Introduction to Romans

Part 1: General Introduction

Outline of the Book of Romans

1. Introduction (1:1-15)
2. Righteousness by faith in Jesus Christ (1:16-17)
3. All mankind is condemned because of sin (1:18-3:20)
4. Righteousness through Jesus Christ by faith in him (3:21-4:25)
5. The fruits of the Spirit (5:1-11)
6. Adam and Christ compared (5:12-21)
8. God's plan for Israel (9:1-11:36)
10. Conclusion and greetings (15:14-16:27)

Who wrote the Book of Romans?

The Apostle Paul wrote the Book of Romans. Paul was from the city of Tarsus. He had been known as Saul in his early life. Before becoming a Christian, Paul was a Pharisee. He persecuted Christians. After he became a Christian, he traveled several times throughout the Roman Empire telling people about Jesus.

Paul probably wrote this letter while he was staying in the city of Corinth during his third trip through the Roman Empire.

What is the Book of Romans about?

Paul wrote this letter to the Christians in Rome. Paul wanted to get them ready to receive him when he visited them. He said his purpose was to “bring about the obedience of faith” (16:26).

In this letter Paul most fully described the gospel of Jesus Christ. He explained that both Jews and non-Jews have sinned, and God will forgive them and declare them righteous only if they believe in Jesus (chapters 1-11). Then he gave them practical advice for how believers should live (chapters 12-16).

How should the title of this book be translated?

Translators may choose to call this book by its traditional title, “Romans.” Or they may choose a clearer title, such as “Paul's Letter to the Church in Rome,” or “A Letter to the Christians in Rome.” (See: How to Translate Names)

Part 2: Important Religious and Cultural Concepts

What are the titles used to refer to Jesus?

In Romans, Paul described Jesus Christ by many titles and descriptions: Jesus Christ (1:1), the Seed of David (1:3), the Son of God (1:4), the Lord Jesus Christ (1:7), Christ Jesus (3:24), Propitiation (3:25), Jesus (3:26), Jesus our Lord (4:24), Lord of Hosts (9:29), a Stumbling Stone and Rock of Offence (9:33), the End of the Law (10:4), the Deliverer (11:26), Lord of the Dead and the Living (14:9), and the Root of Jesse (15:12).

How should theological terms in Romans be translated?

Paul uses many theological terms that are not used in the four gospels. As early Christians learned more about the meaning of Jesus Christ and his message, they needed words and expressions for new ideas. Some examples of

The “key terms” dictionary can help translators understand many of these terms. (See: Abstract Nouns)

Terms such as those given above are difficult to explain. It is often hard or impossible for translators to find equivalent terms in their own languages. It can help to know that word equivalents of these terms are not necessary. Instead, translators can develop short expressions to communicate these ideas. For example, the term “gospel” can be translated as “the good news about Jesus Christ.”

Translators should also remember that some of these terms have more than one meaning. The meaning will depend on how the author is using the word in that particular passage. For example, “righteousness” sometimes means that a person obeys God’s law. At other times, “righteousness” means that Jesus Christ has perfectly obeyed God’s law for us.

What did Paul mean by “a remnant” of Israel (11:5)?

The idea of a “remnant” is important both in the Old Testament and for Paul. Most of the Israelites were either killed or scattered among other people when the Assyrians and then the Babylonians conquered their land. Only a relatively few Jews survived. They were known as “the remnant.”

In 11:1-9, Paul speaks of another remnant. This remnant is the Jews whom God saved because they believed in Jesus. (See: remnant)

Part 3: Important Translation Issues

What did Paul mean by being “in Christ”?

The phrase “in Christ” and similar phrases occur in 3:24; 6:11, 23; 8:1,2,39; 9:1; 12:5,17; 15:17; and 16:3,7,9,10. Paul used these kinds of phrases as a metaphor to express that Christian believers belong to Jesus Christ. Belonging to Christ means the believer is saved and is made a friend with God. The believer is also promised to live with God forever. However, this idea can be difficult to represent in many languages.

These phrases also have specific meanings that depend on how Paul used them in a particular passage. For example, in 3:24 (“the redemption that is in Christ Jesus”), Paul referred to our being redeemed “because” of Jesus Christ. In 8:9 (“You are not in the flesh but in the Spirit”), Paul spoke of believers submitting “to” the Holy Spirit. In 9:1 (“I tell the truth in Christ”), Paul meant that he is telling the truth that “is in agreement with” Jesus Christ.

Nevertheless, the basic idea of our being united with Jesus Christ (and with the Holy Spirit) is seen in these passages as well. Therefore, the translator has a choice in many passages that use “in.” He will often decide to represent the more immediate sense of “in,” such as, “by means of,” “in the manner of,” or “in regard to.” But, if possible, the translator should choose a word or phrase that represents the immediate sense and the sense of “in union with.” (See: in Christ, in Jesus, in the Lord, in him)

How are the ideas of “holy,” “saints” or “holy ones,” and “sanctify” represented in Romans in the ULT?

The scriptures use such words to indicate any one of various ideas. For this reason, it is often difficult for translators to represent them well in their versions. In translating into English, the ULT uses the following principles: * Sometimes the meaning in a passage implies moral holiness. Especially important for understanding the gospel is the fact that God considers Christians to be sinless because they are united to Jesus Christ. Another related fact is that God is perfect and faultless. A third fact is that Christians are to conduct themselves in a blameless and faultless manner in life. In these cases, the ULT uses “holy,” “holy God,” “holy ones” or “holy people.” (See: 1:7) * Sometimes the meaning in a passage indicates a simple reference to Christians without implying any particular role filled by them. In cases where some other English versions have “saints” or “holy ones,” the ULT uses “believers.” (See: 8:27; 12:13; 15:25, 26, 31; 16:2, 15) * Sometimes the meaning in a passage indicates the idea of someone or something set apart for God alone. In these cases, the ULT uses “set apart,” “dedicated to,” “consecrated,” or “reserved for.” (See: 15:16)

The UST will often be helpful as translators think about how to represent these ideas in their own versions.

What are the major issues in the text of the Book of Romans?

For the following verses, modern version of the Bible differ from older versions. The ULT includes the modern reading and puts the older reading in a footnote.

- “he [God] works all things together for good” (8:28). Some older versions read, “All things work together for good.”
- “But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works. Otherwise grace would no longer be grace” (11:6). Some older versions read: “But if it is by works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.”

The following verse is not in the best ancient copies of the Bible. Translators are advised not to include this verse. However, if in the translators’ region there are older Bible versions that have this verse, the translators can include it. If it is translated, it should be put inside square brackets ([]) to indicate that it is probably not original to the Book of Romans.

- “May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen” (16:24).

(See: Textual Variants
Romans 1

Romans 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The first verse is a type of introduction. People in the ancient Mediterranean region often started their letters this way. Sometimes this is called a “salutation.”

Special concepts in this chapter

The gospel

This chapter refers to the contents of the Book of Romans as “the gospel” (Romans 1:2). Romans is not a gospel like Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Instead, chapters 1-8 present the biblical gospel: All have sinned. Jesus died for our sins. He was raised again that we might have new life in him.

Fruit

This chapter uses the imagery of fruit. The image of fruit usually refers to a person's faith producing good works in their life. In this chapter, it refers to the results of Paul's work among the Roman Christians. (See: fruit, fruitful, unfruitful and faith and righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Universal Condemnation and the Wrath of God

This chapter explains that everyone is without excuse. We all know about the true God, Yahweh, from his creation all around us. Because of our sin and our sinful nature, every person justly deserves the wrath of God. This wrath was satisfied by Jesus dying on a cross for those who believe in him. (See: believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

“God gave them over”

Many scholars view the phrases “God gave them over” and “God gave them up” as theologically significant. For this reason, it is important to translate these phrases with God playing a passive role in the action. God simply allows men to pursue their own desires, he does not force them. (See: Active or Passive)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Difficult phrases and concepts

This chapter has many difficult ideas in it. How Paul writes makes many of the phrases in this chapter difficult to translate. The translator may need to use the UST to understand the meaning of the phrases. And it may be necessary to more freely translate these phrases. Some of the difficult phrases include: “obedience of faith,” “whom I serve in my spirit,” “from faith to faith” and “exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for the likenesses of an image of perishable man.”
Romans 1:1

Paul (ULT)
I, Paul (UST)

Your language may have a particular way of introducing the author of a letter. You may also need to tell in this same verse who the people are to whom Paul wrote the letter (Romans 1:7). Alternate translation: “I, Paul, wrote this letter” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God (ULT)

God chose me to be an apostle, and he appointed me in order that I should proclaim the good news that comes from him (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God called me to be an apostle and chose me to tell people about the gospel” (See: Active or Passive)

called (ULT)
God chose me (UST)

This means that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.

Translation Words - ULT

- of Christ Jesus
- called
- of God
- the gospel
- and set apart
- to be an apostle
- of Christ
- Paul
- a servant

Translation Words - UST

- the Messiah Jesus, am writing this letter to all of you believers in the city of Rome
- God chose me
- from him
- I should proclaim the good news that comes
- and he appointed me in order that
- to be an apostle
- the Messiah
- I, Paul
- who serve
Romans 1:2

which he promised beforehand by his prophets in the holy scriptures (ULT)

Long before Jesus came to earth, God promised that he would reveal this good news by means of what his prophets wrote in the sacred scriptures (UST)

God promised his people that he would set up his kingdom. He told the prophets to write these promises in the Scriptures.

Translation Words - ULT

• holy
• prophets
• the holy scriptures
• he promised beforehand

Translation Words - UST

• sacred
• prophets wrote
• the sacred scriptures
• Long before Jesus came to earth, God promised that he would reveal this good news
Romans 1:3

concerning his Son (ULT)
This good news is about his Son (UST)

This refers to “the gospel of God,” the good news that God promised to send his Son into the world.

Son (ULT)
Son (UST)

This is an important title for Jesus, the Son of God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

who was a descendant of David according to the flesh (ULT)
As to his Son’s physical nature, he was born a descendant of King David (UST)

Here the word “flesh” refers to the physical body. Alternate translation: “who is a descendant of David according to the physical nature” or “who was born into the family of David” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• the flesh
• Son
• of David
• a descendant

Translation Words - UST

• As to his Son's physical nature
• Son
• of King David
• a descendant
Romans 1:4

Connecting Statement:

Paul talks here about his obligation to preach.

he was declared with power to be the Son of God (ULT) to his divine nature, it was powerfully shown that he is God’s own Son. God showed this when (UST)

The word “he” refers to Jesus Christ. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God declared him with power to be the Son of God” (See: Active or Passive) by the resurrection from the dead (ULT) caused him to become alive again after he died (UST)

“by raising him from among the people who are dead.” This expression speaks of all dead people together in the underworld, and coming alive again is spoken of as resurrection from among them.

the Spirit of holiness (ULT)
his Holy Spirit (UST)

This refers to the Holy Spirit.

Translation Words - ULT

• the resurrection
• Jesus Christ
• Lord
• of holiness
• of God
• to be the Son of God
• the Spirit of holiness
• power
• Christ
• from the dead
• he was declared

Translation Words - UST

• to his divine nature, it was...shown
Romans 1:5

we have received grace and apostleship (ULT) shown us great kindness and appointed us to be apostles (UST)

God has given Paul the gift of being an apostle. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God caused me to be an apostle. This is a special privilege” (See: Active or Passive) for obedience of faith among all the nations, for the sake of his name (ULT)

He did that in order that many among all the people groups would believe in him and obey him (UST)

Paul uses the word “name” as a metonym to refer to Jesus. Alternate translation: “in order to teach all nations to obey because of their faith in him” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• nations
• apostleship

Romans 1:18

Connecting Statement:
Paul reveals God's great anger against sinful man.

