "it is with the sword that someone will kill them"
- Do you think that I could not call ... angels? - Jesus uses a question to remind the person with the sword that Jesus could stop those who are arresting him. AT: "Surely you know that I could call ... angels" (See: Rhetorical Question)

- Do you think - Here “you” is singular and refers to the person with the sword. (See: Forms of You)
- my Father - This is an important title for God that describes the relationship between God and Jesus. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- more than twelve legions of angels - The word “legion” is a military term that refers to a group of about 6,000 soldiers. Jesus means God would send enough angels to easily stop those who are arresting Jesus. The exact number of angels is not important. AT: “more than 12 really large groups of angels” (See: Numbers)
- But how then would the scriptures be fulfilled, that this must happen? - Jesus uses a question to explain why he is letting these people arrest him. This can be stated in active form. AT: “But if I did that, I would not be able to fulfill what God said in the scriptures must happen” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

Matthew 26:55-56

UDB:

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowd that was seizing him, "You have come here to seize me with swords and clubs, as if I were a bandit! Day after day I sat in the temple courtyard, teaching the people. Why did you not arrest me then? ⁵⁶ But all this is happening to fulfill what the prophets have written in the scriptures about me." Then all of the disciples deserted Jesus and ran away.

ULB:

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me like a robber? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me. ⁵⁶ But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him and fled.

translationWords:

- sword
- temple
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- fulfill
- disciple

translationNotes:

- Have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me like a robber? - Jesus is using this question to point out the wrong actions of those arresting him. AT: "You know that I am not a robber, so it is wrong for you to come out to me bringing swords and clubs" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- clubs - large pieces of hard wood for hitting people
- in the temple - It is implied that Jesus was not in the actual temple. He was in the courtyard around the temple. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled - This can be stated in active form. AT: "I would fulfill all that the prophets wrote in the scriptures" (See: Active or Passive)

⁵⁹ The chief priests and the rest of the Jewish council were trying to find persons who would tell lies about Jesus so that they could condemn him to death. ⁶⁰ But even though many people spoke lies about him, they did not find anyone who said anything that was useful. Finally two men came forward ⁶¹ and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy God’s temple and to rebuild it within three days.’”

ULB:

⁵⁹ Now the chief priests and the whole council were looking for false testimony against Jesus, so that they might put him to death. ⁶⁰ They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later two came forward ⁶¹ and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

Matthew 26:62-64UDB:

⁶² Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Are you not going to reply? What do you say about these things that they are saying to accuse you?” ⁶³ But Jesus remained silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I command you to tell us the truth; you know that the all-powerful God is listening to you: Are you the Messiah, the Son of God?” ⁶⁴ Jesus replied, “Yes, it is as you say. But I will also say this to all of you: Some day you will see the Son of Man sitting beside Almighty God and ruling. You will also see him coming on the clouds from heaven!”

ULB:

⁶² The high priest stood up and said to him, “Do you have no answer? What is it that they are testifying against you?” ⁶³ But Jesus was silent. The high priest said to him, “I command you by the living God, tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God.” ⁶⁴ Jesus replied to him, “You have said it yourself. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

translationWords:

- high priest
- command, to command, commandment
- life, live, living, alive
- God
- Christ, Messiah
- Son of God, the Son, Son
- Son of Man, son of man
- right hand
- power, powers
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- What is it that they are testifying against you? - The chief priest is not asking Jesus for information about what the witnesses said. He is asking Jesus to prove what the witnesses said is wrong. AT: “What is your response to what the witnesses are testifying against you?”
- Son of God - This is an important title that describes the relationship between the Christ and God. (See: Translating Son and Father)
- the living God - Here “living” contrasts the God of Israel to all the false gods and idols that people worshiped. Only the God of Israel is alive and has power to act. See how you translated this in 16:16.

- You have said it yourself - This is an idiom that Jesus uses to mean “yes” without being completely clear about what he means. AT: “You are saying it” or “You are admitting it” (See: Idiom)
- But I tell you, from now on you - Here “you” is plural. Jesus is speaking to the high priest and to the other persons there. (See: Forms of You)
- from now on you will see the Son of Man - Possible meanings are 1) the phrase “from now on” is an idiom that means they will see the Son of Man in his power at some time in the future or 2) the phrase “from now on” means that from the time of Jesus’ trial and onward, Jesus is showing himself to be the Messiah who is powerful and victorious.
- the Son of Man - Jesus is speaking about himself in third person. (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- at the right hand of Power - Here “Power” refers to God. AT: “at the right hand of Almighty God” (See: Metonymy)
- coming on the clouds of heaven - “riding to earth on the clouds of heaven”

ULB:

⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we still need witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What do you think?" They answered and said, "He is worthy of death."

translationWords:

- high priest
- blasphemy, blaspheme, blasphemous
- witness, eyewitness
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless

translationNotes:

- the high priest tore his clothes - Tearing clothing was a sign of anger and sadness. (See: Symbolic Action)
- He has spoken blasphemy - By calling this blasphemy, it is implied that the high priest understood that Jesus was claiming to be equal with God. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Why do we still need witnesses? - The high priest uses this question to emphasize that he and the members of the council do not need to hear from any more witnesses. AT: "We do not need to hear from any more witnesses!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

He asked God in heaven to witness that he was telling the truth and said, “I do not know that man!” Immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Then Peter remembered the words that Jesus had spoken to him, “Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you do not know me.” And Peter went out of the courtyard, crying hard because he was so sad about what he had done.

ULB:

⁷³ After a little while those who were standing by came and said to Peter, “Surely you are also one of them, for the way you speak gives you away.” ⁷⁴ Then he began to curse and swear, “I do not know the man,” and immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Peter remembered the words that Jesus had said, “Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times.” Then he went outside and wept bitterly.

translationWords:

- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- curse, cursed
- oath, swear, swear by

translationNotes:

- one of them - “one of those who were with Jesus”
- for the way you speak gives you away - This can be translated as a new sentence. AT: “We can tell you are from Galilee because you speak like a Galilean”
- to curse - “to call down a curse on himself”
- rooster crowed - A rooster is a bird that calls out loudly around the time the sun comes up. The sound a rooster makes is called “crowing.” See how you translated this in 26:34.
- Peter remembered the words that Jesus had said, “Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times.” - This direct quotation can be stated as an indirect quotation. Special concepts in this chapter “Delivered him to Pilate the governor”

The Jews were under the rule of the Roman Empire, and the Romans did not allow the them to execute any criminal without first obtaining permission. So the Jewish leaders had to ask Pontius Pilate to confirm their sentence on Jesus. Pilate tried to avoid confirming their decision. He tried to make the Jewish leaders choose between freeing Jesus or a very bad prisoner named Barabbas.

Tomb

The tomb in which Jesus was buried (see: 27:59-60) was the kind of tomb in which wealthy Jewish people were buried. It consisted of an actual room hollowed out of rock, in which bodies were wrapped and placed on rocky ledges provided along the walls. Later on, when the bodies had decomposed to bare bones, those bones were collected and put into special jars called ossuaries. These tombs were closed by a single large rock large enough to seal off the entrance. This rock was either rolled into place or slid into place at the tomb entrance.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

“Hail, King of the Jews!”

This phrase, found in 27:29, is an example of irony. In this figure of speech, something is said in order to signal something else, often its opposite sense. The expression “Hail” was a greeting for people used on very formal occasions, often in front of kings and queens. However, the soldiers mocking Jesus did not wish to honor him. (See: Irony)

Matthew 27:3-5UDB:

³ Then Judas, the one who had betrayed Jesus, realized that they had decided that Jesus must die. So was overcome with regret about what he had done. He took the thirty coins back to the chief priests and elders. ⁴ He said, "I have sinned. I have betrayed a man who is innocent." They replied, "That means nothing to us! That is your problem!" ⁵ So Judas took the money and threw it into the temple courtyard. Then he went away and hanged himself.

ULB:

³ Then when Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus had been condemned, he repented and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴ and said, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See to that yourself." ⁵ Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went out and hanged himself.

translationWords:

- Judas Iscariot
- betray, betrayer
- condemn, condemnation
- repent, repentance
- silver
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- innocent
- blood
- temple
- hang

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - The author has stopped telling the story of Jesus' trial so he can tell the story of how Judas killed himself.
- General Information: - This event happened after Jesus' trial in front of the council of Jewish religious leaders, but we do not know if it happened before or during Jesus' trial before Pilate. (See: Order of Events)
- Then when Judas - If your language has a way of showing that a new story is starting, you may want to use that here.
- that Jesus had been condemned - This can be stated in active form. AT: "that the Jewish leaders had condemned Jesus" (See: Active or Passive)

- the thirty pieces of silver - This was the money that the chief priests had given Judas to betray Jesus. See how you translated it in 26:15.
- innocent blood - This is an idiom that refers to the death of an innocent person. AT: “a person who does not deserve to die” (See: Idiom)
- What is that to us? - The Jewish leaders use this question to emphasize that they do not care about what Judas said. AT: “That is not our problem” or “That is your problem” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- threw down the pieces of silver in the temple - Possible meanings are 1) he threw the pieces of silver while in the temple courtyard, or 2) he was standing in the temple courtyard, and he threw the pieces of silver into the temple.

Matthew 27:6-8

UDB:

⁶ The high priests picked up the coins and said, “This is money that we paid for a man to die, and our law does not allow us to put money like this into the temple treasury.” ⁷ So they decided to use that money to buy a field that was called the Potter’s Field. They made that field a place where they buried strangers who died in Jerusalem. ⁸ That is why that place is still called “The Field of Blood.”

ULB:

⁶ The chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, “It is not lawful to put this into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.” ⁷ They discussed the matter together and with the money bought the potter’s field in which to bury strangers. ⁸ For this reason that field has been called, “The Field of Blood” to this day.

translationWords:

- chief priests
- silver
- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- blood
- bury, buried, burial

translationNotes:

- It is not lawful to put this - “Our laws do not allow us to put this”
- put this - “put this silver”
- the treasury - This is the place they kept the money they used to provide for things needed for the temple and the priests. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- price of blood - This is an idiom that means money paid to a person who helped kill someone. AT: “money paid for a man to die” (See: Idiom)
- potter’s field - This was a field that was bought to bury strangers who died in Jerusalem.
- that field has been called - This can be stated in active form. AT: “people call that field” (See: Active or Passive)
- to this day - This means to the time that Matthew is writing this book.

¹¹ Then Jesus stood in front of the governor. The governor asked him, “Do you say you are the king of the Jews?” Jesus replied, “Yes, it is as you have just said.”

¹² But when the chief priests and elders accused Jesus of doing various wrong things, he did not answer. ¹³ So Pilate said to him, “You hear how many things they are accusing you of; are you not going to reply?” ¹⁴ But Jesus did not say anything. He did not reply to any of the things about which they were accusing him. As a result, the governor was very surprised.

ULB:

¹¹ Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered him, “You say so.” ¹² But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. ¹³ Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear all the charges against you?” ¹⁴ But he did not answer even one word, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

translationWords:

- governor, govern, proconsul, government
- King of the Jews

Matthew 27:17-19UDB:

¹⁷ So when the crowd gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which prisoner would you like me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus, whom they call the Messiah?” ¹⁸ He asked that question because he realized that the chief priests had brought Jesus to him only because they were jealous of Jesus. And Pilate thought that the crowd would prefer that he release Jesus.

¹⁹ While Pilate was sitting in the judge’s seat, his wife sent him this message: “Early this morning I had a bad dream because of that man. So do not condemn that righteous man!”

ULB:

¹⁷ So when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Who do you want me to release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?” ¹⁸ He knew that they had handed Jesus over to him because of envy. ¹⁹ While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him and said, “Have nothing to do with that innocent man. Matthew 27:62-64

UDB:

⁶² The next day was Saturday, the Jewish day of rest. The chief priests and some of the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³ They said, "Sir, we remember that while that deceiver was still alive, he said, 'Three days after I die I will become alive again.' ⁶⁴ So we ask you to order soldiers to guard the tomb for three days. If you do not do that, his disciples may come and steal the body. Then they will tell people that he has risen from the dead. If they deceive people by saying that, it will be worse than the way he deceived people before."

ULB:

⁶² The next day, which was the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together with Pilate. ⁶³ They said, "Sir, we remember that when that deceiver was alive, he said, 'After three days will I rise again.' ⁶⁴ Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day. Otherwise his disciples may come and steal him and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead ones.' And the last deception will be worse than the first."

Matthew 27:65-66UDB:

⁶⁵ Pilate replied, “You can take some soldiers. Go to the tomb and make it as secure as you know how.” ⁶⁶ So they went and made the tomb secure by fastening a cord from the stone that was in front of the entrance to the rock cliff on each side and sealing it. They also left some soldiers there to guard the tomb.

ULB:

⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, “Take a guard. Go and make it as secure as you can.” ⁶⁶ So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and placing the guard.

translationWords:

- Pilate
- tomb, grave, burial place
- seal, to seal

translationNotes:

- a guard - This consisted of four to sixteen Roman soldiers.
- sealing the stone - Possible meanings are 1) they put a cord around the stone and attached it to the rock wall on either side of the entrance to the tomb or 2) they put seals between the stone and the wall.
- placing the guard - “telling the soldiers to stand where they could keep people from tampering with the tomb”

Matthew 28 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

“Make disciples”

These two verses (28:19-20) are commonly known as “The Great Commission” because they contain a very important command given to all Christians. Christians are to “make disciples” by going to people, sharing the gospel with them and training them to live as Christians.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

An angel of the Lord

The gospel accounts differ as to how many men or angels appeared in this interaction. It is probably that the men were angels, but their number is unclear. It is best to translate this as it appears in the ULB without trying to reconcile these passages. (See: John 20:1-2)

Matthew 28:1-2UDB:

¹ After the Sabbath ended, on Sunday morning at dawn, Mary from the town of Magdala and the other Mary went to look at the tomb of Jesus. ² There was a strong earthquake because an angel from God came down from heaven. He went to the tomb and rolled the stone away from the entrance. Then he sat on the stone.

ULB:

28 ¹ Now late on the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. ² Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, came and rolled away the stone, and sat on it.

translationWords:

- Sabbath
- Mary Magdalene
- tomb, grave, burial place
- angel, archangel
- Lord
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - This begins the account of the resurrection of Jesus from the dead.
- Now late on the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week - “After the Sabbath ended, as the sun came up on Sunday morning”
- Now - This word is used here to mark a break in the main storyline. Here Matthew starts to tell a new part of the story.
- the other Mary - “the other woman named Mary.” This is Mary the mother of James and Joseph. (See: 27:56)
- Behold - The word “behold” here alerts us to pay attention to the surprising information that follows. Your language may have a way of doing this.
- there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended ... and rolled away the stone - Possible meanings are 1) the earthquake happened because the angel came down and rolled away the stone (ULB) or 2) all these events happened at the same time (UDB).
- earthquake - a sudden and violent shaking of the ground

twelve tribes of Israel

Definition:

The term, “twelve tribes of Israel” refers to the twelve sons of Jacob and their descendants.

- Jacob was Abraham’s grandson. God later changed Jacob’s name to Israel.
- These are the names of the tribes: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph and Benjamin.
- The descendants of Levi did not inherit any land in Canaan because they were a tribe of priests who were set apart to serve God and his people.
- Joseph received a double inheritance of land, which was passed on to his two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh.
- There are several places in the Bible where the list of the twelve tribes are slightly different. Sometimes Levi, Joseph, or Dan is left out of the list and sometimes Joseph’s two sons Ephraim and Manasseh are included in the list.

adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

Definition:

The term “adultery” refers to a sin that involves a married person having sexual relations with someone who is not his spouse. The term “adulterous” describes this kind of behavior or the person who commits this sin.

- The term “adulterer” refers generally to any person who commits adultery.
- Sometimes the term “adulteress” is used to specify that it was a woman who committed adultery.
- Adultery breaks the promises that a husband and wife made to each other in their covenant of marriage.
- God commanded the Israelites to not commit adultery.
- The term “adulterous” is often used in a figurative sense to describe the people of Israel as being unfaithful to God, especially when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the target language does not have one word that means “adultery,” this term could be translated with a phrase such as, “having sexual relations with someone else’s wife” or “being intimate with another person’s spouse.”
- Some languages may have an indirect way of talking about adultery, such as “sleeping with someone else’s spouse” or “being unfaithful to one’s wife.” (See: euphemism)
- When “adulterous” is used in a figurative sense, it is best to translate it literally in order to communicate God’s view of his disobedient people as being compared to an unfaithful spouse. If this does not communicate accurately in the target language, the figurative use of “adulterous” could be translated as “unfaithful” or “immoral” or “like an unfaithful spouse.”

amen, truly

Definition:

The term “amen” is a word used to emphasize or call attention to what a person has said. It is often used at the end of a prayer. Sometimes it is translated as “truly.”

- When used at the end of a prayer, “amen” communicates agreement with the prayer or expresses a desire that the prayer be fulfilled.
- In his teaching, Jesus used “amen” to emphasize the truth of what he said. He often followed that by “and I say to you” to introduce another teaching that related to the previous teaching.
- When Jesus uses “amen” this way, some English versions (and the ULB) translate this as “verily” or “truly.”
- Another word meaning “truly” is sometimes translated as “surely” or “certainly” and is also used to emphasize what the speaker is saying.

Translation Suggestions:

- Consider whether the target language has a special word or phrase that is used to emphasize something that has been said.
- When used at the end of a prayer or to confirm something, “amen” could be translated as, “let it be so” or “may this happen” or “that is true.”
- When Jesus says, “truly I tell you,” this could also be translated as, “Yes, I tell you sincerely” or “That is true, and I also tell you.”
- The phrase, “truly, truly I tell you” could be translated as “I tell you this very sincerely” or “I tell you this very earnestly” or “what I am telling you is true.”

angel, archangel

Definition:

An angel is a powerful spirit being whom God created. Angels exist to serve God by doing whatever he tells them to do. The term “archangel” refers to the angel who rules or leads all the other angels.

- The word “angel” literally means “messenger.”
- The term “archangel” literally means “chief messenger.” The only angel referred to in the Bible as an “archangel” is Michael.
- In the Bible, angels gave messages to people from God. These messages included instructions about what God wanted the people to do.
- Angels also told people about events that were going to happen in the future or events that had already happened.
- Angels have God’s authority as his representatives and sometimes in the Bible they spoke as if God himself was speaking.
- Other ways that angels serve God is by protecting and strengthening people.
- A special phrase, “angel of Yahweh” has more than one possible meaning: 1) It may mean “angel who represents Yahweh” or “messenger who serves Yahweh.” 2) It may refer to Yahweh himself, who looked like an angel as he talked to a person. Either one of these meanings would explain the angel’s use of “I” as if Yahweh himself was talking.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “angel” could include, “messenger from God” or “God’s heavenly servant” or “God’s spirit messenger.”
- The term “archangel” could be translated as “chief angel” or “head ruling angel” or “leader of the angels.”
- Also consider how these terms are translated in a national language or another local language.
- The phrase “angel of Yahweh” should be translated using the words for “angel” and “Yahweh.” This will allow for different interpretations of that phrase. Possible translations could include, “angel from Yahweh” or “angel sent by Yahweh” or “Yahweh who looked like an angel.”

apostle, apostleship

Definition:

The “apostles” were men sent by Jesus to preach about God and his kingdom. The term “apostleship” refers to the position and authority of those who were chosen as apostles.

- The word “apostle” means, “someone who is sent out for a special purpose.” The apostle has the same authority as the one who sent him.
- Jesus’ twelve closest disciples became the first apostles. Other men, such as Paul and James, also became apostles.
- By God’s power, the apostles were able to boldly preach the gospel and heal people, including forcing demons to come out of people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “apostle” can also be translated with a word or phrase that means, “someone who is sent out” or “sent out one” or “person who is called to go out and preach God’s message to people.”
- It is important to translate the terms “apostle” and “disciple” in different ways from each other.
- Also consider how this term was translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See How to Translate Unknowns) ark

Definition:

The term, “ark” literally refers to a rectangular wooden box that is made to hold or protect something. An ark can be large or small in size, depending on what it is being used for.

- In the English Bible, the word “ark” is first used to refer to the very large, rectangular wooden boat that Noah built to escape the worldwide flood. The ark had a flat bottom, a roof, and walls.
- Ways to translate this term could include, “very large boat” or “barge” or “cargo ship” or “large, box-shaped boat.”
- The Hebrew word that is used to refer to this huge boat is the same word used for the basket or box that held baby Moses when his mother put him in the Nile River to hide him. It is usually translated as “basket.”
- In the phrase “ark of the covenant,” a different Hebrew word is used for “ark.” This could be translated as “box” or “chest” or “container.”
- When choosing a term to translate “ark,” it is important in each context to consider what size it is and what it is being used for.

Babylon, Babylonian

Facts:

The city of Babylon was the capital of the ancient region of Babylonia, which was also part of the Babylonian Empire.

- Babylon was located along the Euphrates River, in the same region where the Tower of Babel had been built hundreds of years before.
- Sometimes the word “Babylon” refers to the entire Babylonian Empire. For example, the “king of Babylon” ruled the entire empire, not just the city.
- The Babylonians were a powerful people group who attacked the kingdom of Judah and kept the people in exile in Babylonia for 70 years.
- Part of this region was called “Chaldea” and the people living there were the “Chaldeans.” As a result, the term “Chaldea” was often used to refer to Babylonia. (See: Synecdoche)
- In the New Testament, the term “Babylon” is sometimes used as a metaphor to refer to places, people, and thinking patterns that are associated with idol-worship and other sinful behaviors.
- The phrase “Babylon the Great” or “great city of Babylon” refers metaphorically to a city or nation that was large, wealthy, and sinful, just as the ancient city of Babylon was. (See: Metaphor)

baptize, baptism

Definition:

In the New Testament, the terms “baptize” and “baptism” usually refer to ritually bathing a Christian with water to show that he has been cleansed from sin and has been united with Christ.

- Besides water baptism, the Bible talks about being “baptized with the Holy Spirit” and “baptized with fire.”
- The term “baptism” is also used in the Bible to refer to going through great suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Christians have different views about how a person should be baptized with water. It is probably best to translate this term in a general way that allows for different ways of applying the water.
- Depending on the context, the term “baptize” could be translated as “purify,” “pour out on,” “plunge (or dip) into,” “wash,” or “spiritually cleanse.” For example, “baptize you with water” could be translated as, “plunge you into water.”
- The term “baptism” could be translated as, “purification,” “a pouring out,” “a dipping,” “a cleansing,” or “a spiritual washing.”
- When it refers to suffering, “baptism” could also be translated as “a time of terrible suffering” or “a cleansing through severe suffering.”
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

believe, believe in, belief

Definition:

The terms “believe” and “believe in” are closely related, but have slightly different meanings:

1. believe

- To believe something is to accept or trust that it is true.
- To believe someone is to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

2. believe in

- To “believe in” someone means to “trust in” that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he always speaks the truth, and that he will do what he has promised to do.
- When a person truly believes in something, he will act in such a way that shows that belief.
- The phrase “have faith in” usually has the same meaning as “believe in.”
- To “believe in Jesus” means to believe that he is the Son of God, that he is God himself who also became human and who died as a sacrifice to pay for our sins. It means to trust him as Savior and live in a way that honors him.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “believe” could be translated as to “know to be true” or “know to be right.”
- To “believe in” could be translated as, “trust completely” or “trust and obey” or “completely rely on and follow.”

beloved

Definition:

The term “beloved” is an expression of affection that describes someone who is loved and dear to someone else.

- The term “beloved” literally means “loved (one)” or “(who is) loved.”
- God refers to Jesus as his “beloved Son.”
- In their letters to Christian churches, the apostles frequently address their fellow believers as “beloved.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as “loved” or “loved one” or “well-loved” or “very dear.”
- In the context of talking about a close friend, this could be translated as “my dear friend” or “my close friend.” In English it is natural to say, “my dear friend, Paul” or “Paul, who is my dear friend.” Other languages may find it more natural to order this in a different way.
- Note that the word “beloved” comes from the word for God’s love, which is unconditional, unselfish, and sacrificial.

biblical time: hourDefinition:

The term “hour” is often used in the Bible to tell what time of day a certain event took place. It is also used figuratively to mean “time” or “moment.”

- The Jews counted daylight hours starting at sunrise (around 6 a.m.). For example, “the ninth hour” meant “around three in the afternoon.”
- Nighttime hours were counted starting at sunset (around 6 p.m.). For example, “the third hour of the night” meant “around nine in the evening” in our present-day system..
- Since references to time in the Bible will not correspond exactly to the present-day time system, phrases such as “around nine” or “about six o’clock” could be used.
- Some translations might add phrases like “in the evening” or “in the morning” or “in the afternoon” to make it clear what time of day is being talked about.
- The phrase, “in that hour” could be translated as, “at that time” or “in that moment.”
- Referring to Jesus, the expression “his hour had come” could be translated as, “the time had come for him to” or “the appointed time for him had come.”

biblical time: year

Definition:

When used literally, the term “year” in the Bible refers to a period of time lasting 354 days. This is according to the lunar calendar system which is based on the time it takes for the moon to go around the earth.

- A year in the modern-day solar calendar lasts 365 days divided into 12 months, based on the amount of time it takes for the earth to travel around the sun.
- In both calendar systems a year has 12 months. But an extra 13th month is sometimes added to the year in the lunar calendar to make up for the fact that a lunar year is 11 days less than a solar year. This helps keep the two calendars more in line with each other.
- In the Bible, the term “year” is also used in a figurative sense to refer to a general time when a special event takes place. Examples of this include, “the year of Yahweh” or “in the year of drought” or “the favorable year of the Lord.” In these contexts, “year” could be translated as “time” or “season” or “time period.”

bless, blessed, blessing

Definition:

To “bless” someone or something means to cause good and beneficial things to happen to the person or thing that is being blessed.

- Blessing someone also means expressing a desire for positive and beneficial things to happen to that person.
- In Bible times, a father would often pronounce a formal blessing on his children.
- When people ‘bless’ God or express a desire that God be blessed, this means they are praising him.
- The term “bless” is sometimes used for consecrating food before it is eaten, or for thanking and praising God for the food.

from comment below: It is important to not define, focus on, or be confined by applications of the root word of “bless” that suggest primarily the flourishing or abundance of material things or physical wellness. Consider the extensive teachings in Scripture on God’s love, mercy and grace that is not only ancient, but current. Consider care, protection, and presence of God’s Spirit. And for us to bless God, we can offer thankfulness, appreciation, and understanding as we learn of and follow (obey) him.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “bless” could also be translated as, “to provide abundantly for” or “to be very kind and favorable toward.”
- “God has brought great blessing to” could be translated as, “God has given many good things to” or “God has provided abundantly for” or “God has caused many good things to happen to”.
- “He is blessed” could be translated as “he will greatly benefit” or “he will experience good things” or “God will cause him to flourish.”
- “Blessed is the person who” could be translated as “How good it is for the person who.”
- Expressions like, “blessed be the Lord” could be translated as, “May the Lord be praised” or “Praise the Lord” or “I praise the Lord.”
- In the context of blessing food, this could be translated as, “thanked God for the food” or “praised God for giving them food” or “consecrated the food by praising God for it.”

- [38-05] Then Jesus took a cup and said, “Drink this. It is my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for the forgiveness of sins.
- [48-10] When anyone believes in Jesus, the blood of Jesus takes away that person’s sin, and God’s punishment passes over him.

bloodshed

Definition:

The term “bloodshed” refers to the death of human beings due to murder, war, or some other violent act.

- This term literally means “shedding of blood,” which refers to when blood comes out of a person’s body from an open wound.
- The term “bloodshed” is often used to refer to widespread killing of people.
- It is also used as a general reference to the sin of murder.

Translation Suggestions:

- “the bloodshed” could be translated as, “the killing of people” or “the many people who were killed.”
- “through bloodshed” could also be translated as, “by killing people.”
- “innocent bloodshed” could be translated as “killing innocent people.”
- “bloodshed follows bloodshed” could be translated as, “they keep killing people” or “the killing of people goes on and on” or “they have killed many people and continue to do that” or “people keep killing other people.”
- Another figurative use, “bloodshed will pursue you” could be translated as, “your people will continue to experience bloodshed” or “your people will keep being killed” or “your people will continue to be at war with other nations and people will keep dying.”

Boaz

Facts:

Boaz was an Israelite man who was the husband of Ruth, the great grandfather of King David, and an ancestor of Jesus Christ.

- Boaz lived during the time when there were judges in Israel.
- He was a relative of an Israelite woman named Naomi who had returned to Israel after her husband and sons died in Moab.
- Boaz “redeemed” Naomi’s widowed daughter-in-law, Ruth by marrying her and giving her a future with a husband and children.
- He is seen as a picture of how Jesus rescued and redeemed us from sin.

body

Definition:

The term “body” literally refers to the physical body of a person or animal. This term is also used figuratively to refer to an object or whole group that has individual members.

- Often the term “body” refers to a dead person or animal. Sometimes this is referred to as a “dead body” or a “corpse.”
- When Jesus said to the disciples at his last Passover meal, “This (bread) is my body,” he was referring to his physical body that would be “broken” (killed) to pay for their sins.
- In the Bible, Christians as a group are referred to as the “body of Christ.”
- Just as a physical body has many parts, the “body of Christ” has many individual members.
- Each individual believer has a special function in the body of Christ to help the whole group work together to serve God and bring him glory.
- Jesus is also referred to as the “head” (leader) of the “body” of his believers. Just as a person’s head tells his body what to do, so Jesus is the one who guides and directs Christians as members of his “body.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The best way to translate this term would be with the word that is most commonly used to refer to a physical body in the project language. Make sure that the word used is not an offensive term.
- When referring collectively to believers, for some languages it may be more natural and accurate to say, “spiritual body of Christ.”
- When Jesus says, “This is my body” it is best to translate this literally, with a note to explain it if needed.
- Some languages may have a separate word when referring to a dead body, such as “corpse” for a person or “carcass” for an animal. Make sure the word used to translate this makes sense in the context and is acceptable.

bind, bond, bound

Definition:

The term “bind” means to tie something or fasten it securely. Something that is tied or joined together is called a “bond.” The term “bound” is the past tense of this term.

- To be “bound” means to have something tied or wrapped around something else.
- In a figurative sense, a person can be “bound” to a vow, which means he is “required to fulfill” what he promised to do.
- The term “bonds” refers to anything that binds, confines, or imprisons someone. It usually refers to physical chains, fetters or ropes that keep a person from being free to move.
- In Bible times, bonds such as ropes or chains were used to attach prisoners to the wall or floor of a stone prison.
- The term “bind” can also be used to talk about wrapping cloth around a wound to help it heal.
- A dead person would be “bound” with cloth in preparation for burial.
- The term “bond” is used figuratively to refer to something, such as sin, that controls or enslaves someone.
- A bond can also be a close relationship between people in which they support each other emotionally, spiritually and physically. This applies to the bond of marriage.
- For example, a husband and wife are “bound” or tied to each other. It is a bond that God does not want broken.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “bind” could also be translated as “tie” or “tie up” or “wrap (around).”
- Figuratively, it could be translated as, “to restrain” or “to prevent” or “to keep from (something).”
- A special use of “bind” in Matthew 16 and 18 means “forbid” or “not permit.”
- The term “bonds” could be translated as “chains” or “ropes” or “shackles.”
- Figuratively the term “bond” could be translated as “knot” or “connection” or “close relationship.”
- The phrase, “bond of peace” means, “being in harmony, which brings people in closer relationship to each other” or “the tying together that peace brings.”
- To “bind up” could be translated as, “wrap around” or “put a bandage on.”
- To “bind” oneself with a vow could be translated as, “promise to fulfill a vow” or “commit to fulfill a vow.”
- Depending on the context, the term “bound” could also be translate as, “tied” or “tied up” or “chained” or “obligated (to fulfill)” or “required to do.”

bow, bow down

Definition:

To bow means to bend over to humbly express respect and honor toward someone. To “bow down” means to bend over or kneel down very low, often with face and hands toward the ground.

- Other expressions include “bow the knee” (meaning to kneel) and “bow the head” (meaning to bend the head forward in humble respect or in sorrow).
- Bowing down can also be a sign of distress or mourning. Someone who is “bowed down” has been brought to a low position of humility.
- Often a person will bow in the presence of someone who is of higher status or greater importance, such as kings and other rulers.
- Bowing down before God is an expression of worship to him.
- In the Bible, people bowed down to Jesus when they realized from his miracles and teaching that he had come from God.
- The Bible says that when Jesus comes back someday, everyone will bow the knee to worship him.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, this term could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “bend forward” or “bend the head” or “kneel.”
- The term “bow down” could be translated as “kneel down” or “prostrate oneself.”
- Some languages will have more than one way of translating this term, depending on the context.

bread

Definition:

Bread is a food made from flour mixed with water and oil to form a dough. The dough is then shaped into a loaf and baked.

- When the term “loaf” occurs by itself, it means, “loaf of bread.”
- Bread dough is usually made with something that makes it rise, such as yeast.
- Bread can also be made without yeast so that it does not rise. In the Bible this is called “unleavened bread” and was used for the Jews’ passover meal.
- Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, this term is also used in the Bible to refer to food in general. (See: Synecdoche)
- The term “bread of the presence” referred to twelve loaves of bread that were placed on a golden table in the tabernacle or temple building as a sacrifice to God. These loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel and were only for the priests to eat. This could be translated as “bread showing that God lived among them.”
- The figurative term, “bread from heaven” referred to the special white food called “manna” that God provided for the Israelites when they were wandering through the desert.
- Jesus also called himself the “bread that came down from heaven” and the “bread of life.”
- When Jesus and his disciples were eating the Passover meal together before his death, he compared the unleavened Passover bread to his body which would be wounded and killed on a cross.
- Many times the term “bread” can be translated more generally as “food.”

brother

Definition:

The term “brother” usually refers to a male person who shares at least one biological parent with another person.

- In the Old Testament, the term “brothers” is also used as a general reference to relatives, such as members of the same tribe, clan, or people group.
- In the New Testament, the apostles often used “brothers” to refer to fellow Christians, including both men and women, since all believers in Christ are members of one spiritual family, with God as their heavenly Father.
- A few times in the New Testament, the apostles used the term “sister” when referring specifically to a fellow Christian who was a woman, or to emphasize that both men and women are being included. For example, James emphasizes that he is talking about all believers when he refers to “a brother or sister who is in need of food or clothing.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological brother, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- In the Old Testament especially, when “brothers” is used very generally to refer to members of the same family, clan, or people group, possible translations could include, “relatives” or “clan members” or “fellow Israelites.”
- In the context of referring to a fellow believer in Christ, this term could be translated as, “brother in Christ” or “spiritual brother.”
- If both males and females are being referred to and “brother” would give a wrong meaning, then a more general kinship term could be used that would include both males and females.
- Other ways to translate this term so that it refers to both male and female believers could be, “fellow believers” or “Christian brothers and sisters.”
- Make sure to check the context to determine whether only men are being referred to, or whether both men and women are included.

bury, buried, burial

Definition:

The term “bury” usually refers to putting a dead body into a hole or other burial place. The term “burial” is the act of burying something or can be used to describe a place used to bury something.

- Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
- Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin before burying it.
- In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
- The terms “burial place” or “burial room” or “burial chamber” or “burial cave” are all ways to refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
- Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
- The phrase “buried his face” usually means, “covered his face with his hands.”
- Sometimes the word “hide” can mean “bury” as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

Caesar

Facts:

The term “Caesar” was the name or title used by many of the rulers of the Roman Empire. In the Bible, this name refers to three different Roman rulers.

- The first Roman ruler named Caesar was “Caesar Augustus,” who was ruling during the time that Jesus was born.
- About thirty years later, at the time when John the Baptist was preaching, Tiberius Caesar was the ruler of the Roman Empire.
- Tiberius Caesar was still ruling Rome when Jesus told the people to pay Caesar what was due him and to give to God what is due him.
- When Paul appealed to Caesar, this referred to the Roman emperor, Nero, who also had the title “Caesar.”
- When “Caesar” is used by itself as a title, it can also be translated as: “the Emperor” or “the Roman Ruler.”
- In names such as Caesar Augustus or Tiberius Caesar, “Caesar” can be spelled close to the way a national language spells it.

call, calling, called, call out

Definition:

The terms “call” and “call out” literally means to say something loudly to someone who is not nearby. There are also several figurative meanings.

- To “call out” to someone means to shout or speak loudly to someone far away. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- Often in the Bible, “call” has a meaning of “summon” or “command to come” or “request to come.”
- God calls people to come to him and be his people. This is their “calling.”
- The term “called” is used in the Bible to mean that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.
- This term is also used in the context of calling someone a name. For example, “He is called John,” means, “He is named John” or “His name is John.”
- To be “called by the name of” means that someone is given the name of someone else. God says that he has called his people by his name.
- A different expression, “I have called you by name” means that God knows a person’s name personally and has specifically chosen him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “call” could be translated by a word that means “summon,” which includes the idea of being intentional or purposeful in calling.
- The expression “call out to you” could be translated as “ask you for help” or “pray to you urgently.”
- When the Bible says that God has “called” us to be his servants, this could be translated as, “specially chose us” or “appointed us” to be his servants.
- “You must call his name” can also be translated as, “you must name him.”
- “His name is called” could also be translated as, “his name is” or “he is named.”
- To “call out” could be translated as, “say loudly” or “shout” or “say with a loud voice.” Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.
- The expression “your calling” could be translated as “your purpose” or “God’s purpose for you” or “God’s special work for you.”
- To “call on the name of the Lord” could be translated as “seek the Lord and depend on him” or “trust in the Lord and obey him.”
- To “call for” something could be translated by “demand” or “ask for” or “command.”
- The expression “you are called by my name” could be translated as, “I have given you my name, showing that you belong to me.”
- When God says, “I have called you by name,” this could be translated as, “I know your name and have chosen you.”

children, child

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “child” is often used to generally refer to someone who is young in age, including an infant. The term “children” is the plural form and also has several figurative uses.

- In the Bible, disciples or followers are sometimes called “children.”
- Often the term “children” is used to refer to a person’s descendants.
- The phrase “children of” can refer to being characterized by something. Some examples of this would be:
 - children of the light
 - children of obedience
 - children of the devil
- This term can also refer to people who are like spiritual children. For example, “children of God” refers to people who belong to God through faith in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “children” could be translated as “descendants” when it is referring to a person’s great-grandchildren or great-great-grandchildren, etc.
- Depending on the context, “children of” could be translated as, “people who have the characteristics of” or “people who behave like.”
- If possible, the phrase, “children of God” should be translated literally since an important biblical theme is that God is our heavenly Father. A possible translation alternate would be, “people who belong to God” or “God’s spiritual children.”
- When Jesus calls his disciples “children,” this could also be translated as, “dear friends” or “my beloved disciples.”
- When Paul and John refer to believers in Jesus as “children,” this could also be translated as “dear fellow believers.”
- The phrase, “children of the promise” could be translated as, “people who have received what God promised them.”

Christ, Messiah

Facts:

The terms “Messiah” and “Christ” mean “Anointed One” and refer to Jesus, God’s Son.

- Both “Messiah” and “Christ” are used in the New Testament to refer to God’s Son, whom God the Father appointed to rule as king over his people, and to save them from sin and death.
- In the Old Testament, the prophets wrote prophecies about the Messiah hundreds of years before he came to earth.
- Often a word meaning “anointed (one)” is used in the Old Testament to refer to the Messiah who would come.
- Jesus fulfilled many of these prophecies and did many miraculous works that proved he is the Messiah; the rest of these prophecies will be fulfilled when he returns.
- The word “Christ” is often used as a title, as in “the Christ” and “Christ Jesus.”
- “Christ” also came to be used as part of his name, as in “Jesus Christ.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using its meaning, “the Anointed One” or “God’s Anointed Savior.”
- Many languages use a transliterated word that looks or sounds like “Christ” or “Messiah.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- The transliterated word could be followed by the definition of the term as in, “Christ, the Anointed One.”
- Be consistent in how this is translated throughout the Bible so that it is clear that the same term is being referred to.
- Make sure the translations of “Messiah” and “Christ” work well in contexts where both terms occur in the same verse (such as John 1:41).

church, Church

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term “church” refers to a local group of believers in Jesus who regularly met together to pray and hear God’s word preached. The term “the Church” often refers to all Christians.

