Introduction to 1 Corinthians

Part 1: General Introduction

Outline of the Book of 1 Corinthians

1. Divisions in the church (1:10-4:21)
2. Moral sins and irregularities (5:1-13)
3. Christians taking other Christians to court (6:1-20)
4. Marriage and related matters (7:1-40)
5. Misuse of Christian liberty; food sacrificed to idols, fleeing idolatry; women's head coverings (8:1-13; 10:1-11:16)
6. Paul's rights as an apostle (9:1-27)
7. The Lord's Supper (11:17-34)
8. The gifts of the Holy Spirit (12:1-31)
9. Love (13:1-13)
10. The gifts of the Holy Spirit: prophecy and languages (14:1-40)
11. The resurrection of believers and the resurrection of Christ (15:1-58)
12. Closing: the about the contribution for Christians in Jerusalem, requests, and personal greetings (16:1-24)

What is the Book of 1 Corinthians about?

1 Corinthians is a book about conflicts among believers in the church in the city of Corinth. Paul had heard many bad reports about the believers' actions. Some of their problems included theological or doctrinal issues, but most of them were about bad behavior. This letter is Paul's response and encouragement for the Christians in Corinth to live in a God-pleasing way.

How should the title of this book be translated?

Translators may choose to call this book by its traditional title, "First Corinthians" or "Paul's first Letter to the Church in Corinth." This letter is actually the first of two letters to the Corinthian Christians that are in the New Testament. There was at least one earlier letter, but that letter no longer exists. (See: How to Translate Names)

Who wrote the Book of 1 Corinthians?

Paul of Tarsus was the author. He probably wrote from Ephesus after he lived for some time in Corinth and planted the church there. Paul had been known as "Saul" before his conversion to Christ, when he had been a persecutor of the church.

Part 2: Important Religious and Cultural Concepts

What was the city of Corinth like?

Corinth was a major city located in ancient Greece. Because it was near the Mediterranean Sea, many people bought and sold goods there. This caused the city to have people from many different cultures. It was known for its immorality. Its religious practices centered on Aphrodite, the goddess of love. As part of the ceremonies honoring Aphrodite, her worshipers had sexual intercourse with temple prostitutes.

What was the problem with meat sacrificed to idols?

Many animals were slaughtered and sacrificed to the gods in Corinth. However, much of the meat was kept by the priests and worshipers, and much of it was sold in markets. Many Christians disagreed with each other over whether it was right for them to eat this meat, because it had been dedicated to a false god. Paul writes about this problem in 1 Corinthians.

Part 3: Important Translation Issues

How are the ideas of “holy” and “sanctify” represented in 1 Corinthians ULB?

The scriptures use such words to indicate any one of various ideas. For this reason, it is often difficult for translators to represent them well in their versions. In translating into English, 1 Corinthians ULB uses the following principles:

- Sometimes the context mainly implies moral holiness. Especially important for understanding the gospel is the use of “hagios” to express the fact that God views Christians as sinless because they are united to Jesus Christ. Another use of “hagios” is also to express the idea that God is perfect and faultless. A third use is to express the idea that Christians are to conduct themselves in a blameless, faultless manner in life. In these cases, the ULB uses “holy,” “holy God,” “holy ones,” or “holy people.” (See 1:2)
- Sometimes the context mainly indicates a simple reference to Christians without implying any particular role filled by them. In these cases, the ULB uses “believer” or “believers.” (See 6:1, 2; 14:33; 16:1, 15)
- Sometimes the context mainly implies the idea of someone or something set apart for God alone. In these cases, the ULB uses “set apart,” “dedicated to,” or “reserved for.” (See 1:2; 3:17; 6:11; 7:14, 34)

As translators think about how to represent these ideas in their own versions, they will often be helped by the choices made in the ULB.

What is the meaning of “flesh?”

Paul frequently uses the terms “flesh” or “fleshly” to refer to Christians who follow their own sinful desires. Despite the imagery, it is not the physical world which is evil. Paul also describes Christians who live righteously as “spiritual” people because they follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit. (See: flesh, righteous, righteousness and spirit, spiritual)

What does Paul mean by the expression “in Christ,” “in the Lord,” etc.?

This kind of expression occurs in 1:2, 30, 31; 3:1; 4:10, 15, 17; 6:11, 19; 7:22; 9:1, 2; 11:11, 25; 12:3, 9, 13, 18, 25; 14:16; 15:18, 19, 22, 31, 58; 16:19, 24. Paul means in general to express the idea of very close union with Christ and the believers. At the same time, he often intends to signal other kinds of relationships. See, for example, “those who have been dedicated in Christ Jesus” (1:2), where Paul specifically signals that Christian believers have been set apart or “dedicated” to Christ.

Please see the introduction to the Book of Romans for more details about this kind of expression.

What are the major issues in the text of the Book of 1 Corinthians?

The text of some English translations do not agree concerning what to include. This is because of the discovery of manuscripts that many believe are more accurate. The follow are the most significant issues in the Book of 1 Corinthians:

- “and in your spirit, which are God’s.” (6:20) Some older versions read in this way, although the best copies do not have this reading.
- “I did this even though I was not under the law myself.” (9:20) The ULB and UDB read in this way. However, some older versions leave this passage out.
- “For the earth and everything in it belong to the Lord.” (10:28) Some older versions have this passage, but the best copies do not have it. The ULB and UDB do not have it.
- “and if I give my body to be burned.” (13:3) Most versions, including the ULB and UDB, read in this way. However, some versions prefer, “and if I give my body so that I might boast.”
- “But if anyone does not recognize this, let him not be recognized.” (14:38) Most versions read in this way. However, some older versions read, “But if anyone is ignorant of this, let him be ignorant.”

In the case of passages that newer versions often leave out, it is not wrong for translators to include them, especially if older Bible versions in their region include them. If these passages are translated, they should be put inside square brackets ([]) to indicate that they were probably not original to the Book of 1 Corinthians. (See: Textual Variants)

1 Corinthians 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The first paragraph of 1 Corinthians was a common way of opening a letter in the ancient Near East.

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 1:19, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Disunity

In this chapter, Paul scolds the church for their disunity and their claims to follow different apostles. (See: apostle, apostleship)

Spiritual gifts

Spiritual gifts are specific supernatural abilities given to Christians after they come to faith in Jesus. This is not an exhaustive list of the spiritual gifts. Some scholars believe some of these gifts were only given in the early church because they were foundational to the development of the church. (See: faith)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Idioms

The return of Christ to the earth is mentioned in two very different phrases: “the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ” and “the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.” (See: Idiom)

Rhetorical questions

Paul uses rhetorical questions to scold them for dividing into factions and to say human wisdom is not enough to understand God’s plans. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Stumbling block

A stumbling block is a rock people stumble over. Here it means the Jews have a problem believing that God would allow his Messiah to be crucified and so refuse to believe. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

UDB:

¹ I, Paul, am writing this letter. Sosthenes, our fellow believer, is with me as I write this letter to you. God appointed me to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and God chose me to serve him. ² This letter is to the church of God in Corinth, to those whom Christ Jesus has set apart for God, with everyone else—everywhere—who calls on God to save them in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

³ May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ love you and give you peace.

ULB:

¹ ¹ Paul, called by Christ Jesus to be an apostle by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, ² to the church of God at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, who are called to be holy people. We are also writing to all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours. ³ May grace and peace be to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

translationWords:

- Paul, Saul
- call, calling, called, call out
- Christ, Messiah
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- apostle, apostleship
- will of God
- brother
- church, Church
- Corinth, Corinthians
- holy, holiness
- Lord
- grace, gracious
- peace, peaceful
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul and Sosthenes give greetings to the Corinthian church believers.
- General Information: - Unless otherwise noted, such words as “you” and “your” refer to Paul’s audience and so are plural. (See: Forms of You)

- Paul ... to the church of God at Corinth - Your language may have a particular way of introducing the author of a letter and the intended audience. AT: “I, Paul, wrote this letter to you in Corinth who believe in God”
- Sosthenes our brother - This indicates that both Paul and the Corinthians knew Sosthenes. AT: “Sosthenes the brother you and I know” (See How to Translate Names and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus - Here “sanctified” refers to people whom God has reserved to honor him. AT: “to those whom Christ Jesus has set apart for God” or “to those whom God has set apart for himself because they belong to Christ Jesus” (UDB)
- who are called to be holy people - This can be stated in active form. AT: “whom God has called to be holy people” Possible meanings are 1) “whom God has set apart for himself” or 2) “whom God has called to separate themselves from sin” or “whom God has called to not sin” (See: Active or Passive)
- their Lord and ours - Jesus is the Lord of Paul and the Corinthians and the same Lord of all the churches. (See: Inclusive “We”)

1 Corinthians 1:4-6

UDB:

⁴ I thank my God every day for you because of the many costly gifts that Christ Jesus has given to you because he loves you. ⁵ Christ has given you so many things. He helped you in all your speaking and in all your knowledge. ⁶ You yourselves are the proof that these statements about Christ are true.

ULB:

⁴ I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace of God that Christ Jesus gave to you. ⁵ He has made you rich in every way, in all speech and with all knowledge, ⁶ just as the testimony about Christ has been confirmed as true among you.

translationWords:

- grace, gracious
- know, knowledge, make known
- testimony, testify
- true, truth, come true

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul describes the believer's position and fellowship in Christ as they wait for his coming.
- because of the grace of God that Christ Jesus gave to you - Paul speaks of grace as though it were a physical object that Jesus gives Christians as a gift. AT: "because Christ Jesus has made it possible for God to be kind to you" (See: Metaphor)
- He has made you rich - Possible meanings are 1) "Christ has made you rich" or 2) "God has made you rich."
- made you rich in every way - Paul is speaking in general terms. AT: "made you rich with all kinds of spiritual blessings" (See: Hyperbole)
- in all speech - God has enabled you to tell others about God's message in many ways.
- all knowledge - God has enabled you to understand God's message in many ways.
- the testimony about Christ has been confirmed as true among you - Possible meanings are 1) "you saw for yourselves that what we had said about Christ was true" or 2) "other people learned from seeing how you now live that what we and you say about Christ is true."

1 Corinthians 1:7-9

UDB:

⁷ That is the reason you do not lack any gift from the Spirit of God while you wait for the day when God will make the Lord Jesus Christ known and will show him to everyone. ⁸ God will also make you strong so you can serve him to the very end, so you will bring no shame upon yourselves on the day that our Lord Jesus Christ returns to earth. ⁹ God is keeping his promise to do that. God called you, so you can know and love his Son, Jesus Christ, who is our Lord.

ULB:

⁷ Therefore you lack no spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful, who called you into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

translationWords:

- spirit, spiritual
- gift
- reveal, revelation
- blameless
- day of the Lord, day of Yahweh
- faithful, faithfulness
- call, calling, called, call out
- fellowship

translationNotes:

- Therefore - “As a result”
- lack no spiritual gift - “have every spiritual gift” (See: Litotes)
- the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ - Possible meanings are 1) “the time when God will reveal the Lord Jesus Christ” or 2) “the time when our Lord Jesus Christ will reveal himself.”
- you will be blameless - There will be no reason for God to condemn you.
- God is faithful - “God will do everything he has said he will do”
- his Son - This is an important title for Jesus, the Son of God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

1 Corinthians 1:10-11

UDB:

¹⁰ My brothers and sisters, I beg you by the authority of Jesus, that you come to an agreement and that you settle your disagreements, and that you no longer divide yourselves into groups. Learn to see things from the same point of view and to work together to accomplish the same task. ¹¹ Those in Chloe's house have reported to me that there are divisions and disagreements among some of you.

ULB:

¹⁰ Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree, and that there be no divisions among you. I urge that you be joined together with the same mind and by the same purpose. ¹¹ For it has been made clear to me, my brothers, by Chloe's people that there are factions among you.

translationWords:

- name
- Lord
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul reminds the Corinthian believers that they are to live in unity with each other and that the message of the cross of Christ, not baptism by people, is what saves.
- brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- that you all agree - "that you live in harmony with one another"
- that there be no divisions among you - "that you do not divide into separate groups among yourselves"
- be joined together with the same mind and by the same purpose - "live in unity"
- Chloe's people - This refers to family members, servants, and others who are part of the household of which Chloe, a woman, is the head.
- there are factions among you - "you are in groups that quarrel one with another"

1 Corinthians 1:12-13

UDB:

¹² This is the problem. Each of you claims to have loyalty to one leader or another. One says, "I am loyal to Paul." Another says, "I am loyal to Apollos." Someone else says, "I am loyal to Peter." And the last one says, "But I am loyal to Christ." ¹³ But Christ does not divide his loyalty. Paul was not crucified for you. The person who baptized you did not baptize you in the name of Paul.

ULB:

¹² I mean this: Each one of you says, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Christ." ¹³ Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul?

translationWords:

- Paul, Saul
- Apollos
- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- Christ, Messiah
- crucify
- baptize, baptism
- name

translationNotes:

- Each one of you says - Paul is expressing a general attitude of division.
- Is Christ divided? - Paul wishes to emphasize the truth that Christ is not divided but one. "It is not possible to divide Christ in the way you are doing!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)
- Was Paul crucified for you? - Paul wishes to emphasize that it was Christ, not Paul or Apollos, who was crucified. This can also be translated in active form. AT: "It certainly was not put Paul whom they put to death on the cross for your salvation!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)
- Were you baptized in the name of Paul? - Paul wishes to emphasize that we all are baptized in the name of Christ. This can also be translated in active form. AT: "It was not in the name of Paul that people baptized you!" (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 1:14-16

UDB:

¹⁴ I thank God that I baptized only a few people there; among them I baptized Crispus and Gaius. ¹⁵ It would not be true that I baptized them in my name. ¹⁶ (Now I remember that I also baptized the household of Stephanas, but other than those people, I do not remember baptizing anyone else in Corinth.)

ULB:

¹⁴ I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius. ¹⁵ This was so that no one would say that you were baptized into my name. ¹⁶ (I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized any others.)

translationWords:

- baptize, baptism
- name
- household
- know, knowledge, make known

translationNotes:

- I thank God - Paul exaggerates how grateful he is that he did not baptize more people in Corinth. (See: Hyperbole)
- none of you, except - “only”
- Crispus - He was a synagogue ruler who became a Christian. (See How to Translate Names)
- Gaius - He traveled with the Apostle Paul. (See How to Translate Names)
- This was so that no one would say that you were baptized into my name - “I did not baptize anyone else because I was afraid that they might later boast that I had baptized them” (See: Double Negatives and Active or Passive)
- the household of Stephanas - This refers to the family members and slaves in the house where Stephanas, a man, was the head. (See: How to Translate Names)

1 Corinthians 1:17

UDB:

¹⁷ The most important work Christ sent me to do was to tell everyone the good news about him, not to baptize people. I did not proclaim the good news using human wisdom or clever words so instead I could use the power of the work of Christ dying on the cross.

ULB:

¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel. He did not send me to preach with words of human wisdom, so that the cross of Christ should not be emptied of its power.

translationWords:

- send, send out, sent
- baptize, baptism
- preach
- good news, gospel
- word
- wise, wisdom
- cross
- power, powers

translationNotes:

- Christ did not send me to baptize - This means that baptism was not the primary goal of Paul's ministry.
- words of human wisdom ... the cross of Christ should not be emptied of its power - Paul speaks of "words of human wisdom" as if they were people, the cross as a container, and of power as a physical thing that Jesus can put in that container. This can be stated in active form. AT: "words of human wisdom ... those words of human wisdom should not empty the cross of Christ of its power" or "words of human wisdom ... people should not stop believing the message about Jesus and start thinking I am more important than Jesus" (See: Active or Passive and Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 1:18-19

UDB:

¹⁸ For those who are dead to the things of God cannot understand him. Christ died for them on the cross, but this message is pointless to them. However, for those of us whom God has rescued and brought to life, this message allows God to powerfully work in us. ¹⁹ A prophet wrote in the scriptures:

”The wisdom of those who think they are wise,
I will destroy,
and I will make the brilliant plans of the intelligent to be utter failures.”

ULB:

¹⁸ For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are dying. But among those whom God is saving, it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written,

”I will destroy the wisdom of the wise.
I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent.”

translationWords:

- cross
- fool, foolish, folly
- death, die, dead
- save, safe
- power, powers
- written
- wise, wisdom

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul emphasizes God’s wisdom rather than man’s wisdom.
- the message about the cross - “the preaching about the crucifixion” or “the message of Christ’s dying on the cross”
- is foolishness - “is senseless” or “is silly”
- to those who are dying - Here “dying” refers to the process of spiritual death.
- it is the power of God - “it is God working powerfully in us”
- I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent - “I will confuse intelligent people” or “I will make the plans intelligent people make completely fail”

1 Corinthians 1:20-21

UDB:

²⁰ Where are the wise people of this world? They did not understand anything about God. Neither did the scholars, nor those skilled in debate. For God has shown that everything they call wisdom is really foolishness. ²¹ In the wisdom of God, unbelievers did not come to know God by their own wisdom. So God was pleased to use a message that they thought was foolish. That is message we proclaimed and it had power to save all who believe it.

ULB:

²⁰ Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this world? Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness? ²¹ Since the world in its wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.

translationWords:

- wise, wisdom
- world, worldly
- fool, foolish, folly
- know, knowledge, make known
- save, safe
- believe, believe in, belief

translationNotes:

- Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this world? - Paul emphasizes that truly wise people are nowhere to be found. AT: “Compared with the wisdom of the gospel, there are no wise people, no scholars, no debaters!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the scholar - a person who is recognized as someone who has studied a great deal
- the debater - a person who argues about what he knows or who is skilled in such arguments
- Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness? - Paul uses this question to emphasize what God has done to the wisdom of this world. AT: “God has shown that everything they call wisdom is really foolishness” (UDB) (See: Rhetorical Question)
- those who believe - Possible meanings are 1) “all who believe the message” or 2) “all who believe in Christ.”

1 Corinthians 1:22-23

UDB:

²² The Jews wanted public displays of miraculous power before they would follow anyone. The Greeks are looking for wisdom through new and fresh ways of thinking about spiritual ideas. ²³ But we proclaim a message about Christ, who died on a cross. For the Jews this message about the cross of Christ is something they cannot receive because death on a cross brings a curse with it. To the Greeks it is too foolish to deserve their attention.

ULB:

²² For Jews ask for miraculous signs and Greeks seek wisdom. ²³ But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Greeks.

translationWords:

- Jew, Jewish, Jews
- miracle, wonder, sign
- Greek, Grecian
- wise, wisdom
- preach
- Christ, Messiah
- crucify
- stumbling block, stone of stumbling
- fool, foolish, folly

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the word “we” refers to Paul and other Bible teachers. (See: Exclusive “We”)
- Christ crucified - “about Christ, who died on a cross” (UDB) (See: Active or Passive)
- a stumbling block - Just as a person can stumble over a block on a road, so the message of salvation through the crucifixion of the Christ keeps Jews from believing in Jesus. AT: “not acceptable” or “very offensive” (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 1:24-25

UDB:

²⁴ But for us, we whom God called so we can know him, that message shows that God acted powerfully and wisely by sending Christ to die for us. The good news is not tied to any race or philosophy; in Christ there is no distinction between Jews and all the other nations and races on earth. ²⁵ For the things of God that appear foolish are really wiser than the most brilliant ideas human beings can imagine. And the things of God that appear weakest are stronger than the strongest and greatest human being who ever lived.

ULB:

²⁴ But to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, we preach Christ as the power and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than people, and the weakness of God is stronger than people.

translationWords:

- call, calling, called, call out
- Jew, Jewish, Jews
- Greek, Grecian
- preach
- power, powers
- wise, wisdom
- fool, foolish, folly

translationNotes:

- to those whom God has called - “to the people God calls”
- we preach Christ - “we teach about Christ” or “we tell all people about Christ”
- Christ as the power and the wisdom of God - Possible meanings are 1) “God acted powerfully and wisely by sending Christ to die for us” (UDB) or “through Christ God has shown how strong and wise he is.”
- the power ... of God - Another possible meaning is that Christ is powerful and it is through Christ that God saves us.
- the wisdom of God - Another possible meaning is that God shows the content of his wisdom through Christ.
- the foolishness of God is wiser than people, and the weakness of God is stronger than people - “what people call God’s foolishness is really wiser than what people call wisdom, and what people call God’s weakness is really stronger than people’s strength” (See: Ellipsis)

1 Corinthians 1:26-27

UDB:

²⁶ Brothers and sisters, look at the kind of person you were when God called you. See how unimportant you were. You were not the wisest of people. You were not important enough for people to obey you. You had no important ancestors. ²⁷ Instead, God chose the things that made no sense to unbelievers so that they would stop praising themselves. God chose to use things that were weak to put to shame the things they believed were so strong.

ULB:

²⁶ Look at your calling, brothers. Not many of you were wise by human standards. Not many of you were powerful. Not many of you were of noble birth. ²⁷ But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. God chose what is weak in the world to shame what is strong.

translationWords:

- call, calling, called, call out
- wise, wisdom
- power, powers
- fool, foolish, folly
- shame, shameful, ashamed
- chosen one, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, the elect

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul emphasizes the believer's position before God.
- Not many ... Not many ... Not many - "Very few ... Very few ... Very few" (See: Litotes)
- wise by human standards - "what most people would call wise"
- of noble birth - "special because your family is important"
- God chose ... wise. God chose ... strong - Paul repeats many of the same words in two sentences that mean almost the same thing to emphasize the difference between God's way of doing things and how people think God should do them. (See: Parallelism)
- God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise - "God chose to use those whom the world thinks are foolish to shame those whom the world thinks are wise"
- God chose what is weak in the world to shame what is strong - "God chose to use those whom the world thinks are weak to shame those whom the world thinks are strong"

UDB:

²⁸ God chose what the unbelievers think is of no importance in order to show that the things they consider to be important have no value. ²⁹ God did this so that no human being could have any reason to praise himself and he should offer God all praise instead.

ULB:

²⁸ God chose what is low and despised in the world. He even chose things that are regarded as nothing, to bring to nothing things that are held as valuable. ²⁹ He did this so that no one would have a reason to boast before him.

translationWords:

- world, worldly
- boast, boastful

translationNotes:

- what is low and despised - the people whom the world rejects. AT: “people who are humble and rejected”
- things that are regarded as nothing - This can be stated in active form. AT: “that which people usually regard as without value” (See: Active or Passive)
- nothing, to bring to nothing things that are held as valuable - “nothing. He did this so he could show that the things that are held as valuable are really worthless”
- things that are held as valuable - This can be stated in active form. AT: “things that people think are worth money” or “things that people think are worth respect” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 1:30-31

UDB:

³⁰ Because of what God has done, you are now joined to Christ Jesus, who has made clear to us how wise God is. He has put us right with God, he has set us apart for God, and he has rescued us and brought us to safety. ³¹ So, as the scriptures say:

“The one who praises himself should praise himself only in what the Lord has done for him.”

ULB:

³⁰ Because of what God did, now you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God. He became our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. ³¹ As a result, as scripture says, “Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

translationWords:

- in Christ, in Jesus, in the Lord, in him
- wise, wisdom
- righteous, righteousness
- holy, holiness
- redeem, redemption, redeemer
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture
- boast, boastful

translationNotes:

- Because of what God did - This refers to the work of Christ on the cross.
- us ... our - These words refer to Paul, those with him, and the Corinthians. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God - Possible meanings are 1) “Christ Jesus, who has made clear to us how wise God is” (UDB) or 2) “Christ Jesus, who has given us God’s wisdom.” (See: Metonymy)
- Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord - “If a person boasts, he should boast about how great the Lord is”

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent 2:9 and the first line of 2:16, which are quotations from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Wisdom

Paul continues the discussion from the first chapter contrasting human and God's wisdom. For Paul, wisdom can be simple. He said the wisdom from the Holy Spirit is the only true wisdom. Human ideas are foolish. Paul uses the phrase "hidden wisdom" in referring to truths that were not previously known. (See: wise, wisdom and fool, foolish, folly)

UDB:

¹ When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not make beautiful speeches, nor did I repeat to you the things that wise men said. I told you the hidden truths about God. ² I decided not to talk to you about anything other than Jesus Christ and his death on the cross.

ULB:

2 ¹ When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with eloquence of speech or wisdom as I proclaimed hidden truths about God.[1] Many other versions read, as I proclaimed the testimony about God. ² For I decided to know nothing when I was among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul contrasts human wisdom and God's wisdom. He emphasizes that spiritual wisdom comes from God.
- brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- I decided to know nothing ... except Jesus Christ - Paul spoke about the crucifixion of Christ rather than human ideas. AT: "I decided to talk as much as I could ... about Jesus Christ" (See: Hyperbole and Litotes)

³ You know how weak I was when I was with you. You know that fear filled my heart, and that you saw me trembling in terror. ⁴ But you heard my message, and you know that when I spoke to you I did not give carefully planned speeches. Instead, the Spirit of God showed you that I was speaking the truth because of the power of the miracles he did through me. ⁵ I taught this way so you might trust in God because of his power, and not because of anything having to do with human wisdom.

ULB:

³ And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴ And my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom. Instead, they were with the demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵ so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of humans, but in the power of God.

translationNotes:

- I was with you - “I was visiting with you”
- in weakness - Possible meanings are: 1) “physically weak” (UDB) or 2) “feeling like I could not do what I needed to do.”
- persuasive words of wisdom - words that sound wise and with which the speaker hopes to cause people to do or believe something

UDB:

⁶ Now it is to those who trust fully in Christ that we speak. You now have wisdom, and that wisdom has nothing to do with the kings and governors in this life, all of whom will soon pass away. ⁷ No, we proclaim wisdom that God has kept hidden until now; that wisdom is the wise things God decided to do before he created the world, and he decided to do those things so that he and other beings would someday honor us.

ULB:

⁶ Now we do speak wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this world, or of the rulers of this age, who are passing away. ⁷ Instead, we speak God's wisdom in hidden truth, the hidden wisdom that God predestined before the ages for our glory.

translationWords:

- wise, wisdom
- world, worldly
- ruler, rulers, rule
- age
- mystery, hidden truth
- predestine, predestined
- glory, glorious

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Paul interrupts his main argument to explain what he means by “wisdom” and to whom he desires to speak.
- Now we do speak - The word “Now” is used here to mark a break in the main teaching. Paul begins to explain that true wisdom is God's wisdom.
- speak wisdom - “speak words of wisdom” (See: Metonymy)
- the mature - “mature believers”
- before the ages - “before God created anything”
- for our glory - “in order to ensure our future glory”

1 Corinthians 2:8-9

UDB:

⁸ None of those who rule this world knew about God’s wise plans. If they had understood them, they never would have nailed the Lord, the one who is so very great, to the cross. ⁹ But in the scriptures it says:

”The things that no one has seen,
that no one has heard,
and that no one could imagine—these are what God has prepared for those who love him.”

ULB:

⁸ None of the rulers of this age knew this wisdom, for if they had understood it at that time, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But as it is written,

”Things that no eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no mind has imagined,
the things that God has prepared for those who love him.”

translationWords:

- ruler, rulers, rule
- age
- know, knowledge, make known
- wise, wisdom
- crucify
- Lord
- glory, glorious
- written
- love

translationNotes:

- the Lord of glory - “Jesus, the glorious Lord”
- Things that no eye ... imagined, the things ... who love him - This is an incomplete sentence. Some translations make it a complete sentence: “Things that no eye ... imagined; these are the things ... who love him.” Others leave it incomplete but show that it is incomplete by using non-final punctuation here and beginning the next verse as a continuation of this verse:

“Things that no eye ... imagined, the things ... who love him’—”

- Things that no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has imagined - This is a triplet referring to all parts of a person to emphasize that no man has ever been aware of the things that God has prepared. (See: Metonymy)
- the things that God has prepared for those who love him - The Lord has created in heaven wonderful surprises for those who love him.

translationWords:

- world, worldly
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- know, knowledge, make known
- word
- wise, wisdom

translationNotes:

UDB:

¹⁴ The one who does not know God cannot accept these spiritual lessons. To him they sound like the lessons of fools. Even if he wanted to accept them, he would be unable to, because only people who have the wisdom that comes from God can understand these things. ¹⁵ The one who knows God evaluates all matters, but God will not accept their evaluation of him. ¹⁶ As one of our prophets wrote:

”It is impossible for anyone to know all that is in the mind of the Lord.
No one is able to teach God.”

But we can know the very thoughts of Christ.

ULB:

¹⁴ The unspiritual person does not receive the things that belong to the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him. He cannot know them because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵ The one who is spiritual judges all things, but he is not subject to the judgment of others.

¹⁶ “For who can know the mind of the Lord, that he can instruct him?”

But we have the mind of Christ.

translationWords:

- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- fool, foolish, folly
- know, knowledge, make known
- discern, discernment
- judge, judgment
- subject, be subject to, in subjection to

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the word “we” includes both Paul and his audience. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- unspiritual person - the non-Christian person, who has not received the Holy Spirit
- because they are spiritually discerned - “because understanding these things requires the aid of the Spirit”
- The one who is spiritual - “The believer who has received the Spirit”

- For who can know the mind of the Lord, that he can instruct him? - Paul uses this question to emphasize that no one knows the mind of the Lord. AT: “No one can know the mind of the Lord, so no one can teach him anything he does not already know” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 3:19 and 20, which are quotations from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Fleshly people

The Corinthian believers were immature because their unrighteous actions. He calls them “fleshly meaning thinking as a nonbeliever. This term is used in opposition to those who are ”spiritual.” Christians following their “flesh” are foolishness and they are following the wisdom of the world. (See: unrighteous, unrighteousness, flesh, spirit, spiritual, fool, foolish, folly and wise, wisdom)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

There are many metaphors in this chapter. He uses “babies” and “milk” as illustrations of spiritual immaturity. Paul uses the metaphors of planting and watering, to describe the roles he and Apollos played in growing the church in Corinth. Paul also uses many other metaphors to help teach spiritual truths to the Corinthians to help them to understand his teachings. (See: Metaphor)

You were not ready for solid food. And even now, you are not ready.

ULB:

3 ¹ And I, brothers, could not speak to you as spiritual people, but instead as to fleshly people, as to babes in Christ. ² I fed you milk and not meat, for you were not ready for meat. And even now you are not ready.

translationWords:

- spirit, spiritual
- flesh
- Christ, Messiah

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul now reminds the Corinthian believers of how they are actually living instead of behaving as their position before God is. He then reminds them that the person who teaches them is not as important as God who gives their growth.
- brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- spiritual people - people who obey the Spirit
- fleshly people - people who follow their own desires
- as to babes in Christ - The Corinthians are compared to children very young in age and understanding. AT: “as to very young believers in Christ” (See: Metaphor)
- I fed you milk and not meat - The Corinthians can understand only easy truths like babies who can drink only milk. They are not mature enough to understand greater truths like older children who now can eat solid food. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 3:3-5

UDB:

³ I say this because you are still acting as unbelievers even though you are Christians. I know you are not ready because many of you are jealous and quarreling with each other, and you are judging things just as if you were still unbelievers. ⁴ Some of you say you are following what I, Paul, have taught; others say they are following what Apollos has taught. You are acting the way unbelievers act.

⁵ Compared to the great work that God has done in your lives, Apollos is not important. Neither is Paul important. We are both servants, and we serve the same God in the ways that he has assigned to us.

ULB:

³ For you are still fleshly. For where jealousy and strife exist among you, are you not living according to the flesh, and are you not walking by human standards? ⁴ For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos," are you not living as human beings? ⁵ Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, to each of whom the Lord gave tasks.

translationWords:

- flesh
- jealous, jealousy
- strife
- walk
- Paul, Saul
- Apollos
- servant, slave, slavery
- believe, believe in, belief
- Lord

translationNotes:

- still fleshly - still behaving according to sinful or worldly desires
- are you not living according to the flesh, and are you not walking by human standards? - Paul is rebuking the Corinthians for their sinful behavior. ULB:

⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷ So then, neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything. But it is God who gives the growth.

translationWords:

- Apollos

translationNotes:

- planted - The knowledge of God is compared to a seed which must be planted in order to grow. (See: Metaphor)
- watered - As seeds need water, faith needs further teaching in order for it to grow. (See: Metaphor)
- growth - As plants grow and develop, so also do faith and knowledge in God also grow and become deeper and stronger. (See: Metaphor)
- neither he who plants ... is anything. But it is God who gives the growth - Paul stresses that neither he nor Apollos is responsible for the believers' spiritual growth, but it is God's doing.
- gives the growth - Paul speaks of the ability to grow as though it were a physical object that God could give to plants or to the Corinthians. "enables the plants to grow" or "enables Christians to know him better" (See: Metaphor and Abstract Nouns)

It is as if he were constructing a building out of you.

ULB:

⁸ Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor. ⁹ For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's garden, God's building.

translationWords:

- labor, laborer

translationNotes:

- he who plants and he who waters are one - Paul speaks of telling people the good news and teaching those who have accepted it as if it were planting and watering plants. He speaks of them being the same work because he considers them equally important, (See: Metonymy)
- wages - an amount of money that a worker receives for his work
- we - This refers to Paul and Apollos but not the Corinthian church. (See: Exclusive "We")
- God's fellow workers - Paul considers himself and Apollos as working together.
- God's garden - God takes care of the Corinthian believers, like someone who tends a garden to make it fruitful. (See: Metaphor)

- foundation, founded

translationNotes:

- According to the grace of God that was given to me - “According to the task that God freely gave me to do” (See: Active or Passive)
- I laid a foundation - Paul equates his teaching of faith and salvation in Jesus Christ to laying a foundation for a building. (See: Metaphor)
- another is building on it - Paul is referring to the person or people who are teaching the Corinthians at that time as if they are carpenters who are constructing the building above the foundation. (See: Metaphor)
- let each man - This refers to God’s workers in general. AT: “let each person who serves God”
- no one can lay a foundation other than the one that has been laid - This can be stated as active. AT: “I have already laid the only foundation that anyone can lay” or “no one can lay a foundation other than the foundation that I, Paul, laid” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 3:12-13

UDB:

¹² We are like builders who choose what to put on top of that foundation. Builders can choose to use valuable materials like gold, silver, and precious stones, or they can choose to use worthless materials like wood, hay, and straw. ¹³ God will judge our work and put on display what each of us has done for him. He will send fire to test the work we have done. That fire will prove the quality of the work that we did for him.

ULB:

¹² Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, ¹³ his work will be revealed, for the daylight will reveal it. For it will be revealed in fire. The fire will test the quality of what each one had done.

translationWords:

- foundation, founded
- gold
- silver
- reveal, revelation
- fire
- test

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Paul speaks of what builders usually do when constructing a building to describe what the teachers in Corinth are actually doing. Builders usually only use gold, silver, or precious stones as decorations on buildings.
- Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw - The building materials used to build a new building are being compared to the spiritual values used to build a person's behavior and activities during his lifetime. AT: "Whether a person builds with valuable materials that will last or with cheap materials that burn easily" (See: Metaphor)
- precious stones - "expensive stones"
- his work will be revealed - This can be stated in active form. AT: "God will show everyone what the builder has done" (See: Active or Passive)
- for the daylight will reveal it - The "daylight" here is a metaphor for the time when God will judge everyone. When God shows everyone what these teachers have done, it will be like the sun has come up to reveal what happened during the night. (See: Metaphor)

- For it will be revealed in fire. The fire will test the quality of what each one had done
 - Just as fire will reveal the strengths or destroy the weaknesses of a building, God's fire will judge man's efforts and activities. AT: "God will use fire to show the quality of his work" (See: Metaphor)

UDB:

¹⁴ If what a person builds survives the fire that tests what he built, he will receive a reward for his work, ¹⁵ But if the fire burns up all his work, he will lose all his reward, but God can still save him, even though the flames completely devour everything he did.

ULB:

¹⁴ If anyone's work remains, he will receive a reward; ¹⁵ but if anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, as though escaping through fire.

translationWords:

- works, deeds, work, acts
- reward
- suffer, suffering
- save, safe
- fire

translationNotes:

- General Information: - The terms "a person," "anyone's," "he," and "himself" refer to believers.
- remains - "lasts" or "survives" (UDB)
- if anyone's work is burned up - This can be stated in active form. AT: "if the fire destroys anyone's work" or "if the fire ruins anyone's work" (See: Active or Passive)
- he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved - This can be stated in active form. AT: "he will lose that work and any reward he might have earned if that work had survived the fire, but God will save him" (See: Active or Passive)

¹⁶ Surely you know that you are the dwelling place where God lives, that you are his temple. Surely you know that the Spirit of God lives inside of you. ¹⁷ God promises that he will destroy anyone who attempts to destroy his temple. This is because his temple belongs to him alone. And he protects you by the same promise because you are now his temple and you belong to him alone!

ULB:

¹⁶ Do you not know that you are God's temple and that the Spirit of God lives in you? ¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and so are you.

translationWords:

- know, knowledge, make known
- temple
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- life, live, living, alive
- holy, holiness

translationNotes:

- Do you not know that you are God's temple and that the Spirit of God lives in you? - Paul is rebuking the Corinthians. AT: "You act as though you do not know that you are God's temple and the Spirit of God lives in you!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 3:18-20

UDB:

¹⁸ Be on guard that you do not deceive yourselves. If any of you thinks he has great wisdom that unbelievers will admire, he should be careful. He would be far better off if he leaves alone all the things that unbelievers want, even if they consider him a fool for doing so. When he leaves those things alone, he will begin to learn what is true wisdom. ¹⁹ What the world considers to be great wisdom is really foolishness to God. For scripture says,

“God catches the wise in their own foolish plans.”

²⁰ And again scripture teaches,

“The Lord overhears all the planning of the wise, and he knows that in the end, they will lose everything.”

ULB:

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a “fool” that he may become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written,

“He catches the wise in their craftiness.”

²⁰ And again,

“The Lord knows that the reasoning of the wise is futile.”

translationWords:

- deceive, deceit, deception, deceptive
- wise, wisdom
- world, worldly
- fool, foolish, folly
- written
- know, knowledge, make known

translationNotes:

- Let no one deceive himself - Nobody should believe the lie that he himself is wise in this world.
- in this age - according to the way people who do not believe decide what is wise
- let him become a “fool” - “that person should be willing to have people who do not believe call him a fool” (See: Irony)

- He catches the wise in their craftiness - God traps the people who think they are clever and uses their own schemes to trap them.
- The Lord knows that the reasoning of the wise is futile - “The Lord knows that what people who think they are wise plan to do is futile”
- futile - useless

UDB:

²¹ So stop boasting about how good one Christian leader is or how good another Christian leader is. For God has given you all things. ²² God gave you Paul, and he gave you Apollos, and Peter. And God gave you this world, and your life, and his victory over death. And God gives you everything that exists and everything that will exist in the future—they are all yours; ²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

ULB:

²¹ So no more boasting about people! For all things are yours, ²² whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All things are yours, ²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

1 Corinthians 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the last line of 4:6, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Pride

Paul contrasts the Corinthian's pride with the humbleness of the apostles. The Corinthian believers have no reason to be proud because all that they have, and all they are, is a gift from God. (See: apostle, apostleship)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

There are many metaphors in this chapter. The apostles are described as servants. Paul speaks of a victory parade where the apostles are the prisoners who will be killed. He uses a rod to stand for punishment. He calls himself their father because he is their "spiritual father. (See: Metaphor and spirit, spiritual)

Irony

Paul uses irony to shame the pride of the Corinthians. The Corinthian believers are reigning but the apostles are suffering. (See: Irony)

1 Corinthians 4:1-2

UDB:

¹ A person should consider us as servants of Christ, and as those to whom God entrusted the hidden truths in the good news. ² We must faithfully do the work that God has given us to do because he trusts us to do it.

ULB:

4 ¹ This is how a person should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the hidden truths of God. ² In this connection, it is a requirement for stewards that they be trustworthy.

translationWords:

- servant, slave, slavery
- Christ, Messiah
- manager, steward
- mystery, hidden truth
- trust, trustworthy, trustworthiness

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Having just reminded the people not to be proud concerning who taught them about the Lord and who had baptized them, Paul reminds the Corinthian believers that all believers are to be humble servants.
- In this connection - “Because we are these stewards”
- it is a requirement for stewards that they be - Paul is speaking of himself as if he were speaking of someone else. AT: “we are required to be” (See: First, Second or Third Person)

1 Corinthians 4:3-4

UDB:

³ If a human being, or even a court of law, judges my life, I think little about it. I do not consider it worthwhile to judge myself. ⁴ I am not aware of anyone who accuses me of doing wrong. But that does not mean that I am innocent. It is the Lord who judges me.

ULB:

³ But for me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. For I do not even judge myself. ⁴ I am not aware of any charge being made against me, but that does not mean I am innocent. It is the Lord who judges me.

translationWords:

- judge, judgment
- innocent
- Lord

translationNotes:

- it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you - Paul is comparing the difference between human judgment and God's judgment. Man's judgment is not important compared to God's true judgment upon man.
- I am not aware of any charge being made against me - "I have not heard anyone accuse me of doing wrong"
- that does not mean I am innocent. It is the Lord who judges me - "that lack of accusation does not prove I am innocent. The Lord knows if I am innocent or guilty"

1 Corinthians 4:5

UDB:

⁵ So then, you should not judge anything before it is time. The Lord will do that when he returns. He is the one who can bring to light everything that is hidden even in total darkness, and he can make a right judgment because he knows what each person truly thinks. When he comes, everyone will receive whatever honor they deserve from the Lord.

ULB:

⁵ Therefore do not pronounce judgment about anything before the time, before the Lord comes. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his praise from God.

translationWords:

- judge, judgment
- Lord
- darkness
- heart
- praise
- God

translationNotes:

- Therefore do not pronounce judgment - Since God will judge when he comes, we are not to judge.
- bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart - God will make known people's thoughts and intentions. Nothing will remain hidden before the Lord.
- of the heart - "of people's hearts"

1 Corinthians 4:6-7

UDB:

⁶ Now, brothers and sisters, the rule we follow is “Do not go beyond what they have written in the scriptures.” Apollos and I live by it. For your sakes we teach only in this way so you can learn from us. It keeps you from being too proud about the people who are teaching it to you, whether it is I or Apollos. ⁷ There is no difference between you and any other believer. All of you have received everything as a gift. None of you is better than any other. None of you should boast like you are different from all the rest. We are all just the same.

ULB:

⁶ Now, brothers, I applied these principles to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that from us you might learn the meaning of the saying,

“Do not go beyond what is written.”

This is so that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against the other. ⁷ For who sees any difference between you and others? What do you have that you did not freely receive? If you have freely received it, why do you boast as if you had not done so?

translationWords:

- written
- puffed up
- boast, boastful

translationNotes:

- brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- for your sakes - “for your welfare”
- between you ... do you have that you did not ... you have freely ... do you boast ... you had not - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so all instances of “you” here are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- For who sees any difference between you and others? - Paul is rebuking the Corinthians who think they are better than those who heard the gospel from someone else. AT: “You are not superior to other men” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- What do you have that you did not freely receive? - Paul emphasizes that God gave them what they have for free. AT: “God gave to you everything that you have for free!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- why do you boast as if you had not done so? - Paul was rebuking them for boasting in what they received. AT: “You do not have the right to boast” or “Do not boast at all” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 4:8-9

UDB:

⁸ But you act as if you have everything you want! You live as if you were rich! And you live as if you were reigning kings and queens—even without our help. Well, I wish you really had become kings and queens, for then we could have ruled with you! ⁹ But in reality, it seems that God has put us apostles on display at the end of a line of prisoners being paraded after a battle. We are like men who have been sentenced to death; we have been put on display for the whole world to see, both angels and human beings.

ULB:

⁸ Already you have all you could want! Already you have become rich! You began to reign—and that quite apart from us! Indeed, I wish you did reign, so that we could reign with you. ⁹ For I think God has put us apostles on display as the last in line in a procession and like men sentenced to death. We have become a spectacle to the world—to angels, and to human beings.

translationWords:

- reign
- apostle, apostleship
- death, die, dead
- angel, archangel

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Paul uses irony here to shame the Corinthians and make them realize that they are sinning when they are proud of themselves and their teachers. (See: Irony)
- God has put us apostles on display - Paul expresses two ways how God has put his apostles on display for the world to see. (See: Parallelism)
- has put us apostles on display - God has displayed the apostles just like prisoners at the end of a Roman military parade, who are humiliated before their execution. (See: Metaphor)
- like men sentenced to death - God put the apostles on display like men who are about to be executed. (See: Metaphor)
- to the world—to angels, and to human beings - Possible meanings are 1) “the world” consists of both supernatural (“angels”) and natural (“human beings”) or 2) the list consists of three items: “to the world, to angels, and to human beings.” (See: Merism)

1 Corinthians 4:10-11

UDB:

¹⁰ Others think of us apostles as fools because we live for Christ, and yet you see yourselves as wise people. We appear weak, but you seem to be the strong ones! You praise and honor yourselves, but we apostles are the ones whom other people hate. ¹¹ Up to this present time we apostles go around hungry and thirsty. We have been so poor we could not afford our own clothing. Officials have brutally beaten us again and again. We have no place to call our home.

ULB:

¹⁰ We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we are held in dishonor. ¹¹ Up to this present hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed, we are brutally beaten, and we are homeless.

translationWords:

- fool, foolish, folly
- Christ, Messiah
- wise, wisdom
- honor, to honor
- dishonor, dishonorable

translationNotes:

- We are fools ... in dishonor - Paul uses irony to shame the Corinthians so they will think about what he is saying. (See: Irony)
- You are held in honor - "People treat you Corinthians as though you are important people"
- we are held in dishonor - "people shame us apostles"
- Up to this present hour - "Until now" or "Up to now"
- we are brutally beaten - This refers to hitting with the hand, not with whips or clubs. This can be stated in active form. AT: "people beat us" (See: Active or Passive)
- we are homeless - Paul means that they had places to stay, but they had to move around from place to place. They had no fixed home.

And yet, they treat us like the garbage of the world and like the filth that people want to throw into a garbage heap.