For the wrath of God is revealed (ULT)
God...makes it clear that he is angry...Because (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For God shows how angry he is” (See: Active or Passive)

For (ULT)
Because (UST)

Paul uses the word “for” to show he is about to tell why people know that what he has said in Romans 1:17 is true.

is revealed...the wrath of God...from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people (ULT) makes it clear that...God in heaven...he is angry with all who show no respect for him and who do wicked things (UST)

The words “ungodliness” and “unrighteousness” are abstract nouns that can be expressed using the adjectives “ungodly,” which describes the people, and “unrighteous,” which describes their deeds. These nouns are metonyms for the people with whom God is angry. You can translate this in active form. Alternate translation: “God reveals from heaven how angry he is with people because they are ungodly and do unrighteous deeds” (See: Abstract Nouns and Metonymy)

Romans 2 General Notes

Structure and formatting

This chapter shifts its audience from Roman Christians to those who “judge” other people and do not believe in Jesus. (See: judge, judgment and believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief)

“Therefore you are without excuse”

This phrase looks back at Chapter 1. In some ways, it actually concludes what Chapter 1 teaches. This phrase explains why everyone in the world must worship the true God.

Special concepts in this chapter

“Doers of the Law”

Those who try to obey the law will not be justified by trying to obey it. Those who are justified by believing in Jesus show that their faith is real by obeying God’s commands. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification and law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh, the law)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical Questions

Paul uses several rhetorical questions in this chapter. It appears the intent of these rhetorical questions is to make the reader see their sin so they will trust in Jesus. (See: Rhetorical Question, guilt, guilty and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and faith)

Hypothetical Situation

In context, “he will give eternal life” in verse 7 is a hypothetical statement. If a person could live a perfect life, they would earn eternal life as a reward. But only Jesus was able to live a perfect life.

Paul gives another hypothetical situation in verses 17-29. Here he explains that even those who earnestly try to obey the law of Moses are guilty of violating the law. In English, this is about those who follow the “letter” of the law but cannot follow the “spirit” or general principles of the law. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“You who judge”

At times, this could be translated in a simpler way. But it is translated in this relatively awkward way because when Paul refers to “people who judge” he is also saying that everyone judges. It is possible to translate this as “those who judge (and everyone judges).”
Therefore you are without excuse, O man, anyone who judges, for what you judge in another you condemn in yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. You may say that God must punish people for doing what he hates. But when you say that, you are really saying that God should punish you because you also have lived the same kind of life. You did the same things they have done.

Paul is writing here as if he were addressing a Jewish person who is arguing with him. Paul is doing this to teach his audience that God will punish everyone who continually sins, whether Jew or Gentile. (See: Apostrophe)

Here the pronoun “you” is singular. (See: Forms of You)

O man, anyone who judges
You may say that God must punish people for doing what he hates

Paul uses the word “person” here to scold anyone who might think he can act like God and judge others. Alternate translation: “You are just a human being, yet you judge others and say they deserve God’s punishment” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) for what you judge in another you condemn in yourself

But when you say that, you are really saying that God should punish you because you also have lived

“But you are only judging yourself because you do the same wicked deeds as they do”
• You may say that God must punish people for doing what he hates
• because you also have lived
• the same kind of life. You did the same things they have done (2)
Romans 2:2

But we know (ULT)
We know very well (UST)

Here the pronoun “we” may include Christian believers and also Jews who are not Christians. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

God’s judgment is according to truth when it falls on those (ULT)
God will judge and punish fairly people (UST)

Here Paul speaks of “God’s judgment” as if it were alive and could “fall” on people. Alternate translation: “God will judge those people truly and fairly” (See: Personification)

those who practice such things (ULT) fairly people...who do such evil deeds (UST)

“the people who do those wicked deeds”

Translation Words - ULT

• God’s • truth
• judgment
• we know

Translation Words - UST

• God
• fairly people
• will judge and punish
• We know very well
Romans 2:3

ULT

3 But consider this, you person who judges those who practice such things although you do the same things. Will you escape from the judgment of God?

UST

3 So you who say that God should punish others for doing evil deeds, although you do evil deeds yourself, you should certainly not think that you yourself will be able to escape from God when he begins to punish you!

---

Translation Words - ULT

- of God
- who judges
- judgment

Translation Words - UST

- from God
- who...God should punish
- when he begins to punish you
Romans 2:4

Or do you think so little of the riches of his kindness, and his delayed punishment, and his patience? Do you not know that the kindness of God is meant to lead you to repentance (ULT)

And you should not say, “God is acting very tolerantly and patiently toward me, so I do not need to turn away from my sin.” You should understand that God is patiently waiting for you to repent from your sins (UST)

This remark appears in the form of a question to add emphasis. You can also translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You must know that God shows you he is good so that you might repent!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Do you think so little of the riches...patience

“consider the riches...patience unimportant” or “consider...not good”

Do you not know that the kindness of God is meant to lead you to repentance (ULT)

You should understand that God is patiently waiting for you to repent from your sins (UST)

This remark appears in the form of a question to add emphasis. You can also translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You must know that God shows you he is good so that you might repent!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• of God
• repentance
• of...kindness
• kindness
• his patience
• Do you not know

Translation Words - UST

• God
• for you...repent from your sins
• And you should not say...is acting very
• is patiently waiting
• patiently toward me
• You should understand
Romans 2:5

Connecting Statement:

Paul continues to remind the people that all people are wicked.

But it is to the extent of your hardness and unrepentant heart (ULT)
But instead, because you are stubborn and refuse to stop sinning (UST)

Paul uses a metaphor to compare a person who refuses to obey God to something hard, like a stone. He also uses the metonym “heart” to represent the person’s mind or inner being. Alternate translation: “It is because you refuse to listen and repent” (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

This is a doublet that you can combine as “unrepentant heart.” (See: Doublet) that you are storing up for yourself wrath (ULT)

God will punish you even more severely (UST)

The phrase “storing up” implies a metaphor that usually refers to a person gathering his treasures and putting them in a safe place. Paul says, instead of treasures, that the person is gathering God’s punishment. The longer they go without repenting, the more severe the punishment. Alternate translation: “you are making your punishment worse” (See: Metaphor) on the day of wrath...of the revelation of God’s righteous judgment (ULT)

He will do that at the time when he shows that he is angry...judges all people fairly (UST)

Both of these phrases refer to the same day. Alternate translation: “when God shows everyone that he is angry and that he judges all people fairly” (See: Doublet)

Translation Words - ULT

- of the revelation
- of God’s
- heart
- wrath
- of wrath
- the day
- hardness

Translation Words - UST

- judges all people fairly
- judges all people fairly
- refuse to stop sinning
- God will punish
- when he shows that he is angry
• the time
• are stubborn
Romans 2:6

will pay back (ULT)
will pay back (UST)

“give a fair reward or punishment”

to every person according to his actions (ULT) everyone according to what they deserve for what they have done (UST)

“each person according to what that person has done”

Translation Words - ULT
• actions

Translation Words - UST
• what they deserve for what they have done
Romans 2:7

who...are seeking (ULT)
they want (UST)

This means that they act in a way that will lead to a positive decision from God on judgment day.

praise, honor, and incorruptibility

They want God to praise and honor them, and they want to never die.

incorruptibility (ULT)
forever with him (UST)

This refers to physical, not moral, decay.

Translation Words - ULT

• he will give...life
• eternal
• honor
• actions
• praise
• good
• consistent
• who...are seeking

Translation Words - UST

• they want to live
• God will reward them in this way
• God to honor them
• deeds, because
• God to honor them
• good
• keep doing
• they want
Romans 2:8

Connecting Statement:

Though this section is speaking to the non-religious wicked person, Paul sums it up by stating both non-Jews and Jews are wicked before God.

who are self-seeking (ULT)
act in a selfish way (UST)

“selfish” or “only concerned with what makes themselves happy” who disobey the truth but obey unrighteousness (ULT) refuse to believe that what God says is true, and they do the things that God says are wrong (UST)

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. The second intensifies the first. (See: Parallelism) wrath and fierce anger will come (ULT)

God will be very angry and will punish them severely (UST)

The words “wrath” and “fierce anger” mean basically the same thing and emphasize God’s anger. Alternate translation: “God will show his terrible anger” (See: Doublet)

wrath (ULT)
God will be very angry (UST)

Here the word “wrath” is a metonym that refers to God’s severe punishment of wicked people. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

• truth
• unrighteousness
• wrath
• obey
• who disobey

Translation Words - UST

• what God says is true
• are wrong
• God will be very angry
• that...they do the things that
• refuse to believe
Romans 2:9

God will bring tribulation and distress on (ULT)
He will cause everyone...to suffer greatly and to have many troubles (UST)

The words “tribulation” and “distress” mean basically the same thing here and emphasize how bad God’s punishment will be. Alternate translation: “awful punishments will happen to” (See: Doublet)

on every human soul (ULT)
He will cause everyone (UST)

Here, Paul uses the word “soul” as a synecdoche that refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “upon every person” (See: Synecdoche) that has practiced evil (ULT) who habitually does evil deeds (UST)

“has habitually done evil things”

and...to the Jew first, and...to the Greek (ULT)
and...This certainly will happen to the Jews who refuse to accept God’s message, because God gave them the privilege to be his special people, but it will also...happen to the non-Jews (UST)

“God will judge the Jewish people first, and then those who are not Jewish people”

first (ULT)
special people (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “first in order of time” or 2) “most certainly”

Translation Words - ULT

- to the Jew
- soul
- evil
- to the Greek
- God will bring tribulation
- distress

Translation Words - UST

- This certainly will happen to the Jews who refuse to accept God's message
- He will cause everyone
- evil deeds
- happen to the non-Jews
- to suffer greatly
- to have many troubles
Romans 2:10

But praise, honor, and peace will come to everyone who practices good (ULT) who habitually does good deeds (UST)

“But God will give praise, honor, and peace”

and...to the Jew first, and...to the Greek (ULT)
honor...He will certainly do this for the Jews because he chose them as his special people...do it for the non-Jews (UST)

“God will reward the Jewish people first, and then those who are not Jewish people”

first (ULT)
because he chose them as his special people (UST)

You should translate this the same way you did in Romans 2:9.

Translation Words - ULT

• to the Jew
• honor
• praise
• good
• to the Greek
• who practices
• peace

Translation Words - UST

• He will certainly do this for the Jews
• honor
• God will praise
• good deeds
• do it for the non-Jews
• who habitually does
• give a peaceful spirit

ULT
10 But praise, and honor, and peace will come to everyone who practices good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

UST
10 But God will praise, honor, and give a peaceful spirit to every person who habitually does good deeds. He will certainly do this for the Jews because he chose them as his special people, but he will also do it for the non-Jews.
Roms 2:11

For there is no favoritism with God (ULT)
God will do this fairly, because he pays no attention to how important anyone is (UST)

You can translate this in a positive form. Alternate translation: "For God treats all people the same" (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• favoritism

Translation Words - UST

• God
• will do this fairly, because he pays no attention to how important anyone

ULT
11 For there is no favoritism with God.