- This term literally refers to a “called out” assembly or congregation of people who meet together for a special purpose.
- When this term is used to refer to all believers everywhere in the whole body of Christ, some Bible translations capitalize the first letter (“Church”) to distinguish it from the local church.
- Often the believers in a particular city would meet together in someone’s home. These local churches were given the name of the city such as the “church at Ephesus.”
- In the Bible, “church” does not refer to a building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “church” could be translated as a “gathering together” or “assembly” or “congregation” or “ones who meet together.”
- The word or phrase that is used to translate this term should also be able to refer to all believers, not just one small group.
- Make sure that the translation of “church” does not just refer to a building.
- The term used to translate “assembly” in the Old Testament could also be used to translate this term.

clean, cleanse

Definition:

The term “clean” literally means to not have any dirt or stain. In the Bible, it is often used figuratively to mean, “pure,” “holy,” or “free from sin.”

- “Cleanse” is the process of making something “clean.” It could also be translated as “wash” or “purify.”
- In the Old Testament, God told the Israelites which animals he had specified as ritually “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” Only the clean animals were permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice. In this context, the term “clean” means that the animal was acceptable to God for use as a sacrifice.
- A person who had certain skin diseases would be unclean until the skin was healed enough to no longer be contagious. Instructions for cleansing the skin had to be obeyed in order for that person to be declared “clean” again.
- Sometimes “clean” is used figuratively to refer to moral purity.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated with the common word for “clean” or “pure” (in the sense of being not dirty).
- Other ways to translate this could include, “ritually clean” or “acceptable to God.”
- “Cleanse” could be translated by “wash” or “purify.”
- Make sure that the words used for “clean” and “cleanse” can also be understood in a figurative sense.

command, to command, commandment

Definition:

The term “to command” means to order someone to do something. A “command” or “commandment” is what the person was ordered to do.

- Although these terms have basically the same meaning, “commandment” often refers to certain commands of God which are more formal and permanent, such as the “Ten Commandments.”
- A command can be positive (“Honor your parents”) or negative (“Do not steal”).
- To “take command” means to “take control” or “take charge” of something or someone.

Translation Suggestions

- It is best to translate this term differently from the term, “law.” Also compare with the definitions of “decree” and “statute.”
- Some translators may prefer to translate “command” and “commandment” with the same word in their language.
- Others may prefer to use a special word for commandment that refers to lasting, formal commands that God has made.

confess, confession

Definition:

To confess means to admit or assert that something is true. A “confession” is a statement or admission that something is true.

- The term “confess” can refer to boldly stating the truth about God. It can also refer to admitting that we have sinned.
- The Bible says that if people confess their sins to God, he will forgive them.
- James the apostle wrote in his letter that when believers confess their sins to each other, this brings spiritual healing.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Philippians that someday everyone will confess or declare that Jesus is Lord.
- Paul also said that if people confess that Jesus is Lord and believe that God raised him from the dead, they will be saved.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “confess” could include, “admit” or “testify” or “declare” or “acknowledge” or “affirm.”
- Different ways to translate “confession” could be, “declaration” or “testimony” or “statement about what we believe” or “admitting sin.”

confidence, confident

Definition:

The term “confidence” refers to being sure that something is true or certain to happen.

- In the Bible, the term “hope” often means to wait expectantly for something that is sure to happen. The ULB often translates this as “confidence” or “confidence for the future” or “future confidence” especially when it means to be assured of receiving what God has promised to believers in Jesus.
- Often the term “confidence” refers especially to the certainty that believers in Jesus have that they will someday be with God forever in heaven.
- The phrase, “have confidence in God” means to fully expect to receive and experience what God has promised.
- Being “confident” means believing in God’s promises and acting with the assurance that God will do what he has said. This term can also have the meaning of acting boldly and courageously.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “confident” could be translated as “assured” or “very sure.”
- The phrase “be confident” could also be translated as “trust completely” or “be completely sure about” or “know for certain.”
- The term “confidently” could also be translated as “boldly” or “with certainty.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “confidence” could include, “complete assurance” or “sure expectation” or “certainty.”

cornerstone

Definition:

The term “cornerstone” refers to a large stone that has been specially cut and placed in the corner of the foundation of a building.

- All the other stones of the building are measured and placed in relation to the cornerstone.
- It is very important for the strength and stability of the whole structure.
- In the New Testament, the Assembly of believers is metaphorically compared to a building which has Jesus Christ as its “cornerstone.”
- In the same way that the cornerstone of a building supports and determines the position of the whole building, so Jesus Christ is the cornerstone on which the Assembly of believers is founded and supported.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “cornerstone” could also be translated as “main building stone” or “foundation stone.”
- Consider whether the target language has a term for a part of a building’s foundation that is the main support. If so, this term could be used.
- Another way to translate this would be, “a foundation stone used for the corner of a building.”
- It is important to keep the fact that this is a large stone, used as a solid and secure building material. If stones are not used for constructing buildings, there may be another word that could be used that means “large stone” (such as “boulder”) but it should also have the idea of being well-formed and made to fit.

council

Definition:

A council is a group of people who meet to discuss, give advice, and make decisions about important matters.

- A council is usually organized in an official and somewhat permanent way for a specific purpose, such as making decisions about legal matters.
- The “Jewish Council” in Jerusalem, also known as the “Sanhedrin,” had 70 members, which included Jewish leaders such as chief priests, elders, scribes, Pharisees, and Sadducees who met regularly to decide matters of Jewish law. It was this council of religious leaders who put Jesus on trial and decided that he should be killed.
- There were also smaller Jewish councils in other cities.
- The apostle Paul was brought before a Roman council when he was arrested for teaching the gospel.
- Depending on the context, the word “council” could also be translated as “legal assembly” or “political assembly.”
- To be “in council” means to be in a special meeting to decide something.
- Note that this is a different word than “counsel,” which means, “wise advice.”

courtyard, court

Definition:

The terms “courtyard” and “court” refer to an enclosed area that is open to the sky and surrounded by walls. The term “court” also refers to a place where judges decide legal and criminal matters.

- The tabernacle was surrounded by one courtyard which was enclosed by walls made of thick, cloth curtains.
- The temple complex had three inner courtyards: one for the priests, one for Jewish men, and one for Jewish women.
- These inner courtyards were surrounded by a low stone wall that separated them from an outer courtyard where Gentiles were permitted to worship.
- The courtyard of a house was an open area in the middle of the house.
- The phrase “king’s court” can refer to his palace or to a place in his palace where he makes judgments.
- The expression, “courts of Yahweh” is a figurative way of referring to Yahweh’s dwelling place or to the place where people go to worship Yahweh.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “courtyard” could be translated as “enclosed space” or “walled-in land” or “temple grounds” or “temple enclosure.”
- Sometimes the term “temple” may need to be translated as “temple courtyards” or “temple complex” so that it is clear that the courtyards are being referred to, not the temple building.
- The expression, “courts of Yahweh” could be translated as, “place where Yahweh lives” or “place where Yahweh is worshiped.”

CROSSDefinition:

In Bible times, a cross was an upright wooden post stuck into the ground, with a horizontal wooden beam attached to it near the top.

- During the time of the Roman Empire, the Roman government would execute criminals by tying or nailing them to a cross and leaving them there to die.
- Jesus was falsely accused of crimes he did not commit and the Romans put him to death on a cross.
- Note that this is a completely different word from the verb “cross” that means to go over to the other side of something, such as a river or lake.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using a term in the target language that refers to the shape of a cross.
- Consider describing the cross as something on which people were killed, using phrases such as “execution post” or “tree of death.”
- Also consider how this word is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns) crown, to crownDefinition:

A crown is a decorative, circular headpiece worn on the head of rulers such as kings and queens. The term “to crown” means to put a crown on someone’s head; figuratively it means, “to honor.”

- Crowns are usually made of gold or silver, and are embedded with precious gems such as emeralds and rubies.
- A crown was intended to be a symbol of a king’s power and wealth.
- By contrast, the crown made of thorn branches that the Roman soldiers placed on Jesus’ head was meant to mock him and hurt him.
- In ancient times, winners of athletic contests would be awarded a crown made out of olive branches. The apostle Paul mentions this crown in his second letter to Timothy.
- Used figuratively, “to crown” means to honor someone. We honor God by obeying him and praising him to others. This is like putting a crown on him and acknowledging that he is King.
- Pauls calls fellow believers his “joy and crown.” In this expression, “crown” is used figuratively to mean that Paul has been greatly blessed and honored by how these believers have remained faithful in serving God.
- When used figuratively, “crown” could be translated as “prize” or “honor” or “reward.”
- The figurative use of “to crown” could be translated as “to honor” or “to decorate.”
- If a person is “crowned” this could be translated as “a crown was put on his head.”
- The expression, “he was crowned with glory and honor” could be translated as, “glory and honor were bestowed on him” or “he was given glory and honor” or “he was endowed with glory and honor.”

curse, cursed

Definition:

The term “curse” means to cause negative things to happen to the person or thing that is being cursed.

- A curse can be a statement that harm will happen to someone or something.
- To curse someone can also be an expression of desire that bad things will happen to them.
- It can also refer to the punishment or other negative things that someone causes to happen to someone.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as “cause bad things to happen to” or “declare that something bad will happen to” or “swear to cause evil things to happen to.”
- In the context of God sending curses on his disobedient people, it could be translated as, “punish by allowing bad things to happen.”
- The term “cursed” when used to describe people could be translated as, “(this person) will experience much trouble.”
- The phrase “cursed be” could be translated as, “May (this person) experience great difficulties.”
- The phrase, “Cursed is the ground” could be translated as, “The soil will not be very fertile.”
- “Cursed be the day I was born” could also be translated as, “I am so miserable it would have been better not to be born.”
- However, if the target language has the phrase “cursed be” and it has the same meaning, then it is good to keep the same phrase.

- [50-16] Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into this world, God cursed it and decided to destroy it.

curtain

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “curtain” refers to a very thick, heavy piece of material used in the making of the tabernacle and the temple.

- The tabernacle was built using four layers of curtains for the top and sides. These curtain coverings were made of cloth or animal skins.
- Cloth curtains were also used to form a wall surrounding the tabernacle courtyard. These curtains were made out of “linen” which was a kind of cloth made out of the flax plant.
- In both the tabernacle and temple building, a thick cloth curtain hung between the holy place and the most holy place. It was this curtain that was miraculously torn into two parts when Jesus died.

Translation Suggestions:

- Since modern-day curtains are very different from the curtains used in the Bible, it may be more clear to use a different word or to add words that describe the curtains.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, “curtain covering” or “covering” or “piece of thick cloth” or “animal skin covering” or “hanging piece of cloth.”

Daniel was an Israelite prophet who as a young man was taken captive by the Babylonian king Nebuchadnezzar around 600 BC.

- This was during the time that many other Israelites from Judah were held captive in Babylon for 70 years.
- Daniel was given the Babylonian name Belteshazzar.
- Daniel was an honorable and righteous young man who obeyed God.
- God enabled Daniel to interpret several dreams or visions for the Babylonian kings.
- Because of this ability and because of his honorable character, Daniel was given a high leadership position in the Babylonian empire.
- Many years later, Daniel's enemies tricked the Babylonian king Darius into making a law forbidding the worship of anyone except the king. Daniel continued to pray to God, so he was arrested and thrown into a den of lions. But God rescued him and he was not harmed at all.

darkness

Definition:

The term “darkness” literally means an absence of light. There are also several figurative meanings of this term:

- As a metaphor, “darkness” means “impurity” or “evil” or “spiritual blindness.”
- It also refers to anything related to sin and moral corruption.
- The expression, “dominion of darkness” refers to all that is evil and ruled by Satan.
- The term “darkness” can also be used as a metaphor for death. (See: Metaphor)
- People who do not know God are said to be “living in darkness,” which means they do not understand or practice righteousness.
- God is light (righteousness) and the darkness (evil) cannot overcome that light.
- The place of punishment for those who reject God is sometimes referred to as “outer darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally, with a word in the project language that refers to the absence of light. This could also be a term that refers to the darkness of a room with no light or to the time of day when there is no light.
- For the figurative uses, it is also important to keep the image of darkness in contrast to light, as a way to describe evil and deception in contrast to goodness and truth.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could be, “darkness of night” (as opposed to “light of day”) or “not seeing anything, like at night” or “evil, like a dark place”.

Daughter of Zion

Definition:

“Daughter of Zion” is a figurative way of referring to the people of Israel. It is usually used in prophecies.

- In the Old Testament, “Zion” is often used as another name for the city of Jerusalem.
- Both “Zion” and “Jerusalem” are also used to refer to Israel.
- The term “Daughter” is a term of endearment or affection. It is a metaphor for the patience and care that God has for his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate this could include, “my daughter Israel, from Zion” or “people from Zion, who are like a daughter to me” or “Zion, my dear people Israel.”
- It is best to keep the term “Zion” in this expression since it is used many times in the Bible. A note could be included in the translation to explain its figurative meaning and prophetic use.
- It is also better to keep the term “Daughter” in the translation of this expression, as long as it is understood correctly.

death, die, dead

Definition:

This term is used to refer to both physical and spiritual death. Physically, it refers to when the physical body of a person stops living. Spiritually, it refers to sinners being separated from a holy God because of their sin.

1. Physical death

- To “die” means to stop living. Death is the end of physical life.
- A person’s spirit leaves his body when he dies.
- When Adam and Eve sinned, physical death came into the world.
- The expression “put to death” refers to killing or murdering someone, especially when a king or other ruler gives an order for someone to be killed.

2. Spiritual death

- Spiritual death is the separation of a person from God.
- Adam died spiritually when he disobeyed God. His relationship with God was broken. He became ashamed and tried to hide from God.
- Every descendant of Adam is a sinner, and is spiritually dead. God makes us spiritually alive again when we have faith in Jesus Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- To translate this term, it is best to use the everyday, natural word or expression that refers to death in the target language.
- In some languages, “to die” may be expressed as “to not live.” The term “dead” may be translated as “not alive” or “not having any life” or “not living.”
- Many languages use figurative expressions to describe death, such as “to pass away” in English. However in the Bible it is best to use the most direct term for death that is used in everyday language.
- In the Bible, physical life and death are often compared to spiritual life and death. It is important in a translation to use the same word or phrase for both physical death and spiritual death.
- In some languages it may be more clear to say “spiritual death” when the context requires that meaning. Some translators may also feel it is best to say “physical death” in contexts where it is being contrasted to spiritual death.
- The expression, “the dead” is a nominal adjective that refers to people who have died. Some languages will translate this as, “dead people” or “people who have died.” (See: nominal adjective)
- The expression, “put to death” could also be translated as, “kill” or “murder” or “execute.”

declare, declaration

Definition:

The terms “declare” and “declaration” refer to making a formal or public statement, often to emphasize something.

- A “declaration” not only emphasizes the importance of what is being proclaimed, but it also calls attention to the one making the declaration.
- For example, in the Old Testament, a message from God is often preceded by, “the declaration of Yahweh” or “this is what Yahweh declares.” This expression emphasizes that it is Yahweh himself who is saying this. The fact that the message comes from Yahweh shows how important that message is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “declare” could also be translated as “proclaim” or “publicly state” or “strongly say” or “emphatically state.”
- The term “declaration” could also be translated as, “statement” or “proclamation.”
- The phrase, “this is Yahweh’s declaration” could be translated as, “this is what Yahweh declares” or “this is what Yahweh says.”

defile, be defiled

Definition:

The terms “defile” and “be defiled” refer to becoming polluted or dirty. Something can be defiled in a physical, moral, or ritual sense.

- God warned the Israelites to not defile themselves by eating or touching things that he had declared as “unclean” and “unholy.”
- Certain things such as dead bodies and contagious diseases were declared by God to be unclean and would defile a person if they touched them.
- God commanded the Israelites to avoid sexual sins. These would defile them and make them unacceptable to God.
- There were also certain kinds of bodily processes that defiled a person temporarily until he could become ritually pure again.
- In the New Testament, Jesus taught that sinful thoughts and actions are what truly defile a person.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “defile” can also be translated as “cause to be unclean” or “cause to be unrighteous” or “cause to be ritually unacceptable.”
- To “be defiled” could be translated as “become unclean” or “be caused to be morally unacceptable (to God)” or “become ritually unacceptable.”

deliver, deliverer, deliverance

Definition:

To “deliver” someone means to rescue that person. The term “deliverer” refers to someone who rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers. The term “deliverance” refers to what happens when someone rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers.

- In the Old Testament, God appointed deliverers to protect the Israelites by leading them in battle against other people groups who came to attack them.
- These deliverers were also called “judges” and the Old Testament book of Judges records the time in history when these judges were governing Israel.
- God is also called a “deliverer.” Throughout the history of Israel, he delivered or rescued his people from their enemies.
- The term “deliver over to” or “deliver up to” has a very different meaning of handing someone over to an enemy, such as when Judas delivered Jesus over to the Jewish leaders.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of helping people escape from their enemies, the term “deliver” can be translated as “rescue” or “liberate” or “save.”
- When it means to deliver someone over to the enemy, “deliver over” can be translated as “betray to” or “hand over” or “give over.”
- The word “deliverer” can also be translated as, “rescuer” or “liberator.”
- When the term “deliverer” refers to the judges who led Israel, it could also be translated as “governor” or “judge” or “leader.”

- [16-17] Over many years, God sent many deliverers who saved the Israelites from their enemies.

demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit

Definition:

All these terms refer to demons, which are spirit beings that oppose God's will.

- God created angels to serve him. When the devil rebelled against God, some of the angels also rebelled and were thrown out of heaven. It is believed that demons and evil spirits are these “fallen angels.”
- Sometimes these demons are called “unclean spirits.” The term “unclean” means “impure” or “evil” or “unholy.”
- Because demons serve the devil, they do evil things. Sometimes they live inside people and control them.
- Demons are more powerful than human beings, but not as powerful as God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “demon” could also be translated as “evil spirit.”
- The term “unclean spirit” could also be translated as “impure spirit” or “corrupt spirit” or “evil spirit.”
- Make sure that the word or phrase used to translate this term is different from the term used to refer to the devil.

desolate, desolation

Definition:

The terms “desolate” and “desolation” refer to destroying an inhabited region so that it becomes uninhabited.

- When referring to a person, the term “desolate” describes a condition of ruin, loneliness, and grief.
- The term “desolation” is the state or condition of being desolated.
- If a field where crops are growing is made desolate, it means that something has destroyed the crops, such as insects or an invading army.
- A “desolate region” refers to an area of land where few people live because few crops or other vegetation grow there.
- A “desolate land” or “wilderness” was often where outcasts (such as lepers) and dangerous animals lived.
- If a city is “made desolate” it means that its buildings and goods have been destroyed or stolen, and its people have been killed or captured. The city becomes “empty” and “ruined.” This is similar to the meaning of “devastate” or “devastated,” but with more emphasis on the emptiness.
- Depending on the context, this term could be translated as “ruined” or “destroyed” or “laid waste” or “lonely and outcast” or “deserted.”

disciple

Definition:

The term “disciple” refers to a person who spends much time with a teacher, learning from that teacher’s character and teaching.

- The people who followed Jesus around, listening to his teachings and obeying them, were called his “disciples.”
- John the Baptist also had disciples.
- During Jesus’ ministry, there were many disciples who followed him and heard his teachings.
- Jesus chose twelve disciples to be his closest followers; these men became known as his “apostles.”
- Jesus’ twelve apostles continued to be known as his “disciples” or “the twelve.”
- Just before Jesus went up to heaven, he commanded his disciples to teach other people about how to become Jesus’ disciples, too.
- Anyone who believes in Jesus and obeys his teachings is called a disciple of Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “disciple” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “follower” or “student” or “pupil” or “learner.”
- Make sure that the translation of this term does not refer only to a student who learns in a classroom.
- The translation of this term should also be different from the translation of “apostle.”

dove, pigeon

Definition:

Doves and pigeons are two kinds of small, gray-brown birds that look similar. A dove is often thought of as being lighter in color, almost white.

- Some languages have two different names for them, while others use the same name for both.
- Doves and pigeons were used in sacrifices to God, especially for people who could not afford to buy a larger animal.
- A dove brought the leaf of an olive tree to Noah when the flood waters were going down.
- Doves sometimes symbolize purity, innocence, or peace.
- If doves or pigeons are not known in the language area where the translation is being done, this term could be translated as “a small grayish brown bird called a dove” or “a small gray or brown bird, similar to a (name of local bird)”.
- If both a dove and a pigeon are referred to in the same verse, it is best to use two different words for these birds, if possible.

chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect

Definition:

The term, “the elect” literally means “chosen ones” or “chosen people” and refers to those whom God has appointed or selected to be his people. “Chosen One” or “Chosen One of God” is a title that refers to Jesus, who is the chosen Messiah.

- The term “choose” means to select something or someone or to decide something. It is often used to refer to God appointing people to belong to him and to serve him.
- To be “chosen” means to be “selected” or “appointed” to be or do something.
- God chose people to be holy, to be set apart by him for the purpose of bearing good spiritual fruit. That is why they are called “the chosen (ones) or ”the elect.”
- The term “chosen one” is sometimes used in the Bible to refer to certain people such as Moses and King David whom God had appointed as leaders over his people. It is also used to refer to the nation of Israel as God’s chosen people.
- The phrase “the elect” is an older term that literally means “the chosen ones” or “the chosen people.” This phrase in the original language is plural when referring to believers in Christ.
- In older English Bible versions, the term “elect” is used in both the Old and New Testaments to translate the word for “chosen one(s).” More modern versions use “elect” only in the New Testament, to refer to people who have been saved by God through faith in Jesus. Elsewhere in the Bible text, they translate this word more literally as “chosen ones.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate “elect” with a word or phrase that means “chosen ones” or “chosen people.” These could also be translated as “people whom God chose” or “the ones God appointed to be his people.”

sexual immorality

Definition:

The term “sexual immorality” refers to sexual activity that takes place outside the marriage relationship of a man and a woman. This is against God’s plan. Older English Bible versions call this “fornication.”

- This term can refer to any kind of sexual activity that is against God’s will, including homosexual acts and pornography.
- One type of sexual immorality is adultery, which is sexual activity specifically between a married person and someone who is not that person’s spouse.
- Another type of sexual immorality is “prostitution,” which involves being paid to have sex with someone.
- This term is also used figuratively to refer to Israel’s unfaithfulness to God when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sexual immorality” could be translated as “immorality” as long as the correct meaning of the term is understood.
- Other ways to translate this term could include, “wrong sexual acts” or “sex outside of marriage.”
- This term should be translated in a different way from the term “adultery.”
- The translation of this term’s figurative uses should retain the literal term if possible since there is a common comparison in the Bible between unfaithfulness to God and unfaithfulness in the sexual relationship.

The term “forsake” means to abandon someone or to give up something. Someone who has been “forsaken” has been deserted or abandoned by someone else.

- When people “forsake” God, it means they are being unfaithful to him by disobeying him.
- When God “forsakes” people, it means he has stopped helping them and allowed them to experience suffering in order to cause them to turn back to him.
- This term can also mean to forsake things, such as forsaking, or not following God’s teachings.
- The term “forsaken” can be used as past tense as in “he has forsaken you” or to refer to someone who has “been forsaken.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include, “abandon” or “neglect” or “give up” or “go away from” or “leave behind,” depending on the context.
- To “forsake” God’s law could be translated “disobey God’s law.” This could also be translated as “abandon” or “give up on” or “stop obeying” his teachings or his laws.
- The phrase “be forsaken” can be translated as “be abandoned” or “be deserted.”
- The project language may find it more clear to use different words to translate this term, depending on whether the text is talking about forsaking a thing or a person.

foundation, founded

Definition:

The verb “founded” means to be built on or based on something. A foundation is the base on which something is built.

- The foundation of a house or building must be strong and dependable in order to support the entire structure.
- The term “foundation” can also refer to the beginning of something or to the time when something was first created.
- In a figurative sense, believers in Christ are compared to a building that is founded on the teachings of the apostles and prophets, with Christ himself being the cornerstone of the building.
- A “foundation stone” was a stone that was laid as part of the foundation. These stones were tested to make sure they were strong enough to support an entire building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “before the foundation of the world” could be translated as “before the creation of the world” or “before the time when the world first existed” or “before everything was first created.”
- The term “founded on” could be translated as “securely built on” or “firmly based on.”
- Depending on the context, “foundation” could be translated as “strong base” or “solid support” or “beginning” or “creation.”

fruit, fruitful

Definition:

The term “fruit” literally refers to the part of a plant that can be eaten. Something that is “fruitful” has a lot of fruit. These terms are also used figuratively in the Bible.

- The Bible often uses “fruit” to refer to a person’s actions and thoughts. Just as fruit on a tree shows what kind of tree it is, in the same way a person’s words and actions reveal what his character is like.
- A person can produce good or bad spiritual fruit, but the term “fruitful” always has the positive meaning of producing much good fruit.
- The term “fruitful” is also used figuratively to mean “prosperous.” This often refers to having many children and descendants, as well as having plenty of food and other wealth.
- In general, the expression “fruit of” refers to anything that comes from or that is produced by something else. For example, the “fruit of wisdom” refers to the good things that come from being wise.
- The expression “fruit of the land” refers generally to everything that the land produces for people to eat. This includes not only fruits such as grapes or dates, but also vegetables, nuts, and grains.
- The figurative expression “fruit of the Spirit” refers to godly qualities that the Holy Spirit produces in the lives of people who obey him.
- The expression, “fruit of the womb” refers to “what the womb produces,” that is, children.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term using the general word for “fruit” that is commonly used in the project language to refer to the edible fruit of a fruit tree. In many languages it may be more natural to use the plural
- , “fruits” whenever it refers to more than one fruit.
- Depending on the context, the term “fruitful” could be translated as “producing much spiritual fruit” or “having many children” or “prosperous.”
- The expression, “fruit of the land” could also be translated as, “food that the land produces” or “food crops that are growing in that region.”
- When God created animals and people, he commanded them to “be fruitful and multiply,” which refers to having many offspring. This could also be translated as, “have many offspring” or “have many children and descendants” or “have many children so that you will have many descendants.”
- The expression, “fruit of the womb” could be translated as “what the womb produces” or “children a women gives birth to” or just “children.” When Elisabeth says to Mary, “blessed is the fruit of your womb” she means, “blessed is the child you will give birth to.” The project language may also have a different expression for this.
- Another expression, “fruit of the vine” could be translated as “vine fruit” or “grapes.”

- Depending on the context, the expression “will be more fruitful” could also be translated as, “will produce more fruit” or “will have more children” or “will be prosperous.”
- The apostle Paul’s expression, “fruitful labor” could be translated as, “work that brings very good results” or “efforts that result in many people believing in Jesus.”
- The “fruit of the Spirit” could also be translated as “works that the Holy Spirit produces” or “words and actions that show that the Holy Spirit is working in you.”

gate, gate bar

Definition:

A “gate” is a hinged barrier at an access point in a fence or wall that surrounds a house or city. The “gate bar” refers to a wooden or metal bar that can be moved into place to lock the gate.

- A city gate could be opened to allow people, animals, and cargo to travel in and out of the city.
- To protect the city, its walls and gates were thick and strong. Gates were closed and locked with a metal or wooden bar to prevent enemy soldiers from entering the city.
- A city gate was often the news and social center of a village. It was also where business transactions occurred and judgments were made, because city walls were thick enough to have gateways that produced cool shade from the hot sun. Citizens found it pleasant to sit in the shade to conduct their business and even to judge legal cases.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “gate” could be, “door” or “wall opening” or “barrier” or “entranceway.”
- The phrase, “bars of the gate” could be translated as, “gate bolts” or “wooden beams to lock the gate” or “metal locking rods of the gate.”

Gentile

Facts:

The term “Gentile” refers to anyone who is not a Jew. Gentiles are people who are not descendants of Jacob.

- In the Bible, the term “uncircumcised” is also used figuratively to refer to Gentiles because many of them did not circumcise their male children as the Israelites did.
- Because God chose the Jews to be his special people, they thought of the Gentiles as outsiders who could never be God’s people.
- The Jews were also called “Israelites” or “Hebrews” at different times in history. They referred to everyone else as a “Gentile.”
- Gentile could also be translated as “not a Jew” or “non-Jewish” or “not an Israelite” (Old Testament) or “non-Jew.”
- Traditionally, Jews would not eat with Gentiles or associate with them, which at first caused problems within the early church.

goat, kid

Definition:

A goat is a medium-sized, four-legged animal which is similar to a sheep and is raised primarily for its milk and meat. A baby goat is called a “kid.”

- Like sheep, goats were important animals of sacrifice, especially at Passover.
- Although goats and sheep can be very similar, these are some ways that they are different:
 - Goats have coarse hair; sheep have wool.
 - The tail of a goat stands up; the tail of a sheep hangs down.
 - A sheep usually like to stay with their herd, but goats are more independent and tend to wander away from the herd.
- In Bible times, goats were often the main source of milk in Israel.
- Goat skins were used for tent coverings and to make bags for holding wine.
- In both the Old and New Testaments, the goat was used as a symbol for unrighteous people, perhaps because of their tendency to wander away from the one taking care of them.
- The Israelites also used goats as symbolic sin bearers. When one goat was sacrificed, the priest would lay his hands on a second live goat and send it into the desert as a symbol of the animal bearing the people’s sins.

God

Facts:

In the Bible, the term “God” refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God’s personal name is “Yahweh.”

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as “Yahweh” which means, “he is” or “I am” or “the One who (always) exists.”
- The Bible also teaches about false “gods” which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “God” could include, “Deity” or “Creator” or “Supreme Being.”
- Other ways to translate “God” could be, “Supreme Creator” or “Infinite Sovereign Lord” or “Eternal Supreme Being.”
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for “God” in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god.
- Another way to make this distinction would be to use two different terms for “God” and “god.”
- The phrase, “I will be their God and they will be my people” could also be translated as, “I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me.”

God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

Facts:

The terms, “God the Father” and “heavenly Father” refer to Yahweh, the one true God. This term also occurs as “Father,” especially when Jesus is referring to him.

- God exists as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Each one is fully God, and yet they are only one God. This is a mystery that mere humans cannot fully understand.
- God the Father sent God the Son (Jesus) into the world and he sends the Holy Spirit to his people.
- Anyone who believes in God the Son becomes a child of God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit comes to live in that person. This is another mystery that human beings cannot fully understand.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the phrase “God the Father,” it is best to translate “Father” with the same word that the language naturally uses to refer to a human father.
- The term “heavenly Father” could be translated by “Father who lives in heaven” or “Father God who lives in heaven” or “God our Father from heaven.”
- Usually “Father” is capitalized, to show that this refers to God.

gold

Definition:

Gold is a yellow-colored high-quality metal that was used for making jewelry and religious objects. It was the most valuable metal in ancient times.

- In Bible times, many different kinds of objects were made out of solid gold or were covered with a thin layer of gold.
- These objects included ear rings and other jewelry, idols, altars, and other objects used in the tabernacle or temple, such as the ark of the covenant.
- In Old Testament times, gold was used as a means of exchange in buying and selling. It was weighed on a scale to determine its value.
- Later on, gold and other metals such as silver were used to make coins to use in buying and selling
- When referring to something that is not solid gold, but only has a thin covering of gold, the term “golden” or “gold-covered” or “gold-overlaid” could also be used.
- Sometimes an object is described as “gold-colored” which means it has the yellow color of gold, but may not actually be made of gold.

governor, govern, proconsul, government

Definition:

A “governor” is a person who rules over a state, region, or territory. The word “govern” means to guide, lead, or manage people.

- The term “proconsul” was a more specific title for a governor who ruled over a Roman province.
- In Bible times, governors were appointed by a king or emperor and were under his authority.
- A “government” is made up of all the rulers who govern a certain country or empire. These rulers make laws that guide the behavior of their citizens so that there is peace, safety, and prosperity for all the people of that nation.

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “governor” can also be translated as “ruler” or “overseer” or “regional leader” or “one who rules over a small territory.”
- Depending on the context, the term “govern” could also be translated as, “rule over” or “lead” or “manage” or supervise.”
- The term “governor” should be translated differently than the terms for king or emperor, since a governor was a less powerful ruler who was under their authority.
- The term “proconsul” could also be translated as, “Roman governor” or “Roman provincial ruler.”

grain

Definition:

The term “grain” usually refers to the seed of a food plant such as wheat, barley, corn, millet, or rice. It can also refer to the whole plant.

- In the Bible, the main grains that are referred to are wheat and barley.
- The heads of grain are the part of the plant that holds the grain.
- Note that some older Bible versions use the word “corn” to refer to grain in general. In modern English however, “corn” only refers to one type of grain.

grape

Definition:

A grape is a small, round, smooth-skinned berry fruit that grows in clusters on vines. The juice of grapes is used in making wine.

- There are different colors of grapes, such as light green, purple, or red.
- Individual grapes can be around one to three centimeters in size.
- People grow grapes in gardens called vineyards. These normally consist of long rows of vines.
- Grapes were a very important food during Bible times and having vineyards was a sign of wealth.
- In order to keep grapes from rotting, people would often dry them. Dried grapes are called “raisins” and they were used to make raisin cakes.
- Jesus told a parable about a grape vineyard to teach his disciples about God’s kingdom.

hades, sheol

Definition:

The terms “hades” and “sheol” are used in the Bible to refer to death and the place where the souls of people go when they die. Their meanings are similar.

- The Hebrew term “sheol” is often used in the Old Testament to refer generally to the place of death.
- In the New Testament, the Greek term “hades” refers to a place for the souls of people who rebelled against God. These souls are referred to as going “down” to hades. This is sometimes contrasted to going “up” to heaven, where the souls of people who believe in Jesus live.
- The term “hades” is coupled with the term “death” in the book of Revelation. In the end times, both death and hades will be thrown into the Lake of Fire, which is hell.

Translation Suggestions

- The Old Testament term “sheol” could be translated as “place of the dead” or “place for dead souls.” Some translations translate this as “the pit” or “death,” depending on the context.
- The New Testament term “hades” could also be translated as “place for unbelieving dead souls” or “place of torment for the dead” or “place for the souls of unbelieving dead people.”
- Some translations keep the word “sheol” or “hades,” spelling them to fit the sound patterns of the language of translation. (See: How to Translate Unknowns).
- A phrase could also be added to the term to explain it, for example, “sheol, place where dead people are” or “hades, place of death.”

hail

Facts:

This term usually refers to small or large lumps of frozen water that fall from the sky. A different word, “hail” is used in greeting someone and can mean, “hello” or “greetings to you.”

- Hail that comes down from the sky is in the form of balls or chunks of ice called “hailstones.”
- Usually hailstones are small (only a few centimeters wide), but sometimes there are hailstones that are as big as 20 centimeters wide and that weigh over a kilogram.
- The book of Revelation in the New Testament describes enormous hailstones weighing 50 kilograms that God will cause to fall on earth when he judges people for their wickedness in the end times.
- The word “hail” that is a formal greeting in older English literally means “rejoice” and could be translated as “Greetings!” or “Hello!”

hand, right hand, to hand over

Definition:

There are several figurative ways that “hand” is used in the Bible:

- To “hand” something to someone means to put something into that person’s hands.
- The term “hand” is often used in reference to God’s power and action, such as when God says, “Has not my hand made all these things?” (See: Metonymy)
- Expressions such as “hand over to” or “deliver into the hands of” refer to causing someone to be under the control or power of someone else.
- Placing hands on someone is often done while speaking a blessing over that person.
- The term “laying on of hands” refers to placing a hand on a person in order to dedicate that person to God’s service or to pray for healing.
- Some other figurative uses of “hand” include:
 - To “lay a hand on” means to “harm.”
 - To “save from the hand of” means to stop someone from harming someone else.
 - To be “close at hand” means to be “nearby.”
 - The position of being “on the right hand” means “on the right side” or “to the right.”
 - The expression “by the hand of” someone means “by” or “through” the action of that person. For example, “by the hand of the Lord” means that the Lord is the one who caused something to happen.
- When Paul says “written by my hand,” it means that this part of the letter was physically written down by him, rather than spoken to someone else to write down.

Translation Suggestions

- These expressions and other figures of speech could be translated using other figurative expressions that have the same meaning. Or the meaning could be translated using direct, literal language (see examples above).
- The expression, “handed him the scroll” could also be translated as “gave him the scroll” or “put the scroll in his hand.” It was not given to him permanently, but just for the purpose of using it at that time.
- When “hand” refers to the person, such as in “the hand of God did this,” it could be translated as “God did this.”
- An expression such as “delivered them into the hands of their enemies” or “handed them over to their enemies,” could be translated as, “allowed their enemies to conquer them” or “caused them to be captured by their enemies” or “empowered their enemies to gain control over them.”
- To “die by the hand of” could be translated as, “be killed by.”
- The expression “on the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of.”
- In regard to Jesus being “seated at the right hand of God,” if this does not communicate in the language that it refers to a position of high honor and equal authority, a different expression with that meaning could be used. Or a short explanation could be added: “on the right side of God, in the position of highest authority.”

hang

Definition:

The term “hang” means to suspend something or someone above the ground.

- Death by hanging typically is done using a rope noose that is tied around a person’s neck and suspended from an elevated object, like a tree limb. Judas killed himself by hanging.
- Jesus’ death by hanging on a wooden cross was done differently: the soldiers suspended him by nailing his hands (or wrists) and his feet to the cross.
- To hang someone always refers to a way of killing someone by hanging them with a rope around their neck.

hard, hardness, harden

Definition:

The term “hard” has several different meanings depending on the context. It usually describes something that is difficult, persistent, or unyielding.

- The expressions “hard heart” or “hard-headed” refer to people who are stubbornly unrepentant. These expressions describe people who persist in disobeying God.
- The figurative expressions, “hardness of heart” and “hardness of their hearts” also refer to stubborn disobedience.
- If someone’s heart is “hardened” this means that person refuses to obey and remains stubbornly unrepentant.
- When used as an adverb, as in “work hard” or “try hard,” it means to do something very strongly and diligently, making an effort to do something very well.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “hard” could also be translated as “difficult” or “stubborn” or “challenging,” depending on the context.
- The terms “hardness” or “hardness of heart” or “hard heart” could be translated as “stubbornness” or “persistent rebellion” or “rebellious attitude” or “stubborn disobedience” or “stubbornly not repenting.”
- The term “hardened” could also be translated as “stubbornly unrepentant” or “refusing to obey.”
- “Do not harden your heart” could be translated as, “do not refuse to repent” or “do not stubbornly keep disobeying.”
- Other ways to translate “hard-headed” or “hard-hearted” could include, “stubbornly disobedient” or “continuing to disobey” or “refusing to repent” or “always rebelling.”
- In expressions such as “work hard” or “try hard,” the term “hard” could be translated as, “with perseverance” or “diligently.”
- The expression “press hard against” could also be translated as, “shove with force” or “push strongly against.”
- To “oppress people with hard labor” could be translated as, “force people to work so hard that they suffer” or “cause people to suffer by forcing them to do very difficult work.”
- A different kind of “hard labor” is experienced by a woman who is about to deliver a baby. See the link to “labor pains” below.

harvest

Definition:

The term “harvest” refers to the gathering in of ripe fruits or vegetables from the plants on which they were growing.