ULB:

¹² We work hard, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure. ¹³ When we are slandered, we speak with kindness. We have become, and are still considered to be, the refuse of the world and the filthiest of all things.

ULB:

¹⁴ I do not write these things to shame you, but to correct you as my beloved children. ¹⁵ For even if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶ So I urge you to be imitators of me.

translationWords:

- shame, shameful, ashamed
- beloved
- children, child
- ancestor, father, forefather
- in Christ, in Jesus, in the Lord, in him
- good news, gospel
- imitate, imitator

translationNotes:

- I do not write these things to shame you, but to correct you - “I do not intend to shame you, but to improve you” or “I am not trying to shame you, but I want to correct you” (UDB)
- correct - “warn”
- ten thousand guardians - This is an exaggeration of the number of people guiding them, to emphasize the importance of the one spiritual father. AT: “very many guardians” or “a large crowd of guardians” (See: Hyperbole)
- children ... father - Because Paul had led them to Christ, he is like a father to the Corinthians. (See: Metaphor)
- I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel - Paul is emphasizing firstly that his relationship with the Corinthians is most importantly “in Christ,” secondly that it came because he told them the good news, and thirdly that he is the one who is like a father to them. “it was because God joined you to Christ when I told you the good news that I was the one who became your father”

ULB:

Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and in a spirit of gentleness?

translationWords:

- will of God
- arrogant
- power, powers
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- rod
- love
- spirit, spiritual

translationNotes:

- I will come to you - "I will visit you"
- What do you want? - Paul was making a last appeal to the Corinthians, as he has been rebuking them for the errors they had made. AT: "Tell me what you want to happen now" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and in a spirit of gentleness - Paul is offering the Corinthians two opposing attitudes he could use when approaching them. AT: "If you want, I can come to punish you, or I can come to show you how much I love you by being gentle with you" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- gentleness - "kindness" or "tenderness"

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the line of 5:13, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Euphemisms

Paul uses euphemisms to describe sensitive topics. This chapter deals with sexual immorality of one church member. To “hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh”, means to allow Satan to destroy his body. (See: Euphemism and sexual immorality)

Metaphor

He uses an extended comparison using many metaphors. Yeast represents evil. The loaf probably represents the whole congregation. The unleavened bread represents a pure life. The Passover represents the Christian life. So the whole passage means: Don't you know that a little evil will affect the whole congregation. So clean yourselves from evil so you will all be good. Christ has been sacrificed for us; so let us be sincere and truthful and not wicked and behaving badly. (See: Metaphor, evil, wicked, wickedness, unleavened bread, Festival of Unleavened Bread, pure, purify, purification and Passover)

1 Corinthians 5:1-2

UDB:

¹ People have told us that there is someone in your church who is living in sexual immorality, a kind of immorality that even the unbelievers do not allow. A man has a lover who is his father's wife. ² You have been so arrogant! Rather you should have wept over this sin, for this harms the whole church. You must put this man out of your church.

ULB:

5 ¹ We heard a report that there is sexual immorality among you, a kind of immorality that is not even permitted among the Gentiles. The report is that one of you is sleeping with his father's wife. ² And you are so arrogant! Should you not mourn instead? The one who did this must be removed from among you.

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul now specifically states about what sin of theirs he has heard, and how the Corinthian believers are proud of their acceptance of that man and his sin.
- that is not even permitted among the Gentiles - This can be stated in active form. AT: "that not even the Gentiles permit" (See: Active or Passive)
- father's wife - the wife of his father, but probably not his own mother
- Should you not mourn instead? - This rhetorical question is used to scold the Corinthians. AT: "You should mourn over this instead!" (See: Rhetorical Question)

³ I am not with you physically, but I am very concerned for you all, and I am with you in my spirit. And I have already judged the one who did this, just as if I were with you. ⁴ When you gather together for worship under the authority of the Lord Jesus, I am worshiping with you—and I have already judged this person. ⁵ You should turn this man over to Satan out into the world, so that his physical body might be destroyed. We have the hope that he will repent and God will still save him when the Lord returns.

ULB:

³ For, although I am absent in body but still present in spirit, I have already judged the one who did this, just as though I were there. ⁴ When you gather together in the name of our Lord Jesus, and my spirit is there as well in the power of our Lord Jesus, I have already judged this person. ⁵ I have done this to hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

translationWords:

- body
- spirit, spiritual
- judge, judgment
- name
- Lord
- power, powers
- Satan, devil, evil one
- flesh
- day of the Lord, day of Yahweh

translationNotes:

- I am ... present in spirit - “I am ... always thinking about you”
- I have already judged the one who did this - “I have found the person who did this guilty”
- gather together - “meet”
- in the name of our Lord Jesus - an idiomatic expression for coming together to worship the Lord Jesus (See: Idiom)
- I have done this - “I have judged that man”
- to hand this man over to Satan - This refers to expelling the man from God’s people, so that he lives in Satan’s realm, the world outside of the church.
- for the destruction of the flesh - so that the man becomes physically ill as God disciplines him for his sin

1 Corinthians 5:6-8

UDB:

⁶ It is not good that you are praising yourselves. Surely you know that evil is like yeast: a little yeast makes the whole loaf rise. ⁷ Sin is like that yeast. You must clean out the old yeast and throw it away so that it cannot infect the whole batch of dough. You are like an unleavened batch of dough. As in the Passover Festival, the yeast must be kept away from the bread. For Christ is our Passover lamb: he became the sacrifice for us. ⁸ So let us celebrate the Passover Festival, and let us follow all the rules of purification. We must throw out the old yeast, which stands for disobedience and wickedness, and we must celebrate the festival by obeying God and speaking truth to each other. If we do that, we will be like the bread that has no yeast.

ULB:

⁶ Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf? ⁷ Cleanse yourselves of the old yeast so that you may be new dough, so that you may be unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. ⁸ So let us then celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of bad behavior and wickedness. Instead, let us celebrate with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

translationWords:

- boast, boastful
- know, knowledge, make known
- yeast, leaven
- clean, cleanse
- unleavened bread, Festival of Unleavened Bread
- Christ, Messiah
- Passover
- lamb, Lamb of God
- sacrifice, offering
- festival
- evil, wicked, wickedness
- true, truth, come true

translationNotes:

- Your boasting is not good - “Your boasting is bad”
- Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf? - Just as a little yeast spreads throughout a whole loaf of bread, so can a little sin impact the entire fellowship of believers. (See Metaphor)

- Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed - As the Passover lamb covered the sins of Israel by faith each year, so did Christ's death cover the sins of all who trust in Christ by faith for eternity. This can be stated in active form. AT: "the Lord has sacrificed Christ, our Passover lamb" (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

UDB:

⁹ I wrote to you, that you must not keep company with sexually immoral people. ¹⁰ Of course, I did not mean that you should not associate with unbelievers who are immoral, or who selfishly desire many things, or who trick and cheat to take from others, or who worship idols. You would have to leave this world to avoid all people like that.

ULB:

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people. ¹⁰ In no way did I mean the immoral people of this world, or the greedy, or swindlers, or idolaters, since to stay away from them you would need to go out of the world.

translationWords:

- letter, epistle
- sexual immorality
- world, worldly
- idol, idolatrous

translationNotes:

- sexually immoral people - This refers to people who claim to believe in Christ but behave in this manner.
- the immoral people of this world - people who have chosen to live an immoral lifestyle, who are not believers
- the greedy - “those who are greedy” or “those who are willing to be dishonest to get what others have”
- swindlers - This means people who cheat to get others’ property.
- you would need to go out of the world - “you would need to avoid all people”

UDB:

¹¹ Instead, I mean that you are not to be close friends with a fellow believer who is living in sexual immorality. We must include other sins, such as greed, or idolatry, or one who is abusive in the way he talks to others, or a drunkard, or a swindler. You must not even eat with these people who claim to trust in Christ, yet they do these terrible things. ¹² For I have no obligation to judge those who are outside the church of Christ. Your duty is to judge those who are in it. ¹³ God is the one who will judge those who are outside the church. The scriptures command us,

“You must take away the evil person who is among you!”

ULB:

¹¹ But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother but who is living in sexual immorality, or who is greedy, or is an idolater, or is verbally abusive, or is a drunkard, or a swindler. Do not even eat a meal with such a person. ¹² For how am I involved with judging those who are outside the church? Instead, are you not to judge those who are inside the church? ¹³ But God judges those who are on the outside.

“Remove the evil person from among you.”

translationWords:

- brother
- sexual immorality
- idol, idolatrous
- drunk, drunkard
- judge, judgment
- church, Church

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul tells them how to treat believers in the church who refuse to be corrected for their involvement in sexual immorality and other obvious sins before others.
- anyone who is called - “anyone who calls himself”
- brother - Here this means a fellow Christian, either a man or a woman.
- how am I involved with judging those who are outside the church? - Paul is emphasizing that he is not the one to judge people outside the church. This can also be stated in active form. AT: “I am not the one who should judge people who do not belong to the church” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 6 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

Lawsuits

Christians should not take another christian to court before an non-Christian judge. It is better to be cheated. Since Christians will judge the angels, they should be able to solve problems among themselves. It is especially bad to use a court to cheat another believer. (See: judge, judgment)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

The temple of the Holy Spirit is an important metaphor. It is a reference to the place where the Holy Spirit stays and is worshiped. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 6:1-3

UDB:

¹ When you have a dispute with another believer, you should not have the audacity to take that matter before a civil judge who is not a believer. Take the matter to fellow believers, whom God has set apart for himself. ² You should know that we who belong to God will judge the world. If you will judge the world one day, you should be able to settle matters that are less important. ³ You should know that you will judge angels! Certainly you are able to judge matters in this life.

ULB:

6 ¹ When one of you has a dispute with another, does he dare to go to the civil court before an unbelieving judge, rather than before the believers? ² Do you not know that the believers will judge the world? And if you will judge the world, are you not able to settle unimportant matters? ³ Do you not know that we will judge the angels? How much more, then, can we judge matters of this life?

translationWords:

- unbeliever, unbelief
- judge, judgment
- believer
- know, knowledge, make known
- world, worldly
- angel, archangel
- life, live, living, alive

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul then explains how believers are to settle disagreements with other believers.
- dispute - “disagreement” or “argument”
- does he dare to go ... believers? - Paul is emphasizing that Christians must resolve disagreements among themselves. AT: “he should not dare to go ... believers!” or “he should be fear God and not go ... believers!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- civil court - where a local government judge considers cases and decides who is right
- Do you not know that the believers will judge the world? - Paul is shaming the Corinthians for acting like they do not know. (See: Rhetorical Question)
- if you will judge the world, are you not able to settle unimportant matters? - Because they will be given greater responsibility later, they should be responsible for lesser things

now. AT: “you will judge the world in the future, so you should be able to settle this matter now” (See: Rhetorical Question).

- matters - “disputes” or “disagreements”
- Do you not know that we will judge the angels? - Paul is surprised that they do not seem to know. “You know that we will judge the angels” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- we - Paul includes himself and the Corinthians. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- How much more, then, can we judge matters of this life? - “Because we know we will judge the angels, we can also be sure that God will enable us to judge matters in this life” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 6:4-6

UDB:

⁴ And if you can settle matters that are important in this life, you should not find it necessary to hand off disputes between Christians to be settled by unbelievers. ⁵ I say this to show how you have disgraced yourselves. There certainly must be someone in the church who is sensible enough to settle these disputes when these sort of cases come up between Christian brothers and sisters. ⁶ But instead, some believers among you accuse other believers in a civil court and you allow a judge who is an unbeliever to settle the matter!

ULB:

⁴ If then you have to make judgments that pertain to daily life, why do you lay such cases as these before those who have no standing in the church? ⁵ I say this to your shame. Is there no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between brothers? ⁶ But as it stands, one believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever!

translationWords:

- judge, judgment
- life, live, living, alive
- church, Church
- shame, shameful, ashamed
- wise, wisdom
- believer
- unbeliever, unbelief

translationNotes:

- If then you have to make judgments that pertain to daily life, why do you lay such cases as these before those who have no standing in the church? - Possible meanings are 1) this is a rhetorical question (UDB) or 2) this is a statement, “When in the past you have settled matters that are important in this life, you have not handed off disputes between Christians to be settled by unbelievers” or 3) this is a command, “When you settle matters that are important in this life, it is even to those who have no standing in the church that you should hand off disputes to be settled!” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- If then you have to make judgments that pertain to daily life - “If you are called upon to make decisions about daily life” or “If you must settle matters that are important in this life” (UDB)
- why do you lay such cases - “you should not lay such cases” (See: Rhetorical Question)

- those who have no standing in the church - Paul is rebuking the Corinthians for how they are handling these cases. Possible meanings are that 1) “you should stop giving such cases to people who are outside the church” or 2) “you could give such cases even to members of the church who are not well regarded by other believers.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- to your shame - “to your dishonor” or “to show how you have failed in this matter” (UDB)
- Is there no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between brothers? - Paul is shaming the Corinthians. AT: “You should be ashamed that you cannot find a wise believer to settle arguments between believers” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- dispute - “argument” or “disagreement”
- But as it stands - “But the way it is now” or “But instead” (UDB)
- one believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever - “believers who have disputes with each other ask unbelieving judges to make decisions for them”
- that case is placed - “a believer submits that case” (See: Active or Passive)

ULB:

⁷ The fact that there are any disputes at all between Christians is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer the wrong? Why not rather allow yourselves to be cheated? ⁸ But you have wronged and cheated others, and these are your own brothers!

1 Corinthians 6:9-11UDB:

⁹ Surely you understand that the wicked will not come under God's rule. Do not believe them when they tell you otherwise. The truth is that the sexually immoral, those who worship anything or anyone other than God, those who break their marriage vows, those who engage in perverse acts of so-called worship involving sex, and those who engage in the practice of homosexuality, ¹⁰ those who steal, the ones who are greedy for more, those who get drunk, those who tell lies about others, and those who trick and cheat to steal from others—these will never come under Gods' rule. ¹¹ Some of you used to do these things. But God has made you clean from your sins, he has set you apart for himself, and he has made you right with himself. He has done all this through the power of the Lord Jesus Christ and the Spirit of our God.

ULB:

⁹ Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not believe lies. The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality, ¹⁰ thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, and swindlers—none of them will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ And such were some of you. But you have been cleansed, you have been sanctified, you have been made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

translationWords:

- know, knowledge, make known
- unrighteous, unrighteousness
- inherit, inheritance, heritage, heir
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- sexual immorality
- idol, idolatrous
- adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress
- prostitute, harlot, whore
- drunk, drunkard
- slander, slanderer
- clean, cleanse
- sanctify, sanctification
- name
- Lord
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord

translationNotes:

- Do you not know that - Paul emphasizes that they should already know this truth. AT: “You already know that” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- inherit - Receiving what God has promised believers is spoken of as if it were inheriting property and wealth from a family member. (See: Metaphor)
- inherit the kingdom of God - God will not judge them as righteous at the judgment, and they will not enter eternal life.
- male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality - Possible meanings are 1) this is a merism for all homosexual activity or 2) Paul is naming two different activities. (See: Merism)
- male prostitutes - Possible meanings are 1) men who allow other men to sleep with them or 2) men who allow men who pay them to sleep with them or 3) men who allow other men to sleep with them as part of a religious activity.
- those who practice homosexuality - men who sleep with other men
- thieves - “people who steal from others” or “robbers”
- the greedy - people who are willing to use evil means to take others’ property
- swindlers - “cheaters” or “those who steal from others who trust in them” (UDB)
- you have been cleansed - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God has cleansed you” (See: Active or Passive)
- you have been sanctified - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God has set you apart for himself” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 6:12-13

UDB:

¹² Some say this: “I am free to do anything I want, because I am joined to Christ.” Yes, but because something is permitted does not mean it is good for me. “I am free to do anything I want”—but I will not allow anything to become my master. ¹³ People also say, “Food is made for a person’s body to digest, and a person’s body is made to digest food”—but God will soon do away with both food and the body’s normal functions. Of course, they are really talking about sleeping with people. However, God did not make our bodies so we could be sexually immoral. But the body is to serve the Lord, and the Lord will provide for the body.

ULB:

¹² “Everything is lawful for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful for me,” but I will not be mastered by any of them. ¹³ “Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food,” but God will do away with both of them. The body is not intended for sexual immorality. Instead, the body is for the Lord, and the Lord will provide for the body.

translationWords:

- lawful, lawfully, unlawful
- God
- body
- sexual immorality
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul reminds the Corinthian believers that God wants them pure because Christ has bought them with his death. Their bodies are now God’s temple. He does so by saying what the Corinthians might say and then correcting them.
- Everything is lawful for me - Possible meanings are 1) Paul is answering what some Corinthians might be thinking, “Some say, ‘I can do anything’” or 2) Paul is actually saying what he thinks is true, “God allows me to do anything.”
- but not everything is beneficial - Paul is answering whoever says, “Everything is lawful for me.” AT: “but not everything is good for me”
- I will not be mastered by any of them - This can be stated in active form. AT: “I will not allow these things to rule over me like a master” (See: Active or Passive)
- “Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food,” but God will do away with both of them - Possible meanings are 1) Paul is correcting what some Corinthians might be thinking, “food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food,” by answering that God will do away with both the stomach and food or 2) Paul actually agrees that “food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food,” but he is adding that God will do away with both of them.

- Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food - One possible meanings is that the speaker is speaking indirectly of the body and sex, but you should translate this literally as “stomach” and “food.”
- do away with - “destroy”

ULB:

¹⁴ God both raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. ¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take away the members of Christ and join them to a prostitute? May it not be!

translationWords:

- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- Lord
- power, powers
- know, knowledge, make known
- body
- member
- Christ, Messiah
- prostitute, harlot, whore

translationNotes:

- raised the Lord - caused Jesus to be alive again
- Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? - Just as our arms and legs are members of our own bodies, so our bodies are members of Christ's body, the church. AT: "Your bodies are part of Christ" (See Metaphor) (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Shall I then take away the members of Christ and join them to a prostitute? - Paul is using himself as an example to teach them. AT: "I am part of Christ. Therefore glorify God with your body.[1]Some older copies read, Therefore glorify God with your body and in your spirit, which belong to God. But the best copies do not have this reading.

translationWords:

- know, knowledge, make known
- body
- temple
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- life, live, living, alive
- glorify

translationNotes:

- Do you not know ... God? ... that you are not your own? - Paul is continuing to teach the Corinthians by emphasizing what they already know. AT: "I want to remind you ... God and that you are not your own." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- your body - the body of each individual Christian is a temple of the Holy Spirit
- temple of the Holy Spirit - A temple is dedicated to divine beings, and it is also where they dwell. In the same way, each Corinthian believer's body is like a temple because the Holy Spirit is present within them. (See: Metaphor)
- For you were bought with a price - God paid for the freedom of the Corinthians from the slavery of sin. This can be stated as active. AT: "God paid for your freedom" (See: Active or Passive)

Structure and formatting

Paul begins to answer a series of questions, which may have been asked of him. The first question involves marriage. The second question is on changing ones status: a slave trying to become free, a Gentile becoming a Jew or a Jew becoming a Gentile.

Special concepts in this chapter

Divorce

Christians should try not divorce. Believers married to unbelievers should not leave their husband or wife. If the unbelieving husband or wife leaves, this is not considered to be sin. Paul advises that, because of the difficult times and the nearness to the return of Jesus, remaining unmarried is an acceptable option. (See: believe, believe in, belief and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

ULB:

⁷ ¹ Now concerning the issues you wrote about: “It is good for a man not to touch a woman.” ² But because of temptations for many immoral acts, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

translationWords:

- tempt, temptation
- sexual immorality

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul gives the believers some specific instructions on marriage.
- Now - Paul is introducing a new topic in his teaching.
- the issues you wrote about - The Corinthians had written a letter to Paul to ask for answers to certain questions.
- about: “It is good for a man not to touch a woman.” But because - Possible meanings are 1) Paul is quoting what the Corinthians had written, “about: you wrote, ‘It is good for a man not to touch a woman.’ That is true, but because” or 2) Paul is saying what he really thinks, “about: my answer is that yes, it is good for a man not to touch a woman. But because”
- It is good - “It is most helpful,” not that “to touch” is morally bad
- for a man - Possible meanings are 1) a male spouse or husband or 2) any man.
- not to touch a woman - Possible meanings are 1) “not to have sexual relations with a woman,” speaking here of the wife of “a man” (See: Euphemism), or 2) “not ever to marry” (See: Metonymy).
- But because of temptations for many immoral acts, each - “But because Satan tempts people to commit sexual sin, each” or “But we desire to commit sexual sin because of our sinful nature, so each”

1 Corinthians 7:5-7

UDB:

⁵ So do not deprive one another of sleeping together, unless you both agree to abstain from it for a short period of time, so that you may pray. But after that time is over, come together again. Do not allow Satan to tempt you because you cannot control yourself.

⁶ I am not commanding you to get married, but I will compromise because I know that many of you are married or will wish to marry. ⁷ My example is before you: I am single, and sometimes I wish that each of you were single in order to serve God. But God gives many different gifts to his children; he makes some able to be married, and others to remain single.

ULB:

⁵ Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement and for a specific period of time. Do this so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then you should come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

⁶ But I say these things to you as a concession and not as a command. ⁷ I wish that everyone were as I am. But each one has his own gift from God. One has this kind of gift, and another that kind.

translationWords:

- pray, prayer
- Satan, devil, evil one
- tempt, temptation
- command, to command, commandment
- gift
- God

translationNotes:

- Do not deprive each other - The word “deprive” means to keep from someone something that the other person has the right to receive. “Do not refuse to have marital relations with your spouse” (See: Euphemism and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- so that you may devote yourselves to prayer - in order to have a period of especially deep prayer
- devote yourselves - “commit yourselves”
- come together again - “sleep together again”
- because of your lack of self-control - “because after some days, your sexual desires will be harder to keep under control”

- I say these things to you as a concession and not as a command - Possible meanings are Paul is telling the Corinthians that he is allowing them, but not commanding them, 1) to marry and sleep together (UDB) or 2) to stop sleeping together for a time.
- were as I am - Either Paul had never married or his wife had died. It is unlikely that he had been through a divorce.
- But each one has his own gift from God. One has this kind of gift, and another that kind - “God enables people to do different things. He enables one person to do one thing and another person to do something different”

1 Corinthians 7:8-9

UDB:

⁸ To those of you who have never married and those whose husbands have died, I say that it would be good if you continue to be single, like me. ⁹ But if it is hard for you to control yourself, you should get married. It is better for you to marry than to suffer from strong sexual desires.

ULB:

⁸ To the unmarried and to widows I say that it is good for them if they remain unmarried, as I am. ⁹ But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better for them to marry than to burn with passion.

translationWords:

- self-control

translationNotes:

- the unmarried - “this those who are not married”
- to widows - “to women whose husband has died”
- it is good - Translate this as in 7:1.
- to burn with passion - “to live with the constant desire to sleep with someone”

1 Corinthians 7:10-11

UDB:

¹⁰ The Lord gives his own commands to you who are married: “The wife should not separate from her husband.” ¹¹ (But if she separates from her husband, she should not marry again, or else she should make peace with her husband.) And, “the husband should not divorce his wife.”

ULB:

¹⁰ Now to the married I give this command—not I, but the Lord: “The wife should not separate from her husband.” ¹¹ But if she does separate from her husband, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to him. And “The husband should not divorce his wife.”

translationWords:

- Lord
- reconcile, reconciliation
- divorce

translationNotes:

- should not separate from - Paul’s readers knew no difference between separating and divorcing. To stop living with someone was to end the marriage. AT: “should not divorce”
- be reconciled to him - “she should make peace with her husband and return to him” (See: Active or Passive)
- should not divorce - Paul’s readers knew no difference between divorcing and simply separating. To do either was to end the marriage. AT: “should not separate from”

1 Corinthians 7:12-14

UDB:

¹² And I have this to say—and this is my advice, not the Lord’s command—to you who have a wife who is not a believer: if she is content to stay with you, do not divorce her. ¹³ And if you are a woman with a husband who does not believe, and if he is content to stay with you, do not divorce him. ¹⁴ The unbelieving husband is set apart in a special way because the wife trusts in God. It is the same for an unbelieving woman with a husband who trusts in God. It is the same for your children: they are set apart in a special way to God, because one parent believes in Christ.

ULB:

¹² But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and if she is content to live with him, he should not divorce her. ¹³ If a woman has an unbelieving husband, and if he is content to live with her, she should not divorce him. ¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is set apart because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is set apart because of the brother. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but actually they are set apart.

translationWords:

- Lord
- brother
- unbeliever, unbelief
- divorce
- set apart
- children, child
- unclean

translationNotes:

- content - “willing” or “satisfied”
- For the unbelieving husband is set apart because of his wife - Possible meanings are 1) “For God has set apart the unbelieving husband for himself because of his believing wife” or 2) “God treats the unbelieving husband as he would treat a son for the sake of his believing wife” (See: Active or Passive)
- husband ... wife - These are the same Greek words as for “man” and “woman.”
- the unbelieving wife is set apart because of the brother - Possible meanings are 1) “God has set apart the unbelieving wife for himself because of her husband who believes” or 2) “God treats the unbelieving wife as he would treat a daughter for the sake of her husband who believes” (See: Active or Passive)
- the brother - the believing man or husband

- they are set apart - Possible meanings are 1) “God has set them apart for himself” or 2) “God treats them as he would treat his own children” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 7:15-16

UDB:

¹⁵ However, if the unbelieving spouse wants to leave you, you should let that person go. In this situation, the vow you took when you married is no longer binding on you. God has called us to peace. ¹⁶ You do not know how God may work through the life you live before your unbelieving spouse. And you do not know whether your life may become a means by which God might save your husband or your wife.

ULB:

¹⁵ But if the non-Christian partner departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or sister is not bound to their vows. God has called us to live in peace. ¹⁶ For how do you know, woman, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save your wife?

translationWords:

- brother
- sister
- bind, bond, bound
- vow
- God
- call, calling, called, call out
- peace, peaceful
- know, knowledge, make known
- save, safe

translationNotes:

- In such cases, the brother or sister is not bound to their vows - “In such cases, God does not require the believing spouse to continue to obey the marriage vow” (See: Active or Passive)
- do you know, woman ... you will save your husband ... do you know, man ... you will save your wife - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so all instances of “you” and “your” here are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- how do you know, woman, whether you will save your husband? - This can be stated directly. AT: “you cannot know if you will save your unbelieving husband” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 7:17-19

UDB:

¹⁷ We must live the life the Lord has assigned us to live, and to obey the call God gave us. This is the principle in all the churches. ¹⁸ If you were circumcised before you became a Christian, you should not try to remove the marks of that circumcision. If you were not circumcised when God saved you, you should not let anyone circumcise you. ¹⁹ Circumcision or uncircumcision—these are not important to us. But what is important is that we obey what God commands us to do.

ULB:

¹⁷ Only let each one live the life the Lord has assigned him, each as God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. ¹⁸ Was anyone circumcised when he was called to believe? He should not try to appear uncircumcised. Was anyone uncircumcised when he was called to faith? He should not be circumcised. ¹⁹ For it is neither circumcision nor uncircumcision that matters. What matters is obeying the commandments of God.

translationWords:

- life, live, living, alive
- Lord
- call, calling, called, call out
- church, Church
- circumcise, circumcision
- believe, believe in, belief
- faith
- uncircumcised, uncircumcision
- obey, obedient, obedience
- command, to command, commandment

translationNotes:

- each one - “each believer”
- This is my rule in all the churches - Paul was teaching believers in all the churches to act in this manner.
- Was anyone circumcised when he was called to believe - Paul was addressing the circumcised ones (the Jews). AT: “To the circumcised ones, when God called you to believe, you had already been circumcised” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Was anyone uncircumcised when he was called to faith - Paul was now addressing the uncircumcised ones. AT: “To the uncircumcised ones, when God called you to believe, you were not circumcised” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 7:20-24

UDB:

²⁰ So continue to live and work as you did when God called you to trust in Christ. ²¹ If you were a slave when God saved you, do not worry about it. Of course, if you have the chance to gain your freedom, take advantage of the opportunity. ²² This is because anyone who the Lord calls a slave is a free person because of the Lord. In the same way, you become God's slave when he calls you, even if you were never a slave to anyone. ²³ God bought you with the price of his Son; your freedom is precious. So do not become slaves of humans. ²⁴ Brothers and sisters in Christ, whatever you were when God called you, whether you were slave or free, remain in that same position.

ULB:

²⁰ Each one should remain in the calling he was in when God called him to believe. ²¹ Were you a slave when God called you? Do not be concerned about it. But if you can become free, take advantage of it. ²² For someone who is called by the Lord as a slave is the Lord's freeman. Likewise the one who was free when he was called to believe is Christ's slave. ²³ You have been bought with a price, so do not become slaves of men. ²⁴ Brothers, in whatever life each of us was in when we were called to believe, let us remain like that.

translationWords:

- call, calling, called, call out
- believe, believe in, belief
- servant, slave, slavery
- free, freedom, liberty

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the words "us" and "we" refers to all Christians. (See: Inclusive "We")
- remain in the calling - Here "calling" refers to the work or social position in which you were involved. AT: "live and work as you did" (UDB)
- Were you ... called you? Do not be ... you can become - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so all instances of "you" and the command "be" here are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- Were you a slave when God called you? Do not be concerned - This can be stated as a statement. AT: "To those who were slaves when God called you to believe, I say this: do not be concerned" (See: Rhetorical Question)
- the Lord's freeman - This freeman is forgiven by God and therefore free from Satan and sin.

- You have been bought with a price - This can be stated in active form. AT: “Christ bought you by dying for you” (See: Active or Passive)
- Brothers - Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

ULB:

²⁷ To you who are married, I say this: do not seek to be freed from your vow. As for you who are not married, do not try to find a wife. ²⁸ But to the men who are single, I say, if you marry, you have committed no sin. I give the same advice to the single women: if you get married, you have committed no sin. However, if you marry, you will find many troubles, so I advise you to remain single.

ULB:

²⁹ This is what I mean about the time in which we are living, brothers and sisters: we have a short amount of time left. From now on those who are married will have to live as though they were not married, because of all the trouble that is coming. ³⁰ Those who are filled with grief should not cry. Those who are rejoicing over some wonderful event should have no joy on their faces. Those who have spent money to buy something should take no delight in it; they should live as if they owned nothing. ³¹ And those who deal with the things of the world should not involve themselves completely with them. For this world system is about to crumble into nothing.

ULB:

²⁹ But this I say, brothers: The time is short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none. ³⁰ Those who weep should act as though they were not weeping, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who are buying anything as though they did not possess anything. ³¹ And those who make use of the world should not act as though they are making total use of it, for the system of this world is coming to an end.

translationWords:

- rejoice
- world, worldly

translationNotes:

- The time is short - “There is little time” or “Time is almost gone”
- weep - “cry” or “grieve with tears”
- those who make use of the world - “those who deal every day with unbelievers”
- should not act as though they are making total use of it - “should show by their actions that they have their hope in God”

³² I want you to be free from things to worry about. As you see, the unmarried man is concerned about the matters that are important to the Lord. He wants to serve the Lord and do what he wants.

³³ But the man who is married must also concern himself for the ordinary matters of the world as well as serving and pleasing his wife. ³⁴ So married men can only do some of the things they need to do. It is the same with widows and young ladies who have not married: as believing women, they are concerned to spend their time serving the Lord with their physical abilities and their attitudes. But married women are concerned about the ordinary matters of the world, how to please their husbands.

ULB:

³⁶ If a man has promised to marry a woman, but if he finds he is not treating her with respect because she is becoming too old to marry, he should get married. This is not a sin. ³⁷ But if he has decided that he does not desire to marry at the present time, and if he is in control of the situation, he makes a good decision not to marry. ³⁸ So the one who marries his fiancée does a good thing and does not sin; and the one who chooses not to marry also chooses something even better.

ULB:

³⁶ But if anyone thinks that he is not treating his fiancée with respect—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning. They should marry. ³⁷ But if he is standing firm in his heart, if he is not under pressure but can control his own will, and if he has decided in his own heart to do this, to keep his own fiancée a virgin, he will do well. ³⁸ So the one who marries his fiancée does well, and the one who chooses not to marry will do even better.

translationWords:

- wrong, mistreat, hurt
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Translation Notes:

- not treating ... with respect - “not being kind to” or “not honoring”
- his fiancée - Possible meanings are 1) “the woman whom he promised to marry” or 2) “his virgin daughter.”
- let him marry her - Possible meanings are 1) “let him marry his fiancée” or 2) “let him give his daughter to be married.”

1 Corinthians 8 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 8:6, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Chapters 8-10 form a single unit, answering the question: “Is it alright to eat meat that has been sacrificed to an idol?”

Special concepts in this chapter

Meat sacrificed to idols

Paul answers their question by saying idols are gods that do not really exist, therefore there is nothing wrong with the meat. However, someone who does not understand a Christian’s freedom to eat this meat may see a Christian eating and be encouraged to eat the meat as an act of worship to the idol.

1 Corinthians 8:1-3

UDB:

¹ Now, about the question you asked regarding eating food that was offered to idols: We know that people say, “We all have knowledge.” But if you think you know a lot, you can become very proud of yourself. If, however, when you love others, you help them grow strong in their faith. ² The truth is that if someone assumes he knows something, he has not yet learned the humbleness he needs to know. ³ When you love God, God knows you.

ULB:

8 ¹ Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that “we all have knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ² If anyone thinks he knows something, that person does not yet know as he should know. ³ But if anyone loves God, that person is known by him.

translationWords:

- sacrifice, offering
- idol, idolatrous
- know, knowledge, make known
- puffed up
- love
- God

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul reminds the believers that though idols have no power, believers must be careful not to affect the weaker believers who might think they care about the idols. He tells believers to be careful with the liberty believers have in Christ.
- General Information: - “We” means Paul and, though specifically writing to the Corinthian believers, includes all believers. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- Now about - Paul uses this phrase to move on to the next question the Corinthians had asked him.
- food sacrificed to idols - Gentile worshipers would offer grain, fish, fowl, or meat, to their gods. The priest would burn a portion of it on the altar. Paul is speaking of the portion the priest would give back for the worshiper to eat or sell in the market.
- We know that “we all have knowledge.” - Paul is quoting a phrase that some Corinthians used. AT: “We all know, as you yourselves like to say, that ‘we all have knowledge.’”
- Knowledge puffs up - Paul speaks of what people know as if it were a person that can make another person larger than he should be. AT: “People who know much think that they are better than they really are” (See: Metaphor)

- love builds up - Paul speaks of love as if it were a person and helping people as if it were building a house. AT: “love truly helps people” (See: Metaphor)
- thinks he knows something - “believes he knows everything about something”
- that person is known by him - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God knows that person” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 8:4-6

UDB:

⁴ Now about eating food sacrificed to idols: Let us begin with this principle: just as some say, “Idols in this world do not actually exist,” and, as Moses taught, “There is only one God.” So idols are not real gods; they are not living gods at all. ⁵ But I know that some people say that many gods and lords exist in the heavens or on the earth—after all, there are many supernatural beings who have real power. ⁶ Yet even so, we say,

”There is one God, the Father, from him come all things, and for him we live.
And there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ;
he made everything there is, and he is the one who gives us life.”

ULB:

⁴ So about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that “an idol in this world is nothing” and “that there is no God but one.” ⁵ For maybe so-called gods do exist, either in heaven or on earth, just as there are many “gods” and many “lords.”

⁶ Yet for us,

”There is only one God the Father, from him are all things, and for whom we live,
and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things exist, and through whom we exist.”

translationWords:

- sacrifice, offering
- idol, idolatrous
- know, knowledge, make known
- false god, foreign god, god, goddess
- heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly
- earth, earthly
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- life, live, living, alive
- Lord
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

translationNotes:

- General Information: - “We” and “us” here refers to all believers. (See: Inclusive “We”)
- We know that “an idol in this world is nothing” and “that there is no God but one.” - Paul is probably quoting phrases that some Corinthians used. “We all know, as you yourselves like to say, that ‘an idol has no power or meaning for us’ and that, as you say, ‘there is not God but one.’”
- an idol in this world is nothing - “an idol has no power in this world”
- so-called gods - “things that people call gods”
- many “gods” and many “lords.” - Paul does not believe that many gods and many lords exist, but he recognizes that the pagans believe they do.
- Yet for us, “There is ... exist.” - “Whatever other people say or think, we believe that ‘There is ... exist.’”

1 Corinthians 8:7

UDB:

⁷ But not everyone knows this. Some worshiped an idol in earlier times, and, now, if they eat food sacrificed to an idol, they worry that they are still worshiping a god. They are torn between two opinions, and they are weak in their faith in Christ, so they feel they are honoring an idol when they eat food that has been offered to it.

ULB:

⁷ However, this knowledge is not in everyone. Instead, some previously practiced idol worship, and they eat this food as if it were something sacrificed to an idol. Their conscience is thereby corrupted because it is weak.

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Paul is speaking here of “weak” brothers, people who cannot separate food sacrificed to idols from the worship of those idols. If a Christian eats food that has been sacrificed to an idol, weak brothers might think that God will allow them to worship the idol by eating the food. Even if the eater has not worshiped the idol and is simply eating the food, he has still corrupted his weak brothers’ conscience.
- everyone ... some - “all people ... some people who are now Christians”
- corrupted - “ruined” or “harmed”

1 Corinthians 8:8-10

UDB:

⁸ We know that the food we eat does not make us better or worse before God. ⁹ But what is important is your brothers and sisters in Christ. You are free to eat that food, but you should not cause people to fall down in their faith because you have the freedom to eat it. ¹⁰ You know that idols were never alive, nor were they gods at all. But if brothers and sisters who do not know the difference between right and wrong see you eating in an idol's temple, they would think you were encouraging them to turn back to their idolatry.

ULB:

⁸ But food will not present us to God. We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it. ⁹ But take care that your freedom does not become a reason for someone who is weak in faith to stumble. ¹⁰ For suppose that someone sees you, who have knowledge, eating a meal in an idol's temple. Is not his weak conscience emboldened to eat what is offered to idols?

translationWords:

- free, freedom, liberty
- stumble
- know, knowledge, make known
- idol, idolatrous
- temple
- conscience

translationNotes:

- food will not present us to God - Paul speaks of food as though it were a person who could make God welcome us. AT: “food does not give us favor with God” or “the food we eat does not make God pleased with us” (See: Personification)
- We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it - “Some people might think that if we do not eat some things, God will love us less. But they are wrong. Those who think that God will love us more if we do eat those things are also wrong” (See: Double Negatives)
- someone who is weak - believers not strong in their faith
- sees you, who have - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so these words are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- his ... conscience - what he understands to be right and wrong
- emboldened to eat - “encouraged to eat”

1 Corinthians 8:11-13

UDB:

¹¹ As a result, if your weaker brother or sister sees you eat meat offered to idols because you have freedom in your mind to eat that food but they did not have the same freedom—you by acting as a free person could destroy your fellow believer for whom Christ died. ¹² So, you sin against your weaker brothers and sisters when you encourage them to do something that their sense of right and wrong tells them not to do. This is sinning against Christ. ¹³ Therefore, if my brother or sister are unable to serve God well because they have seen me eat something, I will never eat meat again! I do not want to do anything that causes them to fall.

ULB:

¹¹ So because of your understanding about the true nature of idols, the weaker one, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed. ¹² Thus, when you sin against your brothers and wound their weak consciences, you sin against Christ. ¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I may not cause my brother to fall.

translationWords:

- idol, idolatrous
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- conscience
- stumble

translationNotes:

- your understanding - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so the word “your” here is singular. (See: Forms of You)
- the weaker one ... is destroyed - The brother or sister who is not strong in his or her faith will sin or lose his or her faith.
- Therefore - “Because what I have just said is true”
- if food causes - “Food” here is a metonym for the person eating the food. AT: “if I cause by eating” or “if I, because of what I eat, cause” (See: Metonymy)

1 Corinthians 9 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. Many other English translations indent the line of 9:9, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Chapters 8-10 form a single unit, answering the question: “Is it alright to eat meat that has been sacrificed to an idol?” In this chapter, Paul defends himself from the claim of trying make financial gains from the church.

Special concepts in this chapter

Earning money from the church

People have accused Paul of just wanting money from the Church. Paul answers that he has a right to get money from the Church because the Old Testament taught that those who worked should get their living from their work. He and Barnabas purposefully never used this right and earned their own living.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

There are many metaphors in this chapter. These metaphors teach complex truths. (See: Metaphor)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Contextualization

This passage is important because Paul “contextualizes” his ministry in service of the gospel to different audiences. This means that Paul makes himself and the gospel understandable without his actions hindering the gospel’s reception. The translator may wish to take extra care in preserving aspects of this “contextualization” if possible. (See: good news, gospel)

1 Corinthians 9:1-2

UDB:

¹ To people who criticize how I work, I reply like this: I am an apostle. I have seen Jesus our Lord. I am free. You are the result of the work I did—you are my workmanship. ² Even if some others do not think I am a true apostle, I am a true apostle to you. By the Lord's stamp of approval, you are the proof that I am a true apostle.

ULB:

9 ¹ Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my workmanship in the Lord? ² If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord.

translationWords:

- free, freedom, liberty
- apostle, apostleship
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul explains how he uses the liberty he has in Christ.
- Am I not free? - Paul uses this rhetorical question to remind the Corinthians of the rights he has. AT: "I am a free person." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Am I not an apostle? - Paul uses this rhetorical question to remind the Corinthians of who he is and the rights he has. AT: "I am an apostle." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? - Paul uses this rhetorical question to remind the Corinthians of who he is. AT: "I have seen Jesus our Lord." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Are you not my workmanship in the Lord? - Paul uses this rhetorical question to remind the Corinthians of their relationship to him. AT: "You believe in Christ because I have worked the way the Lord wants me to." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord - "Proof" is a metonym for the evidence needed to prove something. AT: "you are evidence I can use to prove that the Lord has chosen me to be an apostle" (See: Metonymy)

³ I answer those who say that I am not a true apostle by not using money that you believers give me for payment for my service. ⁴ Of course we have the right to live on such money. ⁵ We certainly have the right to travel with a believing wife, like the other apostles do—like the Lord’s brother and Cephas. ⁶ No one made a rule that only Barnabas and I must work to support ourselves.

UDB:

⁷ No soldiers serves in the army at his own expense. No one plants a vineyard without being able to eat the grapes or drink the wine. No one shepherds a flock and without drinking some of the milk that comes from the animals.

⁸ This is common sense. But the law says this as well.

ULB:

⁷ Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink milk from it? ⁸ Do I say these things based on human authority? Does not the law also say this?

translationWords:

- serve, service
- vineyard
- fruit, fruitful
- flock, herd
- authority
- law, principle

translationNotes:

- Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? - Paul uses a question to emphasize that he knows the Corinthians agree with what he is saying. AT: “We all know that no soldier has to buy his own supplies.” or “We all know that every soldier receives his supplies from the government.” (See: Rhetorical Question).
- Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? - Paul uses a question to emphasize that he knows the Corinthians agree with what he is saying. ⁹ For the law of Moses says, “When an ox is treading out the grain, do not stop it from eating some of it.” There is more that God is concerned about in this law. ¹⁰ This law is about us. Moses is saying that those who work in any job should benefit from the fruit of that work, just like the ox eating the grain on which he is treading. ¹¹ If we have sown the seed of the good news to you, is it too much for us to receive money from you in our support?

ULB:

⁹ For it is written in the law of Moses, “Do not put a muzzle on an ox when it is treading out the grain.” Is it really the oxen that God cares about? ¹⁰ Is he not speaking about us? It was written for us, because the one who plows should plow in hope, and the one who threshes should thresh in the expectation of sharing in the harvest. ¹¹ If we sowed spiritual things among you, is it too much for us to reap material things from you?

translationWords:

- written
- law, law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh
- ox, oxen
- grain
- thresh, threshing
- harvest
- sow, sower, plant
- spirit, spiritual
- reap, reaper

translationNotes:

- Do not put - Moses was speaking to the Israelites as if they were one person, so this command is singular. (See: Forms of You)
- Is it really the oxen that God cares about? - Paul asks a question so that the Corinthians will think of what he is saying without him having to say it. AT: “You should know without me telling you that it is not the oxen that God cares most about.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

1 Corinthians 9:12-14

UDB:

¹² Others received this kind of help from you, and we have certainly proven that we deserve it even more than they do.

However, we have not accepted anything from you, even though we were entitled to it. Instead, we endure all kinds of hardships so that we do not make it more difficult for people to believe in the good news about Christ. ¹³ Certainly you know that those who helped carry out the sacrifices offered to God in the temple received some of those offerings for their own needs. They received some of the food offered to God. ¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who proclaim the good news are to receive their living wages from the good news. They receive part of what is given to God for their needs.

ULB:

¹² If others exercised this right from you, do we not have even more? Nevertheless, we did not claim this right. Instead, we endured everything rather than be a hindrance to the gospel of Christ. ¹³ Do you not know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple? Do you not know that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? ¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living from the gospel.

translationWords:

- endure, endurance
- good news, gospel
- Christ, Messiah
- know, knowledge, make known
- serve, service
- temple
- altar
- command, to command, commandment
- proclaim, proclamation
- life, live, living, alive

translationNotes:

- If others exercised ... you, do we not have even more? - Paul asks a question so that the Corinthians will think of what he is saying without him having to say it. Here “we” refers to Paul and Barnabas. AT: “Others exercised ... you, so you know without me telling you that we have this right even more.” (See: Exclusive “We”; Rhetorical Question)

- If others exercised this right - Paul and the Corinthians both know that others exercised the right. “Since others exercised this right”
- others - other workers of the gospel
- this right - the right to have the believers at Corinth provide for the living expenses of those who told them the good news
- be a hindrance to - “be a burden to” or “stop the spread of”
- Do you not know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple? - Paul is reminding the Corinthians of what they know so he can add new information. AT: “I want to remind you that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Do you not know that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? - Paul is reminding the Corinthians of what they know so he can add new information. I feel obliged to preach the good news. I would grieve with many tears if I could not do what God called me to do.