UST
11 God will do this fairly, because he pays no attention to how important anyone is.
Romans 2:12

For as many as...have sinned (ULT)
Although non-Jews...still sin (UST)

“For those who have sinned”

without the law...will also perish without the law (ULT)
do not have the laws that God gave to Moses...and...without having a law, God will bring them to ruin forever (ULT)

Paul repeats “without the law” to emphasize that it does not matter if people do not know the law of Moses. If they sin, God will judge them. Alternate translation: “without knowing the law of Moses will certainly still die spiritually” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) as many as...have sinned (ULT)

non-Jews...still sin (UST)

“All those who have sinned” with respect to the law...will be judged by the law (ULT) who have disobeyed his law, because...he will judge them according to what the law says (UST)

God will judge sinful people according to his law. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “and who do know the law of Moses, God will judge them according to that law” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• have sinned
• have sinned (2)
• will...perish
• the law
• the law
• will be judged

Translation Words - UST

• still sin
• who have disobeyed his law, because (2)
• God will bring them to ruin forever
• who have disobeyed his law, because
• what the law says
• he will judge them
Roms 2:13

Connecting Statement:

Paul continues to let the reader know that perfect obedience to God's law is required even for those who never had God's law.

For (ULT)
It is right for God to punish them because (UST)

Verses 14 and 15 interrupt Paul's main argument to give the reader extra information. If you have a way to mark an interruption like this in your language, you can use it here.

not...it is...the hearers of the law (ULT) not...it is...those who know about God's laws that (UST)

Here "the law" refers to the law of Moses. Alternate translation: "it is not those who only hear the law of Moses" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) who are righteous before God (ULT)

he makes righteous (UST)

"whom God considers righteous"

it...the...of the law...but...doers (ULT)
it...those...God's laws that...Only those who have obeyed (UST)

"but it is those who obey the law of Moses"

who will be justified (ULT)
God makes righteous (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: "whom God will accept" (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• who are righteous
• God
• of the law
• of the law (2)
• who will be justified

Translation Words - UST

• he makes righteous
• he makes righteous
• God's laws that
• all of God's law, they are the only ones (2)
• God makes righteous
Romans 2:14

Gentiles, who do not have the law...are a law to themselves (ULT)
the non-Jews, who do not have the law of God...they prove that they have a law within themselves (UST)

The phrase “law to themselves” is an idiom that means that these people naturally obey God's laws. Alternate translation: “have God's laws already inside them” (See: Idiom)

the law...although they do not have (ULT)
the law of God...never had (UST)

Here “the law” refers to the law of Moses.” Alternate translation: “they do not actually have the laws that God gave to Moses” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- the law
- law
- the law (2)
- a law
- Gentiles

Translation Words - UST

- the law of God
- those laws
- the laws that God gave to Moses (2)
- they prove that they have a law within themselves
- the non-Jews
Romans 2:15

By this they show that (ULT)
They show that (UST)

“By naturally obeying the law they show”

the actions required by the law are written in their hearts (ULT)
they know in their own minds what God commands in his law (UST)

Here “hearts” is a metonym for the person's thoughts or inner person. The phrase “written in their hearts” is a metaphor for knowing something in their mind. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “that God has written on their hearts what the law requires them to do” or “that they know the actions that God wants them to do according to his law” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor and Active or Passive) also bears witness to them...and their own thoughts either accuse or even defend them (ULT)

they know in their own minds...for each person in his very own conscience...for each person in his very own conscience...either accuses himself of bad behavior or defends himself (UST)

Here “bears witness” refers to the knowledge they gain from the law that God has written in their hearts. Alternate translation: “tells them if they are disobeying or obeying God's law” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

- hearts
- law
- also bears witness
- actions
- conscience
- either accuse

Translation Words - UST

- they know in their own minds
- law
- they know in their own minds
- God commands
- for each person in his very own conscience
- either accuses himself of bad behavior
Romans 2:16

That will happen on the day when God will judge (ULT)
God will punish them at the time when he will judge people (UST)

This finishes Paul's thought from Romans 2:13. “This will happen when God judges”

Translation Words - ULT

• Christ Jesus
• God
• gospel
• will judge
• Christ
• the day

Translation Words - UST

• He will judge people by authorizing the Messiah Jesus to judge them. This is what
• he
• good news to them
• will judge people
• He will judge people by authorizing the Messiah
• the time

ULT
16 That will happen on the day when God will judge the secrets of all people, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

UST
16 God will punish them at the time when he will judge people according to what they have thought and done secretly. He will judge people by authorizing the Messiah Jesus to judge them. This is what I tell people when I preach the good news to them.
Romans 2:17

Connecting Statement:
Here begins Paul’s discussion that the law the Jews possess actually condemns them because they do not obey it.

if...you call yourself a Jew (ULT)
Now...I have something to say to anyone of you Jews to whom I am writing (UST)

“since you call yourself a Jew”

rely upon the law (ULT)
You trust that God will save you because...you know the laws that he gave to Moses (UST)

The phrase “rest upon the law” represents believing that they can become righteous by obeying the law. Alternate translation: “rely on the law of Moses” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- a Jew
- God
- the law
- boast
- call yourself

Translation Words - UST

- Jews to whom I am writing
- God
- you know the laws that he gave to Moses
- You boast that you
- Jews to whom I am writing
Romans 2:18

know his will (ULT)
You know...what God desires (UST)

“and know God’s will”

because you have been instructed from the law (ULT)
Because you have been taught God’s laws (UST)

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “because people have taught you what is right from the law” or “because you have learned from the law” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- law
- his will
- because you have been instructed
- know

Translation Words - UST

- God’s laws
- what God desires
- Because you have been taught
- You know

ULT
18 and know his will and approve of what is excellent because you have been instructed from the law;

UST
18 You know what God desires. Because you have been taught God’s laws, you are able to know which things are right and to choose to do them.
Romans 2:19

and if you are convinced that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness (ULT)
You are certain that you are able to show God’s truth to non-Jews, and that you can instruct those who know nothing about God (UST)

Here “the blind” and “those who walk in darkness” represent people who do not understand the law. Alternate translation: “that because you teach the law, you yourself are like a guide to blind people, and you are like a light to people who are lost in the dark” (See: Parallelism and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- darkness
- a light
- and if you are convinced that

Translation Words - UST

- who know nothing about God
- and that you can instruct
- You are certain that

ULT
19 and if you are convinced that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness.

UST
19 You are certain that you are able to show God’s truth to non-Jews, and that you can instruct those who know nothing about God.
Romans 2:20

ULT
a corrector of the foolish
You are certain that you can instruct those who believe foolish things about God “you correct those who do wrong” a teacher of little children and those who are like children because they know nothing about him at all and that you have in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth
You are certain about all this because you have the law that teaches you truly about God

UST
20 You are certain that you can instruct those who believe foolish things about God and those who are like children because they know nothing about him at all. You are certain about all this because you have the law that teaches you truly about God.

Here Paul compares those who do not know anything about the law to very small children. Alternate translation: “and you teach those who do not know the law” (See: Metaphor)

The knowledge of the truth that is in the law comes from God. Alternate translation: “because you are sure you understand the truth that God has given in the law” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - UST
- those who believe foolish things about God
- law
- that teaches you truly about God
- and those who are like children because they know nothing about him at all
- You are certain that you can instruct
- and those who are like children because they know nothing about him at all
- that teaches you truly about God

Translation Words - ULT
- of the foolish
- law
- truth
- of little children
- a corrector
- a teacher
- of knowledge
Romans 2:21

then you who teach...then you who teach...others, do you not teach yourself (ULT)
Since you claim that you have all these advantages... because you are a Jew, it is disgusting that you teach others but do not obey the laws yourself (UST)

Paul is using a question to scold his listeners. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You teach others, but you do not teach yourself!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

You who preach against stealing, do you steal (ULT)
You who preach that people should not steal things, it is disgusting that you yourself steal things (UST)

Paul is using a question to scold his listeners. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You tell people not to steal, but you steal!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• then you who teach
• do you...teach
• You who preach

Translation Words - UST

• because you are a Jew, it is disgusting that you teach
• but do...obey the laws
• You who preach that
Romans 2:22

You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery (ULT)
You who command people not to sleep with someone to whom they are not married, it is disgusting that you commit adultery yourself (UST)

Paul is using a question to scold his listeners. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You tell people not to commit adultery, but you commit adultery!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

You who hate idols, do you rob temples (ULT)
You who command others not to worship idols, it is disgusting that you do not avoid disgusting things (UST)

Paul is using a question to scold his listener. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You say you hate idols, but you rob temples!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

do you rob temples (ULT)
it is disgusting that you do not avoid disgusting things (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “steal items from local pagan temples to sell and make a profit” or 2) “do not send to the Jerusalem temple all the money that is due to God.”

Translation Words - ULT
- idols
- one must...commit adultery
- do you commit adultery

Translation Words - UST
- idols
- to sleep with someone to whom they are not married
- it is disgusting that you commit adultery yourself
Romans 2:23

You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law (ULT)
You who boast saying, “I have God’s laws,” it is disgusting that you disobey those same laws! As a result you are insulting God (UST)

Paul uses a question to scold his listener. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “It is wicked that you claim to be proud of the law, while at the same time you disobey it and bring shame to God!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• the law
• law
• boast
• breaking

Translation Words - UST

• God
• I have God’s laws...it is disgusting that
• laws
• boast saying
• you disobey
Romans 2:24

the...name of God...is blasphemed among the Gentiles (ULT)
Because...about God...the non-Jews say insulting things (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “many Gentiles blaspheme the name of God” (See: Active or Passive)

name of God (ULT)
about God (UST)

The word “name” is a metonym that refers to the entirety of God, not just his name. (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- of God
- Gentiles
- name
- is blasphemed
- just as
- it has been written

Translation Words - UST

- God
- non-Jews
- about
- say insulting things
- It is just as
- the scriptures tell us

ULT

24 For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it has been written.

UST

24 It is just as the scriptures tell us, “Because of the evil things that you Jews do, the non-Jews say insulting things about God.”
Romans 2:25

Connecting Statement:

Paul continues to show that God, by his law, condemns even the Jews who have God's law.

For circumcision indeed benefits you (ULT)
Any one of you who is circumcised to show that he belongs to God can benefit from that (UST)

“I say all of this because being circumcised does benefit you”

if...you break the law (ULT)
if...disobey the law (UST)

“if you do not obey the commandments found in the law”

your circumcision becomes uncircumcision (ULT)
you, a circumcised person...God will consider you to be no better in God's sight than someone who is not circumcised (UST)

“it is as though you were no longer circumcised”

Translation Words - ULT

• the law
• the law
• circumcision
• circumcision
• uncircumcision
• break
• benefits you

Translation Words - UST

• the law that he gave to Moses
• the law
• Any one of you who is circumcised to show that he belongs to God
• circumcised person
• God will consider you to be no better in God's sight than someone who is not circumcised
• disobey
• can benefit from that
Romans 2:26

If, then, the uncircumcised person keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?

This means that God will certainly consider that even non-Jews who are not circumcised can become his people if they obey the things that he commanded in his laws.

This is the first of two questions Paul asks here to emphasize that circumcision is not what makes one right before God. You can translate this question as a statement in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will consider him as circumcised.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- law
- uncircumcised person
- uncircumcision
- circumcision
- keeps
- requirements

Translation Words - UST

- laws
- non-Jews who are not circumcised
- can become his people
- they obey
- the things that he commanded
Romans 2:27

Will not the one who is naturally uncircumcised condemn you if he keeps the law (ULT)

These people, who are not circumcised but who still obey God's laws, will declare that God is right when (UST)

This is the second of two questions that Paul asks here (the first is in Romans 2:26 (.26.md)) to emphasize that circumcision is not what makes one right before God. You can translate this questions as a statement in an active form. Alternate translation: “The one who is not physically circumcised will condemn you…the law.” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - UST

- God's laws
- the law
- These people, who are not circumcised
- he punishes you, for you are circumcized but still break
- but who still obey
- will declare that God is right when
- he punishes you, for you are circumcized but still break

Translation Words - ULT

- law
- the law
- uncircumcised
- circumcision
- if he keeps
- Will not...condemn you
- yet you break

ULT

27 Will not the one who is naturally uncircumcised condemn you if he keeps the law? This is because you have the written law and circumcision, yet you break the law!