- The harvest time normally happens at the end of a growing season.
- The Israelites held a “Festival of Harvest” or “Festival of Ingathering” to celebrate the reaping of the food crops. God commanded them to offer the first fruits of these crops as a sacrifice to him.
- In a figurative sense, the word “harvest” can refer to people coming to believe in Jesus or can describe a person’s spiritual growth.
- The idea of a harvest of spiritual crops fits with the figurative image of fruits being a picture of godly character qualities.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the word that is commonly used in the language to refer to the harvesting of crops.
- The event of harvesting could be translated as, “time of gathering in” or “crop gathering time” or “fruit picking time.”
- The verb “to harvest” could be translated as, “to gather in” or “to pick up” or “to collect.”

heal, cure

Definition:

The terms “heal” and “cure” both mean to cause a sick, wounded, or disabled person to be healthy again.

- A person who is “healed” or “cured” has been “made well” or “made healthy.”
- Healing can happen naturally since God gave our bodies the ability to recover from many kinds of wounds and diseases. This kind of healing usually happens slowly.
- However, certain conditions such as being blind or paralyzed, and certain serious diseases such as leprosy do not heal on their own. When people are healed of these things, it is a miracle that usually happens suddenly.
- For example, Jesus healed many people who were blind or lame or diseased and they became well right away.
- The apostles also healed people miraculously, such as when Peter caused a crippled man to immediately be able to walk.

- [32-14] She had heard that Jesus had healed many sick people and thought, “I’m sure that if I can just touch Jesus’ clothes, then I will be healed, too!”
- [44-03] Immediately, God healed the lame man, and he began to walk and jump around, and to praise God.
- [44-08] Peter answered them, “This man stands before you healed by the power of Jesus the Messiah.”
- [49-02]] Jesus did many miracles that prove he is God. He walked on water, calmed storms, healed many sick people, drove out demons, raised the dead to life, and turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food for over 5,000 people.

heart

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “heart” is often used figuratively to refer to a person’s thoughts, emotions, desires, or will.

- To have a “hard heart” is a common expression that means a person stubbornly refuses to obey God.
- The expressions “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” mean to do something with no holding back, with complete commitment and willingness.
- The expression, “take it to heart” means to treat something seriously and apply it to one’s life.
- The term “brokenhearted” describes a person who is very sad. They have been deeply hurt emotionally.

Translation Suggestions

- Some languages use a different body part such as “stomach” or “liver” to refer to these ideas.
- Other languages may use one word to express some of these concepts and another word to express others.
- If “heart” or other body part does not have this meaning, some languages may need to express this nonfiguratively with terms such as “thoughts” or “emotions” or “desires.”
- Depending on the context, “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” could be translated as, “with all my energy” or “with complete dedication” or “completely” or “with total commitment.”
- The expression “take it to heart” could be translated as “treat it seriously” or “carefully think about it.”
- The expression “hard-hearted” could also be translated as, “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to obey” or “continually disobeying God.”
- Ways to translate “brokenhearted” could include, “very sad” or “feeling deeply hurt.”

heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

Definition:

The term that is translated as “heaven” refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean “sky,” depending on the context.

- The term “heavens” refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we can’t directly see from the earth.
- The term “sky” refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be “up in the sky.”
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word “heaven” could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.
- When “heaven” is used figuratively, it is a way of referring to God. For example, when Matthew writes about the “kingdom of heaven” he is referring to the kingdom of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When “heaven” is used figuratively, it could be translated as “God.”
- For “kingdom of heaven” in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word “heaven” since this is distinctive to Matthew’s gospel.
- The terms “heavens” or “heavenly bodies” could also be translated as, “sun, moon, and stars” or “all the stars in the universe.”
- The phrase, “stars of heaven” could be translated as “stars in the sky” or “stars in the galaxy” or “stars in the universe.”

heir

Definition:

An “heir” is a person who legally receives property or money that belongs to a person who has died.

- In Bible times, the main heir was the firstborn son, who received most of the property and money of his father.
- The Bible also uses “heir” in a figurative sense to refer to Christians receiving spiritual benefits from God as their spiritual father.
- As God’s children, Christians are said to be “joint heirs” with Jesus Christ. This could also be translated as, “co-heirs” or “fellow heirs” or “heirs together with.”
- The term “heir” could be translated as “person receiving benefits” or whatever expression is used in the language to communicate the meaning of someone who receives property and other things when a parent or other relative dies.

hell, lake of fire

Definition:

Hell is the final place of unending pain and suffering where God will punish everyone who rebels against him and rejects his plan of saving them through Jesus' sacrifice. It is also referred to as the "lake of fire."

- Hell is described as a place of fire and severe suffering.
- Satan and the evil spirits who follow him will be thrown into hell for eternal punishment.
- People who do not believe in Jesus' sacrifice for their sin, and trust in him to save them, will be punished forever in hell.

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms should probably be translated differently since they occur in different contexts.
- Some languages cannot use "lake" in the phrase "lake of fire" because it refers to water.
- The term "hell" could be translated as "place of suffering" or "final place of darkness and pain."
- The term "lake of fire" could also be translated as, "sea of fire" or "huge fire (of suffering)" or "field of fire."

Herod Antipas

Facts:

During most of Jesus' lifetime, Herod Antipas was the ruler of the part of the Roman Empire that included Galilee province.

- Like his father Herod the Great, Antipas was sometimes referred to as “King Herod” even though he was not really a king.
- Herod Antipas ruled one-fourth of the Roman Empire and so he was also called “Herod the tetrarch.”
- Antipas is the “Herod” who gave the order for John the Baptist to be killed by beheading.
- It was also Herod Antipas who questioned Jesus before his crucifixion.
- The other Herods in the New Testament were Antipas' son (Agrippa) and grandson (Agrippa 2) who ruled during the time of the apostles.

Herod the Great

Facts:

Herod the Great was ruling over Judea at the time Jesus was born. He was the first of several Edomite rulers named Herod who ruled over parts of the Roman Empire.

- His ancestors converted to Judaism and he was raised as a Jew.
- Caesar Augustus named him “King Herod” even though he was not a true king. He ruled over the Jews in Judea for 33 years.
- Herod the Great was known for the beautiful buildings he ordered to be built, including the rebuilding of the Jewish temple in Jerusalem.
- This Herod was very cruel and he had many people killed. When he heard that a “king of the Jews” had been born in Bethlehem, he had all the baby boys in that town killed.
- His sons, Herod Antipas and Herod Philip, and his grandson Herod Agrippa also became Roman rulers. His great-grandson Herod Agrippa II (called “King Agrippa”) ruled over the entire area of Judea.

holy, holiness

Definition:

The terms “holy” and “holiness” refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- Since God is holy, people cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because they are mere human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “holy” might include, “set apart for God” or “belonging to God” or “completely pure” or “perfectly sinless” or “separated from sin.”
- To “make holy” is often translated as “sanctify” in English. It could also be translated as “set apart (someone) for God’s glory.”

holy place, most holy place

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “the holy place” and “the most holy place” refer to the two parts of the tabernacle or temple building.

- The “holy place” was the first room and it contained the altar of incense and the table with the special “bread of the presence” on it.
- The “most holy place” was the second, innermost room and it contained the ark of the covenant.
- A thick, heavy curtain separated the outer room from the inner room.
- The high priest was the only one who was permitted to go into the most holy place.
- Sometimes “holy place” refers to the both the building and courtyard areas of either the temple or tabernacle. It can also refer generally to any place that is set apart for God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “holy place” could also be translated as, “room set apart for God” or “special room for meeting God” or “place reserved for God.”
- The term, “most holy place” could be translated as, “room that is the most set apart for God” or “most special room for meeting God.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate the general expression “a holy place” could include, “a consecrated place” or “a place that God has set apart” or “a place in the temple complex, which is holy” or “a courtyard of God’s holy temple.”

Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord

Facts:

These terms all refer to the Holy Spirit, who is God. The one true God exists eternally as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

- The Holy Spirit is also referred to as, “the Spirit” and “Spirit of Yahweh” and “Spirit of truth.”
- Because the Holy Spirit is God, he is absolutely holy, infinitely pure, and morally perfect in all his nature and in everything he does.
- Along with the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit was active in creating the world.
- When God’s Son, Jesus, returned to heaven, God sent the Holy Spirit to his people to lead them, teach them, comfort them, and enable them to do God’s will.
- The Holy Spirit guided Jesus and he guides those who believe in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could simply be translated with the words used to translate “holy” and “spirit.”
- Ways to translate this term could also include, “Pure Spirit” or “Spirit who is Holy” or “God the Spirit.”

honey, honeycomb

Definition:

Honey is the sweet, sticky, edible substance that honeybees make out of flower nectar. Honeycomb is the waxy frame where the bees store honey.

- Depending on the kind, honey can be yellowish or brownish in color.
- Honey can be found in the wild, such as in the hollow of a tree, or wherever the bees make a nest. People also raise bees in hives in order to produce honey to eat or sell, but probably the honey mentioned in the Bible was wild honey.
- Three people that the Bible specifically mentions as eating wild honey were Jonathan, Samson, and John the Baptist.
- This term is often used figuratively to describe something that is sweet or very pleasurable. For example, God's words and decrees are said to be "sweeter than honey." (See also: Simile, Metaphor)
- Sometimes a person's words are described as seeming sweet like honey, but instead result in deceiving and harming others.

image, carved image, carved figure, cast metal figure

Definition:

These terms are all used to refer to idols that have been made for worshiping a false god. In the context of worshiping idols, the term “image” is a shortened form of “carved image.”

- A “carved image” or “carved figure” is a wooden object that has been made to look like an animal, person, or thing.
- A “cast metal figure” is an object or statue created by melting metal and pouring it into a mold that is in the shape of an object, animal, or person.
- These wooden and metal objects were used in the worship of false gods.
- The term “image” when referring to an idol could either refer to a wooden or metal idol.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to an idol, the term “image” could also be translated as “statue” or “engraved idol” or “carved religious object.”
- It may be more clear in some languages to always use a descriptive word with this term, such as “carved image” or “cast metal figure,” even in places where only the term “image” or “figure” is in the original text.
- Make sure it is clear that this term is different than the term used to refer to being in the image of God.

inherit, inheritance, heritage, heir

Definition:

The terms “inherit” and “inheritance” refer to receiving something valuable from a parent or other person because of a special relationship with that person. The “heir” is the person who receives the inheritance.

- A physical inheritance that is received may be money, land, or other kinds of property.
- A spiritual inheritance is everything that God gives people who trust in Jesus, including blessings in the present life as well as eternal life with him.
- The Bible also calls God’s people his inheritance, which means that they belong to him; they are his valued possession.
- God promised Abraham and his descendants that they would inherit the land of Canaan, that it would belong to them forever.
- There is also a figurative or spiritual sense in which people who belong to God are said to “inherit the land.” This means that they will prosper and be blessed by God in both physical and spiritual ways.
- In the New Testament, God promises that those who trust in Jesus will “inherit salvation” and “inherit eternal life.” It is also expressed as, “inherit the kingdom of God.” This is a spiritual inheritance that lasts forever.
- There are other figurative meanings for these terms:
 - The Bible says that wise people will “inherit glory” and righteous people will “inherit good things.”
 - To “inherit the promises” means to receive the good things that God has promised to give his people.
 - This term is also used in a negative sense to refer to foolish or disobedient people who “inherit the wind” or “inherit folly.” This means they receive the consequences of their sinful actions, including punishment and worthless living.

Translation Suggestions:

- As always, consider first whether there are already terms in the target language for the concept of an heir or an inheritance and use those terms.
- Depending on the context, other ways that the term “inherit” could be translated might include, “receive” or “possess” or “come into possession of.”
- Ways to translate “inheritance” could include, “promised gift” or “secure possession.”
- When God’s people are referred to as his inheritance this could be translated as, “valued ones belonging to him.”
- The term “heir” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “privileged child who receives the father’s possessions” or “person chosen to receive (God’s) spiritual possessions or blessings.”
- The term “heritage” could be translated as, “blessings from God” or “inherited blessings.”

Jehoram, Joram

Facts:

Jehoram was the name of two different kings in the Old Testament. Both these kings were also known as “Joram.”

- One King Jehoram ruled over the kingdom of Judah for eight years. He was the son of King Jehoshaphat. This is the king that is most commonly known as Jehoram.
- The other King Jehoram ruled over the kingdom of Israel for twelve years. He was the son of King Ahab.
- King Jehoram of Judah reigned during the time that the prophets Jeremiah, Daniel, Obadiah, and Ezekiel were prophesying in the kingdom of Judah.
- Jehoram also reigned during some of the time that his father King Jehoshaphat was reigning over Judah.
- Some translations may choose to consistently use the name “Jehoram” when this king of Israel is mentioned and the name “Joram” for the king of Judah.
- Another way to clearly identify each one would be to include the name of his father.

Jehoshaphat

Facts:

Jehoshaphat is the name of at least two men in the Old Testament.

- The most well-known man by this name was King Jehoshaphat who was the fourth king to rule over the kingdom of Judah.
- He restored peace between Judah and Israel, and destroyed the altars of false gods.
- Another Jehoshaphat was a “recorder” for David and Solomon. His job included writing documents for the king to sign and recording the history of the important events that happened in the kingdom.

Jeremiah

Facts:

Jeremiah was a prophet of God in the kingdom of Judah. The Old Testament book of Jeremiah contains his prophecies.

- Like most of the prophets, Jeremiah often had to warn the people of Israel that God was going to punish them for their sins.
- Jeremiah prophesied that the Babylonians would capture Jerusalem, which made some of the people of Judah angry. So they put him in a deep, dry well and left him there to die. But the king of Judah ordered his servants to rescue Jeremiah from the well.
- Jeremiah wrote that he wished his eyes could be a “fountain of tears,” to express his deep sadness over the rebellion and sufferings of his people.

Jerusalem

Facts:

Jerusalem was originally an ancient Canaanite city that later became the most important city in Israel. It is located about 34 kilometers west of the Salt Sea and just north of Bethlehem. It is still the capital city of present-day Israel.

- The name, “Jerusalem” is first mentioned in the book of Joshua. Other Old Testament names for this city include “Salem”, “city of Jebus,” and “Zion.” Both “Jerusalem” and “Salem” have the root meaning of “peace.”
- Jerusalem was originally a Jebusite fortress called “Zion” which King David captured and made into his capital city.
- David’s son Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, which was the mountain where Abraham had offered his son Isaac to God. The temple was rebuilt there after it was destroyed by the Babylonians.
- Because the temple was in Jerusalem, the major Jewish festivals were celebrated there.
- People normally referred to going “up” to Jerusalem since it was located in the mountains.

Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

Facts:

Jesus is God's Son. The name "Jesus" means, "Yahweh saves." The term "Christ" is a title that means "anointed one" and is another word for the Messiah.

- The two names are often combined as "Jesus Christ" or "Christ Jesus." These names emphasize that God's Son is the Messiah who came to save people from being punished eternally for their sins.
- In a miraculous way, the Holy Spirit caused the eternal Son of God to be born as a human being. His earthly parents were told by an angel to call him "Jesus" because he was destined to save people from their sins.
- Jesus did many miracles that revealed that he is God and that he is the Christ, or Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:

- Many languages spell "Jesus" and "Christ" in a way that keeps the sounds or spelling as close to the original as possible. For example, "Jesucristo," "Jezus Christus," "Yesus Kristus", and "Hesukristo" are some of the ways that these names are translated into different languages.
- For the term, "Christ," some languages may prefer to use some form of the term "Messiah" throughout.
- Also consider how these names are spelled in a nearby local or national language.

Jew, Jewish, Jews

Facts:

Jews are people who are descendants of Abraham's grandson, Jacob. The word "Jew" comes from the word "Judah."

- People began to call the Israelites "Jews" after they returned to Judah from their exile in Babylon.
- Jesus the Messiah was Jewish. However, the Jewish religious leaders rejected Jesus and demanded that he be killed.
- Often the phrase "the Jews" refers to the leaders of the Jews, not all the Jewish people. In those contexts, some translations add "leaders of" to make this clear.

John (the apostle)

Facts:

John was one of Jesus' twelve apostles and one of Jesus' closest friends.

- John and his brother James were the sons of a fisherman named Zebedee.
- In the gospel that he wrote about Jesus' life, John referred to himself as "the disciple whom Jesus loved." This seems to indicate that John was an especially close friend to Jesus.
- The apostle John wrote five of the books in the New Testament: the gospel of John, the Revelation of Jesus Christ, and three letters written to other believers.
- Note that the apostle John was a different person than John the Baptist.

John (the Baptist)

Facts:

John was the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth. Since “John” was a common name, he is often called “John the Baptist” to distinguish him from the other people named John, such as the Apostle John.

- John was the prophet whom God sent to prepare people to believe in and follow the Messiah.
- John told people to confess their sins, turn to God, and stop sinning, so that they would be ready to receive the Messiah.
- John baptized many people in water as a sign that they were sorry for their sins and were turning away from them.
- John was called “John the Baptist” because he baptized many people.
- Make sure that people will understand that “the Baptist” does not refer to the church by this name. It may be necessary to say, instead, “John the Baptizer” or “John who baptizes.”

Jonah

Definition:

Jonah was a Hebrew prophet in the Old Testament.

- The book of Jonah tells the story of when God sent Jonah to preach to the people of Nineveh.
- Jonah refused to go to Nineveh and instead got on a ship headed for a different city.
- God caused a huge storm to overwhelm that ship.
- When the men sailing the ship found out that Jonah was disobeying God, they threw him into the sea and the storm stopped.
- Jonah was swallowed by a huge fish and he was inside the belly of that fish for three days and nights.
- After that, Jonah went to Nineveh and preached to the people there, and they turned from their sins.

Judea

Facts:

The term “Judea” refers to an area of land in ancient Israel. It is sometimes used in a narrow sense and other times in a broader sense.

- Sometimes “Judea” is used in a narrow sense to refer only to the province located in the southern part of ancient Israel just west of the Dead Sea. Some translations call this province “Judah.”
- Other times “Judea” has a broader sense and refers to all the provinces of ancient Israel, including Galilee, Samaria, Perea, Idumea and Judea (Judah).
- If translators want to make the distinction clear, the broader sense of Judea (ex. Luke 1:5) could be translated as “Judea Country” and the narrow sense (ex. Luke 1:39) could be translated as “Judea Province” or “Judah Province” since this is the part of the land of ancient Israel where the tribe of Judah had originally lived.

judge, judgment

Definition:

The terms “judge” and “judgment” often refer to making a decision about whether something is morally right or wrong.

- The “judgment of God” often refers to his decision to condemn something or someone as sinful.
- God’s judgment usually includes punishing people for their sin.
- The term “judge” can also mean “condemn.” God instructs his people not to judge each other in this way.
- Another meaning is “arbitrate between” or “judge between,” as in deciding which person is right in a dispute between them.
- In some contexts, God’s “judgments” are what he has decided is right and just. They are similar to his decrees, laws, or precepts.
- “Judgment” can refer to wise decision-making ability. A person who lacks “judgment” does not have the wisdom to make wise decisions.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “to judge” could include, “to decide” or “to condemn” or “to punish” or “to decree.”
- The term “judgment” could be translated as, “punishment” or “decision” or “verdict” or “decree” or “condemnation.”
- In some contexts, the phrase “in the judgment” could also be translated as “on judgment day” or “during the time when God judges people.”

justify, justification

Definition:

The terms “justify” and “justification” refer to causing a guilty person to be righteous. Only God can truly justify people.

- When God justifies people, he forgives their sins and makes it as though they have no sin. He justifies sinners who repent and trust in Jesus to save them from their sins.
- “Justification” refers to what God does when he forgives a person’s sins and declares that person to be righteous in his sight.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “justify” could include, “declare (someone) to be righteous” or “cause (someone) to be righteous.”
- The term “justification” could be translated as, “being declared righteous” or “becoming righteous” or “causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “resulting in justification” could be translated as, “so that God justified many people” or “which resulted in God causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “for our justification” could be translated as, “in order that we could be made righteous by God.”

kind, kinds

Definition:

The terms “kind” and “kinds” refer to groups or classifications of things that are connected by shared characteristics.

- In the Bible, this term is specifically used to refer to the distinctive kinds of plants and animals that God made when he created the world.
- Often there are many different variations or species within each “kind.” For example, horses, zebras, and donkeys are all members of the same “kind,” but they are different species.
- The main thing that distinguishes each “kind” as a separate group is that members of that group can reproduce more of their same “kind.” Members of different kinds cannot do that with each other.

Translation Suggestions

- Ways to translate this term could include, “type” or “class” or “group” or “animal (plant) group” or “category.”
- The word “species” would not be an accurate translation of this term, since “kind” is a more general category, with several species within it.

kingdom

Definition:

A kingdom is a group of people ruled by a king. It also refers to the realm or political regions over which a king or other ruler has control and authority.

- A kingdom can be of any geographical size. A king might govern a nation or country or only one city.
- The term “kingdom” can also refer to a spiritual reign or authority, as in the term “kingdom of God.”
- God is the ruler of all creation, but the term “kingdom of God” especially refers to his reign and authority over the people who have believed in Jesus and who have submitted to his authority.
- The Bible also talks about Satan having a “kingdom” in which he temporarily rules over many things on this earth. His kingdom is evil and is referred to as “darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a physical region that is ruled over by a king, the term “kingdom” could be translated as, “country (ruled by a king)” or “king’s territory” or “region ruled by a king.”
- In a spiritual sense, “kingdom” could be translated as “ruling” or “reigning” or “controlling” or “governing.”
- One way to translate “kingdom of priests” might be, “spiritual priests who are ruled by God.”
- The phrase, “kingdom of light” could be translated as, “God’s reign that is good like light” or “when God, who is light, rules people” or “the light and goodness of God’s kingdom.” It is best to keep the word “light” in this expression since that is a very important term in the Bible.
- Note that the term “kingdom” is different from an empire, in which an emperor rules over several countries.

- [18-04] God was angry with Solomon and, as a punishment for Solomon’s unfaithfulness, he promised to divide the nation of Israel in two kingdoms after Solomon’s death.

- [18-07] Ten of the tribes of the nation of Israel rebelled against Rehoboam. Only two tribes remained faithful to him. These two tribes became the kingdom of Judah.
- [18-08] The other ten tribes of the nation of Israel that rebelled against Rehoboam appointed a man named Jeroboam to be their king. They set up their kingdom in the northern part of the land and were called the kingdom of Israel.
- [21-08] A king is someone who rules over a kingdom and judges the people.

kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

Definition:

The terms “kingdom of God” and “kingdom of heaven” both refer to God’s rule and authority over his people and over all creation.

- The Jews often used the term “heaven” to refer to God, to avoid saying his name directly. (See: Metonymy)
- In the NT book that Matthew wrote, he referred to God’s kingdom as “the kingdom of heaven,” probably because he was writing primarily for a Jewish audience.
- The kingdom of God refers to God ruling people spiritually as well as ruling over the physical world.
- The Old Testament prophets said that God would send the Messiah to rule with righteousness. Jesus, the Son of God, is the Messiah who will rule over God’s kingdom forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “kingdom of God” can be translated as “God’s rule (as king)” or “when God reigns as king” or “God’s rule over everything.”
- The term “kingdom of heaven” could also be translated as “God’s rule from heaven as king” or “God in heaven reigning” or “heaven’s reign” or “heaven ruling over everything.” If it is not possible to translate this simply and clearly, the phrase “kingdom of God” could be translated instead.
- Some translations may prefer to capitalize “Heaven” to show that it refers to God. Others may include a note in the text such as, “kingdom of heaven (that is, ‘of God’).”
- A footnote at the bottom of the page of a printed Bible may also be used to explain the meaning of “heaven” in this expression.

lamp

Definition:

The term “lamp” generally refers to something that produces light. The lamps used in Bible times were usually oil lamps.

The type of lamp that was used in Bible times is a small container with a fuel source, usually oil, that gives light when it burns.

- Ordinary oil lamps were usually made out of a common piece of pottery filled with olive oil, with a wick placed in the oil to burn.
- For some lamps, the pot or jar was oval-shaped, with one end pinched close together to hold the wick.
- An oil lamp could be carried or placed on a stand so that its light could fill a room or house.
- In scripture, lamps are used in several figurative ways as symbols of light and life.

lampstand

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “lampstand” generally refers to a structure on which a lamp is placed in order to provide light to a room.

- A simple lampstand usually held one lamp and was made of clay, wood, or metal (such as bronze, silver, or gold.)
- In the Jerusalem temple was a special gold lampstand which had seven branches for holding seven lamps.

Translation Suggestions

- This term could be also translated as, “lamp pedestal” or “structure for holding a lamp” or “lamp holder.”
- For the temple lampstand, this could be translated as, “seven-lamp lampstand” or “gold pedestal with seven lamps.”
- It would also be helpful in a translation to include pictures of a simple lampstand and a seven-branch lampstand in the relevant Bible passages.

lawful, lawfully, unlawful

Definition:

The term “lawful” refers to something that is permitted to be done according to a law or other requirement. The opposite of this is “unlawful” which simply means “not lawful.”

- In the Bible, if something is said to be “lawful” it means it is permitted by God’s moral law, or by the Law of Moses and other Jewish laws. Something that is “unlawful” is “not permitted” by those laws.
- To do something “lawfully” means to do it “properly” or “in the right way.”
- Many of the things that the Jewish laws considered lawful or not lawful were not in agreement with God’s laws about loving others.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “lawful” could include, “permitted” or “according to God’s law” or “following our laws” or “proper” or “fitting.”
- The phrase “Is it lawful” could also be translated as “Do our laws allow” or “Is that something our laws permit?”

law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh

Definition:

All these terms refer to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey. The terms “law” and “God’s law” are also used more generally to refer to everything God wants his people to obey.

- Depending on the context, the “law” can refer to:
 - the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites.
 - all the laws given to Moses
 - the first five books of the Old Testament.
 - the entire Old Testament (also referred to as “scriptures” in the New Testament).
 - all of God’s instructions and will.
- The phrase “the law and the prophets” is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or “Old Testament”).

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms could be translated using the plural, “laws” since they refer to many instructions.
- The “law of Moses” could be translated as “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Depending on the context, “the law of Moses” could also be translated as, “the law that God told to Moses” or “God’s laws that Moses wrote down” or “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Ways to translate “the law” or “law of God” or “God’s laws” could include: “laws from God” or “God’s commands” or “laws that God gave” or “everything that God commands” or “all of God’s instructions”
- The phrase, “law of Yahweh” could also be translated as, “Yahweh’s laws” or “laws that Yahweh said to obey” or “laws from Yahweh” or “things Yahweh commanded.”

learned men, astrologers

Definition:

In Matthew's account of the birth of Christ, these "learned" or "educated" men were the "wise men" who brought gifts to Jesus in Bethlehem sometime after his birth there. They may have been "astrologers," which are people who study the stars.

- These men traveled a long way from a country far to the east of Israel. It is not known exactly where they came from or who they were. But they were obviously scholars who had studied the stars.
- They may have been descendants of the wise men who served the Babylonian kings in Daniel's time and who were trained in many things, including studying the stars and interpreting dreams.
- Traditionally it has been said that there were three wise men or learned men because of the three gifts they brought to Jesus. However, the Bible text does not say how many there were.

leprosy, leper, leprous

Definition:

The term “leprosy” is used in the Bible to refer to several different skin diseases. A “leper” is a person who has leprosy. The term “leprous” describes a person or body part that is infected with leprosy.

- Certain kinds of leprosy cause the skin to become discolored with white patches, as when Miriam and Naaman had leprosy.
- In modern times, leprosy often causes hands, feet, and other body parts to become damaged and deformed.
- According to the instructions that God gave to the Israelites, when a person had leprosy, he was considered “unclean” and had to stay away from other people so that they would not become infected with the disease.
- A leper would often call out “unclean” so that others would be warned not to come near him.
- Jesus healed many lepers, along with other kinds of diseases.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “leprosy” in the Bible can be translated as “skin disease” or “dreaded skin disease.”
- Ways to translate “leprous” could include, “full of leprosy” or “infected with skin disease” or “covered with skin sores.”

life, live, living, alive

Definition:

All these terms refer to being physically alive, not dead. They are also used figuratively to refer to being alive spiritually. The following discusses what is meant by “physical life” and “spiritual life.”

1. Physical life

- Physical life is the presence of the spirit in the body. God breathed life into Adam’s body, and he became a living being.
- A “life” can also refer to an individual person, as in, “a life was saved”.
- Sometimes the word “life” refers to the experience of living, as in, “his life was enjoyable.”
- It can also refer to a person’s lifespan as in the expression, “the end of his life.”
- The term “living” may refer to being physically alive as in, “my mother is still living.” It may also refer to dwelling somewhere as in, “they were living in the city.”
- In the Bible, the concept of “life” is often contrasted with the concept of “death.”

2. Spiritual life

- A person has spiritual life when he believes in Jesus and God gives that person a transformed life with the Holy Spirit living in him.
- This life is also called “eternal life” to indicate that it does not end.
- The opposite of spiritual life is spiritual death, which means being separated from God and experiencing eternal punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “life” can be translated as “existence” or “person” or “soul” or “being” or “experience.”
- The term “live” could be translated by “dwell” or “reside” or “exist.”
- The expression “end of his life” could be translated as, “when he stopped living.”
- The expression “spared their lives’ could be translated as, “allowed them to live” or “did not kill them.”
- The expression “they risked their lives” could be translated as, “they put themselves in danger” or “they did something that could have killed them.”
- When the Bible text talks about being alive spiritually, “life” could be translated as “spiritual life” or “eternal life,” depending on the context.
- The concept of “spiritual life” could also be translated as, “God making us alive in our spirits” or “new life by God’s Spirit” or “being made alive in our inner self.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “give life” could also be translated as, “cause to live” or “give eternal life” or “cause to live eternally.”

light

Definition:

There are several figurative uses of the term “light” in the Bible. It is often used as a metaphor for righteousness, holiness, and truth. (See: Metaphor)

- Jesus said, “I am the light of the world” to express that he brings God’s true message to the world and rescues people from the darkness of their sin.
- Christians are commanded to “walk in the light,” which means they should be living the way God wants them to and avoiding evil.
- The apostle John stated that “God is light,” and there is no darkness in him.
- Light and darkness are completely opposite. Darkness is the absence of all light.
- Jesus said that he is “the light of the world” and that his followers should shine like lights in the world, by living in a way that clearly shows how great God is.
- “Walking in the light” represents living in a way that pleases God, doing what is good and right. Walking in darkness represents living in rebellion against God, doing evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- When translating, it is important to keep the literal terms “light” and “darkness” even when they are used figuratively.
- It may be necessary to explain the comparison in the text. For example, “walk as children of light” could be translated as, “live openly righteous lives, like someone who walks in bright sunlight.”
- Make sure that the translation of “light” does not refer to an object that gives light, such as a lamp. The translation of this term should refer to the light itself.

like, likeness

Definition:

The terms “like” and “likeness” refer to something being the same as, or similar to, something else.

- The word “like” is also often used in a figurative expressions called a “simile” in which something is compared to something else, usually highlighting a shared characteristic. For example, “his clothes shined like the sun” and “the voice boomed like thunder.” (See: Simile)
- To “be like” or “sound like” or “look like” something or someone means to have qualities that are similar to the thing or person being compared to.
- People were created in God’s “likeness,” that is, in his “image.” It means that they have qualities or characteristics that are “like” or “similar to” qualities that God has, such as the ability to think, feel, and communicate.
- To have “the likeness of” something or someone means to have characteristics that look like that thing or person.

Translation Suggestions

- In some contexts, the expression, “the likeness of” could be translated as, “what looked like” or “what appeared to be.”
- The expression, “in the likeness of his death” could be translated as, “sharing in the experience of his death” or “as if experiencing his death with him.”
- The expression “in the likeness of sinful flesh” could be translated as “being like a sinful human being” or “to be a human being.” Make sure the translation of this expression does not sound like Jesus was sinful.
- “In his own likeness” could also be translated as “to be like him” or “having many of the same qualities that he has.”
- The expression “the likeness of an image of perishable man, of birds, of four-footed beasts and of creeping things” could be translated as “idols made to look like perishable humans, or animals, such as birds, beasts, and small, crawling things.”

lord, master, sir

Definition:

The term “lord” refers to someone who has ownership or authority over other people.

- This word is sometimes translated as “master” when addressing Jesus or when referring to someone who owns slaves.
- Some English versions translate this as “sir” in contexts where someone is politely addressing someone of higher status.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term should be translated as “master” when it refers to a person who owns slaves. It could also be used by a servant to address the person he works for.
- When it refers to Jesus, it could be translated as “master” if the context shows it means “religious teacher.”
- If the person addressing Jesus does not know him, “lord” could be translated as “sir.” This translation would also be used for other contexts in which a polite form of address to a man is called for.
- When referring to God the Father or to Jesus, this term is written as “Lord” (capitalized).

Lord

Facts:

The term “Lord” refers to someone who has ownership or authority over people. When it is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note however that when used as a form of addressing someone or at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of “sir” or “master.”)

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as, “Lord God Almighty” or “Lord Yahweh” or “Yahweh our Lord.”
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as, “Lord Jesus” and “Lord Jesus Christ,” which communicate that Jesus is God.
- The term “Lord” in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has, “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh” and the New Testament text has, “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”
- In the ULB and UDB, the title, “Lord” is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean “Lord.” It is never used as a translation of God’s name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages translate this term as “Master” or “Ruler” or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme ruler.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.
- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term “Lord God” could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

lots, casting lots

Definition:

A “lot” is a marked object that is chosen from among other similar objects as a way of deciding something. “Casting lots” referred to tossing marked objects onto the ground or other surface.

- Often the lots were small marked stones or pieces of broken pottery.
- Some cultures “draw” or “pull out” lots using a bunch of straws. Someone holds the straws so that no one can see how long they are. Each person pulls out a straw and the one who picks the longest (or shortest) straw is the one who is chosen.
- The practice of casting lots was used by the Israelites to find out what God wanted them to do.
- As in the time of Zechariah and Elizabeth, it was also used to choose which priest would perform a specific duty in the temple at a specific time.
- The soldiers who crucified Jesus cast lots to decide who would get to keep Jesus’ robe.
- The phrase “casting lots” can be translated as “tossing lots” or “drawing lots” or “rolling lots.” Make sure the translation of “cast” does not sound like the lots were being thrown a long distance.
- Depending on the context, the term “lot” could also be translated as “marked stone” or “pottery piece” or “stick” or “piece of straw.”
- If a decision is made “by lot” this could be translated as, “by drawing (or throwing) lots.”

love

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for “love” which some languages may express using different words:

1. The kind of love that comes from God is focused on the good of others, even when it doesn’t benefit oneself. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.

- Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
- When people love others with this kind of love, it involves actions that show that someone is thinking of what will cause the other person to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
- In the ULB, the word “love” refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.

2. Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love or love for a friend or family member.

- This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
- It can also be used in such contexts as, “They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet.” This means that they “like very much” or “greatly desire” to do that.

3. The word “love” can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.

4. In the figurative expression, “Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated,” the term “loved” refers to God’s choosing of Jacob to be in a covenant relationship with him. This could also be translated as “chosen.” Although Esau was also blessed by God, he wasn’t given the privilege of being in the covenant. The term “hated” is used figuratively here to mean “rejected” or “not chosen.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word “love” in the ULB refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, “devoted, faithful caring” or “care for unselfishly” or “love from God.” Make sure that the word used to translate God’s love can include giving up one’s own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word “love” describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means, “like very much” or “care for” or “have strong affection for.”
- In contexts where the word “love” is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by “strongly prefer” or “like very much” or “greatly desire.”

- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express “love” as an action. So for example, they might translate “love is patient, love is kind” as, “when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him.”

Manasseh

Facts:

There were five men by the name of Manasseh in the Old Testament:

- Manasseh was the name of Joseph's firstborn son.
- Both Manasseh and his younger brother Ephraim were adopted by Joseph's father, Jacob which gave their descendants the privilege of being among the twelve tribes of Israel.
- The descendants of Manasseh formed one of the tribes of Israel.
- The tribe of Manasseh was often called the "half-tribe of Manasseh" because only part of the tribe settled in the land of Canaan, on the west side of the Jordan River. The other part of the tribe settled on the east side of the Jordan.

- One of the kings of Judah was also named Manasseh.
- King Manasseh was an evil king who sacrificed his own children as burnt offerings to false gods.
- God punished King Manasseh by allowing him to be captured by an enemy army. Manasseh turned back to God and destroyed the altars where idols were worshiped.

- Two men named Manasseh lived during the time of Ezra. These men were required to divorce their pagan wives, who had influenced them to worship false gods.
- One other Manasseh was the grandfather of some Danites who were priests for false gods.

Mary, the mother of Jesus

Facts:

Mary was a young woman living in the city of Nazareth who was pledged to be married to a man named Joseph. God chose Mary to be the mother of Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.

- The Holy Spirit miraculously caused Mary to become pregnant while she was a virgin.
- An angel told Mary that the baby to be born to her was the Son of God and that she must name him Jesus.
- Mary loved God and praised him for being gracious to her.
- Joseph married Mary, but she remained a virgin until after the baby was born.
- Mary thought deeply about the amazing things that the shepherds and wise men said about the baby Jesus.
- Mary and Joseph took the baby Jesus to be dedicated at the temple. Later they took him to Egypt to escape King Herod's plot to kill the baby. Eventually they moved back to Nazareth.
- When Jesus was an adult, Mary was with him when he changed water to wine at a wedding in Cana.
- The gospels also mention that Mary was at the cross when Jesus was dying. He told his disciple John to take care of her like his own mother.

miracle, wonder, sign

Definition:

A “miracle” is something amazing that is not possible unless God causes it to happen.

- Examples of miracles that Jesus did include calming a storm and healing a blind man.
- Miracles are sometimes called “wonders” because they cause people to be filled with wonder or amazement.
- The term “wonder” can also refer more generally to amazing displays of God’s power, such as when he created the heavens and the earth.
- Miracles can also be called “signs” because they are used as indicators or evidence that God is the all-powerful one who has complete authority over the universe.
- Some miracles were God’s acts of redemption, such as when he rescued the Israelites from being slaves in Egypt and when he protected Daniel from being hurt by lions.
- Other wonders were God’s acts of judgment, such as when he sent a worldwide flood in Noah’s time and when he brought terrible plagues on the land of Egypt during the time of Moses.
- Many of God’s miracles were the physical healings of sick people or bringing dead people back to life.
- God’s power was shown in Jesus when he healed people, calmed storms, walked on water, and raised people from the dead. These were all miracles.
- God also enabled the prophets and the apostles to perform miracles of healing and other things that were only possible through God’s power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Possible translations of “miracles” or “wonders” could include, “impossible things that God does” or “powerful works of God” or “amazing acts of God.”
- The frequent expression “signs and wonders” could be translated as “proofs and miracles” or “miraculous works that prove God’s power” or “amazing miracles that show how great God is.”
- Note that this meaning of a miraculous sign is different from a sign that gives proof or evidence for something. The two can be related.

mourn, mourning

Facts:

The terms “mourn” and “mourning” refer to expressing deep grief, usually in response to the death of someone.

- In many cultures, mourning includes specific outward behaviors that show this sadness and grief.
- The Israelites and other people groups in ancient times expressed mourning through loud wailing and lamenting. They also wore rough clothing made of sackcloth and put ashes on themselves.
- Hired mourners, usually women, would loudly weep and wail from the time of death until well after the body was put in the tomb.
- The typical period of mourning was seven days, but could last as long as thirty days (as for Moses and Aaron) or seventy days (as for Jacob).
- The Bible also uses the term figuratively, to talk about “mourning” because of sin. This refers to feeling deeply grieved because sin hurts God and people.

nation

Definition:

A nation is a large group of people ruled by some form of government. The people of a nation often have the same ancestors and share a common ethnicity.