ULB:

¹⁵ But I have not claimed any of these rights. And I do not write this so something might be done for me. I would rather die than anyone deprive me of this boast. ¹⁶ For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason for boasting, because I must do this. And woe be to me if I do not preach the gospel!

translationWords:

- death, die, dead
- boast, boastful
- preach
- good news, gospel
- woe

translationNotes:

- these rights - “these things that I deserve”
- so something might be done for me - This can be stated in active form. AT: “so you will do something for me” (See: Active or Passive)

It is that when I preach the good news, I offer it without anyone paying me for it. Instead, I offer it for free so that I can do it without receiving the payment the Lord would allow me to take.

ULB:

¹⁷ For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if not willingly, I still have a responsibility that was entrusted to me. ¹⁸ What then is my reward? That when I preach, I may offer the gospel without charge and so not take full use of my right in the gospel.

translationWords:

- reward
- preach
- good news, gospel

translationNotes:

- if I do this willingly - “if I preach willingly”
- willingly - “gladly” or “because I want to”
- I still have a responsibility that was entrusted to me - This can be stated in active form. AT: “I must do this work that God trusted me to complete” (See: Active or Passive)

²⁴ You know when people run in a race, they all run, but only one of them wins the prize. So you also should run to win the prize. ²⁵ Every athlete is careful in how he trains. They are running so one of them may get a crown of victory that is put on their heads; but it is made of olive leaves, and it quickly perishes and fades away. But we are running so we might receive a crown that will last forever. ²⁶ Therefore, in everything I do, I do it for a purpose. I do not waste my effort or exhaust myself by striking the air like a boxer who has no opponent. ²⁷ I discipline my body and I make it obey my commands. I do not want to preach the good news to others and then lose my reward because I failed to fulfill what he commanded me to do.

ULB:

²⁴ Do you not know that in a race all the runners run the race, but that only one receives the prize? So run to win the prize. ²⁵ An athlete exercises self-control in all his training. They do it to receive a wreath that is perishable, but we run so that we might receive an imperishable wreath. ²⁶ Therefore I do not run without purpose or box by beating the air. ²⁷ But I subdue my body and make it a slave, so that after I have preached to others, I myself may not be disqualified.

translationWords:

- know, knowledge, make known
- receive
- self-control
- perish, perishing, perishable
- body
- servant, slave, slavery
- preach

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul explains that he uses the liberty he has in Christ to discipline himself.
- Do you not know that in a race all the runners run the race, but that only one receives the prize? - Paul is reminding the Corinthians of what they know so he can add new information. “Let me remind you that although all runners run the race, only one runner receives the prize.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- run the race - Paul compares living the Christian life and working for God to running a race and being an athlete. As in a race, the Christian life and work require strict discipline on the part of the runner, and, as in a race, the Christian has a specific goal. (See: Metaphor)

- run to win the prize - Paul is speaking of the rewards God will give his faithful people as if it were a prize given for an athletic contest. (See: Metaphor)
- wreath that is perishable ... imperishable wreath - A wreath is a bunch of leaves twisted together. Wreaths were given as prizes to athletes who won games and races. Paul speaks of eternal life as if it were a wreath that would never dry up. (See: Metaphor)
- I do not run without purpose or box by beating the air - “I know very well why I am running, and I know what I am doing when I box” (See: Double Negatives)
- I myself may not be disqualified - This passive sentence can be rephrased to an active form. AT: “the judge will say that I obeyed the rules.” In this case the “judge,” the one who will not disqualify Paul, is a metaphor for God. (See: Active or Passive and Double Negatives and Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 10 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. Many English translations indent the line of 10:7, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Chapters 8-10 form a single unit, answering the question: “Is it alright to eat meat that has been sacrificed to an idol?” In this chapter, Paul uses the exodus as a warning to people not to sin. Then, he returns to discussing meat offered to idols, using the Lord’s Supper as an example. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Special concepts in this chapter

Exodus

Paul uses the experiences of Israel leaving Egypt and roaming the desert as a warning to the believers. Although they all followed Moses, they all died on the way and none of them reached the Promised Land. Some worshiped an idol, some tested Christ and some grumbled. This is a warning for Christians not to sin because temptation can be resisted because God provides a way of escape. (See: Promised Land)

Eating meat sacrificed to idol

Paul discusses meat offered to idols. Christians are allowed to eat but it may hurt others. So when buying meat or eating with a friend, do not ask if it has been offered to idols; but if someone tells you it has been offered to idols, don’t eat it for the sake of that person. Do not offend anyone but seek to save them. (See: save, safe)

UDB:

¹ I want you to remember, brothers and sisters, that our Jewish ancestors were following God, who led them out of Egypt by means of a cloud during the day, and that they passed through the Sea of Reeds on dry land. ² And as we have been baptized into Christ, so the Israelites were to follow Moses as he followed God in the cloud and across the sea. ³ They all ate the supernatural manna that God gave them from heaven, ⁴ and they all drank the supernatural water that God gave them when Moses struck the rock. The rock was Christ.

ULB:

10 ¹ I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea. ² All were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, ³ and all ate the same spiritual food. ⁴ All drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock was Christ.

translationWords:

- know, knowledge, make known
- ancestor, father, forefather
- baptize, baptism
- Moses
- spirit, spiritual
- Christ, Messiah

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul reminds them of the example of their ancient Jewish fathers' experiences with immorality and idolatry.
- our fathers - Paul is referring to the time of Moses in the book of Exodus when Israel fled through the Red Sea as the Egyptian army pursued them. The word "our" refers to himself and the Corinthians and is inclusive. (See: Inclusive "We")
- passed through the sea - This sea is known by two names, the Red Sea and the Sea of Reeds.
- passed through - "walked through" or "traveled through"
- All were baptized into Moses - "All followed and were committed to Moses"
- in the cloud - by the cloud that represented the presence of God and led the Israelites during the day
- drank the same spiritual drink ... spiritual rock - "drank the same water that God supernaturally brought out of the rock ... supernatural rock"

- that rock was Christ - The “rock” was a literal, physical rock, so it would be best to translate this literally. If your language cannot say that a rock “was” a person’s name, treat the word “rock” as a metonym for the power of Christ that worked through the rock. AT: “it was Christ who worked through that rock” (See: Metonymy)

¹¹ Now these things happened to our ancestors; they were written so we could learn from them—we, who are living very close to when the world will end. ¹² And so the lesson is this: if you think you are strong and are standing strong, be very careful, because this is just when you may fall. ¹³ Every temptation you have fought against is shared by us all, but God has given us his promise and he will not permit the temptation to be greater than your ability to fight against the sin. When the temptation comes, God will provide a way for you to get free of it, so you may endure the temptation to sin.

You must not share in the Lord's supper and then later eat a meal with demons. ²² To do so would provoke the Lord to become jealous about split loyalty. You are not stronger than he is!

ULB:

- demon, evil spirit, unclean spirit
- God
- Lord
- fellowship
- jealous, jealousy

translationNotes:

- You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons - Paul speaks of a person drinking from the same cup as the demon as evidence that that person is a friend of the demon. AT: "It is impossible for you to be true friends with both the Lord and demons" (See: Metonymy)

²⁸ But if someone says to you, “We bought this food at the idol temple and it was sacrificed to the gods,” then do not eat the food, for the good of the person who served it, and so as not to cause conflict in the sense of right and wrong. ²⁹ This is being careful about how that other person thinks about right and wrong, not how you think about it. My personal choices are not to be changed by what another person believes is right or wrong. ³⁰ If I enjoy the meal with thanksgiving, I should not permit someone else to condemn me.

ULB:

²⁸ But if someone says to you, “This food was from a pagan sacrifice,” do not eat it. This is for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience.[1]Some older copies add, For the earth and everything in it belong to the Lord. But the best copies do not have this. ²⁹ I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person’s conscience. For why should my freedom be judged by another’s conscience? ³⁰ If I partake of the meal with gratitude, why am I being insulted for that for which I gave thanks?

translationWords:

- sacrifice, offering
- conscience
- free, freedom, liberty
- judge, judgment

translationNotes:

- But if someone ... the other person’s conscience - Some translations put these words in parentheses because 1) the form of “you” here is singular, but Paul uses the plural form immediately before and after and 2) the words “For why should my freedom be judged by another’s conscience?” seem to build on “eat whatever is set before you without asking questions of conscience” (10:27) rather than “the other person’s conscience.” (See: Forms of You)
- says to you ... do not eat ... informed you ... your own conscience - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so the words “you” and “your” and the command “do not eat” here are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- For why ... conscience? If I partake ... gave thanks? - Possible meanings are 1) the word “for” refers back to 10:27, “I am not to ask questions of conscience, so why ... conscience? If I partake ... gave thanks?” or 2) Paul is quoting what some Corinthians were thinking, “As some of you might be thinking, ‘For why ... conscience? If I ... thanks?’”

- why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience? - The speaker wants the hearer to answer the question in his mind. AT: "You should know without me telling you that no one should be able to say I am doing wrong just because that person has ideas about right and wrong that are different from mine. (See: Rhetorical Question)
- If I partake of the meal with gratitude, why am I being insulted for that for which I gave thanks? - The speaker wants the hearer to answer the question in his mind. AT: "I partake of the meal with gratitude, so no one should insult me for that for which I gave thanks." (See: Rhetorical Question)
- If I partake - If Paul is not quoting what some Corinthians might be thinking, the "I" represents those who eat meat with thankfulness. "If a person partakes" or "When a person eats"
- with gratitude - "and thank God for it" or "and thank the person who gave it to me for it"

1 Corinthians 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

This is the beginning of a new section of the letter (Chapters 11-14). Paul now talks about proper church services. In this chapter, he deals with two different problems: women in the church services (11:1-16) and the Lord's Supper (11:17-34).

Special concepts in this chapter

Proper conduct in a church service

Disorderly women

Paul's instructions here are debated among scholars. It is probable that there were women who were abusing the freedom they had in Christ and were causing disorder in the church by going against established cultural customs. The actions themselves were not Paul's concern, the disorder their actions created caused him to be concerned.

The Lord's Supper

There were problems in how the Corinthians were handling the Lord's Supper. They were not unified but were divided into different groups. During the feast celebrate along with the Lord's Supper, some ate their own food without sharing and some got drunk while the poor remained hungry. Paul teaches that to participate in the Lord's Supper when they have great sin in their life or relationships that need reconciliation, then it dishonors the death of Christ. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and reconcile, reconciliation)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Paul uses rhetorical questions to scold the people for their unwillingness to follow the rules for worship he has suggested. (See: Rhetorical Question)

The head

He uses "the head" in reference to a person's actual head and as a metonym for a leader. Since they are so close together, the author likely intentionally used these terms to play on each other. This is called a pun, or a play-on-words. (See: Metonymy)

UDB:

¹ Follow my example, just like I follow the example of Christ.

² I praise you because you remember me in all you do, and you hold tight to all the important teachings that I have passed down to you and you have kept them just as I taught them to you. ³ I want you to understand that Christ has authority over every man, and that a man has authority over a woman, and that God has authority over Christ. ⁴ So if any man covers his head when he prays or when he proclaims a message from God, he brings disgrace on himself.

ULB:

¹ Be imitators of me, just as I am an imitator of Christ.

² Now I praise you because you remember me in everything. I praise you because you hold fast to the traditions just as I delivered them to you. ³ Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, that a man is the head of a woman, and that God is the head of Christ. ⁴ Any man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head.

translationWords:

- imitate, imitator
- praise
- tradition
- head
- pray, prayer
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- dishonor, dishonorable

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - After reminding them to follow him the way he follows Christ, Paul gives some specific instructs in how women and men are to live as believers.
- remember - “think of” or “consider”
- Now I want - Possible meanings are 1) “Because of this, I want” or 2) “However, I want.”
- is the head of - has authority over
- a man is the head of a woman - Possible meanings are 1) “men are to have authority over women” or 2) “the husband is to have authority over the wife”
- with his head covered - “and does so after placing a cloth or veil over his head”

- dishonors his head - Possible meanings are 1) “brings disgrace on himself” (UDB) or 2) “brings disgrace on Christ, who is his head.”

translationNotes:

- woman who prays ... dishonors her head - Possible meanings are 1) “woman who prays ... brings disgrace on herself” (UDB) or 2) “wife who prays ... brings disgrace on her husband.”
- with her head uncovered - That is, without the cloth that was worn on the top of the head and that covered the hair and shoulders.
- as if her head were shaved - as if she had removed all the hair on her head with a razor
- If it is disgraceful for a woman - It was a mark of disgrace or humiliation for a woman to have her hair shaved off or cut short.
- cover her head - place on her head the cloth that was worn on the top of the head and that covered the hair and shoulders

For her hair has been given to her as a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone wants to argue about this, we do not have any other practice, nor do the churches of God.

translationWords:

- judge, judgment
- pray, prayer
- church, Church

translationNotes:

- Judge for yourselves - “Judge this issue according to the local customs and church practices you know”
- Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? - Paul expects the Corinthians to agree with him. This can be stated in active form. “To honor God, a woman should pray to God with a covering on her head.” (See: Active or Passive and Rhetorical Question)
- Does not even nature itself teach you ... for him? - Paul expects the Corinthians to agree with him. AT: “Nature itself even teaches you ... for him.” He is speaking of the way people in society normally act as if it were a person who teaches. AT: “You know just from looking at the way people normally act ... for him.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Personification)
- For her hair has been given to her - “For God created woman with hair” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 11:17-19

UDB:

¹⁷ In these instructions, I cannot praise you for what you are doing about the Lord's supper. When you come together to eat, instead of encouraging and helping one another, you make the fellowship in the church much worse. ¹⁸ The first matter of concern is that when you come together, you come with different groups and factions. This is what people have told me, and I believe that some of what they say is true. ¹⁹ It appears that you need to have different groups among yourselves so that you can test and approve the ones that have places of honor, and others that do not.

ULB:

¹⁷ But in the following instructions, I do not praise you. For when you come together, it is not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸ For in the first place, I hear that when you come together in the church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. ¹⁹ For there must also be factions among you, so that those who are approved may be recognized among you.

translationWords:

- praise
- church, Church
- believe, believe in, belief

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - As Paul talks about communion, the Lord's supper, he reminds them to have right attitudes as well as unity. He reminds them that if they fail in those things when taking communion, they will become sick and die, as has already happened to some of them.
- in the following instructions, I do not praise you. For when - Another possible meaning is "as I give you these instructions, there is something for which I cannot praise you: when"
- instructions - "directions" or "policies"
- come together - "gather together" or "meet"
- it is not for the better but for the worse - "you do not help each other; instead, you harm each other"
- in the church - "as believers." Paul is not talking about being inside a building.
- there are divisions among you - "you divide yourselves into groups"
- so that those who are approved may be recognized among you - Possible meanings are 1) "so that people will know the most highly regarded believers among you" or 2) "so that people can display this approval to the others among you." Paul may have been using irony, saying the opposite of what he wanted the Corinthians to understand, to shame them. (See: Irony)

- who are approved - Possible meanings are 1) “whom God approves” or 2) “whom you, the church, approve.”

1 Corinthians 11:20-22

UDB:

²⁰ When you come together you are not eating the Lord's Supper. ²¹ When you eat, one person brings an entire meal and eats it as soon as he arrives; he does not wait for anyone else. Another person goes hungry while other people drink so much wine that they get drunk. ²² You act as though you did not have houses to eat and drink in! You treat the church with dishonor, and you despise the purpose for which you gather. You humiliate those who are poor. I can say nothing good about this. This is a disgrace.

ULB:

²⁰ For when you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper that you eat. ²¹ When you eat, each one eats his own food before the others have their meal. One is hungry, and another becomes drunk. ²² Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I will not praise you for this!

translationNotes:

- come together - "gather together"
- it is not the Lord's Supper that you eat - "you may believe you are eating the Lord's Supper, but you do not treat it with respect"
- to eat and to drink in - "in which to gather for a meal"
- despise - hate or treat with dishonor and disrespect
- humiliate - embarrass or cause to feel shame
- What should I say to you? Should I praise you? - Paul is rebuking the Corinthians. AT: "I can say nothing good about this. I cannot praise you." (See: Rhetorical Question)

- blood
- proclaim, proclamation
- death, die, dead

translationNotes:

- the cup - It is best to translate this literally. The Corinthians knew which cup he took, so it is not simply “a cup” or “some cup” or “any cup.” Possible meanings are that it was 1) the cup of wine that one would expect him to use or 2) the third or fourth of the four cups of wine that the Jews drank at the Passover meal.
- Do this as often as you drink it - “Drink from this cup, and as often as you drink from it”

UDB:

²⁷ All who come to this celebration of the Lord's Supper should come to give honor to God in the way it is shared. Those who eat the bread and drink the cup must do so in a manner that honors the Lord. Anyone who dishonors the bread and the cup will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Therefore we should all examine ourselves before we take the communion. We should only eat the bread and drink the cup after we have examined ourselves. ²⁹ Anyone who eats and drinks this Supper and does not consider what is the Lord's body, eats and drinks the judgment of God on himself. ³⁰ Many among you are physically ill, and several have even died because of the way you have treated the Lord's body.

ULB:

²⁷ Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Let a person examine himself first, and in this way let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹ For he who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment to himself. ³⁰ That is why many among you are weak and ill, and some of you have fallen asleep.

translationWords:

- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- guilt, guilty
- body
- blood
- discern, discernment
- judge, judgment
- sleep, asleep, fall asleep

translationNotes:

- eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord - "eats the bread of the Lord or drinks the cup of the Lord"
- examine - Paul speaks of a person looking at his relationship to God and how he has been living his life as if that person is looking over something he wants to buy. See how "test the quality" is translated in 3:13. (See: Metaphor)
- without discerning the body - Possible meanings are 1) "and does not recognize that the church is the body of the Lord" or 2) "and does not consider that he is handling the Lord's body." (UDB)
- weak and ill - These words mean almost the same thing and can be combined, as in UDB.

Structure and formatting

Gifts of the Holy Spirit

This chapter begins a new section. Chapters 12-14 discuss the use of the spiritual gifts within the church.

Special concepts in this chapter

The Church, the body of Christ

This is an important metaphor in Scripture. The Church has many different parts, each with different functions. They combine to make one church. All of the different parts are necessary. Each part is to have concern for all the other parts, even those that seem less important. (See: Metaphor)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“No one can say, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ except by the Holy Spirit.”

In reading the Old Testament, the Jews would have substituted the word “Lord” for the word “Yahweh.” This probably means that no one can say that Jesus is Yahweh, God in the flesh without the Holy Spirit’s influence drawing them to accept this truth. If this statement is translated poorly, it can have unintended theological consequences.

UDB:

¹ And now let me teach you about spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters. I want you to know how to use them. ² You may recall how, when you worshiped idols—idols that could not even speak a word—they led you astray. ³ The Spirit of God helps you declare, “Jesus Christ is Lord.” No one who is filled with the Holy Spirit would ever say, “Jesus is accursed!”

ULB:

12 ¹ About spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be uninformed. ² You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to voiceless idols, in whatever ways you were led by them. ³ Therefore I want you to know that no one who speaks by the Spirit of God can say, “Jesus is accursed.” No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

translationWords:

- spirit, spiritual
- gift
- know, knowledge, make known
- pagan
- astray, go astray, led astray, stray
- idol, idolatrous
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Lord

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul lets them know that God has given special gifts to believers. These gifts are to help the body of believers.
- I do not want you to be uninformed - This can be stated as a positive. AT: “I want you to know” (See: Double Negatives)
- you were led astray to voiceless idols - This can be stated in active form. AT: “you believed lies and worshiped voiceless idols” See: Active or Passive)
- in whatever ways you were led by them - This can be stated in active form. AT: “and they led you in many ways” (See: Active or Passive)
- no one who speaks by the Spirit of God can say - Possible meanings are 1) “no Christian who has the Spirit of God in him can say” or 2) “no one who is prophesying by the power of the Spirit of God can say.”
- Jesus is accursed - “God will punish Jesus” or “God will make Jesus suffer”

UDB:

⁴ The Spirit gives many different gifts to the people of Christ, but he is the same Spirit. ⁵ There are also many different ways to serve God, but there is only one Lord. ⁶ There are also many ways for people to work in God's kingdom, but it is God who gives the power to his people to work for him.

ULB:

⁴ Now there are different gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵ And there are different ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶ And there are different kinds of work, but it is the same God who makes them possible in everyone.

translationWords:

- gift
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- minister, ministry
- Lord
- works, deeds, work, acts
- God

translationNotes:

- makes them possible in everyone - "causes everyone to have them"

⁷ God makes it possible for each believer to show that he has some of the Spirit's power; God does this in order to help all believers together to trust him and honor him more. ⁸ For the Spirit makes one person able to speak a message with great wisdom from God, and he makes another person able to pass on to others some knowledge from God.

ULB:

⁷ Now to each one is given the outward display of the Spirit for the benefit of all. ⁸ For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit.

translationWords:

translationNotes:

- to each one is given - This can be stated in active form. God is the one who does the giving (12:6). AT: "God gives to each one" (See: Active or Passive)
- to one is given by the Spirit the word - This can be stated in active form. AT: "by means of the Spirit God gives to one person the word" (See: Active or Passive)
- by the Spirit - God gives the gifts through the work of the Spirit.
- wisdom ... knowledge - The difference between these two words is not as important here as the fact that God gives them both by the same Spirit.
- the word of wisdom - Paul is communicating one idea through two words. AT: "wise words" (See: Hendiadys)

⁹ To another believer the Spirit gives the gift of trusting God for wonderful things. To still another person he gives the ability to pray to God for him to heal people. ¹⁰ The Spirit makes some believers able to do powerful deeds so that people will praise God. As for certain other believers, he makes them able to speak messages from God. The Spirit makes still other believers able to tell spirits who honor God from spirits who do not. To still others, the Spirit gives various kinds of languages in which to speak messages from God, and he makes others able to interpret those messages into our language. ¹¹ Again and again we see the many different gifts, but it is the same Spirit who gives these gifts to individuals, as he chooses.

ULB:

⁹ To another is given faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit. ¹⁰ To another is given deeds of power, and to another prophecy. To another is given the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, and to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹ But the one and the same Spirit works in all of these, giving the gifts to each one individually, as he chooses.

translationWords:

- faith
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- gift
- heal, cure
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- spirit, spiritual
- interpret, interpretation
- tongue

translationNotes:

- is given - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God gives.” See how this is translated in 12:8. (See: Active or Passive)
- by the same Spirit - God gives the gifts through the work of the one and only Holy Spirit. See how this is translated in 12:8.
- various kinds of tongues - “the ability to speak different languages” (See: Metonymy)
- the interpretation of tongues - the ability to tell what people who are speaking in other languages are saying

- interpretation - This means to tell what someone has said in a language to others who do not understand that language. See how “interpret” is translated in 2:13.
- the one and the same Spirit - Paul is reminding the readers of “the same Spirit ... the one Spirit” (verse 9).

¹² As the human body is a union of many parts, and every part of the body makes the whole, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For it is by the Spirit of Christ that, when we were baptized, we were each joined together into the body of Christ. It made no difference what our background was, either Jew or Greek, slave or free, but each of us received the gift of the Holy Spirit.

ULB:

¹² For as the body is one and has many members and all are members of the same body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bound or free, and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

- For by one Spirit we were all baptized - Possible meanings are 1) the Holy Spirit is the one who baptizes us, “For one Spirit baptized us” or 2) that the Spirit, like the water of baptism, is the medium through which we are baptized into the body, “For in one Spirit we were all baptized” (See: Active or Passive and Metaphor)

UDB:

¹⁴ Remember, the body is not just one part, but many parts work together to make up the entire body. ¹⁵ If your foot spoke to you and said, “I am not the hand, therefore, I am not part of your body,” it would not be less a part of your body because it was not like your hand. ¹⁶ And if your ear said to you, “I am not an eye. For that reason, I have no place in the body,” it would not be less a part of your body because it was not an eye. ¹⁷ If your whole body were an eye, there would be nothing with which to hear. If your whole body were an ear, there would be nothing with which to smell.

ULB:

¹⁴ For the body is not a single member, but many. ¹⁵ If the foot says, “Since I am not the hand, I am not part of the body,” it is not any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body,” it is not any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? UDB:

²¹ In your body, the eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you”; it surely does need the hand. Nor would the head say to the feet, “I do not need you.” ²² Even the parts that are weak are all still essential to the body as a whole. ²³ The parts that we would be ashamed for others to see, we take more care to cover them. In this way we show more respect for them. ²⁴ but God has joined the distinguished parts with the less important ones. And God gives honor to those less presentable parts, because they are part of the body.

ULB:

²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you.” Nor does the head say to the feet, “I have no need of you.” ²² But the members of the body that appear to be weaker are essential. ²³ And the parts of the body that we think are less honorable, we give them greater honor, and our unpresentable members have more dignity. ²⁴ Now our presentable members have no need to be treated with dignity, for they already have dignity. But God has joined all the members together, and he gave more honor to those that lacked it.

translationWords:

When one member is given honor for something they accomplished for Christ, the entire body rejoices together.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and individually, you are all members of it.

ULB:

²⁵ He did this so there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another with the same affection. ²⁶ And when one member suffers, all the members suffer together. translationWords:

- appoint, appointed
- church, Church
- apostle, apostleship
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- teacher, Teacher
- heal, cure
- tongue

translationNotes:

- first apostles - Possible meanings are 1) “the first gift I will mention is apostles” or 2) “the most important gift is apostles.”
- those who provide helps - “those who provide help to other believers”
- those who do the work of administration - “those who govern the church”
- and those who have various kinds of tongues - an individual who can speak in one or more foreign languages without having studied that language
- Are all of them apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all do powerful deeds? - Paul is reminding his readers of what they already know. AT: “Only some of them are apostles. UDB:

³⁰ Not all of us can heal the sick. Not all of us can speak in special languages. Not all of us can interpret messages into other languages. ³¹ But I want you to eagerly seek after the greater gifts. And now, I will show you a more excellent way.

ULB:

³⁰ Do all of them have gifts of healing? Do all of them speak with tongues? Do all of them interpret tongues? ³¹ Zealously seek the greater gifts. And I will show you a more excellent way.

translationWords:

- gift
- heal, cure
- tongue
- zeal, zealous

translationNotes:

- Do all of them have gifts of healing? - This can be a statement. AT: “Not all of them have gifts of healing.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Do all of them speak with tongues? - This can be a statement. AT: “Not all of them speak with tongues.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- Do all of them interpret tongues? - This can be a statement. AT: “Not all of them interpret tongues.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- interpret - This means to tell what someone has said in a language to others who do not understand that language. See how this is translated in 2:13.
- Zealously seek the greater gifts. And - Possible meanings are 1) “You must eagerly seek from God the gifts that best help the church. And” or 2) “You are eagerly looking for gifts that you think are greater because you think they are more exciting to have. But.”

Structure and formatting

While it appears that Paul interrupts his discussion of spiritual gifts, this chapter's contents probably serve a larger function in his teaching on the use spiritual gifts.

Special concepts in this chapter

Love

Love is the most important characteristic of the believer. This chapter gives a full description of love and why love is more important than the gifts of the Spirit. (See: love)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

There are many different metaphors in this chapter. Paul uses these metaphors to instruct the Corinthians, especially on difficult topics. Spiritual discernment is often needed to understand these teachings. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 13:1-3

UDB:

¹ If I could speak so that I could amaze and persuade people to do what I wanted, or if I could speak the language of angels—but if I did not love people, all my talking would be worth less than a noisy gong or a cymbal that only clangs. ² If I could proclaim messages for God, and if I could explain secret truths about God, and if I trusted in God so much that I could move a mountain—but if I did not love people, I would be worth nothing. ³ If I gave away all I own to feed the poor, or if I sacrificed myself to be burned to rescue someone else—but if I did not love people, I would gain nothing.

ULB:

13 ¹ Suppose that I speak with the tongues of men and of angels. But if I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² Suppose that I have the gift of prophecy and understand all hidden truths and knowledge, and that I have all faith so as to remove mountains. But if I do not have love, I am nothing. ³ And suppose that I give all I own to feed the poor, and that I give my body to be burned. But if I do not have love, I gain nothing.[1]The ULB and UDB, together with most versions, read, I give my body to be burned. Some older versions read, I give my body so that I might boast.

translationWords:

- tongue
- angel, archangel
- love
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- mystery, hidden truth
- know, knowledge, make known
- faith

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Having just talked about the gifts that God gave to believers, Paul emphasizes what is more important.
- the tongues of ... angels - Possible meanings are 1) Paul is exaggerating for the sake of effect and does not believe that people speak the language that angels use or 2) Paul thinks that some who speak in tongues actually speak the language that angels use. (See: Hyperbole)
- I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal - I have become like instruments that make loud, annoying sounds (See: Metaphor)

- gong - a large, thin, round metal plate that is hit with a padded stick to make a loud sound (See: Translate Unknowns)
- a clanging cymbal - two thin, round metal plates that are hit together to make a loud sound (See: Translate Unknowns)
- I give my body to be burned - This can be made active. AT: “I allow those who persecute me to burn me to death” (See: Active or Passive and Metonymy and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

UDB:

⁴ If you truly love others, you will endure hardships with joy. If you truly love, you will be kind to others. If you truly love, you will not resent that other people possess things you do not have. If you truly love, you will not boast about yourself or be proud. ⁵ If you truly love others, you will not abuse them. You will not live to please yourself. No one will be able to make you angry quickly. You will not keep track of the wrong things people have done. ⁶ If you truly love others, you will not be happy if anyone does wicked things; instead, you will be happy when people are faithful to God. ⁷ If you truly love others, you will endure everything that happens. You will trust that God will do the best things for people. You will trust in God regardless of what happens. You will obey God regardless of what hardships you are facing.

ULB:

⁴ Love is patient and kind. Love does not envy or boast. It is not arrogant ⁵ or rude. It is not self-serving. It is not easily angered, nor does it keep a count of wrongs. ⁶ It does not rejoice in unrighteousness. Instead, it rejoices in the truth. ⁷ Love bears all things, believes all things, has confidence concerning all things, and endures all things.

translationWords:

- love
- patient, patience
- envy, covet
- boast, boastful
- arrogant
- angry, anger
- rejoice
- unrighteous, unrighteousness
- true, truth, come true
- believe, believe in, belief
- endure, endurance

translationNotes:

- Love is patient and kind ... endures all things - Here Paul speaks about love as if it were a person. (See: Personification)

UDB:

⁸ If you truly love, you will not stop loving. Those who are able to speak God's messages, speak in strange languages, or know hidden truths, do these things only for a while. One day they will stop doing these things. ⁹ Now, in this life, we know only a small part of all there is to know. Those who proclaim God's messages do so only partially. ¹⁰ But when things are complete, everything that is partial or incomplete will end.

ULB:

⁸ Love never ends. If there are prophecies, they will pass away. If there are tongues, they will cease. If there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰ But when the perfect comes, that which is incomplete will pass away.

¹¹ When I was a small child, I talked as a child talks, I thought as a child thinks, and I made decisions as a child makes decision. But when I became an adult, I stopped acting like a child, and I started acting like an adult. ¹² What we understand about Christ now, we understand very imperfectly, not well at all. But when Christ returns, we will see him face to face. Now we know only part of what is true. But then we will know him fully, just as he knows us fully. ¹³ It is important that we trust in Christ now. It is important that we are certain that he will do for us everything that he has promised. And it is important that we love him and each other. But the greatest of these three things is love.

ULB:

¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I put away childish things. ¹² For now we see indirectly in a mirror, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully just as I have been fully known. ¹³ But now these three remain: faith, future confidence, and love. But the greatest of these is love.

translationWords:

- children, child
- face
- know, knowledge, make known
- faith
- confidence, confident
- love

translationNotes:

- For now we see indirectly in a mirror - Mirrors in Paul's day were made of polished metal rather than glass and provided a dim, vague reflection.
- now we see - Possible meanings are 1) "now we see Christ" or 2) "now we see God."
- but then face to face - "but then we will see Christ face to face" This means that we will be physically present with Christ. (See: Ellipsis and Synecdoche)

1 Corinthians 14 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart quotations of the Old Testament. The ULB and many other English translations indent the lines of 14:21, which is a quotation from the Old Testament.

Paul returns to his discussion on the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Special concepts in this chapter

Tongues

The gift of tongues is described as an inferior gift because it primarily serves an individual or a few people within the church and not the church as a whole. It is also very important that this gift is used in the proper way. Tongue is also described as a gift for unbelievers. The exact importance of this phrase is debated among scholars.

Prophecy

Prophecy is described as a superior gift because it can be used in service of the entire church, while some gifts are primarily helpful to an individual. Prophecy is described as a gift for believers. The exact importance of this phrase is debated among scholars. (See: prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess)

1 Corinthians 14:1-4

UDB:

¹ Strive for how to love others and for gifts that strengthen your fellow believers. Especially strive to be able to proclaim his messages that he gives you to say. ² When a person speaks in a language given by the Spirit, he is not speaking to people, because no one can understand him, but he is speaking to God. He is saying things to him as the Spirit leads him. ³ On the other hand, the prophet who proclaims the messages from God speaks directly to people. He does this in order to help them by making them stronger, to help them be unshakable, and to give them comfort so they can be happy even in hardship. ⁴ A person who speaks in a language given by the Spirit builds himself up and gives himself help, but a person who proclaims the messages of God builds up everyone and helps everyone in the church to be stronger in their faith.

ULB:

14 ¹ Pursue love and be zealous for spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. ² For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God. For no one understands him because he speaks hidden things in the Spirit. ³ But the one who prophesies speaks to people to build them up, to encourage them, and to comfort them. ⁴ The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

translationWords:

- love
- zeal, zealous
- spirit, spiritual
- gift
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- tongue
- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- encourage, encouragement
- comfort, comforter
- church, Church

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul wants them to know that though teaching is more important because it instructs people, it must be done with love.
- Pursue love - Paul speaks of love as if it were a person. “Follow after love” or “Work hard to love people” (See: First, Second or Third Person)
- especially that you may prophesy - “and work especially hard to be able to prophesy”

- builds up - Paul speaks of helping people as if it were building a house. AT: “helps people.” See how “builds up” is translated in 8:1. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 14:5-6

UDB:

⁵ Now I wish that all of you spoke in such languages, but it would be far better for the entire church if more and more of you had the gift of speaking God's messages. Anyone who speaks messages from God is helping to strengthen his fellow believers. For this reason, he is doing work that is more important than those who proclaim messages in various other languages—unless someone is able to interpret those messages.

⁶ If I come to you and am only speaking in languages given by the Spirit, how can that help you? That cannot help you unless I speak to you and help you know matters that were hidden from you, or unless I help you understand facts you did not know, or unless I proclaim to you some message you did not hear before, or unless I teach you some rule that you had never learned before.

ULB:

⁵ Now I wish that you all spoke in tongues. But even more than that, I wish that you would prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues (unless someone interprets so that the church may be built up). ⁶ But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you? I cannot, unless I speak to you with revelation, or knowledge, or prophecy, or teaching.

translationWords:

- tongue
- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- church, Church
- reveal, revelation
- know, knowledge, make known

translationNotes:

- The one who prophesies is greater - Paul is emphasizing that the gift of prophecy is greater than the gift of speaking in tongues. AT: "The one who prophesies has a greater gift" (See: Synecdoche)
- interprets - This means to tell what someone has said in a language to others who do not understand that language. See how this is translated in 2:13.

1 Corinthians 14:7-9

UDB:

⁷ If someone is playing the flute or harp (they are not living things), and if the notes on the flute or harp sounded no different from each other, no one would be able to tell which tune I was playing. ⁸ And if a soldier blew the trumpet poorly, the army would not know whether to get ready for battle. ⁹ This is what it is like when you say words that no one can understand: no one will know what you have said.

ULB:

⁷ If lifeless instruments are producing sounds—like the flute or the harp—and they do not produce different tones, how will anyone know what tune the flute or harp is playing? ⁸ For if the trumpet is played with an uncertain sound, how will anyone know when it is time to prepare for battle? ⁹ So it is with you. translationNotes:

- they do not produce different tones - This refers to sounds of different pitch that make up the melody, not to the difference between a flute sound and a harp sound.
- how will anyone know what tune the flute or harp is playing? - Paul wants the Corinthians to answer this themselves. AT: “no one will know what tune the flute or harp is playing.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

¹³ For that reason, pray that God will enable you to interpret what you say in a language that God has given you. ¹⁴ If anyone prays in such a language, his spirit certainly prays, but his mind does not.

ULB:

¹² Likewise with you. Since you are eager for the manifestations of the Spirit, be zealous to abound in building up the church. ¹³ So the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret.

¹⁴ For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

translationWords:

- Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord
- zeal, zealous
- church, Church
- tongue
- pray, prayer
- spirit, spiritual
- mind

translationNotes:

- the manifestations of the Spirit - “being able to do things that show that the Spirit controls you”
- to abound in building up the church - Paul speaks of the church as if it were a house that one could build and of the work of building the church as if it were something one could harvest. “to succeed greatly in making God’s people more able to serve God” (See: Metaphor)
- interpret - This means to tell what someone has said in a language to others who do not understand that language. See how this is translated in 2:13.

ULB:

¹⁵ What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my mind. ¹⁶ Otherwise, if you praise God with the spirit, how will the outsider say “Amen” when you are giving thanks if he does not know what you are saying?

translationWords:

- pray, prayer
- spirit, spiritual
- mind
- praise
- God
- amen, truly
- know, knowledge, make known

translationNotes:

- What am I to do? - Paul is introducing his conclusion. AT: “This is what I will do.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- pray with my spirit ... pray with my mind ... sing with my spirit ... sing with my mind - Prayers and songs must be in a language that the people present can understand.
- with my mind - “with words that I understand”
- you praise God ... you are giving thanks ... you are saying - Though “you” is singular here, Paul is addressing everyone who prays only in the spirit, but not with the mind. (See: Forms of You)
- how will the outsider say “Amen” ... saying? - This can be a statement. AT: “the outsider will never be able to say ‘Amen’ ... saying.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

ULB:

¹⁷ For you certainly give thanks well enough, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹ But in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding so that I might instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

”I will speak to my people Israel by foreigners, men who speak in strange languages; but my people will still not understand me.”

ULB:

²⁰ Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Rather, in regard to evil, be like infants. But in your thinking be mature. ²¹ In the law it is written,

”By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers says the Lord.

translationWords:

- evil, wicked, wickedness
- law, law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh
- written
- tongue
- Lord

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Paul tells them that speaking in different languages was told ahead of time by the prophet Isaiah many years before this speaking in other languages happened at the start of Christ’s church.
- children - “people whom others can deceive easily” (See: Metaphor)
- In the law it is written, - This can be stated in active form: AT: “The prophet wrote these words in the law:” (See: Active or Passive)

²² So if a believer speaks in a language that God has given him, this impresses the unbelievers who might be listening. But if a believer speaks a message from God, this impresses the other believers.

²³ You can see how confusing it would be if all the believers met together and spoke in different languages. Any unbeliever who heard them would call them all crazy.

ULB:

²² Therefore tongues are a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers. But prophesying is for a sign, not for unbelievers, but for believers. ²³ If, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders and unbelievers come in, would they not say that you are insane?

ULB:

²⁴ But if you all were prophesying and an unbeliever or an outsider came in, he would be convicted by all he hears. 1 Corinthians 14:26-28

UDB:

²⁶ Brothers and sisters, it should be this way when you worship God together. Each of you should come with a psalm to sing, or something to teach from the scriptures, or something that God has told you, or with a message in a language that God has given, or with an interpretation of such a message. Everything you do together should encourage each other, for you are Christ's church. ²⁷ If there are any who wish to speak a message in a language from the Spirit, there should be no more than two or three such persons. They should speak one at a time, and someone should interpret the messages. ²⁸ However, if there is no one able to interpret those messages, then those who speak in languages from the Spirit should keep silent and speak only to God.

ULB:

²⁶ What is next then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Do everything so that you build up the church. ²⁷ If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at most three, and each one in turn. And someone should interpret what is said. ²⁸ But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in the church. Let each one speak to himself alone and to God.

translationWords:

1 Corinthians 14:29-30

UDB:

²⁹ If there are any who want to speak a message from God, there should be only two or three such persons; and everyone else should judge those messages according to what the scriptures say. ³⁰ But if God allows someone seated in the assembly to understand a message, then the one speaking the message should stop speaking. In this way, all the believers can listen to the meaning of the message.

ULB:

²⁹ Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others listen with discernment to what is said. ³⁰ But if an insight is given to one who is sitting in the service, let the one who had been speaking be silent.

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- discern, discernment

translationNotes:

- Let two or three prophets speak - Possible meanings are 1) only two or three prophets speak at any one meeting or 2) only two or three prophets take turns speaking at any one time.
- to what is said - This can be stated in active form. AT: “to what they say” (See: Active or Passive)
- if an insight is given to one - This can be stated in active form. AT: “if God gives someone insight” (See: Active or Passive and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

UDB:

³¹ For each of those who proclaim the messages of God should do so. But they must do so one by one, in order, so that all the believers can learn and receive courage to love God better. ³² For those who truly speak God's messages control the spirit in which they do so. ³³ For God does not create confusion; instead, he makes peace.

This next question is answered the same way in all the churches of God's people.

ULB:

³¹ For each of you can prophesy one by one so that each one may learn and all may be encouraged. ³² For the spirits of the prophets are under the control of the prophets. ³³ For God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- encouragement, encouragement
- spirit, spiritual
- God
- peace, peaceful

translationNotes:

- prophesy one by one - Only one person should prophesy at a time.
- all may be encouraged - This can be stated in active form. AT: "you may encourage all" (See: Active or Passive)
- God is not a God of confusion - God does not create confusing situations by making people all speak at the same time.

1 Corinthians 14:34-36

UDB:

³⁴ Women should keep silent in church for they are not permitted to speak. They must not interrupt the one who is speaking God's message, but they should always obey their husbands, as also the law says. ³⁵ When women want to learn, instead of interrupting the worship, they should speak with their husbands at home. It dishonors her husband for a woman to interrupt the service. ³⁶ Were you the people by whom God gave us his word? Or are you the only ones to whom it came?

ULB:

This is the rule in all the churches of the believers. ³⁴ The women should keep silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak. Instead, they should be in submission, as also the law says. ³⁵ If there is anything they desire to learn, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church. ³⁶ Did the word of God come from you? Are you the only ones it has reached?

translationWords:

- church, Church
- believer
- submit, in submission
- law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh
- disgrace, disgraceful
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture

translationNotes:

- keep silent - Possible meanings are 1) stop speaking, 2) stop speaking when someone is prophesying, or 3) be absolutely silent during the church service.
- Did the word of God come from you? Are you the only ones it has reached? - Paul emphasizes that the Corinthians are not the only ones who understand what God wants Christians to do. AT: "The word of God did not come from you in Corinth; you are not the only people who understand God's will." (See: Rhetorical Question)

³⁷ Those of you who think you are prophets or spiritual should agree that the things I write are what the Lord has commanded and follow what I have written. ³⁸ But as for those who do not acknowledge what I have written, you should not acknowledge them in your assembly.

ULB:

³⁷ If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, he should acknowledge that the things I write to you are a command of the Lord. ³⁸ But if anyone does not recognize this, let him not be recognized.[1]Most versions, including the ULB and UDB, read, But if anyone does not recognize this, let him not be recognized. Some older versions read, “But if anyone is ignorant of this, let him be ignorant.”

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- spirit, spiritual
- command, to command, commandment
- Lord

translationNotes:

- he should acknowledge - A true prophet or truly spiritual person will accept Paul's writings as coming from the Lord.
- let him not be recognized - This can be stated in active form. AT: “you should not recognize him” (See: Active or Passive)

ULB:

³⁹ So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid anyone from speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰ But let all things be done properly and in order.

translationWords:

- prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess
- tongue

translationNotes:

- do not forbid anyone from speaking in tongues - Paul makes it clear that speaking in tongues at a church gathering is permissible and acceptable.
- But let all things be done properly and in order - Paul is stressing that church gatherings should be held in an orderly manner. AT: "But do all things properly and in order" or "But do everything in an orderly, appropriate way"

Structure and formatting

Resurrection

This chapter includes a very important teaching about the resurrection of Jesus. The Greek people did not believe that a person could live after they died. Paul defends the resurrection of Jesus and its importance for all believers. (See: resurrection and believe, believe in, belief)

Special concepts in this chapter

Resurrection

The resurrection is presented as the ultimate proof that Jesus is God and a central aspect of the gospel. Christ is the first of many who will be raised to life. There are few doctrines as important as this one. (See: good news, gospel and raise, rise, risen, arise, arose)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

This chapter is filled with many different figures of speech. These help Paul to express difficult theological concepts in a way that people can understand.

1 Corinthians 15:1-2

UDB:

¹ And now I wish to remind you, brothers and sisters, about the good news I proclaimed to you. You believed this message and now you live according to it. ² This good news saved you, as long as you hold firmly to it—unless you did not truly believe it.

ULB:

15 ¹ Now I remind you, brothers, of the gospel I proclaimed to you, which you received and on which you stand. ² It is by this gospel that you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.

- proclaim, proclamation
- receive
- save, safe
- word
- preach
- believe, believe in, belief
- vain, vanity

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul reminds them that it is the gospel that saves them and he tells them again what the gospel is. Then he gives them a short history lesson, which ends with what will yet happen.
- remind you - “help you remember”
- on which you stand - Paul is speaking of the Corinthians as if they were a house and the gospel as if it were the foundation on which the house was standing. (See: Metaphor)
- you are being saved - This can be stated in active form. “God will save you” (See: Active or Passive)

UDB:

³ For I have passed on to you what others first told me, that Christ died for our sins, as the scripture foretold he would; ⁴ also that they buried him, and that God raised him to life on the third day, all just the way the scriptures said it would happen.