UST

27 These people, who are not circumcised but who still obey God's laws, will declare that God is right when he punishes you, for you are circumcized but still break the law.
Romans 2:28

is merely one outwardly (ULT)
It is...those who perform rituals for God (UST)

This refers to Jewish rituals, such as circumcision, which people can see.

merely outward in the flesh

This refers to the physical change to a man's body when someone circumcises him.

the flesh (ULT)
and it is...being circumcised in their bodies (UST)

This is a synecdoche for the whole body. Alternate translation: “body” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT
• a Jew
• the flesh
• is circumcision

Translation Words - UST
• true Jews
• and it is...being circumcised in their bodies
• that causes God to accept them
Romans 2:29

_he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart (ULT)_

_we whom God has changed inwardly are the true Jews. God has accepted us and God’s...has changed our nature (UST)_

These two phrases have similar meanings. The first phrase, “he is a Jew who is one inwardly,” explains the second phrase, “circumcision is that of the heart.” (See: Parallelism)

_is one inwardly (ULT)_

_God has changed inwardly (UST)_

This refers to the values and motivations of the person whom God has transformed.

_is that of the heart (ULT)_

_our nature (UST)_

Here “heart” is a metonym for the inner person. (See: Metonymy)

_in the Spirit, not in the letter (ULT)_

_Spirit...not because we perform the rituals commanded by the law (UST)_

Here “letter” is a synecdoche that refers to written Scripture. Alternate translation: “through the work of the Holy Spirit, not because you know the Scriptures” (See: Synecdoche) _is one inwardly...the Spirit (ULT)_

_God has changed inwardly...Spirit (UST)_

This refers to the internal, spiritual part of a person that “God’s Spirit” changes.

Translation Words - ULT

- he is a Jew
- God
- is that of the heart
- circumcision
- the Spirit
- praise

Translation Words - UST

- are the true Jews. God has accepted us
- God will praise us
- our nature
- God’s...has changed
- Spirit
- will...praise us
Romans 3

Romans 3 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 4 and 10-18 of this chapter, which are words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Chapter 3 answers the question, “What advantage does being a Jew have over being a Gentile?” (See: law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh, the law and save, saved, safe, salvation)

“For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God”

Because God is holy, anyone with him in heaven must be perfect. Any sin at all will condemn a person. (See: heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly and condemn, condemned, condemnation)

The purpose of the law of Moses

Obeying the law cannot make a person right with God. Obeying God’s law is a way a person shows they believe in God. People have always been justified only by faith. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification and faith)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical Questions

Paul frequently uses rhetorical questions in this chapter. It appears the intent of these rhetorical questions is to make the reader see their sin so they will trust in Jesus. (See: Rhetorical Question and guilt, guilty)
Romans 3:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul proclaims the advantage that Jews have because God gave them his law.

Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the benefit of circumcision (ULT)
Someone might say then, “If that is true, then it appears that there is no advantage to be a Jew over a non-Jew, and being circumcised does not benefit us Jews at all (UST)

Paul presents ideas that people might have after they hear what he wrote in chapter 2. He does this in order to respond to them in verse 2. Alternate translation: “Some people might say, ‘Then what advantage does the Jew have? And what is the benefit of circumcision?’” or “Some people might say, ‘If that is true, then the Jews do not have any advantage, and there is no benefit in being circumcised.’” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• Jew
• of circumcision
• benefit

Translation Words - UST

• it appears that there is no advantage to be a Jew over a non-Jew, and
• being circumcised
• does not benefit us Jews at all
Romans 3:2

It is great in every way (ULT)
But I tell you that being Jews has many benefits (UST)

Paul now responds to the concerns brought up in verse 1. Here “It” refers to being a member of the Jewish people. Alternate translation: “But there is great advantage to being a Jew” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

first of all (ULT)
First of all because it was (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “First in order of time” or 2) “Most certainly” or 3) “Most importantly.”

ty were entrusted...with revelation from God (ULT) to their ancestors...God spoke his words, words that show us who he is (UST)

Here “revelation” refers to God's words and promises. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God gave his words that contain his promises to the Jews” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• from God

Translation Words - UST

• God
Romans 3:3

For what if some Jews were without faith? Will their unbelief abolish God's faithfulness (ULT)
Someone might think that the Jews being unfaithful might mean that God will not bless the Jews as he promised that he would (UST)

Paul uses these questions to make people think. Alternate translation: “Some Jews have not been faithful to God. Should we conclude from this that God will not fulfill his promise?” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- were without faith
- God's
- unbelief
- faithfulness

Translation Words - UST

- Someone might think that...being
- might mean that God
- unfaithful
- bless the Jews as he promised that he would

ULT
3 For what if some Jews were without faith? Will their unbelief abolish God's faithfulness?

UST
3 Someone might think that the Jews being unfaithful might mean that God will not bless the Jews as he promised that he would?
Romans 3:4

May it never be (ULT)

No, it certainly does not mean that (UST)

This expression strongly denies that this could happen. You may have an expression in your language that you could use here. “That is not possible!” or “Certainly not!”

Instead, let...be found (ULT) does (UST)

“We should say this instead, let”

let...be found...God...to be true (ULT) does...God always...what he has promised (UST)

God will always be true and will keep his promises. Alternate translation: “God always does what he has promised” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

even though every man is a liar (ULT) even though people do not. All those who accuse God of not keeping his promises to us Jews are very mistaken (UST)

The words “every” and “liar” are exaggerations here to add emphasis that God alone is always true to his promises. Alternate translation: “even if every man were a liar” (See: Hyperbole)

As it has been written (ULT)
King David wrote about this (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “The Scriptures themselves agree with what I am saying” (See: Active or Passive)

That you might be shown to be righteous in your words, and that you might prevail when you come into judgment (ULT)
So everyone must acknowledge that what you have said about them is true, and that you will always win the case when anyone accuses you of doing wrong (UST)

These two phrases have very similar meanings. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Everyone must acknowledge that what you say is true, and you will always win your case when anyone accuses you” (See: Parallelism and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• to be true
• when...come into judgment
• you might be shown to be righteous
• As
• it has been written
Translation Words - UST

- God always
- what he has promised
- when anyone accuses you of doing wrong
- everyone must acknowledge that
- King David wrote about this
- King David wrote about this
But if our unrighteousness shows the righteousness of God, what can we say? Is God unrighteous for bringing his wrath (ULT)

Paul uses these questions to present what some people were arguing and to get his readers to think about whether or not this argument is true. Alternate translation: “Some people say that since our unrighteousness shows God’s righteousness, then God is unrighteous when he punishes us” (See: Rhetorical Question) for bringing his wrath (ULT) to punish us out of anger (UST)

Here “wrath” is a metonym for punishment. Alternate translation: “to bring his punishment upon us” or “to punish us” (See: Metonymy)

I am speaking according to human argument (ULT)
I am speaking as ordinary humans speak (UST)

“I am saying here what some people say” or “This is what some people say”

Translation Words - ULT

• the righteousness
• unrighteous
• of God
• Is God
• unrighteousness
• his wrath

Translation Words - UST

• righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness
• was wrong
• God did not bless us because
• God
• we...were wicked
• to punish us out of anger
Romans 3:6

May it never be (ULT)
We should certainly not conclude that God should not judge, because if God did not judge (UST)

“We must never say that God is unrighteous”

For then how would God judge the world (ULT)
it could not possibly be right for him to judge the world (UST)

Paul uses this question to show that the arguments against the gospel are not valid, since the Jews believe that God will judge all people. Alternate translation: “We all know that God will in fact judge the world!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

the world (ULT)
the world (UST)

The “world” is a metonym for the people who live in the world. Alternate translation: “anyone in the world” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- world
- would...judge

Translation Words - UST

- for him
- world
- to judge
Romans 3:7

But if the truth of God through my lie provides abundant praise for him, why am I still being judged as a sinner (ULT)
But someone might answer, “The fact that God truly keeps his promises becomes very clear because for example, I told a lie and the result is that people praise God because he has mercy! So God should no longer say that I should be punished on account of my having sinned, since (UST)

Here Paul imagines someone continuing to reject the Christian gospel. That adversary argues, because his sin shows the righteousness of God, then God should not declare that he is a sinner on judgment day if, for example, he tells lies. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT
- a sinner
- of God
- truth
- praise
- being judged
- provides abundant
- as

Translation Words - UST
- God should no longer say that I should be punished on account of my having sinned
- The fact that God
- truly keeps his promises
- people praise God
- God should no longer say that I should be punished on account of my having sinned
- becomes very clear
- God should no longer say that I should be punished on account of my having sinned
Romans 3:8

Why not say, as we are falsely reported to say, and as some affirm that we say, “Let us do evil, so that good may come”? If what you, Paul, say is true, then we might as well do evil things in order that good things like that will result!” Some people speak evil about me because they accuse me of speaking like this. God will punish people who say such things about me, and (ULT)

Here Paul raises a question of his own, to show how ridiculous the argument of his imaginary adversary is. Alternate translation: “I might as well be saying...come!” (See: Rhetorical Question) as we are falsely reported to say (ULT) then we might as well...speak evil about me because they accuse (UST)

“some lie to tell others that this is what we are saying”

The judgment on them is just (ULT) they will deserve for him to punish them (UST)

It will be only fair when God condemns these enemies of Paul, for telling lies about what Paul has been teaching.

Translation Words - ULT

• judgment
• good
• just
• evil
• we are falsely reported to say
• as
• as

Translation Words - UST

• they will deserve for him to punish them

• speak evil about me because they accuse
• then we might as well
• like this
Romans 3:9

Connecting Statement:
Paul sums up that all are guilty of sin, none are righteous, and no one seeks God.

What then? Are we excusing ourselves (ULT)
Shall we conclude that God will treat us more favorably and will treat the non-Jews less favorably (UST)

Paul asks these questions to emphasize his point. Alternate translation: “We Jews should not try to imagine we are going to escape God's judgment, just because we are Jewish!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Not at all (ULT)
We can certainly not (UST)

These words are stronger than a simple “no,” but not as strong as “absolutely not!”

Translation Words - ULT
- sin
- Jews
- Greeks

Translation Words - UST
- have sinned and so they deserve
- The Jews
- and also the non-Jews
Romans 3:10

This is as it is written (ULT)

UST
10 The following words that are written in the scriptures support this, No person is righteous. There is not even one righteous person!
Romans 3:11

There is no one who understands (ULT)
There is no one who understands how to live properly (UST)

There is no one who understands what is right. Alternate translation: “No one really understands what is right” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

There is no one who seeks after God (ULT)
There is no one who seeks to know God (UST)

Here the phrase “seeks after God” means to have a relationship with God. Alternate translation: “No one sincerely tries to have a right relationship with God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• after God
• who seeks
• who understands

Translation Words - UST

• God
• seeks to know
• understands how to live properly
Romans 3:12

They have all turned away (ULT)
Absolutely everyone has turned away from God (UST)

This is an idiom that means the people do not even want to think about God. They want to avoid him. Alternate translation: “They have all turned away from God” (See: Idiom)

They together have become useless (ULT)
God considers them depraved (UST)

Since no one does what is good, they are useless to God. Alternate translation: “Everyone has become useless to God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- good
- They have...turned away

Translation Words - UST

- righteously
- has turned away from God

ULT
12 They have all turned away. They together have become useless. There is no one who does good—there is not even one.”

UST
12 Absolutely everyone has turned away from God. God considers them depraved. There is no one who acts righteously; no, there is not even one!
Romans 3:13

Their...Their (ULT)
What people say...What people say (UST)

The word “their” refers to the “Jews and Greeks” of Romans 3:9.