- The term “nation” usually includes the idea of a well-defined culture and territorial boundaries.
- In the Bible, a “nation” can be a country (like Egypt or Ethiopia), but often it is more general and refers to a people group, especially when used in the plural. It is important to check the context.
- Nations in the Bible included the Israelites, the Philistines, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Canaanites, the Romans, and the Greeks, among many others.
- Sometimes the word “nation” is used figuratively to refer to the ancestor of a certain people group, as when Rebekah was told by God that her unborn sons were “nations” that would fight against each other. This could be translated as “the founders of two nations” or the “ancestors of two people groups.”
- The word translated as “nation” is also sometimes used to refer to “Gentiles” or to people who do not worship Yahweh. The context usually makes the meaning clear.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the word “nation” could also be translated as, “people group” or “people” or “country.”
- If a language has a term for “nation” that is distinct from these other terms, then that term can be used wherever it occurs in the Bible text, as long as it is natural and accurate in each context.
- The plural term “nations” can often be translated as “people groups.”
- In certain contexts, this term could also be translated as “Gentiles” or “nonJews.”

Nazareth, Nazarene

Facts:

Nazareth is a town in the region of Galilee in northern Israel. It was about 100 kilometers north of Jerusalem, which took about three to five days to travel on foot.

- Joseph and Mary were from Nazareth, and this is where they raised Jesus. That is why Jesus was known as “the Nazarene.”
- Many of the Jews living in Nazareth did not respect Jesus’ teaching, because he had grown up among them and they thought he was just an ordinary person.
- Once when Jesus was teaching in the Nazareth synagogue, the Jews there tried to kill him because he claimed to be the Messiah and had rebuked them for rejecting him.
- Nathanael’s remark when he heard that Jesus was from Nazareth indicates that this city was not thought of very highly.

neighbor

Definition:

The term “neighbor” usually refers to a person who lives nearby. It can also refer more generally to someone who lives in the same community or people group.

- A “neighbor” is someone who would be protected and treated kindly because he is part of the same community.
- In the New Testament parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus used the term “neighbor” figuratively, expanding its meaning to include all human beings, even someone who is considered an enemy.
- If possible, it is best to translate this term literally with a word or phrase that means “person who lives nearby.”

new covenant

Definition:

The term “new covenant” refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God’s “new covenant” is explained in the part of the Bible called the “New Testament.”
- This new covenant is in contrast to the “old” or “former” covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people’s sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts of believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and they begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, like it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “new covenant” could be translated as “new formal agreement” or “new pact” or “new contract.”
- The word “new” in these expressions has the meaning of “fresh” or “new kind of” or “another.”

oath, swear, swear by

Definition:

In the Bible, an oath is a formal promise to do something. The person making the oath is required to fulfill that promise. An oath involves a commitment to being faithful and truthful.

- Often in a court of law, a witness gives an oath to promise that whatever he says will be true and factual.
- In the Bible, the term “swear” means to speak an oath.
- The term “swear by” means to use the name of something or someone as the basis or power on which the oath is made.
- Sometimes these terms are used together as in, “swear an oath.”
- Abraham and Abimelech swore an oath when they made a covenant together concerning the use of a well.
- Abraham told his servant to swear (formally promise) that he would find Isaac a wife from among Abraham’s relatives.
- God also made oaths in which he made promises to his people.
- A modern-day use of the word “swear” means to use foul language. This is not its meaning in the Bible.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “an oath” could also be translated as “a pledge” or “a solemn promise.”
- “To swear” could be translated by “to formally promise” or “to pledge” or “to commit to do something.”
- Other ways to translate “swear by my name” could include, “make a promise using my name to confirm it.”
- To “swear by heaven and earth” could be translated as, “promise to do something, stating that heaven and earth will confirm it.”

Passover

Facts:

The “Passover” is the name of a religious festival that the Jews celebrate every year, to remember how God rescued their ancestors, the Israelites, from slavery in Egypt.

- The name of this festival comes from the fact that God “passed over” the houses of the Israelites and did not kill their sons when he killed the firstborn sons of the Egyptians.
- The Passover celebration includes a special meal of a perfect lamb that they have killed and roasted, as well as bread made without yeast. These foods remind them of the meal that the Israelites ate the night before they escaped from Egypt.
- God told the Israelites to eat this meal every year in order to remember and celebrate how God “passed over” their houses and how he set them free from slavery in Egypt.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “Passover” could be translated by combining the words “pass” and “over” or another combination of words that has this meaning.
- It is helpful if the name of this festival has a clear connection to the words used to explain what the angel of the Lord did in passing by the houses of the Israelites and sparing their sons.

possess, possession

Facts:

The terms “possess” and “possession” usually refer to owning something. They can also mean to gain control over something or occupy an area of land.

- In the Old Testament, this term is often used in the context of “possessing” or “taking possession of” an area of land.
- When Yahweh commanded the Israelites to “possess” the land of Canaan, it meant that they should go into the land and live there. This involved first conquering the Canaanite peoples who were living on that land.
- Yahweh told the Israelites that he had given them the land of Canaan as “their possession.” This could also be translated as, “their rightful place to live.”
- The people of Israel were also called Yahweh’s “special possession.” This means that they belonged to him as his people whom he had specifically called to worship and serve him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The terms “possess” could also be translated as, “own” or “have” or “have charge over.”
- The phrase, “take possession of” could be translated as “take control of” or “occupy” or “live on,” depending on the context.
- When referring to things that people own, “possessions” could be translated as, “belongings” or “property” or “owned things” or “things they owned.”
- When Yahweh calls the Israelites, “my special possession” this could also be translated as “my special people” or “people who belong to me” or “my people whom I love and rule.”
- The sentence, “they will become their possession” when referring to land, means “they will occupy the land” or “the land will belong to them.”
- The expression, “found in his possession” could be translated as, “that he was holding” or “that he had with him.”
- The phrase “as your possession” could also be translated as, “as something that belongs to you” or “as a place where your people will live.”
- The phrase, “in his possession” could be translated as “that he owned” or “which belonged to him.”

power, powers

Definition:

The term “power” refers to the ability to do things or make things happen, often using great strength. “Powers” refers to people or spirits who have great ability to cause things to happen.

- The “power of God” refers to God’s ability to do everything, especially things that are not possible for people to do.
- God has complete power over everything that he has created.
- God gives his people power to do what he wants, so that when they heal people or do other miracles, they do this by the power of God.
- Because Jesus and the Holy Spirit are also God, they have this same power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “power” could also be translated as “ability” or “strength” or “energy” or “ability to do miracles” or “control.”
- Possible ways to translate the term “powers” could include, “powerful beings” or “controlling spirits” or “those who control others.”
- An expression like “save us from the power of our enemies” could be translated as, “save us from being oppressed by our enemies” or “rescue us from being controlled by our enemies.” In this case, “power” has the meaning of using one’s strength to control and oppress others.

pray, prayer

Definition:

The terms “pray” and “prayer” refer to talking with God. This term is also used to refer to people trying to talk to a false god.

- People can pray silently, talking to God with their thoughts or they can pray aloud, speaking to God with their voice. Sometimes prayers are written down, such as when David wrote his prayers in the book of Psalms.
- Prayer can include asking God for mercy, for help with a problem, for wisdom in making decisions.
- Often people ask God to heal people who are sick or who need his help in other ways.
- People also thank and praise God when they are praying to him.
- Praying includes confessing our sins to God and asking him to forgive us.
- Talking to God is sometimes called “communing” with him as our spirit communicates with his spirit, sharing our emotions and enjoying his presence.
- This term could be translated as “talking to God” or “communicating with God.” The translation of this term should be able to include praying that is silent.

priest, priesthood

Definition:

In the Bible, a priest was someone who was chosen to offer sacrifices to God on behalf of God's people. The "priesthood" was the name for the office or condition of being a priest.

- In the Old Testament, God chose Aaron and his descendants to be his priests for the people of Israel.
- The "priesthood" was a right and a responsibility that was passed down from father to son in the Levite clan.
- The Israelite priests had the responsibility of offering the people's sacrifices to God, along with other duties in the temple.
- Priests also offered regular prayers to God on behalf of his people and performed other religious rites.
- The priests pronounced formal blessings on people and taught them God's laws.
- In Jesus' time, there were different levels of priests, including the chief priests and the high priest.
- Jesus is our "great high priest" who intercedes for us in God's presence. He offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice for sin. This means that the sacrifices made by human priests are no longer needed.
- In the New Testament, every believer in Jesus is called a "priest" who can come directly to God in prayer to intercede for himself and other people.
- In ancient times, there were also pagan priests who presented offerings to false gods such as Baal.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term "priest" could be translated as "sacrifice person" or "God's intermediary" or "sacrificial mediator" or "person God appoints to represent him".
- The translation of "priest" should be different from the translation of "mediator."
- Some translations may prefer to always say something like, "Israelite priest" or "Jewish priest" or "Yahweh's priest" or "priest of Baal" to make it clear that this does not refer to a modern-day type of priest.
- The term used to translate "priest" should be different from the terms for "chief priest" and "high priest" and "Levite" and "prophet."

pure, purify, purification

Definition:

To be “pure” means to have no flaw or to have nothing mixed in that is not supposed to be there. To purify something is to cleanse it and remove anything that contaminates or pollutes it.

- In regard to Old Testament laws, “purify” and “purification” refer mainly to the cleansing from things that make an object or a person ritually unclean, such as disease, body fluids, or childbirth.
- The Old Testament also had laws telling people how to be purified from sin, usually by the sacrifice of an animal. This was only temporary and the sacrifices had to be repeated over and over again.
- In the New Testament, to be purified often refers to being cleansed from sin.
- The only way that people can be completely and permanently purified from sin is through repenting and receiving God’s forgiveness, through trusting in Jesus and his sacrifice.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “purify” could be translated as “make pure” or “cleanse” or “cleanse from all contamination” or “get rid of all sin.”
- A phrase such as, “when the time for their purification was over” could be translated as, “when they had purified themselves by waiting the required number of days.”
- The phrase, “provided purification for sins” could be translated as, “provided a way for people to be completely cleansed from their sin.”

right hand

Definition:

The figurative expression “right hand” refers to the place of honor or strength on the right side of a ruler or other important individual.

- The right hand is also used as a symbol of power, authority, or strength.
- The Bible describes Jesus as sitting “at the right hand of” God the Father as the head of the body of believers (the Church) and in control as ruler of all creation.
- A person’s right hand was used to show special honor when placed on the head of someone being given a blessing (as when the patriarch Jacob blessed Joseph’s son Ephraim).
- To “serve at the right hand” of someone means to be the one whose service is especially helpful and important to that person.

Translation Suggestions:

- Sometimes the term “right hand” literally refers to a person’s right hand, as when Roman soldiers put a staff into Jesus’ right hand to mock him. This should be translated using the term that the language uses to refer to this hand.
- Regarding figurative uses, if an expression that includes the term “right hand” does not have the same meaning in the project language, then consider whether that language has a different expression with the same meaning.
- The expression “at the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of” or “in the place of honor beside” or “in the position of strength” or “ready to help.”
- Ways to translate “with his right hand” could include, “with authority” or “using power” or “with his amazing strength.”
- The figurative expression “his right hand and his mighty arm” uses two ways of emphasizing God’s power and great strength. One way to translate this expression could be, “his amazing strength and mighty power.” (See: Parallelism)
- The expression “their right hand is falsehood” could be translated by, “even the most honorable thing about them is corrupted by lies” or “their place of honor is corrupted by deception” or “they use lies to make themselves powerful.”
- In Psalm 105:9, God calls for an accuser to be at the “right hand” of a wicked leader sent to punish his rebellious people. This could be translated as, “appoint an accuser to have the place of honor beside that wicked leader” or “appoint an accuser to help that wicked leader punish them.”

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “sacrifice” and “offering” refer to special gifts given to God as an act of worshiping him. People also offered sacrifices to false gods.

- The word “offering” generally refers to anything that is offered or given. The term “sacrifice” refers to something that is given or done at great cost to the giver.
- Offerings to God were specific things that he commanded the Israelites to give in order to express devotion and obedience to him.
- The names of the different offerings, such as “burnt offering” and “peace offering,” indicated what kind of offering was being given.
- Sacrifices to God often involved the killing of an animal.
- Only the sacrifice of Jesus, God’s perfect, sinless Son, can completely cleanse people from sin. Animal sacrifices could never do that.
- The figurative expression “offer yourselves as a living sacrifice” means, “live your life in complete obedience to God, giving up everything in order to serve him.”

Translation Suggestions

- The term “offering” could also be translated as “a gift to God” or “something given to God” or “something valuable that is presented to God.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sacrifice” could also be translated as “something valuable given in worship” or “a special animal killed and presented to God.”
- The action, “to sacrifice” could be translated as, “to give up something valuable” or “to kill an animal and give it to God.”
- Another way to translate “present yourself as a living sacrifice” could be, “As you live your life, offer yourself to God as completely as an animal that is offered on an altar.”

- [49-11] Because Jesus sacrificed himself, God can forgive any sin, even terrible sins.

Sadducee

Definition:

The Sadducees were a political group of Jewish priests during the time of Jesus Christ who supported Roman rule and who did not believe in the resurrection.

- Many Sadducees were wealthy, upper class Jews who held powerful leadership positions such as chief priest and high priest.
- The duties of the Sadducees included taking care of the temple complex and priestly tasks such as offering sacrifices.
- The Sadducees and the Pharisees strongly influenced the Roman leaders to crucify Jesus.
- Jesus spoke against these two religious groups because of their selfishness and hypocrisy.

Samaria, Samaritan

Facts:

Samaria was the name of a city and its surrounding region in the northern part of Israel. The region was located between the Plain of Sharon on the west and the Jordan River on the east.

- In the Old Testament, Samaria was the capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel. Later the region surrounding it was also called Samaria.
- When the Assyrians conquered the northern kingdom of Israel, they captured the city of Samaria and forced most of the northern Israelites to leave the region and moved them far away to different cities in Assyria.
- The Assyrians also brought many foreigners into the region of Samaria to replace the Israelites who had been moved.
- Some of the Israelites who remained in that region married the foreigners who had moved there, and their descendants were called Samaritans.
- The Jews despised the Samaritans because they were only partly Jewish and because their ancestors had worshiped pagan gods.
- In New Testament times, the region of Samaria was bordered by the region of Galilee on the north and the region of Judea on the south.

- [27-09] "The Samaritan then lifted the man onto his own donkey and took him to a roadside inn where he took care of him."
- [45-07] He (Philip) went to Samaria where he preached about Jesus and many people were saved.

sanctify, sanctification

Definition:

To sanctify is to set apart or to make holy. Sanctification is the process of being made holy.

- In the Old Testament, certain people and things were sanctified, or set apart, for service to God.
- The New Testament teaches that God sanctifies people who believe in Jesus. That is, he makes them holy and sets them apart to serve him.
- Believers in Jesus are also commanded to sanctify themselves to God, to be holy in everything they do.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term, “to sanctify” can be translated as “to set apart” or “to make holy” or “to purify.”
- When people sanctify themselves, it means that they purify themselves and dedicate themselves to God’s service. Often the word “consecrate” is used in the Bible with this meaning.
- With the meaning of “consecrate” this term could be translated as “dedicate someone (or something) to God’s service.”
- Depending on the context, the phrase, “your sanctification” could be translated as “making you holy” or “setting you apart (for God)” or “what makes you holy.”

sanctuary

Definition:

The term “sanctuary” literally means “holy place” and refers to a place that God has made sacred and holy. It also can refer to a place that provides protection and safety.

- In the Old Testament, the term “sanctuary” is often used to refer to the tabernacle or temple building where the “holy place” and “most holy place” were located.
- God referred to the sanctuary as the place where he lived among his people, the Israelites.
- He also called himself a “sanctuary” or safe place for his people where they can find protection.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term has a basic meaning of “holy place” or “place that is set apart.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sanctuary” could be translated as “holy place” or “sacred building” or “God’s holy dwelling place” or “holy place of protection” or “sacred place of safety.”
- The phrase “shekel of the sanctuary” could be translated as, “kind of shekel given for the tabernacle” or “shekel used as a tax to take care of the temple.”
- Note: Be careful that the translation of this term does not refer to a worship room in a modern day church.

sandalDefinition:

A sandal is a simple flat-soled shoe held onto the foot with straps around the foot or ankle. Sandals are worn by both men and women.

- A sandal was sometimes used to confirm a legal transaction, such as the selling of property by one man taking off a sandal and giving it to the other.
- Removing one's shoes or sandals was also a sign of respect and reverence, especially in God's presence.
- John said that he was not worthy to even untie Jesus' sandals, which would have been the task of a lowly servant or slave.

Satan, devil, evil one

Facts:

The devil is a spirit being that God created, but he rebelled against God and became God's enemy. The devil is also called "Satan" and "the evil one."

- The devil hates God and all that God created, because he wants to take the place of God and be worshiped as God.
- Satan tempts people to rebel against God.
- God sent his Son, Jesus to rescue people from Satan's control.
- The name "Satan" means "adversary" or "enemy."
- The word "devil" means "accuser."

Translation Suggestions:

- The word "devil" could also be translated as "the accuser" or "the evil one" or "the king of evil spirits" or "the chief evil spirit."
- "Satan" can be translated as "Opponent" or "Adversary" or some other name that shows that he is the devil.
- These terms should be translated differently from demon and evil spirit.

- [50-15] When Jesus returns, he will completely destroy Satan and his kingdom. He will throw Satan into hell where he will burn forever, along with everyone who chose to follow him rather than to obey God.

save, safe

Definition:

The term “save” refers to keeping someone from experiencing something bad or harmful. To “be safe” means to be protected from harm or danger.

- In a physical sense, people can be saved or rescued from harm, danger, or death.
- In a spiritual sense, if a person has been “saved,” it means that through Jesus’ death on the cross, God has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished in hell for his sin.
- People can save or rescue people from danger, but only God can save people from being punished eternally for their sins.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “save” could include, “deliver” or “keep from harm” or “take out of harm’s way” or “keep from dying.”
- In the expression, “whoever would save his life,” the term “save” could also be translated as “preserve” or “protect.”
- The term “safe” could be translated as “protected from danger” or “in a place where nothing can harm.”

- [12-13] The Israelites sang many songs to celebrate their new freedom and to praise God because he saved them from the Egyptian army.
- [16-17] This pattern repeated many times: the Israelites would sin, God would punish them, they would repent, and God would send a deliverer to save them.
- [44-08] “You crucified Jesus, but God raised him to life again! You rejected him, but there is no other way to be saved except through the power of Jesus!”
- [47-11] The jailer trembled as he came to Paul and Silas and asked, “What must I do to be saved?” Paul answered, “Believe in Jesus, the Master, and you and your family will be saved.”

- [49-12] Good works cannot save you.
- [49-13] God will save everyone who believes in Jesus and receives him as their Master. But he will not save anyone who does not believe in him.

scribe, expert in the Jewish law

Definition:

Scribes were officials who were responsible to write or copy important government or religious documents by hand. Another name for a Jewish scribe was “expert in Jewish law.”

- Scribes were responsible for copying and preserving the books of the Old Testament.
- They also copied, preserved, and interpreted religious opinions and commentary on the law of God.
- At times, scribes were important government officials.
- Important biblical scribes include Baruch and Ezra.
- In the New Testament, the term “scribes” is also translated as “teachers of the Law.”
- In the New Testament, scribes were usually part of the religious group called the “Pharisees” and the two groups are frequently mentioned together.

seed

Definition:

A seed is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant. It also has several figurative meanings.

- The term “seed” is used figuratively and euphemistically to refer to the tiny cells inside a man or woman that combine to cause a baby to grow inside the woman.
- Related to this, “seed” is also used to refer to a person’s offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared seeds to the Word of God being planted in people’s hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “seed” to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- For a literal seed, it is best to use the literal term for “seed” that is used in the target language for what a farmer plants in his field.
- The literal term should also be used in contexts where it refers figuratively to God’s Word.
- For the figurative use that refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word “descendant” or “descendants” instead of seed. Some languages may have a word that means “children and grandchildren.”
- For a man or woman’s “seed,” consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people. (See: euphemism) send, send out, sentDefinition:

To “send” is to cause someone or something to go somewhere. To “send out” someone is to tell that person to go on an errand or a mission.

- Often a person who is “sent out” has been appointed to do a specific task.
- Phrases like “send rain” or “send disaster” mean “to cause...to come.” This type of expression is usually used in reference to God causing these things to happen.
- The term “send” is also used in expressions such as “send word” or “send a message” which means to give someone a message to tell someone else.
- To “send” someone “with” something can mean to “give” that thing “to” someone else, usually moving it some distance in order for the person to receive it.
- Jesus frequently uses the phrase “the one who sent me” to refer to God the Father who “sent” him to earth to redeem and save people. This could also be translated as, “commissioned me” or “caused me to come” or “appointed me to go.”

servant, slave, slavery

Definition:

The word for “servant” can also mean “slave” and refers to a person who works for another person, either by choice or by force. The surrounding text usually makes it clear whether a servant or a slave is being referred to.

- In Bible times, there was less of a difference between a servant and a slave than there is today. Both servants and slaves were an important part of their master’s household and many were treated almost like members of the family. Sometimes a servant would choose to become a lifetime servant to his master.
- A slave is a kind of servant who is the property of the person he works for. The person who buys a slave is called his “owner” or “master.” Some masters treat their slaves very cruelly, while other masters treat their slaves very well, like a servant who is a valued member of the household.
- In ancient times, some people willingly became slaves to a person they owed money to in order to pay off their debt to that person.
- In the Bible, the phrase “I am your servant” was used as a sign of respect and service to a person of higher rank, such as a king. It does not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.
- In the Old Testament, God’s prophets and other people who worshiped God are often referred to as his “servants.”
- In the New Testament, people who obey God through faith in Christ are often called his “servants.”
- Christians are also called “slaves to righteousness,” which is a metaphor that compares the commitment to obey God to a slave’s commitment to obeying his master. (See: Metaphor) serve, serviceDefinition:

The term “serve” means to do things to help other people. It can also mean to “worship.”

- In the context of a woman serving her guests, this term means “care for” or “serve food to” or “provide food for.”
- When Jesus told the disciples to serve the fish to the people, this could be translated as, “distribute to” or “hand out to” or “give to.”¹comment_5adb7a6af206fdb7787dd58f4b215940
- The term “service” refers to the act of serving. It can also be used to refer to a “meeting” of Christians as they worship God together.
- The term “serve” can also be translated as, “minister to” or “work for” or “take care of” or “obey,” depending on the context.
- “To serve God” can be translated as “to worship and obey God” or “to do the work that God has commanded.”
- To “serve tables” means to bring food to people who are sitting at tables.
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to “serve” the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses.
- Now they “serve” the new covenant, that is, because of Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.
- Paul talks about this in terms of their “service” to either the old or new covenant. This could be translated as “serving” or “obeying” or “devotion to.”

sleep with, have relations with, lovemaking

Definition:

In the Bible, these terms are euphemisms that refer to having sexual intercourse. (See: Euphemism)

- To “sleep with” someone is a common way of referring to having sexual relations. The past tense is, “slept with.”
- In the Old Testament book, “Song of Solomon,” the ULB uses the term “lovemaking” to translate the word “love,” which in that context refers to sexual relations. This is related to the expression, “make love to.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may use different expressions of this term in different contexts, depending on whether it is talking about a husband and wife, or whether it is about some other relationship. It is important to make sure that the translation of this term has the correct meaning in each context.
- Depending on the context, expressions like these could be used to translate “sleep with”: “lie with” or “make love to” or “be intimate with.”
- Other ways to translate “have relations with” could include, “have sexual relations with” or “have marital relations with.”
- The term “lovemaking” could also be translated as, “loving” or “intimacy.” Or there may be an expression that is a natural way to translate this in the project language.
- It is important to check that the terms used to translate this concept are acceptable to the people who will be using the Bible translation.

shepherd, to shepherd

Definition:

A shepherd is a person who takes care of sheep. The verb “to shepherd” means to protect the sheep and provide them with food and water.

- Shepherds watch over the sheep, leading them to places with good food and water. Shepherds also keep the sheep from getting lost and protect them from wild animals.
- This term is often used metaphorically in the Bible to refer to taking care of people’s spiritual needs. This includes teaching them what God has told them in the Bible and guiding them in the way they should live. (See: Metaphor)
- In the Old Testament, God is called the “shepherd” of his people because he takes care of all their needs and protects them. He also leads and guides them.
- Moses was a shepherd for the Israelites as he guided them spiritually in their worship of Yahweh and led them physically on their journey to the land of Canaan.
- In the New Testament, Jesus calls himself the “good shepherd.” The apostle Paul also refers to him as the “great shepherd” over the Church.
- Also in the New Testament, the term “shepherd” is used to refer to a person who is a spiritual leader over other believers. The term “pastor” is the same word as “shepherd.” The elders and overseers were also called shepherds.

Translation Suggestions

- When used literally, the action “shepherd” could be translated as “take care of sheep” or “watch over sheep.”
- The person “shepherd” could be translated as, “person who takes care of sheep” or “sheep tender” or “sheep caregiver.”
- When used as a metaphor, different ways to translate this term could include, “spiritual shepherd” or “spiritual leader” or “one who is like a shepherd” or “one who cares for his people like a shepherd cares for his sheep” or “one who leads his people like a shepherd guides his sheep” or “one who takes care of God’s sheep.”
- In some contexts, “shepherd” could be translated as “leader” or “guide” or “caregiver.”
- The expression, “to shepherd (a flock)” could be translated as, “to take care of” or “to spiritually nourish” or “to guide and teach” or “to lead and take care of (like a shepherd cares for sheep)”
- In figurative uses, it is best to use or include the literal word for “shepherd” in the translation of this term.

sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Definition:

The term “sin” refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God’s will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people don’t know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God’s will are called “sinful.”
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a sinful nature that controls them.
- A “sinner” is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word “sinners” was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who didn’t keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term “sinner” was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sin” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “disobedience to God” or “going against God’s will” or “evil behavior and thoughts” or “wrongdoing.”
- “To sin” could also be translated as “to disobey God” or “to do wrong.”
- Depending on the context, “sinful” could be translated as “full of wrongdoing” or “wicked” or “immoral” or “evil” or “rebellious against God.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sinner” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “person who sins” or “person who does wrong things” or “person who disobeys God” or “person who disobeys the law.”
- The term “sinners” could be translated by a word or phrase that means, “very sinful people” or “people considered to be very sinful” or “immoral people.”
- Ways to translate “tax collectors and sinners” could include, “people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people” or “very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors.”
- In expressions like “slaves to sin” or “ruled by sin,” the term “sin” could be translated as “disobedience” or “evil desires and actions.”
- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people don’t see or know about.
- The term “sin” should be general, and different from the terms for “wickedness” and “evil.”

sleep, asleep, fall asleep

Definition:

These terms have figurative meanings relating to death.

- To “sleep” or “be asleep” can be a metaphor meaning to “be dead.” (See: Metaphor)
- The expression “fall asleep” refers to the moment when someone starts sleeping, or in its figurative sense, the moment when someone dies.
- To “sleep with the fathers” means to be dead, as one’s ancestors are.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, the term “to sleep” or “to be asleep” could be translated as “to be dead.”
- To “fall asleep” could be translated as “to suddenly be asleep” or “to start sleeping” or “to die,” depending on its meaning.
- note: It is especially important to keep the figurative expression in contexts where the audience did not understand the meaning. For example, when Jesus told his disciples that Lazarus was “sleeping” they thought he meant that Lazarus was just sleeping naturally. In this context, it would not make sense to translate this as “he died.”
- Some languages may have a different expression for death or dying which could be used if the expression “sleep” or “asleep” does not make sense in the project language.

snowFacts:

The term “snow” refers to white flakes of frozen water that fall from clouds in places where the air temperature is cold.

- Snow falls in places of higher elevation in Israel, but may not always stay on the ground very long before melting. The peaks of mountains tend to have snow that lasts longer. One example of this is the Bible’s mention of snow on Mount Lebanon.
- Something that is white is often compared to the color of snow, as when Jesus’ clothing or hair is described as being “white as snow.”
- The whiteness of snow also symbolizes being pure and clean. For example, the statement that our “sins will be as white as snow” means that God completely cleanses his people from their sins.
- Some languages might refer to snow as “frozen rain” or “flakes of ice” or “frozen flakes.”
- “Snow water” refers to the water that comes from melted snow.

Solomon

Facts:

Solomon was one of King David's sons. His mother was Bathsheba.

- When Solomon became king, God told him to ask for anything he wanted. So Solomon asked for wisdom to rule the people justly and well. God was pleased with Solomon's request and gave him both wisdom and much wealth.
- Solomon is also well-known for having a magnificent temple built in Jerusalem.
- Although Solomon ruled wisely in the beginning years of his reign, later on he foolishly married many foreign women and started worshiping their gods.
- Because of Solomon's unfaithfulness, after his death God divided the Israelites into two kingdoms: Israel and Judah. These kingdoms often fought against each other.

son, son of

Definition:

The term “son” refers to a boy or man in relation to his parents. It can refer either to someone’s male offspring or to an adopted son.

- “Son” is often used figuratively in the Bible to refer to any male descendant, such as a grandson or great-grandson.
- The term “son” can also be used as a polite form of address to a boy or man who is younger.
- Sometimes “sons of God” is used in the New Testament to refer to believers in Christ.
- God calls Israel his “firstborn son.” This refers to God’s choosing of the nation of Israel to be his special people. It is through them that God’s message of redemption and salvation came, with the result that many other people have become his spiritual children.
- The phrase “son of” often has the figurative meaning, “having the characteristics of.” Examples of this include, “sons of the light,” “sons of disobedience,” “a son of peace,” and “sons of thunder.”
- The phrase “son of” is also used to tell who a person’s father is. This phrase is used in genealogies and many other places.
- Using “son of” to give the name of the father frequently helps distinguish people who have the same name. For example, “Azariah, son of Zadok” and “Azariah, son of Nathan” in 1 Kings 4, and “Azariah, son of Amaziah in 2 Kings 15 are three different men.

Translation Suggestions:

- In most occurrences of this term, it is best to translate “son” using the literal term in the language that is used to refer to a son.
- When translating the term “Son of God,” the project language’s common term for “son” should be used.
- When used to refer to a descendant rather than a direct son, the term “descendant” could be used, as in referring to Jesus as the “descendant of David” or in genealogies where sometimes “son” refers to a male descendant, not an actual son.
- Sometimes “sons” can be translated as “children,” when both males and females are being referred to. For example, “sons of God” could be translated as “children of God” since this expression also includes girls and women.
- The figurative expression “son of” could also be translated as “someone who has the characteristics of” or “someone who is like” or “someone who has” or “someone who acts like.”

Son of God, the Son, Son

Facts:

The term “Son of God” refers to Jesus, the Word of God who came into the world as a human being. He is also often referred to as “the Son.”

- The Son of God has the same nature as God the Father, and is fully God.
- God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are all of one essence.
- Unlike human sons, the Son of God has always existed.
- In the beginning, the Son of God was active in creating the world, along with the Father and the Holy Spirit.
- Because Jesus is God’s Son, he loves and obeys his Father, and his Father loves him.

Translation Suggestions:

- For the term, “Son of God,” it is best to translate “Son” with the same word the language would naturally use to refer to a human son.
- Make sure the word used to translate “son” fits with the word used to translate “father” and that these words are the most natural ones used to express a true father-son relationship in the project language.
- Using capital letters to begin “Son” will help show that this is talking about God.
- The phrase “the Son” is a shortened form of “the Son of God”, especially when in the same context as “the Father.”

Son of Man, son of man

Definition:

The title, “Son of Man” was used by Jesus to refer to himself. He often used this term instead of saying “I” or “me.”

- In the Bible, “son of man” can be a way of referring to or addressing a man. It can also mean “human being.”
- Throughout the Old Testament book of Ezekiel, God frequently addresses Ezekiel as “son of man.” For example he says, “You, son of man, must prophesy.”
- The prophet Daniel saw a vision of a “son of man” coming with the clouds, which is a reference to the coming Messiah.
- Jesus also said that the Son of Man will be coming back someday on the clouds.
- These references to the Son of Man coming on the clouds reveal that Jesus the Messiah is God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When Jesus uses the term “Son of Man,” this could be translated as, “the One who became a human being” or “the Man from heaven.”
- Some translators occasionally include “I” or “me” with this title (as in, “I, the Son of Man”) to make it clear that Jesus is talking about himself.
- Check to make sure that the translation of this term does not give a wrong meaning (such as referring to an illegitimate son or giving the wrong impression that Jesus was only a human being).
- When used to refer to a person, “son of man” could also be translated as, “you, a human being” or “you, man” or “human being” or “man.”

stumble

Definition:

The term “stumble” means to “almost fall” when walking or running. Usually it involves tripping over something.

- Figuratively, “to stumble” can mean “to sin” or “to falter” in believing.
- This term can also refer to faltering or showing weakness when fighting a battle or when being persecuted or punished.

Translation Suggestions

- In contexts where the term “stumble” means to physically trip over something, it should be translated with a term that means “almost fall” or “trip over.”
- This literal meaning could also be used in a figurative context, if it communicates the correct meaning in that context.
- For figurative uses where the literal meaning would not make sense in the project language, “stumble” could be translated as, “sin” or “falter” or “stop believing” or “become weak,” depending sin, sinful, sinner, sinning on the context.
- Another way to translate this term could be, “stumble by sinning” or “stumble by not believing.”
- The phrase “made to stumble” could be translated as “caused to become weak” or “caused to falter.”

stumbling block, stone of stumbling

Definition:

The term “stumbling block” or “stone of stumbling” refers to a physical object that causes a person to trip and fall.

- In the New Testament, this word literally referred to a stick or other object that would trigger a trap or snare to snap shut on an animal that stumbled over it.
- A figurative stumbling block is anything that causes a person to fail in a moral or spiritual sense.
- Also figuratively, a “stumbling block” or “stone of stumbling” can be something that prevents someone from having faith in Jesus or that causes someone to not grow spiritually.
- Often it is sin that is like a stumbling block to oneself or to others.
- Sometimes God places a stumbling block in the way of people who are rebelling against him.

Translation Suggestions:

- If a language has a term for an object that triggers a trap, that word could be used to translate this term.
- This term could also be translated as, “stone that causes stumbling” or “something that causes someone to not believe” or “obstacle that causes doubt” or “obstacle to faith” or “something that causes someone to sin.”

suffer, suffering

Definition:

The terms “suffer” and “suffering” refer to experiencing something very unpleasant, such as illness, pain, or other hardships.

- When people are persecuted or when they are sick, they suffer.
- Sometimes people suffer because of wrong things they have done; other times they suffer because of sin and disease in the world.
- Suffering can be physical, such as feeling pain or sickness. It can also be emotional such as feeling fear, sadness, or loneliness.
- The phrase “suffer me” means to “bear with me” or “hear me out” or “listen patiently.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “suffer” can be translated as “feel pain” or “endure difficulty” or “experience hardships” or “go through difficult and painful experiences.”
- Depending on the context, “suffering” could be translated as “extremely difficult circumstances” or “severe hardships” or “experiencing hardship” or “time of painful experiences.”
- The phrase “suffer thirst” could be translated as, “experience thirst” or “suffer with thirst.”
- To “suffer violence” could also be translated as “undergo violence” or “be harmed by violent acts.”

Examples from the Bible stories:

- [09-13] God said, “I have seen the suffering of my people.”
- [38-12] Jesus prayed three times, “My Father, if it is possible, please let me not have to drink this cup of suffering.”
- [42-03] He (Jesus) reminded them that the prophets said the Messiah would suffer and be killed, but would rise again on the third day.
- [42-07] He (Jesus) said, “It was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer, die, and rise from the dead on the third day.”
- [44-05] “Although you did not understand what you were doing, God used your actions to fulfill the prophecies that the Messiah would suffer and die.”
- [46-04] God said, “I have chosen him (Saul) to declare my name to the unsaved. I will show him how much he must suffer for my sake.”
- [50-17] He (Jesus) will wipe away every tear and there will be no more suffering, sadness, crying, evil, pain, or death.

sword

Definition:

A sword is a flat-bladed metal weapon used to cut or stab. It has a handle and a long, pointed blade with a very sharp cutting edge.

- The blade of a sword in ancient times was around 60 to 91 centimeters long.
- Some swords have two sharp edges and are called “double-edged” or “two-edged” swords.
- Jesus’ disciples had swords they planned to use to defend themselves. With his sword, Peter cut off the ear of the high priest’s servant.
- Both John the Baptist and the apostle James were beheaded with swords.

Translation Suggestions

- A sword is used as a metaphor for God’s word. God’s teachings in the Bible expose people’s innermost thoughts and convict them of their sin. In a similar way, a sword cuts deeply, causing pain. (See: Metaphor)
- One way to translate this figurative use would be, “God’s word is like a sword, which cuts deeply and exposes sin.”
- Another figurative use of this term is in the book of Psalms where the tongue or speech of a person is compared to a sword, which can injure people. This could be translated as, “the tongue is like a sword that can badly injure someone.”
- If swords are not known in your culture, this word could be translated with the name of another long-bladed weapon that is used to cut or stab.
- A sword could also be described as a “sharp weapon” or “long knife.” Some translations may decide to include a picture of a sword.

synagogue

Definition:

A synagogue is a building where Jewish people meet together to worship God.

- Since ancient times, a synagogue's services have included times of prayer, scripture reading, and teaching about the scriptures.
- The Jews originally started building synagogues as places to pray and worship God in their own cities, because many of them lived far away from the temple in Jerusalem.
- Jesus often taught in synagogues and healed people there.
- The word "synagogue" can be used figuratively to refer to the group of people meeting there.

tax collector

Definition:

A “tax collector” was a government worker whose job was to receive money that people were required to pay the government in taxes.

- In the time of Jesus and the apostles, the Roman government required taxes from everyone living in the Roman empire, including the Jews.
- The people who collected taxes for the Roman government would often demand more money from the people than the government required. The tax collectors would keep the extra amount for themselves.
- Because tax collectors cheated people in this way, the Jews considered them to be among the worst of sinners.
- The Jews also considered Jewish tax collectors to be traitors to their own people because they worked for the Roman government which was oppressing the Jewish people.
- The phrase, “tax collectors and sinners” is a common expression in the New Testament, showing how much the Jews despised tax collectors.

- [34-07] “The religious leader prayed like this, ‘Thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like other men—such as robbers, unjust men, adulterers, or even like that tax collector.’”
- [34-09] “But the tax collector stood far away from the religious ruler, did not even look up to heaven. Instead, he pounded on his chest and prayed, ‘God, please be merciful to me because I am a sinner.’”
- [34-10] Then Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, God heard the tax collector’s prayer and declared him to be righteous.”
- [35-01] One day, Jesus was teaching many tax collectors and other sinners who had gathered to hear him.

tax, taxes

Definition:

The terms “tax” and “taxes” refer to money or goods that people pay to a government that is in authority over them.

- The amount of money that is paid for tax is usually based on the value of an item or on how much a person’s property is worth.
- If taxes are not paid, the government can take legal action against a person to get the money that is owed.
- Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem to be counted in the census that was for the purpose of taxing everyone living in the Roman empire.
- There was also a “temple tax” which was money that people put in the temple offering box. Some of this money was used for taking care of the temple building.
- The term “tax” could also be translated as, “required payment” or “government money” or “temple money,” depending on the context.
- Phrases such as, “collect taxes” and “pay taxes” could also be translated as, “pay money to the government” or “receive money for the government” or “make the required payment.”
- A “tax collector” is someone who works for the government to receive the money that people are required to pay them.

teach, teaching, teacher, taught

Definition:

The terms “teach” and “teaching” refer to telling other people information they didn’t know before. Usually the information is given in a formal or systematic way.