ULB:

³ For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, ⁴ that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the scriptures.

translationWords:

- receive
- Christ, Messiah
- death, die, dead
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture
- bury, buried, burial
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose

translationNotes:

- as of first importance - Possible meanings are 1) as the most important of many things or 2) as the first in time (UDB).
- for our sins - “to pay for our sins” or “so that God could forgive our sins”
- according to the scriptures - Paul is referring to the writings of the Old Testament.
- he was buried - This can be stated in active form. AT: “they buried him” (See: Active or Passive)
- he was raised - This can be stated in active form. AT: “God raised him” or “he rose” (See: Active or Passive)

1 Corinthians 15:5-7

UDB:

⁵ Then Christ appeared to Cephas (known as Peter), and then he appeared to the rest of the apostles. ⁶ He later appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters in the Lord when they were all together. Some of them have since died, but most are still alive and can verify this. ⁷ Then he appeared to James, and then again to all the apostles.

ULB:

⁵ And that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶ Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once. Most of them are still alive, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷ Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

translationWords:

- Peter, Simon Peter, Cephas
- the twelve, the eleven
- life, live, living, alive
- sleep, asleep, fall asleep
- James (brother of Jesus)
- apostle, apostleship

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - If you need for verse 5 to be a complete sentence, end 15:4 with a comma so that verse 5 completes the sentence begun in 15:3.
- appeared to - “showed himself to”
- five hundred - 500 (See: Numbers)

ULB:

⁸ Last of all, he appeared to me, as if to a child born at the wrong time. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles. I am unworthy to be called an apostle because I persecuted the church of God.

- apostle, apostleship
- worthy, worth, unworthy, worthless
- persecute, persecution
- church, Church
- God

translationNotes:

- Last of all - “Finally, after he had appeared to the others”
- a child born at the wrong time - This is an idiom by which Paul may mean that he became a Christian much later than the other apostles. ¹⁰ But God has been very kind to me, so I am an apostle, and he has done much good through me. Really, I have worked harder than all the other apostles. Still, it was not really I who worked, but God, who gave me the strength. ¹¹ So whether it is the other apostles or I who preached to you, we proclaimed the good news about Christ, and you believed us.

ULB:

¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace in me was not in vain. Instead, I worked harder than all of them. Yet it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹ Therefore whether it is I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

translationWords:

- grace, gracious
- God
- vain, vanity
- preach
- believe, believe in, belief

translationNotes:

- the grace of God I am what I am - God's grace or kindness has made Paul as he is now.
- his grace in me was not in vain - Paul is emphasizing through litotes that God worked through Paul. AT: "because he was kind to me, I was able to do much good work" (See: Litotes)
- the grace of God that is with me - Paul speaks of the work he was able to do because God was kind to him as if that grace were actually doing the work. AT: Possible meanings are 1) this is literally true, and God actually did the work and kindly used Paul as a tool or 2) Paul is using a metaphor and saying that God was kind to let Paul do the work and to make Paul's work have good results. ¹² Now some of you are saying that those who are now dead will not rise anymore. This cannot be true, because we have announced to you that Christ rose from the dead. ¹³ If no one rises from the dead, then God certainly has not raised Christ. ¹⁴ And if he has not raised Christ from the dead, then what we preach makes no sense at all, and what you believe about Christ can do nothing for you in your life or in your death.

ULB:

¹² Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead ones, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain.

ULB:

¹⁵ And we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we testified against God, saying he raised up Christ when he did not. ¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is in vain and you are still in your sins.

translationWords:

- false witness, corrupt witness, false testimony, false report
- testimony, testify
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- Christ, Messiah
- death, die, dead
- faith
- vain, vanity
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul wants them assured that Christ rose from the dead.
- And we are found to be false witnesses about God - Paul is arguing that if Christ did not rise from the dead, then they are bearing false witness or lying about Christ's coming alive again.
- we are found to be - "everyone can see that we are" (See: Idiom)
- your faith is in vain and you are still in your sins - Their faith is based on Christ having risen from the dead, so if that did not happen, their faith will do them no good.

ULB:

²⁴ Then will be the end, when Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father. This is when he will abolish all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵ For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

translationWords:

- kingdom
- God the Father, heavenly Father, Father
- ruler, rulers, rule
- authority
- power, powers
- reign
- adversary, enemy
- death, die, dead

translationNotes:

- General Information: - Here the words “he” and “his” refer to Christ.
- he will abolish all rule and all authority and power - “he will stop those people who rule, who have authority, and who have power from doing what they are doing”
- until he has put all his enemies under his feet - Kings who won wars would put their feet on the necks of those whom they had defeated. AT: “until God has completely destroyed all of Christ's enemies” (See: Idiom)
- The last enemy to be destroyed is death - Paul speaks of death here as if it were a person whom God will kill. AT: “The final enemy that God will destroy is death itself” (UDB) (See: Active or Passive and Personification)

²⁷ For the scriptures say, “God has placed everything under his feet,” that is, Christ’s feet. But it is clear that this does not include God himself. ²⁸ After God has placed all things into Christ’s power, then the Son also will place himself in the power of God the Father, so that God may be the same in relation to everyone and everything.

ULB:

²⁷ For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says “he has put everything,” it is clear that this does not include the one who put everything in subjection to himself. ²⁸ When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him. - God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

translationNotes:

- he has put everything under his feet - Kings who won wars would put their feet on the necks of those whom they had defeated. AT: “God has completely destroyed all of Christ’s enemies.” See how “put ... under his feet” is translated in 15:25. (See: Idiom)
- all things are subjected to him - This can stated as active. AT: “God has made all things subject to Christ” (See: Active or Passive)
- the Son himself will be subjected - This can stated as active. AT: “the Son himself will become subject” (See: Active or Passive)
- the Son himself - In the previous verses he was referred to as “Christ.” AT: “Christ, that is, the Son himself”

²⁹ If there is no resurrection from the dead, as some say, then there is no reason for people to receive baptism for the sake of those who have died, as some do. If God does not bring any dead people back to life, then here is no reason for living people to receive baptism for the sake of those who have died. ³⁰ And we apostles would have no reason to risk our lives every day, as we do, to proclaim the good news if there is no resurrection from the dead.

ULB:

²⁹ Or else what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? ³⁰ And why are we in danger every hour?

translationWords:

- baptize, baptism
- death, die, dead
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- hour

translationNotes:

- Or else what will those do who are baptized for the dead? - Paul wants the Corinthians to understand without him having to tell them. This can be stated in active form. AT: “Otherwise it would be useless for Christians to receive baptism for the dead.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)
- why then are they baptized for them? - Paul wants the Corinthians to understand without him having to tell them. This can be stated in active form. AT: “there is no reason for them to receive baptism on behalf of dead people.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

What the poets wrote would in that case be true: “Let us eat food and drink wine today, because we will die tomorrow.”

ULB:

³¹ I die daily. That is what I declare by my boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³² What do I gain, from a human point of view, if I fought with beasts at Ephesus, if the dead are not raised? “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

translationWords:

- declare, declaration
- boast, boastful
- Christ, Messiah
- Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus
- Lord
- beast
- Ephesus
- death, die, dead
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose

translationNotes:

- I die daily. That is what I declare by my boasting in you - “I boast about you, so everyone knows that I am telling the truth when I say that I die daily”
- I die daily - Possible meanings are that Paul is speaking of (1) daily identifying with Christ’s death for sin by killing his own desire to sin or 2) living each day knowing that people are trying to physically kill him. (See: Metaphor)
- my boasting in you - “the way I tell other people how good you are”
- brothers - Many translations omit this word.
- What do I gain ... if I fought with beasts at Ephesus ... not raised? - Paul wants the Corinthians to understand without him having to tell them. This can be a statement. AT: “I gained nothing ... by fighting with beasts at Ephesus ... not raised.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- I fought with beasts at Ephesus - Paul is referring to something that he actually did. Possible meanings are 1) Paul was speaking figuratively about his arguments with learned pagans or other conflicts with people who wanted to kill him or 2) he was actually put into the arena to fight against dangerous animals. (See: Metaphor)

- Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die - Paul concludes that if there is no further life after death, it is better for us to enjoy this life as we can, for tomorrow our life will end without any further hope.

ULB:

³³ Be not deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.” ³⁴ Sober up! Live righteously! Do not keep sinning. For some of you have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

translationWords:

- deceive, deceit, deception, deceptive
- righteous, righteousness
- sin, sinful, sinner, sinning
- know, knowledge, make known
- shame, shameful, ashamed

translationNotes:

- Bad company corrupts good morals - If you live with bad people, you will act like them. Paul is quoting a common saying.

- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose
- body
- sow, sower, plant

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul gives some specifics about how the resurrection of the believers’ bodies will take place. He gives a picture of natural and spiritual bodies and compares the first man Adam with the last Adam, Christ.
- But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body will they come?” - Possible meanings are 1) The person is asking sincerely or 2) the person is using the question to mock the idea of a resurrection. AT: “But some will say that they cannot imagine how God will raise the dead, and what kind of body God would give them in the resurrection.” (See: Rhetorical Question)
- someone will say - “someone will ask”
- with what kind of body will they come - That is, will it be a physical body or a spiritual body? What shape will the body have? What will the body be made of? Translate using the most general question that someone who wants to know the answers to these questions would ask.
- You are so ignorant! What you sow - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so both instances of “you” here are singular. (See: Forms of You)
- You are so ignorant - “You do not know about this at all”
- What you sow will not start to grow unless it dies - A seed will not grow unless it is first buried underground. In the same way, a person has to die before God can resurrect him. (See: Metaphor)

1 Corinthians 15:37-39

UDB:

³⁷ And what a farmer plants does not look the same as what will come up. It is only a bare seed; it will change into something entirely different. ³⁸ God will give it a new body just as he chooses, and to each seed put into the ground he will give a different body. ³⁹ Not all living creatures are the same. There are human beings, and there are animals on the land of many kinds, and there are the birds and fish. All of them are different.

ULB:

³⁷ And what you sow is not the body that will be, but a bare seed. It may become wheat or something else. ³⁸ But God will give it a body as he chooses, and to each seed its own body. ³⁹ Not all flesh is the same. Instead, there is one flesh of human beings, and another flesh for animals, and another flesh for birds, and another for fish.

translationWords:

- sow, sower, plant
- body
- seed
- flesh

translationNotes:

- what you sow is not the body that will be - Paul uses the metaphor of the seed again to say that God will resurrect the dead body of the believer, but that body will not appear as it was. (See: Metaphor)
- what you sow - Paul is speaking to the Corinthians as if they were one person, so the word “you” here is singular. (See: Forms of You)
- God will give it a body as he chooses - “God will decide what kind of body it will have”
- flesh - In the context of animals, “flesh” may be translated as “body,” “skin,” or “meat.”

translationNotes:

- heavenly bodies - Possible meanings are 1) the sun, moon, stars, and other visible lights in the sky or 2) heavenly beings, such as angels and other supernatural beings.
- earthly bodies - This refers to humans.
- the glory of the heavenly body is one kind and the glory of the earthly is another - “the glory that heavenly bodies have is different from the glory of human bodies”
- glory - Here “glory” refers to the relative brightness to the human eye of objects in the sky.

⁴² It is the same way when people rise from the dead. What goes into the ground has died, but what rises will never die again. ⁴³ When it goes into the ground, it is in the dirt, but when God raises it again, it grows with honor and power. ⁴⁴ What goes into the ground belongs to this earth, but what rises from the dead has God's power. So, there are things that belong to this earth, and there are things that have God's power, which lasts forever.

ULB:

⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, and what is raised is imperishable. ⁴³ It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. ULB:

⁵⁰ Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does what is perishable inherit what is imperishable. ⁵¹ Look! I tell you a secret truth: We will not all die, but we will all be changed.

translationWords:

- flesh
- blood
- inherit, inheritance, heritage, heir
- kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven
- perish, perishing, perishable
- mystery, hidden truth
- death, die, dead

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul wants them to realize that some believers will not die physically but will still get a resurrected body through Christ's victory.
- flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does what is perishable inherit what is imperishable - Possible meanings are 1) the two sentences mean the same thing. AT: "human beings who will surely die cannot inherit the permanent kingdom of God" or 2) the second sentence finishes the thought begun by the first. AT: "weak human beings cannot inherit the kingdom of God. Neither do those who will certainly die inherit a kingdom that will last forever" (See: Parallelism)
- flesh and blood - Those who inhabit a body that is doomed to die. (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)
- inherit - Receiving what God has promised believers is spoken of as if it were inheriting property and wealth from a family member. (See: Metaphor)
- is perishable ... is imperishable - "can rot ... cannot rot." See how these words are translated in 15:42.

translationWords:

- trumpet
- death, die, dead
- raise, rise, risen, arise, arose

translationNotes:

- We will be changed - "God will change us" (See: Active or Passive)
- in the twinkling of an eye - It will happen as fast as it takes for a person to blink his or her eye.
- at the last trumpet - "when the last trumpet sounds"
- imperishable ... this perishable body ... is imperishable - "in a form that cannot rot ... this body that can rot ... cannot rot." See how similar phrases are translated in 15:42.

1 Corinthians 16 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Paul briefly covers many topics in this chapter. It was common in the ancient Near East for the last part of the letter to have personal greetings.

Special concepts in this chapter

Preparation for his coming

Paul tells them to start collecting money every Sunday for a gift for the believers in Jerusalem. He told them he would come to them and hoped to spend the winter with them. He told them to help Timothy when he came. He had hoped Apollos would go to them but Apollos did not think it was the right time. He told them to obey Stephanus, Finally he sent his greetings to everyone. These are practical instructions to help prepare the church for his visit.

1 Corinthians 16:1-2

UDB:

¹ Now I wish to answer your questions about the money that we are collecting for the people in Jerusalem who belong to God. You should do exactly what I told the believers in the churches in Galatia to do. ² Every Sunday, each of you should put some money aside, as you are able, so you will not need any more collections when I come.

ULB:

16 ¹ Now concerning the collection for the believers, as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you are to do. ² On the first day of the week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up as you are able. Do this so that there will be no collections when I come.

translationWords:

- Galatia

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - In his closing notes, Paul reminds the Corinthian believers to collect money for the needy believers in Jerusalem. He reminds them that Timothy will come to them before he goes to Paul.
- for the believers - Paul was collecting money from his churches for the poor Jewish Christians in Jerusalem and Judea.
- as I directed - “as I gave specific instructions”
- store it up - Possible meanings are: 1) “keep it at home” or 2) “leave it with the church”
- so that there will be no collections when I come - “so that you will not have to collect more money while I am with you”

- Ephesus
- Pentecost, Festival of Weeks
- adversary, enemy

translationNotes:

- I do not wish to see you now - Paul is stating that he wants to visit for a long time later, not just for a short time soon.
- Pentecost - Paul would stay in Ephesus until this festival, which came in May or June, 50 days after Passover. He would then travel through Macedonia, and later try to arrive in Corinth before winter started in November.
- a wide door has opened - Paul speaks of the opportunity God has given him to win people to the gospel as if it were a door that God had opened so he could walk through it. (See: Metaphor)

¹⁰ Now when Timothy comes, treat him kindly and see to it that he has nothing to be afraid of, for he is doing the Lord's work, just like I am doing. ¹¹ Do not let anyone treat him as unimportant. Help him on his way as much as you can; send him away in peace so that he may join me. I am expecting him to travel with other brothers who are coming my way.

¹² You asked about our brother Apollos. I urged him strongly that he should visit you when the other brothers came to you. He decided not to come now, but he will come to you later when he has opportunity.

ULB:

¹⁰ Now when Timothy comes, see that he is with you unafraid, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am doing. ¹¹ Let no one despise him. Help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me. For I am expecting him to come along with the brothers. ¹² Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him to visit you with the brothers. But it was not at all his will that he come now. However, he will come when the time is right.

translationWords:

- Timothy
- fear, afraid, fear of Yahweh
- works, deeds, work, acts
- Lord
- peace, peaceful
- brother
- Apollos
- encourage, encouragement

translationNotes:

- see that he is with you unafraid - "see that he has no cause to fear being with you"
- Let no one despise him - Because Timothy was much younger than Paul, sometimes he was not shown the respect he deserved as a minister of the gospel.
- our brother Apollos - Here the word "our" refers to Paul and his readers, so it is inclusive. (See: Inclusive "We")

- love

translationNotes:

- Be watchful, stand fast in the faith, act like men, be strong - Paul is describing what he wants the Corinthians to do as if he was giving four commands to soldiers in war. These four commands mean almost the same thing and are used for emphasis. (See: Parallelism)
- Be watchful - Paul speaks of people being aware of what is happening as if they were guards keeping watch over a city or vineyard. This can be stated more clearly. AT: “Be careful whom you trust” or “Watch out for danger” (See: Metaphor)
- stand fast in the faith - Paul speaks of people continuing to believe in Christ according to his teaching as if they were soldiers refusing to retreat when the enemy attacks. Possible meanings are 1) “keep strongly believing what we have taught you” or 2) “keep strongly trusting in Christ” (See: Metaphor)
- act like men - In the society in which Paul and his audience lived, men usually provided for families by doing the heavy work and fighting against invaders. This can be stated more clearly. AT: “be responsible” (See: Metaphor)
- Let all that you do be done in love - “Everything you do should show people that you love them”

ULB:

¹⁵ You know the household of Stephanas, that they were the first converts in Achaia, and that they have set themselves to the service of the believers. Now I urge you, brothers, ¹⁶ to be in submission to such people and to everyone who helps in the work and labors with us.

translationWords:

- household
- serve, service
- believer
- submit, in submission
- works, deeds, work, acts
- labor, laborer

translationNotes:

- Connecting Statement: - Paul begins to close his letter and sends greetings from other churches, as well as from Prisca, Aquila, and Paul himself.
- household of Stephanas - Stephanas was one of the first believers in the church at Corinth. (See: How to Translate Names)

But many newer ones, including the ULB and UDB, leave it out.

translationWords:

- Paul, Saul
- hand, right hand, to hand over
- love
- grace, gracious
- amen, truly

translationNotes:

- I, Paul, write this with my own hand - Paul was making it clear that the instructions in this letter are from him, even though one of his co-laborers wrote what Paul was saying in the rest of the letter. Paul wrote this last part with his own hand.
- may he be accursed - “may God curse him.” See how “accursed” was translated in 12:3.

A. God has made them rich in every way, in all speech and with all knowledge. [1:5]

Q? What did the church at Corinth not lack?

A. They did not lack any spiritual gift. [1:7]

Q? Why will God strengthen the church at Corinth to the end?

A. He will do this so that they will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. [1:8]

Q? What does Paul urge the Church at Corinth to do?

A. Paul urges them to all agree and for there to be no divisions among them, and that they be joined together with the same mind and by the same purpose. [1:10]

Q? What did Chloe's people report to Paul?

A. Chloe's people reported to Paul that factions had developed among the people of the church at Corinth. [1:11]

Q? What did Paul mean by factions?

A. Paul meant this: Each one of you says, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Christ." [1:12]

Q? Why does Paul thank God that he baptized none of them except Crispus and Gaius?

A. Paul thanks God for this because this would give them no occasion to say that they were baptized into Paul's name. [1:14-15]

Q? What did Christ send Paul to do?

A. Christ sent Paul to preach the gospel. [1:17]

Q? What is the message of the cross to those who are dying?

A. The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying. [1:18]

Q? What is the message of the cross among those whom God is saving?

A. It is the power of God among those whom God is saving. [1:18]

Q? Into what has God turned the wisdom of the world?

A. God has turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness. [1:20]

Q? Why did it please God to save those who believe through the foolishness of preaching?

A. It pleased God to do this because the world in its wisdom did not know God. [1:21]

Q? How many who were wise by human standards or powerful or of noble birth did God call?

A. God didn't call many who were like that. [1:26]

Q? Why did God choose the foolish things of the world and what is weak in the world?

A. He did this to shame the wise and to shame what is strong. [1:27]

Q? What did God do so that no one would have reason to boast before him?

A. God chose what is low and despised in the world and even things that are regarded as nothing. [1:28-29]

Q? Why were the believers in Christ Jesus?

A. They were in Christ Jesus because of what God did. [1:30]

Q? What did Christ Jesus become for us?

A. He became for us wisdom from God—our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. [1:30]

Q? If we are going to boast, in whom should we boast?

A. Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord. [1:31]

1 Corinthians 2

Q? In what manner did Paul come to the Corinthians when he proclaimed the hidden truths of God?

A. Paul did not come with elegant speech or wisdom when he proclaimed the hidden truths of God. [2:1]

Q? What did Paul decide to know when he was among the Corinthians?

A. Paul decided to know nothing except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. [2:2]

Q? Why was Paul's word and his proclamation done with the demonstration of the Spirit and of power rather than with persuasive words of wisdom?

A. This was so that their faith might not be in the wisdom of humans, but in the power of God. [2:4-5]

Q? What wisdom did Paul and those with him speak?

A. They spoke God's wisdom in hidden truth—the hidden wisdom that God predestined before the ages for our glory. [2:7]

Q? If the rulers of Paul's time had known God's wisdom what would they not have done?

A. If those rulers had known God's wisdom they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. [2:8]

Q? How did Paul and those with him know God's wisdom?

A. God revealed those things to them through the Spirit. [2:10]

Q? Who knows the deep things of God?

A. Only the Spirit of God knows the deep things of God. [2:11]

Q? What is one reason that Paul and those with him received the Spirit who is from God?

A. They received the Spirit who is from God so that they might know the things freely given to us by God. [2:12]

Q? Why can't the unspiritual person receive or know the things that belong to the Spirit of God?

A. The unspiritual person can't receive them because they are foolishness to him and he cannot know them because they are spiritually discerned. [2:14]

Q? Whose mind did Paul say the ones who believed in Jesus have?

A. Paul said they have the mind of Christ. [2:16]

1 Corinthians 3

Q? Why did Paul say the Corinthian believers were still fleshly?

A. Paul said they were still fleshly because jealousy and strife existed among them. [3:3]

Q? Who were Paul and Apollos to the Corinthians?

A. They were servants through whom the Corinthians came to believe in Christ. [3:5]

Q? Who gives the growth?

A. God gives the growth. [3:7]

Q? What is the foundation?

A. Jesus Christ is the foundation. [3:11]

Q? What will happen to the work of someone who builds on the foundation of Jesus Christ?

A. His work will be revealed in daylight and in fire. [3:12-13]

Q? What will the fire do to a person's work?

A. The fire will reveal the quality of what each one has done. [3:13]

Q? What will happen if anything a person builds remains after the fire?

A. That person will receive a reward. [3:14]

Q? What will happen to the person whose work is burned up?

A. That person will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, as though escaping through fire. [3:15]

Q? Who are we and what lives in us as believers in Jesus Christ?

A. We are God's temple and the Spirit of God lives in us. [3:16]

Q? What will happen if anyone destroys God's temple?

A. God will destroy the person who destroys God's temple. [3:17]

Q? What does Paul say to him who thinks he is wise in this age?

A. Paul says, "...let him become a "fool" that he may become wise." [3:18]

Q? What does the Lord know about the reasoning of the wise?

A. The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise is futile. [3:20]

Q? Why does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to stop boasting about people?

A. He told them to stop boasting, "For all things are yours," and because, "... you are Christ's, and Christ is God's".. [3:21-23]

1 Corinthians 4

Q? How did Paul say the Corinthians should regard Paul and his companions?

A. The Corinthians should regard them as servants of Christ and stewards of the hidden truths of God. [4:1]

Q? What is one of the requirements for a steward?

A. Stewards must be trustworthy. [2:2]

Q? Who does Paul say is his judge?

A. Paul says the Lord judges him. [4:4]

Q? What will the Lord do when he comes?

A. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. [4:5]

Q? Why did Paul apply these principles to himself and to Apollos?

A. Paul did it for the sake of the Corinthian believers so they might learn the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written," so that none of them would think in favor of one against the other. [4:6]

Q? Why does Paul wish the Corinthian believers did reign?

A. Paul wishes they did reign so that Paul and his companions could be reigning with them. [4:8]

Q? What are three ways Paul contrasts himself and his companions with the Corinthian believers?

A. Paul says, "We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we are held in dishonor. [4:10]"

Q? How did Paul describe the physical condition of the apostles?

A. Paul said they were hungry and thirsty, poorly clothed, brutally beaten and homeless. [4:11]

Q? How did Paul and his companions respond when they were mistreated?

A. When they were attacked, they blessed. When they were persecuted, they endured it. When they were slandered, they spoke with kindness. [4:12]

Q? Why did Paul write these things to the Corinthian believers?

A. He wrote them to correct them as his beloved children. [4:14]

Q? Who does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to imitate?

A. Paul tells them to imitate himself. [4:16]

Q? What was it that Paul sent Timothy to the Corinthian believers to remind them of?

A. Paul sent Timothy to Corinth to remind the believers there of Paul's ways in Christ. [4:17]

Q? How were some of the Corinthian believers acting?

A. Some of them were arrogant, acting as though Paul was not coming to them. [4:18]

Q? In what does the kingdom of God consist?

A. The kingdom of God consists in power. [4:20]

1 Corinthians 5

Q? What report did Paul hear about the church at Corinth?

A. Paul heard that there was sexual immorality there. One of them was sleeping with his father's wife. [5:1]

Q? What did Paul say must be done to that person who sinned with his father's wife?

A. The one who sinned with his father's wife must be removed from among them. [5:2]

Q? How and why was that person who sinned with his father's wife to be removed?

A. When the church at Corinth gathered together in the name of the Lord Jesus they were to hand the sinning man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit might be saved on the day of the Lord. [5:4-5]

Q? To what does Paul compare bad behavior and wickedness?

A. Paul compares them to yeast. [5:8]

Q? What does Paul use as a metaphor for sincerity and truth?

A. Paul uses unleavened bread as a metaphor for sincerity and truth. [5:8]

Q? With whom did Paul tell the Corinthian believers not to associate?

A. Paul wrote to them not to associate with sexually immoral people. [5:9]

Q? Did Paul mean for them not to associate with any sexually immoral people?

A. Paul did not mean the immoral people of this world. You would have to go out of the world to stay away from them [5:10]

Q? With whom did Paul mean for the Corinthian believers not to associate?

A. He meant for them not to associate with anyone who is called a brother or sister in Christ who is sexually immoral, greedy, verbally abusive, a drunkard, a swindler or an idolater. [5:11]

Q? Who are the believers supposed to judge?

A. They are supposed to judge those inside the church. [5:12]

Q? Who judges those outside the church?

A. God judges those who are on the outside. [5:13]

1 Corinthians 6

Q? Who will the saints judge?

A. The saints will judge the world and the angels. [6:2-3]

Q? What does Paul say the saints at Corinth should be able to judge?

A. Paul says they should be able to judge disputes between saints concerning to the matters of this life. [6:1-3]

Q? How are the Corinthian Christians handling their disputes with one another?

A. One believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever. [6:6]

Q? What does the fact that there are disputes among the Corinthian Christians indicate?

A. It indicates that this is a defeat for them. [6:7]

Q? Who will not inherit the kingdom of God?

A. The unrighteous; the sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality, thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, and swindlers will not inherit the kingdom of God. [6:9-10]

Q? What happened to the Corinthian believers who previously practiced unrighteousness?

A. They were cleansed and made holy; made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. [6:11]

Q? What are the two things Paul says he will not allow to master him?

A. Paul says he will not be mastered by food or sex. [6:12-13]

Q? The bodies of believers are members of what?

A. Their bodies are members of Christ. [6:15]

Q? Should believers join themselves to prostitutes?

A. No. May it never be. [6:15]

Q? What happens when someone joins himself to a prostitute?

A. He becomes one flesh with her. [6:16]

Q? What happens when someone joins himself to the Lord?

A. He becomes one spirit with him. [6:17]

Q? Who do people sin against when they are sexually immoral?

A. They sin against their own bodies when they are sexually immoral. [6:18]

Q? Why should believers glorify God with their bodies?

A. They should glorify God with their bodies because their bodies are a temple of the Holy Spirit and because they were bought with a price. [6:19-20]

1 Corinthians 7

Q? Why should each man have his own wife and each woman have her own husband?

A. Because of temptations for many immoral acts each man should have his own wife and each wife should have her own husband. [7:2]

Q? Does a wife or husband have authority over their own body?

A. No. A husband has authority over his wife's body and likewise the wife has authority over her husband's body. [7:4]

Q? When is it appropriate to for a husband and a wife to deprive one another sexually?

A. It is appropriate if both husband and wife mutually agree and set a specific period of time, so that they may devote themselves to prayer. [7:5]

Q? What does Paul say is good for the widows and people who are unmarried to do?

A. Paul says it is good for them to remain unmarried. [7:8]

Q? In what situation should the unmarried and widows get married?

A. They should get married if they burn with passion and cannot exercise self-control. [7:9]

Q? What command does the Lord give to those who are married?

A. The wife should not separate from her husband. If she does separate from her husband she should remain unmarried or be reconciled to him. Also, the husband should not divorce his wife. [7:10-11]

Q? Should a believing husband or wife divorce his or her unbelieving spouse?

A. If the unbelieving husband or wife is content to live with their spouse, the believing spouse should not divorce the unbeliever. [7:12-13]

Q? What should a believer do if their unbelieving partner departs?

A. The believer is to let the unbelieving partner go.. [7:15]

Q? What rule did Paul set in all the churches?

A. The rule was: Let each one live the life the Lord has assigned them, and to which God called them. [7:17]

Q? What counsel did Paul give to the uncircumcised and to the circumcised?

A. Paul said the uncircumcised should not become circumcised and the circumcised should not try to remove the marks of their circumcision. [7:18]

Q? What did Paul say about slaves?

A. If they were a slave when God called them, don't be concerned about it, but if they can become free, they should do so. Even if they were slaves, they are the Lord's freeman. They should not become the slaves of men. [7:21-23]

Q? Why did Paul think it was good for a man who had never married to remain unmarried as Paul was?

A. Paul thought that because of the impending crisis it was good for a man to remain unmarried. [7:26]

Q? What should believers do if they are bound to a woman by a vow of marriage?

A. They should not seek freedom from their vow to marry the woman. [7:27]

Q? Why does Paul say to those who are free from a wife, and those who are unmarried, “Do not seek a wife.”

A. He said this because he wanted to spare them from the many kinds of trouble that those who marry will have while living. [7:28]

Q? Why should those who deal with the world act as though they had no dealings with it?

A. They should act that way because the system of this world is coming to an end. [7:31]

Q? Why is it hard for those Christians who are married to be undivided in their devotion to the Lord?

A. It is hard because a believing husband or wife is concerned about the things of the world, how to please his wife or her husband. [7:33-34]

Q? Who does better than the one who marries his fiancée?

A. The one who chooses not to marry will do even better. [7:38]

Q? For how long is a woman bound to her husband?

A. She is bound to her husband for as long as he lives. [7:39]

Q? If a believing woman’s husband dies, whom may she marry?

A. She may marry whomever she wishes, but only one who is in the Lord. [7:39]

1 Corinthians 8

Q? What subject does Paul begin to address in this chapter?

A. Paul addresses the subject of food sacrificed to idols. [8:1]

Q? What results do knowledge and love cause?

A. Knowledge makes one proud, but love builds up. [8:1]

Q? Is an idol equal to God?

A. No. An idol in this world is nothing, and there is no God but one. [8:4]

Q? Who is the one God?

A. There is only one God the Father. From him are all things, and we live for him. [8:6]

Q? Who is the one Lord?

A. There is one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things exist, and through whom we exist. [8:6]

Q? What happens when some who practiced idol worship eat food as if it had been sacrificed to an idol?

A. Their conscience is corrupted because it is weak. [8:7]

Q? Does the food we eat make us better or worse to God?

A. Food will not recommend us to God. We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it. [8:8]

Q? What should we be careful that our freedom does not become?

A. We should be careful that our freedom does not become a reason for someone who is weak in faith to stumble. [8:9]

Q? What can happen to a brother or sister with a weak conscience if those with an understanding of the true nature of idols are not careful in using their freedom?

A. A brother or sister with a weak conscience can be destroyed. [8:11]

Q? Who do we sin against when we knowingly cause a brother or sister in Christ to stumble because of their weak conscience?

A. We sin against the brother or sister that caused to stumble and we sin against Christ. [8:11-12]

Q? What does Paul say he will do if food causes his brother or sister to stumble?

A. Pauls says if his food causes his brother or sister to stumble, he will never eat meat again. [8:13]

1 Corinthians 9

Q? What proof did Paul offer that he was an apostle?

A. Paul says that because the Corinthian believers were his workmanship in the Lord, they themselves were proof of Paul's apostleship in the Lord. [9:1-2]

Q? What did Paul list as some of the rights of the apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

A. Paul said they had the right to eat and drink, and the right to take along with them a wife who is a believer. [9:4-5]

Q? What examples did Paul give of those who receive benefits or pay from their work?

A. Paul mentions soldiers, one who plants a vineyard, and one who tends a flock as examples of those who receive benefits or pay from their work. [9:7]

Q? What example from the law of Moses did Paul give to support the idea of receiving benefits or pay from one's work?

A. Paul quoted the command, "Do not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the grain." to support his argument. [9:9]

Q? Why did Paul and his companions not claim their right to material benefits from the Corinthians?

A. Paul and his companions did not claim this right so there was no hindrance to the gospel of Christ. [9:12]

Q? What did the Lord command concerning those who proclaim the gospel?

A. The Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living from the gospel. [9:14]

Q? What did Paul say he could not boast about, and why couldn't he boast about it?

A. Paul said he couldn't boast about preaching the gospel because he had to preach the gospel. [9:16]

Q? Why did Paul become a servant to all?

A. Paul became a servant to all in order that he might win more people to God. [9:19]

Q? Who did Paul become like in order to win Jews?

A. Paul became like a Jew in order to win Jews. [9:20]

Q? Who did Paul become like in order to win those outside the law?

A. Paul became like those outside the law in order to win those outside the law. [9:21]

Q? Why did Paul do all things for the gospel's sake?

A. He did this so that he might participate in the blessings of the gospel. [9:23]

Q? How did Paul say to run?

A. Paul said to run to win the prize. [9:24]

Q? What kind of wreath was Paul running to receive?

A. Paul was running so that he might receive a wreath which does not perish. [9:25]

Q? Why did Paul subdue his body and make it a slave?

A. Paul did this so that after he had preached to others, he himself might not be disqualified. [9:27]

1 Corinthians 10

Q? What common experiences did their fathers have in the time of Moses?

A. All were under the cloud and passed through the sea. All were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. [10:1-4]

Q? Who was the spiritual rock that followed their fathers?

A. Christ was the rock that followed them. [10:4]

Q? Why was God not pleased with their fathers in the time of Moses?

A. He was not pleased because their fathers longed for evil things. [10:6]

Q? By what means did God destroy the disobedient people?

A. God destroyed them by snakes, and by an angel of death. [10:9-10]

Q? Why did the things happen and why were they written down?

A. They happened as examples for us and they were written down for our instruction. [10:11]

Q? Has any unique temptation happened to us?

A. No temptation has overtaken us that is not common to all humanity. [10:13]

Q? What has God done to enable us to endure temptation?

A. He has provided the way of escape so that we may be able to endure temptation. [10:13]

Q? From what does Paul warn the Corinthian believers to run away?

A. He warns them to run away from idolatry. [10:14]

Q? What is the cup of blessing the believers bless and what is the bread they break?

A. The cup is a sharing in the blood of Christ. The bread is a sharing in the body of Christ. [10:16]

Q? To whom do the gentile pagans offer their sacrifices?

A. They offer these things to demons and not to God. [10:20]

Q? Since Paul did not want the Corinthian believers to be participants with demons, what does he tell them they cannot do?

A. Paul tells them they cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons and they cannot have fellowship at the table of the Lord and the table of demons. [10:20-21]

Q? What do we risk if we as believers of the Lord also participate with demons?

A. We risk provoking the Lord to jealousy. [10:22]

Q? Should we seek our own good?

A. No. Instead, each one should seek the good of his neighbor. [10:24]

Q? If an unbeliever invites you to eat a meal, and you wish to go, what should you do?

A. You should eat whatever is set before you without asking questions of conscience. [10:27]

Q? If your unbelieving host tells you the food you are about to eat came from a pagan sacrifice why should you not eat it?

A. You shouldn't eat it for the sake of the person who informed you and for the sake of the other person's conscience. [10:28-29]

Q? What should we do to the glory of God?

A. We should do all things, including eating and drinking, to the glory of God. [10:31]

Q? Why should we give no offence to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God?

A. We should give no offence to them so that they may be saved. [10:32-33]

1 Corinthians 11

Q? Who did Paul tell the Corinthian believers to imitate?

A. Paul told them to imitate Paul. [11:1]

Q? Who did Paul imitate?

A. Paul was an imitator of Christ. [11:1]

Q? For what did Paul praise the Corinthian believers?

Q? Who is the head of Christ?

A. God is the head of Christ. [11:3]

Q? Who is the head of man?

A. Christ is the head of every man. [11:3]

Q? Who is the head of a woman?

A. A man is the head of a woman. [11:3]

Q? What happens when a man prays with his head covered?

A. He dishonors his head if he prays with his head covered. [11:4]

Q? What happens when a woman prays with her head uncovered?

A. Any woman who prays with her head uncovered dishonors her head. [11:5]

Q? Why should a man not have his head covered?

A. He should not have his head covered because his is the image and glory of God. [11:7]

Q? For whom was the woman created?

A. The woman was created for the man [11:9]

Q? Why are the woman and the man both dependent on each other?

A. The woman comes from the man, and the man comes from the woman. [11:11-12]

Q? What was the practice of Paul, his associates, and the churches of God concerning women praying?

A. It was their practice for women to pray with their heads covered. [11:10,13,16]

Q? Why must there be factions among the Corinthian Christians?

A. There must be factions among them, so that those who are approved may be recognized among them. [11:19]

Q? What was happening when the Corinthian church came together to eat.

A. When they ate each one ate his own food before the others had their meal. One was hungry and another became drunk. [11:21]

Q? On the night he was betrayed what did the Lord say after he broke the bread?

A. He said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." [11:23,24]

Q? What did the Lord say when he took the cup after the supper?

A. He said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, for the remembrance of me." [11:25]

Q? What are you doing every time you eat this bread and drink this cup?

A. You are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes. [11:26]

Q? Why should a person not eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner?

A. Doing so makes you guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. You are eating and drinking judgment on yourself. [11:27,29]

Q? What happened to many among the Corinthian church who ate the bread and drank the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner?

A. Many among them became sick and ill and some of them died. [11:30]

Q? What does Paul tell the Corinthian believers to do when they come together to eat?

A. He tells them to wait for one another. [11:33]

1 Corinthians 12

Q? About what does Paul want the Corinthian Christians to be informed?

A. Paul wants them to be informed about spiritual gifts. [12:1]

Q? What is one who speaks by the Spirit of God not capable of saying?

A. He cannot say, "Jesus is accursed." [12:3]

Q? How can one say, "Jesus is Lord"?

A. One can only say, "Jesus is Lord" by the Holy Spirit. [12:3]

Q? What does God make possible in every believer?

A. He makes possible in every believer different gifts, different ministries and different kinds of work. [12:4-6]

Q? Why is the outward display of the Spirit given?

A. It is given for the benefit of all. [12:7]

Q? What are some of the gifts given by the Spirit?

A. Some of the gifts are faith, gifts of healing, deeds of power, prophecy, ability to distinguish between spirits, various kinds of tongues and interpretation of tongues. [12:9-10]

Q? Who chooses which gifts each one receives?

A. The Spirit gives the gifts to each one individually, as he chooses. [12:11]

Q? Into what were all Christians baptized?

A. We were all baptized into one body and all were made to drink of one Spirit. [12:13]

Q? Who arranged and designed each part of the body?

A. God arranged each part of the body as he designed it. [12:18]

Q? Can we do without the members of the body that appear to be less honorable?

A. No. The members of the body that appear to be less honorable are essential. [12:22]

Q? What has God done for the members of the body including those that are less honorable?

A. God has joined all the members together, and he gave more honor to those that lacked it. [12:24]

Q? Why did God give more honor to the members of the body that lacked it?

A. He did this so there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another with the same affection. [12:25]

Q? Who has God appointed in the church?

A. In the church God has appointed first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, those who do powerful deeds, gifts of healing, those who provide helps, administrators, and those who speak various kinds of tongues. [12:28]

A. He tells them to seek the greater gifts. [12:31]

Q? What does Paul say he will show the Corinthian Christians?

A. He says he will show them a more excellent way. [12:31]

1 Corinthians 13

Q? What would Paul become if he spoke with tongues of men and of angels but didn't have love?

A. He would become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. [13:1]

Q? What would Paul be if he had the gift of prophecy, understood all hidden truths and knowledge and had great faith, but didn't have love?

A. He would be nothing. [13:2]

Q? How could Paul give all he owned to feed the poor and give his body to be burned and still gain nothing?

A. If he didn't have love he would gain nothing even though he did all these other things. [13:3]

Q? What are some of the characteristics of love?

A. Love is patient and kind; it does not envy or boast; it isn't arrogant or rude. It is not self serving, not easily angered, nor does it keep a count of wrongs. It doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, has confidence concerning all things, and endures all things. [13:4-7]

Q? What are some things that will pass away or cease?

A. Prophecies, knowledge and that which is incomplete will pass away and tongues will cease. [13:8-10]

Q? What will never end?

A. Love never ends. [13:8]

Q? What did Paul say he did when he became an adult?

A. Paul said when he became an adult, he put away childish things. [13:11]

Q? What three things will remain, and which of the three is the greatest?

A. Faith, confidence, and love will remain. The greatest of these is love. [13:13]

1 Corinthians 14

Q? For which spiritual gift did Paul say we should be especially zealous?

A. Paul said we should be especially zealous for prophesy. [14:1]

Q? To whom is one speaking when he speaks in a tongue?

A. He is speaking not to people but to God. [14:2]

Q? Who does the one prophesying build up, and who does the one speaking in tongues build up?

A. The one who prophesies builds up the people, but the one who speaks in tongues builds up himself [14:3-4]

Q? To what does Paul compare speech which one can not understand?

A. He compares it to instruments like the flute or harp that do not make distinctive sounds, and also to a trumpet played with an uncertain sound. [14:7-9]

Q? What does Paul say the Corinthian believers should be zealous to do?

A. He says they should be zealous to excel in building up the church. [14:12]

Q? For what should the one who speaks in a tongue pray?

A. He should pray that he may interpret. [14:13]

Q? What did Paul say his spirit and mind did when he prayed in a tongue?

A. Paul said if he prayed in a tongue, his spirit prayed, but his mind was unfruitful. [14:14]

Q? How did Paul say he was going to pray and sing?

A. Paul said he was going to pray and sing not only with his spirit but also with his mind. [14:15]

Q? What did Paul say he had rather do than speak ten thousand words in a tongue?

A. Paul said he had rather speak five words with his understanding so that he might instruct others. [14:19]

Q? To whom are tongues and prophesying a sign?

A. Tongues are a sign to unbelievers and prophesying is a sign for believers. [14:22]

Q? What would outsiders and unbelievers likely say if they came into the church and all were speaking in tongues?

A. They would likely say the believers were insane. [14:23]

Q? What does Paul say would happen if all in the church were prophesying and an unbeliever or an outsider came in?

A. Pauls says the unbeliever or outsider would be convicted by all he hears, he would be judged by all that was said. [14:24]

Q? What would the unbeliever or outsider do if those prophesying revealed the secrets of his heart?

A. He would fall on his face, worship God and declare that God was really among them. [14:25]

Q? What is Paul's instruction for those who speak in tongues when believers come together?

A. He says only two or three at the most should speak, each one in turn. If there is no one to interpret the tongue let each one of them keep silent in the church. [14:27-28]

Q? What is Paul's instruction to the prophets when the church comes together?

A. Paul says to let two or three prophets speak while the other people listen with discernment to what is said. If another prophet has an insight, the one who is speaking should be silent. [14:29-30]

Q? Where does Paul say the women are not permitted to speak?

A. Paul says in the churches the women are not permitted to speak. [14:34]

Q? What did Paul say the women should do if they desired to learn anything?

A. Paul told them to ask their husbands at home. [14:35]

Q? How did people look on a woman speaking in the church?

A. It was looked on as a disgrace. [14:35]

Q? What did Paul say should be acknowledged by those who think themselves to be prophets or spiritual?

A. Paul said they should acknowledge that the things he wrote to the Corinthian believers were a command of the Lord. [14:37]

Q? How should everything in the Church be done?

A. All things should be done decently and in order. [14:40]

1 Corinthians 15

Q? About what did Paul remind the brothers and sisters?

A. He reminded them about the gospel he proclaimed to them. [15:1]

Q? What condition had to be fulfilled if the Corinthians were to be saved by the gospel Paul preached to them?

A. Paul told them they would be saved if they held firmly to the word he preached to them. [15:2]

Q? What were the parts of the gospel that were of first importance?

A. The parts that were of first importance were that Christ died for our sins according to the scripture and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the scriptures. [15:3]

Q? Who did Christ appear to after he was raised from the dead?

A. After he was raised from the dead, Christ appeared to Cephas, to the Twelve, to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at once, to James, to all the apostles and to Paul. [15:8]

Q? Why did Paul say he was the least of the apostles?

A. He said this because he persecuted the church of God. [15:9]

Q? What did Paul imply some of the Corinthians believers were saying about resurrection?

A. He implied some of them were saying there was no resurrection from the dead. [15:12]

Q? If there is no resurrection from the dead what does Paul say must also be true?

A. Paul says if that is so then even Christ has not been raised from the dead and the preaching of Paul and others like him is in vain and the faith of the Corinthians is also in vain. [15:13-14]

Q? If Christ has not been raised, what happened to those who have died in Christ?

A. They have perished. [15:18]

Q? What does Paul say is true if only in this life we have confidence for the future in Christ?

A. If this is so, Pauls says that of all people, we are most to be pitied. [15:19]

Q? What does Paul call Christ?

A. He calls Christ, “the first fruits of those who have died”. [15:20]

Q? Who was the man by whom death came into the world and who was the man by whom all will be made alive?