Their throat is an open grave (ULT)
What people say is foul, like the smell that comes from a grave that has been opened (UST)

The word “throat” is a metonym for everything that people say that is unrighteous and disgusting. Here “open grave” is a metaphor that refers to the stench of the evil words of the people. (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Their tongues have deceived (ULT)
By what people say, they deceive people (UST)

The word “tongues” is a metonym for the false words that people speak. Alternate translation: “People speak lies” (See: Metonymy)

The poison of snakes is under their lips (ULT)
By what they say they injure people, just like the poison of snakes injures people (UST)

Here “poison of snakes” is a metaphor that is used to represent the great harm of the evil words that the people speak. The word “lips” refers to the words of the people. Alternate translation: “Their evil words injure people just like the poison of a venomous snake” (See: Metaphor and Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

• tongues

Translation Words - UST

- how to live peacefully with other people
- They have...known

ULT
17 They have not known a way of peace.

UST
17 They have not known how to live peacefully with other people.
Romans 3:18

There is no fear of God before their eyes.

They absolutely refuse to honor God!

This word refers to the Jews and Greeks in Romans 3:9.

Here "fear" is a metonym that represents respect for God and willingness to honor him. Alternate translation: “Everyone refuses to give God the respect he deserves” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

• fear
• of God

Translation Words - UST

• to honor
• God
Romans 3:19

whatever the law says...to the ones who are...it speaks (ULT)
whatever these laws command is to those...This means (UST)

Paul speaks of the law here as if it were alive and had its own voice. Alternate translation: “everything that the law says people should do is for” or “all the commands that Moses wrote in the law are for” (See: Personification) to the ones who are under the law (ULT) to those who are required to obey (UST)

“This is in order that every mouth may be shut (ULT) that Jews or non-Jews are not able to say anything contrary when God demands an answer for having sinned (UST)

Here “mouth” is a synecdoche that means the words people speak. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “so that no people will be able to say anything valid to defend themselves” (See: Synecdoche and Active or Passive)

Romans 3:21

Connecting Statement:
The word “but” here shows Paul has completed his introduction and is now beginning to make his main point.

now (ULT)
it does not depend on (UST)
The word “now” refers to the time since Jesus came to the earth.

apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known (ULT)
When God declares us right with him...it does not depend on...our obeying the law that he gave Moses (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God has made known a way to be right with him without obeying the law” (See: Active or Passive)

It was witnessed by the Law and the Prophets (ULT)
It was written about in the laws and by the prophets that God forgives our sins by a different way (UST)
The words “the Law and the Prophets” refer to the parts of scripture that Moses and the prophets wrote in the Jewish scriptures. Paul describes them here as if they were people testifying in court. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “What Moses and the prophets wrote confirms this” (See: Personification and Active or Passive)

ULT
23 For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.

UST
23 All people have done evil, and everyone has failed to accomplish the glorious goals that God set for them.
Romans 3:24

and they are freely justified by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (ULT)
Our record of sins has been erased by his acting kindly to forgive our sins, without our doing anything to earn it. The Messiah Jesus accomplished this by redeeming us (UST)

Here “justified” refers to being made right with God. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God makes them right with himself as a free gift, because Christ Jesus sets them free” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive) and they are freely justified (ULT)

Our record of sins has been erased...without our doing anything to earn it (UST)

This means that they are justified without having to earn or merit being justified. God freely justifies them. Alternate translation: “they are made right with God without earning it”

Translation Words - ULT

- grace
- Jesus
- redemption
- and they are...justified
- Christ
- in Christ Jesus

Otherwise, one might not have thought he was just, because he had overlooked (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) ignoring or 2) forgiving.

Translation Words - ULT

• proof
• of...justice
• sins
• For God
• blood
• as a propitiation
• faith

Translation Words - UST

• The sacrifice of the Messiah shows that
• God acted in a just manner
• sins
• God
• shedding his blood when he died, and
• turned away his anger
• we must believe in what he did for us

ULT
25 For God provided Christ Jesus as a propitiation through faith in his blood. He offered Christ as proof of his justice, because of his disregard of previous sins.

UST
25 God showed that the Messiah turned away his anger by shedding his blood when he died, and we must believe in what he did for us. The sacrifice of the Messiah shows that God acted in a just manner. Otherwise, one might not have thought he was just, because he had overlooked sins that people had previously committed, for he is patient.
Romans 3:26

in...This all happened for the demonstration of his righteousness...this present time (ULT) to die for us...he...now...shows that...he...justly able (UST)

“He did this to show how God makes people right with himself” so that he could be just, and justify the one who has faith in Jesus (ULT)

he is just, and he shows that...is...to erase the record of sins for everyone who trusts in Jesus (UST)

“By this he shows that he is both just and the one who declares everyone righteous who has faith in Jesus”

Romans 3:27

Where then is boasting? It is excluded (ULT) of Moses that God erases the record of our sins. So there is no way that we can boast that (UST)

Paul asks this question to show that there is no reason for people to boast about obeying the law. Alternate translation: “So there is no way that we can boast that God favors us because we obeyed those laws. Boasting is excluded” (See: Rhetorical Question)

On what grounds? Of works? No, but on the grounds of faith (ULT)

It is not at all because we obey the laws...God favors us because we obeyed those laws. Instead, it is because we believe in the Messiah that God erases the record of our sins (UST)

Paul asks and answers these rhetorical questions to emphasize that each point he is making is certainly true. You can translate this by including the words that Paul implies, and by using an active form. Alternate translation: “On what grounds should we exclude boasting? Should we exclude it because of our good works? No, rather, we should exclude it because of faith” (See: Rhetorical Question and Ellipsis and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- Of works
- is boasting
- of faith
- grounds
- the grounds (2)

Translation Words - UST

- because we obey
- we can boast that
- we believe in the Messiah that God erases the record of our sins
- God favors us because we obeyed those laws
- It is...at all...the laws (2)
Romans 3:28

a person is justified by faith (ULT)
God makes someone right with himself if that person trusts in the Messiah (UST)

Here “faith” is an abstract noun that refers to the person believing in God. The “person” here is any person. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: “God justifies any person who believes in God” or “when God justifies a person, he does so because the person believes in God” (See: Abstract Nouns and Active or Passive) without works of the law (ULT) not if that person obeys the law (UST)

“even if he has done no works of the law”

Translation Words - ULT

• of the law
• works
• by faith
• is justified

Translation Words - UST

• the law
• that person obeys
• trusts in the Messiah
• God makes someone right with himself if

ULT
28 We conclude then that a person is justified by faith without works of the law.

UST
28 So it is clear that God makes someone right with himself if that person trusts in the Messiah—not if that person obeys the law.
Romans 3:29

Or is God the God of Jews only (ULT)
You who are Jews certainly should not think that you are the only ones whom God will accept (UST)

Paul asks this question for emphasis. Alternate translation: “You who are Jews certainly should not think that you are the only ones whom God will accept!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Is he not also the God of Gentiles? Yes, of Gentiles also (ULT)
You certainly should realize that he will accept non-Jews, too. Of course, he will accept non-Jews (UST)

Paul asks this question to emphasize his point. Alternate translation: “He will also accept non-Jews, that is, Gentiles” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• of Jews
• God
• of Gentiles
• of Gentiles (2)

Translation Words - UST

• you are
• God
• he will accept non-Jews
• too...he will accept non-Jews (2)
Romans 3:30

he will justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through faith (ULT)
It is this same God who will make Jews—who have been circumcised—right with himself because they trust in the Messiah, and it is also God who will make non-Jews—who have not been circumcised—right with himself, because they also trust in the Messiah (UST)

Here “circumcision” is a metonym that refers to Jews and “uncircumcision” is a metonym that refers to non-Jews. Alternate translation: “God will make both Jews and non-Jews right with himself through their faith in Christ” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- God is
- the circumcision
- the uncircumcision
- faith
- faith (2)
- will justify

Translation Words - UST

- God
- Jews—who have been circumcised
- non-Jews—who have not been circumcised—right with himself
- they trust in the Messiah
- they also trust in the Messiah (2)
- will make...right with himself
Romans 3:31

Connecting Statement:
Paul confirms the law though faith.

Do we then nullify the law through faith (ULT)
If you say that God makes us right with himself because we trust in the Messiah, does that mean that the law is now useless (UST)

Paul asks a question that one of his readers might have. Alternate translation: “Someone might say that we can ignore the law because we have faith.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

May it never be (ULT)
Certainly not (UST)

This expression gives the strongest possible negative answer to the preceding rhetorical question. You may have a similar express in your language that you could use here. Alternate translation: “This is certainly not true” or “Certainly not” (See: Rhetorical Question)

the law...we uphold (ULT)
does that mean that the law...is truly valid (UST)

“we obey the law”

Do we...nullify (ULT)
is now useless (UST)

This pronoun refers to Paul, other believers, and the readers. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Translation Words - ULT

• the law
• the law (2)
• faith

Translation Words - UST

• does that mean that the law
• that law (2)
• we trust in the Messiah
Romans 4

Romans 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 7-8 of this chapter, which are words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

The purpose of the law of Moses

Paul builds upon material from chapter 3. He explains how Abraham, the father of Israel, was justified. Even Abraham could not be justified by what he did. Obeying the law of Moses does not make a person right with God. Obeying God’s commands is a way a person shows they believe in God. People have always been justified only by faith. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification and law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh, the law and faith)

Circumcision

Circumcision was important to the Israelites. It identified a person as a descendant of Abraham. It was also a sign of the covenant between Abraham and Yahweh. However, no person was justified only by being circumcised. (See: circumcise, circumcised, circumcision, uncircumcised, uncircumcision and covenant)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical Questions

Paul uses rhetorical questions in this chapter. It appears the intent of these rhetorical questions is to make the reader see their sin so they will trust in Jesus. (See: Rhetorical Question and guilt, guilty and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)
Romans 4:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul confirms that even in the past believers were made right with God by faith and not by the law.

What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, found (ULT)
Abraham is the revered ancestor of us Jews. So think about what we can learn from what happened to Abraham (UST)

Paul uses the question to catch the attention of the reader and to start talking about something new. Alternate translation: “This is what Abraham our physical ancestor found” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

- the flesh
- that Abraham
- forefather

Translation Words - UST

- of us Jews...about
- Abraham is
- revered ancestor
Romans 4:2

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- works
- a reason to boast
- had been justified
- Abraham

Translation Words - UST

- to God about it
- doing good things
- reason to boast about that to people
- that God put him right with himself
- Abraham's

ULT
2 For if Abraham had been justified by works, he would have had a reason to boast, but not before God.

UST
2 If it was because of Abraham's doing good things that God put him right with himself, Abraham would then have had reason to boast about that to people, (but, even so, he would not have had any reason to boast to God about it).
Romans 4:3

For what does the scripture say (ULT)
Remember that in the scriptures it is written that...for him (UST)

Paul uses this question to add emphasis. He speaks of the Scriptures as if they were alive and could talk. Alternate translation: “For we can read in the scripture” (See: Rhetorical Question and Personification)

it was counted to him as righteousness (ULT)
God considered Abraham to be right with himself (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God considered Abraham as a righteous person” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT
- righteousness
- God
- scripture
- believed
- Abraham

Translation Words - UST
- right with himself
- what God promised to do
- Remember that in the scriptures
- believed
- Abraham
Romans 4:4

what he is paid is not counted as a gift (ULT)
those wages are not considered to be a gift (UST)

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: “no one counts what the employer pays him as a gift from the employer” (See: Active or Passive)

but as what is owed (ULT)
Instead, they are considered to be what we have earned. Similarly, if we could do something to obligate God to be kind to us, then that would not be a gift (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “but as what his employer owes him” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• a gift
• who works
• he is paid

Translation Words - UST

• those wages are not considered to be a gift
• Now if we receive wages for work that we do
• those wages are not considered to be a gift
Romans 4:5

in the one who justifies (ULT) makes right with himself (UST)

“in God, who justifies”

his faith is counted as righteousness (ULT)
God therefore considers them to be right with himself (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God considers that person's faith as righteousness” or “God considers that person righteous because of his faith” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• righteousness
• believes
• ungodly
• faith
• the one who justifies
• who...work

Translation Words - UST

• to be right with himself
• they now trust in him, and
• people who did not honor him
• to be right with himself
• makes right with himself
• God...previously

ULT 5 But for him who does not work but instead believes in the one who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness.