- A “teacher” is someone who teaches. The past action of “teach” is “taught.”
- When Jesus was teaching, he was explaining things about God and his kingdom.
- Jesus’ disciples called him “Teacher” as a respectful form of address for someone who taught people about God.
- The information that is being taught can be shown or spoken.
- The term “doctrine” refers to a set of teachings from God about himself as well as God’s instructions about how to live. This could also be translated as “teachings from God” or “what God teaches us.”
- The phrase “what you have been taught” could also be translated as, “what these people have taught you” or “what God has taught you,” depending on the context.
- Other ways to translate “teach” could include “tell” or “explain” or “instruct.”
- Often this term can be translated as “teaching people about God.”

teacher, Teacher

Definition:

A teacher is a person who gives other people new information. Teachers help others to obtain and use both knowledge and skills.

- In the Bible, the word “teacher” is used in a special sense to refer to someone who teaches about God. It does not refer to a school teacher.
- People who learn from a teacher are called “students” or “disciples.”
- In some Bible translations, this term is capitalized (“Teacher”) when it is used as a title for Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The usual word for a teacher can be used to translate this term, unless that word is only used for a school teacher.
- Some cultures may have a special title that is used for religious teachers, such as “Sir” or “Rabbi” or “Preacher.”

- [28-01] One day a rich young ruler came up to Jesus and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?”
- [37-02] After the two days had passed, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.” “But Teacher,” the disciples answered, “Just a short time ago the people there wanted to kill you!”
- [38-14] Judas came to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Teacher,” and kissed him.
- [49-03] Jesus was also a great teacher, and he spoke with authority because he is the Son of God.

temple

Facts:

The temple was a building surrounded by walled courtyards where the Israelites came to pray and to offer sacrifices to God. It was located on Mount Moriah in the city of Jerusalem.

- Often the term “temple” refers to the whole temple complex, including the courtyards that surrounded the main building. Sometimes it refers only to the building.
- The temple building had two rooms, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.
- God referred to the temple as his dwelling place.
- During the reign of King Solomon he built the Temple, which was the permanent place of worship in Jerusalem.
- In the New Testament, the term “temple of the Holy Spirit” is used to refer to believers in Jesus, because the Holy Spirit lives in them.

Translation Suggestions:

- Usually when the text says that people were “in the temple,” it is referring to the courtyards outside the building. This could be translated as “in the temple courtyards” or “in the temple complex.”
- When it refers specifically to the building itself, some translations will translate “temple” as “temple building,” to make it clear what is being referred to.
- Ways to translate “temple” could include, “God’s holy house” or “sacred worship place.”
- Often in the Bible, the temple is referred to as “the house of Yahweh” or “the house of God.”

- [20-07] They (Babylonians) captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures.

- [20-13] When the people arrived in Jerusalem, they rebuilt the Temple and the wall around the city of the city and the Temple.
- [25-04] Then Satan took Jesus to the highest point on the Temple and said, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘God will command his angels to carry you so your foot does not hit a stone.’”
- [40-07] When he died, there was an earthquake and the large curtain that separated the people from the presence of God in the Temple was torn in two, from the top to the bottom.

tempt, temptation

Definition:

To tempt someone is to try to get that person to do something wrong.

- A temptation is something that causes a person to want to do something wrong.
- People are tempted by their own sinful nature and by other people.
- Satan also tempts people to disobey God and to sin against God by doing wrong things.
- Satan tempted Jesus and tried to get him to do something wrong, but Jesus resisted all of Satan's temptations and never sinned.
- The term "tempt" is also used to refer to tempting God, which means to stubbornly keep disobeying him to the point that he must respond by punishing the disobedient ones. This is also called "testing" God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "tempt" can be translated as, "try to cause to sin" or "entice" or "cause a desire to sin."
- Ways to translate "temptations" could include, "things that tempt" or "things that entice someone to sin" or "things that cause desire to do something wrong."

test

Definition:

The term “test” refers to a difficult or painful experience that reveals a person’s strengths and weaknesses.

- God tests people, but he does not tempt them. Satan, however, tempts people to sin.
- God sometimes uses tests to expose people’s sin. A test helps a person to turn away from sin and to draw closer to God.
- Gold and other metals are tested with fire to find out how pure and strong they are. This is a picture of how God uses painful circumstances to test his people.
- To “put to the test” can mean, “challenge something or someone to prove its value.”
- In the context of putting God to the test, it means to keep disobeying him, taking advantage of his mercy.
- Jesus told Satan that it is wrong to put God to the test. He is the almighty, holy God who is above everything and everyone.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “to test” could also be translated as, “to challenge” or “to cause to experience difficulties” or “to prove.”
- Ways to translate “a test” could be, “a challenge” or “a difficult experience.”
- To “put to the test” could be translated as “to test” or “to set up a challenge” or “to force to prove oneself.”
- In the context of testing God, this could be translated as, “trying to force God to prove his love.”

testimony, testify

Definition:

The terms “testimony” and “testify” refer to making a statement about something that one knows to be true.

- Often a person “testifies” about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives “false testimony” does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term “testimony” refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term is often used to refer to how Jesus’ followers testified about the events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “testify” or “give testimony” could also be translated as, “tell the facts” or “tell what was seen or heard” or “tell from personal experience” or “give evidence” or “tell what happened.”
- Ways to translate “testimony” could include, “report of what happened” or “statement of what is true” or “evidence” or “what has been said” or “prophecy.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony to them” could be translated as, “to show them what is true” or “to prove to them what is true.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony against them” could be translated as, “which will show them their sin” or “exposing their hypocrisy” or “which will prove that they are wrong.”

the twelve, the eleven

Definition:

The term “the twelve” refers to the twelve men that Jesus chose to be his closest disciples, or apostles. After Judas killed himself, they were called “the eleven.”

- Jesus had many other disciples, but the title “the twelve” distinguished those who followed him throughout his three-year ministry.
- The names of these twelve disciples are listed in Matthew 10, Mark 3, and Luke 6.
- Some time after Jesus had returned to heaven, “the eleven” chose a disciple named Matthias to take Judas’ place. Then they were called “the twelve” again.

Translation Suggestions:

- For many languages it may be more clear or more natural to add the noun and say, “the twelve apostles” or “Jesus’ twelve closest disciples.”
- “The eleven” could also be translated as “Jesus’ eleven remaining disciples.”
- Some translations may prefer to use a capital letter to show that it was used as a title, as in, “the Twelve” and “the Eleven.”

thorn, thistleFacts:

Thorn bushes and thistles are plants that have prickly branches or flowers. These plants do not produce fruit or anything else that is useful.

- A “thorn” is a hard, sharp growth on the branch or stem of a plant. A “thornbush” is a type of small tree or shrub that has many thorns on its branches.
- A “thistle” is a plant with prickly stems and leaves. Often the flowers are purple.
- Thorn and thistle plants multiply quickly and can cause nearby plants or crops to not be able to grow. This is a picture of how sin keeps a person from producing good spiritual fruit.
- A crown made of twisted thorn branches was placed on Jesus’ head before he was crucified.
- If possible, these terms should be translated by the names of two different plants or bushes that are known in the language area.

thresh, threshing

Definition:

The terms “thresh” and “threshing” refer to the first part of the process of separating wheat grain from the rest of the wheat plant.

- Threshing the wheat plant loosens the grain from the straw and the chaff. Afterwards the grain is “winnowed” to completely separate the grain from all unwanted materials, leaving only the part the grain that can be eaten.
- In Bible times, a “threshing floor” was a large flat rock or an area of packed-down dirt, giving a hard, level surface to crush the grain stalks and remove the grain.
- A “threshing cart” or “threshing wheel” was sometimes used to crush the grain and help separate it from the straw and chaff.
- A “threshing sledge” or “threshing board” was also used for separating grain. It was made of wooden boards that had sharp metal spikes on the end.

tomb, grave, burial place

Definition:

The terms “tomb” and “grave” refer to a place where people put the body of a person who has died. A “burial place” is a more general term that also refers to this.

- The Jews sometimes used natural caves as tombs, and sometimes they dug caves into rock in the side of a hill.
- In New Testament times, it was common to roll a large, heavy stone in front of the opening of a tomb in order to close it.
- If the word for a tomb or a grave can only refer to a hole in which the body is placed below the ground, other ways to translate this could include, “cave” or “hole in the side of a hill.”
- The phrase “the grave” is often used generally and figuratively to refer to the condition of being dead or a place where the souls of dead people are.

- [41-05] When the women arrived at the tomb, the angel told them, “Do not be afraid. Jesus is not here. He has risen from the dead, just like he said he would! Look in the tomb and see.” The women looked into the tomb and saw where Jesus’ body had been laid. His body was not there!

tormentFacts:

The term “torment” refers to terrible suffering. To torment someone means to cause someone to suffer, often in a cruel way.

- Sometimes the term “torment” refers to physical pain and suffering. For example, the book of Revelation describes physical torment that worshipers of the “beast” will suffer in the end times.
- Suffering also may take the form of spiritual and emotional pain as experienced by Job.
- According to the book of Revelation, people who do not believe in Jesus as their Savior will experience eternal torment in the lake of fire.
- This term could be translated as, “terrible suffering” or “cause someone to suffer greatly” or “agony.” Some translators may add “physical” or “spiritual” to make the meaning clear.

tradition

Definition:

The term “tradition” refers to customs and practices that have been kept over time and which are passed down to people in later generations.

- Often in the Bible the word “traditions” refers to teachings and practices that people made, not God’s laws. The expression, “tradition of men” or “human tradition” makes this clear.
- Phrases such as “traditions of the elders” or “traditions of my fathers” refer specifically to Jewish customs and practices that Jewish leaders over time had added to the laws God gave to the Israelites through Moses. Even though these added traditions did not come from God, people thought they had to obey them in order to be righteous.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “tradition” in a different way to refer to teachings about Christian practice that came from God and that he and other apostles had taught new believers.
- In modern times, there are many Christian traditions that are not taught in the Bible, but rather are the result of historically accepted customs and practices. These traditions should always be evaluated in light of what God teaches us in the Bible.

Tyre, Tyrians

Facts:

Tyre was an ancient Canaanite city located on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, in a region that is now part of the modern-day country of Lebanon. Its people were called “Tyrians.”

- Part of the city was also located on an island in the sea, about one kilometer from the coast.
- Because of its location and valuable natural resources such as cedar trees, Tyre had a prosperous trading industry and was very wealthy.
- King Hiram of Tyre sent wood from cedar trees and skilled laborers for building a palace for King David.
- Years later, Hiram also gave King Solomon wood and skilled laborers for building the temple. Solomon paid him with large amounts of wheat and olive oil.
- Tyre was often associated with the nearby ancient city of Sidon. These were the most important cities of the region of Canaan called Phoenicia.

unclean

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “unclean” is used figuratively to refer to things that God declared to be unfit for his people to touch, eat, or sacrifice.

- God gave the Israelites instructions about which animals were “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” The unclean animals were not permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice.
- People with certain skin diseases were said to be “unclean” until they were healed.
- If the Israelites touched something “unclean,” they themselves would be considered unclean for a certain period of time.
- Obeying God’s commands about not touching or eating unclean things kept the Israelites set apart for God’s service.
- This physical and ritual uncleanness was also symbolic of moral uncleanness.
- In another figurative sense, an “unclean spirit” refers to an evil spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “unclean” could also be translated as “not clean” or “unfit in God’s eyes” or “physically unclean” or “defiled.”
- When referring to a demon as an unclean spirit, “unclean” could be translated as “evil” or “defiled.”
- The translation of this term should allow for spiritual uncleanness. It should be able to refer to anything that God declared as unfit for touching, eating, or sacrifice.

unlawful

Definition:

The terms “unlawful” and “not lawful” are used to describe actions that break a law.

- In the New Testament, the term “unlawful” is not only used to refer to breaking God’s laws, but also often refers to breaking Jewish manmade laws.
- Over the years, the Jews added to the laws that God gave to them. The Jewish leaders would call something “unlawful” if it did not conform to their manmade laws.
- When Jesus and his disciples were picking grain on a Sabbath day, the Pharisees accused them of doing something “unlawful” because it was breaking the Jewish laws about not working on that day.
- When Peter stated that eating unclean foods was “unlawful” for him, he meant that if he ate those foods he would be breaking the laws God had given the Israelites about not eating certain foods.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term should be translated using a word or expression that means, “not lawful” or “law-breaking.”
- Other ways to translate “unlawful” could be, “not permitted” or “not according to God’s law” or “not conforming to our laws.”
- The expression “against the law” has the same meaning as “unlawful.”

unleavened bread, Festival of Unleavened Bread

Definition:

The term “unleavened bread” refers to bread that is made without yeast or other leavening. This kind of bread is flat because it has no leaven to make it rise. The “Festival of Unleavened Bread” is part of the Passover celebration.

- When God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, he told them to flee Egypt quickly without waiting for their bread to rise. So they ate unleavened bread with their meal. Since then unleavened bread is used in their yearly Passover celebrations to remind them of that time.
- For this reason, the week leading up to Passover is called the “Festival of Unleavened Bread.”
- Since leaven sometimes is used as a picture of sin, “unleavened bread” represents the removal of sin from a person’s life in order to live in a way that honors God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include, “bread with no yeast” or “flat bread that did not rise.”
- Make sure the translation of this term is consistent with how you translate the term “yeast, leaven.”
- In some contexts, the term “unleavened bread” refers to the “Feast of Unleavened Bread” and can be translated that way.

visionFacts:

The term “vision” refers to something that a person sees. It especially refers to something unusual or supernatural that God shows people in order to give them a message.

- Usually, visions are seen while the person is awake. However sometimes a vision is something a person sees in a dream while asleep.
- God sends visions to tell people something that is very important. For example, Peter was shown a vision to tell him that God wanted him to welcome Gentiles.

Translation Suggestion

- The phrase “saw a vision” could be translated as, “saw something unusual from God” or “God showed him something special.”
- Some languages may not have separate words for “vision” and “dream.” So a sentence such as, “Daniel had dreams and visions in his mind” could be translated as something like, “Daniel was dreaming while asleep and God caused him to see unusual things.”

water, waters

Definition:

In addition to its primary meaning, “water” also often refers to a body of water, such as an ocean, sea, lake, or river.

- The term “waters” refers to bodies of water or many sources of water. It can also be a general reference for a large amount of water.
- A figurative use of “waters” refers to great distress, difficulties, and suffering. For example, God promises that when we “go through the waters” he will be with us.
- The phrase “many waters” emphasizes how great the difficulties are.
- To “water” livestock and other animals means to “provide water for” them. In Bible times, this usually involved drawing water from a well with a bucket and pouring the water into a trough or other container for the animals to drink from.
- In the Old Testament, God is referred to as the spring or fountain of “living waters” for his people. This means he is the source of spiritual power and refreshment.
- In the New Testament, Jesus used the phrase “living water” to refer to the Holy Spirit working in a person to transform and bring new life.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase, “draw water” could be translated as, “pull water up from a well with a bucket.”
- “Streams of living water will flow from them” could be translated as, “the power and blessings from the Holy Spirit will flow out of them them like streams of water.” Instead of “blessings” the term “gifts” or “fruits” or “godly character” could be used.
- When Jesus is talking to the Samaritan woman at the well, the phrase “living water” could be translated as “water that gives life” or “lifegiving water.” In this context, the imagery of water must be kept in the translation.
- Depending on the context, the term “waters” or “many waters” could be translated as “great suffering (that surrounds you like water)” or “overwhelming difficulties (like a flood of water)” or “large amounts of water.”

wheat

Definition:

Wheat is a type of grain that people grow for food. When the Bible mentions “grain” or “seeds,” it is often talking about wheat grain or seeds.

- The wheat seeds or grains grow at the top of the wheat plant.
- After harvesting the wheat, the grain is separated from the stalk of the plant by threshing it. The stalk of the wheat plant is also called “straw” and is often placed on the ground for animals to sleep on.
- After threshing, the chaff surrounding the grain seed is separated from the grain by winnowing and is thrown away.
- People grind the wheat grain into flour, and use this for making bread.

wine, wineskin, new wineDefinition:

In the Bible, the term “wine” refers to a kind of fermented drink made from the juice of a fruit called grapes. Wine was stored in “wineskins,” which were containers made out of animal skin.

- The term “new wine” referred to grape juice that had just been taken from the grape and was not fermented yet. Sometimes the term “wine” also refer to unfermented grape juice.
- To make wine, grapes are crushed in a winepress so that the juice comes out. The juice eventually ferments and alcohol forms in it.
- In Bible times, wine was the normal drink with meals. It did not have as much alcohol as present-day wine has.
- Before wine was served for a meal, it was often mixed with water.
- A wineskin that was old and brittle would get cracks in it, which allowed the wine to leak out. New wineskins were soft and flexible, which meant they did not tear easily and could store the wine safely.
- If wine is unknown in your culture, it could be translated as, “fermented grape juice” or “fermented drink made from a fruit called grapes” or “fermented fruit juice.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- Ways to translate “wineskin” could include, “bag for wine” or “animal skin wine bag” or “animal skin container for wine.”

winepress

Definition:

During Bible times, a “winepress” was a large container or open place where the juice of grapes was extracted in order to make wine.

- In Israel, winepresses were usually large, wide basins that were dug out of solid rock. Clusters of grapes were put on the flat bottom of the hole and people trampled the grapes with their feet to get the grape juice to flow out.
- Usually a winepress had two levels, with the grapes being trampled in the top level so that the juice would run down into the lower level where it could be collected.
- The term “winepress” is also used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of God’s wrath being poured out on wicked people. (See: Metaphor) winnow, siftDefinition:

The terms “winnow” and “sift” mean to separate grain from unwanted materials. In the Bible, both words are also used in a figurative sense to refer to separating or dividing people.

- To “winnow” means to separate grain from the unwanted parts of the plant by tossing both the grain and chaff into the air, allowing the wind to blow the chaff away.
- The word “sift” refers to shaking the winnowed grain in a sieve to get rid of any remaining unwanted materials, such as dirt or stones.
- In the Old Testament, “winnow” and “sift” are used figuratively to describe hardship that separates the righteous people from the unrighteous people.
- Jesus also used the term “sift” in this figurative way when he was telling Simon Peter about how he and the other disciples would be tested in their faith.
- To translate these terms, use the words or phrases in the project language that refer to these activities; possible translations might be, “shaking” or “fanning.” If winnowing or sifting are not known, then these terms could be translated by a term that refers to a different method of separating grain from chaff or dirt, or by describing this process.

witness, eyewitness

Definition:

The term “witness” refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually a witness is also someone who testifies about they know is true. The term “eyewitness” emphasizes that the person was actually there and saw what happened.

- “To witness” something means to see it happen.
- At a trial, a witness “gives witness” or “bears witness.” This has the same meaning as “testify.”
- Witnesses are expected to tell the truth about what they have seen or heard.
- A witness who does not tell the truth about what happened is called a “false witness.” He is said to “give false witness” or to “bear false witness.”
- The expression, “be a witness between” means that something or someone will be evidence that a contract has been made. The witness will make sure each person does what he has promised to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “witness” or “eyewitness” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “person-seeing-it” or “the one who saw it happen” or “those who saw and heard (those things).”
- Something that is “a witness” could be translated as, “guarantee” or “sign of our promise” or “something that testifies that this is true.”
- The phrase “you will be my witnesses” could also be translated as, “you will tell other people about me” or “you will teach people the truth that I taught you” or “you will tell people what you have seen me do and heard me teach.”
- “To witness to” could be translated as, “to tell what was seen” or “to testify” or “to state what happened.”

woeDefinition:

The term “woe” refers to a feeling of great distress. It also gives a warning that someone will experience severe trouble.

- The expression “woe to” is followed by a warning to people that they will experience suffering as punishment for their sins.
- In several places in the Bible, the word “woe” is repeated, to emphasize an especially terrible judgment.
- A person who says, “woe is me” or “woe to me” is expressing sorrow about severe suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “woe” could also be translated as “great sorrow” or “sadness” or “calamity” or “disaster.”
- Other ways to translate the expression, “Woe to (name of city)” could include, “How terrible it will be for (name of city)” or “(The people in) that city will be severely punished” or “Those people will suffer greatly.”
- The expression, “Woe is me!” or “Woe to me!” could be translated as “How sad I am!” or “I am so sad” or “How terrible this is for me!”
- The expression, “Woe to you” could also be translated as “You will suffer terribly” or “You will experience terrible troubles.”

wolf, wolves, wild dogs

Definition:

A wolf is a fierce, meat-eating animal that is similar to a wild dog.

- Wolves usually hunt in groups and stalk their prey in a clever and stealthy manner.
- In the Bible, the term “wolves” is used figuratively to refer to false teachers or false prophets who destroy believers, who are compared to sheep. False teaching causes people to believe wrong things that bring harm to them.
- This comparison is based on the fact that sheep are especially vulnerable to being attacked and eaten by wolves, because they are weak and cannot defend themselves.

Translation Suggestion

- This term could be translated as “wild dog” or “wild animal.”
- Other names for wild dogs could be “jackal” or “coyote.”
- When used figuratively to refer to people, this could be translated as, “evil people who harm people like animals that attack sheep.”

wordDefinition:

A “word” refers to something that someone has said.

- An example of this would be when the angel told Zechariah, “You did not believe my words,” which means, “You did not believe what I said.”
- This term almost always refers to an entire message, not just one word.
- Often in the Bible “the word” refers to everything God has said or commanded, as in “the word of God” or “the word of truth.”
- Sometimes “word” refers to speech in general, such as “powerful in word and deed” which means “powerful in speech and behavior.”
- A very special use of this term is when Jesus is called “the Word.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Different ways of translating “word” or “words” include, “teaching” or “message” or “news” or “a saying” or “what was said.”
- When it refers to Jesus as “the Word,” this term could be translated as “the Message” or “the Saying.”

word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “word of God” refers to anything that God has communicated to people. This includes spoken and written messages. Jesus is also called “the Word of God.”

- The term “scriptures” means “writings.” It is only used in the New Testament and refers to the Hebrew scriptures or “Old Testament.” These writings were God’s message that he had told people to write down so that many years in the future people can still read it.
- The related terms “word of Yahweh” and “word of the Lord” often refer to a specific message from God that was given to a prophet or other person in the Bible.
- Sometimes this term occurs as simply “the word” or “my word” or “your word” (when talking about God’s word).
- In the New Testament, Jesus is called “the Word” and “the Word of God.” These titles mean that Jesus fully reveals who God is, because he is God himself.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include, “the message of Yahweh” or “God’s message” or “the teachings from God.”
- It may be more natural in some languages to make this term plural and say “God’s words” or “the words of Yahweh.”
- The expression “the word of Yahweh came” is often used to introduce something that God told his prophets or his people. This could be translated as, “Yahweh spoke this message” or “Yahweh spoke these words.”
- The term “scripture” or “scriptures” could be translated as “the writings” or “the written message from God.” This term should be translated differently from the translation of the term “word.”
- When “word” occurs alone, it could be translated as “message” or “God’s word” or “teachings,” depending on the context. Also consider the alternate translations suggested above.

works, deeds, work, acts

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “works,” “deeds,” and “acts” are used to refer generally to things that God or people do.

- The term “work” refers to doing labor or anything that is done to serve other people.
- God’s “works” and the “work of his hands” are expressions that refer to all the things he does or has done, including creating the world, saving sinners, providing for the needs of all creation and keeping the entire universe in place. The terms “deeds” and “acts” are also used to refer to God’s miracles in expressions such as, “mighty acts” or “marvelous deeds.”
- The works or deeds that a person does can be either good or evil.
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to do good works, which are also called “good fruit.”
- People are not saved by their good works; they are saved through faith in Jesus.
- A person’s “work” can be what he does to earn a living or to serve God. The Bible also refers to God as “working.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “works” or “deeds” could be, “actions” or “things that are done.”
- When referring to God’s “works” or “deeds” and the “work of his hands,” these expressions could also be translated as, “miracles” or “mighty acts” or “amazing things he does.”
- The expression, “the work of God” could be translated as, “the things that God is doing” or “the miracles God does” or “the amazing things that God does” or “everything God has accomplished.”
- The term “work” can just be the singular of “works” as in, “every good work” or “every good deed.”
- The term “work” can also have the broader meaning of “service” or “ministry.” For example, the expression, “your work in the Lord” could also be translated as, “what you do for the Lord.”
- The expression, “examine your own work” could also be translated as, “make sure what you are doing is God’s will” or “make sure that what you are doing pleases God.”
- The expression “the work of the Holy Spirit” could be translated as, “the empowering of the Holy Spirit” or “the ministry of the Holy Spirit” or “the things that the Holy Spirit does.”

world, worldly

Definition:

The term “world” usually refers to the part of the universe where people live: the earth. The term “worldly” describes the evil values and behaviors of people living in this world.

- In its most general sense, the term “world” refers to the heavens and the earth, as well as everything in them.
- In many contexts, “world” actually means, “people in the world.”
- Sometimes it is implied that this refers to the evil people on earth or the people who do not obey God.
- The apostles also used “world” to refer to the selfish behaviors and corrupt values of the people living in this world. This can include self-righteous religious practices which are based on human efforts.
- People and things characterized by these values are said to be “worldly.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “world” could also be translated as, “universe” or “people of this world” or “corrupt things in the world” or “evil attitudes of people in the world.”
- The phrase “all the world” often means “many people” and refers to the people living in a certain region. For example, “all the world came to Egypt” could be translated as, “many people from the surrounding countries came to Egypt” or “people from all the countries surrounding Egypt came there.”
- Another way to translate “all the world went to their hometown to be registered in the Roman census” would be, “many of the people living in regions ruled by the Roman empire went...”
- Depending on the context, the term “worldly” could be translated as, “evil” or “sinful” or “selfish” or “ungodly” or “corrupt” or “influenced by the corrupt values of people in this world.”
- The phrase “saying these things in the world” can be translated as “saying these things to the people of the world.”

yeast, leaven

Definition:

“Leaven” is a general term for a substance that causes bread dough to expand and rise. “Yeast” is a specific kind of leaven.

- In some English translations, the word for leaven is translated as “yeast,” which is a modern leavening agent that fills the bread dough with gas bubbles, making the dough expand before baking it. The yeast is kneaded into the dough so that it spreads throughout the entire lump of dough.
- In Old Testament times, the leavening or rising agent was produced by allowing the dough to sit for awhile. Small amounts of dough from a previous batch of dough were saved as leavening for the next batch.
- When the Israelites escaped from Egypt, they didn’t have time to wait for bread dough to rise, so they made bread without leaven to take with them on their journey. As a reminder of this, every year the Jewish people celebrate Passover by eating bread that has no leaven in it.
- The term “leaven” or “yeast” is used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of how sin spreads through a person’s life or how sin can influence other people.
- It can also refer to false teaching which often spreads to many people and influences them.
- The term “leaven” is also used in a positive way to explain how the influence of God’s kingdom spreads from person to person.

Translation Suggestions

- This could be translated as “leaven” or “substance that causes dough to rise” or “expanding agent.” The word “rise” could be expressed as “expand” or “get bigger” or “puff up.”
- If a local leavening agent is used for making bread dough rise, that term can be used. If the language has a well-known, general term that means, “leavening,” this would be the best term to use.

Zechariah was a prophet who prophesied during the reign of King Darius I of Persia. The Old Testament book of Zechariah contains his prophecies, which urged the returning exiles to rebuild the temple.

- The prophet Zechariah lived during the same time period as Ezra, Nehemiah, Zerubbabel and Haggai. He was also mentioned by Jesus as the last of the prophets who were murdered during Old Testament times.
- Another man named Zechariah was a gatekeeper at the temple during the time of David.
- One of King Jehoshaphat's sons who was named Zechariah was murdered by his brother Jehoram.
- Zechariah was the name of a priest who was stoned by the people of Israel when he rebuked them for their idol worship.
- King Zechariah was the son of Jeroboam and he reigned over Israel for only six months before being murdered.

First, Second or Third Person

This answers the question: What are first, second, and third person, and how do I translate when a third person form does not refer to the third person?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit
- Pronouns

Normally a speaker refers to himself as “I” and the person he is speaking to as “you.” Sometimes in the Bible a speaker referred to himself or to the person he was speaking to with a phrase other than “I” or “you”.

Description

Definitions

- First person - This is how a speaker normally refers to himself. English uses the pronouns “I” and “we”. (Also: me, my, mine; us, our, ours)
- Second person - This is how a speaker normally refers to the person or people he is speaking to. English uses the pronoun “you.” (Also: your, yours)
- Third person - This is how a speaker refers to someone else. English uses the pronouns “he,” “she,” “it” and “they.” (Also: him, his, her, hers, its; them, their, theirs) Noun phrases like “the man” or “the woman” are also third person.

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker used the third person to refer to himself or the people he was speaking to. Readers might think that the speaker was referring to someone else. They might not understand that he meant “I” or “you.”

Examples from the Bible

Sometimes people uses the third person instead of “I” or “me” to refer to themselves.

But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34 ULB)

David referred to himself in the third person as “your servant” and “his.” He was calling himself Saul’s servant in order to show his humility before Saul.

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said,
”... Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like him? (Job 40:6, 9 ULB)

God referred to himself in the third person with the words “God’s” and “him.” He did this to emphasize that he is God, and he is powerful. Sometimes people use the third person instead of “you” or “your” to refer to the person or people they are speaking to.

Abraham answered and said, “Look what I have done, taking it upon myself to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes! (Genesis 18:27 ULB)

Abraham was speaking to the Lord, and referred to the Lord as “My Lord” rather than as “you.” He did this to show his humility before God.

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULB)

After saying “each of you,” Jesus used the third person “his” instead of “your.”

Translation Strategies

If using the third person to mean “I” or “you” would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Use the the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”
2. Simply use the first or second person.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”

- But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34)
 - But David said to Saul, “I, your servant, used to keep my father’s sheep.”

2. Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”).

- Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like him?” (Job 40:6, 9 ULB)
 - Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like mine? Can you thunder with a voice like me?”
- So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULB)

Abstract Nouns

This answers the question: What are abstract nouns and how do I deal with them in my translation?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

Abstract nouns are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even to relationships among these ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as happiness, weight, injury, unity, friendship, health, and reason. This is a translation issue because some languages may express a certain idea with an abstract noun, while others would need a different way to express it. For example, "What is its weight?" could be expressed as "How much does it weigh?" or "How heavy is it?"

Description

Remember that nouns are words that refer to a person, place, thing, or idea. ABSTRACT NOUNS are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even to relationships among these ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as joy, peace, creation, goodness, contentment, justice, truth, freedom, vengeance, slowness, length, and weight.

Abstract nouns allow us to express thoughts about ideas in fewer words than if we did not have those nouns. For example, we can say, "I believe in the forgiveness of sin." But if English did not have the two abstract nouns "forgiveness" and "sin," then we would have to make a longer sentence to express the same meaning. We would have to say, for example, "I believe that God is willing to forgive people after they have sinned."

Abstract nouns also allow us to refer to a situation without telling more details about it than we want to tell. For example, we can say "I got here late because there was an accident on the highway." "Accident" is an abstract noun. If it does not matter whose accident it was, or what kind of accident it was, then it can be better if I do not have to say these things about it.

Reason this is a translation issue: The Bible that you translate from may use abstract nouns to express certain ideas. Your language might not use abstract nouns for some of those ideas; instead, it might use phrases to express those ideas. Those phrases will have other kinds of words such as adjectives, verbs, or adverbs, that express some of the meaning in the abstract noun.

Examples from the Bible

from childhood you have known the sacred writings (2 Timothy 3:15 ULB)

The abstract noun "childhood" refers to when someone is a child.

But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULB)

The abstract nouns “godliness” and “contentment” refer to being godly and content. The abstract noun “gain” refers to something that benefits or helps someone.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULB)

The abstract noun “salvation” here refers to being saved.

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9 ULB)

The abstract noun “slowness” refers how slowly something is done.

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5 ULB)

The abstract noun “purposes” refers to the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them.

Translation Strategies

If an abstract noun would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun.

- from childhood you have known the sacred writings (2 Timothy 3:15 ULB)
 - “Ever since you were a child you have known the sacred writings.”
- But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULB)
 - “But being godly and content is very beneficial.”
 - “But we benefit greatly when we are godly and content.”
 - “But we benefit greatly when we honor and obey God and when we are happy with what we have.”
- Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULB)
 - “Today the people in this house have been saved...”
 - “Today God has saved the people in this house...”
- The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9 ULB)

- "The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider moving slowly to be"
- He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart.
(1 Corinthians 4:5 ULB)
 - "He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them."

Active or Passive

This answers the question: What do active and passive mean, and how do I translate passive sentences?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Sentence Structure
- Verbs

Some languages have both active and passive sentences. In active sentences, the subject does the action. In passive sentences the subject is the one that the action is done to. Here are some examples with their subjects underlined:

- ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.
- PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010.

Translators whose languages do not have passive sentences will need to know how they can translate passive sentences that they find in the Bible. Other translators will need to decide when to use a passive sentence and when not to.

Description

Some languages have both active and passive forms of sentences.

- In the ACTIVE form, the subject does the action and is always mentioned.
- In the PASSIVE form, the action is done to the subject and the one who does the action is not always mentioned.

In the examples of active and passive sentences below, we have underlined the subject.

ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.

PASSIVE: The house was built by my father in 2010.

PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010. (This does not tell who did the action.)

All languages have active forms. Some languages have passive forms, and some do not. The passive form is not used for the same reasons in all of the languages that have it.

Purposes for the passive:

- The speaker is talking about the person or thing the action was done to, not about the person who did the action.
- The speaker does not want to tell who did the action.
- The speaker does not know who did the action.

Translation Principles Regarding the Passive

- Translators whose language does not use passive forms will need to find another way to express the idea.
- Translators whose language has passive forms will need to understand why the passive is used in a particular sentence in the Bible and decide whether or not to use a passive form for that purpose in his translation of the sentence.

Examples from the Bible

And their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed too. (2 Samuel 11:24 ULB)

This means that the enemies shooters shot and killed some of the king's servants, including Uriah. The point is what happened to the king's servants and Uriah, not who shot them.

In the morning when the men of the town got up, the altar of Baal was broken down ... (Judges 6:28 ULB)

The men of the town saw what had happened to the altar of Baal, but they did not know who broke it down.

No stonework was seen there. (1 Kings 6:18 ULB)

This means that no one saw stonework there. The point is that no stonework was done there.

Translation Strategies

If you decide that it is better to translate without a passive form, here are some strategies you might consider.

1. Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who or what did the action.
2. Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who or what did the action.
3. Use a different verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who did the action.

- A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULB)
 - The king's servants gave Jeremiah a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

2. Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who did the action. Instead use a generic expression like "they," or "people," or "someone."

- It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea (Luke 17:2 ULB)
 - It would be better for him if they were to put a millstone around his neck and throw him into the sea.
 - It would be better for him if someone were to put a heavy stone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

3. Use a different verb in an active sentence.

- A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULB)
 - He received a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

Apostrophe

This answers the question: What is the figure of speech called apostrophe?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. This calls his listener's attention to his feelings toward that person or thing.

Mountains of Gilboa, Let there not be dew or rain on you (2 Samuel 1:21 ULB)

King Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa, and David sang a sad song about it. By telling the mountains that he wanted them to have no dew or rain, he showed how sad he was.

Description

Apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. This calls his listener's attention to his feelings toward that person or thing.

Reason this is a translation issue: Many languages do not use apostrophe, and readers could be confused by it. They may wonder who the speaker is talking to.

Examples from the Bible

Come now, you who are rich, cry out loud because of the miseries coming upon you.
(James 5:1 ULB)

James wrote to the church, which was made up of poor people, as if rich people could hear him, showing his anger about what rich people were doing.

The man of God cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh and said, "Altar, altar, Yahweh says, '... on you they will burn men's bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULB)

The man of God spoke as if the altar could hear him, but he really wanted the king, who was standing there, to hear him.

Translation Strategies

If apostrophe would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option.

1. Have the speaker express his feelings toward the thing or idea without speaking directly to it.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If this way of speaking would be confusing to your people, you may preserve the meaning of the apostrophe and let the speaker continue speaking to the people that are listening to him.

- The man of God cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh and said, "Altar, altar, Yahweh says, ' ... on you they will burn men's bones.' " (1 Kings 13:2 ULB)
 - "The man of God said, "This is what Yahweh says about this altar' ... They will burn men's bones on it."

Distinguishing versus Informing or Reminding

This answers the question: When a phrase is used with a noun, what is the difference between phrases that distinguish the noun from others and phrases that simply inform or remind?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

In some languages, phrases can be used with a noun for two different things. They can either distinguish one item from another or they can give more information or a reminder about an item. Other languages use phrases with a noun only for distinguishing. When people who speak these languages hear a phrase with a noun, they assume that its function is to distinguish one item from another.

Description

In some languages, phrases can be used with a noun for two different things. They can either distinguish one item from other possible items, or they can give more information about an item. That information could be new to the reader, or a reminder about something the reader might already know or assume.

- "Mary gave some of the food to her sister who was very thankful.
 - If her sister was usually thankful, the phrase "who was thankful" could distinguish this sister of Mary's from another sister who was not usually thankful.
- "Mary gave some of the food to her sister, who was very thankful."
 - This same phrase can be used to inform us about how Mary's sister responded when Mary gave her the food. In this case it does not distinguish one sister from another.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some languages use phrases with a noun only for distinguishing one item from another. When translating a phrase that is used for giving more information, people who speak these languages will need to separate the phrase from the noun. Otherwise people who read it or hear it will think that the phrase is meant to distinguish one item from other possible items.

Examples from the Bible

1. Examples of words and phrases that are used to distinguish one item from other possible items: These usually do not cause a problem in translation.

... The curtain is to separate the holy place from the most holy place. (Exodus 26:33 ULB)

The words “holy” and “most holy” distinguish two different places from each other and from any other place.

A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to the woman who bore him.
(Proverbs 17:25 ULB)

The phrase “who bore him” distinguishes which woman the son is bitterness to. He is not bitterness to all women, but to his mother.

2. Examples of words and phrases that are used to give added information or a reminder about an item: These are a translation issue for languages that do not use these. (See: Phrases that Inform or Remind) for your righteous judgments are good. (Psalm 119:39 ULB)

The word “righteous” simply reminds us that God’s judgments are righteous. It does not distinguish his righteous judgement from his unrighteous judgement, because all of his judgments are righteous.

Can Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a son? - (Genesis 17:17-18 ULB)

The phrase “who is ninety years old” is the reason that Abraham did not think that Sarah could bear a son. He was not distinguishing one woman named Sarah from another woman named Sarah, and he was not telling anyone something new about her age. He simply did not think that a woman who was that old could bear a child.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses words or phrases with a noun only to distinguish one item from another, see Phrases that Inform or Remind for translation strategies.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

See Phrases that Inform or Remind for how to translate phrases that inform or remind.

Double Negatives

This answers the question: What are double negatives?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that express the meaning of “not.”

It is not that we do not have authority (2 Thessalonians 3:9)

Be sure of this—wicked people will not go unpunished (Proverbs 11:21)

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages. To translate sentences that have double negatives accurately and clearly, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express this idea in your language.

Description

Most languages express the negative near the verb or at the beginning or end of the sentence. Some languages also have prefixes or suffixes that express the negative as in “unhappy,” “impossible,” and “useless.” Some languages can also express the negative with pronouns like “none,” “nothing,” and “no one,” with adverbs like “nowhere,” and with prepositions like “without.”

A double negative occurs when a sentence has two words that express the meaning of “not.”

It is not that we do not have authority (2 Thessalonians 3:9 ULB)

And this better confidence did not happen without the taking of an oath, (Hebrews 7:20 ULB)

Be sure of this—wicked people will not go unpunished (Proverbs 11:21 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages.