A. Adam brought death into the world and by Christ all will be made alive. [15:22]

Q? When will those who belong to Christ be made alive?

A. This will happen when Christ comes. [15:23]

Q? What will happen at the end?

A. Christ will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, when he will abolish all rule and authority and power. [15:24]

Q? How long must Christ reign?

A. He must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. [15:25]

Q? What is the last enemy to be destroyed?

A. Death is the last enemy to be destroyed. [15:26]

Q? Who is not included when it says, “he has put everything under his feet.”

A. The one who put everything in subjection to the Son (himself) is not included as being in subjection (to the Son). [15:27]

Q? What will the Son do so that God the Father may be all in all?

A. The Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him. [15:28]

Q? What did Paul declare they might as well do if the dead are not raised?

A. Paul declared, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.” [15:32].

Q? What does Paul command the Corinthians to do?

A. He commands them to sober up, live righteously and to not keep sinning. [15:34]

Q? What does Paul say to the shame of the Corinthians?

A. He said some of them had no knowledge of God. [15:34]

Q? To what does Paul compare the resurrection of the dead?

A. He compares it to a seed that is sown. [15:35-36]

Q? What must happen to a seed before it starts to grow?

A. It must die. [15:36]

Q? Does the bare seed that is sown resemble the body (plant) that comes from the seed?

A. What you sow does not resemble the body that will be. [15:37]

Q? Is all flesh the same?

A. No. Not all flesh is the same, The flesh of human beings, animals, birds and fish are all different from one another. [15:39]

Q? Are there other types of bodies?

A. There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. [15:40]

Q? Do the sun, moon, and stars all share the same glory?

A. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon and another glory of the stars, and one star differs from another star in glory. [15:41]

Q? How are our perishable bodies sown?

A. They are sown as natural bodies, in dishonor and weakness. [15:42-44]

Q? What is our condition when we are raised from the dead?

A. What is raised is an imperishable spiritual body; raised in glory and power. [15:42-44]

Q? What did the first man Adam become?

A. He became a living soul. [15:45]

Q? What did the last Adam become?

A. He became a life-giving spirit. [15:45]

Q? From where did the first man and the second man come?

A. The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is from heaven. [15:47]

Q? Whose image have we borne and whose image will we bear?

A. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. [15:49]

Q? What cannot inherit the kingdom of God?

A. Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God. [15:50]

Q? What will happen to all of us?

A. We will all be changed. [15:51]

Q? When and how fast will we be changed?

A. When the last trumpet sounds we will be change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, [15:52]

Q? What will happen when this perishable has put on imperishable and this mortal has put on immortality?

A. Death will be swallowed up in victory. [15:54]

Q? What is the sting of death and what is the power of sin?

A. The sting of death is sin and the power of sin is the law. [15:56]

Q? Through whom does God give us the victory?

A. God gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!. [15:57]

Q? What reason does Paul give for telling the Corinthian brothers and sisters to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord?

A. He tells them to do this because they know that their work in the Lord is not in vain. [15:58]

1 Corinthians 16

Q? Who did Paul direct in the same way as the church at Corinth concerning the collection for the saints?

A. Paul directed the churches of Galatia in the same way as the church at Corinth. [16:1]

Q? How did Paul tell the church at Corinth to make their collection?

A. He told them that on the first day of the week, each of them was to put something aside and store it up, as each one was able, so that there would be no collections when Paul came. [16:2]

Q? To whom was the offering going?

A. It was going to the saints at Jerusalem. [16:3]

Q? When was Paul going to come to the church at Corinth?

A. He said he was going to come to them when he passed through Macedonia. [16:5]

Adam

Facts:

Adam was the first person whom God created. He and his wife Eve were made in the image of God.

- God formed Adam from dirt and breathed life into him.
- Adam's name sounds similar to the Hebrew word for "red dirt" or "ground."
- The name "Adam" is the same as the Old Testament word for "mankind" or "human being."
- All people are descendants of Adam and Eve.
- Adam and Eve disobeyed God. This separated them from God and caused sin and death to come into the world.

Examples from the Bible stories:

- [01-09] Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image to be like us."
- [01-10] This man's name was Adam. God planted a garden where Adam could live, and put him there to care for it.
- [01-12] Then God said, "It is not good for man to be alone." But none of the animals could be Adam's helper.
- [02-11] And God clothed Adam and Eve with animal skins.
- [02-12] So God sent Adam and Eve away from the beautiful garden.
- [49-08] When Adam and Eve sinned, it affected all of their descendants.
- [50-16] Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into this world, God cursed it and decided to destroy it.

adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

Definition:

The term “adultery” refers to a sin that involves a married person having sexual relations with someone who is not his spouse. The term “adulterous” describes this kind of behavior or the person who commits this sin.

- The term “adulterer” refers generally to any person who commits adultery.
- Sometimes the term “adulteress” is used to specify that it was a woman who committed adultery.
- Adultery breaks the promises that a husband and wife made to each other in their covenant of marriage.
- God commanded the Israelites to not commit adultery.
- The term “adulterous” is often used in a figurative sense to describe the people of Israel as being unfaithful to God, especially when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the target language does not have one word that means “adultery,” this term could be translated with a phrase such as, “having sexual relations with someone else’s wife” or “being intimate with another person’s spouse.”
- Some languages may have an indirect way of talking about adultery, such as “sleeping with someone else’s spouse” or “being unfaithful to one’s wife.” (See: euphemism)
- When “adulterous” is used in a figurative sense, it is best to translate it literally in order to communicate God’s view of his disobedient people as being compared to an unfaithful spouse. If this does not communicate accurately in the target language, the figurative use of “adulterous” could be translated as “unfaithful” or “immoral” or “like an unfaithful spouse.”

amen, truly

Definition:

The term “amen” is a word used to emphasize or call attention to what a person has said. It is often used at the end of a prayer. Sometimes it is translated as “truly.”

- When used at the end of a prayer, “amen” communicates agreement with the prayer or expresses a desire that the prayer be fulfilled.
- In his teaching, Jesus used “amen” to emphasize the truth of what he said. He often followed that by “and I say to you” to introduce another teaching that related to the previous teaching.
- When Jesus uses “amen” this way, some English versions (and the ULB) translate this as “verily” or “truly.”
- Another word meaning “truly” is sometimes translated as “surely” or “certainly” and is also used to emphasize what the speaker is saying.

Translation Suggestions:

- Consider whether the target language has a special word or phrase that is used to emphasize something that has been said.
- When used at the end of a prayer or to confirm something, “amen” could be translated as, “let it be so” or “may this happen” or “that is true.”
- When Jesus says, “truly I tell you,” this could also be translated as, “Yes, I tell you sincerely” or “That is true, and I also tell you.”
- The phrase, “truly, truly I tell you” could be translated as “I tell you this very sincerely” or “I tell you this very earnestly” or “what I am telling you is true.”

angel, archangel

Definition:

An angel is a powerful spirit being whom God created. Angels exist to serve God by doing whatever he tells them to do. The term “archangel” refers to the angel who rules or leads all the other angels.

- The word “angel” literally means “messenger.”
- The term “archangel” literally means “chief messenger.” The only angel referred to in the Bible as an “archangel” is Michael.
- In the Bible, angels gave messages to people from God. These messages included instructions about what God wanted the people to do.
- Angels also told people about events that were going to happen in the future or events that had already happened.
- Angels have God’s authority as his representatives and sometimes in the Bible they spoke as if God himself was speaking.
- Other ways that angels serve God is by protecting and strengthening people.
- A special phrase, “angel of Yahweh” has more than one possible meaning: 1) It may mean “angel who represents Yahweh” or “messenger who serves Yahweh.” 2) It may refer to Yahweh himself, who looked like an angel as he talked to a person. Either one of these meanings would explain the angel’s use of “I” as if Yahweh himself was talking.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “angel” could include, “messenger from God” or “God’s heavenly servant” or “God’s spirit messenger.”
- The term “archangel” could be translated as “chief angel” or “head ruling angel” or “leader of the angels.”
- Also consider how these terms are translated in a national language or another local language.
- The phrase “angel of Yahweh” should be translated using the words for “angel” and “Yahweh.” This will allow for different interpretations of that phrase. Possible translations could include, “angel from Yahweh” or “angel sent by Yahweh” or “Yahweh who looked like an angel.”

baptize, baptism

Definition:

In the New Testament, the terms “baptize” and “baptism” usually refer to ritually bathing a Christian with water to show that he has been cleansed from sin and has been united with Christ.

- Besides water baptism, the Bible talks about being “baptized with the Holy Spirit” and “baptized with fire.”
- The term “baptism” is also used in the Bible to refer to going through great suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Christians have different views about how a person should be baptized with water. It is probably best to translate this term in a general way that allows for different ways of applying the water.
- Depending on the context, the term “baptize” could be translated as “purify,” “pour out on,” “plunge (or dip) into,” “wash,” or “spiritually cleanse.” For example, “baptize you with water” could be translated as, “plunge you into water.”
- The term “baptism” could be translated as, “purification,” “a pouring out,” “a dipping,” “a cleansing,” or “a spiritual washing.”
- When it refers to suffering, “baptism” could also be translated as “a time of terrible suffering” or “a cleansing through severe suffering.”
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language.

beast

Facts:

In the Bible, the term “beast” is often just another way of saying “animal.”

- A wild beast is a type of animal that lives freely in the forest or fields and has not been trained by people.
- A domestic beast is an animal that lives with people and is kept for food or for performing work, such as plowing fields. Often the term “livestock” is used to refer to this kind of animal.
- The Old Testament book of Daniel and the New Testament book of Revelation describe visions which have beasts that represent evil powers and authorities that oppose God. (See: Metaphor)
- Some of these beasts are described as having strange features, such as several heads and many horns. They often have power and authority, indicating that they may represent countries, nations, or other political powers.
- Ways to translate this could include, “creature” or “created thing” or “animal” or “wild animal,” depending on the context.

believe, believe in, belief

Definition:

The terms “believe” and “believe in” are closely related, but have slightly different meanings:

1. believe

- To believe something is to accept or trust that it is true.
- To believe someone is to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

2. believe in

- To “believe in” someone means to “trust in” that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he always speaks the truth, and that he will do what he has promised to do.
- When a person truly believes in something, he will act in such a way that shows that belief.
- The phrase “have faith in” usually has the same meaning as “believe in.”
- To “believe in Jesus” means to believe that he is the Son of God, that he is God himself who also became human and who died as a sacrifice to pay for our sins. It means to trust him as Savior and live in a way that honors him.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “believe” could be translated as to “know to be true” or “know to be right.”
- To “believe in” could be translated as, “trust completely” or “trust and obey” or “completely rely on and follow.”

bless, blessed, blessing

Definition:

To “bless” someone or something means to cause good and beneficial things to happen to the person or thing that is being blessed.

- Blessing someone also means expressing a desire for positive and beneficial things to happen to that person.
- In Bible times, a father would often pronounce a formal blessing on his children.
- When people ‘bless’ God or express a desire that God be blessed, this means they are praising him.
- The term “bless” is sometimes used for consecrating food before it is eaten, or for thanking and praising God for the food.

from comment below: It is important to not define, focus on, or be confined by applications of the root word of “bless” that suggest primarily the flourishing or abundance of material things or physical wellness. Consider the extensive teachings in Scripture on God’s love, mercy and grace that is not only ancient, but current. Consider care, protection, and presence of God’s Spirit. And for us to bless God, we can offer thankfulness, appreciation, and understanding as we learn of and follow (obey) him.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “bless” could also be translated as, “to provide abundantly for” or “to be very kind and favorable toward.”
- “God has brought great blessing to” could be translated as, “God has given many good things to” or “God has provided abundantly for” or “God has caused many good things to happen to”.
- “He is blessed” could be translated as “he will greatly benefit” or “he will experience good things” or “God will cause him to flourish.”
- “Blessed is the person who” could be translated as “How good it is for the person who.”
- Expressions like, “blessed be the Lord” could be translated as, “May the Lord be praised” or “Praise the Lord” or “I praise the Lord.”
- In the context of blessing food, this could be translated as, “thanked God for the food” or “praised God for giving them food” or “consecrated the food by praising God for it.”

blood

Definition:

The term “blood” refers to the red liquid that comes out of a person’s skin when there is an injury or wound. Blood brings life-giving nutrients to a person’s entire body.

- Blood symbolizes life and when it is shed or poured out, it symbolizes the loss of life, or death.
- When people made sacrifices to God, they killed an animal and poured its blood on the altar. This symbolized the sacrifice of the animal’s life to pay for people’s sins.
- Through his death on the cross, Jesus’ blood symbolically cleanses people from their sins and pays for the punishment they deserve for those sins.
- The expression “flesh and blood” refers to human beings.
- The expression “own flesh and blood” refers to people who are biologically related.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term should be translated with the term that is used for blood in the target language
- The expression “flesh and blood” could be translated as “people” or “human beings.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “my own flesh and blood” could be translated as “my own family” or “my own relatives” or “my own people.”
- If there is an expression in the target language that is used with this meaning, that expression could be used to translate “flesh and blood.”

boast, boastful

Definition:

The term “boast” means to talk proudly about something or someone. Often it means to brag about oneself.

- Someone who is “boastful” talks about himself in a proud way.
- God rebuked the Israelites for “boasting in” their idols. They arrogantly worshiped false gods instead of the true God.
- The Bible also talks about people boasting in such things as their wealth, their strength, their fruitful fields, and their laws. This means that they were proud about these things and did not acknowledge that God is the one who provided these things.
- God urged the Israelites to instead “boast” or be proud about the fact that they know him.
- The apostle, Paul also talks about boasting in the Lord, which means being glad and thankful to God for all he has done for them.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “boast” could include “brag” or “talk proudly” or “be proud.”
- The term “boastful” could be translated by a word or phrase that means, “full of prideful talk” or “prideful” or “talking proudly about oneself.”
- In the context of boasting in or about knowing God, this could be translated as “take pride in” or “exalt in” or “be very glad about” or “give thanks to God about.”
- Some languages have two words for “pride”: one that is negative, with the meaning of being arrogant, and the other that is positive, with the meaning of taking pride in ones’ work, family, or country.

body

Definition:

The term “body” literally refers to the physical body of a person or animal. This term is also used figuratively to refer to an object or whole group that has individual members.

- Often the term “body” refers to a dead person or animal. Sometimes this is referred to as a “dead body” or a “corpse.”
- When Jesus said to the disciples at his last Passover meal, “This (bread) is my body,” he was referring to his physical body that would be “broken” (killed) to pay for their sins.
- In the Bible, Christians as a group are referred to as the “body of Christ.”
- Just as a physical body has many parts, the “body of Christ” has many individual members.
- Each individual believer has a special function in the body of Christ to help the whole group work together to serve God and bring him glory.
- Jesus is also referred to as the “head” (leader) of the “body” of his believers. Just as a person’s head tells his body what to do, so Jesus is the one who guides and directs Christians as members of his “body.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The best way to translate this term would be with the word that is most commonly used to refer to a physical body in the project language. Make sure that the word used is not an offensive term.
- When referring collectively to believers, for some languages it may be more natural and accurate to say, “spiritual body of Christ.”
- When Jesus says, “This is my body” it is best to translate this literally, with a note to explain it if needed.
- Some languages may have a separate word when referring to a dead body, such as “corpse” for a person or “carcass” for an animal. Make sure the word used to translate this makes sense in the context and is acceptable.

bind, bond, bound

Definition:

The term “bind” means to tie something or fasten it securely. Something that is tied or joined together is called a “bond.” The term “bound” is the past tense of this term.

- To be “bound” means to have something tied or wrapped around something else.
- In a figurative sense, a person can be “bound” to a vow, which means he is “required to fulfill” what he promised to do.
- The term “bonds” refers to anything that binds, confines, or imprisons someone. It usually refers to physical chains, fetters or ropes that keep a person from being free to move.
- In Bible times, bonds such as ropes or chains were used to attach prisoners to the wall or floor of a stone prison.
- The term “bind” can also be used to talk about wrapping cloth around a wound to help it heal.
- A dead person would be “bound” with cloth in preparation for burial.
- The term “bond” is used figuratively to refer to something, such as sin, that controls or enslaves someone.
- A bond can also be a close relationship between people in which they support each other emotionally, spiritually and physically. This applies to the bond of marriage.
- For example, a husband and wife are “bound” or tied to each other. It is a bond that God does not want broken.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “bind” could also be translated as “tie” or “tie up” or “wrap (around).”
- Figuratively, it could be translated as, “to restrain” or “to prevent” or “to keep from (something).”
- A special use of “bind” in Matthew 16 and 18 means “forbid” or “not permit.”
- The term “bonds” could be translated as “chains” or “ropes” or “shackles.”
- Figuratively the term “bond” could be translated as “knot” or “connection” or “close relationship.”
- The phrase, “bond of peace” means, “being in harmony, which brings people in closer relationship to each other” or “the tying together that peace brings.”
- To “bind up” could be translated as, “wrap around” or “put a bandage on.”
- To “bind” oneself with a vow could be translated as, “promise to fulfill a vow” or “commit to fulfill a vow.”
- Depending on the context, the term “bound” could also be translate as, “tied” or “tied up” or “chained” or “obligated (to fulfill)” or “required to do.”

bread

Definition:

Bread is a food made from flour mixed with water and oil to form a dough. The dough is then shaped into a loaf and baked.

- When the term “loaf” occurs by itself, it means, “loaf of bread.”
- Bread dough is usually made with something that makes it rise, such as yeast.
- Bread can also be made without yeast so that it does not rise. In the Bible this is called “unleavened bread” and was used for the Jews’ passover meal.
- Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, this term is also used in the Bible to refer to food in general. (See: Synecdoche)
- The term “bread of the presence” referred to twelve loaves of bread that were placed on a golden table in the tabernacle or temple building as a sacrifice to God. These loaves represented the twelve tribes of Israel and were only for the priests to eat. This could be translated as “bread showing that God lived among them.”
- The figurative term, “bread from heaven” referred to the special white food called “manna” that God provided for the Israelites when they were wandering through the desert.
- Jesus also called himself the “bread that came down from heaven” and the “bread of life.”
- When Jesus and his disciples were eating the Passover meal together before his death, he compared the unleavened Passover bread to his body which would be wounded and killed on a cross.
- Many times the term “bread” can be translated more generally as “food.”

brother

Definition:

The term “brother” usually refers to a male person who shares at least one biological parent with another person.

- In the Old Testament, the term “brothers” is also used as a general reference to relatives, such as members of the same tribe, clan, or people group.
- In the New Testament, the apostles often used “brothers” to refer to fellow Christians, including both men and women, since all believers in Christ are members of one spiritual family, with God as their heavenly Father.
- A few times in the New Testament, the apostles used the term “sister” when referring specifically to a fellow Christian who was a woman, or to emphasize that both men and women are being included. For example, James emphasizes that he is talking about all believers when he refers to “a brother or sister who is in need of food or clothing.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological brother, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- In the Old Testament especially, when “brothers” is used very generally to refer to members of the same family, clan, or people group, possible translations could include, “relatives” or “clan members” or “fellow Israelites.”
- In the context of referring to a fellow believer in Christ, this term could be translated as, “brother in Christ” or “spiritual brother.”
- If both males and females are being referred to and “brother” would give a wrong meaning, then a more general kinship term could be used that would include both males and females.
- Other ways to translate this term so that it refers to both male and female believers could be, “fellow believers” or “Christian brothers and sisters.”
- Make sure to check the context to determine whether only men are being referred to, or whether both men and women are included.

bury, buried, burial

Definition:

The term “bury” usually refers to putting a dead body into a hole or other burial place. The term “burial” is the act of burying something or can be used to describe a place used to bury something.

- Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
- Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin before burying it.
- In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
- The terms “burial place” or “burial room” or “burial chamber” or “burial cave” are all ways to refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
- Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
- The phrase “buried his face” usually means, “covered his face with his hands.”
- Sometimes the word “hide” can mean “bury” as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

call, calling, called, call out

Definition:

The terms “call” and “call out” literally means to say something loudly to someone who is not nearby. There are also several figurative meanings.

- To “call out” to someone means to shout or speak loudly to someone far away. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- Often in the Bible, “call” has a meaning of “summon” or “command to come” or “request to come.”
- God calls people to come to him and be his people. This is their “calling.”
- The term “called” is used in the Bible to mean that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.
- This term is also used in the context of calling someone a name. For example, “He is called John,” means, “He is named John” or “His name is John.”
- To be “called by the name of” means that someone is given the name of someone else. God says that he has called his people by his name.
- A different expression, “I have called you by name” means that God knows a person’s name personally and has specifically chosen him.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “call” could be translated by a word that means “summon,” which includes the idea of being intentional or purposeful in calling.
- The expression “call out to you” could be translated as “ask you for help” or “pray to you urgently.”
- When the Bible says that God has “called” us to be his servants, this could be translated as, “specially chose us” or “appointed us” to be his servants.
- “You must call his name” can also be translated as, “you must name him.”
- “His name is called” could also be translated as, “his name is” or “he is named.”
- To “call out” could be translated as, “say loudly” or “shout” or “say with a loud voice.” Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.
- The expression “your calling” could be translated as “your purpose” or “God’s purpose for you” or “God’s special work for you.”
- To “call on the name of the Lord” could be translated as “seek the Lord and depend on him” or “trust in the Lord and obey him.”
- To “call for” something could be translated by “demand” or “ask for” or “command.”
- The expression “you are called by my name” could be translated as, “I have given you my name, showing that you belong to me.”
- When God says, “I have called you by name,” this could be translated as, “I know your name and have chosen you.”

children, child

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “child” is often used to generally refer to someone who is young in age, including an infant. The term “children” is the plural form and also has several figurative uses.

- In the Bible, disciples or followers are sometimes called “children.”
- Often the term “children” is used to refer to a person’s descendants.
- The phrase “children of” can refer to being characterized by something. Some examples of this would be:
 - children of the light
 - children of obedience
 - children of the devil
- This term can also refer to people who are like spiritual children. For example, “children of God” refers to people who belong to God through faith in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “children” could be translated as “descendants” when it is referring to a person’s great-grandchildren or great-great-grandchildren, etc.
- Depending on the context, “children of” could be translated as, “people who have the characteristics of” or “people who behave like.”
- If possible, the phrase, “children of God” should be translated literally since an important biblical theme is that God is our heavenly Father. A possible translation alternate would be, “people who belong to God” or “God’s spiritual children.”
- When Jesus calls his disciples “children,” this could also be translated as, “dear friends” or “my beloved disciples.”
- When Paul and John refer to believers in Jesus as “children,” this could also be translated as “dear fellow believers.”
- The phrase, “children of the promise” could be translated as, “people who have received what God promised them.”

Christ, Messiah

Facts:

The terms “Messiah” and “Christ” mean “Anointed One” and refer to Jesus, God’s Son.

- Both “Messiah” and “Christ” are used in the New Testament to refer to God’s Son, whom God the Father appointed to rule as king over his people, and to save them from sin and death.
- In the Old Testament, the prophets wrote prophecies about the Messiah hundreds of years before he came to earth.
- Often a word meaning “anointed (one)” is used in the Old Testament to refer to the Messiah who would come.
- Jesus fulfilled many of these prophecies and did many miraculous works that proved he is the Messiah; the rest of these prophecies will be fulfilled when he returns.
- The word “Christ” is often used as a title, as in “the Christ” and “Christ Jesus.”
- “Christ” also came to be used as part of his name, as in “Jesus Christ.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using its meaning, “the Anointed One” or “God’s Anointed Savior.”
- Many languages use a transliterated word that looks or sounds like “Christ” or “Messiah.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- The transliterated word could be followed by the definition of the term as in, “Christ, the Anointed One.”
- Be consistent in how this is translated throughout the Bible so that it is clear that the same term is being referred to.
- Make sure the translations of “Messiah” and “Christ” work well in contexts where both terms occur in the same verse (such as John 1:41).

- [46-06] Saul reasoned with the Jews, proving that Jesus was the Messiah.

Christian

Definition:

Some time after Jesus went back to heaven, people made up the name “Christian” which means, “follower of Christ.”

- It was in the city of Antioch where Jesus’ followers were first called “Christians.”
- A Christian is a person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God, and who trusts Jesus to save him from his sins.
- In our modern times, often the term “Christian” is used for someone who identifies with the Christian religion, but who is not really following Jesus. This is not the meaning of “Christian” in the Bible.
- Because the term “Christian” in the Bible always refers to someone who truly believes in Jesus, a Christian is also called a “believer.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated as “Christ-follower” or “follower of Christ” or perhaps something like, “Christ-person.”
- Make sure that the translation of this term is translated differently than terms used for disciple or apostle.
- Be careful to translate this term with a word that can refer to everyone who believes in Jesus, not just certain groups.
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)

- [47-14] Paul and other Christian leaders traveled to many cities, preaching and teaching people the good news about Jesus.
- [49-15] If you believe in Jesus and what he has done for you, you are a Christian!
- [49-16] If you are a Christian, God has forgiven your sins because of what Jesus did.
- [49-17] Even though you are a Christian, you will still be tempted to sin.

- [50-03] Before he returned to heaven, Jesus told Christians to proclaim the good news to people who have never heard it.
- [50-11] When Jesus returns, every Christian who has died will rise from the dead and meet him in the sky.

church, Church

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term “church” refers to a local group of believers in Jesus who regularly met together to pray and hear God’s word preached. The term “the Church” often refers to all Christians.

- This term literally refers to a “called out” assembly or congregation of people who meet together for a special purpose.
- When this term is used to refer to all believers everywhere in the whole body of Christ, some Bible translations capitalize the first letter (“Church”) to distinguish it from the local church.
- Often the believers in a particular city would meet together in someone’s home. These local churches were given the name of the city such as the “church at Ephesus.”
- In the Bible, “church” does not refer to a building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “church” could be translated as a “gathering together” or “assembly” or “congregation” or “ones who meet together.”
- The word or phrase that is used to translate this term should also be able to refer to all believers, not just one small group.
- Make sure that the translation of “church” does not just refer to a building.
- The term used to translate “assembly” in the Old Testament could also be used to translate this term.
- Also consider how it is translated in a local or national Bible translation. (See: How to Translate Unknowns.)

- [46-10] So the church in Antioch prayed for Barnabas and Saul and placed their hands on them. Then they sent them off to preach the good news of Jesus in many other places.

- [47-13] The good news of Jesus kept spreading, and the Church kept growing.
- [50-01] For almost 2,000 years, more and more people around the world have been hearing the good news about Jesus the Messiah. The Church has been growing.

circumcise, circumcision

Definition:

The term “circumcise” means to cut off the foreskin of a man or male child. A circumcision ceremony may be performed in connection with this.

- God commanded Abraham to circumcise every male among his family and servants as a sign of God’s covenant with them.
- God also commanded Abraham’s descendants to continue to do this for every baby boy born into their households.
- The phrase, “circumcision of the heart” refers figuratively to the “cutting away” or removal of sin from a person.
- In a spiritual sense, “the circumcised” refers to people whom God has purified from sin through the blood of Jesus and who are his people.
- The term “uncircumcised” refers to those who have not been circumcised physically. It can also refer figuratively to those who have not been circumcised spiritually, who do not have a relationship with God.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the culture of the target language performs circumcisions on males, the word used to refer to this should be used for this term.
- Other ways to translate this term would be, “cut around” or “cut in a circle” or “cut off the foreskin.”
- In cultures where circumcision is not known, it may be necessary to explain it in a footnote or glossary.
- Make sure the term used to translate this does not refer to females. It may be necessary to translate this with a word or phrase that includes the meaning of “male.”

clean, cleanse

Definition:

The term “clean” literally means to not have any dirt or stain. In the Bible, it is often used figuratively to mean, “pure,” “holy,” or “free from sin.”

- “Cleanse” is the process of making something “clean.” It could also be translated as “wash” or “purify.”
- In the Old Testament, God told the Israelites which animals he had specified as ritually “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” Only the clean animals were permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice. In this context, the term “clean” means that the animal was acceptable to God for use as a sacrifice.
- A person who had certain skin diseases would be unclean until the skin was healed enough to no longer be contagious. Instructions for cleansing the skin had to be obeyed in order for that person to be declared “clean” again.
- Sometimes “clean” is used figuratively to refer to moral purity.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated with the common word for “clean” or “pure” (in the sense of being not dirty).
- Other ways to translate this could include, “ritually clean” or “acceptable to God.”
- “Cleanse” could be translated by “wash” or “purify.”
- Make sure that the words used for “clean” and “cleanse” can also be understood in a figurative sense.

comfort, comforter

Definition:

The terms “comfort” and “comforter” refer to helping someone who is suffering physical or emotional pain.

- A person who comforts someone is called a “comforter.”
- In the Old Testament, the term “comfort” is used to describe how God is kind and loving to his people and helps them when they are suffering.
- In the New Testament, it says that God will comfort his people through the Holy Spirit. Those who receive the comfort are then enabled to give the same comfort to others who are suffering.
- The expression “comforter of Israel” referred to the Messiah who would come to rescue his people.
- Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as the “Comforter” who helps believers in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “comfort” could also be translated as, “ease the pain of” or “help (someone) overcome grief” or “encourage” or “console.”
- A phrase such as “our comfort” could be translated as “our encouragement” or “our consoling of (someone)” or “our help in times of grieving.”
- The term “comforter” could be translated as “person who comforts” or “someone who helps ease pain” or “person who encourages.”
- When the Holy Spirit is called “the Comforter” this could also be translated as “the Encourager” or “the Helper” or “the One who helps and guides.”
- The phrase “comforter of Israel” could be translated as, “the Messiah, who comforts Israel.”
- An expression like, “they have no comforter” could also be translated as, “No one has comforted them” or “There is no one to encourage or help them.”

command, to command, commandment

Definition:

The term “to command” means to order someone to do something. A “command” or “commandment” is what the person was ordered to do.

- Although these terms have basically the same meaning, “commandment” often refers to certain commands of God which are more formal and permanent, such as the “Ten Commandments.”
- A command can be positive (“Honor your parents”) or negative (“Do not steal”).
- To “take command” means to “take control” or “take charge” of something or someone.

Translation Suggestions

- It is best to translate this term differently from the term, “law.” Also compare with the definitions of “decree” and “statute.”
- Some translators may prefer to translate “command” and “commandment” with the same word in their language.
- Others may prefer to use a special word for commandment that refers to lasting, formal commands that God has made.

confidence, confident

Definition:

The term “confidence” refers to being sure that something is true or certain to happen.

- In the Bible, the term “hope” often means to wait expectantly for something that is sure to happen. The ULB often translates this as “confidence” or “confidence for the future” or “future confidence” especially when it means to be assured of receiving what God has promised to believers in Jesus.
- Often the term “confidence” refers especially to the certainty that believers in Jesus have that they will someday be with God forever in heaven.
- The phrase, “have confidence in God” means to fully expect to receive and experience what God has promised.
- Being “confident” means believing in God’s promises and acting with the assurance that God will do what he has said. This term can also have the meaning of acting boldly and courageously.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “confident” could be translated as “assured” or “very sure.”
- The phrase “be confident” could also be translated as “trust completely” or “be completely sure about” or “know for certain.”
- The term “confidently” could also be translated as “boldly” or “with certainty.”
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “confidence” could include, “complete assurance” or “sure expectation” or “certainty.”

conscience

Definition:

The conscience is the part of a person's thinking through which God makes him aware that he is doing something sinful.

- God gave people a conscience to help them know the difference between what is right and what is wrong.
- A person who obeys God is said to have a "pure" or "clear" or "clean" conscience.
- If a person has a "clear conscience" it means that he is not hiding any sin.
- If someone ignores their conscience and no longer feels guilty when he sins, this means his conscience is no longer sensitive to what is wrong. The Bible calls this a "seared" conscience, one that is "branded" as if with a hot iron. Such a conscience is also called "insensitive" and "polluted."
- Possible ways to translate this term could include, "inner moral guide" or "moral thinking."

create, creation, Creator

Definition:

The term “create” means to make something, or to cause something to be. Whatever is created is called a “creation.” God is called the “Creator” because he caused everything in the entire universe to come into existence.

- When this term is used to refer to God creating the world, it means he made it out of nothing.
- When human beings “create” something, it means they made it out of things that already existed.
- Sometimes “create” is used in a figurative way to describe something abstract, such as creating peace or creating a pure heart in someone.
- The term “creation” can refer to the very beginning of the world when God first created everything. It can also be used to refer generally to everything that God created. Sometimes the word “creation” refers more specifically to just the people in the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may have to directly say that God created the world “out of nothing” to make sure this meaning is clear.
- The phrase, “since the creation of the world” means, “since the time when God created the world.”
- A similar phrase, “at the beginning of creation” could be translated as, “when God created the world at the beginning of time” or “when the world was first created.”
- To preach the good news “to all creation” means to preach the good news “to all people everywhere on earth.”
- The phrase, “Let all creation rejoice” means, “Let everything that God created rejoice.”
- Depending on the context, “create” could be translated as, “make” or “cause to be” or “make out of nothing.”
- The term “the Creator” could be translated as, “the One who created everything” or “God, who made the whole world.”
- Phrases like “your Creator” could be translated as, “God, who created you.”

CROSSDefinition:

In Bible times, a cross was an upright wooden post stuck into the ground, with a horizontal wooden beam attached to it near the top.

- During the time of the Roman Empire, the Roman government would execute criminals by tying or nailing them to a cross and leaving them there to die.
- Jesus was falsely accused of crimes he did not commit and the Romans put him to death on a cross.
- Note that this is a completely different word from the verb “cross” that means to go over to the other side of something, such as a river or lake.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using a term in the target language that refers to the shape of a cross.
- Consider describing the cross as something on which people were killed, using phrases such as “execution post” or “tree of death.”
- Also consider how this word is translated in a Bible translation in a local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)

darkness

Definition:

The term “darkness” literally means an absence of light. There are also several figurative meanings of this term:

- As a metaphor, “darkness” means “impurity” or “evil” or “spiritual blindness.”
- It also refers to anything related to sin and moral corruption.
- The expression, “dominion of darkness” refers to all that is evil and ruled by Satan.
- The term “darkness” can also be used as a metaphor for death. (See: Metaphor)
- People who do not know God are said to be “living in darkness,” which means they do not understand or practice righteousness.
- God is light (righteousness) and the darkness (evil) cannot overcome that light.
- The place of punishment for those who reject God is sometimes referred to as “outer darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally, with a word in the project language that refers to the absence of light. This could also be a term that refers to the darkness of a room with no light or to the time of day when there is no light.
- For the figurative uses, it is also important to keep the image of darkness in contrast to light, as a way to describe evil and deception in contrast to goodness and truth.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could be, “darkness of night” (as opposed to “light of day”) or “not seeing anything, like at night” or “evil, like a dark place”.

day of the Lord, day of Yahweh

Description:

The Old Testament term “day of Yahweh” is used to refer to a specific time(s) when God would punish people for their sin.

- The New Testament term “day of the Lord” usually refers to the day or time when the Lord Jesus will come back to judge people at the end of time.
- This final, future time of judgment and resurrection, is also sometimes referred to as the “last day.” This time will begin when the Lord Jesus comes back to judge sinners and will permanently establish his rule.
- The word “day” in these phrases may sometimes refer to a literal day or it may refer to a “time” or “occasion” that is longer than a day.
- Sometimes the punishment is referred to as a “pouring out of God’s wrath” upon those who do not believe.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “day of Yahweh” could include, “time of Yahweh” or “time when Yahweh will punish his enemies” or “time of Yahweh’s wrath.”
- Other ways to translate “day of the Lord” could include “time of the Lord’s judgment” or “time when the Lord Jesus will return to judge people.”

death, die, dead

Definition:

This term is used to refer to both physical and spiritual death. Physically, it refers to when the physical body of a person stops living. Spiritually, it refers to sinners being separated from a holy God because of their sin.

1. Physical death

- To “die” means to stop living. Death is the end of physical life.
- A person’s spirit leaves his body when he dies.
- When Adam and Eve sinned, physical death came into the world.
- The expression “put to death” refers to killing or murdering someone, especially when a king or other ruler gives an order for someone to be killed.

2. Spiritual death

- Spiritual death is the separation of a person from God.
- Adam died spiritually when he disobeyed God. His relationship with God was broken. He became ashamed and tried to hide from God.
- Every descendant of Adam is a sinner, and is spiritually dead. God makes us spiritually alive again when we have faith in Jesus Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- To translate this term, it is best to use the everyday, natural word or expression that refers to death in the target language.
- In some languages, “to die” may be expressed as “to not live.” The term “dead” may be translated as “not alive” or “not having any life” or “not living.”
- Many languages use figurative expressions to describe death, such as “to pass away” in English. However in the Bible it is best to use the most direct term for death that is used in everyday language.
- In the Bible, physical life and death are often compared to spiritual life and death. It is important in a translation to use the same word or phrase for both physical death and spiritual death.
- In some languages it may be more clear to say “spiritual death” when the context requires that meaning. Some translators may also feel it is best to say “physical death” in contexts where it is being contrasted to spiritual death.
- The expression, “the dead” is a nominal adjective that refers to people who have died. Some languages will translate this as, “dead people” or “people who have died.” (See: nominal adjective)
- The expression, “put to death” could also be translated as, “kill” or “murder” or “execute.”

The terms “fear” and “afraid” refer to the unpleasant feeling a person has when there is a threat of harm to himself or others.

- The term “fear” can also refer to a deep respect and awe for a person in authority.
- The phrase “fear of Yahweh,” and related terms “fear of God” and “fear of the Lord,” refer to deeply respecting God and showing that respect by obeying him. This fear is motivated by knowing that God is holy and hates sin.
- The Bible teaches that a person who fears Yahweh will become wise.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “to fear” can be translated as “to be afraid” or “to deeply respect” or “to revere” or “to be in awe of.”
- The term “afraid” could be translated as “terrified” or “scared” or “fearful.”
- The sentence, “The fear of God fell on all of them” could be translated as, “Suddenly they all felt a deep awe and respect for God” or “Immediately, they all felt very amazed and revered God deeply” or “Right then, they all felt very afraid of God (because of his great power).”
- The phrase “fear not” could also be translated as, “do not be afraid” or “stop being afraid.”
- Note that the phrase “fear of Yahweh” does not occur in the New Testament. The phrase “fear of the Lord” or “fear of the Lord God” would be used instead.

fellowship

Definition:

In general, the term “fellowship” refers to friendly interactions between members of a group of people who share similar interests and experiences.

- In the Bible, the term “fellowship” usually refers to the unity of believers in Christ.
- Christian fellowship is a shared relationship that believers have with one another through their relationship with Christ and the Holy Spirit.
- The early Christians expressed their fellowship through listening to the teaching of God’s Word and praying together, through the sharing of their belongings, and eating meals together.
- Christians also have fellowship with God through their faith in Jesus and his sacrificial death on the cross which removed the barrier between God and people.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “fellowship” could include, “a sharing together” or “relationship” or “companionship” or “Christian community.”

festival

Definition:

In general, a festival is a celebration held by a community of people.

- The word for “festival” in the Old Testament literally means “appointed time.”
- The festivals celebrated by the Israelites were specially appointed times or seasons that God had commanded them to observe.
- In some English translations, the word “feast” is used instead of festival because the celebrations included having a large meal together.
- There were several main festivals that the Israelites celebrated every year:
 - Passover
 - Festival of Unleavened Bread
 - Firstfruits
 - Festival of Weeks (Pentecost)
 - Festival of Trumpets
 - Day of Atonement
 - Festival of Shelters
- The purpose of these festivals was to thank God and to remember the amazing things he had done to rescue, protect, and provide for his people.

fireDefinition:

Fire is the heat, light, and flames that are produced when something is burned.

- Burning wood by fire turns the wood into ashes.
- The term “fire” is also used figuratively, usually referring to judgment or purification.
- The final judgment of unbelievers is in the fire of hell.
- Fire is used to refine gold and other metals. In the Bible, this process is used to explain how God refines people through difficult things that happen in their lives.
- The phrase “baptize with fire” could also be translated as, “cause you to experience suffering in order to purify you.”

firstfruits

Definition:

The term “first fruits” refers to a portion of the first crop of fruits and vegetables that was reaped during each harvest season.

- The Israelites offered these first fruits to God as a sacrificial offering.
- This term is also used figuratively in the Bible to refer to a firstborn son as being the first fruits of the family. That is, because he was the first son to be born into that family, he was the one who carried on the family name and honor.
- Because Jesus rose from the dead, he is called the “first fruits” of all believers in him who have died but who will some day come back to life.
- Believers in Jesus are also called the “first fruits” of all creation, indicating the special privilege and position of those whom Jesus redeemed and called to be his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The literal use of this term could be translated as “first portion (of crops)” or “first part of the harvest.”
- If possible, the figurative uses should be translated literally, to allow for different meanings in different contexts. This will also show the correlation between the literal meaning and the figurative uses.

flesh

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “flesh” literally refers to the soft tissue of the physical body of a human being or animal.

- The Bible also uses the term “flesh” in a figurative way to refer to all human beings or all living creatures.
- In the New Testament, the term “flesh” is used to refer to the sinful nature of human beings. This is often used in contrast to their spiritual nature.
- The expression, “own flesh and blood” refers to someone who is biologically related to another person, such as a parent, sibling, child, or grandchild.
- The expression “flesh and blood” can also refer to a person’s ancestors or descendants.
- The expression, “one flesh” refers to the physical uniting of a man and woman in marriage.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of an animal’s body, “flesh” could be translated as “body” or “skin” or “meat.”
- When it is used to refer generally to all living creatures, this term could be translated as “living beings” or “everything that is alive.”
- When referring in general to all people, this term could be translated as “people” or “human beings” or “everyone who lives.”
- The expression, “flesh and blood” could also be translated as “relatives” or “family” or “kin-folk” or “family clan.” There may be contexts where it could be translated as “ancestors” or “descendants.”
- Some languages may have an expression that is similar in meaning to “flesh and blood.”
- The expression, “become one flesh” could be translated as, “unite sexually” or “become as one body” or “become like one person in body and spirit.” The translation of this expression should be checked to make sure it is acceptable in the project language and culture. (See: Euphemism). It should also be understood that this is figurative, and does not mean that the man and woman literally become one person.

flock, herdDefinition:

In the Bible, “flock” refers to a group of sheep or goats and “herd” refers to a group of cattle, oxen, or pigs.

- Different languages may have different ways of naming groups of animals or birds.
- For example, in English the term “herd” can also be used for sheep or goats, but in the Bible text it is not used this way.
- The term “flock” in English is also used for a group of birds, but it can not be used for pigs, oxen, or cattle.
- Consider what terms are used in your language to refer to different groups of animals.
- For verses that refer to “flocks and herds” it may be better to add “of sheep” or “of cattle” for example, if the language does not have different words to refer to different kinds of animal groups.

foreigner, foreign, alien

Definition:

The term “foreigner” refers to a person living in a country that is not his own. Another name for a foreigner is an “alien.”

- In the Old Testament, this term especially refers to anyone who came from a different people group than the people he was living among.
- A foreigner is also a person whose language and culture is different from your own.
- For example, when Naomi and her family moved to Moab, they were foreigners there. When Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth later moved to Israel, Ruth was called a “foreigner” there because she was not originally from Israel.
- The apostle Paul told the Ephesians that before they knew Christ, they were “foreigners” to God’s covenant.
- Sometimes “foreigner” is translated as “stranger,” but it should not only refer to someone who is unfamiliar or unknown.

sexual immorality

Definition:

The term “sexual immorality” refers to sexual activity that takes place outside the marriage relationship of a man and a woman. This is against God’s plan. Older English Bible versions call this “fornication.”

- This term can refer to any kind of sexual activity that is against God’s will, including homosexual acts and pornography.
- One type of sexual immorality is adultery, which is sexual activity specifically between a married person and someone who is not that person’s spouse.
- Another type of sexual immorality is “prostitution,” which involves being paid to have sex with someone.
- This term is also used figuratively to refer to Israel’s unfaithfulness to God when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sexual immorality” could be translated as “immorality” as long as the correct meaning of the term is understood.
- Other ways to translate this term could include, “wrong sexual acts” or “sex outside of marriage.”
- This term should be translated in a different way from the term “adultery.”
- The translation of this term’s figurative uses should retain the literal term if possible since there is a common comparison in the Bible between unfaithfulness to God and unfaithfulness in the sexual relationship.

foundation, founded

Definition:

The verb “founded” means to be built on or based on something. A foundation is the base on which something is built.

- The foundation of a house or building must be strong and dependable in order to support the entire structure.
- The term “foundation” can also refer to the beginning of something or to the time when something was first created.
- In a figurative sense, believers in Christ are compared to a building that is founded on the teachings of the apostles and prophets, with Christ himself being the cornerstone of the building.
- A “foundation stone” was a stone that was laid as part of the foundation. These stones were tested to make sure they were strong enough to support an entire building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “before the foundation of the world” could be translated as “before the creation of the world” or “before the time when the world first existed” or “before everything was first created.”
- The term “founded on” could be translated as “securely built on” or “firmly based on.”

fruit, fruitful

Definition:

The term “fruit” literally refers to the part of a plant that can be eaten. Something that is “fruitful” has a lot of fruit. These terms are also used figuratively in the Bible.