UST 5 But in reality, God makes right with himself people who did not honor him previously. Instead, they now trust in him, and God therefore considers them to be right with himself.
Romans 4:6

So David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness without works (ULT)
Similarly, it is as David wrote in the Psalms about anyone whom God considers to be right with himself without earning it (UST)

“David also wrote about how God blesses the man whom God makes righteous without works”

Translation Words - ULT

- righteousness
- blessing
- God
- works
- David
- pronounces

Translation Words - UST

- to be right with himself
- about anyone
- God
- earning it
- David
- wrote in the Psalms

ULT

6 So David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness without works.

UST

6 Similarly, it is as David wrote in the Psalms about anyone whom God considers to be right with himself without earning it:
Romans 4:7

are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven...whose sins are covered (ULT) are the people whose sins God has forgiven...whose sins...he no longer looks at (UST)

The same concept is stated in two different ways. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “the Lord has forgiven those who have broken the law...whose sins the Lord has covered” (See: Parallelism and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- He said, “Blessed
- sins
- are forgiven
- lawless deeds

Translation Words - UST

- How fortunate
- sins
- God has forgiven
- sins

ULT

7 He said, “Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

UST

7 “How fortunate are the people whose sins God has forgiven, whose sins he no longer looks at.
Romans 4:8

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Blessed
- the Lord
- sin

Translation Words - UST

- How fortunate
- he
- whose sins

ULT

8 Blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count sin."

UST

8 How fortunate are the people whose sins he no longer keeps a record of.
Romans 4:9

Then is this blessing pronounced only on those of the circumcision, or also on those of the uncircumcision (ULT)

Being fortunate like this is not something that only we Jews can experience. No, it is also something that non-Jews can experience...so (UST)

This remark appears in the form of a question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: “Does God bless only those who are circumcised, or also those who are not circumcised?” (See: Rhetorical Question) those of the circumcision (ULT)

only we Jews can experience (UST)

This is a metonym that refers to the Jewish people. Alternate translation: “the Jews” (See: Metonymy) those of the uncircumcision (ULT)

non-Jews can experience (UST)

This is a metonym that refers to the people who are not Jews. Alternate translation: “the Gentiles” (See: Metonymy)

Faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness (ULT) that Abraham trusted in God...God considered him to be right with himself (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God considered the faith of Abraham as righteousness” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- righteousness
- blessing
- those of the circumcision
- those of the uncircumcision
- Faith
- to Abraham

Translation Words - UST

- to be right with himself
- Being fortunate
- only we Jews can experience
- non-Jews can experience
- trusted in God
- that Abraham
Romans 4:10

So how was it counted? When Abraham was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision (ULT)
Think about when God did this for Abraham (UST)

Paul asks these questions to add emphasis to his remarks. Alternate translation: “When did God consider Abraham to be righteous? Was it before his circumcision, or after it?” (See: Rhetorical Question)

It was not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision

“It happened before he was circumcised, not after he was circumcised”

Translation Words - ULT

- circumcision
- uncircumcision
- circumcision (2)
- uncircumcision (2)

Translation Words - UST

- God did this for Abraham
- after (2)
- Abraham was circumcised (2)
Romans 4:11

as a seal of the righteousness of the faith that he had when he was in uncircumcision (ULT)
Circumcision was the mark that showed that Abraham already was right with God (UST)

Here “righteousness of the faith” means that God considered him to be righteous. Alternate translation: “a visible sign that God considered him righteous because he had believed in God before he was circumcised” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

even if they are in uncircumcision (ULT) of those who are not circumcised (UST)

“even if they are not circumcised”

so that righteousness will be counted for them (ULT)
In this way, God considers all these people to be right with himself (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “This means that God will consider them righteous” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• the sign
• righteousness
• righteousness
• of circumcision
• uncircumcision
• uncircumcision
• those who believe
• faith
• the father
• He received
• as a seal

Translation Words - UST

• God commanded that Abraham be circumcised many years after God had already accepted him
• Abraham already was right
• to be right with himself
• God commanded that Abraham be circumcised many years after God had already accepted him
• the mark that showed
• of those who are not circumcised
• who trusts in him
• with God
• the ancestor
• God commanded that Abraham be circumcised many years after God had already accepted him
• Circumcision was
Romans 4:12

And he became the father of the circumcision (ULT)
Likewise, God considers Abraham to be the ancestor of all us who are true Jews, that is, all Jews (UST)

Here “the circumcision” refers to those who are true believers in God, both Jews and Gentiles.

for those who follow in the steps of the...faith of our father Abraham (ULT) much more importantly—who live like...before he was circumcised, when he was simply trusting in God...our ancestor Abraham did...before he was circumcised, when he was simply trusting in God (UST)

Here “follow in the steps of faith” is an idiom that means to follow someone's example of follow. Alternate translation: "who follow our father Abraham's example of faith" or “who have faith as our father Abraham did” (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

• of the circumcision
• who are...circumcised (2)
• before he was circumcised
• faith
• Abraham
• the father
• of...father
• for those who follow

Translation Words - UST

• true Jews, that is, all Jews

• before he was circumcised, when he was simply trusting in God
• Abraham did
• God considers Abraham to be the ancestor of all us who are
• ancestor
• much more importantly—who live like
Romans 4:13

The promise to Abraham and to his descendants that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

The words “the promise came” are understood from the first phrase. You can translate this by adding these implied words. Alternate translation: “but the promise came through faith, which God considers as righteousness” (See: Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- the righteousness
- the law
- of the world
- of faith
- promise
- to Abraham
- to...descendants
- heir

Translation Words - UST

- So God put Abraham right with himself
- any law
- the world
- Abraham believed that God would do what he promised
- God promised
- Abraham
- descendants
- they would possess

ULT

13 For the promise to Abraham and to his descendants that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith.

UST

13 God promised Abraham and his descendants that they would possess the world. But when he promised that, it was not because Abraham was obeying any law. Instead, it was because Abraham believed that God would do what he promised. So God put Abraham right with himself.
Romans 4:14

are to be the heirs (ULT) people possess the world (UST)

The people to whom God has made promises are spoken of as if they were to inherit property and wealth from a family member. (See: Metaphor)

if...those who live by the law are to be the heirs (ULT)
If...people possess the world because they obey God's law (UST)

Here “live by the law” refers to obeying the law. Alternate translation: “if those who obey the law are the ones who will inherit the earth” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) faith is made empty, and the promise is void

“faith has no value, and the promise is meaningless”

Translation Words - ULT

• those who live by the law
• faith
• promise
• are to be the heirs

Translation Words - UST

• because they obey God's law
• to trust in God for anything
• promise
• people possess the world
Romans 4:15

there is no trespass (ULT)
is impossible to disobey it (UST)

This can be restated to remove the abstract noun “trespass.” Alternate translation: “no one can break the law” or “it is impossible to disobey the law” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Translation Words - ULT

- law
- law (2)
- wrath
- trespass

Translation Words - UST

- Remember that in reality, God says in his law that he will punish anyone who does not perfectly obey it. Also remember, however, that for people who have no law, it is impossible to disobey it.

ULT

15 For the law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, there is no trespass.

UST

15 Remember that in reality, God says in his law that he will punish anyone who does not perfectly obey it. Also remember, however, that for people who have no law, it is impossible to disobey it.
Romans 4:16

For this reason (ULT)
So it is because we trust in God (UST)

“So” it is by faith (ULT)

we trust in God (UST)

The word “it” refers to receiving what God had promised. Alternate translation: “it is by faith that we receive the promise” or “we receive the promise by faith” in order that...is according to grace...the promise (ULT) that...as a gift...we will receive the things that he has promised to us (UST)

Here “the promise may rest on grace” represents God giving what he promised because of his grace. Alternate translation: “so that what he promised might be a free gift” or “so that his promise would be because of his grace” (See: Metaphor)

it is by...of Abraham’s descendants...who are under the law (ULT)
we trust in God...a true descendant of Abraham...us Jewish believers, who have God’s law and trust him (UST)

This refers to the Jewish people, who were obligated to obey the law of Moses.

it is by faith...of Abraham’s descendants...of Abraham (ULT)
we trust in God...a true descendant of Abraham...as Abraham did (UST)

This refers to those who have faith as Abraham did before he was circumcised. Alternate translation: “those who believe as Abraham did”

the father of us all (ULT)
the true ancestor of all of us believers (UST)

Here the word “us” refers to Paul and includes all Jewish and non-Jewish believers in Christ. Abraham is the physical ancestor of the Jewish people, but he is also the spiritual father of those who have faith. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• who are under the law
• faith
• who share the faith (2)
• promise
• of Abraham
• the father

ULT
16 For this reason it is by faith, in order that the promise is according to grace and is guaranteed to all of Abraham’s descendants—not only to those who are under the law, but also to those who share the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all,

UST
16 So it is because we trust in God that we will receive the things that he has promised to us as a gift, because he is very kind. He gives these things to everyone whom he regards as a true descendant of Abraham—us Jewish believers, who have God’s law and trust him, and also those non-Jews who do not have God’s laws but who trust in him as Abraham did. For God regards Abraham as the true ancestor of all of us believers.
• of Abraham's descendants

Translation Words - UST

• a gift
• us Jewish believers, who have God's law and trust him
• we trust in God
• those non-Jews who do...who trust in him (2)
• we will receive the things that he has promised to us
• as Abraham did
• the true ancestor
• a true descendant of Abraham
Romans 4:17

as it is written (ULT)
This is what God said to Abraham in the scriptures (UST)

Where it is written can be made explicit. You can also translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “as someone has written in the Scriptures” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

I have made you (ULT)
I will make you (UST)

Here the word “you” is singular and refers to Abraham. (See: Forms of You) in the presence of God whom he trusted, who gives life to the dead (ULT)

Abraham received this directly from God who raises dead people to life (UST)

Here “of him whom he trusted” refers to God. Alternate translation: “Abraham was in the presence of God whom he trusted, who gives life to those who have died” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

• This is what God said to Abraham in the scriptures
Romans 4:18

In hope he believed against hope (ULT)
He trusted firmly in this promise of God, even though there was no physical reason (UST)

This idiom means that Abraham trusted God even though it did not seem that he could have a son. Alternate translation: “Even though it seemed impossible for him to have descendants, he believe God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

according to what he had been told (ULT)
by saying (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “just as God said to Abraham” (See: Active or Passive)

So will your descendants be (ULT)
Your descendents will be like the stars in the sky (UST)

The full promise God gave to Abraham can be made explicit. Alternate translation: “You will have more descendants than you can count” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• believed
• hope
• the father
• descendants
• nations

Romans 4:19

Without becoming weak in faith (ULT)
He did not doubt that God would do...even though (UST)

You can translate this in a positive form. Alternate translation: “He remained strong in his faith, although” (See: Litotes)

Translation Words - ULT

- body
- in faith
- Sarah's
- dead
- deadness
- of...womb

Translation Words - UST

- body
- He did...doubt that God would do
- Sarah
- was not able to father a child
- had never had children, especially now, because she was so old
- had never had children, especially now, because she was so old

ULT
19 Without becoming weak in faith, he considered his own body as already dead (because he was about a hundred years old)—and he considered the deadness of Sarah's womb.