- In some languages, such as Spanish, a double negative emphasizes the negative. The following Spanish sentence No ví a nadie is literally “I did not see no one.” It has both the word ‘no’ next to the verb and ‘nadie,’ which means “no one.” It emphasizes the negative, and means “I did not see anyone.”
- In some languages a double negative simply means a positive. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is attractive.”
- In some language the double negative weakens the adjective. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is a little bit attractive.”
- In some languages, such as the languages of the Bible, the double negative often strengthens the adjective. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is very attractive.”

To translate sentences with double negatives accurately and clearly in your language, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express the same idea in your language.

Examples from the Bible

so that they may not be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14 ULB)

This means “so that they will be fruitful.”

All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

By using a double negative John emphasized that the Son of God created absolutely everything.

Translation Strategies

If double negatives are natural and are used to express the positive in your language, consider using them. Otherwise, you could consider these strategies:

1. If the double negative simply expresses the positive, remove the two negatives.
2. If the double negative emphasizes the positive, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “surely.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the double negative simply expresses the positive, remove the two negatives.
 - For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses (Hebrews 4:15 ULB)
 - “For we have a high priest who can feel sympathy for our weaknesses”
 - so that they may not be *unfruitful (Titus 3:14 ULB)
 - “so that they may be fruitful”
2. If the double negative emphasizes the positive, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “certainly.”
 - Be sure of this—wicked people will not go *unpunished (Proverbs 11:21 ULB)
 - “Be sure of this—wicked people will certainly be punished”
 - All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

- "All things were made through him. He made absolutely everything that has been made."

Doublet

This answers the question: What are doublets and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

A doublet is a pair of words used together that mean nearly the same nearly thing. In some languages people do not use doublets, or they may use them only in certain situations. Translators may need to find some other way to express the meaning.

King David was old and advanced in years. (1 Kings 1:1 ULB)

The underlined words mean the same thing. Together they mean “very old.”

Description

We are using the word doublet to refer to two words or very short phrases that mean the same thing and that are used in the same phrase. Often they are joined with the word “and.” Often they are used to emphasize or intensify the idea expressed by the two words.

Reason this is a translation issue

In some languages people do not use doublets. Or they may use doublets, but they may do it for a reason that would not fit in a particular verse.

Examples from the Bible

King David was old and advanced in years. (1 Kings 1:1 ULB)

This means that he was “very old.”

he attacked two men more righteous and better than himself (1 Kings 2:32 ULB)

This means that they were “much more righteous” than he was.

You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words (Daniel 2:9 ULB)

This means that they had prepared “many false things to say.”

as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19 ULB)

This means that he was like a lamb that did not have any blemish—not even one.

Translation Strategies

If a doublet would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using one. If not, consider these strategies.

1. Translate only one of the words.
2. If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”
3. If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use your culture’s way of doing that.

Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate only one of the words.

- You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words (Daniel 2:9 ULB)

- ”You have decided to prepare false things to say.”

2. If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

- King David was old and *advanced in years. (1 Kings 1:1 ULB)

- ”King David was very old.”

3. If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

- a lamb without blemish and *without spot. (1 Peter 1:19 ULB) - English can emphasize this with “any” and “at all.”

- ”a lamb without any blemish at all”

Ellipsis

This answers the question: What is ellipsis?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Sentences

Ellipsis is where a speaker or writer leaves one or more words out of a sentence because he knows that the hearer or reader will understand the meaning of the sentence and fill in the words in his mind when he hears or reads the words that are there.

Description

Ellipsis is where one or more words are left out of the sentence because the sentence can be understood without them. The information that is omitted has usually already been stated in a preceding sentence or phrase.

the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous (Psalm 1:5)

This is ellipsis because “sinners in the assembly of the righteous” is not a complete sentence. The speaker assumes that the hearer will understand what it is that sinners will not do in the assembly of the righteous.

Reason this is a translation issue: Readers who see incomplete sentences or phrases may not know what the missing information is.

Examples from the Bible

when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?”
He said, “Lord, that I might receive my sight.” (Luke 18:40-41 ULB)

The man answered in an incomplete sentence because he wanted to be polite by giving Jesus only as much information as necessary. He did not say that he wanted Jesus to heal him, because he knew that Jesus would understand that if he wanted to receive his sight, Jesus would have to heal him.

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULB)

The writer wants his words to be few and to make good poetry. He did not say that Yahweh makes Sirion skip like a young ox because he knew that his readers could fill in the information themselves.

Translation Strategies

If ellipsis would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

- the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor *sinner*s in the assembly of the righteous (Psalm 1:5)
 - "the wicked will not stand in the judgment, and *sinner*s will not stand in the assembly of the righteous"
- when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, that I might receive my sight." (Luke 18:40-41)
 - "when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' He said, 'Lord, I want you to heal me that I might receive my sight.'"
- He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6)
 - "He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox."

Euphemism

This answers the question: What is a Euphemism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable, such as death or activities usually done in private. Its purpose is to avoid offending the people who hear or read it.

Description

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable. Its purpose is to avoid offending the people who hear or read it.

they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8 ULB)

This means that Saul and his sons were dead. It is euphemism because the important thing was not that Saul and his sons had fallen but that they were dead. Sometimes people do not like to speak directly about death because it is unpleasant.

Reason this is a translation issue: Readers may think that the writer means only what the words literally say.

Examples from the Bible

where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself (1 Samuel 24:3 ULB)

The original hearers would have understood that Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet, but the writer wanted to avoid offending or distracting them, so he does not say specifically what Saul did or what he left in the cave.

whether we are awake or asleep (1 Thessalonians 5:10 ULB)

Paul refers to being dead as being “asleep” so that instead of thinking that they will never see their loved ones again in this life, his readers will remember that they will see them again when Jesus establishes his kingdom.

Translation Strategies

If euphemism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Use a euphemism from your own culture.
2. State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use a euphemism from your own culture.

- where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself (1 Samuel 24:3 ULB) - Some languages might use euphemisms like these:
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet”
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to dig a hole”
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to have some time alone”

2. State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

- whether we are awake or asleep (1 Thessalonians 5:10 ULB)
 - “whether we are alive or dead”

Order of Events

This answers the question: Why are the events not listed in the order they happened, and how do I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Writing Styles
- Verbs

In the Bible, events are not always told in the order in which they occurred. Sometimes the author wanted to discuss something that happened at an earlier time than the event that he just wrote about. This can be confusing to the reader.

Description

In the Bible, events are not always told in the order in which they occurred. Sometimes the author wanted to discuss something that happened at an earlier time than the event that he just talked about. This can be confusing to the reader.

Reason this is a translation issue: Readers might think that the events happened in the order that they are told. It is important to help them understand the correct order of events.

Examples from the Bible

But then Herod ... had John locked up in prison. Now it came about, while all the people were being baptized by John, that Jesus also was baptized. (Luke 3:20-21 ULB)

This could sound like John baptized Jesus after John was locked up in prison.

Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carried the seven trumpets of rams horns before Yahweh, as they advanced, they gave a blast on the trumpets... But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout. No sound must leave your mouths until the day I tell you to shout. Only then must you shout." (Joshua 6:8-10 ULB)

This sounds like Joshua gave the order not to shout after the army had already started their march.

Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals? (Revelation 5:2 ULB)

The seals that lock the scroll must be broken before the scroll can be unrolled.

Translation Strategies

1. If your language uses phrases or time words to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using one of them.

2. If your language uses verb tense or aspect to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using that. (See: the section on Aspect on Verbs)
3. If your language prefers to tell events in the order that they occurred, consider reordering the events so they they are in that order. This may require putting two or more verses together (like 5-6). (See: Verse Bridges)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If your language uses phrases, time words or tenses to show that an event happened before the one just mentioned, consider using one of them.

- ²⁰ But then Herod ... had John locked up in prison. ²¹ Now it came about, while all the people were being baptized by John, that Jesus also was baptized. (Luke 3:20-21 ULB)
 - ²⁰ "But then Herod ... had John locked up in prison. ²¹ Before John was put in prison, while all the people were being baptized by John, Jesus also was baptized."
- Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals? (Revelation 5:2 ULB)
 - "Who is worthy to open the scroll after breaking its seals?"

2. If your language uses verb tense or aspect to show that an event happened before one that was already mentioned, consider using that.

- ⁸ Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carried the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Yahweh, as they advanced, they gave a blast on the trumpets...¹⁰ But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "Do not shout. No sound must leave your mouths until the day I tell you to shout. Only then must you shout." (Joshua 6:8-10 ULB)

Exclusive “We”

This answers the question: What is exclusive “we”?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Pronouns

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we” will need to understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The exclusive form excludes the person being spoken to. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.

Reason this is a translation issue - The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we”. Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we” will need to understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples from the Bible

Forgive us our sins (Luke 11:4 ULB)

God has no sins to forgive; so languages that have exclusive forms of “we” and “us” would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us (1 John 1:2 ULB)

John is telling people who have not seen Jesus what he and the other apostles have seen. So languages that have exclusive forms of “we” and “us” would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

This answers the question: What are assumed knowledge, implicit information, and explicit information?

Assumed knowledge is whatever a speaker assumes his audience knows before he speaks and gives them some kind of information. There are two types information.

- Explicit information is what the speaker states directly.
- Implicit information is what the speaker does not state directly because he expects his audience to be able to learn it from what he says.

Description

When someone speaks or writes, he has something specific that he wants people to know. He normally states this directly. This is explicit information.

The speaker assumes that his audience already knows certain things that they will think about in order to understand this information. Normally he does not tell people these things, although what he says may remind them. This is called assumed knowledge.

The speaker does not always directly state everything that he expects his audience to learn from what he says. Information that he expects people to learn from what he says even though he does not state it directly is implicit information.

Examples from the Bible

Then a scribe came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." (Matthew 8:20 ULB)

Jesus did not say what foxes and birds use holes and nests for, because he assumed that the scribe would have known that foxes sleep in holes in the ground and birds sleep in their nests. This is assumed knowledge. Jesus did not directly say here "I am the Son of Man" but, if the scribe did not already know it, then that fact would be implicit information that he could learn because Jesus referred to himself that way. Jesus did not state explicitly that he travelled a lot and did not have a house that he slept in every night. That is implicit information that the scribe could learn when Jesus said that he had nowhere to lay his head.

Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you. (Matthew 11:21, 22 ULB)

Jesus assumed that the people he was speaking to knew that Tyre and Sidon were very wicked, and that the day of judgment is a time when God will judge every person. Jesus also knew that the people he was talking to believed that they were good and did not need to repent. Jesus did not need to tell them these things. This is all assumed knowledge.

An important piece of implicit information here is that because the people he was speaking to did not repent, they would be judged more severely than the people of Tyre and Sidon would be judged.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat. (Matthew 15:2 ULB)

One of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating. People thought that in order to be righteous, they had to follow all the traditions of the elders. This was assumed knowledge that the Pharisees who were speaking to Jesus expected him to know. They were accusing his disciples of not following the traditions. This is implicit information that they wanted him to understand from what they said.

When Masculine Words Include Women

This answers the question: How do I translate “brother” or “he” when it could refer to anyone, male or female?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Pronouns
- Generic Noun Phrases

In some parts of the Bible, the words “men,” “brothers” and “sons” refer only to men. In other parts of the Bible, those words include both men and women. When the writer meant both men and women, translators need to translate it in a way that does not limit the meaning to men.

Description

In some languages a word that normally refers to men can be used to refer to both men and women. For example, the Bible sometimes says ‘brothers’ when it refers to both brothers and sisters.

Also in some languages, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can be used for any person if it is not important whether the person is a man or women. In the example below, the pronoun is “his,” but it is not limited to males.

A wise child makes his father rejoice but a foolish child brings grief to his mother. (Proverbs 10:1 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue

- In some cultures words like “man,” “brother,” and “son” can only be used to refer to men. If those words are used in a translation, people will think that what is being said does not apply to women.
- In some cultures, the masculine pronouns “he” and “him” can only refer to men. If a masculine pronoun is used, people will think that what is said does not apply to women.

Translation Principles

When a statement applies to both men and women, translate it in such a way that people will be able to understand that.

Examples from the Bible

The wise man dies just like the fool dies. (Ecclesiastes 2:16 ULB)

This verse does not contrast men and women. What it says is true of both men and women.

Then said Jesus to his disciples, “If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24-26 ULB)

Jesus was not talking about only men. What he said was true of both men and women.

Caution: Sometimes masculine words are used specifically to refer to men. Do not use words that would lead people to think that they include women. The underlined words below are specifically about men.

Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother must marry his wife and have a child for his brother.' (Matthew 22:24 ULB)

Translation Strategies

If people would understand that that masculine words like “man,” “brother,” and “he” can include women, then consider using them. Otherwise, here are some ways for translating those words when they include women.

1. Use a noun that can be used for both men and women.
2. Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.
3. Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use nouns that can be used for both men and women.

- The wise man dies just like the fool dies. (Ecclesiastes 2:16 ULB)
 - "The wise person dies just like the fool dies."
 - "Wise people die just like fools die."

2. Use a word that refers to men and a word that refers to women.

- For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, about the troubles we had in Asia (2 Corinthians 1:8) - Paul was writing this letter to both men and women.
 - "For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, about the troubles we had in Asia" (2 Corinthians 1:8)

3. Use pronouns that can be used for both men and women.

- If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. (Matthew 16:24 ULB) - English speakers can change the singular pronouns “he” “himself” and “his” to plural pronouns “they” “themselves” and “their” in order to show that it applies to all people, not just men.
 - "If people want to follow me, they must deny themselves, take up their cross, and follow me."

Hendiadys

This answers the question: What is hendiadys and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Parts of Speech

Hendiadys is when a speaker makes a single idea more forceful by connecting two nouns or adjectives with “and” when one of the words actually describes the other.

Description

Hendiadys is when a speaker expresses a single idea by connecting two words with “and” when one of the words actually describes the other.

his own kingdom and glory (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)

Though “kingdom” and “glory” are both nouns, “glory” actually tells what kind of kingdom it is: it is a kingdom of glory or a glorious kingdom.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Often hendiadys has an abstract noun. Some languages may not have a noun with the same meaning.
- Some languages do not use hendiadys, so people may not understand that one word describes the other.

Examples from the Bible

for I will give you words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)

“Words” and “wisdom” are nouns, but in this figure of speech “wisdom” describes “words.”

if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB)

“Willing” and “obedient” are adjectives, but “willing” describes “obedient.”

Translation Strategies

If the hendiadys would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Substitute one noun with an adjective that means the same thing.
2. Substitute one noun with a phrase that means the same thing.
3. Substitute one adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

4. Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word describes the other.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Substitute one noun with an adjective that means the same thing.

- for I will give you *words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)
 - "For I will give you wise words"
- that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to *his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)
 - "that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own glorious kingdom."

2. Substitute one noun with a phrase that means the same thing.

- for I will give you *words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)
 - "For I will give you words of wisdom"
- that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to *his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)
 - "that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own kingdom of glory."

3. Substitute one adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

- if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB)
 - "if you are willingly obedient"

4. Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word describes the other.

- if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB) - The adjective "obedient" can be substituted with the verb "obey."
 - "if you obey willingly"

Hyperbole

This answers the question: What is hyperbole?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Hyperbole is a figure of speech in which the speaker shows that something is very important by describing it as larger or greater than it really is. He may greatly exaggerate something in order to show his strong feeling or opinion about it, or he may generalize the situation by using words like “every” or “all” to mean “many.”

Description

Hyperbole is a figure of speech in which the speaker shows that something is very important by describing it as larger or greater than it really is. There are two kinds of hyperbole:

1. Exaggeration: This is when a speaker deliberately describes something by an extreme or even unreal statement, usually to show his strong feeling or opinion about it.

Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:27 ULB) - This is an exaggeration. It means that whoever wants to be Jesus’ disciple must be determined to follow him faithfully, even if his enemies were to kill that person.

2. Generalization: This is when a speaker uses words like “every” or “all” to mean something like “very many,” but not “every one.” (Some people may not call generalization like this “hyperbole.”)

Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians (Acts 7:22 ULB) - This is a generalization. It means that he had learned much of what the Egyptians knew and taught.

Reason this is a translation issue

If readers do not understand that a statement is a hyperbole, they may either think that something happened that did not happen, or they may think that the speaker or writer was saying something that is not true.

Examples from the Bible

Examples of Exaggeration

If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed... (Mark 9:43 ULB)

When Jesus said to cut off your hand, he meant that we should do whatever extreme things we need to do in order not to sin. He used this hyperbole to show how extremely important it is to try to stop sinning.

If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:26 ULB)

Because of many other things that Jesus said, we know that his use of the word “hate” here is hyperbole. He meant that we must not love even our own family members more than we love him. We must love him more than we love ourselves or anyone else.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5 ULB)

The underlined phrase is an exaggeration. It means that there were many, many soldiers in the Philistine army.

Examples of Generalization

They found him, and they said to him, “Everyone is looking for you.” (Mark 1:37 ULB)

The disciples told Jesus that everyone was looking looking for him. They probably did not mean that everyone in the city was looking for him, but that many people were looking for him, or that all of Jesus closest friends there were looking for him.

But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and even as it has taught you, remain in him. (1 John 2:27 ULB)

This is a generalization. God’s Spirit teaches us about all things that we need to know.

Caution

Do not assume that something is hyperbole just because it seems to be impossible. God does miraculous things.

... they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat ... (John 6:19 ULB)

This is not hyperbole. Jesus really walked on the water. It is a literal statement.

... for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. (Romans 3:23 ULB)

The word “all” here is not hyperbole. All humans have sinned. The only human who has never sinned is Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Translation Strategies

If the hyperbole would be natural and people would understand it and not think that it is a lie, consider using it. If not, here is another option.

1. Express the meaning without the hyperbole. For example “all the people” could be translated as “large crowds of people.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Express the meaning without the hyperbole.

- If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:26 ULB)
 - “If anyone comes to me and does not love me much more than he loves his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple.”
- The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5 ULB)
 - “The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and a great number of troops.”

Hypothetical Situations

This answers the question: What is a hypothetical situation?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Writing Styles

“If the sun stopped shining...” “What if the sun stopped shining...” “Suppose the sun stopped shining...” “If only the sun had not stopped shining.” We use such expressions to set up hypothetical situations, imagining what might have happened or what could happen in the future but probably will not. We also use them to express regret or wishes. These occur often in the Bible. We need to translate them in a way that people will know that the event did not actually happen, and that they’ll understand why the event was imagined.

Description

Hypothetical situations are situations that are not real. They can be in the past, present, or future. Hypothetical situations in the past and present have not happened, and ones in the future are not expected to happen.

People sometimes tell about conditions and what would happen if those conditions were met, but they know that these things have not happened or probably will not happen. (The conditions are the phrase that start with “if.”)

- If he had known about the party, he would have come to it. (But he did not come.)
- If he knew about the party, he would be here. (But he is not here.)
- If he knew about the party, he would come to it. (But he probably will not come.)

People sometimes express wishes about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- I wish he had come.
- I wish he were here.
- I wish he would come.

People sometimes express regrets about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- If only he had come.
- If only he were here.
- If only he would come.

Reason this is a translation issue

- Translators need recognize the different kinds of hypothetical situations in the Bible.
- Translators need to know their own language’s ways of talking about different kinds of hypothetical situations.

Examples from the Bible

1. Hypothetical situation in the past

“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.” (Matthew 11:21 ULB)

Here in Matthew 11:21 Jesus said that if the people living in the ancient cities of Tyre and Sidon had been able to see the miracles that he performed, they would have repented long ago. He said this to rebuke the people of Chorazin and Bethsaida who had seen his miracles yet did not repent. The people of Tyre and Sidon did not actually see his miracles and repent.

2. Hypothetical situations in the present

Also, no man puts new wine into old wineskins. If he did that, the new wine would burst the skins, and the wine would be spilled, and the wineskins would be destroyed. (Luke 5:37 ULB)

Jesus told about what would happen if a person were to put new wine into old wineskins. But no one would do that. He used this imaginary situation as an example to show that people do not mix new things with old things. He did this so that people could understand why his disciples were not fasting as people traditionally did.

Jesus said to them, “What man would there be among you, who, if he had just one sheep, and if this sheep fell into a deep hole on the Sabbath, would not grasp hold of it and lift it out? (Matthew 12:11 ULB)

Jesus asked the religious leaders what they would do on the Sabbath if one of their sheep fell into a hole. He was not saying that their sheep would fall into a hole. He used this imaginary situation to show them that they were wrong to judge him for healing people on the Sabbath.

3. Hypothetical situation in the future

Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. (Matthew 24:22 ULB)

Jesus was talking about a future time when very bad things would happen. He told what would happen if those days of trouble were to last a long time. He did this to show about bad those days will be - so bad that if they lasted a long time, no one would be saved. But then he clarified that God will shorten those days of trouble, so that the elect (those he has chosen) will be saved.

4. Expressing emotion about a hypothetical situation

Regrets and wishes are very similar.

The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by Yahweh’s hand in the land of Egypt when we were sitting by the pots of meat and were eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill our whole community with hunger.” (Exodus 16:3 ULB)

Here the Israelites were afraid they would have to suffer and die of hunger in the wilderness, and so they wished that they had stayed in Egypt and died there with full stomachs. They were complaining.

I know what you have done, and that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot! (Revelation 3:15 ULB)

Jesus' wished that the people were either hot or cold. He was rebuking them.

Translation Strategies

Know how people speaking your language show

- that something could have happened, but did not.
- that something could be true now, but is not.
- that something could happen in the future, but will not unless something changes.
- that they wish for something, but it does not happen.
- that they regret that something did not happen.

Use your language's ways of showing these kinds of things.

Idiom

This answers the question: What are idioms and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

An idiom is a certain kind of figure of speech, the kind that usually cannot be correctly understood without being told its true meaning. Every language has them. Some English examples are:

- You are pulling my leg (This means, “You are telling me a lie”)
- Do not push the envelope (This means, “Do not take a matter to its extreme”)
- This house is under water (This means, “The debt owed for this house is greater than its actual value”)
- We are painting the town red (This means, “We are going around town tonight celebrating very intensely”)

Description

An idiom is a phrase that has a special meaning to the people of the language or culture that uses it. Its meaning may be different from what a person would understand from the meanings of the individual words that form the phrase.

he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULB)

The words “set his face” is an idiom that means “decided.”

Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULB)

The words “enter under my roof” is an idiom that means “enter my house.”

Let these words go deeply into your ears (Luke 9:44 ULB)

This idiom means “Listen carefully and remember what I say.”

Purpose: An idiom is created in a culture probably somewhat by accident when someone describes something in an unusual way. But, when that unusual way communicates the message powerfully and people understand it clearly, other people start to use it.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People can easily misunderstand idioms in the original languages of the Bible if they do not know the cultures that originally wrote the Bible.
- People can easily misunderstand idioms that are in the source language Bibles if they do not know the cultures that made those translations.

Examples from the Bible

“Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, ”Look, we are your flesh and bone.”
(1 Chronicles 11:1 ULB)

This means, “We and you belong to the same race, the same family.”

The kings of the earth take their stand together (Psalm 2:2 ULB)

This means, “The kings on earth plan together.”

the one who lifts up my head” (Psalm 3:3 ULB)

This means, “the one who helps me.”

Translation Strategies

If the idiom would be clearly understood in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.
2. Use a different idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.

- Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULB)
 - “...Look, we all belong to the same nation.”
- he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULB)
 - “He started to travel to Jerusalem, determined to reach it.”
- I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULB)
 - “I am not worthy that you should enter my house.”

2. Use an idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

- Let these words go deeply into your ears (Luke 9:44 ULB)
 - “Be all ears when I say these words to you.”
- ”My eyes grow dim from grief (Psalm 6:7ULB)
 - “I am crying my eyes out”

Imperatives - Other Uses

This answers the question: What other uses are there for imperative sentences in the Bible?

In order to understand this, it would be good to read

- Sentence Types

Description

Imperative sentences are mainly used to express a desire or requirement that someone do something. Sometimes imperative sentences in the Bible have other uses.

Reason this is a translation issue: Some languages would not use an imperative sentence for some of the functions that they are used for in the Bible.

Examples from the Bible

Speakers often use imperative sentences to tell or ask their listeners to do something. In Genesis 2, God spoke to Isaac and told him not to go to Egypt but to live where God would tell him to live.

Now Yahweh appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you to live in. (Genesis 26:2 ULB)

Sometimes imperative sentences in the Bible have other uses.

Imperatives that make things happen

God can make things happen by commanding that they happen. Jesus healed a man by commanding that the man be healed. The man could not obey the command, but Jesus caused him to be healed by commanding it. ("Be clean" means "Be healed.")

"I am willing. Be clean." Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. (Matthew 8:3 ULB)

In Genesis 1, God commanded that there should be light, and by commanding it, he caused it to exist.

God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULB)

Imperatives that Function as Conditions

An imperative sentence can also be used to tell the condition under which something will happen. The proverbs mainly tell about life and things that often happen. The purpose of Proverbs 4:6 below is not primarily to give a command, but to teach what people can expect to happen if they love wisdom.

do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you;
love her and she will keep you safe. (Proverbs 4:6 ULB)

The purpose of Proverbs 22:6 below is teach what people can expect to happen if they teach their children the way they should go.

Teach a child the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULB)

Translation Strategies

1. If people would not use an imperative sentence to cause something to happen, try using a statement instead.
2. If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like “so” to show that what happened was a result of what was said.
3. If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the word “if.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If people would not use an imperative sentence to cause something to happen, try using a statement instead.

- Be clean. (Matthew 8:3 ULB)
 - “You are now clean.”
 - “I now cleanse you.”
- God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULB)
 - “God said, “There is now light” and there was light.

2. If people would not understand that a sentence is used to cause something to happen, add a connecting word like “so” to show that what happened was a result of what was said.

- God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. (Genesis 1:3 ULB)
 - “God said, ‘Let there be light,’ so there was light.”

3. If people would not use a command as a condition, translate it as a statement with the word “if.”

Teach a child the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction. (Proverbs 22:6 ULB)

”If you teach a child the way he should go, when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction.”

Inclusive “We”

This answers the question: What is inclusive “we”?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Pronouns

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.”

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The inclusive form includes the person being spoken to and possibly others. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.

Reason this is a translation issue - The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we.” Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we” will need understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples from the Bible

... the shepherds said one to each other, “Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” (Luke 2:15 ULB)

The shepherds were speaking to one another. When they said “us”, they were including the people they were speaking to - one another.

Now it happened on one of those days that Jesus and his disciples entered into a boat, and he said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” Then they set sail. (Luke 8:22 ULB)

When Jesus said “us,” he was referring to himself and to the disciples he was speaking to.

Irony

This answers the question: What is irony and how can I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Description

Irony is a figure of speech in which a person pretends to say what he really believes, when in fact he is saying what someone else believes, and he does it in a way that shows that other belief is wrong. People do this to emphasize how different something is from what it should be, or how someone else's belief is foolish. It is often humorous.

Jesus answered them, "People who are in good health do not need a physician, only people who are sick need one. I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance." (Luke 5:31-32 ULB)

When Jesus spoke of "righteous people," he was not referring to people who were truly righteous. He was speaking to people who wrongly believed that they were righteous and who were criticizing him for welcoming sinners. Jesus implied that they were wrong to think that they were better than others and did not need to repent.

Reason this is a translation issue

- If someone does not realize that a speaker is using irony, he will think that the speaker actually believes what he is saying. He will not realize that the speaker is ridiculing the idea.

Examples from the Bible

After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64ULB)

The fact that the soldiers were beating Jesus shows us that they did not believe that he was a prophet. They knew that other people thought that Jesus was a prophet, and they may have also thought that Jesus himself claimed to be a prophet. When they told him to prophecy, they were using irony. They were mocking him and implying that if he really was a prophet, then he should be able to tell who hit him without seeing them.

"Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULB)

People worshiped idols as if their idols had any knowledge or power, and Yahweh was angry at them for doing that. So he used irony and challenged their idols to tell what would happen in the future. He knew that the idols could not even speak, but he did this to mock the idols and rebuke the people for worshiping them.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
 Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
"the number of your days is so large!" (Job 38:20, 21 ULB)

Job thought that he was wise. Yahweh used irony to show Job that he was not so wise. The two underlined phrase above emphasize that Job could not possibly answer God's questions about the creation of light because Job was not born until many many years later.

Translation Strategies

If the irony would be understood correctly in your language, translate it as it is stated. If not, here is another strategy.

1. Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.
2. Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony. The actual meaning of the irony is not found in the literal words of the speaker, but instead the true meaning is found in the opposite of the literal meaning of the speaker's words.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.

- After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64 ULB)
 - "After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "You call yourself a prophet. Then prophesy! Who hit you?"
 - "After blindfolding him, they said to him, "Prophesy! If you were really a prophet, you would be able to tell us who hit you."
- I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32 ULB)
 - "I did not come to call people who think that they are righteous to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance."

2. Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony.

- After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64 ULB)

- “After blindfolding him, they said to him, ”You are not a prophet because you cannot even tell us who struck you!” ”
- “Present your case,” says Yahweh; “present your best arguments for your idols,” says the King of Jacob. “Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.” (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULB)
 - ” ‘Present your case,’ says Yahweh; ‘present your best arguments for your idols,’ says the King of Jacob. Your idols cannot bring us their own arguments or even come forward to declare to us what will happen. We cannot hear them because they cannot speak to tell us their earlier predictive declarations, so we cannot reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.”

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?

Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large! (Job 38:20, 21 ULB)

- ”Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them? You act like you know how light and darkness were created, as if you were there; as if you are as old as creation!”

Litotes

This answers the question: What is litotes?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Litotes is a strong statement made by negative phrases to strengthen a positive meaning. It is used to show that the opposite idea is not true.

Description

Litotes is a strong statement made by negative phrases to strengthen a positive meaning. It is used to show that the opposite idea is not true.

Reason this is a translation issue

People who speak some languages do not use litotes and would fail to understand that the statement is strengthened. They might think that it is weakened or even canceled.

Examples from the Bible

For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULB)

By using litotes, Paul emphasized that his visit with them was very worthwhile.

All things were made through him. Without him was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

By using litotes John emphasized that the Son of God created absolutely everything.

Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULB)

By using litotes, Luke emphasized that there was a lot of excitement or anxiety among the soldiers about what happened to Peter. (Peter had been in prison, and even though there were soldiers guarding him, he escaped when an angel let him out. So they were very concerned.)

And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the leaders of Judah,
for from you will come a ruler
who will shepherd my people Israel. (Matthew 2:6 ULB)

By using litotes, the prophet emphasized that Bethlehem would be a very important city.

Translation Strategies

If the litotes would be understood correctly, consider using it.

1. If the meaning would not be clear, say in a strong way what is true.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the meaning would not be clear, say in a strong way what is true.

- For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULB)
 - "For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you did much good."
- Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULB)
 - "Now when it became day, there was great excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter."
 - "Now when it became day, the soldiers were very concerned because of what had happened to Peter."

Merism

This answers the question: What does the word merism mean and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it.

Description

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.” (Revelation 1:8, ULB)

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. (Revelation 22:13, ULB)

“Alpha and Omega” is a merism that includes everything from the beginning to the end. It means eternal.

I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, (Matthew 11:25 ULB)

“Heaven and earth” is a merism that includes everything that exists.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some readers may think that the phrase only applies to the items mentioned. They may not realize that it refers to those two things and everything in between.

Examples from the Bible

From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh’s name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULB)

This underlined phrase is a merism because it speaks of the east and the west and everywhere in between. It means “everywhere.”

He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13)

The underlined phrase is merism because it speaks of old people and young people and everyone in between. It means “everyone.”

Translation Strategies

If the merism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.
2. Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.

- I praise you, Father, Lord of *heaven and earth (Matthew 11:25 ULB)
 - "I praise you, Father, Lord of everything"
- From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh's name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULB)
 - "In all places, people should praise Yahweh."

2. Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

- I praise you, Father, Lord of *heaven and earth (Matthew 11:25 ULB)
 - "I praise you, Father, Lord of everything, including both what is in heaven and what is on earth"
- He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13 ULB)
 - "He will bless all those who honor him, regardless of whether they are young or old."

Metaphor

This answers the question: What is a metaphor and how can I translate a sentence that has one?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Simile

Description

A metaphor is the use of words to speak of one thing as if it were a different thing. Sometimes a speaker does this in ways that are very common in the language. At other times, a speaker does this in ways that are less common in the language and that might even be unique.

1. First we will discuss very common metaphors.

The metaphors that are very common in a language are usually not very vivid. They may even be “dead.” Examples in English are “table leg,” “family tree,” and “the price of food is going up.” Examples in biblical languages are “hand” to mean “power,” “face” to mean “presence,” and “clothing” to mean emotions or moral qualities.

Metaphors like these are in constant use in the world’s languages, because they serve as convenient ways to organize thought. In general, languages speak of abstract qualities, such as power, presence, emotions, and moral qualities, as if they were objects that can be seen or held, or as if they were body parts, or as if they were events that you can watch happen.

When these metaphors are used in their normal ways, the speaker and audience do not normally even regard them as figurative language. This is why, for example, it would be wrong to translate the English expression, “The price of petrol is going up” into another language in a way that would draw undeserved attention to it, because English speakers do not view it as a vivid expression, that is, as an unusual expression that carries meaning in an unusual manner.

For a description of important patterns of this kind of metaphor, please see Biblical Imagery - Common Patterns and the pages it will direct you to.

2. Next we will discuss the less common metaphors, metaphors that are sometimes even unique in a language.

The speaker usually produces metaphors of this kind in order to emphasize the importance of what he is talking about. For example,

For you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.
(Malachi 4:2 ULB)

Here God speaks about his salvation as if it were the sun rising to shine its rays on the people whom he loves. And he speaks of the sun’s rays as if they were wings. Also, he speaks of these wings as if they were bringing medicine that would heal his people.

We call this kind of metaphor “live.” It is unique in the biblical languages, which means that it is very memorable.

Parts of a Metaphor

When talking about metaphors, it can be helpful to talk about their parts. The thing someone speaks of is called the topic. The thing he calls it is the image. The way that they are similar is the point of comparison.

In the metaphor below, the speaker describes the woman he loves as a rose. The woman (his “love”) is the topic and the red rose is the image. Both are beautiful and delicate.

- My love is a red, red rose.

1. Sometimes the topic and the image are both stated clearly.

Jesus said to them. “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not hunger, and he who believes on me will never thirst.” (John 6:35 ULB)

Jesus called himself the bread of life. The topic is “I” and the image is “bread.” Bread is a food that people ate all the time. Just as people need to eat food in order to have physical life, people need to trust in Jesus in order to have spiritual life.

2. Sometimes only the image is stated clearly.

Produce fruits that are worthy of repentance (Luke 3:8 ULB)

The image here is “fruits”. The topic is not stated, but it is actions or behavior. Trees can produce good fruit or bad fruit, and people can produce good behavior or bad behavior. Fruits that are worthy of repentance are good behavior that is appropriate for people who have repented.

Purposes of this second kind of metaphor

- One purpose of metaphor is to teach people about something that they do not know (the topic) by showing that it is like something that they already know (the image).
- Another purpose is to emphasize that something has a particular quality or to show that it has that quality in an extreme way.
- Another purpose is to lead people to feel the same way about one thing as they would feel toward another.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People may not realize that a word is being used as an image in a metaphor.
- People may not be familiar with the thing that is used as an image.
- If the topic is not stated, people may not know what the topic is.
- People may not know how the topic and the image are alike.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of a metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.

- Do not make the meaning of a metaphor more clear to the target audience than it was to the original audience.

Examples from the Bible

And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

The example above has two metaphors. The topics are “we” and “you” and the images are “clay and ”potter.” Just as a potter takes clay and forms a jar or dish out of it, God makes us into what he wants us to be.

Jesus said to them, ”Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” The disciples reasoned among themselves and said, “It is because we took no bread.” (Matthew 16:6-7 ULB)

Jesus used a metaphor, but his disciples did not realize it. When he said “yeast,” they thought he was talking about bread, but “yeast” was the image in his metaphor about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Since the disciples did not understand what Jesus meant, it would not be good to state clearly here what Jesus meant.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the metaphor in the same way that the original readers would have understood it, go ahead and use it. If not, here are some other strategies.

1. If the metaphor is common and seems to be a normal way to say something in the biblical language, express the main idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.
2. If the target audience would think that the phrase should be understood literally, change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.”
3. If the target audience would not know the image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.
4. If the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.
5. Or, if the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, simply state the truth that the metaphor was used to communicate.
6. If the target audience would not know what the topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)
7. If the target audience would not know how the topic is like the image, state it clearly.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the metaphor is common and seems to be a normal way to say something in the biblical language, express the main idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.

- For after David had in his own generation served the desires of God, he fell asleep, was laid with his fathers, and saw decay, (Acts 13:36 ULB)

- "For after David had in his own generation served the desires of God, he died, was laid with his fathers, and saw decay."

2. If the target audience would think that the phrase should be understood literally, change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding "like" or "as."

- And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are like clay. You are like a potter; and we all are the work of your hand."

3. If the target audience would not know the image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

- Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULB)

- "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a pointed stick."

4. If the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.

- And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the wood. You are our carver; and we all are the work of your hand."

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the string. You are the weaver; and we all are the work of your hand."

5. Or, if the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, simply state the truth that the metaphor was used to communicate.

- I will make you become fishers of men. (Mark 1:17 ULB)

- "I will make you become people who gather men."

- "Now you gather fish. I will make you gather people."

6. If the target audience would not know what the topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)

- Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULB)

- "Yahweh lives; He is my rock. May he be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

7. If the target audience would not know how the topic is like the image, state it clearly.

- Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULB)
 - "Yahweh lives; may he be praised because like a huge rock, he shields me from my enemies. May the God of my salvation be exalted."
- Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULB)
 - "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You fight against me and hurt yourself like an ox that kicks against its owner's pointed stick."

Metonymy

This answers the question: What is a metonymy?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Many times the Bible uses metonymy. If you do not recognize it as a metonymy you will not understand the passage or worse yet, get the wrong understanding of the passage.

Description

Metonymy is a figure of speech in which a thing or idea is called not by its own name, but by the name of something closely associated with it. A metonym is a word or phrase used as a substitute for something it is associated with.

and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (1 John 1:7 ULB)

The blood represents Christ's death.

He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULB)

The cup represents the wine that is in the cup.

Metonymy can be used

- as a shorter way of referring to something
- to make an abstract idea more meaningful by referring to it with the name of a concrete object associated with it.

Reason this is a translation issue

- If a metonym is used, people need to be able to understand what it represents.

Examples from the Bible

The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULB)

A throne represents the authority of a king. Throne is a metonym for "kingly authority," "kingship" or, "reign." This means that God would make him become the king who was to follow King David.

Immediately his mouth was opened (Luke 1:64 ULB)

The mouth here represents the power to speak. This means that he was able to talk again.

who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7 ULB)

The word “wrath” or “anger” is a metonym for “punishment.” God was extremely angry with the people and, as a result, he would punish them.

Translation Strategies

If people would easily understand the metonym, consider using it. Otherwise, here is an option.

1. Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.
2. Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

- He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULB)
 - “He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “The wine in this cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.”

2. Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

- The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULB)
 - “The Lord God will give him the kingly authority of his father, David.”
 - “The Lord God will make him king like his ancestor, King David.”
- who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Luke 3:7 ULB)
 - “who warned you to flee from God’s coming punishment?”

Nominal Adjectives

This answers the question: How do I translate adjectives that act like nouns?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech

Many times in the Bible adjectives are used as nouns to describe a group of people.

Description

In some languages an adjective can be used to refer to a class of things that the adjective describes. When it does, it acts like a noun. For example, the word “rich” is an adjective. Here are two sentences that show that “rich” is an adjective.

The rich man had huge numbers of flocks and herds, (2 Samuel 12:2 ULB)

The adjective “rich” comes before the word “man” and describes “man.”

He will not be rich; his wealth will not last; (Job 15:29 ULB)

The adjective “rich” comes after the verb “be” and describes “He.”