- The Bible often uses “fruit” to refer to a person’s actions and thoughts. Just as fruit on a tree shows what kind of tree it is, in the same way a person’s words and actions reveal what his character is like.
- A person can produce good or bad spiritual fruit, but the term “fruitful” always has the positive meaning of producing much good fruit.
- The term “fruitful” is also used figuratively to mean “prosperous.” This often refers to having many children and descendants, as well as having plenty of food and other wealth.
- In general, the expression “fruit of” refers to anything that comes from or that is produced by something else. For example, the “fruit of wisdom” refers to the good things that come from being wise.
- The expression “fruit of the land” refers generally to everything that the land produces for people to eat. This includes not only fruits such as grapes or dates, but also vegetables, nuts, and grains.
- The figurative expression “fruit of the Spirit” refers to godly qualities that the Holy Spirit produces in the lives of people who obey him.
- The expression, “fruit of the womb” refers to “what the womb produces,” that is, children.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term using the general word for “fruit” that is commonly used in the project language to refer to the edible fruit of a fruit tree. In many languages it may be more natural to use the plural
- , “fruits” whenever it refers to more than one fruit.
- Depending on the context, the term “fruitful” could be translated as “producing much spiritual fruit” or “having many children” or “prosperous.”
- The expression, “fruit of the land” could also be translated as, “food that the land produces” or “food crops that are growing in that region.”
- When God created animals and people, he commanded them to “be fruitful and multiply,” which refers to having many offspring. This could also be translated as, “have many offspring” or “have many children and descendants” or “have many children so that you will have many descendants.”
- The expression, “fruit of the womb” could be translated as “what the womb produces” or “children a women gives birth to” or just “children.” When Elisabeth says to Mary, “blessed is the fruit of your womb” she means, “blessed is the child you will give birth to.” The project language may also have a different expression for this.
- Another expression, “fruit of the vine” could be translated as “vine fruit” or “grapes.”

- Depending on the context, the expression “will be more fruitful” could also be translated as, “will produce more fruit” or “will have more children” or “will be prosperous.”
- The apostle Paul’s expression, “fruitful labor” could be translated as, “work that brings very good results” or “efforts that result in many people believing in Jesus.”
- The “fruit of the Spirit” could also be translated as “works that the Holy Spirit produces” or “words and actions that show that the Holy Spirit is working in you.”

Galatia

Facts:

In New Testament times, Galatia was a large Roman province located in the central part of what is now the country of Turkey.

- Part of Galatia bordered the Black Sea to the north. It was also bordered by the provinces of Asia, Bithynia, Cappadocia, Celicia, and Pamphylia.
- The apostle Paul wrote a letter to the Christians who lived in the province of Galatia. This letter is the New Testament book called “Galatians.”
- One reason that Paul wrote his letter to the Galatians was to emphasize again the gospel of salvation by grace, not by works.
- The Gentile Christians in Galatia were being taught by the Jewish Christians there that it was necessary for believers to keep certain Jewish laws.

Gentile

Facts:

The term “Gentile” refers to anyone who is not a Jew. Gentiles are people who are not descendants of Jacob.

- In the Bible, the term “uncircumcised” is also used figuratively to refer to Gentiles because many of them did not circumcise their male children as the Israelites did.
- Because God chose the Jews to be his special people, they thought of the Gentiles as outsiders who could never be God’s people.
- The Jews were also called “Israelites” or “Hebrews” at different times in history. They referred to everyone else as a “Gentile.”
- Gentile could also be translated as “not a Jew” or “non-Jewish” or “not an Israelite” (Old Testament) or “non-Jew.”
- Traditionally, Jews would not eat with Gentiles or associate with them, which at first caused problems within the early church.

glorify

Definition:

The term “glorify” means to show or tell how great and important something or someone is. It literally means “give glory.”

- People can glorify God by telling about the wonderful things he has done.
- They can also glorify God by living in a way that honors him and shows how great and magnificent he is.
- When the Bible says that God glorifies himself, it means that he reveals to people his amazing greatness, often through miracles.
- God the Father will glorify God the Son by revealing to people the Son’s perfection, splendor, and greatness.
- Everyone who believes in Christ will be glorified with him. When they are raised to life, they will be changed to reflect his glory and to display his grace to all creation.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as, “give glory to” or “bring glory to” or “cause to appear great.”
- The phrase “glorify God” could also be translated as “praise God” or “talk about God’s greatness” or “show how great God is” or “honor God (by obeying him).”

glory, glorious

Definition:

In general, the term “glory” means honor, splendor, and extreme greatness. Anything that has glory is said to be “glorious.”

- Sometimes “glory” refers to something of great value and importance. In other contexts it communicates splendor, brightness, or judgment.
- For example, the expression “glory of the shepherds” refers to the lush pastures where their sheep had plenty of grass to eat.
- Glory is especially used to describe God, who is more glorious than anyone or anything in the universe. Everything in his character reveals his glory and his splendor.
- The expression “to glory in” means to boast about or take pride in something.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “glory” could include, “splendor” or “brightness” or “majesty” or “awesome greatness” or “extreme value.”
- The term “glorious” could be translated as “full of glory” or “extremely valuable” or “brightly shining” or “awesomely majestic.”
- The expression, “give glory to God” could be translated as “honor God’s greatness” or “praise God because of his splendor” or “tell others how great God is.”
- The expression “glory in” could also be translated as, “praise” or “take pride in” or “boast about” or “take pleasure in.”

- [37-08] Jesus responded, “Did I not tell you that you would see God’s glory if you believe in me?”

God

Facts:

In the Bible, the term “God” refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God’s personal name is “Yahweh.”

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as “Yahweh” which means, “he is” or “I am” or “the One who (always) exists.”
- The Bible also teaches about false “gods” which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “God” could include, “Deity” or “Creator” or “Supreme Being.”
- Other ways to translate “God” could be, “Supreme Creator” or “Infinite Sovereign Lord” or “Eternal Supreme Being.”
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for “God” in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god.
- Another way to make this distinction would be to use two different terms for “God” and “god.”
- The phrase, “I will be their God and they will be my people” could also be translated as, “I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me.”

God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

Facts:

The terms, “God the Father” and “heavenly Father” refer to Yahweh, the one true God. This term also occurs as “Father,” especially when Jesus is referring to him.

- God exists as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Each one is fully God, and yet they are only one God. This is a mystery that mere humans cannot fully understand.
- God the Father sent God the Son (Jesus) into the world and he sends the Holy Spirit to his people.
- Anyone who believes in God the Son becomes a child of God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit comes to live in that person. This is another mystery that human beings cannot fully understand.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the phrase “God the Father,” it is best to translate “Father” with the same word that the language naturally uses to refer to a human father.
- The term “heavenly Father” could be translated by “Father who lives in heaven” or “Father God who lives in heaven” or “God our Father from heaven.”
- Usually “Father” is capitalized, to show that this refers to God.

gold

Definition:

Gold is a yellow-colored high-quality metal that was used for making jewelry and religious objects. It was the most valuable metal in ancient times.

- In Bible times, many different kinds of objects were made out of solid gold or were covered with a thin layer of gold.
- These objects included ear rings and other jewelry, idols, altars, and other objects used in the tabernacle or temple, such as the ark of the covenant.
- In Old Testament times, gold was used as a means of exchange in buying and selling. It was weighed on a scale to determine its value.
- Later on, gold and other metals such as silver were used to make coins to use in buying and selling
- When referring to something that is not solid gold, but only has a thin covering of gold, the term “golden” or “gold-covered” or “gold-overlaid” could also be used.
- Sometimes an object is described as “gold-colored” which means it has the yellow color of gold, but may not actually be made of gold.

- [39-11] After speaking with Jesus, Pilate went out to the crowd and said, “I find no guilt in this man.” But the Jewish leaders and the crowd shouted, “Crucify him!” Pilate replied, “He is not guilty.” But they shouted even louder. Then Pilate said a third time, “He is not guilty!”
- [40-04] Jesus was crucified between two robbers. One of them mocked Jesus, but the other said, “Don’t you fear God? We are guilty, but this man is innocent.
- [49-10] Because of your sin, you are guilty and deserve to die.

hand, right hand, to hand over

Definition:

There are several figurative ways that “hand” is used in the Bible:

- To “hand” something to someone means to put something into that person’s hands.
- The term “hand” is often used in reference to God’s power and action, such as when God says, “Has not my hand made all these things?” (See: Metonymy)
- Expressions such as “hand over to” or “deliver into the hands of” refer to causing someone to be under the control or power of someone else.
- Placing hands on someone is often done while speaking a blessing over that person.
- The term “laying on of hands” refers to placing a hand on a person in order to dedicate that person to God’s service or to pray for healing.
- Some other figurative uses of “hand” include:
 - To “lay a hand on” means to “harm.”
 - To “save from the hand of” means to stop someone from harming someone else.
 - To be “close at hand” means to be “nearby.”
 - The position of being “on the right hand” means “on the right side” or “to the right.”
 - The expression “by the hand of” someone means “by” or “through” the action of that person. For example, “by the hand of the Lord” means that the Lord is the one who caused something to happen.
- When Paul says “written by my hand,” it means that this part of the letter was physically written down by him, rather than spoken to someone else to write down.

Translation Suggestions

- These expressions and other figures of speech could be translated using other figurative expressions that have the same meaning. Or the meaning could be translated using direct, literal language (see examples above).
- The expression, “handed him the scroll” could also be translated as “gave him the scroll” or “put the scroll in his hand.” It was not given to him permanently, but just for the purpose of using it at that time.
- When “hand” refers to the person, such as in “the hand of God did this,” it could be translated as “God did this.”
- An expression such as “delivered them into the hands of their enemies” or “handed them over to their enemies,” could be translated as, “allowed their enemies to conquer them” or “caused them to be captured by their enemies” or “empowered their enemies to gain control over them.”
- To “die by the hand of” could be translated as, “be killed by.”
- The expression “on the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of.”
- In regard to Jesus being “seated at the right hand of God,” if this does not communicate in the language that it refers to a position of high honor and equal authority, a different expression with that meaning could be used. Or a short explanation could be added: “on the right side of God, in the position of highest authority.”

harvest

Definition:

The term “harvest” refers to the gathering in of ripe fruits or vegetables from the plants on which they were growing.

- The harvest time normally happens at the end of a growing season.
- The Israelites held a “Festival of Harvest” or “Festival of Ingathering” to celebrate the reaping of the food crops. God commanded them to offer the first fruits of these crops as a sacrifice to him.
- In a figurative sense, the word “harvest” can refer to people coming to believe in Jesus or can describe a person’s spiritual growth.
- The idea of a harvest of spiritual crops fits with the figurative image of fruits being a picture of godly character qualities.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the word that is commonly used in the language to refer to the harvesting of crops.
- The event of harvesting could be translated as, “time of gathering in” or “crop gathering time” or “fruit picking time.”
- The verb “to harvest” could be translated as, “to gather in” or “to pick up” or “to collect.”

head

Definition:

In the Bible, the word “head” is used with several figurative meanings.

- Often this term is used to refer to being in authority over people, as in, “you have made me the head over nations.” This could be translated as, “You have made me the ruler...” or “You have given me authority over...”
- Jesus is called the “head of the church.” Just as a person’s head guides and directs the members of its body, so Jesus guides and directs the members of his “body,” the Church.
- The New Testament teaches that a husband is the “head” or authority of his wife. He is given the responsibility of leading and guiding his wife and family.
- The expression, “no razor will ever touch his head” means “ he will never cut or shave his hair.”
- The term “head” can also refer to the beginning or source of something as in the “head of the street.”
- The expression “heads of grain” refers to the top part of a wheat or barley plant that contains the seeds.
- Another figurative use for “head” is when it is used to represent the whole person as in, “this gray head” referring to an elderly person or “the head of Joseph” referring to Joseph. (See: Synecdoche)
- The expression “let their blood be on his own head” means that the man is responsible for their deaths and will receive the punishment for that.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “head” could be translated as, “authority” or “the one who leads and directs” or “the one who is responsible for.”
- The expression “head of” can refer to the whole person and so this expression could be translated using just the person’s name. For example, “the head of Joseph” could simply be translated as “Joseph.”
- The expression “will be on his own head” could be translated as “will be on him” or “he will be punished for” or “he will be held responsible for” or “he will be considered guilty for.”
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include, “beginning” or “source” or “ruler” or “leader” or “top.”

heal, cure

Definition:

The terms “heal” and “cure” both mean to cause a sick, wounded, or disabled person to be healthy again.

- A person who is “healed” or “cured” has been “made well” or “made healthy.”
- Healing can happen naturally since God gave our bodies the ability to recover from many kinds of wounds and diseases. This kind of healing usually happens slowly.
- However, certain conditions such as being blind or paralyzed, and certain serious diseases such as leprosy do not heal on their own. When people are healed of these things, it is a miracle that usually happens suddenly.
- For example, Jesus healed many people who were blind or lame or diseased and they became well right away.
- The apostles also healed people miraculously, such as when Peter caused a crippled man to immediately be able to walk.

heart

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “heart” is often used figuratively to refer to a person’s thoughts, emotions, desires, or will.

- To have a “hard heart” is a common expression that means a person stubbornly refuses to obey God.
- The expressions “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” mean to do something with no holding back, with complete commitment and willingness.
- The expression, “take it to heart” means to treat something seriously and apply it to one’s life.
- The term “brokenhearted” describes a person who is very sad. They have been deeply hurt emotionally.

Translation Suggestions

- Some languages use a different body part such as “stomach” or “liver” to refer to these ideas.
- Other languages may use one word to express some of these concepts and another word to express others.
- If “heart” or other body part does not have this meaning, some languages may need to express this nonfiguratively with terms such as “thoughts” or “emotions” or “desires.”
- Depending on the context, “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” could be translated as, “with all my energy” or “with complete dedication” or “completely” or “with total commitment.”
- The expression “take it to heart” could be translated as “treat it seriously” or “carefully think about it.”
- The expression “hard-hearted” could also be translated as, “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to obey” or “continually disobeying God.”
- Ways to translate “brokenhearted” could include, “very sad” or “feeling deeply hurt.”

heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

Definition:

The term that is translated as “heaven” refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean “sky,” depending on the context.

- The term “heavens” refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we can’t directly see from the earth.
- The term “sky” refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be “up in the sky.”
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word “heaven” could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.
- When “heaven” is used figuratively, it is a way of referring to God. For example, when Matthew writes about the “kingdom of heaven” he is referring to the kingdom of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- When “heaven” is used figuratively, it could be translated as “God.”
- For “kingdom of heaven” in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word “heaven” since this is distinctive to Matthew’s gospel.
- The terms “heavens” or “heavenly bodies” could also be translated as, “sun, moon, and stars” or “all the stars in the universe.”
- The phrase, “stars of heaven” could be translated as “stars in the sky” or “stars in the galaxy” or “stars in the universe.”

holy, holiness

Definition:

The terms “holy” and “holiness” refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- Since God is holy, people cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because they are mere human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “holy” might include, “set apart for God” or “belonging to God” or “completely pure” or “perfectly sinless” or “separated from sin.”
- To “make holy” is often translated as “sanctify” in English. It could also be translated as “set apart (someone) for God’s glory.”

Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord

Facts:

These terms all refer to the Holy Spirit, who is God. The one true God exists eternally as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

- The Holy Spirit is also referred to as, “the Spirit” and “Spirit of Yahweh” and “Spirit of truth.”
- Because the Holy Spirit is God, he is absolutely holy, infinitely pure, and morally perfect in all his nature and in everything he does.
- Along with the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit was active in creating the world.
- When God’s Son, Jesus, returned to heaven, God sent the Holy Spirit to his people to lead them, teach them, comfort them, and enable them to do God’s will.
- The Holy Spirit guided Jesus and he guides those who believe in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could simply be translated with the words used to translate “holy” and “spirit.”
- Ways to translate this term could also include, “Pure Spirit” or “Spirit who is Holy” or “God the Spirit.”

honor, to honor

Definition:

The terms “honor” and “to honor” refer to giving someone respect, esteem, or reverence.

- Honor is usually given to someone who is of higher status and importance, such as a king or God.
- God also instructs Christians to honor others, but not to try to get honor for themselves.
- Children are instructed to honor their parents, which includes respect and obedience.
- the terms “honor” and “glory” are often used together, especially when referring to Jesus. These may be two different ways of referring to the same thing.
- Honor for God includes thanking and praising him, and showing him respect by obeying him and living in a way that shows how great he is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “honor” could include, “respect” or “esteem” or “high regard.”
- The term “to honor” could be translated as “to show special respect to” or “to cause to be praised” or “to show high regard for” or “to highly value.”

hour

Definition:

In addition to being used to refer to when or how long something took place, the term “hour” is also used in several figurative ways:

- Sometimes “hour” refers to a regular, scheduled time to do something, such as the “hour of prayer.”
- When the text says that the “hour had come” for Jesus to suffer and be put to death, this meant that it was the appointed time that God had decided long ago that this would happen.
- The term “hour” is also used to mean “at that moment” or “right then.”
- When the text talks about the “hour” being late, this means that it was late in the day, when the sun would soon be setting.

Translation Suggestions:

- When used figuratively, the term “hour” can be translated as “time” or “moment” or “appointed time.”
- The phrase, “in that very hour” or “the same hour” could be translated as, “at that moment” or “at that time” or “immediately” or “right then.”

idol, idolatrous

Definition:

An idol is an object that people make so they can worship it. Something is described as “idolatrous” if it involves giving honor to something other than the one true God.

- People make idols to represent the false gods that they worship.
- These false gods do not exist; there is no God besides Yahweh.
- Sometimes demons work through an idol to make it seem like it has power, even though it does not.
- Idols are often made of valuable materials like gold, silver, bronze, or expensive wood.
- An “idolatrous kingdom” means a “kingdom of people who worship idols” or a “kingdom of people who worship earthly things.”
- The term “idolatrous figure” is another word for a “carved image” or an “idol.”

- [18-12] All of the kings and most of the people of the kingdom of Israel worshiped idols. This kind of worship often included sexual immorality and sometimes even child sacrifice.
- [19-16] They (the prophets) all told the people to stop worshipping idols and to start showing justice and mercy to others.

image, carved image, carved figure, cast metal figure

Definition:

These terms are all used to refer to idols that have been made for worshiping a false god. In the context of worshiping idols, the term “image” is a shortened form of “carved image.”

- A “carved image” or “carved figure” is a wooden object that has been made to look like an animal, person, or thing.
- A “cast metal figure” is an object or statue created by melting metal and pouring it into a mold that is in the shape of an object, animal, or person.
- These wooden and metal objects were used in the worship of false gods.
- The term “image” when referring to an idol could either refer to a wooden or metal idol.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to an idol, the term “image” could also be translated as “statue” or “engraved idol” or “carved religious object.”
- It may be more clear in some languages to always use a descriptive word with this term, such as “carved image” or “cast metal figure,” even in places where only the term “image” or “figure” is in the original text.
- Make sure it is clear that this term is different than the term used to refer to being in the image of God.

image of God, image

Definition:

The term “image” refers to something that looks like something else or that is like someone in character or essence. The phrase “image of God” is used in different ways, depending on the context.

- At the beginning of time, God created human beings “in his image,” that is, “in his likeness.” This means that people have certain characteristics that reflect the image of God, such as the ability to feel emotion, the ability to reason and communicate, and a spirit that lives eternally.
- The Bible teaches that Jesus, God’s Son, is “the image of God,” that is, he is God himself. Unlike human beings, Jesus was not created. From all eternity, God the Son has all the divine characteristics because he has had the same essence with God the Father.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to Jesus, “image of God” could be translated as “exact likeness of God” or “same essence as God” or “same being as God.”
- When referring to human beings, “God created them in his image” could be translated with a phrase that means, “God created them to be like him” or “God created them with characteristics like himself.”

in Christ, in Jesus, in the Lord, in him

Definition:

The phrase “in Christ” and related terms refer to the state or condition of being in relationship with Jesus Christ through faith in him.

- Other related terms include, “in Christ Jesus, in Jesus Christ, in the Lord Jesus, in the Lord Jesus Christ.”
- Possible meanings for the term, “in Christ” could include, “because you belong to Christ” or “through the relationship you have with Christ” or “based on your faith in Christ.”
- These related terms all have the same meaning of being in a state of believing in Jesus and being his disciple.
- Note: Sometimes the word “in” belongs with the verb. For example, “share in Christ” means to “share in” the benefits that come from knowing Christ. To “glory in” Christ means to be glad and give praise to God for who Jesus is and what he has done. To “believe in” Christ means to trust him as Savior and know him.

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “in Christ” and “in the Lord” (and related phrases) could include:
 - “who belong to Christ”
 - “because you believe in Christ”
 - “because Christ has saved us”
 - “in service to the Lord”
 - “relying on the Lord”
 - “because of what the Lord has done.”
- People who “believe in” Christ or who “have faith in” Christ believe what Jesus taught and are trusting him to save them because of his sacrifice on the cross that paid the penalty for their sins. Some languages may have one word that translates verbs like “believe in” or “share in” or “trust in.”

inherit, inheritance, heritage, heir

Definition:

The terms “inherit” and “inheritance” refer to receiving something valuable from a parent or other person because of a special relationship with that person. The “heir” is the person who receives the inheritance.

- A physical inheritance that is received may be money, land, or other kinds of property.
- A spiritual inheritance is everything that God gives people who trust in Jesus, including blessings in the present life as well as eternal life with him.
- The Bible also calls God’s people his inheritance, which means that they belong to him; they are his valued possession.
- God promised Abraham and his descendants that they would inherit the land of Canaan, that it would belong to them forever.
- There is also a figurative or spiritual sense in which people who belong to God are said to “inherit the land.” This means that they will prosper and be blessed by God in both physical and spiritual ways.
- In the New Testament, God promises that those who trust in Jesus will “inherit salvation” and “inherit eternal life.” It is also expressed as, “inherit the kingdom of God.” This is a spiritual inheritance that lasts forever.
- There are other figurative meanings for these terms:
 - The Bible says that wise people will “inherit glory” and righteous people will “inherit good things.”
 - To “inherit the promises” means to receive the good things that God has promised to give his people.
 - This term is also used in a negative sense to refer to foolish or disobedient people who “inherit the wind” or “inherit folly.” This means they receive the consequences of their sinful actions, including punishment and worthless living.

Translation Suggestions:

- As always, consider first whether there are already terms in the target language for the concept of an heir or an inheritance and use those terms.
- Depending on the context, other ways that the term “inherit” could be translated might include, “receive” or “possess” or “come into possession of.”
- Ways to translate “inheritance” could include, “promised gift” or “secure possession.”
- When God’s people are referred to as his inheritance this could be translated as, “valued ones belonging to him.”
- The term “heir” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “privileged child who receives the father’s possessions” or “person chosen to receive (God’s) spiritual possessions or blessings.”
- The term “heritage” could be translated as, “blessings from God” or “inherited blessings.”

interpret, interpretation

Facts:

The terms “interpret” and “interpretation” refer to understanding and explaining the meaning of something that is not clear.

- Often in the Bible these terms are used in connection with explaining the meaning of dreams or visions.
- When the king of Babylon had some confusing dreams, God helped Daniel to interpret them and to explain their meanings.
- The “interpretation” of the dream is the “explanation” of the meaning of the dream.
- In the Old Testament, God sometimes used dreams to reveal to people what would happen in the future. So the interpretations of those dreams were prophecies.
- The term “interpret” can also refer to figuring out the meaning of other things, such as figuring out what the weather will be like based on how cold or hot it is, how windy it is, and what the sky looks like.
- Ways to translate the term “interpret” could include, “figure out the meaning of” or “explain” or “give the meaning of.”
- The term “interpretation” could also be translated as, “explanation” or “meaning.”

jealous, jealousy

Definition:

The terms “jealous” and “jealousy” refer to a strong desire to protect the purity of a relationship. They can also refer to a strong desire to keep possession of something or someone.

- These terms are often used to describe the angry feeling that a person has toward a spouse who has been unfaithful in their marriage.
- When used in the Bible, these terms often refer to God’s strong desire for his people to remain pure and unstained by sin.
- God is also “jealous” for his name, that it be treated with honor and reverence.
- Another meaning of jealous involves being angry that someone else is successful or more popular. This is close in meaning to the word “envy.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “jealous” could include, “strong protective desire” or “possessive desire.”
- The term “jealousy” could be translated as, “strong protective feeling” or “possessive feeling.”
- When talking about God, make sure the translation of these terms does not give a negative meaning of being resentful of someone else.
- In the context of people’s wrong feelings of anger toward toward other people who are more successful, the terms “envious” and “envy” could be used. But these terms should not be used for God.

Jerusalem

Facts:

Jerusalem was originally an ancient Canaanite city that later became the most important city in Israel. It is located about 34 kilometers west of the Salt Sea and just north of Bethlehem. It is still the capital city of present-day Israel.

- The name, “Jerusalem” is first mentioned in the book of Joshua. Other Old Testament names for this city include “Salem”, “city of Jebus,” and “Zion.” Both “Jerusalem” and “Salem” have the root meaning of “peace.”
- Jerusalem was originally a Jebusite fortress called “Zion” which King David captured and made into his capital city.
- David’s son Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, which was the mountain where Abraham had offered his son Isaac to God. The temple was rebuilt there after it was destroyed by the Babylonians.
- Because the temple was in Jerusalem, the major Jewish festivals were celebrated there.
- People normally referred to going “up” to Jerusalem since it was located in the mountains.

Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

Facts:

Jesus is God's Son. The name "Jesus" means, "Yahweh saves." The term "Christ" is a title that means "anointed one" and is another word for the Messiah.

- The two names are often combined as "Jesus Christ" or "Christ Jesus." These names emphasize that God's Son is the Messiah who came to save people from being punished eternally for their sins.
- In a miraculous way, the Holy Spirit caused the eternal Son of God to be born as a human being. His earthly parents were told by an angel to call him "Jesus" because he was destined to save people from their sins.
- Jesus did many miracles that revealed that he is God and that he is the Christ, or Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:

- Many languages spell "Jesus" and "Christ" in a way that keeps the sounds or spelling as close to the original as possible. For example, "Jesucristo," "Jezus Christus," "Yesus Kristus", and "Hesukristo" are some of the ways that these names are translated into different languages.
- For the term, "Christ," some languages may prefer to use some form of the term "Messiah" throughout.
- Also consider how these names are spelled in a nearby local or national language.

Jew, Jewish, Jews

Facts:

Jews are people who are descendants of Abraham's grandson, Jacob. The word "Jew" comes from the word "Judah."

- People began to call the Israelites "Jews" after they returned to Judah from their exile in Babylon.
- Jesus the Messiah was Jewish. However, the Jewish religious leaders rejected Jesus and demanded that he be killed.
- Often the phrase "the Jews" refers to the leaders of the Jews, not all the Jewish people. In those contexts, some translations add "leaders of" to make this clear.

judge, judgment

Definition:

The terms “judge” and “judgment” often refer to making a decision about whether something is morally right or wrong.

- The “judgment of God” often refers to his decision to condemn something or someone as sinful.
- God’s judgment usually includes punishing people for their sin.
- The term “judge” can also mean “condemn.” God instructs his people not to judge each other in this way.
- Another meaning is “arbitrate between” or “judge between,” as in deciding which person is right in a dispute between them.
- In some contexts, God’s “judgments” are what he has decided is right and just. They are similar to his decrees, laws, or precepts.
- “Judgment” can refer to wise decision-making ability. A person who lacks “judgment” does not have the wisdom to make wise decisions.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate “to judge” could include, “to decide” or “to condemn” or “to punish” or “to decree.”
- The term “judgment” could be translated as, “punishment” or “decision” or “verdict” or “decree” or “condemnation.”

- [50-14] But God will judge everyone who does not believe in Jesus. He will throw them into hell, where they will weep and grind their teeth in anguish forever.

kingdom

Definition:

A kingdom is a group of people ruled by a king. It also refers to the realm or political regions over which a king or other ruler has control and authority.

- A kingdom can be of any geographical size. A king might govern a nation or country or only one city.
- The term “kingdom” can also refer to a spiritual reign or authority, as in the term “kingdom of God.”
- God is the ruler of all creation, but the term “kingdom of God” especially refers to his reign and authority over the people who have believed in Jesus and who have submitted to his authority.
- The Bible also talks about Satan having a “kingdom” in which he temporarily rules over many things on this earth. His kingdom is evil and is referred to as “darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a physical region that is ruled over by a king, the term “kingdom” could be translated as, “country (ruled by a king)” or “king’s territory” or “region ruled by a king.”
- In a spiritual sense, “kingdom” could be translated as “ruling” or “reigning” or “controlling” or “governing.”
- One way to translate “kingdom of priests” might be, “spiritual priests who are ruled by God.”
- The phrase, “kingdom of light” could be translated as, “God’s reign that is good like light” or “when God, who is light, rules people” or “the light and goodness of God’s kingdom.” It is best to keep the word “light” in this expression since that is a very important term in the Bible.
- Note that the term “kingdom” is different from an empire, in which an emperor rules over several countries.

- [21-08] A king is someone who rules over a kingdom and judges the people.

kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

Definition:

The terms “kingdom of God” and “kingdom of heaven” both refer to God’s rule and authority over his people and over all creation.

- The Jews often used the term “heaven” to refer to God, to avoid saying his name directly. (See: Metonymy)
- In the NT book that Matthew wrote, he referred to God’s kingdom as “the kingdom of heaven,” probably because he was writing primarily for a Jewish audience.
- The kingdom of God refers to God ruling people spiritually as well as ruling over the physical world.
- The Old Testament prophets said that God would send the Messiah to rule with righteousness. Jesus, the Son of God, is the Messiah who will rule over God’s kingdom forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “kingdom of God” can be translated as “God’s rule (as king)” or “when God reigns as king” or “God’s rule over everything.”
- The term “kingdom of heaven” could also be translated as “God’s rule from heaven as king” or “God in heaven reigning” or “heaven’s reign” or “heaven ruling over everything.” If it is not possible to translate this simply and clearly, the phrase “kingdom of God” could be translated instead.
- Some translations may prefer to capitalize “Heaven” to show that it refers to God. Others may include a note in the text such as, “kingdom of heaven (that is, ‘of God’).”
- A footnote at the bottom of the page of a printed Bible may also be used to explain the meaning of “heaven” in this expression.

lamb, Lamb of God

Definition:

The term “lamb” refers to the young of a sheep. Sheep are four-legged animals with thick, woolly hair, used for sacrifices to God. Jesus is called the “Lamb of God” because he was sacrificed to pay for people’s sins.

- These animals are easily led astray and need protecting. God compares human beings to sheep.
- God instructed his people to sacrifice physically perfect sheep and lambs to him.
- Jesus is called the “Lamb of God” who was sacrificed to pay for people’s sins. He was a perfect, unblemished sacrifice because he was completely without sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- If sheep are known in the language area, the name for their young should be used to translate the terms “lamb” and “Lamb of God.”
- “Lamb of God” could be translated as “God’s (sacrificial) Lamb,” or “Lamb sacrificed to God” or “(sacrificial) Lamb from God.”
- If sheep are not known, this term could be translated as “the young of a sheep” with a footnote that describes what sheep are like. The note could also compare sheep and lambs to an animal from that area that lives in herds, that is timid and defenseless, and that often wanders away.
- Also consider how this term is translated in a Bible translation of a nearby local or national language. (See: How to Translate Unknowns)

law, principle

Definition:

A “law” is a legal rule that is usually written down and enforced by someone in authority. A “principle” is a guideline for decision-making and behavior.

- Both “law” and “principle” can refer to a general rule or belief that guides a person’s behavior.
- This meaning of “law” is different from its meaning in the term, “law of Moses” where it refers to commands and instructions that God gave the Israelites.
- When a general law is being referred to, “law” could be translated as “principle” or “general rule.”

lawful, lawfully, unlawful

Definition:

The term “lawful” refers to something that is permitted to be done according to a law or other requirement. The opposite of this is “unlawful” which simply means “not lawful.”

- In the Bible, if something is said to be “lawful” it means it is permitted by God’s moral law, or by the Law of Moses and other Jewish laws. Something that is “unlawful” is “not permitted” by those laws.
- To do something “lawfully” means to do it “properly” or “in the right way.”
- Many of the things that the Jewish laws considered lawful or not lawful were not in agreement with God’s laws about loving others.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “lawful” could include, “permitted” or “according to God’s law” or “following our laws” or “proper” or “fitting.”
- The phrase “Is it lawful” could also be translated as “Do our laws allow” or “Is that something our laws permit?”

law, law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh

Definition:

All these terms refer to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey. The terms “law” and “God’s law” are also used more generally to refer to everything God wants his people to obey.

- Depending on the context, the “law” can refer to:
 - the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites.
 - all the laws given to Moses
 - the first five books of the Old Testament.
 - the entire Old Testament (also referred to as “scriptures” in the New Testament).
 - all of God’s instructions and will.
- The phrase “the law and the prophets” is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or “Old Testament”).

Translation Suggestions:

- These terms could be translated using the plural, “laws” since they refer to many instructions.
- The “law of Moses” could be translated as “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Depending on the context, “the law of Moses” could also be translated as, “the law that God told to Moses” or “God’s laws that Moses wrote down” or “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Ways to translate “the law” or “law of God” or “God’s laws” could include: “laws from God” or “God’s commands” or “laws that God gave” or “everything that God commands” or “all of God’s instructions”
- The phrase, “law of Yahweh” could also be translated as, “Yahweh’s laws” or “laws that Yahweh said to obey” or “laws from Yahweh” or “things Yahweh commanded.”

- [13-09] Anyone who disobeyed God's law could bring an animal to the altar in front of the Tent of Meeting as a sacrifice to God.
- [15-13] Then Joshua reminded the people of their obligation to obey the covenant that God had made with the Israelites at Sinai. The people promised to remain faithful to God and follow his laws.
- [16-01] After Joshua died, the Israelites disobeyed God and did not drive out the rest of the Canaanites or obey God's laws.
- [21-05] In the New Covenant, God would write his law on the people's hearts, the people would know God personally, they would be his people, and God would forgive their sins.
- [27-01] Jesus answered, "What is written in God's law?"
- [28-01] Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me 'good?' There is only one who is good, and that is God. But if you want to have eternal life, obey God's laws."

letter, epistle

Definition:

A letter is a written message sent to a person or group of persons who are usually a distance away from the writer. An epistle is a special type of letter, often written in a more formal style, for a special purpose, such as teaching.

- In New Testament times, epistles and other types of letters were written on parchment made from animal skins or on papyrus made from plant fibers.
- The New Testament epistles from Paul, John, James, Jude, and Peter are letters of instruction that they wrote to encourage, exhort, and teach the early Christians in various cities throughout the Roman Empire.
- Ways to translate this term could include, “written message” or “written down words” or “writing.”

life, live, living, alive

Definition:

All these terms refer to being physically alive, not dead. They are also used figuratively to refer to being alive spiritually. The following discusses what is meant by “physical life” and “spiritual life.”

1. Physical life

- Physical life is the presence of the spirit in the body. God breathed life into Adam’s body, and he became a living being.
- A “life” can also refer to an individual person, as in, “a life was saved”.
- Sometimes the word “life” refers to the experience of living, as in, “his life was enjoyable.”
- It can also refer to a person’s lifespan as in the expression, “the end of his life.”
- The term “living” may refer to being physically alive as in, “my mother is still living.” It may also refer to dwelling somewhere as in, “they were living in the city.”
- In the Bible, the concept of “life” is often contrasted with the concept of “death.”

2. Spiritual life

- A person has spiritual life when he believes in Jesus and God gives that person a transformed life with the Holy Spirit living in him.
- This life is also called “eternal life” to indicate that it does not end.
- The opposite of spiritual life is spiritual death, which means being separated from God and experiencing eternal punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “life” can be translated as “existence” or “person” or “soul” or “being” or “experience.”
- The term “live” could be translated by “dwell” or “reside” or “exist.”
- The expression “end of his life” could be translated as, “when he stopped living.”
- The expression “spared their lives’ could be translated as, “allowed them to live” or “did not kill them.”
- The expression “they risked their lives” could be translated as, “they put themselves in danger” or “they did something that could have killed them.”
- When the Bible text talks about being alive spiritually, “life” could be translated as “spiritual life” or “eternal life,” depending on the context.
- The concept of “spiritual life” could also be translated as, “God making us alive in our spirits” or “new life by God’s Spirit” or “being made alive in our inner self.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “give life” could also be translated as, “cause to live” or “give eternal life” or “cause to live eternally.”

Lord

Facts:

The term “Lord” refers to someone who has ownership or authority over people. When it is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note however that when used as a form of addressing someone or at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of “sir” or “master.”)

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as, “Lord God Almighty” or “Lord Yahweh” or “Yahweh our Lord.”
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as, “Lord Jesus” and “Lord Jesus Christ,” which communicate that Jesus is God.
- The term “Lord” in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has, “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh” and the New Testament text has, “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”
- In the ULB and UDB, the title, “Lord” is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean “Lord.” It is never used as a translation of God’s name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages translate this term as “Master” or “Ruler” or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme ruler.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.
- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term “Lord God” could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

Lord's Supper

Definition:

The term "Lord's Supper" is used by the apostle Paul to refer to the Passover meal that Jesus ate with his disciples on the night he was arrested by the Jewish leaders.

- During this meal, Jesus broke the Passover bread into pieces and called it his body which would soon be beaten and killed.
- He called the cup of wine his blood, which would soon be spilled out as he died as a sacrifice for sin.
- Jesus commanded that as often as his followers shared this meal together, they should remember his death and resurrection.
- In his letter to the Corinthians, the apostle Paul also further established the Lord's Supper as a regular practice for believers in Jesus.
- Churches today often use the term "communion" to refer to the Lord's Supper. The term "Last Supper" is also sometimes used.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could also be translated as, "the Lord's meal" or "the meal of our Lord Jesus" or "the meal in memory of the Lord Jesus."

love

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for “love” which some languages may express using different words:

1. The kind of love that comes from God is focused on the good of others, even when it doesn’t benefit oneself. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.

- Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
- When people love others with this kind of love, it involves actions that show that someone is thinking of what will cause the other person to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
- In the ULB, the word “love” refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.

2. Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love or love for a friend or family member.

- This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
- It can also be used in such contexts as, “They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet.” This means that they “like very much” or “greatly desire” to do that.

3. The word “love” can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.

4. In the figurative expression, “Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated,” the term “loved” refers to God’s choosing of Jacob to be in a covenant relationship with him. This could also be translated as “chosen.” Although Esau was also blessed by God, he wasn’t given the privilege of being in the covenant. The term “hated” is used figuratively here to mean “rejected” or “not chosen.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word “love” in the ULB refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, “devoted, faithful caring” or “care for unselfishly” or “love from God.” Make sure that the word used to translate God’s love can include giving up one’s own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word “love” describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means, “like very much” or “care for” or “have strong affection for.”
- In contexts where the word “love” is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by “strongly prefer” or “like very much” or “greatly desire.”

- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express “love” as an action. So for example, they might translate “love is patient, love is kind” as, “when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him.”

minister, ministry

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “minister” and “ministry” refer to serving others by teaching them about God and caring for their spiritual needs. The term “minister” can also refer to a person who serves people in this way.

- In the Old Testament, the priests would “minister” to God in the temple by offering sacrifices to him.
- Their “ministry” also included taking care of the temple and offering prayers to God on behalf of the people.
- In the New Testament, a “minister” of the gospel was someone who taught other people the message of salvation through faith in Jesus. Sometimes a minister is called a “servant.”
- The job of ministering to people can include serving them spiritually by teaching them about God.
- It can also refer to serving people in physical ways, such as caring for the sick and providing food for the poor.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of ministering to people, “to minister” could also be translated as “to serve” or “to care for” or “to meet the needs of.”
- When referring to ministering in the temple, the term “minister” could be translated as “serve God in the temple” or “offer sacrifices to God for the people.”
- In the context of ministering to God, this could be translated as “to serve” or “to work for God.”
- The phrase “ministered to” could also be translated as “took care of” or “provided for” or “helped.”

miracle, wonder, sign

Definition:

A “miracle” is something amazing that is not possible unless God causes it to happen.

- Examples of miracles that Jesus did include calming a storm and healing a blind man.
- Miracles are sometimes called “wonders” because they cause people to be filled with wonder or amazement.
- The term “wonder” can also refer more generally to amazing displays of God’s power, such as when he created the heavens and the earth.
- Miracles can also be called “signs” because they are used as indicators or evidence that God is the all-powerful one who has complete authority over the universe.
- Some miracles were God’s acts of redemption, such as when he rescued the Israelites from being slaves in Egypt and when he protected Daniel from being hurt by lions.
- Other wonders were God’s acts of judgment, such as when he sent a worldwide flood in Noah’s time and when he brought terrible plagues on the land of Egypt during the time of Moses.
- Many of God’s miracles were the physical healings of sick people or bringing dead people back to life.
- God’s power was shown in Jesus when he healed people, calmed storms, walked on water, and raised people from the dead. These were all miracles.
- God also enabled the prophets and the apostles to perform miracles of healing and other things that were only possible through God’s power.

Translation Suggestions:

- Possible translations of “miracles” or “wonders” could include, “impossible things that God does” or “powerful works of God” or “amazing acts of God.”
- The frequent expression “signs and wonders” could be translated as “proofs and miracles” or “miraculous works that prove God’s power” or “amazing miracles that show how great God is.”
- Note that this meaning of a miraculous sign is different from a sign that gives proof or evidence for something. The two can be related.

Moses

Facts:

Moses was a prophet and leader of the Israelite people for over 40 years.

- When Moses was a baby, Moses' parents put him in a basket in the reeds of the Nile River to hide him from the Egyptian Pharaoh. Moses' sister Miriam watched over him there. Moses' life was spared when the pharaoh's daughter found him and took him to the palace to raise him as her son.
- God chose Moses to free the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and to lead them to the Promised Land.
- After the Israelites' escape from Egypt and while they were wandering in the desert, God gave Moses two stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them.
- Near the end of his life, Moses saw the Promised Land, but didn't get to live in it because he disobeyed God.

name

Definition:

In the Bible, the word “name” is used in several figurative ways.

- In some contexts, “name” can refer to a person’s reputation, as in, “let us make a name for ourselves.”
- The term “name” can also refer to the memory of something. For example, “cut off the names of the idols” means to destroy those idols so that they are no longer remembered or worshiped.
- Speaking “in the name of God” means speaking with his power and authority, or as his representative.
- The “name” of someone can refer to the entire person, as in “there is no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Suggestions:

- An expression like, “his good name” could be translated as “his good reputation.”
- Doing something “in the name of” could be translated as, “with the authority of” or “with the permission of” or “as the representative of” that person.
- The expression, “make a name for ourselves” could be translated, “cause many people to know about us” or “make people think we are very important.”
- The expression, “call his name” could be translated as, “name him” or “give him the name.”
- The expression, “those who love your name” could be translated as, “those who love you.”
- The expression, “cut off the names of idols” could be translated as “get rid of pagan idols so that they are not even remembered” or “cause people to stop worshiping false gods” or “completely destroy all idols so that people no longer even think about them.”

new covenant

Definition:

The term “new covenant” refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God’s “new covenant” is explained in the part of the Bible called the “New Testament.”
- This new covenant is in contrast to the “old” or “former” covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people’s sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts of believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and they begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, like it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “new covenant” could be translated as “new formal agreement” or “new pact” or “new contract.”
- The word “new” in these expressions has the meaning of “fresh” or “new kind of” or “another.”

Passover

Facts:

The “Passover” is the name of a religious festival that the Jews celebrate every year, to remember how God rescued their ancestors, the Israelites, from slavery in Egypt.

- The name of this festival comes from the fact that God “passed over” the houses of the Israelites and did not kill their sons when he killed the firstborn sons of the Egyptians.
- The Passover celebration includes a special meal of a perfect lamb that they have killed and roasted, as well as bread made without yeast. These foods remind them of the meal that the Israelites ate the night before they escaped from Egypt.
- God told the Israelites to eat this meal every year in order to remember and celebrate how God “passed over” their houses and how he set them free from slavery in Egypt.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “Passover” could be translated by combining the words “pass” and “over” or another combination of words that has this meaning.
- It is helpful if the name of this festival has a clear connection to the words used to explain what the angel of the Lord did in passing by the houses of the Israelites and sparing their sons.

Pentecost, Festival of Weeks

Facts:

The “Festival of Weeks” was a festival that took place fifty days after Passover and the Festival of Firstfruits. In New Testament times it was referred to as “Pentecost,” which was a Greek word that has “fifty” as part of its meaning.

- The name “Festival of Weeks” came from the fact that this festival marked the completion of seven weeks of harvest which began at the Feast of Firstfruits, around the time of the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread.
- The Festival of Weeks was held to celebrate the end of the wheat grain harvest. It was also known as the “Festival of Harvest.”
- In the New Testament, the Day of Pentecost is especially important because it was on this day that God poured out the Holy Spirit on Jesus’ followers after Jesus had risen from the dead and gone back to heaven.
- In modern times, the Day of Pentecost and Festival of Weeks are also a time to celebrate God giving the Israelites the Ten Commandments on tablets of stone.

pure, purify, purification

Definition:

To be “pure” means to have no flaw or to have nothing mixed in that is not supposed to be there. To purify something is to cleanse it and remove anything that contaminates or pollutes it.

- In regard to Old Testament laws, “purify” and “purification” refer mainly to the cleansing from things that make an object or a person ritually unclean, such as disease, body fluids, or childbirth.
- The Old Testament also had laws telling people how to be purified from sin, usually by the sacrifice of an animal. This was only temporary and the sacrifices had to be repeated over and over again.
- In the New Testament, to be purified often refers to being cleansed from sin.
- The only way that people can be completely and permanently purified from sin is through repenting and receiving God’s forgiveness, through trusting in Jesus and his sacrifice.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “purify” could be translated as “make pure” or “cleanse” or “cleanse from all contamination” or “get rid of all sin.”
- A phrase such as, “when the time for their purification was over” could be translated as, “when they had purified themselves by waiting the required number of days.”
- The phrase, “provided purification for sins” could be translated as, “provided a way for people to be completely cleansed from their sin.”
- Other ways to translate “purification” could include, “cleansing” or “spiritual washing” or “becoming ritually clean.”

redeem, redemption, redeemer

Definition:

The terms “redeem” and “redemption” refer to buying back something that was previously owned or held captive. A “redeemer” is someone who redeems something or someone.

- God gave laws to the Israelites about how to redeem people or things.
- For example, someone could redeem a person who was in slavery by paying the price so that the slave could go free. The word “ransom” also refers to this practice.
- If someone’s land had been sold, a relative of that person could “redeem” or “buy back” that land so that it would stay in the family.
- These practices show how God redeems people who are in slavery to sin. When he died on the cross, Jesus paid the full payment for people’s sins and redeemed all those who trust in him for salvation. People who have been redeemed by God are set free from sin and its punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “redeem” could also be translated as “buy back” or “pay to free (someone)” or “ransom.”
- The term “redemption” could be translated as “ransom” or “freedom payment” or “the buying back.”