UST
19 He did not doubt that God would do what he promised, even though he knew that his body was not able to father a child (he was, after all, about one hundred years old), and he knew that Sarah had never had children, especially now, because she was so old.
Romans 4:20

Abraham did not hesitate in unbelief (ULT)
He did not doubt at all that (UST)

You can translate this double negative in a positive form. Alternate translation: “kept on acting in faith” (See: Double Negatives)

he was strengthened in faith (ULT)
he trusted in God more strongly (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “he became stronger in his faith” (See: Active or Passive)

• would do what he had promised
• more strongly
Romans 4:21

He was fully convinced (ULT)
He was also convinced (UST)

“Abraham was completely sure”

He was fully convinced...he was...able to accomplish (ULT)
also...able to do...he...was...going to do (UST)

“God was able to do”

Translation Words - ULT

• able
• God had promised

Translation Words - UST

• able to do
• God was...whatever he promised that

ULT
21 He was fully convinced that what God had promised, he was also able to accomplish.

UST
21 He was also convinced that God was able to do whatever he promised that he was going to do.
Romans 4:22

Therefore this was also counted to him as righteousness (ULT)
And that is the reason that God considered Abraham to be right with himself (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Therefore God counted Abraham’s belief as righteousness” or “Therefore God considered Abraham righteous because Abraham believed him” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT
  • righteousness

Translation Words - UST
  • to be right with himself
Romans 4:23

Now it was...written (ULT)
The words in the scriptures (UST)

“Now” is used here to connect Abraham's being made right by faith to present-day believer's being made right by faith in Christ's death and resurrection.

only for his benefit (ULT)
only about Abraham (UST)

“for Abraham only”

Romans 5

Romans 5 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Many scholars view verses 12-17 as some of the most important, but difficult, verses in Scripture to understand. Some of their richness and meaning has likely been lost while being translated from how the original Greek was constructed.

Special concepts in this chapter

Results of justification

How Paul explains the results of our being justified is an important part of this chapter. These results include having peace with God, having access to God, being confident about our future, being able to rejoice when suffering, being eternally saved, and being reconciled with God. (See: just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification)

“All sinned”

Scholars are divided over what Paul meant in verse 12: “And death spread to all people, because all sinned.” Some believe that all of mankind was present in the “seed of Adam.” So, as Adam is the father of all mankind, all of mankind was present when Adam sinned. Others believe that Adam served as a representative head for mankind. So when he sinned, all of mankind “fell” as a result. Whether people today played an active or passive role in Adam’s original sin is one way these views differ. Other passages will help one decide. (See: seed, semen and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning and Active or Passive)

The second Adam

Adam was the first man and the first “son” of God. He was created by God. He brought sin and death into the world by eating the forbidden fruit. Paul describes Jesus as the “second Adam” in this chapter and the true son of God. He brings life and overcame sin and death by dying on the cross. (See: Son of God, the Son and die, dead, deadly, death.)
Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

God has put us right with himself because we trust in our Lord Jesus the Messiah. So we are now at peace with God.

All occurrences of “we” and “our” refer to all believers and should be inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”) through our Lord Jesus Christ

our Lord Jesus the Messiah

“because of our Lord Jesus Christ”

Here “Lord” means that Jesus is God.

Translation Words - ULT

• Jesus Christ
• Lord
• God
• faith
• we are justified
• Christ
• peace

Translation Words - UST

• Jesus the Messiah
• our Lord
• God
• because we trust in
• God has put us right with himself
• the Messiah
• So we are now at peace
Romans 5:2

Through him we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand

Here “by faith” refers to our trust in Jesus, which allows us to stand before God. Alternate translation: “Because we trust in Jesus, God allows us to come into his presence”

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• of God
• glory
• we rejoice
• by faith
• the certain hope

Translation Words - UST

• where he will be kind to us. So
• God
• will gladly share his greatness with us
• we rejoice because
• where he will be kind to us. So
• we are confidently expecting that

ULT
2 Through him we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the certain hope of the glory of God.

UST
2 Because of what the Messiah has done for us, it is as if God has opened up a door for us to go to where he will be kind to us. So we rejoice because we are confidently expecting that God will gladly share his greatness with us.
Romans 5:3

But not only this (ULT)
When we suffer because (UST)

The word “this” refers to the ideas described in Romans 5:1-2.

we...rejoice (ULT)
we...rejoice (UST)

These words refer to all believers and should be inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Translation Words - ULT

• we...rejoice
• our sufferings
• suffering
• endurance
• knowing

Translation Words - UST

• we...rejoice
• we are joined to the Messiah
• when we are suffering
• we are learning to endure things patiently
• because we know

ULT
3 But not only this, we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance.

UST
3 When we suffer because we are joined to the Messiah, we also rejoice because we know that when we are suffering, we are learning to endure things patiently.
Romans 5:4

produces certain hope (ULT)
we confidently expect that he will do great things for us (UST)

This is the certainty that God will fulfill all his promises for those who trust in Christ.

Translation Words - ULT

• produces certain hope
• But endurance

Translation Words - UST

• we confidently expect that he will do great things for us
• we know that when we endure suffering patiently
Romans 5:5

our...to us (ULT)
us...to us...how much God loves (UST)

These words refer to all believers and should be inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

that...hope does not disappoint (ULT)
And...we are very confident that we will receive the things that we wait for (UST)

Paul uses personification here as he speaks of “confidence” as if it were alive. Alternate translation: “we are very confident that we will receive the things that we wait for” (See: Personification) because the love of God has been poured into our hearts (ULT) because God loves us very much...causes us to understand...us (UST)

Here “hearts” represents a person’s thoughts, feelings, or inner person. The phrase “the love of God has been poured into our hearts” is a metaphor for God showing love to his people. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “because he has loved us greatly” or “because God has shown us how much he loves us” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- love
- Holy
- of God
- hearts
- the Holy Spirit
- hope
- disappoint

Translation Words - UST

- loves us
- Holy
- God
- causes us to understand
- His...Holy...Spirit
- we are very confident...that we wait for
- that we will receive the things
Romans 5:6

The word “we” here refers to all believers and so should be inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Translation Words - ULT

• the ungodly
• Christ
• the right time
• died

Translation Words - UST

• us people, although we were not honoring God at all
• the Messiah who
• the time that God chose
• died

ULT

6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

UST

6 When we were unable to save ourselves, it was the Messiah who, at the time that God chose, died for us people, although we were not honoring God at all.
For one will hardly die for a righteous man (ULT)
Rarely will anyone die for...righteous (UST)

“It is hard to find someone who is willing to die, even for a righteous man”

For one...for...Perhaps...might dare to die...a good person (ULT)
Rarely will...anyone...for...even if that person were...a good person perhaps...might be courageous enough to die (UST)

“But you might find someone who is willing to die for such a good person”

Translation Words - ULT
- a righteous man
- a good person
- will...die
- to die

Translation Words - UST
- righteous
- a good person
- die
- to die

ULT
7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Perhaps, though, someone might dare to die for a good person.

UST
7 Rarely will anyone die for another person, even if that person were righteous, although for a good person perhaps someone might be courageous enough to die.
Romans 5:8

ULT
8 But God proves his own love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

UST
8 Nevertheless, as for God, the way he showed us that he loves us is that the Messiah died for us while we were still rebelling against God.
Romans 5:9

Much more, then, now that we are justified by his blood (ULT)
So it is even more certain that...since we are right with God because the Messiah died for us and shed his blood for our sins (UST)

Here “justified” means that God puts us in a right relationship with himself. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “How much more will God do for us now that he has made us right with himself because of the death of Jesus on the cross” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

blood (ULT)
it is...because the Messiah died for us and shed...blood for our sins (UST)

This is a metonym for the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross. (See: Metonymy)

we will be saved (ULT)
the Messiah will save us (UST)

This means that through Jesus' sacrificial death on the cross, God has forgiven us and rescued us from being punished in hell for our sin.

his wrath (ULT)
God's anger about sin (UST)

Here “wrath” is a metonym that refers to God's punishment of those who have sinned against him. Alternate translation: “God's punishment” (See: Metonymy)

ULT

11 But not only this, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received this reconciliation.

UST

11 And that is not all! Now we also rejoice because of what God has done. Since our Lord Jesus the Messiah has died for us, he has restored our relationship with God.
Romans 5:12

Connecting Statement:
Paul explains why death happened even before God gave the law to Moses.

through one man sin entered into the world, in this way death entered through sin (ULT)
All people are sinful...because...Adam, the first man whom God created, sinned long ago. Because he sinned, he eventually died (UST)

Paul describes sin as a dangerous thing that came into the world through the actions of “one man,” Adam. This sin then became an opening through which death, pictured here as another dangerous thing, also came into the world. (See: Personification)

Romans 5:13

For until the law, sin was in the world (ULT)
People in the world sinned before God gave his law to Moses (UST)

This means that the people sinned before God gave the law. Alternate translation: “People in the world sinned before God gave his law to Moses” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) but there is no accounting for sin when there is no law (ULT)

but there was no way to recognize sin against that law (UST)

This means that God did not charge the people with sinning before he gave the law. Alternate translation: “but God recorded no sin against the law before he gave the law” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Everyone died (UST)

“Even though what I have just said is true, death” or “There was no written law from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, but death” (Romans 5:13).

dead ruled from Adam until Moses (ULT) from the time when Adam lived until the time when Moses lived, all people sinned, and that they died as a consequence. Everyone died (UST)

Paul is speaking of death as if it were a king who ruled. Alternate translation: “people continued to die from the time of Adam until the time of Moses as a consequence of their sin” (See: Personification and Metaphor)

even over those who did not sin like Adam’s disobedience

“even people whose sins were different from Adam's continue to die”

who is a pattern of him who was to come (ULT)
as Adam did. Adam's sin affected all people, just like what...the Messiah did, the one who came later, also affects all people (UST)

Adam was a pattern of Christ, who appeared much later. He had much in common with him.

Romans 5:15

For if by the trespass of one the many died (ULT)
Because Adam sinned, everybody dies...because (UST)

Here “one” refers to Adam. Alternate translation: “For if by one man's sin, many died” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

how much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound for the many (ULT)
But...another single man, Jesus the Messiah, died for us, God kindly gives to so many of us this gift of everlasting life, although we do not deserve it (UST)

Here “grace” refers to God's free gift that he made available to everyone through Jesus Christ. Alternate translation: “even more through the man Jesus Christ, who died for us all, did God kindly offer us this gift of everlasting life, although we do not deserve it” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Romans 6

Romans 6 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Paul begins this chapter by answering how someone might hypothetically object to what he taught in Chapter 5. (See: Hypothetical Situations)

Special concepts in this chapter

Against the Law

In this chapter, Paul refutes the teaching that Christians can live however they want after they are saved. Scholars call this “antinomianism” or being “against the law.” To motivate godly living, Paul recalls the great price Jesus paid for a Christian to be saved. (See: save, saved, safe, salvation and godly, godliness, ungodly, godless, ungodliness, godlessness)

Servants of sin

Before believing in Jesus, sin enslaves people. God frees Christians from serving sin. They are able to choose to serve Christ in their lives. Paul explains that when Christians choose to sin, they willingly choose to sin. (See: faith and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Fruit

This chapter uses the imagery of fruit. The image of fruit usually refers to a person's faith producing good works in their life. (See: fruit, fruitful, unfruitful and righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical Questions

Paul uses rhetorical questions in this chapter. It appears the intent of these rhetorical questions is to make the reader see their sin so they will trust in Jesus. (See: Rhetorical Question and guilt, guilty and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Death

Paul uses “death” many different ways in this chapter: physical death, spiritual death, sin reigning in the heart of man, and to end something. He contrasts sin and death with the new life provided by Christ and the new way Christians are supposed to live after they are saved. (See: die, dead, deadly, death)
Connecting Statement:

Under grace, Paul tells those who believe in Jesus to live a new life as though dead to sin and alive to God.