...the rich must not give more than the half shekel, and the poor must not give less.
(Exodus 30:15 ULB)

In Exodus 30:15, the word “rich” acts as a noun in the phrase “the rich,” and it refers to rich people. The word “poor” also acts as a noun and refers to poor people.

Reason this is a translation issue

- Some languages do not use adjectives this way.
- Readers may think that the text is talking about one particular person when it is really talking about many people whom the adjective describes.

Examples from the Bible

The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. (Psalms 125:3 ULB)

“The righteous” here are people who are righteous, not one particular righteous person.

Blessed are the meek (Matthew 5:5 ULB)

“The meek” here are people who are meek, not one particular meek person.

Translation Strategies

If your language uses adjectives as nouns to refer to a class of people, consider using the adjectives this way. If it would sound strange, or if the meaning would be unclear or wrong, here is another option:

1. Use the adjective with a plural form of the noun that the adjective describes.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the adjective with a plural form of the noun that the adjective describes.
 - The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. (Psalms 125:3 ULB)
 - "The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of righteous people."
 - Blessed are *the meek (Matthew 5:5 ULB)
 - "Blessed are people who are meek"

Parables

This answers the question: What is a parable?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

A parable is a short story that makes truth easy to understand and hard to forget.

Description

A parable is a short story that is told to teach a truth. Though the events in a parable could happen, they did not actually happen. They are told only to teach a truth. Parables rarely contain the names of specific people. (This may help you identify what is a parable and what is an account of a real event.) Parables often have figures of speech such as simile and metaphor.

Then he also told them a parable. “Can a blind person guide another blind person? If he did, they would both fall into a pit, would they not?” (Luke 6:39 ULB)

This parable teaches that if a person does not have spiritual understanding, he cannot help someone else to understand spiritual things.

Examples from the Bible

Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather, on the lampstand, and it shines for everyone in the house. Let your light shine before people in such a way that they see your good deeds and praise your Father who is in heaven. (Matthew 5:15-16 ULB)

This parable teaches us not to hide the way we live for God from other people.

Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. This seed is indeed the smallest of all other seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.” (Matthew 13:31-32 ULB)

This parable teaches that the kingdom of God may seem small at first, but it will grow and spread throughout the world.

Translation Strategies

1. If a parable is hard to understand because it has unknown things in it, you can replace the unknown things with things that people in your culture know. However, be careful to keep the teaching the same. (See: Translate Unknowns)

2. If the teaching of the parable is unclear, consider telling a little about what it teaches in the introduction, such as “Jesus told this story about being generous.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If a parable is hard to understand because it has unknown things in it, you can replace the unknown things with things that people in your culture know. However, be careful to keep the teaching the same.

- Jesus said to them, “Do you bring a lamp inside the house to put it under a basket, or under the bed? You bring it in and you put it on a lampstand”. (Mark 4:21 ULB) - If people do not know what a lampstand is, you could substitute something else that people put a light on so it can give light to the house.
 - Jesus said to them, “Do you bring a lamp inside the house to put it under a basket, or under the bed? You bring it in and you put it on a high shelf.”
- Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. This seed is indeed the smallest of all other seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.” (Matthew 13:31-32) - To sow seeds means to toss them so that they scatter on the ground. If people are not familiar with sowing, you can substitute planting.
 - “Then Jesus presented another parable to them. He said, “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and planted in his field. This seed is indeed the smallest of all other seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.” ”

 - ”Jesus told them a parable about why they should witness openly. “Do you bring a lamp inside the house to put it under a basket, or under the bed? You bring it in and you put it on a lampstand.” ” (Mark 4:21 ULB)
- He said, “To what can we compare the kingdom of God and what parable can we use to explain it? It is like a mustard seed, which when it is sown it is the smallest of all the seeds sown that lay upon the ground. Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all the garden plants. It puts out great branches, so even the birds of heaven can make their nests under its shade.” (Mark 4:30-32 ULB)

- *”He told them a story about how the Kingdom of God grows. “To what can we compare the kingdom of God and what parable can we use to explain it? It is like a mustard seed, which when it is sown it is the smallest of all the seeds sown that lay upon the ground. Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all the garden plants. Parallelism

This answers the question: What is parallelism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Description

In parallelism two phrases or clauses that are similar in structure or idea are used together. There are different kinds of parallelism. Some of them are the following:

1. The second clause or phrase means the same as the first.
2. The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.
3. The second completes what is said in the first.
4. The second says something that contrasts with the first.

Parallelism is most commonly found in Old Testament poetry, such as in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. It also occurs in Greek in the New Testament, both in the four gospels and in the apostles' letters.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some languages would not use the kind of parallelism in which the two phrases mean the same thing. They would either think it odd that someone said the same thing twice, or they think that the two phrases must have some difference in meaning.

Examples from the Bible

1. The second clause or phrase means the same as the first.

You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULB)

Both lines say that God made man the ruler of everything.

2. The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.

The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere, keeping watch over the evil and the good. (Proverbs 15:3 ULB)

The second line tells more specifically what Yahweh watches.

3. The second completes what is said in the first.

I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. (Psalm 3:4 ULB)

The second line tells what Yahweh does in response to what the person does in the first clause.

4. The second says something that contrasts with the first.

For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish. (Psalm 1:6 ULB)

This contrasts what happens to righteous people with what happens to wicked people.

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. (Proverbs 15:1 ULB)

This contrasts what happens when someone gives a gentle answer with what happens when someone says something harsh.

Translation Strategies

1. For most kinds of parallelism, it is good to translate both of the clauses or phrases.
2. When the two clauses or phrases mean the same thing, some languages would not translate them both. (See Parallelism with the Same Meaning)

Personification

This answers the question: What is personification?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often speak this way because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see, such as wisdom and sin.

Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB)

Some languages do not use personification, and some languages use it only in certain situations.

Description

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often do this because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see, such as wisdom, sin, and wind. For example:

Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB)

People also do this because it is sometimes easier to talk about relationships between people and other people than about relationships between people and non-human things, such as wealth.

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue

- Some languages do not use personification.
- Some languages use personification only in certain situations.

Examples from the Bible

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULB)

Jesus speaks of wealth as if it were a master whom people might serve. Loving money and basing one's decisions on it is like serving it as a slave would serve his master.

Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

The author speaks of wisdom and understanding as if they are a woman who calls out to teach people. They are not something hidden, but something obvious that people should pay attention to.

Translation Strategies

If the personification would not be understood clearly, here are some strategies for dealing with it.

1. Add words or phrases to make it clear.
2. Use the words “like” or “as” to show that the sentences is not to be understood literally.
3. Find a way to translate it without the personification.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add words or phrases to make it clear.

- sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB) - God speaks of sin as a wild animal that is waiting for the chance to attack. This shows how dangerous sin is. An additional phrase can be added to make this danger clear.
 - “sin is at your door, waiting to attack you”

2. Use the words “like” or “as” to show that the sentences is not to be understood literally.

- sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB) - This can be translated with the word “as.”
 - ”sin is about to destroy you, just as a wild animal could harm a person.”

3. Find a way to translate it without the personification.

- even the winds and the sea obey him (Matthew 8:27 ULB) - The men speak of the wind and the sea as if they are able to hear and obey Jesus as people can. This could also be translated without the idea of obedience by speaking of Jesus controlling them.
 - “He even controls the winds and the sea.”

Note: We have broadened our definition of “personification” to include “zoomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had animal characteristics) and “anthropomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had human characteristics).

Pronouns

This answers the question: What are pronouns and what kinds of pronouns are in some languages?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech

Pronouns are words that people use instead of a noun to refer to someone or something. Some examples are I, you, he, it, this, that, himself, someone.

Description

Pronouns are words that people use instead of a noun to refer to someone or something. There are six different types of pronouns.

Personal Pronouns

Personal pronouns refer to people or things and show if the speaker is referring to himself, the person he is speaking to, or someone or something else. The following are kinds of information that personal pronouns may give.

Person

- First Person - The speaker and possibly others (I, we)
 - Inclusive “We”
 - Exclusive “We”
- Second Person - The person or people that the speaker is talking to and possibly others (you)
 - Forms of You
- Third Person - Someone or something other than the speaker and those he is talking to (he, she, it, they)

Number

- Singular - one (I, you, he, she, it)
- Plural - more than one (we, you, they)
- Dual - two (Some languages have pronouns for specifically two people or two things.)

Gender

- Masculine - he
- Feminine - she
- Neuter - it

Relationship to other words in the sentence

- Subject of the verb: I, you, he, she, it, we, they
- Object of the verb or preposition: me, you, him, her, it, us, them
- Possessor with a noun: my, your, his, her, its, our, their
- Possessor without a noun: mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, theirs

Other Types of pronouns

Reflexive Pronouns refer to another noun or pronoun in the same sentence: myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves (See: Reflexive Pronouns)

- John saw himself in the mirror. - The word “himself” refers to John.

Interrogative Pronouns are used to make a question that needs more than just a yes or no for an answer: who, whom, whose, what, where, when, why, how

- Who* built the house?

Relative Pronouns mark a relative clause: that, which, who, whom, where, when

- I saw the house that John built. The clause “that John built” tells which house I saw.
- I saw the man who built the house. The clause “who built the house” tells which man I saw.

Demonstrative Pronouns are used to draw attention to someone or something and to show distance from the speaker or something else: this, these, that, those.

- Have you seen this here?
- Who is that over there?

Indefinite pronouns are used when no particular noun is being referred to: any, anyone, someone, anything, something, some. Sometimes a personal pronoun is used: you, they, he or it.

- He does not want to talk to anyone.
- Someone* fixed it, but I do not know who.

Direct and Indirect Quotations

This answers the question: What are direct and indirect quotations?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Pronouns
- Verbs
- Quotations and Quote Margins

There are two kinds of quotations: direct quotation and indirect quotation.

- Direct Quotation: John said, “I do not know at what time I will arrive.”
- Indirect Quotation: John said that he did not know what time he would arrive.

When translating a quotation, translators need to decide whether to translate it as a direct quotation or an indirect quotation.

Watch the video for computer (see <http://youtu.be/oe9Pbk8pFTw>) or tablet/phone (see <http://youtu.be/9ZKDMCWuCiw>).

Description

In some languages, reported speech can be expressed by direct or indirect quotations.

A direct quotation occurs when someone reports what another person said from the viewpoint of that original speaker. People usually expect that this kind of quotation will represent the original speaker’s exact words. In the example below, John would have said “I” when referring to himself, so the narrator, who is telling about John John saying this, uses the word in the quotation “I” to refer to John.

- John said, “I do not know at what time I will arrive.”

An indirect quotation occurs when a speaker reports what someone else said, but in this case, the speaker is reporting it from his own point of view instead of from the original person’s point of view. This kind of quotation usually features changes in pronouns, and it often features changes in time, in word choices, and in length. In the example below, the narrator refers to John as “he” in the quotation and uses the word “would,” which is the past tense of “will.”

- John said that he did not know what time he would arrive.

Examples from the Bible

The verses in the examples below have both direct and indirect quotations. In the explanation below the verse, we have underlined the quotations.

He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, “Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULB)

- Indirect quote: He instructed him to tell no one,
- Direct quote: but told him, ”Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest...”

Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not something that can be observed. Neither will they say, ‘Look here!’ or, ‘Look there!’ because the kingdom of God is among you.” (Luke 17:20-21 ULB)

- Indirect quote: Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come,
- Direct quote: Jesus answered them and said, ”The kingdom of God is not something that can be observed. Neither will they say, ‘Look here!’ or, ‘Look there!’ because the kingdom of God is among you.”
- Direct quotes: Neither will they say, ’Look here!’ or, ’Look there!’

Translation Strategies

If the kind of quote used in the source text would work well in your language, consider using it.

1. If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.
2. If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1) If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.

- He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, *”Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULB)
 - He instructed him to tell no one, but to go on his way, and show himself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for his cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

2) If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

- He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, *“Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULB)
 - He told him ”Tell no one. But go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

Quotes within Quotes

This answers the question: What is a quote within a quote, and how can I help the readers understand who is saying what?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Direct and Indirect Quotations

A quotation may have a quote within it, and quotes that are inside of other quotes can also have quotes within them. When there are many layers of quotes inside of quotes, it can be hard for listeners and readers to understand who is saying what. Some languages use a combination of direct quotes and indirect quotes to make it easier.

Description

A quotation may have a quote within it, and quotes that are inside of other quotes can also have quotes within them. When a quote has quotes within it, we can talk about it having layers of quotation, and each of the quotes is a layer. When there are many layers of quotes inside of quotes, it can be hard for listeners and readers to know who is saying what. Some languages use a combination of direct quotes and indirect quotes to make it easier.

Reasons this is a translation issue

1. When there is a quote within a quote, the listener needs to know who the pronouns refer to. For example if a quote that is inside a quote has the word “I,” the listener needs to know whether “I” refers to the speaker of the inner quote or the outer quote.
2. Some languages make this clear by using different kinds of quotes when there are quotes within quotes. They may use direct quotes for some and indirect quotes for others.
3. Some languages do not use indirect quotes.

Examples from the Bible

A quotation with only one layer

But Paul said, “I was born a Roman citizen.” (Acts 22:28 ULB)

Quotations with two layers

Jesus answered and said to them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray. For many will come in my name. They will say, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will lead many astray.
Matthew 24:4-5 ULB

The outermost layer is what Jesus said to his disciples. The second layer is what other people will say.

Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king.” (John 18:37 ULB)

The outermost layer is what Jesus said to Pilate. The second layer is what Pilate said about Jesus.

A quotation with three layers

Abraham said, “... I said to her, ‘You must show me this faithfulness as my wife: At every place where we go, say about me, “He is my brother.”’ ” (Genesis 20:10-13 ULB)

The outermost layer is what Abraham said to Abimelech. The second layer is what Abraham had told his wife. The third layer is what he wanted his wife to say. (We have underlined the third layer.)

A quotation with four layers

They said to him, “A man came to meet us who said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, “Yahweh says this: ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.’” ’ ” (2 Kings 1:6 ULB)

The outermost layer is what the messengers said to the king. The second layer is what the man who had met the messengers told them. The third is what that man wanted the messengers to say to the king. The fourth is what Yahweh said. (We have underlined the fourth layer.)

Translation Strategies

Some languages use only direct quotes. Other languages use a combination of direct quotes and indirect quotes. In those languages it might sound strange and perhaps even be confusing if there are many layers of direct quotes.

1. Translate all of the quotes as direct quotes.
2. Translate one or some of the quotes as indirect quotes. (See: Direct and Indirect Quotations)

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate all of the quotes as direct quotes. In the example below we have underlined the indirect quotes in the ULB and the quotes that we have changed to direct quotes below it.

- Festus presented Paul’s case to the king; he said, “A certain man was left behind here by Felix as a prisoner. ...I was puzzled about how to investigate this matter, and I asked him if he would go to Jerusalem to be judged there about these things. But when Paul called to be kept under guard for the Emperor’s decision, I ordered him to be kept until I send him to Caesar.” (Acts 25:14-21 ULB)

- Festus presented Paul's case to the king; he said, "A certain man was left behind here by Felix as a prisoner. ...I was puzzled about how to investigate this matter, and I asked him 'Will you go to Jerusalem to be judged there about these things?' But when Paul said 'I want to be kept under guard for the Emperor's decision,' I told the guard 'Keep him under guard until I send him to Caesar.'"

2. Translate one or some of the quotes as indirect quotes. In English the word "that" can come before indirect quotes. It is underlined in the examples below. The pronouns that changed because of the indirect quote are also underlined.

- Then Yahweh spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God.' " (Exodus 16:11-12 ULB)

 - Then Yahweh spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them that at twilight they will eat meat, and in the morning they will be filled with bread. Then they will know that I am the Lord their God."

- They said to him, "A man came to meet us who said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you, and say to him, "Yahweh says this: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.' " ' " (2 Kings 1:6 ULB)

 - They told him that a man had come to meet them who said to them, "Go back to the king who sent you, and tell him that Yahweh says this: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Rhetorical Question

This answers the question: What are rhetorical questions and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Sentences

A rhetorical question is a question to which the speaker does not expect an answer because he is not looking for information. Speakers use rhetorical questions to express deep emotion or to encourage hearers to think deeply about something. The Bible contains many rhetorical questions, often to express sarcasm or to rebuke or scold the hearer. Speakers of some languages use rhetorical questions for other reasons as well.

Description

A rhetorical question is a question to which the speaker does not expect an answer because he is not looking for information. Speakers often use rhetorical questions to rebuke or scold people.

Those who stood by said, Is this how you insult God's high priest?" (Acts 23:4 ULB) The people did not ask this question in order to get information. Rather they used it to scold Paul because they did not think he should have spoken as he did to the high priest.

The Bible contains many rhetorical questions. Some of the purposes of these rhetorical questions are to remind people of something that they already know, to express strong emotion, to say something in a strong way, or to introduce something they want to talk about.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some readers may think that a question is a request for information.
- Some languages use rhetorical questions only for scolding.
- Some readers might think that the purpose of a question is something other than what it really is.

Examples from the Bible

Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULB)

Jezebel used the question above to remind King Ahab of something he already knew: he still ruled the kingdom of Israel. She did this in order to rebuke him for being unwilling to take over a poor man's property. She was implying that since he was the king of Israel he should feel free to take the man's property.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULB)

God used the question above to remind his people of something they already knew: a woman would never forget her jewelry and veils. He then rebuked his people for forgetting him, who is so much greater than those things.

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11 ULB)

Job used the question above to show how sad he was that he did not die as soon as he was born. He wished that he had not lived.

And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULB)

Elizabeth used the question above to show how surprised and happy she was that the mother of her Lord came to her.

Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULB)

Jesus used the question above to remind the people of something they already knew: a good father would never give his son something bad to eat.

Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from heaven give good things to those who ask him? (Matthew 7:11 ULB)

Jesus used this question to teach the people in an emphatic way that God gives good things to those who ask him.

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed which a man took and threw into his garden... (Luke 13:18-19 ULB)

Jesus used the question above to introduce what he was going to talk about. He was going to compare the kingdom of God to something.

Translation Strategies

Be sure you know that you are dealing with a rhetorical question and not an information question. Then be sure you know what the purpose of the rhetorical question is. Is it to encourage or rebuke or shame the hearer? Is it to bring up a new topic? Is it to do something else?

If using the rhetorical question would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing so. If not, here are other options:

1. Add the answer after the question.
2. Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.
3. Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add the answer after the question.

- Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULB)
 - Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Of course not! Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!
- Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULB)
 - ”Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? None of you would do that!”

2. Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.

- What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed... (Luke 13:18-19 ULB)
 - “This is what the kingdom of God is like. It is like a mustard seed...”
- Is this how you insult God’s high priest? (Acts 23:4 ULB)
 - You should not insult God’s high priest!”
- Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11 ULB)
 - I wish I had died when I came out from the womb!”
- And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULB)
 - “How wonderful it is that the mother of my Lord has come to me!”

3. Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

- Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULB)
 - ”You still rule the kingdom of Israel, don’t you?”

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

A simile is a comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. One is said to be “like” the other. It focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as” or “than.”

Description

A simile is a comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. It focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as” or “than.”

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were worried and confused, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36 ULB)

Jesus compared the crowds of people to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep grow frightened when they do not have a good shepherd to lead them in safe places. The crowds were like that because they did not have good religious leaders.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves. (Matthew 10:16 ULB)

Jesus compared his disciples to sheep and their enemies to wolves. Wolves attack sheep. Jesus’ enemies would attack his disciples.

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12 ULB)

God’s word is compared to a two-edged sword. A two-edged sword is a weapon that can easily cut through a person’s flesh. God’s word is very effective in showing what is in a person’s heart and thoughts.

Purposes of Simile

- A simile can teach about something that is unknown by showing how it is similar to something that is known.
- A simile can emphasize a particular trait, sometimes in a way that gets people’s attention.
- Similes help form a picture in the mind or help the reader experience what he is reading about more fully.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People may not know how the two items are similar.
- People may not be familiar with the item that something is compared to.

Examples from the Bible

Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 2:3 ULB)

In this simile, Paul compares suffering with what soldiers endure, and he encourages Timothy to follow their example.

for as the lightning appears when it flashes from one part of the sky to another part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in his day. (Luke 17:24 ULB)

This verse does not tell how the Son of Man will be like the lightning. But from the context we can understand from the verses before it that just as lightning flashes suddenly and everyone can see it, the Son of Man will come suddenly and everyone will be able to see him. No one will have to be told about it.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the correct meaning of a simile, consider using it. If they would not, here are some strategies you can use:

1. If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.
2. If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible.
3. Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1 If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.

- See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, (Matthew 10:16 ULB) - This compares the danger that Jesus' disciples would be in with the danger that sheep are in when they are surrounded by wolves.
 - "See, I send you out among wicked people and you will be in danger from them as sheep are in danger when they are among wolves."
- For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12 ULB)
 - "For the word of God is living and active and more powerful than a very sharp two-edged sword"

2. If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible.

- See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, (Matthew 10:16 ULB) - If people do not know what sheep and wolves are, or that wolves kill and eat sheep, you could use some other animal that kills another.
 - "See, I send you out as chickens in the midst of wild dogs,"
- How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you did not agree! (Matthew 23:37 ULB)
 - How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a mother closely watches over her infants, but you refused!
- If you have faith even as small as a grain of mustard, (Matthew 17:20 ULB)
 - "If you have faith even as small as a tiny seed"

3. Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

- See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, (Matthew 10:16 ULB)
 - "See, I send you out and people will want to harm you."
- How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you did not agree! (Matthew 23:37 ULB)
 - "How often I wanted to protect you, but you refused!"

Synecdoche

This answers the question: What does the word synecdoche mean?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Synecdoche is when a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole or uses the whole to refer to a part.

Description

Synecdoche is when a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole or uses the whole to refer to a part.

My soul exalts the Lord. (Luke 1:46 ULB)

Mary was very happy about what the Lord was doing, so she said “my soul”, the part of herself that has emotions, to refer to her whole self.

the Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing something that is not lawful ...?”
(Mark 2:24 ULB)

The Pharisees who were standing there did not all say the same words at the same time. Instead, it is more likely that one man representing the group said those words.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some readers may understand the words literally.
- Some readers may realize that they are not to understand the words literally, but they may not know what the meaning is.

Example from the Bible

I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished (Ecclesiastes 2:11 ULB)

“My hands” is a synecdoche for the whole person, because clearly the legs and the rest of the body and the mind were also involved.

Translation Strategies

If the synecdoche would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

- My soul exalts the Lord. (Luke 1:46 ULB)
 - "I exalt the Lord."
- the Pharisees said to him (Mark 2:24 ULB)
 - "a representative of the Pharisees said to him"

Forms of You

This answers the question: What are the different forms of you?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Forms of 'You' - Singular
- Forms of 'You' - Dual/Plural

Singular, Dual, and Plural

Some languages have more than one word for “you” based on how many people the word “you” refers to. The singular form refers to one person, and the plural form refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form which refers to two people, and some have other forms that refer to three or four people.

Watch the video for Singular, Dual, and Plural “you” for computer (see <http://youtu.be/cPtjzJ2Advk>) or tablet/phone (see <http://youtu.be/AVITfDEk8nc>).

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses a singular form of “you” even though he is speaking to a crowd.

- Forms of 'You' - Singular to a Crowd

Formal and Informal

Some languages have more than one form of “you” based on the relationship between the speaker and the person he is talking to. People use the formal form of “you” when speaking to someone who is older, or has higher authority, or is someone they do not know very well. People use the informal form when speaking to someone who is not older, or does not have higher authority, or is a family member or close friend. Watch the video on Formal and Informal ‘You’ on the computer or on the tablet/phone. For help with translating these, we suggest you read:

Translating Son and Father

This answers the question: Why are these concepts important in referring to God?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Create Faithful Translations
- Son of God and God the Father

unfoldingWord supports only Bible translations that represent these concepts when they refer to God.

“Father” and “Son” are names that God calls himself in the Bible.

The Bible shows that God called Jesus his Son.

After he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and... a voice came out of the heavens saying, “This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him.” (Matthew 3:16-17 ULB)

The Bible shows that Jesus called God his Father.

Jesus said, “I praise you Father, Lord of heaven and earth,... no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son” (Matthew 11:25-27 ULB) (See also: John 6:26-57 ULB)

Christians have found that “Father” and “Son” are the ideas that most essentially describe the eternal relationship of the First and Second Persons of the Trinity to each other. The Bible indeed refers to them in various ways, but no other terms reflect the kind of eternal love and intimacy between these Persons, nor the interdependent eternal relationship between them.

Jesus referred to God in the following terms:

Baptize them into the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19 ULB)

The intimate, loving relationship between the Father and the Son is eternal.

no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son. (Luke 10:22 ULB)

Jesus said, “Father, glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you... I glorified you on the earth,... Now Father, glorify me... with the glory that I had with you before the world was created.” (John 17:1-5 ULB)

The Father loves the Son. (John 3:35-36; 5:19-20 ULB)

I love the Father, I do what the Father commands me, just as he gave me the commandment. (John 14:31 ULB)

Human fathers and sons are not perfect, but the Bible still uses those terms for the Father and Son, who are perfect.

Just as today, human father-son relationships during Bible times were never as loving or perfect as the relationship between Jesus and his Father. But this does not mean that the translator should avoid the concepts of father and son. The scriptures use these terms to refer to God, the perfect Father and Son, as well as to sinful human fathers and sons. In referring to God as Father and Son, choose words in your language that are widely used and refer to a human “father” and “son.”

Translation Strategies

1. Think through all the possibilities that your language has to translate the words “son” and “father.” Determine which words in your language best represent the divine “Son” and “Father.”
2. If your language has more than one word for “son,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “only son” (or “first son” if necessary).
3. If your language has more than one word for “father,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “birth father,” rather than “adoptive father.”

Biblical Distance

This answers the question: How can I translate the lengths and distances that are in the Bible?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Decimal Numbers
- Fractions

Description

The following terms are the most common measures for distance or length that were originally used in the Bible. Most of these are based on the sizes of the hand and forearm.

- The handbreadth was the width of the palm of a man's hand.
- The span or handspan was the width of a man's hand with the fingers spread out.
- The cubit was the length of a man's forearm, from the elbow to the tip of the longest finger.
- The "long" cubit is used only in Ezekiel 40-48. It is the length of a normal cubit plus a span.
- The stadium (plural, stadia) referred to a certain footrace that was about 185 meters in length. Some older English versions translated this word as "furlong", which referred to the average length of a plowed field.

Original Measure	Centimeters	Meters
handbreadth	8 centimeters	.08 meters
span	23 centimeters	.23 meters
cubit	46 centimeters	.46 meters
"long" cubit	54 centimeters	.54 meters
stadia	-	185 meters

Translation Principles

1. The people in the Bible did not use modern measures such as meters, liters, and kilograms. Using the original measures can help readers know that the Bible really was written long ago in a time when people used those measures.
2. Using modern measures can help readers understand the text more easily.
3. Whatever measure you use, it would be good, if possible, to tell about the other kind of measure in the text or a footnote.

Translation Strategies

1. Use the measurements from the ULB. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULB. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)

2. Use the metric measurements given in the UDB. The translators of the UDB have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.
3. Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement.
4. Use the measurements from the ULB and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note.
5. Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULB in the text or in a note.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Exodus 25:10 below.

- They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half cubits; its width will be one cubit and a half; and its height will be one cubit and a half. (Exodus 25:10 ULB)

1. Use the measurements given in the ULB. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULB. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)

- "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half kubits; its width will be one kubit and a half; and its height will be one kubit and a half."

2. Use the metric measurements given in the UDB. The translators of the UDB have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.

- "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; its width will be 0.7 meter; and its height will be 0.7 meter."

3. Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement. For example, if you measure things using the standard foot length, you could translate it as below.

- "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be 3 3/4 feet; its width will be 2 1/4 feet; and its height will be 2 1/4 feet."

4. Use the measurements from the ULB and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note. The following shows both measurements in the text.

- "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be two and a half cubits (one meter); its width will be one cubit and a half (0.7 meter); and its height will be one cubit and a half (0.7 meter)."

5. Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULB in the text or in a note. The following shows the ULB measurements in notes.

- "They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be *one meter*¹; its width will be *0.7 meter*²; and its height will be 0.7 meter." The footnotes would look like:
 - ^[1] one meter two and a half cubits
 - ^[2] one cubit and a half

Biblical Money

This answers the question: How can I translate the values of money in the Bible?

Description:

In early Old Testament times, people weighed their metals such as silver and gold in order to buy things. Later people started to make coins. The daric is one such coin. In New Testament times, people used silver and copper coins.

The two tables below show some of the most well-known units of money found in the Old Testament (OT) and New Testament (NT). The table for Old Testament units shows what kind of metal was used and how much it weighed. The table for New Testament units shows what kind of metal was used and how much it was worth in terms of a day's wage.

Unit in OT	Metal	Weight
daric	gold coin	8.4 grams
shekel	various metals	11 grams
talent	various metals	33 kilograms

Unit in NT	Metal	Day's Wage
denarius/denarii	silver coin	1 day
drachma	silver coin	1 day
mite	copper coin	1/64 day
shekel	silver coin	4 days
talent	silver	6,000 days

Translation Principle

Do not use modern money values since these change from year to year. Using them will cause the Bible translation to become outdated and inaccurate.

Translation Strategies

The value of most money in the Old Testament was based on its weight. So when translating these weights in the Old Testament, see Biblical Weight. The strategies below are for translating the value of money in the New Testament

1. Use the Bible term and spell it in a way that is similar to the way it sounds. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)
2. Describe the value of the money in terms of what kind of metal it was made of and how many coins were used.

3. Describe the value of the money in terms of what people in Bible times could earn in one day of work.
4. Use the Bible term and give the equivalent amount in the text or a note.
5. Use the Bible term and explain it in a note.

Translation Strategies

The translations strategies are all applied to Luke 7:41 below.

- The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other owed fifty denarii. (Luke 7:41 ULB)

1. Use the Bible term and spell it in a way that is similar to the way it sounds. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)

- "The one owed five hundred denali, and the other owed fifty denali." (Luke 7:41 ULB)

2. Describe the value of the money in terms of what kind of metal it was made of and how many pieces or coins were used.

- "The one owed five hundred silver coins, and the other owed fifty silver coins." (Luke 7:41 ULB)

3. Describe the value of the money in terms of what people in Bible times could earn in one day of work.

- "The one owed five hundred days' wages, and the other owed fifty days' wages."

4. Use the Bible term and give the equivalent amount in the text or a footnote.

- "The one owed *five hundred denarii*¹, and the other owed fifty denarii."² (Luke 7:41 ULB) The footnotes would look like:

- ^[1] five hundred days's wages
- ^[2] fifty day's wages

5. Use the Bible term and explain it in a footnote.

- "The one owed *five hundred denarii*¹, and the other owed fifty denarii." (Luke 7:41 ULB)
 - ^[1] A denarius was the amount of silver that people could earn in one day of work.

Biblical Volume

This answers the question: How can I translate the measures of volume that are in the Bible?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Decimal Numbers

Description

The following terms are the most common units of volume used in the Bible to state how much a certain container could hold. The containers and measurements are given for both liquids (such as wine) and dry solids (such as grain).

Type	Original Measure	Liters
Dry	omer	2 liters
Dry	ephah	22 liters
Dry	homer	220 liters
Dry	kor	220 liters
Dry	seah	7.7 liters
Dry	letheke	114.8 liters
Liquid	metrete	40 liters
Liquid	bath	22 liters
Liquid	hin	3.7 liters
Liquid	kab	1.23 liters
Liquid	log	0.31 liters

Translation Principles

- The people in the Bible did not use modern measures such as meters, liters, and kilograms. Using the original measures can help readers know that the Bible really was written long ago in a time when people used those measures.
- Using modern measures can help readers understand the text more easily.
- Whatever measures you use, it would be good, if possible, to tell about the other kinds of measures in the text or a footnote.

4. Use the measurements from the ULB and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note.
5. Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULB in the text or in a note.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Isaiah 5:10 below.

- For four hectares of vineyard will yield only one bath, and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah. (Isaiah 5:10 ULB)

1. Use the measurements from the ULB. These are the same kinds of measurements that the original writers used. Spell them in a way that is similar to the way they sound or are spelled in the ULB. (See: Copy or Borrow Words)

- "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only one bat, and one homer of seed will yield only an efa."

2. Use the measurements given in the UDB. Usually they are metric measurements. The translators of the UDB have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.

- "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only twenty-two liters, and ten baskets of seed will yield only one basket."
 - "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only twenty-two liters and 220 liters of seed will yield only twenty-two liters."

3. Use measurements that are already used in your language. In order to do this you would need to know how your measurements relate to the metric system and figure out each measurement.

- "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only six gallons, and six and a half bushels of seed will yield only twenty quarts."

4. Use the measurements from the ULB and include measurements that your people know in the text or a note. The following shows both measurements in the text.

- "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only one bath (six gallons), and one homer (six and a half bushels) of seed will yield only an ephah (twenty quarts)."

5. Use measurements that your people know, and include the measurements from the ULB in the text or in a note. The following shows the ULB measurements in footnotes.

- "For four hectares of vineyard will yield only twenty-two liters¹, and 220 liters² of seed will yield only twenty-two liters²." The footnotes would look like:

- ^[1]one bath
- ^[2]one home
- ^[3]one ephah

When the unit of measure is implied

Sometimes the Hebrew does not specify a particular unit of volume but only uses a number. In these cases, many English versions, including the ULB and UDB, add the word “measure.”

- whenever anyone came to the grainery for twenty measures of grain, there were only ten, and whenever someone came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures of wine, there were only twenty. (Haggai 2:16 ULB)

Translation Strategies

1. Translate literally by using the number without a unit.
2. Use a generic word like “measure” or “quantity” or “amount.”
3. Use the name of an appropriate container, such as “basket” for grain or “jar” for wine.
4. Use a unit of measure that you are already using in your translation.

Translation Strategies Applied

The strategies are all applied to Haggai 2:16 below.

- whenever anyone came to the grainery for twenty measures of grain, there were only ten, and whenever someone came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures of wine, there were only twenty. (Haggai 2:16 ULB)

1. Translate literally by using the number without a unit.
 - “whenever anyone came to the grainery for twenty of grain, there were only ten, and whenever someone came to the wine vat to draw out fifty of wine, there were only twenty.”
2. Use a generic word like “measure” or “quantity” or “amount.”
 - “whenever anyone came to the grainery for twenty amounts of grain, there were only ten, and whenever someone came to the wine vat to draw out fifty amounts of wine, there were only twenty.”
3. Use the name of an appropriate container, such as “basket” for grain or “jar” for wine.
 - “whenever anyone came to the grainery for twenty baskets of grain, there were only ten, and whenever someone came to the wine vat to draw out fifty jars of wine, there were only twenty.”
4. Use a unit of measure that you are already using in your translation.

Fractions

This answers the question: What are fractions and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Numbers

Fractions are a kind of number that refer to parts of a thing or to groups within a larger group of people or things. Some languages do not have this kind of number.

Description

Fractions are a kind of number that refer to equal parts of a thing or to equal groups within a larger group of people or things. An item or a group of items is divided into two or more parts or groups, and a fraction refers to one or more of those parts or groups.

For the drink offering, you must offer a third of a hin of wine. (Numbers 15:7 ULB)

A hin is a container used for measuring wine and other liquids. They were to divide a hin container into three parts and fill up only one part and offer that.

a third of the ships were destroyed. (Revelation 8:9 ULB)

There were many ships. If all those ships were divided into three equal groups of ships, one group of ships was destroyed.

Most fractions in English simply have “-th” added to the end of the number.

Number of parts the whole is divided into	Fraction
four	fourth
ten	tenth
one hundred	one hundredth
one thousand	one thousandth

Some fractions in English do not follow that pattern.

Number of parts the whole is divided into	Fraction
two	half
three	third
five	fifth

Reason this is a translation issue: Some languages do not have fractions. They may simply talk about parts or groups, but they don’t use fractions to tell how big a part is or how many are included in a group.

Examples From the Bible

Now to one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given them an inheritance in Bashan, but to the other half, Joshua gave an inheritance beside their brothers in the land west of the Jordan. (Joshua 22:7 ULB)

The tribe of Manasseh divided into two groups. The phrase “one half of the tribe of Manasseh” refers one of those groups. The phrase “the other half” refers to the other group.

The four angels who had been prepared for that very hour, that day, that month, and that year, were released to kill a third of humanity. (Revelation 9:15 ULB)

If all the people were to be divided into three equal groups, then the number of people in one group would be killed.

You must also prepare a fourth of a hin of wine as the drink offering. (Numbers 15:5 ULB)

They were to divide a hin of wine into four equal parts and prepare one of them.

Translation Strategies

If a fraction in your language would give the right meaning, consider using it. If not, you could consider these strategies.

1. Tell the number of parts or groups that the item would be divided into, and then tell the number of parts or groups that is being referred to.
2. For measurements such as for weight and length, use a unit that your people might know or the unit in the UDB.
3. For measurements, use ones that are used in your language. In order to do that you would need to know how your measurements relates to the metric system and figure out each measurement.

Examples of These Translation Strategies Applied

1. Tell the number of parts or groups that the item would be divided into, and then tell the number of parts or groups that is being referred to.

- A third of the ocean became red like blood (Revelation 8:8 ULB)
 - ”It was like they divided the ocean into three parts, and one part of the ocean became blood.”
- then you must offer with the bull a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil. (Numbers 15:9 ULB)
 - ”then you must divide an ephah of fine flour into ten parts and mix three of those parts with half a hin of oil. Then you must offer that grain offering along with the bull.”

2. For measurements, use the measurements that are given in the UDB. The translators of the UDB have already figured how to represent the amounts in the metric system.

- two thirds of a shekel (1 Samuel 13:21 ULB)
 - "eight grams of silver" (1 Samuel 13:21 UDB)
- three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil. (Numbers 15:9, ULB)
 - "6.5 liters of finely ground flour mixed with about two liters of olive oil." (Numbers 15:9 UDB)

3. For measurements, use ones that are used in your language. In order to do that you would need to know how your measurements relates to the metric system and figure out each measurement.

- three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil. (Numbers 15:9, ULB)

This answers the question: How can I translate names that are new to my culture?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

The Bible has names of many people, groups of people, and places. Some of these names may sound strange and be hard to say. Sometimes readers may not know what a name refers to, and sometimes they may need to understand what a name means. This page will help you see how you can translate these names and how you can help people understand what they need to know about them.

Description

The Bible has names of many people, groups of people, and places. All names in the Bible have meaning. Most of the time, names in the Bible are used simply to identify the people and places they refer to. But sometimes the meaning of a name is especially important.

It was this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. (Hebrews 7:1ULB)

Here the writer uses the name “Melchizedek” simply to refer to a man who had that name, and the title “king of Salem” simply to tell us something about Melchizedek.

His name “Melchizedek” means “king of righteousness,” and also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace. (Hebrews 7:2 ULB)

Here the writer explains the meanings of Melchizedek’s name and title.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Readers may not know some of the names in the Bible. They may not know whether a name refers to a person or place or something else.
- Readers may need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand the passage.
- Some names may have different sounds or combinations of sounds that are not used in your language or are unpleasant to say in your language.
- Some people and places in the Bible have two names. Readers may not realize that two names refer to the same person or place.

Examples from the Bible

You went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULB)

Readers might not know that “Jordan” is the name of a river, “Jericho” is the name of a city, and “Amorites” is the name of a group of people.

she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; (Genesis 16:13-14 ULB)

Readers may not understand the second sentence if they do not know that “Beerlahairoi” means “Well of the the Living One who sees me.”

She named him Moses and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULB)

Readers may not understand why she said this if they do not know that the name Moses sounds like the Hebrew words “pull out.”