- [50-15] When Jesus returns, he will completely destroy Satan and his kingdom. He will throw Satan into hell where he will burn forever, along with everyone who chose to follow him rather than to obey God.

save, safe

Definition:

The term “save” refers to keeping someone from experiencing something bad or harmful. To “be safe” means to be protected from harm or danger.

- In a physical sense, people can be saved or rescued from harm, danger, or death.
- In a spiritual sense, if a person has been “saved,” it means that through Jesus’ death on the cross, God has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished in hell for his sin.
- People can save or rescue people from danger, but only God can save people from being punished eternally for their sins.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “save” could include, “deliver” or “keep from harm” or “take out of harm’s way” or “keep from dying.”
- In the expression, “whoever would save his life,” the term “save” could also be translated as “preserve” or “protect.”
- The term “safe” could be translated as “protected from danger” or “in a place where nothing can harm.”

- [12-05] Moses told the Israelites, “Stop being afraid! God will fight for you today and save you.”
- [12-13] The Israelites sang many songs to celebrate their new freedom and to praise God because he saved them from the Egyptian army.
- [16-17] This pattern repeated many times: the Israelites would sin, God would punish them, they would repent, and God would send a deliverer to save them.
- [44-08] “You crucified Jesus, but God raised him to life again! You rejected him, but there is no other way to be saved except through the power of Jesus!”
- [47-11] The jailer trembled as he came to Paul and Silas and asked, “What must I do to be saved?” Paul answered, “Believe in Jesus, the Master, and you and your family will be saved.”

- [49-12] Good works cannot save you.
- [49-13] God will save everyone who believes in Jesus and receives him as their Master. But he will not save anyone who does not believe in him.

seed

Definition:

A seed is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant. It also has several figurative meanings.

- The term “seed” is used figuratively and euphemistically to refer to the tiny cells inside a man or woman that combine to cause a baby to grow inside the woman.
- Related to this, “seed” is also used to refer to a person’s offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared seeds to the Word of God being planted in people’s hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “seed” to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- For a literal seed, it is best to use the literal term for “seed” that is used in the target language for what a farmer plants in his field.
- The literal term should also be used in contexts where it refers figuratively to God’s Word.
- For the figurative use that refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word “descendant” or “descendants” instead of seed. Some languages may have a word that means “children and grandchildren.”
- For a man or woman’s “seed,” consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people. (See: euphemism)

send, send out, sentDefinition:

To “send” is to cause someone or something to go somewhere. To “send out” someone is to tell that person to go on an errand or a mission.

- Often a person who is “sent out” has been appointed to do a specific task.
- Phrases like “send rain” or “send disaster” mean “to cause...to come.” This type of expression is usually used in reference to God causing these things to happen.
- The term “send” is also used in expressions such as “send word” or “send a message” which means to give someone a message to tell someone else.
- To “send” someone “with” something can mean to “give” that thing “to” someone else, usually moving it some distance in order for the person to receive it.
- Jesus frequently uses the phrase “the one who sent me” to refer to God the Father who “sent” him to earth to redeem and save people. This could also be translated as, “commissioned me” or “caused me to come” or “appointed me to go.”

servant, slave, slavery

Definition:

The word for “servant” can also mean “slave” and refers to a person who works for another person, either by choice or by force. The surrounding text usually makes it clear whether a servant or a slave is being referred to.

- In Bible times, there was less of a difference between a servant and a slave than there is today. Both servants and slaves were an important part of their master’s household and many were treated almost like members of the family. Sometimes a servant would choose to become a lifetime servant to his master.
- A slave is a kind of servant who is the property of the person he works for. The person who buys a slave is called his “owner” or “master.” Some masters treat their slaves very cruelly, while other masters treat their slaves very well, like a servant who is a valued member of the household.
- In ancient times, some people willingly became slaves to a person they owed money to in order to pay off their debt to that person.
- In the Bible, the phrase “I am your servant” was used as a sign of respect and service to a person of higher rank, such as a king. It does not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.
- In the Old Testament, God’s prophets and other people who worshiped God are often referred to as his “servants.”
- In the New Testament, people who obey God through faith in Christ are often called his “servants.”
- Christians are also called “slaves to righteousness,” which is a metaphor that compares the commitment to obey God to a slave’s commitment to obeying his master. (See: Metaphor)

- [19-10] Then Elijah prayed, "O Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, show us today that you are the God of Israel and that I am your servant."
- [29-03] "Since the servant could not pay the debt, the king said, 'Sell this man and his family as slaves to make payment on his debt.'"
- [35-06] "All my father's servants have plenty to eat, and yet here I am starving."
- [47-04] The slave girl kept yelling as they walked, "These men are servants of the Most High God."
- [50-04] Jesus also said, "A servant is not greater than his master."

serve, service

Definition:

The term “serve” means to do things to help other people. It can also mean to “worship.”

- In the context of a woman serving her guests, this term means “care for” or “serve food to” or “provide food for.”
- When Jesus told the disciples to serve the fish to the people, this could be translated as, “distribute to” or “hand out to” or “give to.”¹comment_5adb7a6af206fdb7787dd58f4b215940
- The term “service” refers to the act of serving. It can also be used to refer to a “meeting” of Christians as they worship God together.
- The term “serve” can also be translated as, “minister to” or “work for” or “take care of” or “obey,” depending on the context.
- “To serve God” can be translated as “to worship and obey God” or “to do the work that God has commanded.”
- To “serve tables” means to bring food to people who are sitting at tables.
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to “serve” the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses.
- Now they “serve” the new covenant, that is, because of Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.
- Paul talks about this in terms of their “service” to either the old or new covenant. This could be translated as “serving” or “obeying” or “devotion to.”

sleep with, have relations with, lovemaking

Definition:

In the Bible, these terms are euphemisms that refer to having sexual intercourse. (See: Euphemism)

- To “sleep with” someone is a common way of referring to having sexual relations. The past tense is, “slept with.”
- In the Old Testament book, “Song of Solomon,” the ULB uses the term “lovemaking” to translate the word “love,” which in that context refers to sexual relations. This is related to the expression, “make love to.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may use different expressions of this term in different contexts, depending on whether it is talking about a husband and wife, or whether it is about some other relationship. It is important to make sure that the translation of this term has the correct meaning in each context.
- Depending on the context, expressions like these could be used to translate “sleep with”: “lie with” or “make love to” or “be intimate with.”
- Other ways to translate “have relations with” could include, “have sexual relations with” or “have marital relations with.”
- The term “lovemaking” could also be translated as, “loving” or “intimacy.” Or there may be an expression that is a natural way to translate this in the project language.
- It is important to check that the terms used to translate this concept are acceptable to the people who will be using the Bible translation.

sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Definition:

The term “sin” refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God’s will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people don’t know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God’s will are called “sinful.”
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a sinful nature that controls them.
- A “sinner” is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word “sinners” was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who didn’t keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term “sinner” was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sin” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “disobedience to God” or “going against God’s will” or “evil behavior and thoughts” or “wrongdoing.”
- “To sin” could also be translated as “to disobey God” or “to do wrong.”
- Depending on the context, “sinful” could be translated as “full of wrongdoing” or “wicked” or “immoral” or “evil” or “rebellious against God.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sinner” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “person who sins” or “person who does wrong things” or “person who disobeys God” or “person who disobeys the law.”
- The term “sinners” could be translated by a word or phrase that means, “very sinful people” or “people considered to be very sinful” or “immoral people.”
- Ways to translate “tax collectors and sinners” could include, “people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people” or “very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors.”
- In expressions like “slaves to sin” or “ruled by sin,” the term “sin” could be translated as “disobedience” or “evil desires and actions.”
- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people don’t see or know about.
- The term “sin” should be general, and different from the terms for “wickedness” and “evil.”

sister

Definition:

A sister is a female person who shares at least one biological parent with another person.

- In the New Testament, “sister” is also used figuratively to refer to a woman who is a fellow believer in Jesus Christ.
- Sometimes the phrase, “brothers and sisters” is used to refer to all believers in Christ, both men and women.
- In the Old Testament book, Song of Songs, “sister” refers to a lover or a spouse.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological sister, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- Other ways to translate this could include, “sister in Christ” or “spiritual sister” or “woman who believes in Jesus” or “fellow woman believer.”
- If possible, it is best to use a family term.
- If the language has a feminine form for “believer,” this may be a possible way to translate this term.
- When referring to a lover or wife, this could be translated using a feminine form of “loved one” or “dear one.”

sleep, asleep, fall asleep

Definition:

These terms have figurative meanings relating to death.

- To “sleep” or “be asleep” can be a metaphor meaning to “be dead.” (See: Metaphor)
- The expression “fall asleep” refers to the moment when someone starts sleeping, or in its figurative sense, the moment when someone dies.
- To “sleep with the fathers” means to be dead, as one’s ancestors are.

Translation Suggestions:

- In some contexts, the term “to sleep” or “to be asleep” could be translated as “to be dead.”
- To “fall asleep” could be translated as “to suddenly be asleep” or “to start sleeping” or “to die,” depending on its meaning.
- note: It is especially important to keep the figurative expression in contexts where the audience did not understand the meaning. For example, when Jesus told his disciples that Lazarus was “sleeping” they thought he meant that Lazarus was just sleeping naturally. In this context, it would not make sense to translate this as “he died.”
- Some languages may have a different expression for death or dying which could be used if the expression “sleep” or “asleep” does not make sense in the project language.

sow, sower, plant

Definition:

To “sow” means to put seeds in the ground in order to grow plants. A “sower” is a person who sows or plants seeds.

- The method of sowing or planting varies, but one method is to take handfuls of seeds and scatter them on the ground.
- Another method for planting seeds is to make holes in the soil and place seeds in each hole.
- The term “sow” can be used figuratively as in, “a person will reap what he sows.” This means that if a person does something evil, he will receive a negative result. And if a person does good to others, he will receive a positive result.

Translations Suggestions

- The term “sow” could also be translated as “plant.” Make sure the word used to translate this can include planting seeds.
- Other ways to translate “sower” could include, “planter” or “farmer” or “person who plants seeds.”
- In English, “sow” is only used for planting seeds, but the English word “plant” can be used for planting seeds as well as larger things, such as trees. Other languages may also use different words depending on what is being planted.
- The expression, “a person reaps what he sows” could also be translated as, “just like a certain kind of seed produces a certain kind of plant, in the same way a person’s good actions will bring a good result and a person’s evil actions will bring an evil result.”

suffer, suffering

Definition:

The terms “suffer” and “suffering” refer to experiencing something very unpleasant, such as illness, pain, or other hardships.

- When people are persecuted or when they are sick, they suffer.
- Sometimes people suffer because of wrong things they have done; other times they suffer because of sin and disease in the world.
- Suffering can be physical, such as feeling pain or sickness. It can also be emotional such as feeling fear, sadness, or loneliness.
- The phrase “suffer me” means to “bear with me” or “hear me out” or “listen patiently.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “suffer” can be translated as “feel pain” or “endure difficulty” or “experience hardships” or “go through difficult and painful experiences.”
- Depending on the context, “suffering” could be translated as “extremely difficult circumstances” or “severe hardships” or “experiencing hardship” or “time of painful experiences.”
- The phrase “suffer thirst” could be translated as, “experience thirst” or “suffer with thirst.”
- To “suffer violence” could also be translated as “undergo violence” or “be harmed by violent acts.”

- [50-17] He (Jesus) will wipe away every tear and there will be no more suffering, sadness, crying, evil, pain, or death.

teacher, Teacher

Definition:

A teacher is a person who gives other people new information. Teachers help others to obtain and use both knowledge and skills.

- In the Bible, the word “teacher” is used in a special sense to refer to someone who teaches about God. It does not refer to a school teacher.
- People who learn from a teacher are called “students” or “disciples.”
- In some Bible translations, this term is capitalized (“Teacher”) when it is used as a title for Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- The usual word for a teacher can be used to translate this term, unless that word is only used for a school teacher.
- Some cultures may have a special title that is used for religious teachers, such as “Sir” or “Rabbi” or “Preacher.”

- [28-01] One day a rich young ruler came up to Jesus and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to have eternal life?”
- [37-02] After the two days had passed, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.” “But Teacher,” the disciples answered, “Just a short time ago the people there wanted to kill you!”
- [38-14] Judas came to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Teacher,” and kissed him.
- [49-03] Jesus was also a great teacher, and he spoke with authority because he is the Son of God.

temple

Facts:

The temple was a building surrounded by walled courtyards where the Israelites came to pray and to offer sacrifices to God. It was located on Mount Moriah in the city of Jerusalem.

- Often the term “temple” refers to the whole temple complex, including the courtyards that surrounded the main building. Sometimes it refers only to the building.
- The temple building had two rooms, the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.
- God referred to the temple as his dwelling place.
- During the reign of King Solomon he built the Temple, which was the permanent place of worship in Jerusalem.
- In the New Testament, the term “temple of the Holy Spirit” is used to refer to believers in Jesus, because the Holy Spirit lives in them.

Translation Suggestions:

- Usually when the text says that people were “in the temple,” it is referring to the courtyards outside the building. This could be translated as “in the temple courtyards” or “in the temple complex.”
- When it refers specifically to the building itself, some translations will translate “temple” as “temple building,” to make it clear what is being referred to.
- Ways to translate “temple” could include, “God’s holy house” or “sacred worship place.”
- Often in the Bible, the temple is referred to as “the house of Yahweh” or “the house of God.”

- [20-07] They (Babylonians) captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures.

- [20-13] When the people arrived in Jerusalem, they rebuilt the Temple and the wall around the city of the city and the Temple.
- [25-04] Then Satan took Jesus to the highest point on the Temple and said, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘God will command his angels to carry you so your foot does not hit a stone.’”
- [40-07] When he died, there was an earthquake and the large curtain that separated the people from the presence of God in the Temple was torn in two, from the top to the bottom.

tempt, temptation

Definition:

To tempt someone is to try to get that person to do something wrong.

- A temptation is something that causes a person to want to do something wrong.
- People are tempted by their own sinful nature and by other people.
- Satan also tempts people to disobey God and to sin against God by doing wrong things.
- Satan tempted Jesus and tried to get him to do something wrong, but Jesus resisted all of Satan's temptations and never sinned.
- The term "tempt" is also used to refer to tempting God, which means to stubbornly keep disobeying him to the point that he must respond by punishing the disobedient ones. This is also called "testing" God.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "tempt" can be translated as, "try to cause to sin" or "entice" or "cause a desire to sin."
- Ways to translate "temptations" could include, "things that tempt" or "things that entice someone to sin" or "things that cause desire to do something wrong."
- In the context of tempting God, this could be translated as, "put God to the test" or "test God" or "try God's patience" or "cause God to have to punish" or "stubbornly keep disobeying God."

- [38-11] Jesus told his disciples to pray that they would not enter into temptation.

testDefinition:

The term “test” refers to a difficult or painful experience that reveals a person’s strengths and weaknesses.

- God tests people, but he does not tempt them. Satan, however, tempts people to sin.
- God sometimes uses tests to expose people’s sin. A test helps a person to turn away from sin and to draw closer to God.
- Gold and other metals are tested with fire to find out how pure and strong they are. This is a picture of how God uses painful circumstances to test his people.
- To “put to the test” can mean, “challenge something or someone to prove its value.”
- In the context of putting God to the test, it means to keep disobeying him, taking advantage of his mercy.
- Jesus told Satan that it is wrong to put God to the test. He is the almighty, holy God who is above everything and everyone.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “to test” could also be translated as, “to challenge” or “to cause to experience difficulties” or “to prove.”
- Ways to translate “a test” could be, “a challenge” or “a difficult experience.”
- To “put to the test” could be translated as “to test” or “to set up a challenge” or “to force to prove oneself.”
- In the context of testing God, this could be translated as, “trying to force God to prove his love.”
- In some contexts, the term “test” can mean “tempt.”

testimony, testify

Definition:

The terms “testimony” and “testify” refer to making a statement about something that one knows to be true.

- Often a person “testifies” about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives “false testimony” does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term “testimony” refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term is often used to refer to how Jesus’ followers testified about the events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “testify” or “give testimony” could also be translated as, “tell the facts” or “tell what was seen or heard” or “tell from personal experience” or “give evidence” or “tell what happened.”
- Ways to translate “testimony” could include, “report of what happened” or “statement of what is true” or “evidence” or “what has been said” or “prophecy.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony to them” could be translated as, “to show them what is true” or “to prove to them what is true.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony against them” could be translated as, “which will show them their sin” or “exposing their hypocrisy” or “which will prove that they are wrong.”
- To “give false testimony” could be translated as “say false things about” or “state things that are not true.”

the twelve, the eleven

Definition:

The term “the twelve” refers to the twelve men that Jesus chose to be his closest disciples, or apostles. After Judas killed himself, they were called “the eleven.”

- Jesus had many other disciples, but the title “the twelve” distinguished those who followed him throughout his three-year ministry.
- The names of these twelve disciples are listed in Matthew 10, Mark 3, and Luke 6.
- Some time after Jesus had returned to heaven, “the eleven” chose a disciple named Matthias to take Judas’ place. Then they were called “the twelve” again.

Translation Suggestions:

- For many languages it may be more clear or more natural to add the noun and say, “the twelve apostles” or “Jesus’ twelve closest disciples.”
- “The eleven” could also be translated as “Jesus’ eleven remaining disciples.”
- Some translations may prefer to use a capital letter to show that it was used as a title, as in, “the Twelve” and “the Eleven.”

thresh, threshing

Definition:

The terms “thresh” and “threshing” refer to the first part of the process of separating wheat grain from the rest of the wheat plant.

- Threshing the wheat plant loosens the grain from the straw and the chaff. Afterwards the grain is “winnowed” to completely separate the grain from all unwanted materials, leaving only the part the grain that can be eaten.
- In Bible times, a “threshing floor” was a large flat rock or an area of packed-down dirt, giving a hard, level surface to crush the grain stalks and remove the grain.
- A “threshing cart” or “threshing wheel” was sometimes used to crush the grain and help separate it from the straw and chaff.
- A “threshing sledge” or “threshing board” was also used for separating grain. It was made of wooden boards that had sharp metal spikes on the end.

tongue

Definition:

There are several figurative meanings of “tongue” in the Bible.

- In the Bible, the most common figurative meaning for this term is “language” or “speech.”
- Sometimes “tongue” may refer to a human language spoken by a certain people group.
- Other times it refers to a supernatural language that the Holy Spirit gives believers in Christ as one of the “gifts of the Spirit.”
- The expression, “tongues” of fire refers to “flames” of fire.
- In the expression “my tongue rejoices,” the term “tongue” refers to the whole person. (See: Synecdoche)
- The phrase “lying tongues” refers to a person’s voice or speech. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “tongue” can be translated by “language” or “spiritual language.” If it is not clear which one it is referring to, it is better to translate it as “language.”
- When referring to fire, this term could be translated as, “flames.”
- The expression “my tongue rejoices” could be translated as, “I rejoice and praise God” or “I am joyfully praising God.”
- The phrase, “tongue that lies” could be translated as, “person who tell lies” or “people who lie.”
- Phrases such as “with their tongues” could be translated as, “with what they say” or “by their words.”

tradition

Definition:

The term “tradition” refers to customs and practices that have been kept over time and which are passed down to people in later generations.

- Often in the Bible the word “traditions” refers to teachings and practices that people made, not God’s laws. The expression, “tradition of men” or “human tradition” makes this clear.
- Phrases such as “traditions of the elders” or “traditions of my fathers” refer specifically to Jewish customs and practices that Jewish leaders over time had added to the laws God gave to the Israelites through Moses. Even though these added traditions did not come from God, people thought they had to obey them in order to be righteous.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “tradition” in a different way to refer to teachings about Christian practice that came from God and that he and other apostles had taught new believers.
- In modern times, there are many Christian traditions that are not taught in the Bible, but rather are the result of historically accepted customs and practices. These traditions should always be evaluated in light of what God teaches us in the Bible.

uncircumcised, uncircumcision

Definition:

The terms “uncircumcised” and “uncircumcision” refer to a male who has not been physically circumcised. These terms are also used figuratively.

- Egypt was a nation that also required circumcision. So when God talks about Egypt being defeated by the “uncircumcised,” he is referring to people whom the Egyptians despised for not being circumcised.
- The Bible refers to people who have an “uncircumcised heart” or who are “uncircumcised in heart.” This is a figurative way of saying that these people are not God’s people, and are stubbornly disobedient to him.

Translation Suggestions:

- If a word for circumcision is used or known in the language, “uncircumcised” could be translated as “not circumcised.”
- The expression, “the uncircumcision” could be translated as “people who are not circumcised” or “people who do not belong to God,” depending on the context.
- Other ways to translate figurative senses of this term could include, “not God’s people” or “rebellious like those who don’t belong to God” or “people who have no sign of belonging to God.”
- The expression “uncircumcised in heart” could be translated as, “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to believe.” However, if possible it is best to keep the expression or a similar one since spiritual circumcision is an important concept.

unclean

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “unclean” is used figuratively to refer to things that God declared to be unfit for his people to touch, eat, or sacrifice.

- God gave the Israelites instructions about which animals were “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” The unclean animals were not permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice.
- People with certain skin diseases were said to be “unclean” until they were healed.
- If the Israelites touched something “unclean,” they themselves would be considered unclean for a certain period of time.
- Obeying God’s commands about not touching or eating unclean things kept the Israelites set apart for God’s service.
- This physical and ritual uncleanness was also symbolic of moral uncleanness.
- In another figurative sense, an “unclean spirit” refers to an evil spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “unclean” could also be translated as “not clean” or “unfit in God’s eyes” or “physically unclean” or “defiled.”
- When referring to a demon as an unclean spirit, “unclean” could be translated as “evil” or “defiled.”
- The translation of this term should allow for spiritual uncleanness. It should be able to refer to anything that God declared as unfit for touching, eating, or sacrifice.

unleavened bread, Festival of Unleavened Bread

Definition:

The term “unleavened bread” refers to bread that is made without yeast or other leavening. This kind of bread is flat because it has no leaven to make it rise. The “Festival of Unleavened Bread” is part of the Passover celebration.

- When God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, he told them to flee Egypt quickly without waiting for their bread to rise. So they ate unleavened bread with their meal. Since then unleavened bread is used in their yearly Passover celebrations to remind them of that time.
- For this reason, the week leading up to Passover is called the “Festival of Unleavened Bread.”
- Since leaven sometimes is used as a picture of sin, “unleavened bread” represents the removal of sin from a person’s life in order to live in a way that honors God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate this term could include, “bread with no yeast” or “flat bread that did not rise.”
- Make sure the translation of this term is consistent with how you translate the term “yeast, leaven.”
- In some contexts, the term “unleavened bread” refers to the “Feast of Unleavened Bread” and can be translated that way.

VOWDefinition:

A vow is a promise that a person makes to God. The person promises to do a certain thing in order to specially honor God or to show devotion to him.

- After a person makes a vow, he is obligated to fulfill that vow.
- The Bible teaches that a person may be judged by God if he doesn't keep his vow.
- Sometimes a person may ask God to protect him or provide for him in exchange for making the vow.
- But God is not required to fulfill a request that a person asks for in his vow.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, "vow" could be translated as "solemn promise" or "promise made to God."
- This word should be translated differently than "oath."

walk

Definition:

The term “walk” is often used in a figurative sense to mean “live.”

- “Enoch walked with God” means that Enoch lived in a close relationship with God.
- To “walk by the Spirit” means to be guided by the Holy Spirit so that we do things that please and honor God.
- To “walk in” God’s commands or God’s ways means to “live in obedience to” his commands, that is, to “obey his commands” or “do his will.”
- When God says he will “walk among” his people, it means that he is living among them or closely interacting with them.
- To “walk contrary to” means to live or behave in a way that is against something or someone.
- To “walk after” means to seek or pursue someone or something. It can also mean to act in the same way as someone else.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate “walk” literally, as long as the correct meaning will be understood.
- Otherwise, figurative uses of “walk” could also be translated by “live” or “act” or “behave.”
- The phrase “walk by the Spirit” could be translated by, “live in obedience to the Holy Spirit” or “behave in a way that is pleasing to the Holy Spirit” or “do things that are pleasing to God as the Holy Spirit guides you.”
- To “walk in God’s commands” could be translated by “live by God’s commands” or “obey God’s commands.”
- The phrase “walked with God” could be translated as, “lived in close relationship with God by obeying and honoring him.”

wise, wisdom

Definition:

The term “wise” describes someone who understands what is the right and moral thing to do and then does that. “Wisdom” is the understanding and practice of what is true and morally right.

- Being wise includes the ability to make good decisions, especially choosing to do what pleases God.
- In the Bible, the term “worldly wisdom” is a figurative way of referring to what people in this world think is wise, but which is actually foolish.
- People become wise by listening to God and humbly obeying his will.
- A wise person will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit in his life, such as joy, kindness, love and patience.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “wise” could include, “obedient to God” or “sensible and obedient” or “God-fearing.”
- “Wisdom” could be translated by a word or phrase that means, “wise living” or “sensible and obedient living” or “good judgment.”
- It is best to translate “wise” and “wisdom” in such a way that they are different terms from other key terms like righteous or obedient.

- [23-09] Some time later, wise men from countries far to the east saw an unusual star in the sky.
- [45-01] He (Stephen) had a good reputation and was full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom.

woeDefinition:

The term “woe” refers to a feeling of great distress. It also gives a warning that someone will experience severe trouble.

- The expression “woe to” is followed by a warning to people that they will experience suffering as punishment for their sins.
- In several places in the Bible, the word “woe” is repeated, to emphasize an especially terrible judgment.
- A person who says, “woe is me” or “woe to me” is expressing sorrow about severe suffering.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “woe” could also be translated as “great sorrow” or “sadness” or “calamity” or “disaster.”
- Other ways to translate the expression, “Woe to (name of city)” could include, “How terrible it will be for (name of city)” or “(The people in) that city will be severely punished” or “Those people will suffer greatly.”
- The expression, “Woe is me!” or “Woe to me!” could be translated as “How sad I am!” or “I am so sad” or “How terrible this is for me!”
- The expression, “Woe to you” could also be translated as “You will suffer terribly” or “You will experience terrible troubles.”

wordDefinition:

A “word” refers to something that someone has said.

- An example of this would be when the angel told Zechariah, “You did not believe my words,” which means, “You did not believe what I said.”
- This term almost always refers to an entire message, not just one word.
- Often in the Bible “the word” refers to everything God has said or commanded, as in “the word of God” or “the word of truth.”
- Sometimes “word” refers to speech in general, such as “powerful in word and deed” which means “powerful in speech and behavior.”
- A very special use of this term is when Jesus is called “the Word.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Different ways of translating “word” or “words” include, “teaching” or “message” or “news” or “a saying” or “what was said.”
- When it refers to Jesus as “the Word,” this term could be translated as “the Message” or “the Saying.”

word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, scripture

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “word of God” refers to anything that God has communicated to people. This includes spoken and written messages. Jesus is also called “the Word of God.”

- The term “scriptures” means “writings.” It is only used in the New Testament and refers to the Hebrew scriptures or “Old Testament.” These writings were God’s message that he had told people to write down so that many years in the future people can still read it.
- The related terms “word of Yahweh” and “word of the Lord” often refer to a specific message from God that was given to a prophet or other person in the Bible.
- Sometimes this term occurs as simply “the word” or “my word” or “your word” (when talking about God’s word).
- In the New Testament, Jesus is called “the Word” and “the Word of God.” These titles mean that Jesus fully reveals who God is, because he is God himself.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include, “the message of Yahweh” or “God’s message” or “the teachings from God.”
- It may be more natural in some languages to make this term plural and say “God’s words” or “the words of Yahweh.”
- The expression “the word of Yahweh came” is often used to introduce something that God told his prophets or his people. This could be translated as, “Yahweh spoke this message” or “Yahweh spoke these words.”
- The term “scripture” or “scriptures” could be translated as “the writings” or “the written message from God.” This term should be translated differently from the translation of the term “word.”
- When “word” occurs alone, it could be translated as “message” or “God’s word” or “teachings,” depending on the context. Also consider the alternate translations suggested above.

works, deeds, work, acts

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “works,” “deeds,” and “acts” are used to refer generally to things that God or people do.

- The term “work” refers to doing labor or anything that is done to serve other people.
- God’s “works” and the “work of his hands” are expressions that refer to all the things he does or has done, including creating the world, saving sinners, providing for the needs of all creation and keeping the entire universe in place. The terms “deeds” and “acts” are also used to refer to God’s miracles in expressions such as, “mighty acts” or “marvelous deeds.”
- The works or deeds that a person does can be either good or evil.
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to do good works, which are also called “good fruit.”
- People are not saved by their good works; they are saved through faith in Jesus.
- A person’s “work” can be what he does to earn a living or to serve God. The Bible also refers to God as “working.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “works” or “deeds” could be, “actions” or “things that are done.”
- When referring to God’s “works” or “deeds” and the “work of his hands,” these expressions could also be translated as, “miracles” or “mighty acts” or “amazing things he does.”
- The expression, “the work of God” could be translated as, “the things that God is doing” or “the miracles God does” or “the amazing things that God does” or “everything God has accomplished.”
- The term “work” can just be the singular of “works” as in, “every good work” or “every good deed.”
- The term “work” can also have the broader meaning of “service” or “ministry.” For example, the expression, “your work in the Lord” could also be translated as, “what you do for the Lord.”
- The expression, “examine your own work” could also be translated as, “make sure what you are doing is God’s will” or “make sure that what you are doing pleases God.”
- The expression “the work of the Holy Spirit” could be translated as, “the empowering of the Holy Spirit” or “the ministry of the Holy Spirit” or “the things that the Holy Spirit does.”

world, worldly

Definition:

The term “world” usually refers to the part of the universe where people live: the earth. The term “worldly” describes the evil values and behaviors of people living in this world.

- In its most general sense, the term “world” refers to the heavens and the earth, as well as everything in them.
- In many contexts, “world” actually means, “people in the world.”
- Sometimes it is implied that this refers to the evil people on earth or the people who do not obey God.
- The apostles also used “world” to refer to the selfish behaviors and corrupt values of the people living in this world. This can include self-righteous religious practices which are based on human efforts.
- People and things characterized by these values are said to be “worldly.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “world” could also be translated as, “universe” or “people of this world” or “corrupt things in the world” or “evil attitudes of people in the world.”
- The phrase “all the world” often means “many people” and refers to the people living in a certain region. For example, “all the world came to Egypt” could be translated as, “many people from the surrounding countries came to Egypt” or “people from all the countries surrounding Egypt came there.”
- Another way to translate “all the world went to their hometown to be registered in the Roman census” would be, “many of the people living in regions ruled by the Roman empire went...”
- Depending on the context, the term “worldly” could be translated as, “evil” or “sinful” or “selfish” or “ungodly” or “corrupt” or “influenced by the corrupt values of people in this world.”
- The phrase “saying these things in the world” can be translated as “saying these things to the people of the world.”
- In other contexts, “in the world” could also be translated as, “living among the people of the world” or “living among ungodly people.”

writtenDefinition:

The phrase “as it is written” or “what is written” occurs frequently in the New Testament and usually refers to commands or prophecies that were written in the Hebrew scriptures.

- Sometimes “as it is written” refers to what was written in the Law of Moses.
- Other times it is a quote from what one of the prophets wrote in the Old Testament.
- This could be translated: “as it is written in the Law of Moses” or “as the prophets wrote long ago” or “what it says in God’s laws that Moses wrote down long ago”.
- Another option is to keep “It is written” and give a footnote that explains what this means.

yeast, leaven

Definition:

“Leaven” is a general term for a substance that causes bread dough to expand and rise. “Yeast” is a specific kind of leaven.

- In some English translations, the word for leaven is translated as “yeast,” which is a modern leavening agent that fills the bread dough with gas bubbles, making the dough expand before baking it. The yeast is kneaded into the dough so that it spreads throughout the entire lump of dough.
- In Old Testament times, the leavening or rising agent was produced by allowing the dough to sit for awhile. Small amounts of dough from a previous batch of dough were saved as leavening for the next batch.
- When the Israelites escaped from Egypt, they didn’t have time to wait for bread dough to rise, so they made bread without leaven to take with them on their journey. As a reminder of this, every year the Jewish people celebrate Passover by eating bread that has no leaven in it.
- The term “leaven” or “yeast” is used figuratively in the Bible as a picture of how sin spreads through a person’s life or how sin can influence other people.
- It can also refer to false teaching which often spreads to many people and influences them.
- The term “leaven” is also used in a positive way to explain how the influence of God’s kingdom spreads from person to person.

Translation Suggestions

- This could be translated as “leaven” or “substance that causes dough to rise” or “expanding agent.” The word “rise” could be expressed as “expand” or “get bigger” or “puff up.”
- If a local leavening agent is used for making bread dough rise, that term can be used. If the language has a well-known, general term that means, “leavening,” this would be the best term to use.

First, Second or Third Person

This answers the question: What are first, second, and third person, and how do I translate when a third person form does not refer to the third person?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Making Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information Explicit
- Pronouns

Normally a speaker refers to himself as “I” and the person he is speaking to as “you.” Sometimes in the Bible a speaker referred to himself or to the person he was speaking to with a phrase other than “I” or “you”.

Description

Definitions

- First person - This is how a speaker normally refers to himself. English uses the pronouns “I” and “we”. (Also: me, my, mine; us, our, ours)
- Second person - This is how a speaker normally refers to the person or people he is speaking to. English uses the pronoun “you.” (Also: your, yours)
- Third person - This is how a speaker refers to someone else. English uses the pronouns “he,” “she,” “it” and “they.” (Also: him, his, her, hers, its; them, their, theirs) Noun phrases like “the man” or “the woman” are also third person.

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker used the third person to refer to himself or the people he was speaking to. Readers might think that the speaker was referring to someone else. They might not understand that he meant “I” or “you.”

Examples from the Bible

Sometimes people uses the third person instead of “I” or “me” to refer to themselves.

But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34 ULB)

David referred to himself in the third person as “your servant” and “his.” He was calling himself Saul’s servant in order to show his humility before Saul.

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said,
 “... Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like him? (Job 40:6, 9 ULB)

God referred to himself in the third person with the words “God’s” and “him.” He did this to emphasize that he is God, and he is powerful. Sometimes people use the third person instead of “you” or “your” to refer to the person or people they are speaking to.

Abraham answered and said, “Look what I have done, taking it upon myself to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes! (Genesis 18:27 ULB)

Abraham was speaking to the Lord, and referred to the Lord as “My Lord” rather than as “you.” He did this to show his humility before God.

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULB)

After saying “each of you,” Jesus used the third person “his” instead of “your.”

Translation Strategies

If using the third person to mean “I” or “you” would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Use the the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”
2. Simply use the first or second person.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you.”

- But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34)
 - But David said to Saul, “I, your servant, used to keep my father’s sheep.”

2. Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”).

- Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like him?” (Job 40:6, 9 ULB)
 - Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like mine? Can you thunder with a voice like me?”
- So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULB)
 - So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart.

Abstract Nouns

This answers the question: What are abstract nouns and how do I deal with them in my translation?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

Abstract nouns are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even to relationships among these ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as happiness, weight, injury, unity, friendship, health, and reason. This is a translation issue because some languages may express a certain idea with an abstract noun, while others would need a different way to express it. For example, "What is its weight?" could be expressed as "How much does it weigh?" or "How heavy is it?"

Description

Remember that nouns are words that refer to a person, place, thing, or idea. ABSTRACT NOUNS are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even to relationships among these ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as joy, peace, creation, goodness, contentment, justice, truth, freedom, vengeance, slowness, length, and weight.

Abstract nouns allow us to express thoughts about ideas in fewer words than if we did not have those nouns. For example, we can say, "I believe in the forgiveness of sin." But if English did not have the two abstract nouns "forgiveness" and "sin," then we would have to make a longer sentence to express the same meaning. We would have to say, for example, "I believe that God is willing to forgive people after they have sinned."

Abstract nouns also allow us to refer to a situation without telling more details about it than we want to tell. For example, we can say "I got here late because there was an accident on the highway." "Accident" is an abstract noun. If it does not matter whose accident it was, or what kind of accident it was, then it can be better if I do not have to say these things about it.

Reason this is a translation issue: The Bible that you translate from may use abstract nouns to express certain ideas. Your language might not use abstract nouns for some of those ideas; instead, it might use phrases to express those ideas. Those phrases will have other kinds of words such as adjectives, verbs, or adverbs, that express some of the meaning in the abstract noun.

Examples from the Bible

from childhood you have known the sacred writings (2 Timothy 3:15 ULB)

The abstract noun "childhood" refers to when someone is a child.

But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULB)

The abstract nouns “godliness” and “contentment” refer to being godly and content. The abstract noun “gain” refers to something that benefits or helps someone.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULB)

The abstract noun “salvation” here refers to being saved.

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9 ULB)

The abstract noun “slowness” refers how slowly something is done.

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5 ULB)

The abstract noun “purposes” refers to the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them.

Translation Strategies

If an abstract noun would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun.

- from childhood you have known the sacred writings (2 Timothy 3:15 ULB)
 - ”Ever since you were a child you have known the sacred writings.”
- But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULB)
 - ”But being godly and content is very beneficial.”
 - ”But we benefit greatly when we are godly and content.”
 - ”But we benefit greatly when we honor and obey God and when we are happy with what we have.
- Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULB)
 - ”Today the people in this house have been saved...”
 - ”Today God has saved the people in this house...”
- The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9 ULB)

- "The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider moving slowly to be"
- He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart.
(1 Corinthians 4:5 ULB)
 - "He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them."

Active or Passive

This answers the question: What do active and passive mean, and how do I translate passive sentences?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Sentence Structure
- Verbs

Some languages have both active and passive sentences. In active sentences, the subject does the action. In passive sentences the subject is the one that the action is done to. Here are some examples with their subjects underlined:

- ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.
- PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010.

Translators whose languages do not have passive sentences will need to know how they can translate passive sentences that they find in the Bible. Other translators will need to decide when to use a passive sentence and when not to.

Description

Some languages have both active and passive forms of sentences.

- In the ACTIVE form, the subject does the action and is always mentioned.
- In the PASSIVE form, the action is done to the subject and the one who does the action is not always mentioned.

In the examples of active and passive sentences below, we have underlined the subject.

ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.

PASSIVE: The house was built by my father in 2010.

PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010. (This does not tell who did the action.)

All languages have active forms. Some languages have passive forms, and some do not. The passive form is not used for the same reasons in all of the languages that have it.

Purposes for the passive:

- The speaker is talking about the person or thing the action was done to, not about the person who did the action.
- The speaker does not want to tell who did the action.
- The speaker does not know who did the action.

Translation Principles Regarding the Passive

- Translators whose language does not use passive forms will need to find another way to express the idea.
- Translators whose language has passive forms will need to understand why the passive is used in a particular sentence in the Bible and decide whether or not to use a passive form for that purpose in his translation of the sentence.

Examples from the Bible

And their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed too. (2 Samuel 11:24 ULB)

This means that the enemies shooters shot and killed some of the king's servants, including Uriah. The point is what happened to the king's servants and Uriah, not who shot them.

In the morning when the men of the town got up, the altar of Baal was broken down ... (Judges 6:28 ULB)

The men of the town saw what had happened to the altar of Baal, but they did not know who broke it down.

No stonework was seen there. (1 Kings 6:18 ULB)

This means that no one saw stonework there. The point is that no stonework was done there.

Translation Strategies

If you decide that it is better to translate without a passive form, here are some strategies you might consider.

1. Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who or what did the action.
2. Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who or what did the action.
3. Use a different verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who did the action.

- A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULB)
 - The king's servants gave Jeremiah a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

2. Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who did the action. Instead use a generic expression like "they," or "people," or "someone."

- It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea (Luke 17:2 ULB)
 - It would be better for him if they were to put a millstone around his neck and throw him into the sea.
 - It would be better for him if someone were to put a heavy stone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

3. Use a different verb in an active sentence.

- A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULB)
 - He received a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

Apostrophe

This answers the question: What is the figure of speech called apostrophe?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. This calls his listener's attention to his feelings toward that person or thing.

Mountains of Gilboa, Let there not be dew or rain on you (2 Samuel 1:21 ULB)

King Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa, and David sang a sad song about it. By telling the mountains that he wanted them to have no dew or rain, he showed how sad he was.

Description

Apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him. This calls his listener's attention to his feelings toward that person or thing.

Reason this is a translation issue: Many languages do not use apostrophe, and readers could be confused by it. They may wonder who the speaker is talking to.

Examples from the Bible

Come now, you who are rich, cry out loud because of the miseries coming upon you.
(James 5:1 ULB)

James wrote to the church, which was made up of poor people, as if rich people could hear him, showing his anger about what rich people were doing.

The man of God cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh and said, "Altar, altar, Yahweh says, '... on you they will burn men's bones.'" (1 Kings 13:2 ULB)

The man of God spoke as if the altar could hear him, but he really wanted the king, who was standing there, to hear him.

Translation Strategies

If apostrophe would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option.

1. Have the speaker express his feelings toward the thing or idea without speaking directly to it.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If this way of speaking would be confusing to your people, you may preserve the meaning of the apostrophe and let the speaker continue speaking to the people that are listening to him.

- The man of God cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh and said, "Altar, altar, Yahweh says, ' ... on you they will burn men's bones.' " (1 Kings 13:2 ULB)
 - "The man of God said, "This is what Yahweh says about this altar' ... They will burn men's bones on it."

Double Negatives

This answers the question: What are double negatives?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Parts of Speech
- Sentences

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that express the meaning of “not.”

It is not that we do not have authority (2 Thessalonians 3:9)

Be sure of this—wicked people will not go unpunished (Proverbs 11:21)

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages. To translate sentences that have double negatives accurately and clearly, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express this idea in your language.

Description

Most languages express the negative near the verb or at the beginning or end of the sentence. Some languages also have prefixes or suffixes that express the negative as in “unhappy,” “impossible,” and “useless.” Some languages can also express the negative with pronouns like “none,” “nothing,” and “no one,” with adverbs like “nowhere,” and with prepositions like “without.”

A double negative occurs when a sentence has two words that express the meaning of “not.”

It is not that we do not have authority (2 Thessalonians 3:9 ULB)

And this better confidence did not happen without the taking of an oath, (Hebrews 7:20 ULB)

Be sure of this—wicked people will not go unpunished (Proverbs 11:21 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages.

- In some languages, such as Spanish, a double negative emphasizes the negative. The following Spanish sentence No ví a nadie is literally “I did not see no one.” It has both the word ‘no’ next to the verb and ‘nadie,’ which means “no one.” It emphasizes the negative, and means “I did not see anyone.”
- In some languages a double negative simply means a positive. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is attractive.”
- In some language the double negative weakens the adjective. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is a little bit attractive.”
- In some languages, such as the languages of the Bible, the double negative often strengthens the adjective. So “She is not unattractive” means “She is very attractive.”

To translate sentences with double negatives accurately and clearly in your language, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express the same idea in your language.

Examples from the Bible

so that they may not be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14 ULB)

This means “so that they will be fruitful.”

All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

By using a double negative John emphasized that the Son of God created absolutely everything.

Translation Strategies

If double negatives are natural and are used to express the positive in your language, consider using them. Otherwise, you could consider these strategies:

1. If the double negative simply expresses the positive, remove the two negatives.
2. If the double negative emphasizes the positive, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “surely.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the double negative simply expresses the positive, remove the two negatives.
 - For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses (Hebrews 4:15 ULB)
 - “For we have a high priest who can feel sympathy for our weaknesses”
 - so that they may not be *unfruitful (Titus 3:14 ULB)
 - “so that they may be fruitful”
2. If the double negative emphasizes the positive, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “certainly.”
 - Be sure of this—wicked people will not go *unpunished (Proverbs 11:21 ULB)
 - “Be sure of this—wicked people will certainly be punished”
 - All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

- "All things were made through him. He made absolutely everything that has been made."

Ellipsis

This answers the question: What is ellipsis?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Sentences

Ellipsis is where a speaker or writer leaves one or more words out of a sentence because he knows that the hearer or reader will understand the meaning of the sentence and fill in the words in his mind when he hears or reads the words that are there.

Description

Ellipsis is where one or more words are left out of the sentence because the sentence can be understood without them. The information that is omitted has usually already been stated in a preceding sentence or phrase.

the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous (Psalm 1:5)

This is ellipsis because “sinners in the assembly of the righteous” is not a complete sentence. The speaker assumes that the hearer will understand what it is that sinners will not do in the assembly of the righteous.

Reason this is a translation issue: Readers who see incomplete sentences or phrases may not know what the missing information is.

Examples from the Bible

when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?”
He said, “Lord, that I might receive my sight.” (Luke 18:40-41 ULB)

The man answered in an incomplete sentence because he wanted to be polite by giving Jesus only as much information as necessary. He did not say that he wanted Jesus to heal him, because he knew that Jesus would understand that if he wanted to receive his sight, Jesus would have to heal him.

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULB)

The writer wants his words to be few and to make good poetry. He did not say that Yahweh makes Sirion skip like a young ox because he knew that his readers could fill in the information themselves.

Translation Strategies

If ellipsis would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

- the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor *sinner*s in the assembly of the righteous (Psalm 1:5)
 - "the wicked will not stand in the judgment, and *sinner*s will not stand in the assembly of the righteous"
- when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, that I might receive my sight." (Luke 18:40-41)
 - "when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' He said, 'Lord, I want you to heal me that I might receive my sight.'"
- He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6)
 - "He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox."

Euphemism

This answers the question: What is a Euphemism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable, such as death or activities usually done in private. Its purpose is to avoid offending the people who hear or read it.