Saul was in agreement with his death (Acts 8:1 ULB)

It came about in Iconium that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULB)

Readers may not know that the names Saul and Paul refer to the same person.

Translation Strategies

1. If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.
2. If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.
3. Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name.
4. If a person or place has two different names, use one name all of the time and write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.
5. Or use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that explains who or what the name refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.

- You went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the *Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULB)
 - “You went over the Jordan River and came to the city of Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the tribe of the Amorites”
- Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because Herod wants to kill you.” (Luke 13:31 ULB)

- “Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because King Herod wants to kill you.”

2. If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.

- She named him Moses and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULB)
 - “She named him Moses, which sounds like ‘drawn out,’ and said, “Because I drew him from the water.”

3. Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name.

- she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; (Genesis 16:13-14 ULB)
 - “she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Well of the One who sees me;”

4. If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text talks about that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.

For example, Paul is called “Saul” before Acts 13 and “Paul” after Acts 13. You could translate his name as “Paul” all of the time, except in Acts 13:9 where it talks about him having both names.

- a young man named *Saul (Acts 7:58 ULB)
 - “a young man named Paul”¹ The footnote would look like:
 - ◇ ^[1]Most versions say Saul here, but most of the time in the Bible he is called Paul.

- But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9 ULB)
 - “But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;”

5. Or if a person or place has two names, use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that explains who or what the name refers to.

For example, you could write “Saul” where the source text has “Saul” and “Paul” where the source text has “Paul.”

- a young man named *Saul (Acts 7:58 ULB)
 - “a young man named Saul”
- But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9 ULB) *
 “But __Saul__, who is also called __Paul__, was filled with the Holy Spirit;” * It came about in Iconium that __Paul__ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue
 ([[en:bible:notes:act:14:01 | Acts 14:1 ULB)

- "It came about in Iconium that *Paul*¹ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue" (Acts 14:1 ULB) The footnote would look like:
 - ◇ ^[1]This is the man that was called Saul before Acts 13.

Numbers

This answers the question: How do I translate numbers?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

There are many numbers in the Bible. They can be written as words, such as “five” or as numerals, such as “5”. Some numbers are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), “twenty-two thousand” (22,000) or “one hundred million” (100,000,000.) Some languages do not have words for all of these numbers. Translators need to decide how to translate numbers and whether to write them as words or numerals.

Description

There are many numbers in the Bible. Some are small, such as “five” (5) and “fifteen” (15). Others are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), twenty-two thousand (22,000) or “one hundred million” (100,000,000). Some numbers are exact and others are rounded.

Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULB)

Eighty-six (86) is an exact number.

That day about three thousand men out of the people died. (Exodus 32:28 ULB)

Here the number three thousand is a round number. It may have been a little more than that or a little less than that. The word “about” shows that it is not an exact number.

Reason this is a translation issue: Some languages do not have words for some of these numbers.

Translation Principles

- Exact numbers should be translated as closely and specifically as they can be.
- Rounded numbers can be translated more generally.

Examples from the Bible

When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Jared lived 962 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:18-20 ULB)

The numbers 162, eight hundred, and 962 are exact numbers and should be translated with something as close to those numbers as possible.

Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands. (Genesis 24:60 ULB)

This is a rounded number. It does not say exactly how many descendants she should have, but it was a huge number of them.

Translation Strategies

1. Write numbers using numerals.
2. Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.
3. Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.
4. Combine words for large numbers.
5. Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- Now, see, at great effort I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. (1 Chronicles 22:14 ULB)

1. Write numbers using numerals.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, one 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities."

2. Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. "

3. Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand (100,000) talents of gold, one million (1,000,000) talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

4. Combine words for large numbers.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, a thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

5. Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house a great amount of gold (100,000 talents), ten times that amount of silver (1,000,000 talents), and bronze and iron in large quantities.

Consistency

Be consistent in your translations. Decide how the numbers will be translated, using numbers or numerals. There are different ways of being consistent.

- Use words to represent numbers all of the time. (You might have very long words.)
- Use numerals to represent numbers all of the time.
- Use words to represent the numbers that your language has words for and use numerals for the numbers that your language does not have words for.
- Use words for low numbers and numerals for high numbers.
- Use words for numbers that require few words and numerals for numbers that require more than a few words.
- Use words to represent numbers, and write the numerals in parentheses after them.

Consistency in the ULB and UDB

The ULB (Unlocked Literal Bible) and the UDB (Unlocked Dynamic Bible) use words for numbers that have only one or two words (nine, sixteen, three hundred). They use numerals for numbers that have more than two words (the numerals “130” instead of “one hundred thirty”).

When Adam had lived 130 years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth. After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:3-5 ULB)

Ordinal Numbers

This answers the question: What are ordinal numbers and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Numbers

Ordinal numbers are used in the Bible mainly to tell the position of something in a list.

He gave to the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then those who do powerful deeds (1 Corinthians 12:28 ULB)

This is a list of workers that God gave to the church in their order.

Description

Ordinal numbers are used in the Bible mainly to tell the position of something in a list.

He gave to the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then those who do powerful deeds (1 Corinthians 12:28 ULB)

This is a list of workers that God gave to the church in their order.

Ordinal Numbers in English

Most ordinal numbers in English simply have “-th” added to the end.

Numeral	Number	Ordinal Number
4	four	fourth
10	ten	tenth
100	one hundred	one hundredth
1,000	one thousand	one thousandth

Some ordinal numbers in English do not follow that pattern.

Numeral	Number	Ordinal Number
1	one	first
2	two	second
3	three	third
5	five	fifth
12	twelve	twelfth

Reason this is a translation issue: Some languages do not have special numbers for showing the order of items in a list. There are different ways to deal with this.

Examples from the Bible

The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ... the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULB)

People tossed lots and one went to each of these people in the order given.

You must place in it four rows of precious stones. The first row must have a ruby, a topaz, and a garnet. The second row must have an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. The third row must have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. The fourth row must have a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper. They must be mounted in gold settings. (Exodus 28:17-20 ULB)

This describes four rows of stones. The first row is probably be the top row, and the fourth row is probably the bottom row.

Translation Strategies

If your language has ordinal numbers and using them would give the right meaning, consider using them. If not, here are some strategies to consider:

1. Use “one” with the first item and “another” or “the next” with the rest.
2. Tell the total number of items and then list them or the things associated with them.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Tell the total number of items, and use “one” with the first item and “another” or “the next” with the rest.

- The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ... the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULB)
 - ”There were twenty-four lots. One lot went to Jehoiarib, another to Jedaiah, another to Harim,... another to Delaiah, and the last went to Maaziah.”
 - ”There were twenty-four lots. One lot went to Jehoiarib, the next to Jedaiah, the next to Harim,... the next to Delaiah, and the last went to Maaziah.”
- A river went out of Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became four rivers. The name of the first is Pishon. It is the one which flows throughout the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good. There is also bdellium and the onyx stone there. The name of the second river is Gihon. This one flows throughout the whole land of Cush. The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Asshur. The fourth river is the Euphrates.(Genesis 2:10-14 ULB)

- "A river went out of Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became four rivers. The name of one is Pishon. It is the one which flows throughout the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good. There is also bdellium and the onyx stone there. The name of the next river is Gihon. This one flows throughout the whole land of Cush. The name of the next river is Tigris, which flows east of Asshur. The last river is the Euphrates."

2. Tell the total number of items and then list them or the things associated with them.

- The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, ... the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. (1 Chronicles 24:7-18 ULB)

Symbolic Action

This answers the question: What is a symbolic action and how do I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

A symbolic action is something that someone does in order to express a certain idea. For example, in some cultures people nod their head up and down to mean “Yes” or turn their head from side to side to mean “No”. Symbolic actions do not mean the same things in all cultures.

Translators need to understand what people in the Bible meant when they used symbolic actions. If an action does not mean the same thing in their own culture, they need to figure out how to translate what the action meant.

Description

A symbolic action is something that someone does in order to express a certain idea. An action does not have to actually be performed; it may simply be referred to.

Examples of symbolic actions

- In some cultures people shake hands when they meet to show that they are willing to be friendly.
- In some cultures people bow when they meet to show respect to each other.

Reason this is a translation issue

An action may have a meaning in one culture, and a different meaning or no meaning at all in another culture. For example, in some cultures raising the eyebrows means “I am surprised” or “What did you say?” In others cultures it means “Yes.”

In the Bible people did things that had certain meanings in their culture. When we read the Bible we might not understand what someone meant if we interpret the action based on what it means in our own culture.

Examples from the Bible

Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet. (Luke 8:41 ULB)

Meaning of symbolic action: He did this to show great respect to Jesus.

Look, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to his home, and have a meal with him, and he with me. (Revelation 3:20 ULB)

Meaning of symbolic action: When people want someone to welcome them into their home, they stand at the door and knock on it.

Translation Strategies

If people would correctly understand what a symbolic action meant to the people in the Bible, consider using it. If not, here are some strategies for it.

1. Tell what the person did and why he did it.
2. Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.
3. Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning. Do this only in poetry, parables, and sermons. Do not do this when there actually was a person who did a specific action.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Tell what the person did and why he did it.

- Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet. (Luke 8:41 ULB)
 - "Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet in order to show that he greatly respected him."
- Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20 ULB)
 - "Look, I stand at the door and knock on it, asking you to let me in."

2. Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.

- Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet. (Luke 8:41)
 - "Jairus showed Jesus great respect."
- Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20)
 - "Look, I stand at the door and ask you to let me in."

3. Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning.

- Jairus fell down at Jesus' feet. (Luke 8:41 ULB) - Since Jairus actually did this, we would not substitute an action from our own culture.
- Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20 ULB) - Jesus was not standing at a real door. Rather he was speaking about wanting to have a relationship with people. So in cultures where it is polite to clear one's throat when wanting to be let into a house, you could use that.

- “Look, I stand at the door and clear my throat.”

Textual Variants

This answers the question: Why does the ULB have missing or added verses, and should I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Choosing a Source Text
- Original Manuscripts

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people then copied them by hand and translated them. Sometimes the copiers added sentences by mistake or because they wanted to explain something. Modern Bibles are translations of the old copies. Some modern Bibles have some of these sentences that were added. In the ULB, these added sentences are usually written in footnotes.

Description

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people copied them by hand and translated them. They did this work very carefully, and over the years many people made thousands of copies. However people who looked at them later saw that there were small differences between them. Some copiers accidentally left out some words, and some mistook a word for another that looked like it. Occasionally they added words or even whole sentences, either by accident, or because they wanted to explain something.

Bible scholars have read many old copies and compared them with each other. For each place in the Bible where there was a difference, they have figured out which wordings are most likely correct. The translators of the ULB based the ULB on wordings that scholars say are most likely correct. Because people who use the ULB may have access to Bibles that are based on other copies, the ULB translators included footnotes that tell about some of the differences between them.

Translators are encouraged to translate the text in the ULB and to write about added sentences in footnotes, as is done in the ULB. However, if the local church really wants those sentences to be included in the main text, translators may put them in the text and include a footnote about them.

Examples from the Bible

Matthew 18:10-11 ULB has a footnote about verse 11.

¹⁰See that you do not despise any of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven. ^{11[1]}

[¹] Many authorities, some ancient, insert v. 11. For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

John 7:53-8:11 is not in the best earliest manuscripts. It has been included in the ULB, but it is marked off with square brackets ([]) at the beginning and end, and there is a footnote after verse 11.

⁵³[Then every man went to his own house.... ¹¹She said, “No one, Lord.” Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way; from now on sin no more.”]^[2]

^[2]The best earliest manuscripts do not have John 7:35-8:11

Translation Strategies

When there is a textual variant, you may choose to follow the ULB or another version that you have access to.

1. Translate the verses that the ULB does and include the footnote that the ULB provides.
2. Translate the verses as another version does, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

The translation strategies are applied to Mark 7:15-16 ULB, which has a footnote about verse 16.

- ¹⁴He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him.” ¹⁶[¹

- ^[1]Many ancient authorities insert v. 16. If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

1. Translate the verses that the ULB does and include the footnote that the ULB provides.

Copy or Borrow Words

This answers the question: What does it mean to borrow words from another language and how can I do it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

Sometimes the Bible talks about things that your language may not have a word for. It also talks about people and places that you may not have names for. One way you can deal with this problem is “borrow”, or copy, the word from another language into your own language. This page tells how to do that.

Description

Sometimes the Bible talks about things that are not part of your culture and that your language may not have a word for. It also talks about people and places that you may not have a name for. When that happens you can “borrow” the word from the Bible into your own language. This means that you basically copy it from the other language. This page tells how to “borrow” words. (There are also other ways of dealing with words for things that are not in your language. See Translate Unknowns).

Examples from the Bible

He saw a fig tree on the roadside (Matthew 21:19 ULB)

If there are no fig trees where your language is spoken, you might not already have a name for this kind of tree.

Above him were the seraphs each one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. (Isaiah 6:2 ULB)

Your language might not already have a name for this kind of creature.

The declaration of the word of Yahweh to Israel by the hand of Malachi. (Malachi 1:1 ULB)

Malachi might not be a name that people who speak your language use.

Translation Strategies

There are several things to be aware of when borrowing words from another language.

- Different languages use different scripts, such as the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Cyrillic, Devanagari, and Korean scripts. These scripts use different shapes to represent the letters in their alphabets.

- Languages that use the same script might pronounce the letters in that script differently. For example, when speaking German, people pronounce the letter “j” the same way that people pronounce the letter “y” when speaking English.
- Languages do not all have the same sounds or combinations of sounds. For example, many languages do not have the soft “th” sound in the English word “think” and some languages cannot start a word with a combination of sounds like “st” as in “stop.”

There are several ways to borrow a word.

1. If your language uses a different script from the language you are translating from, you can simply substitute each letter shape with the corresponding letter shape of the script of your language.
2. You can spell the word as the other language spells it, and pronounce it the way your language normally pronounces those letters.
3. You can pronounce the word similarly to the way the other language does, and adjust the spelling to fit the rules of your language.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If your language uses a different script from the language you are translating from, you can simply substitute each letter shape with the corresponding letter shape of the script of your language.
2. You can spell the word as the other language spells it, and pronounce it the way your language normally pronounces those letters.

- Zephaniah - This is a man’s name.

- “Zephaniah”

3. You can pronounce the word similarly to the way the other language does, and adjust the spelling to fit the rules of your language.

- Zephaniah - If your language does not have the “z”, you could use “s”. If your writing system does not use “ph” you could use “f”. Depending on how you pronounce the “i” you could spell it with “i” or “ai” or “ay”.

- “Sefania”
- “Sefanaia”
- “Sefanaya”

Translate Unknowns

This answers the question: How can I translate ideas that my readers are not familiar with?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Sentences

How do I translate words like lion, fig tree, mountain, priest, or temple when people in my culture have never seen these things and we do not have a word for them?

Description

Unknowns are things that occur in the source text that are not known to the people of your culture. The translationWords pages and the translationNotes will help you understand what they are. After you understand them, you will need to find ways to refer to those things so that people who read your translation will understand what they are.

We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)

Bread is a particular food made by mixing finely crushed grains with oil, and then cooking the mixture so that it is dry. (Grains are the seeds of a kind of grass.) In some cultures people do not have bread or know what it is.

Reason this is a translation issue

- Readers may not know some of the things that are in the Bible because those things are not part of their own culture.
- Readers may have difficulty understanding a text if they do not know some of the things that are mentioned in it.

Translation Principles

- Use words that are already part of your language if possible.
- Keep expressions short if possible.
- Represent God's commands and historical facts accurately.

Examples from the Bible

I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11 ULB)

Jackals are wild animals like dogs that live in only a few parts of the world. So they are not known in many places.

Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULB)

If wolves do not live where the translation will be read, the readers may not understand that they are fierce, wild animals like dogs that attack and eat sheep.

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULB)

People may not know what myrrh is and that it was used as a medicine.

to him who made great lights (Psalm 136:7ULB)

Some languages have terms for things that give light, like the sun and fire, but they have no general term for lights.

your sins ... will be white like snow (Isaiah 1:18 ULB)

People in many parts of the world have not seen snow, but they may have seen it in pictures.

Translation Strategies

Here are ways you might translate a term that is not known in your language:

1. Use a phrase that describes the part of the meaning that is important in the particular verse being translated.
2. Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.
3. Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.
4. Use a word that is more general in meaning.
5. Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use a phrase that describes the part of the meaning that is important in the particular verse being translated.

- Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULB)
 - "Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly hungry and dangerous animals."
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked grain seeds and two fish"

2. Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.

- your sins ... will be white like *snow (Isaiah 1:18 ULB) This verse is not about snow. It uses snow in a figure of speech to help people understand how white something will be.
 - "your sins ... will be white like milk"
 - "your sins ... will be white like the moon"

3. Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.

- Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULB) - People may understand better what myrrh is if it is used with the general word "medicine."
 - "Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with a medicine called myrrh. But he refused to drink it."
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB) - People may understand better what bread is if it is used with a phrase that tells what it is made of (seeds) and how it is prepared (crushed and baked).
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked crushed seed bread and two fish"

4. Use a word that is more general in meaning.

- I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for *jackals (Jeremiah 9:11 ULB)
 - "I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for wild dogs"
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked food and two fish"

5. Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

- to him who made *great lights (Psalm 136:7 ULB)
 - "to him who made the sun and the moon"

Symbolic Prophecy

This answers the question: What is symbolic prophecy?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Writing Styles
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- Symbolic Language

Description

Symbolic prophecy is a type of message that God gave to a prophet so that the prophet would tell others. These messages use images and symbols to show what God will do in the future.

The main books that have these prophecies are Isaiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Zechariah, and Revelation. Shorter examples of symbolic prophecy are also found in other books, such as in Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21.

The Bible tells both how God gave each message and what the message was. When God gave the messages, he often did so in miraculous ways such as in dreams and visions. (See: dream and vision.) When prophets saw these dreams and visions, they often saw images and symbols about God and heaven. Some of these images are a throne, golden lamp stands, a powerful man with white hair and white clothes, and eyes like fire and legs like bronze. Some of these images were seen by more than one prophet.

The prophecies about the world also contain images and symbols. For example, in some of the prophecies strong animals represent kingdoms, horns represent kings or kingdoms, a dragon or serpent represents the devil, the sea represents the nations, and weeks represent longer periods of time. Some of these images were also seen by more than one prophet.

The prophecies tell about the evil in this world, how God will judge the world and punish sin, and how God will establish his righteous kingdom in the new world he is creating. They also tell about things that will happen concerning heaven and hell.

Some of these writings are presented as poetry and some are presented as narrative. They usually use the past tense because the prophets tell about what they saw in their visions or dreams. But they are about things that would happen in the future. Some of these things happened after the prophets told about them, and some of them will happen at the end of this world.

Reason this is a translation issue: Some of the images are hard to understand because we have never seen things like them before.

Translation Principles

- Translate the images in the text. Do not try to interpret them and translate their meaning.
- When the same image appears in more than one place in the Bible, and it is described in the same way, try to translate it the same way in all those places.

- Sometimes it is difficult to understand what order the events described in the various prophecies happen. Simply write them as they appear in each prophecy.

Examples from the Bible

The following passages describe powerful beings that Ezekiel, Daniel, and John saw. Images that come up in these visions include hair that is white as wool, a voice like many waters, a golden belt, and legs or feet like polished bronze. Though the prophets saw various details, it would be good to translate the details that are the same in the same way.

In the middle of the lampstands there was one like a Son of Man, wearing a long robe that reached down to his feet, and a golden belt around his chest.

His head and hair were as white as wool—as white as snow, and his eyes were like a flame of fire. His feet were like burnished bronze, like bronze that had been refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many rushing waters. He had in his right hand seven stars, and coming out of his mouth was a sharp two-edged sword. His face was shining like the sun at its strongest shining. (Revelation 1:13-16)

As I looked,
thrones were set in place,
and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
His clothing was as white as snow, and the hair of his head was like pure wool. (Daniel 7:9 ULB)

I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen, with a belt around his waist made of pure gold from Uphaz. His body was like topaz, his face was like lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and his feet were like polished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the sound of a great crowd. (Daniel 10:5-6 ULB)

Behold! The glory of the God of Israel came from the east; his voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory! (Ezekiel 43:2 ULB)

Background Information

This answers the question: What is background information, and how can I show that some information is background information?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Order of Events
- Writing Styles

When people tell a story, they normally tell the events in the order that they happened. Sometimes a writer may give some background information to help his listeners understand the story. The background information might be about things that happened before the events he has already told about, or it might explain something in the story, or it might be about something that would happen much later in the story. The story teller and translator need to tell the story in a way that people will know whether an event is background information and will be able to understand what order the events happened in.

Description

Every story has a storyline. The storyline tells a series of events mostly in the time order that the events happened. It is full of action verbs that moves the reader along the storyline. Occasionally an author may take a break from the storyline to share something of interest. This break is called background information. The underlined sentences in the story below are all background information.

Peter and John went on a hunting trip because their village was going to have a a feast the next day. Peter was the best hunter in the village. He once killed three wild pigs in one day! They walked for hours through low bushes until they found a wild pig. They shot the pig and killed it. Then they tied up its legs with some rope they had brought with them, and carried it home on a pole. When they brought it to the village, Peter's cousin saw the pig and realized that it was his own pig. Peter had mistakenly killed his cousin's pig.

Often background information uses "be" verbs like "was" and "were", rather than action verbs. Examples of these are "Peter was the best hunter in the village" and "it was his own pig."

Sometimes a storyteller makes a break in the story to tell about something that had happened earlier or something that would happen much later. Examples of these are "their village was going to have a a feast the next day" and "He once killed three wild pigs in one day," "that they had brought with them," and "Peter had mistakenly killed his cousins's pig."

A writer may use background information

- to help their listeners be interested in the story.
- to help their listeners understand something in the story.
- to help the listeners understand why something is important in the story.

- to tell the setting of a story. Setting includes:
 - where the story takes place.
 - when the story takes place.
 - who is present when the story begins.
 - what is happening when the story begins.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Translators need to know whether or not the events in the Bible happened in the same order that they are told.
- Translators will need to translate the story in a way that their own readers will understand the order of events.

Examples from the Bible

Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULB)

The first sentence tells about two events. Hagar gave birth and Abraham named his son. The second sentence is background information about how old Abram was when those things happened.

Now Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli. (Luke 3:23 ULB)

The verses before this tell about when Jesus was baptized. This sentence introduces background information about Jesus' age and ancestors. The story starts up again in chapter 4 where it tells about Jesus going to the wilderness.

Now it happened on a Sabbath that Jesus was going through the grain fields and his disciples were picking the heads of grain, rubbing them between their hands, and eating the grain. But some of the Pharisees said... (Luke 6:1-2a ULB)

These verses give the setting of the story. The events took place in a grain field on the Sabbath day. Jesus, his disciples, and some Pharisees were there, and Jesus' disciples were picking heads of grain and eating them. The main action in the story starts with the sentence "But some of the Pharisees said."

Translation Strategies

To keep translations clear and natural you will need to study the grammar and punctuation of your language. Observe how your language presents background information in writings. Follow those same grammar rules when you translate.

1. Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information.

2. Reorder the information so that that earlier events are mentioned first. (This is not always possible when the background information is very long.)

Examples of Translation Strategies applied

1. Use your language's way of showing that certain information is background information. The examples below explain how this was done in the ULB English translations.

- Now Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years of age. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli. (Luke 3:23 ULB)- English uses the word “now” to show that there is some kind of change in the story. The verb “was” shows that it is background information.
- With many other exhortations also, he preached good news to the people. John also rebuked Herod the tetrarch for marrying his brother's wife, Herodias, and for all the other evil things that Herod had done. But then Herod did another very evil thing. He had John locked up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20 ULB) The underlined phrases happened before John rebuked Herod. In English, the helping verb “had” in “had done” shows that Herod did those things before John rebuked him.

2. Reorder the information so that that earlier events are mentioned first.

- Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULB)
 - “When Abram was eighty-six years old, Hagar gave birth to his son, and Abram named his son Ishmael.”
- John also rebuked Herod the tetrarch for marrying his brother's wife, Herodias, and for all the other evil things that Herod had done. But then Herod did another very evil thing. He had John locked up in prison. (Luke 3:18-20) - The translation below reorders John's rebuke and Herod's actions.
 - “Now Herod the tetrarch married his brother's wife, Herodias, and he did many other evil things, so John rebuked him. But then Herod did another very evil thing. He had John locked up in prison.”

Connecting Words

This answers the question: What are connecting words for, and how do I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

Connecting words show how thoughts are related to other thoughts. They are also called conjunctions. This page is about connecting words that connect statements and groups of statements to others. Some examples are: and, but, for, so, therefore, now, if, if only, since, then, when, while, whenever, because, yet, unless.

Description

Connecting words show how thoughts are related to other thoughts. This page is about connecting words that connect statements and groups of statements to others. Some examples of connecting words are: and, but, for, so, therefore, now, if, if only, since, then, when, while, whenever, because, yet, unless.

- It was raining, so I opened my umbrella.
- It was raining, but I did not have an umbrella. So I got very wet.

Sometimes people do not use a connecting word because they expect the readers to understand the relationship between the thoughts because of the context.

- It was raining. I didn't have an umbrella. I got very wet.

Reason this is a translation issue

- Translators need to understand the meaning of a connecting word in the Bible and the relationship between the thoughts it is connecting.
- Each language has its own ways of showing how thoughts are related.
- Translators need to know how to help their readers understand the relationship between the thoughts.

Translation Principles

- Translators need to translate in a way that readers can understand the same relationship between thoughts that the original readers would have understood.
- Whether or not a connecting word is used is not as important as readers being able to understand the relationship between the ideas.

Examples from the Bible

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took some of its fruit, and ate it. And she gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. (Genesis 3:6 ULB)

The word “and” can connect words, phrases, clauses, or sentences. The underlined examples above show where it connects clauses and sentences. In this verse, the event that follows “and” happened after the event before “and”.

I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me, but instead I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days. (Galatians 1:16-18 ULB)

The word “but” introduces something that contrasts with what was said before. The contrast here is between what Paul did not do with what he did do. Here the word “then” introduces something Paul did after he returned to Damascus.

Therefore whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULB)

Here the word “But” contrasts what one group of people will be called in God’s kingdom with what another group of people will be called.

Translation Strategies

If the way the relationship between thoughts is shown in the ULB would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, then consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Use a connecting word (even if the ULB does not use one).
2. Do not use a connecting word if it would be odd to use one and people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.
3. Use a different connecting word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use a connecting word (even if the ULB does not use one).
 - Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you become fishers of men.” Immediately they left the nets and went after him. (Mark 1:17-18 ULB) - They followed Jesus because he told them to. Some translators may want to mark this with “so.”
 - “Jesus said to them, ”Come after me, and I will make you become fishers of men.” So immediately they left the nets and went after him.”

2. Do not use a connecting word if it would be odd to use one and people would understand the right relationship between the thoughts without it.

- And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took some of its fruit, and ate it. And she gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. (Genesis 3:6 ULB) - The word “and” here simply shows that something else happened. Some languages would not need to start the sentence with “and.”
 - “And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took some of its fruit, and ate it. She also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.” (Genesis 3:6 ULB)
- I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me, but instead I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days. (Galatians 1:16-18 ULB) Some languages might not need the words “but” or “then” here.
 - “I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me. Instead I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus. After three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days.

3. Use a different connecting word.

- Therefore whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19 ULB) - The word “but” is used here because of the contrast between the two groups of people. But in some languages, the word “but” would show that what comes after it is surprising because of what came before it. So “and” might be clearer for those languages.
 - “Therefore whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever keeps them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.”
- Since the captain could not tell anything because of all the noise, he ordered that Paul be brought into the fortress. (Acts 21:34 ULB) - Instead of starting the first part of the sentence with “since”, some translators might prefer to start the second part of the sentence with “so”.
 - “The captain could not tell anything because of all the noise, so he ordered that Paul be brought into the fortress.”

End of Story

This page answers the question: What kinds of information are given at the end of a story?

In order to understand this page, it would be good to read

- Writing Styles
- Background Information

Description

There are different types of information that may be given at the end of a story. Often this is background information. This background information is different from the actions that make up the main part of the story. A book of the Bible is often made up of many smaller stories that are part of the larger story of the book itself. For example, the story of Jesus' birth is a smaller story in the larger story of the book of Luke. Each of these stories, whether large or small, can have background information at the end of it.

Different purposes for end of story information:

- to summarize the story
- to give a comment about what happened in the story
- to connect a smaller story to the larger story it is a part of
- to tell the reader what happens to a specific character after the main part of the story ends
- to tell on-going action that continues after the main part of the story ends
- to tell what happens after the story as a result of the events that happened in the story itself

Reasons this is a translation issue: Different languages have different ways of presenting these kinds of information. If translators do not use their language's ways of doing this, readers may not know

- that this information is ending the story
- what the purpose of the information is
- how the information is related to the story.

Principles of translation

- Translate the particular kind of information at the end of a story the way your language expresses that kind of information.
- Translate it so that people will understand how it relates to the story it is part of.
- If possible, translate the end of the story in a way that people will know where that story ends and the next begins.

Examples from the Bible

1. to summarize the story

Then the rest of the men should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. In this way it happened that all of us came safely to land. (Acts 27:44 ULB)

2. to give a comment about what happened in the story

Many who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of everyone. When they counted the value of them, it was fifty thousand pieces of silver. So the word of the Lord spread very widely in powerful ways. (Acts 19:19-20 ULB)

3. to tell the reader what happens to a specific character after the main part of the story ends

Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then returned to her house. (Luke 1:56 ULB)

4. to tell on-going action that continues after the main part of the story ends

All who heard it were amazed at what was spoken to them by the shepherds. But Mary kept thinking about all the things she had heard, treasuring them in her heart. (Luke 2:18-19 ULB)

5. to tell what happens after the story as a result of the events that happened in the story itself

After Jesus left there, the scribes and the Pharisees opposed him and argued with him about many things, trying to trap him in his own words. (Luke 11:53-54 ULB)

Introduction of a New Event

This answers the question: How do we introduce a new event in a story?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Writing Styles
- Order of Events

When people tell a story or when they start a new part of a story, they often put certain information at the beginning, such as who the story is about, when it happened, and where it happened. They may have certain ways of telling these things. For your translation to sound natural you may need to follow those ways.

Description

When people tell a story, they tell about an event or a series of events. Often they put certain information at the beginning of the story, such as who the story is about, when it happened, and where it happened. New events in a story might involve new people, new times, and new places. In some languages people also tell if they saw the event or heard about it from someone else.

When your people tell about events, what information do they give at the beginning? Is there a certain order that they put it in? You may need to change how and in what order new information is introduced at the beginning of a new event in order for your translation to sound natural in your language.

Here are some examples of how some events are introduced in the books of Matthew and Luke.

In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah. His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. (Luke 1:5 ULB)

The verses above introduce a story about Zechariah. The first underlined phrase tells when it happened, and the next two underlined phrase introduce the main people.

One day while Zechariah was performing his duties as a priest before God in the order of his division, the priests followed their custom and chose him by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. (Luke 1:8-9 ULB)

Like 1:5-7 tell about Zechariah and Elizabeth being old and not having any children. The phrase One day helps to introduces the first event in this story.

The birth of Jesus Christ happened in the following way. His mother Mary was engaged to marry Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 1:18 ULB)

The underlined sentence above makes it explicit that a story about Jesus is being introduced. The story will tell about how the birth of Jesus happened.

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem saying,... (Matthew 2:1 ULB)

The underlined phrase above shows that the events concerning the learned men happened after Jesus was born.

In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea saying, ... (Matthew 3:1-2 ULB)

The underlined phrase above shows that John the Baptist came preaching around the time of the previous events. It is probably very general and refers to when Jesus lived in Nazareth.

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. (Matthew 3:13 ULB)

The word “then” shows that Jesus came to the Jordan River some time after the events in the previous verses.

Examples from the Bible

Now there was a Pharisee whose name was Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish Council. This man came to Jesus at night time (John 3:1-2 ULB)

The author first introduced the new person and then told about what he did and when he did. In some languages it might be more natural to tell about the time first.

⁶Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth. ⁷Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because of the waters of the flood. (Genesis 7:6,7 ULB)

Verse 6 is a summary of the events that happen in the rest of the chapter. Chapter 6 already told about how God told Noah that there would be a flood, and how Noah prepared for it. This sentence introduces the part of the story that tells about Noah and his family and the animals going into the ship, the rain starting, and the rain flooding the earth. Some languages might need to make it clear that this simply introduces the event. The people went into the ship before the flood came.

Translation Strategies

If the information given at the beginning of a new event is clear and natural to your readers, consider translating it as it is in the ULB or UDB. If not, consider one of these strategies.

1. Put the information that introduces the event in the order that your people put it.
2. If readers would expect certain information but it is not in the Bible, consider using an indefinite word or phrase such as: another time, someone.
3. If the introduction is a summary of the whole event, use your language's way of showing that it is a summary.
4. If it would be strange in the target language to give a summary of the event at the beginning, show that the event would actually happen later in the story.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Put the information that introduces the event in the order that your people put it.

- Now there was a Pharisee whose name was Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish Council. This man came to Jesus at night time and said to him ... (John 3:1,2)
 - “There was a man whose name was Nicodemus. He was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish Council. One night he came to Jesus and said...”
 - “One night a man named Nicodemus, who was a Pharisee and a member of the Jewish Council, came to Jesus and said ...”
- As he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus, who was sitting at the tax collecting place, and he said to him ... (Mark 2:14 ULB)
 - “As he passed by, Levi the son of Alpheus was sitting at the tax collecting place. Jesus saw him and and said to him ...”
 - “As he passed by, there was a man sitting at the tax collecting place. His name was Levi, and he was the son of Alpheus. Jesus saw him and said to him ...”
 - “As he passed by, there was a tax collector sitting at the tax collecting place. His name was Levi, and he was the son of Alpheus. Jesus saw him and said to him ...”

2. If readers would expect certain information but it is not in the Bible, consider using an indefinite word or phrase such as: another time, someone.

- Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth. (Genesis 7:6 ULB) - If people expect to be told something about when the new event happened, the phrase “after that” can help them see that it happened after the events already mentioned.
 - “After that, when Noah was six hundred years old, the flood came upon the earth.”
- Again he began to teach beside the lake. (Mark 4:1 ULB) - In chapter 3 Jesus was teaching at someone’s house. Readers may need to be told that this new event happened at another time, or that Jesus actually went to the lake.
 - “Another time Jesus began to teach people again beside the lake.”
 - “Jesus went to the lake and began to teach people again there.”

3. If the introduction is a summary of the whole event, use your language’s way of showing that it is a summary. This is one way that it can be done in English.

- Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth. (Genesis 7:6 ULB)
 - “Now this is what happened when Noah was six hundred years old and the flood came upon the earth.”

4. If it would be strange in the target language to give a summary of the event at the beginning, show that the event would actually happen later in the story.

- Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth. Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because of the waters of the flood. (Genesis 7:6 ULB)
 - "Now this is what happened when Noah was six hundred years old. Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went into the ark together because God had said that the waters of the flood would come."

Proverbs

This answers the question: What are proverbs, and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Metaphor
- Parallelism
- Writing Styles

People enjoy proverbs because they give a lot of wisdom in few words. When you follow your language's ways of saying proverbs, you will make your translation sparkle.

Description

Proverbs are a sentence or a few sentences that give wisdom or teach a truth. Proverbs in the Bible often use metaphor and parallelism.

Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers over all offenses. (Proverbs 10:12 ULB)

Look at the ant, you lazy person, consider her ways, and be wise.
It has no commander, officer, or ruler, yet it prepares its food in the summer, and during the harvest it stores up what it will eat. (Proverbs 6:6-8 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue:

Each language has its own ways of saying proverbs. There are many proverbs in the Bible. They need to be translated in a way for people to recognize them as proverbs and understand what they teach.

Examples from the Bible

A good name is to be chosen over great riches, and favor is better than silver and gold. (Proverbs 22:1 ULB)

This means that it is better to be a good person and to have a good reputation than it is to have a lot of money.

Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him. (Proverbs 10:26 ULB)

This means that if a person is lazy and does do what he was sent to do, he will be very annoying to those who send.

The way of Yahweh protects those who have integrity, but it is destruction for the wicked. (Proverbs 10:29 ULB)

This means that Yahweh protects people who do what is right, but he destroys those who are wicked.

Translation Strategies

If translating a proverb literally would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing that. If not, here are some options:

1. Find out how people say proverbs in your language, and use one of those ways.
2. If certain objects in the proverb are not known to many people in your language group, consider replacing them with objects that people know and that function in the same way in your language.
3. Substitute a proverb in your language that has the same teaching as the proverb in the Bible.
4. Give the same teaching but not in a form of a proverb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Find out how people say proverbs in your language, and use one of those ways. Here are some ideas for ways people might say a proverb in their language.

A good name is to be chosen over great riches, and favor is better than silver and gold. (Proverbs 22:1 ULB)

- “It is better to have a good name than to have great riches, and to be favored by people than to have silver and gold.”
- “Wise people choose a good name over great riches and favor over silver and gold.”
- “Try to have a good reputation rather than great riches.”
- “Will riches really help you? I would rather have a good reputation.”

2. If certain objects in the proverb are not known to many people in your language group, consider replacing them with objects that people know and that function in the same way in your language.

Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so a fool does not deserve honor. (Proverbs 26:1 ULB)

- “It is not natural for a cold wind to blow in the hot season or for it to rain in the harvest season; And it is not natural to honor a foolish person.”

3. Substitute a proverb in your language that has the same teaching as the proverb in the Bible.

Do not boast about tomorrow (Proverbs 27:1 ULB)

- “Do not count your chickens before they hatch.”

4. Give the same teaching but not in a form of a proverb.

A generation that curses their father and does not bless their mother, that is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, but they are not washed of their filth. (Proverbs 30:11-12 ULB)

- “People who do not respect their parents think that they are righteous, and they do not turn away from their sin.”

Quotations and Quote Margins

This answers the question: What are quote margins and where should I put them?

When saying that someone said something, we often tell who spoke, who they spoke to, and what they said. The information about who spoke and who they spoke to is called the quote margin. What the person said is the quotation. (This is also called a quote.) In some languages the quote margin may come first, last, or even in between two parts of the quotation.

Description

When saying that someone said something, we often tell who spoke, who they spoke to, and what they said. The information about who spoke and who they spoke to is called the quote margin. What the person said is the quote. In some languages the quote margin may come first, last, or even in between to parts of the quote. The quote margins are underlined below.

- She said, “The food is ready. Come and eat.”
- “The food is ready. Come and eat,” she said
- “The food is ready,” she said. “Come and eat.”

Also in some languages, the quote margin may have more than one verb meaning “said”.

But his mother answered and said, “No, instead he will be called John.” (Luke 1:60 ULB)

When writing that someone said something, some languages put the quote (what was said) in quotation marks called inverted commas (“_”).

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Translators need to put the quote margin where it is most clear and natural in their language.
- Translators need to decide whether they want the quote margin to have one or two verbs meaning “said”.

Examples from the Bible

Quote margin before the quote

Zechariah said to the angel, “How will I know this will happen? For I am an old man, and my wife also is very old.” (Luke 1:18 ULB)

Then some tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what must we do?” (Luke 3:12 ULB)

He to them, “Do not collect more money than you are supposed to.” (Luke 3:13 ULB)

Quote margin after the quote

Yahweh relented concerning this. “It will not happen,” he said. (Amos 7:3 ULB)

Quote margin between two parts of the quote

“I will hide my face from them,” he said, “and I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.” (Deuteronomy 32:20 ULB)

“Therefore, those who can,” he said, “should go there with us. If there is something wrong with the man, you should accuse him.” (Acts 25:5 ULB)

“For look, days are coming”—this is Yahweh’s declaration—“when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel” (Jeremiah 30:3 ULB)

Translation Strategies

1. Decide where to put the quote margin.
2. Decide whether to use one or two words meaning “said.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Decide where to put the quote margin.