Description

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable. Its purpose is to avoid offending the people who hear or read it.

they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8 ULB)

This means that Saul and his sons were dead. It is euphemism because the important thing was not that Saul and his sons had fallen but that they were dead. Sometimes people do not like to speak directly about death because it is unpleasant.

Reason this is a translation issue: Readers may think that the writer means only what the words literally say.

Examples from the Bible

where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself (1 Samuel 24:3 ULB)

The original hearers would have understood that Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet, but the writer wanted to avoid offending or distracting them, so he does not say specifically what Saul did or what he left in the cave.

whether we are awake or asleep (1 Thessalonians 5:10 ULB)

Paul refers to being dead as being “asleep” so that instead of thinking that they will never see their loved ones again in this life, his readers will remember that they will see them again when Jesus establishes his kingdom.

Translation Strategies

If euphemism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Use a euphemism from your own culture.
2. State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use a euphemism from your own culture.

- where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself (1 Samuel 24:3 ULB) - Some languages might use euphemisms like these:
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet”
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to dig a hole”
 - “where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to have some time alone”

2. State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

- whether we are awake or asleep (1 Thessalonians 5:10 ULB)
 - “whether we are alive or dead”

Exclusive “We”

This answers the question: What is exclusive “we”?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Pronouns

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we” will need to understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The exclusive form excludes the person being spoken to. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.

Reason this is a translation issue - The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we”. Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we” will need to understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples from the Bible

Forgive us our sins (Luke 11:4 ULB)

God has no sins to forgive; so languages that have exclusive forms of “we” and “us” would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us (1 John 1:2 ULB)

John is telling people who have not seen Jesus what he and the other apostles have seen. So languages that have exclusive forms of “we” and “us” would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

This answers the question: What are assumed knowledge, implicit information, and explicit information?

Assumed knowledge is whatever a speaker assumes his audience knows before he speaks and gives them some kind of information. There are two types information.

- Explicit information is what the speaker states directly.
- Implicit information is what the speaker does not state directly because he expects his audience to be able to learn it from what he says.

Description

When someone speaks or writes, he has something specific that he wants people to know. He normally states this directly. This is explicit information.

The speaker assumes that his audience already knows certain things that they will think about in order to understand this information. Normally he does not tell people these things, although what he says may remind them. This is called assumed knowledge.

The speaker does not always directly state everything that he expects his audience to learn from what he says. Information that he expects people to learn from what he says even though he does not state it directly is implicit information.

Examples from the Bible

Then a scribe came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." (Matthew 8:20 ULB)

Jesus did not say what foxes and birds use holes and nests for, because he assumed that the scribe would have known that foxes sleep in holes in the ground and birds sleep in their nests. This is assumed knowledge. Jesus did not directly say here "I am the Son of Man" but, if the scribe did not already know it, then that fact would be implicit information that he could learn because Jesus referred to himself that way. Jesus did not state explicitly that he travelled a lot and did not have a house that he slept in every night. That is implicit information that the scribe could learn when Jesus said that he had nowhere to lay his head.

Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you. (Matthew 11:21, 22 ULB)

Jesus assumed that the people he was speaking to knew that Tyre and Sidon were very wicked, and that the day of judgment is a time when God will judge every person. Jesus also knew that the people he was talking to believed that they were good and did not need to repent. Jesus did not need to tell them these things. This is all assumed knowledge.

An important piece of implicit information here is that because the people he was speaking to did not repent, they would be judged more severely than the people of Tyre and Sidon would be judged.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat. (Matthew 15:2 ULB)

One of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating. People thought that in order to be righteous, they had to follow all the traditions of the elders. This was assumed knowledge that the Pharisees who were speaking to Jesus expected him to know. They were accusing his disciples of not following the traditions. This is implicit information that they wanted him to understand from what they said.

Hendiadys

This answers the question: What is hendiadys and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Parts of Speech

Hendiadys is when a speaker makes a single idea more forceful by connecting two nouns or adjectives with “and” when one of the words actually describes the other.

Description

Hendiadys is when a speaker expresses a single idea by connecting two words with “and” when one of the words actually describes the other.

his own kingdom and glory (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)

Though “kingdom” and “glory” are both nouns, “glory” actually tells what kind of kingdom it is: it is a kingdom of glory or a glorious kingdom.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Often hendiadys has an abstract noun. Some languages may not have a noun with the same meaning.
- Some languages do not use hendiadys, so people may not understand that one word describes the other.

Examples from the Bible

for I will give you words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)

“Words” and “wisdom” are nouns, but in this figure of speech “wisdom” describes “words.”

if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB)

“Willing” and “obedient” are adjectives, but “willing” describes “obedient.”

Translation Strategies

If the hendiadys would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Substitute one noun with an adjective that means the same thing.
2. Substitute one noun with a phrase that means the same thing.
3. Substitute one adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

4. Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word describes the other.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Substitute one noun with an adjective that means the same thing.

- for I will give you *words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)
 - "For I will give you wise words"
- that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to *his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)
 - "that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own glorious kingdom."

2. Substitute one noun with a phrase that means the same thing.

- for I will give you *words and wisdom (Luke 21:15 ULB)
 - "For I will give you words of wisdom"
- that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to *his own kingdom and glory. (1 Thessalonians 2:12 ULB)
 - "that you should walk in a manner that is worthy of God, who calls you to his own kingdom of glory."

3. Substitute one adjective with an adverb that means the same thing.

- if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB)
 - "if you are willingly obedient"

4. Substitute other parts of speech that mean the same thing and show that one word describes the other.

- if you are willing and obedient (Isaiah 1:19 ULB) - The adjective "obedient" can be substituted with the verb "obey."
 - "if you obey willingly"

Hyperbole

This answers the question: What is hyperbole?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Hyperbole is a figure of speech in which the speaker shows that something is very important by describing it as larger or greater than it really is. He may greatly exaggerate something in order to show his strong feeling or opinion about it, or he may generalize the situation by using words like “every” or “all” to mean “many.”

Description

Hyperbole is a figure of speech in which the speaker shows that something is very important by describing it as larger or greater than it really is. There are two kinds of hyperbole:

1. Exaggeration: This is when a speaker deliberately describes something by an extreme or even unreal statement, usually to show his strong feeling or opinion about it.

Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:27 ULB) - This is an exaggeration. It means that whoever wants to be Jesus’ disciple must be determined to follow him faithfully, even if his enemies were to kill that person.

2. Generalization: This is when a speaker uses words like “every” or “all” to mean something like “very many,” but not “every one.” (Some people may not call generalization like this “hyperbole.”)

Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians (Acts 7:22 ULB) - This is a generalization. It means that he had learned much of what the Egyptians knew and taught.

Reason this is a translation issue

If readers do not understand that a statement is a hyperbole, they may either think that something happened that did not happen, or they may think that the speaker or writer was saying something that is not true.

Examples from the Bible

Examples of Exaggeration

If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed... (Mark 9:43 ULB)

When Jesus said to cut off your hand, he meant that we should do whatever extreme things we need to do in order not to sin. He used this hyperbole to show how extremely important it is to try to stop sinning.

If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:26 ULB)

Because of many other things that Jesus said, we know that his use of the word “hate” here is hyperbole. He meant that we must not love even our own family members more than we love him. We must love him more than we love ourselves or anyone else.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5 ULB)

The underlined phrase is an exaggeration. It means that there were many, many soldiers in the Philistine army.

Examples of Generalization

They found him, and they said to him, “Everyone is looking for you.” (Mark 1:37 ULB)

The disciples told Jesus that everyone was looking looking for him. They probably did not mean that everyone in the city was looking for him, but that many people were looking for him, or that all of Jesus closest friends there were looking for him.

But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and even as it has taught you, remain in him. (1 John 2:27 ULB)

This is a generalization. God’s Spirit teaches us about all things that we need to know.

Caution

Do not assume that something is hyperbole just because it seems to be impossible. God does miraculous things.

... they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat ... (John 6:19 ULB)

This is not hyperbole. Jesus really walked on the water. It is a literal statement.

... for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. (Romans 3:23 ULB)

The word “all” here is not hyperbole. All humans have sinned. The only human who has never sinned is Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Translation Strategies

If the hyperbole would be natural and people would understand it and not think that it is a lie, consider using it. If not, here is another option.

1. Express the meaning without the hyperbole. For example “all the people” could be translated as “large crowds of people.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Express the meaning without the hyperbole.

- If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple. (Luke 14:26 ULB)
 - “If anyone comes to me and does not love me much more than he loves his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters—yes, and his own life also—he cannot be my disciple.”
- The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5 ULB)
 - “The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and a great number of troops.”

Idiom

This answers the question: What are idioms and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

An idiom is a certain kind of figure of speech, the kind that usually cannot be correctly understood without being told its true meaning. Every language has them. Some English examples are:

- You are pulling my leg (This means, “You are telling me a lie”)
- Do not push the envelope (This means, “Do not take a matter to its extreme”)
- This house is under water (This means, “The debt owed for this house is greater than its actual value”)
- We are painting the town red (This means, “We are going around town tonight celebrating very intensely”)

Description

An idiom is a phrase that has a special meaning to the people of the language or culture that uses it. Its meaning may be different from what a person would understand from the meanings of the individual words that form the phrase.

he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULB)

The words “set his face” is an idiom that means “decided.”

Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULB)

The words “enter under my roof” is an idiom that means “enter my house.”

Let these words go deeply into your ears (Luke 9:44 ULB)

This idiom means “Listen carefully and remember what I say.”

Purpose: An idiom is created in a culture probably somewhat by accident when someone describes something in an unusual way. But, when that unusual way communicates the message powerfully and people understand it clearly, other people start to use it.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People can easily misunderstand idioms in the original languages of the Bible if they do not know the cultures that originally wrote the Bible.
- People can easily misunderstand idioms that are in the source language Bibles if they do not know the cultures that made those translations.

Examples from the Bible

“Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, ”Look, we are your flesh and bone.”
(1 Chronicles 11:1 ULB)

This means, “We and you belong to the same race, the same family.”

The kings of the earth take their stand together (Psalm 2:2 ULB)

This means, “The kings on earth plan together.”

the one who lifts up my head” (Psalm 3:3 ULB)

This means, “the one who helps me.”

Translation Strategies

If the idiom would be clearly understood in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.
2. Use a different idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.

- Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULB)
 - “...Look, we all belong to the same nation.”
- he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULB)
 - “He started to travel to Jerusalem, determined to reach it.”
- I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULB)
 - “I am not worthy that you should enter my house.”

2. Use an idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

- Let these words go deeply into your ears (Luke 9:44 ULB)
 - “Be all ears when I say these words to you.”
- ”My eyes grow dim from grief (Psalm 6:7ULB)
 - “I am crying my eyes out”

Inclusive “We”

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.”

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The inclusive form includes the person being spoken to and possibly others. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.

Reason this is a translation issue - The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we.” Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we” will need understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples from the Bible

... the shepherds said one to each other, “Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” (Luke 2:15 ULB)

The shepherds were speaking to one another. When they said “us”, they were including the people they were speaking to - one another.

Now it happened on one of those days that Jesus and his disciples entered into a boat, and he said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” Then they set sail. (Luke 8:22 ULB)

When Jesus said “us,” he was referring to himself and to the disciples he was speaking to.

Irony

This answers the question: What is irony and how can I translate it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Description

Irony is a figure of speech in which a person pretends to say what he really believes, when in fact he is saying what someone else believes, and he does it in a way that shows that other belief is wrong. People do this to emphasize how different something is from what it should be, or how someone else's belief is foolish. It is often humorous.

Jesus answered them, "People who are in good health do not need a physician, only people who are sick need one. I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance." (Luke 5:31-32 ULB)

When Jesus spoke of "righteous people," he was not referring to people who were truly righteous. He was speaking to people who wrongly believed that they were righteous and who were criticizing him for welcoming sinners. Jesus implied that they were wrong to think that they were better than others and did not need to repent.

Reason this is a translation issue

- If someone does not realize that a speaker is using irony, he will think that the speaker actually believes what he is saying. He will not realize that the speaker is ridiculing the idea.

Examples from the Bible

After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64ULB)

The fact that the soldiers were beating Jesus shows us that they did not believe that he was a prophet. They knew that other people thought that Jesus was a prophet, and they may have also thought that Jesus himself claimed to be a prophet. When they told him to prophesy, they were using irony. They were mocking him and implying that if he really was a prophet, then he should be able to tell who hit him without seeing them.

"Present your case," says Yahweh; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob. "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled." (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULB)

People worshiped idols as if their idols had any knowledge or power, and Yahweh was angry at them for doing that. So he used irony and challenged their idols to tell what would happen in the future. He knew that the idols could not even speak, but he did this to mock the idols and rebuke the people for worshiping them.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
 Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
"the number of your days is so large!" (Job 38:20, 21 ULB)

Job thought that he was wise. Yahweh used irony to show Job that he was not so wise. The two underlined phrase above emphasize that Job could not possibly answer God's questions about the creation of light because Job was not born until many many years later.

Translation Strategies

If the irony would be understood correctly in your language, translate it as it is stated. If not, here is another strategy.

1. Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.
2. Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony. The actual meaning of the irony is not found in the literal words of the speaker, but instead the true meaning is found in the opposite of the literal meaning of the speaker's words.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.
 - After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64 ULB)
 - "After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "You call yourself a prophet. Then prophesy! Who hit you?"
 - "After blindfolding him, they said to him, "Prophesy! If you were really a prophet, you would be able to tell us who hit you."
 - I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32 ULB)
 - "I did not come to call people who think that they are righteous to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance."
2. Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony.
 - After blindfolding him, they asked him, saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who hit you?" (Luke 22:64 ULB)

- “After blindfolding him, they said to him, ”You are not a prophet because you cannot even tell us who struck you!” ”
- “Present your case,” says Yahweh; “present your best arguments for your idols,” says the King of Jacob. “Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.” (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULB)
 - ” ‘Present your case,’ says Yahweh; ‘present your best arguments for your idols,’ says the King of Jacob. Your idols cannot bring us their own arguments or even come forward to declare to us what will happen. We cannot hear them because they cannot speak to tell us their earlier predictive declarations, so we cannot reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.”

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?

Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large! (Job 38:20, 21 ULB)

- ”Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them? You act like you know how light and darkness were created, as if you were there; as if you are as old as creation!”

- Litotes

Litotes

This answers the question: What is litotes?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Litotes is a strong statement made by negative phrases to strengthen a positive meaning. It is used to show that the opposite idea is not true.

Description

Litotes is a strong statement made by negative phrases to strengthen a positive meaning. It is used to show that the opposite idea is not true.

Reason this is a translation issue

People who speak some languages do not use litotes and would fail to understand that the statement is strengthened. They might think that it is weakened or even canceled.

Examples from the Bible

For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULB)

By using litotes, Paul emphasized that his visit with them was very worthwhile.

All things were made through him. Without him was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULB)

By using litotes John emphasized that the Son of God created absolutely everything.

Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULB)

By using litotes, Luke emphasized that there was a lot of excitement or anxiety among the soldiers about what happened to Peter. (Peter had been in prison, and even though there were soldiers guarding him, he escaped when an angel let him out. So they were very concerned.)

And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel. (Matthew 2:6 ULB)

By using litotes, the prophet emphasized that Bethlehem would be a very important city.

Translation Strategies

If the litotes would be understood correctly, consider using it.

1. If the meaning would not be clear, say in a strong way what is true.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the meaning would not be clear, say in a strong way what is true.

- For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULB)
 - "For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you did much good."
- Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULB)
 - "Now when it became day, there was great excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter."
 - "Now when it became day, the soldiers were very concerned because of what had happened to Peter."

Merism

This answers the question: What does the word merism mean and how can I translate phrases that have it?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it.

Description

Merism is a figure of speech in which a person refers to something by speaking of two extreme parts of it.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.” (Revelation 1:8, ULB)

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. (Revelation 22:13, ULB)

“Alpha and Omega” is a merism that includes everything from the beginning to the end. It means eternal.

I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, (Matthew 11:25 ULB)

“Heaven and earth” is a merism that includes everything that exists.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some readers may think that the phrase only applies to the items mentioned. They may not realize that it refers to those two things and everything in between.

Examples from the Bible

From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh’s name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULB)

This underlined phrase is a merism because it speaks of the east and the west and everywhere in between. It means “everywhere.”

He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13)

The underlined phrase is merism because it speaks of old people and young people and everyone in between. It means “everyone.”

Translation Strategies

If the merism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.
2. Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Identify what the merism refers to without mentioning the parts.

- I praise you, Father, Lord of *heaven and earth (Matthew 11:25 ULB)
 - "I praise you, Father, Lord of everything"
- From the rising of the sun to its setting, Yahweh's name should be praised. (Psalm 113:3 ULB)
 - "In all places, people should praise Yahweh."

2. Identify what the merism refers to and include the parts.

- I praise you, Father, Lord of *heaven and earth (Matthew 11:25 ULB)
 - "I praise you, Father, Lord of everything, including both what is in heaven and what is on earth"
- He will bless those who honor him, both young and old. (Psalm 115:13 ULB)
 - "He will bless all those who honor him, regardless of whether they are young or old."

Metaphor

This answers the question: What is a metaphor and how can I translate a sentence that has one?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Simile

Description

A metaphor is the use of words to speak of one thing as if it were a different thing. Sometimes a speaker does this in ways that are very common in the language. At other times, a speaker does this in ways that are less common in the language and that might even be unique.

1. First we will discuss very common metaphors.

The metaphors that are very common in a language are usually not very vivid. They may even be “dead.” Examples in English are “table leg,” “family tree,” and “the price of food is going up.” Examples in biblical languages are “hand” to mean “power,” “face” to mean “presence,” and “clothing” to mean emotions or moral qualities.

Metaphors like these are in constant use in the world’s languages, because they serve as convenient ways to organize thought. In general, languages speak of abstract qualities, such as power, presence, emotions, and moral qualities, as if they were objects that can be seen or held, or as if they were body parts, or as if they were events that you can watch happen.

When these metaphors are used in their normal ways, the speaker and audience do not normally even regard them as figurative language. This is why, for example, it would be wrong to translate the English expression, “The price of petrol is going up” into another language in a way that would draw undeserved attention to it, because English speakers do not view it as a vivid expression, that is, as an unusual expression that carries meaning in an unusual manner.

For a description of important patterns of this kind of metaphor, please see Biblical Imagery - Common Patterns and the pages it will direct you to.

2. Next we will discuss the less common metaphors, metaphors that are sometimes even unique in a language.

The speaker usually produces metaphors of this kind in order to emphasize the importance of what he is talking about. For example,

For you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.
(Malachi 4:2 ULB)

Here God speaks about his salvation as if it were the sun rising to shine its rays on the people whom he loves. And he speaks of the sun’s rays as if they were wings. Also, he speaks of these wings as if they were bringing medicine that would heal his people.

We call this kind of metaphor “live.” It is unique in the biblical languages, which means that it is very memorable.

Parts of a Metaphor

When talking about metaphors, it can be helpful to talk about their parts. The thing someone speaks of is called the topic. The thing he calls it is the image. The way that they are similar is the point of comparison.

In the metaphor below, the speaker describes the woman he loves as a rose. The woman (his “love”) is the topic and the red rose is the image. Both are beautiful and delicate.

- My love is a red, red rose.

1. Sometimes the topic and the image are both stated clearly.

Jesus said to them. “I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not hunger, and he who believes on me will never thirst.” (John 6:35 ULB)

Jesus called himself the bread of life. The topic is “I” and the image is “bread.” Bread is a food that people ate all the time. Just as people need to eat food in order to have physical life, people need to trust in Jesus in order to have spiritual life.

2. Sometimes only the image is stated clearly.

Produce fruits that are worthy of repentance (Luke 3:8 ULB)

The image here is “fruits”. The topic is not stated, but it is actions or behavior. Trees can produce good fruit or bad fruit, and people can produce good behavior or bad behavior. Fruits that are worthy of repentance are good behavior that is appropriate for people who have repented.

Purposes of this second kind of metaphor

- One purpose of metaphor is to teach people about something that they do not know (the topic) by showing that it is like something that they already know (the image).
- Another purpose is to emphasize that something has a particular quality or to show that it has that quality in an extreme way.
- Another purpose is to lead people to feel the same way about one thing as they would feel toward another.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People may not realize that a word is being used as an image in a metaphor.
- People may not be familiar with the thing that is used as an image.
- If the topic is not stated, people may not know what the topic is.
- People may not know how the topic and the image are alike.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of a metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.

- Do not make the meaning of a metaphor more clear to the target audience than it was to the original audience.

Examples from the Bible

And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

The example above has two metaphors. The topics are “we” and “you” and the images are “clay and ”potter.” Just as a potter takes clay and forms a jar or dish out of it, God makes us into what he wants us to be.

Jesus said to them, ”Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” The disciples reasoned among themselves and said, “It is because we took no bread.” (Matthew 16:6-7 ULB)

Jesus used a metaphor, but his disciples did not realize it. When he said “yeast,” they thought he was talking about bread, but “yeast” was the image in his metaphor about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Since the disciples did not understand what Jesus meant, it would not be good to state clearly here what Jesus meant.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the metaphor in the same way that the original readers would have understood it, go ahead and use it. If not, here are some other strategies.

1. If the metaphor is common and seems to be a normal way to say something in the biblical language, express the main idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.
2. If the target audience would think that the phrase should be understood literally, change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.”
3. If the target audience would not know the image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.
4. If the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.
5. Or, if the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, simply state the truth that the metaphor was used to communicate.
6. If the target audience would not know what the topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)
7. If the target audience would not know how the topic is like the image, state it clearly.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the metaphor is common and seems to be a normal way to say something in the biblical language, express the main idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.

- For after David had in his own generation served the desires of God, he fell asleep, was laid with his fathers, and saw decay, (Acts 13:36 ULB)

- "For after David had in his own generation served the desires of God, he died, was laid with his fathers, and saw decay."

2. If the target audience would think that the phrase should be understood literally, change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding "like" or "as."

- And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are like clay. You are like a potter; and we all are the work of your hand."

3. If the target audience would not know the image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

- Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULB)

- "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a pointed stick."

4. If the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.

- And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULB)

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the wood. You are our carver; and we all are the work of your hand."

- "And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the string. You are the weaver; and we all are the work of your hand."

5. Or, if the target audience would not use that image for that meaning, simply state the truth that the metaphor was used to communicate.

- I will make you become fishers of men. (Mark 1:17 ULB)

- "I will make you become people who gather men."

- "Now you gather fish. I will make you gather people."

6. If the target audience would not know what the topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)

- Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULB)

- "Yahweh lives; He is my rock. May he be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

7. If the target audience would not know how the topic is like the image, state it clearly.

- Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULB)
 - "Yahweh lives; may he be praised because like a huge rock, he shields me from my enemies. May the God of my salvation be exalted."
- Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad. (Acts 26:14 ULB)
 - "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You fight against me and hurt yourself like an ox that kicks against its owner's pointed stick."

Metonymy

This answers the question: What is a metonymy?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Many times the Bible uses metonymy. If you do not recognize it as a metonymy you will not understand the passage or worse yet, get the wrong understanding of the passage.

Description

Metonymy is a figure of speech in which a thing or idea is called not by its own name, but by the name of something closely associated with it. A metonym is a word or phrase used as a substitute for something it is associated with.

and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (1 John 1:7 ULB)

The blood represents Christ's death.

He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULB)

The cup represents the wine that is in the cup.

Metonymy can be used

- as a shorter way of referring to something
- to make an abstract idea more meaningful by referring to it with the name of a concrete object associated with it.

Reason this is a translation issue

- If a metonym is used, people need to be able to understand what it represents.

Examples from the Bible

The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULB)

A throne represents the authority of a king. Throne is a metonym for "kingly authority," "kingship" or, "reign." This means that God would make him become the king who was to follow King David.

Immediately his mouth was opened (Luke 1:64 ULB)

The mouth here represents the power to speak. This means that he was able to talk again.

who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7 ULB)

The word “wrath” or “anger” is a metonym for “punishment.” God was extremely angry with the people and, as a result, he would punish them.

Translation Strategies

If people would easily understand the metonym, consider using it. Otherwise, here is an option.

1. Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.
2. Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

- He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULB)
 - “He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “The wine in this cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.”

2. Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

- The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULB)
 - “The Lord God will give him the kingly authority of his father, David.”
 - “The Lord God will make him king like his ancestor, King David.”
- who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Luke 3:7 ULB)
 - “who warned you to flee from God’s coming punishment?”

Parallelism

This answers the question: What is parallelism?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Description

In parallelism two phrases or clauses that are similar in structure or idea are used together. There are different kinds of parallelism. Some of them are the following:

1. The second clause or phrase means the same as the first.
2. The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.
3. The second completes what is said in the first.
4. The second says something that contrasts with the first.

Parallelism is most commonly found in Old Testament poetry, such as in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. It also occurs in Greek in the New Testament, both in the four gospels and in the apostles' letters.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some languages would not use the kind of parallelism in which the two phrases mean the same thing. They would either think it odd that someone said the same thing twice, or they think that the two phrases must have some difference in meaning.

Examples from the Bible

1. The second clause or phrase means the same as the first.

You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULB)

Both lines say that God made man the ruler of everything.

2. The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.

The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere, keeping watch over the evil and the good. (Proverbs 15:3 ULB)

The second line tells more specifically what Yahweh watches.

3. The second completes what is said in the first.

I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. (Psalm 3:4 ULB)

The second line tells what Yahweh does in response to what the person does in the first clause.

4. The second says something that contrasts with the first.

For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish. (Psalm 1:6 ULB)

This contrasts what happens to righteous people with what happens to wicked people.

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. (Proverbs 15:1 ULB)

This contrasts what happens when someone gives a gentle answer with what happens when someone says something harsh.

Translation Strategies

1. For most kinds of parallelism, it is good to translate both of the clauses or phrases.
2. When the two clauses or phrases mean the same thing, some languages would not translate them both. (See Parallelism with the Same Meaning)

Personification

This answers the question: What is personification?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often speak this way because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see, such as wisdom and sin.

Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB)

Some languages do not use personification, and some languages use it only in certain situations.

Description

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often do this because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see, such as wisdom, sin, and wind. For example:

Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB)

People also do this because it is sometimes easier to talk about relationships between people and other people than about relationships between people and non-human things, such as wealth.

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULB)

Reason this is a translation issue

- Some languages do not use personification.
- Some languages use personification only in certain situations.

Examples from the Bible

You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULB)

Jesus speaks of wealth as if it were a master whom people might serve. Loving money and basing one's decisions on it is like serving it as a slave would serve his master.

Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice? (Proverbs 8:1 ULB)

The author speaks of wisdom and understanding as if they are a woman who calls out to teach people. They are not something hidden, but something obvious that people should pay attention to.

Translation Strategies

If the personification would not be understood clearly, here are some strategies for dealing with it.

1. Add words or phrases to make it clear.
2. Use the words “like” or “as” to show that the sentences is not to be understood literally.
3. Find a way to translate it without the personification.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add words or phrases to make it clear.

- sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB) - God speaks of sin as a wild animal that is waiting for the chance to attack. This shows how dangerous sin is. An additional phrase can be added to make this danger clear.
 - “sin is at your door, waiting to attack you”

2. Use the words “like” or “as” to show that the sentences is not to be understood literally.

- sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULB) - This can be translated with the word “as.”
 - “sin is about to destroy you, just as a wild animal could harm a person.”

3. Find a way to translate it without the personification.

- even the winds and the sea obey him (Matthew 8:27 ULB) - The men speak of the wind and the sea as if they are able to hear and obey Jesus as people can. This could also be translated without the idea of obedience by speaking of Jesus controlling them.
 - “He even controls the winds and the sea.”

Note: We have broadened our definition of “personification” to include “zoomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had animal characteristics) and “anthropomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had human characteristics).

Rhetorical Question

This answers the question: What are rhetorical questions and how can I translate them?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech
- Sentences

A rhetorical question is a question to which the speaker does not expect an answer because he is not looking for information. Speakers use rhetorical questions to express deep emotion or to encourage hearers to think deeply about something. The Bible contains many rhetorical questions, often to express sarcasm or to rebuke or scold the hearer. Speakers of some languages use rhetorical questions for other reasons as well.

Description

A rhetorical question is a question to which the speaker does not expect an answer because he is not looking for information. Speakers often use rhetorical questions to rebuke or scold people.

Those who stood by said, Is this how you insult God's high priest?" (Acts 23:4 ULB) The people did not ask this question in order to get information. Rather they used it to scold Paul because they did not think he should have spoken as he did to the high priest.

The Bible contains many rhetorical questions. Some of the purposes of these rhetorical questions are to remind people of something that they already know, to express strong emotion, to say something in a strong way, or to introduce something they want to talk about.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some readers may think that a question is a request for information.
- Some languages use rhetorical questions only for scolding.
- Some readers might think that the purpose of a question is something other than what it really is.

Examples from the Bible

Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULB)

Jezebel used the question above to remind King Ahab of something he already knew: he still ruled the kingdom of Israel. She did this in order to rebuke him for being unwilling to take over a poor man's property. She was implying that since he was the king of Israel he should feel free to take the man's property.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULB)

God used the question above to remind his people of something they already knew: a woman would never forget her jewelry and veils. He then rebuked his people for forgetting him, who is so much greater than those things.

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11 ULB)

Job used the question above to show how sad he was that he did not die as soon as he was born. He wished that he had not lived.

And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULB)

Elizabeth used the question above to show how surprised and happy she was that the mother of her Lord came to her.

Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULB)

Jesus used the question above to remind the people of something they already knew: a good father would never give his son something bad to eat.

Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from heaven give good things to those who ask him? (Matthew 7:11 ULB)

Jesus used this question to teach the people in an emphatic way that God gives good things to those who ask him.

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed which a man took and threw into his garden... (Luke 13:18-19 ULB)

Jesus used the question above to introduce what he was going to talk about. He was going to compare the kingdom of God to something.

Translation Strategies

Be sure you know that you are dealing with a rhetorical question and not an information question. Then be sure you know what the purpose of the rhetorical question is. Is it to encourage or rebuke or shame the hearer? Is it to bring up a new topic? Is it to do something else?

If using the rhetorical question would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing so. If not, here are other options:

1. Add the answer after the question.
2. Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.
3. Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Add the answer after the question.

- Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULB)
 - Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Of course not! Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!
- Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULB)
 - ”Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? None of you would do that!”

2. Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.

- What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed... (Luke 13:18-19 ULB)
 - “This is what the kingdom of God is like. It is like a mustard seed...”
- Is this how you insult God’s high priest? (Acts 23:4 ULB)
 - You should not insult God’s high priest!”
- Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11 ULB)
 - I wish I had died when I came out from the womb!”
- And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULB)
 - “How wonderful it is that the mother of my Lord has come to me!”

3. Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.

- Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULB)
 - ”You still rule the kingdom of Israel, don’t you?”

Synecdoche

This answers the question: What does the word synecdoche mean?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Figures of Speech

Synecdoche is when a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole or uses the whole to refer to a part.

Description

Synecdoche is when a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole or uses the whole to refer to a part.

My soul exalts the Lord. (Luke 1:46 ULB)

Mary was very happy about what the Lord was doing, so she said “my soul”, the part of herself that has emotions, to refer to her whole self.

the Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing something that is not lawful ...?”
(Mark 2:24 ULB)

The Pharisees who were standing there did not all say the same words at the same time. Instead, it is more likely that one man representing the group said those words.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some readers may understand the words literally.
- Some readers may realize that they are not to understand the words literally, but they may not know what the meaning is.

Example from the Bible

I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished (Ecclesiastes 2:11 ULB)

“My hands” is a synecdoche for the whole person, because clearly the legs and the rest of the body and the mind were also involved.

Translation Strategies

If the synecdoche would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

- My soul exalts the Lord. (Luke 1:46 ULB)
 - "I exalt the Lord."
- the Pharisees said to him (Mark 2:24 ULB)
 - "a representative of the Pharisees said to him"
- I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished (Ecclesiastes 2:11 ULB)
 - "I looked on all the deeds that I had accomplished"

Forms of You

This answers the question: What are the different forms of you?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Forms of 'You' - Singular
- Forms of 'You' - Dual/Plural

Singular, Dual, and Plural

Some languages have more than one word for “you” based on how many people the word “you” refers to. The singular form refers to one person, and the plural form refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form which refers to two people, and some have other forms that refer to three or four people.

Watch the video for Singular, Dual, and Plural “you” for computer (see <http://youtu.be/cPtjzJ2Advk>) or tablet/phone (see <http://youtu.be/AVITfDEk8nc>).

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses a singular form of “you” even though he is speaking to a crowd.

- Forms of 'You' - Singular to a Crowd

Formal and Informal

Some languages have more than one form of “you” based on the relationship between the speaker and the person he is talking to. People use the formal form of “you” when speaking to someone who is older, or has higher authority, or is someone they do not know very well. People use the informal form when speaking to someone who is not older, or does not have higher authority, or is a family member or close friend. Watch the video on Formal and Informal ‘You’ on the computer or on the tablet/phone. For help with translating these, we suggest you read:

Translating Son and Father

This answers the question: Why are these concepts important in referring to God?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Create Faithful Translations
- Son of God and God the Father

unfoldingWord supports only Bible translations that represent these concepts when they refer to God.

“Father” and “Son” are names that God calls himself in the Bible.

The Bible shows that God called Jesus his Son.

After he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and... a voice came out of the heavens saying, “This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him.” (Matthew 3:16-17 ULB)

The Bible shows that Jesus called God his Father.

Jesus said, “I praise you Father, Lord of heaven and earth,... no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son” (Matthew 11:25-27 ULB) (See also: John 6:26-57 ULB)

Christians have found that “Father” and “Son” are the ideas that most essentially describe the eternal relationship of the First and Second Persons of the Trinity to each other. The Bible indeed refers to them in various ways, but no other terms reflect the kind of eternal love and intimacy between these Persons, nor the interdependent eternal relationship between them.

Jesus referred to God in the following terms:

Baptize them into the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19 ULB)

The intimate, loving relationship between the Father and the Son is eternal.

no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son. (Luke 10:22 ULB)

Jesus said, “Father, glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you... I glorified you on the earth,... Now Father, glorify me... with the glory that I had with you before the world was created.” (John 17:1-5 ULB)

The Father loves the Son. (John 3:35-36; 5:19-20 ULB)

I love the Father, I do what the Father commands me, just as he gave me the commandment. (John 14:31 ULB)

Human fathers and sons are not perfect, but the Bible still uses those terms for the Father and Son, who are perfect.

Just as today, human father-son relationships during Bible times were never as loving or perfect as the relationship between Jesus and his Father. But this does not mean that the translator should avoid the concepts of father and son. The scriptures use these terms to refer to God, the perfect Father and Son, as well as to sinful human fathers and sons. In referring to God as Father and Son, choose words in your language that are widely used and refer to a human “father” and “son.”

Translation Strategies

1. Think through all the possibilities that your language has to translate the words “son” and “father.” Determine which words in your language best represent the divine “Son” and “Father.”
2. If your language has more than one word for “son,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “only son” (or “first son” if necessary).
3. If your language has more than one word for “father,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “birth father,” rather than “adoptive father.”

How to Translate Names

This answers the question: How can I translate names that are new to my culture?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

The Bible has names of many people, groups of people, and places. Some of these names may sound strange and be hard to say. Sometimes readers may not know what a name refers to, and sometimes they may need to understand what a name means. This page will help you see how you can translate these names and how you can help people understand what they need to know about them.

Description

The Bible has names of many people, groups of people, and places. All names in the Bible have meaning. Most of the time, names in the Bible are used simply to identify the people and places they refer to. But sometimes the meaning of a name is especially important.

It was this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. (Hebrews 7:1ULB)

Here the writer uses the name “Melchizedek” simply to refer to a man who had that name, and the title “king of Salem” simply to tell us something about Melchizedek.

His name “Melchizedek” means “king of righteousness,” and also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace. (Hebrews 7:2 ULB)

Here the writer explains the meanings of Melchizedek’s name and title.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Readers may not know some of the names in the Bible. They may not know whether a name refers to a person or place or something else.
- Readers may need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand the passage.
- Some names may have different sounds or combinations of sounds that are not used in your language or are unpleasant to say in your language.
- Some people and places in the Bible have two names. Readers may not realize that two names refer to the same person or place.

Examples from the Bible

You went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULB)

Readers might not know that “Jordan” is the name of a river, “Jericho” is the name of a city, and “Amorites” is the name of a group of people.

she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; (Genesis 16:13-14 ULB)

Readers may not understand the second sentence if they do not know that “Beerlahairoi” means “Well of the the Living One who sees me.”

She named him Moses and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULB)

Readers may not understand why she said this if they do not know that the name Moses sounds like the Hebrew words “pull out.”

Saul was in agreement with his death (Acts 8:1 ULB)

It came about in Iconium that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULB)

Readers may not know that the names Saul and Paul refer to the same person.

Translation Strategies

1. If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.
2. If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.
3. Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name.
4. If a person or place has two different names, use one name all of the time and write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.
5. Or use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that explains who or what the name refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.

- You went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the *Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULB)
 - “You went over the Jordan River and came to the city of Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the tribe of the Amorites”
- Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because Herod wants to kill you.” (Luke 13:31 ULB)

- “Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because King Herod wants to kill you.”

2. If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.

- She named him Moses and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULB)
 - “She named him Moses, which sounds like ‘drawn out,’ and said, “Because I drew him from the water.”

3. Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name.

- she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; (Genesis 16:13-14 ULB)
 - “she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Well of the One who sees me;

4. If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text talks about that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.

For example, Paul is called “Saul” before Acts 13 and “Paul” after Acts 13. You could translate his name as “Paul” all of the time, except in Acts 13:9 where it talks about him having both names.

- a young man named *Saul (Acts 7:58 ULB)
 - “a young man named Paul”¹ The footnote would look like:
 - ◇ ^[1]Most versions say Saul here, but most of the time in the Bible he is called Paul.

- But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9 ULB)
 - “But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;”

5. Or if a person or place has two names, use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that explains who or what the name refers to.

For example, you could write “Saul” where the source text has “Saul” and “Paul” where the source text has “Paul.”

- a young man named *Saul (Acts 7:58 ULB)
 - “a young man named Saul”
- But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9 ULB) *
 “But __Saul__, who is also called __Paul__, was filled with the Holy Spirit;” * It came about in Iconium that __Paul__ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue
 ([[en:bible:notes:act:14:01 | Acts 14:1 ULB)

- "It came about in Iconium that *Paul*¹ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue" (Acts 14:1 ULB) The footnote would look like:
 - ◇ ^[1]This is the man that was called Saul before Acts 13.

Numbers

This answers the question: How do I translate numbers?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Translate Unknowns

There are many numbers in the Bible. They can be written as words, such as “five” or as numerals, such as “5”. Some numbers are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), “twenty-two thousand” (22,000) or “one hundred million” (100,000,000.) Some languages do not have words for all of these numbers. Translators need to decide how to translate numbers and whether to write them as words or numerals.

Description

There are many numbers in the Bible. Some are small, such as “five” (5) and “fifteen” (15). Others are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), twenty-two thousand (22,000) or “one hundred million” (100,000,000). Some numbers are exact and others are rounded.

Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULB)

Eighty-six (86) is an exact number.

That day about three thousand men out of the people died. (Exodus 32:28 ULB)

Here the number three thousand is a round number. It may have been a little more than that or a little less than that. The word “about” shows that it is not an exact number.

Reason this is a translation issue: Some languages do not have words for some of these numbers.

Translation Principles

- Exact numbers should be translated as closely and specifically as they can be.
- Rounded numbers can be translated more generally.

Examples from the Bible

When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Jared lived 962 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:18-20 ULB)

The numbers 162, eight hundred, and 962 are exact numbers and should be translated with something as close to those numbers as possible.

Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands. (Genesis 24:60 ULB)

This is a rounded number. It does not say exactly how many descendants she should have, but it was a huge number of them.

Translation Strategies

1. Write numbers using numerals.
2. Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.
3. Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.
4. Combine words for large numbers.
5. Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

- Now, see, at great effort I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. (1 Chronicles 22:14 ULB)

1. Write numbers using numerals.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, one 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities."

2. Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. "

3. Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand (100,000) talents of gold, one million (1,000,000) talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

4. Combine words for large numbers.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, a thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

5. Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

- "I have prepared for Yahweh's house a great amount of gold (100,000 talents), ten times that amount of silver (1,000,000 talents), and bronze and iron in large quantities.

Consistency

Be consistent in your translations. Decide how the numbers will be translated, using numbers or numerals. There are different ways of being consistent.

- Use words to represent numbers all of the time. (You might have very long words.)
- Use numerals to represent numbers all of the time.
- Use words to represent the numbers that your language has words for and use numerals for the numbers that your language does not have words for.
- Use words for low numbers and numerals for high numbers.
- Use words for numbers that require few words and numerals for numbers that require more than a few words.
- Use words to represent numbers, and write the numerals in parentheses after them.

Consistency in the ULB and UDB

The ULB (Unlocked Literal Bible) and the UDB (Unlocked Dynamic Bible) use words for numbers that have only one or two words (nine, sixteen, three hundred). They use numerals for numbers that have more than two words (the numerals “130” instead of “one hundred thirty”).

When Adam had lived 130 years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth. After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:3-5 ULB)

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people then copied them by hand and translated them. Sometimes the copiers added sentences by mistake or because they wanted to explain something. Modern Bibles are translations of the old copies. Some modern Bibles have some of these sentences that were added. In the ULB, these added sentences are usually written in footnotes.

Description

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people copied them by hand and translated them. They did this work very carefully, and over the years many people made thousands of copies. However people who looked at them later saw that there were small differences between them. Some copiers accidentally left out some words, and some mistook a word for another that looked like it. Occasionally they added words or even whole sentences, either by accident, or because they wanted to explain something.

Bible scholars have read many old copies and compared them with each other. For each place in the Bible where there was a difference, they have figured out which wordings are most likely correct. The translators of the ULB based the ULB on wordings that scholars say are most likely correct. Because people who use the ULB may have access to Bibles that are based on other copies, the ULB translators included footnotes that tell about some of the differences between them.

Translators are encouraged to translate the text in the ULB and to write about added sentences in footnotes, as is done in the ULB. However, if the local church really wants those sentences to be included in the main text, translators may put them in the text and include a footnote about them.

Examples from the Bible

Matthew 18:10-11 ULB has a footnote about verse 11.

¹⁰See that you do not despise any of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven. ¹¹[¹]

[¹] Many authorities, some ancient, insert v. 11. For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

John 7:53-8:11 is not in the best earliest manuscripts. It has been included in the ULB, but it is marked off with square brackets ([]) at the beginning and end, and there is a footnote after verse 11.

⁵³[Then every man went to his own house.... ¹¹She said, “No one, Lord.” Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way; from now on sin no more.”]^[2]

^[2]The best earliest manuscripts do not have John 7:35-8:11

Translation Strategies

When there is a textual variant, you may choose to follow the ULB or another version that you have access to.

1. Translate the verses that the ULB does and include the footnote that the ULB provides.
2. Translate the verses as another version does, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

The translation strategies are applied to Mark 7:15-16 ULB, which has a footnote about verse 16.

- ¹⁴He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him.” ¹⁶[¹

- ^[1]Many ancient authorities insert v. 16. If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

Translate Unknowns

This answers the question: How can I translate ideas that my readers are not familiar with?

In order to understand this topic, it would be good to read:

- Sentences

How do I translate words like lion, fig tree, mountain, priest, or temple when people in my culture have never seen these things and we do not have a word for them?

Description

Unknowns are things that occur in the source text that are not known to the people of your culture. The translationWords pages and the translationNotes will help you understand what they are. After you understand them, you will need to find ways to refer to those things so that people who read your translation will understand what they are.

We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)

Bread is a particular food made by mixing finely crushed grains with oil, and then cooking the mixture so that it is dry. (Grains are the seeds of a kind of grass.) In some cultures people do not have bread or know what it is.

Reason this is a translation issue

- Readers may not know some of the things that are in the Bible because those things are not part of their own culture.
- Readers may have difficulty understanding a text if they do not know some of the things that are mentioned in it.

Translation Principles

- Use words that are already part of your language if possible.
- Keep expressions short if possible.
- Represent God's commands and historical facts accurately.

Examples from the Bible

I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11 ULB)

Jackals are wild animals like dogs that live in only a few parts of the world. So they are not known in many places.

Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULB)

If wolves do not live where the translation will be read, the readers may not understand that they are fierce, wild animals like dogs that attack and eat sheep.

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULB)

People may not know what myrrh is and that it was used as a medicine.

to him who made great lights (Psalm 136:7ULB)

Some languages have terms for things that give light, like the sun and fire, but they have no general term for lights.

your sins ... will be white like snow (Isaiah 1:18 ULB)

People in many parts of the world have not seen snow, but they may have seen it in pictures.

Translation Strategies

Here are ways you might translate a term that is not known in your language:

1. Use a phrase that describes the part of the meaning that is important in the particular verse being translated.
2. Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.
3. Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.
4. Use a word that is more general in meaning.
5. Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. Use a phrase that describes the part of the meaning that is important in the particular verse being translated.

- Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULB)
 - "Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly hungry and dangerous animals."
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked grain seeds and two fish"

2. Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.

- your sins ... will be white like snow (Isaiah 1:18 ULB) This verse is not about snow. It uses snow in a figure of speech to help people understand how white something will be.
 - "your sins ... will be white like milk"
 - "your sins ... will be white like the moon"

3. Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.

- Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULB) - People may understand better what myrrh is if it is used with the general word "medicine."
 - "Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with a medicine called myrrh. But he refused to drink it."
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB) - People may understand better what bread is if it is used with a phrase that tells what it is made of (seeds) and how it is prepared (crushed and baked).
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked crushed seed bread and two fish"

4. Use a word that is more general in meaning.

- I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11 ULB)
 - "I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for wild dogs"
- We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULB)
 - "We have here only five loaves of baked food and two fish"

5. Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

- to him who made great lights (Psalm 136:7 ULB)
 - "to him who made the sun and the moon"