What then will we say? Should we continue in sin so that grace may abound (ULT)
Someone might say in reply to what I have written that since God has acted kindly toward us, perhaps we should continue to sin in order that his kindness would be the greater (UST)

Paul asks these rhetorical questions to get the attention of his readers. Alternate translation: “So, what should we say about all of this? We certainly should not keep on sinning so that God will give us more and more grace! (See: Rhetorical Question) will we say (ULT)

might say in reply to what I have written that (UST)

The pronoun “we” refers to Paul, his readers, and other people. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive "We")

Translation Words - ULT

- grace
- in sin

Translation Words - UST

- kindness
- to sin
Romans 6:2

We who died to sin, how can we still live in it (ULT)
We are like people who have died, who can no longer do anything evil. So we should not continue to sin (UST)

Here “died to sin” means that those who follow Jesus are now like dead people who cannot be affected by sin. Paul uses this rhetorical question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: “We are now like dead people on whom sin has no effect! So we certainly should not keep on sinning!” (See: Metaphor and Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT
- can we...live
- to sin
- We...died

Translation Words - UST
- not continue
- evil
- have died, who can no longer do anything
Romans 6:3

Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death (ULT)
When we were baptized in union with the Messiah Jesus, God viewed us as dying with the Messiah on his cross. You ought to realize this (UST)

Paul uses this question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: “Remember, when someone baptized us to show that we have a relationship with Christ, this also shows that we died with Christ on the cross! (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 6:4

We were buried, then, with him through baptism into death (ULT)
So, when we were baptized, God viewed us...as being with the Messiah in his tomb (UST)

Here Paul speaks of a believer's baptism in water as if it were a death and burial. Alternate translation: "When someone baptized us, it is just like that person buried us with Christ in the tomb" (See: Metaphor) just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so also we might walk in newness of life (ULT) also...God the Father used his power...to raise...the Messiah from the dead; in the same way, he made it possible for us to live life in a new way (UST)

To raise from the dead is an idiom for causing a person to live again. This compares a believer's new spiritual life to Jesus coming back to life physically. The believer's new spiritual life enables that person to obey God. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: "just as the Father brought Jesus back to life after he died, we might have new spiritual life and obey God" (See: Simile and Active or Passive and Idiom)

from the dead (ULT)
from the dead (UST)

From among all those who have died. This expression describes all dead people together in the underworld. To be raised from among them speaks of becoming alive again.

Romans 6:6

our old man was crucified with him (ULT)
God views us sinners as having died on the cross with the Messiah...order...As a result (UST)

The “old man” is a metaphor that refers to the person before he believes in Jesus. Paul describes our old sinful person as dying on the cross with Jesus when we believe in Jesus. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “our sinful person died on the cross with Jesus” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

old...man (ULT)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “might die” (See: Active or Passive)

we should no longer be enslaved to sin (ULT)
we...no longer...have to sin (UST)

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “sin should no longer enslave us” or “we should no longer be slaves to sin” (See: Active or Passive)

we should no longer be enslaved to sin (ULT)
we...no longer...have to sin (UST)

Slavery to sin is a metaphor meaning having such a strong desire to sin that one is unable to stop himself from sinning. It is as if sin controls the person. Alternate translation: “we should no longer be controlled by sin” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 6:9

We know that since Christ has been raised from the dead (ULT)
We know that since God enabled the Messiah to live again after he died (UST)

Here to raise up is an idiom for causing someone who has died to become alive again. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: "We know since God brought Christ back to life after he died" (See: Active or Passive and Idiom)

from the dead (ULT)
after he died (UST)

From among all those who have died. This expression describes all dead people together in the underworld. To be raised from among them is to become alive again.

dead no longer has authority over him (ULT)

Romans 6:12

Connecting Statement:

Paul reminds us that grace rules over us, not the law; we are not sin’s slaves, but God’s slaves.

do not...let sin rule in your mortal body (ULT) do not...when you want to sin...your body will die one day (UST)

Paul speaks of people sinning as if sin was there master or king that controlled them. Alternate translation: “Do not let sinful desires control you” (See: Personification)

in your mortal body (ULT)
your body will die one day (UST)

This phrase refers to the physical part of a person, which will die. Alternate translation: “you” (See: Synecdoche) in order that you may obey its lusts (ULT) allow yourselves to do what you want. Remember that (UST)

Paul speaks of a person having evil desires as if it sin were a master that had evil desires. (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

• sin
• body
• lusts
• you may obey
• let...rule

Translation Words - UST

• sin
• your body will die one day
• what you want
• allow yourselves to do
• when you want to
Romans 6:13

Do not present the parts of your body to sin, to be tools used for unrighteousness (ULT)
Do not use any part of your body to do anything wicked (UST)

The picture is of the sinner offering the “parts of his body” to his master or king. One’s “body parts” are a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: “Do not offer yourselves to sin so that you do what is not right” (See: Synecdoche)

But present yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life (ULT)
Instead, present yourselves to God as people who are now alive after belonging to the realm of the dead (UST)

Here “now living” refers to the believer’s new spiritual life. Alternate translation: “But offer yourselves to God, because he has given you new spiritual life” or “But offer yourselves to God, as those who had died and are now alive” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) and the parts of your body to God as tools to be used for righteousness (ULT)

Use every part of your body for God. Allow him to use you to do righteous things (UST)

Here “parts of your body” is a synecdoche that refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “let God use you for what is pleasing to him” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

• to life
• to be used for righteousness
• to sin
• to God
• to God (2)
• used for unrighteousness
• to be tools
• as tools (2)
• those who have been brought from death

Romans 6:14

sin...do not allow...to rule over you (ULT)
When...desire to sin...you...do not do it (UST)

Paul speaks of “sin” here as if it were a king who rules over people. Alternate translation: “Do not let sinful desires control what you do” or “Do not allow yourselves to do the sinful things you want to do” (See: Personification)

For you are not under law (ULT)
The laws that God gave Moses did not enable you to stop sinning (UST)

To be “under law” means to be subject to its limitations and weaknesses. You can make the full meaning explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “For you are no longer bound to the law of Moses, which could not give you the power to stop sinning” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

but under grace (ULT)
But now God controls you and kindly helps you not to sin (UST)

To be “under grace” means that God’s free gift provides the power to keep from sinning. You can make the full meaning explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “but you are bound to God’s grace, which does give you the power to stop sinning” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• sin
• law
• allow...to rule over

Translation Words - UST

• God controls you and kindly helps you not to sin
• When...desire to sin
• The laws that God gave Moses
• do not do it
Romans 6:15

What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be (ULT)

We might think from this that because the laws God gave Moses did not enable us to stop sinning and God is now treating us kindly anyway, that God permits us to continue sinning. Absolutely not (UST)

Paul is using a question to emphasize that living under grace is not a reason to sin. Alternate translation: “However, just because we are bound to grace instead of the law of Moses certainly does not mean we are allowed to sin” (See: Rhetorical Question)

May it never be (ULT)
Absolutely not (UST)

“We would never want that to happen!” or “May God help me not to do that!” This expression shows an extremely strong desire that this does not take place. You may have a similar expression in your language that you could use here. See how you translated it in Romans 3:31.

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• Shall we sin
• law

Translation Words - UST

• God is now treating us kindly anyway, that God permits us to continue sinning
• We might think from this
• the laws God gave Moses
Romans 6:16

Do you not know that the one to whom you present yourselves to obey as slaves, you are slaves to the one you obey (ULT)

If you offer to obey someone, you become his slaves (UST)

Paul uses a question to scold anyone who may think God's grace is a reason to keep sinning. You can translate this as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You should know that you are slaves to the master you choose to obey!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

This is true whether you are slaves to sin...or slaves to obedience (ULT)

If you obey when you wish to sin, then you become the slaves of sin and...But if you obey God (UST)

Here, Paul speaks of “sin” and “obedience” as if they were masters that a slave would obey. Alternate translation: “whether you are like slaves to sin...or like slaves to obedience” or “You are either a slave to sin...or you are a slave to obedience” (See: Personification) to...death...to...righteousness (ULT)

If you offer to obey someone...die as a result...If you offer to obey someone...will do the right things that God wants you to do (UST)

“which results in death...which results in righteousness”

Translation Words - ULT

- righteousness
- to sin
- obey
- you obey
- to obedience
- death
- as slaves
- slaves
- Do you...know

Translation Words - UST

- will do the right things that God wants you to do
- you become the slaves of sin and
- If you offer to obey someone
- his
- But if you obey God
- die as a result
- If you offer to obey someone
- slaves
- If you offer to obey someone
Romans 6:17

But thanks be to God (ULT)
I thank God (UST)

“But I thank God!”

For you were slaves of sin (ULT)
In the past you sinned in whatever way you wanted to sin—you were slaves of sin...for that (UST)

Slavery of sin is a metaphor meaning having such a strong desire to sin that one is unable to stop himself from sinning. It is as if sin controls the person. Alternate translation: “you were like slaves of sin” or “you were controlled by sin” (See: Metaphor) but you have obeyed from the heart (ULT)

But then you began to sincerely obey (UST)

Here the word “heart” refers to having sincere or honest motives for doing something. Alternate translation: “but you truly obeyed” (See: Metonymy)

the pattern of teaching that you were given (ULT)
what the Messiah taught you (UST)

Here “pattern” refers to the way of living that leads to righteousness. The believers change their old way of living to match this new way of living that Christian leaders teach to them. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “the teaching that Christian leaders gave you” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- of sin
- to God
- the heart
- of teaching
- you have obeyed
- slaves

Translation Words - UST

- of sin
- God
- sincerely
- what the Messiah taught you
- you began to...obey
- you were slaves
Romans 6:18

But you have been made free from sin (ULT)
So now you do not have to sin any longer; sin is no longer your master (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Christ has freed you from sin” (See: Active or Passive)

But you have been made free from sin (ULT)
So now you do not have to sin any longer; sin is no longer your master (UST)

Here “free from sin” is a metaphor for no longer having a strong desire to sin and being able to stop oneself from sinning. Alternate translation: “Your strong desire to sin has been taken away” or “you have been made free from sin's control over you”

and you have been made slaves of righteousness (ULT)
Instead, you are slaves of God, who is righteous (UST)

Slavery of righteousness is a metaphor meaning having a strong desire to do what is right. It is as if righteousness controls the person. Alternate translation: “you have been made like slaves of righteousness” or “you are now controlled by righteousness” (See: Metaphor)

and you have been made slaves of righteousness (ULT)
Instead, you are slaves of God, who is righteous (UST)

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “Christ has made you slaves of righteousness” or “Christ has changed you so that now you are controlled by righteousness”

Translation Words - ULT

• of righteousness
• sin
• and you have been made slaves
• you have been made free

Translation Words - UST

• of God, who is righteous
• So now you do not have to sin any longer; sin is no longer your master
• Instead, you are slaves
• So now you do not have to sin any longer; sin is no longer your master
Romans 6:19

I speak like a man (ULT)
I am writing to you in a way that ordinary people can understand (UST)

Paul may have expected his readers to wonder why he was speaking of slavery and freedom. Here he is saying that he is using these ideas from their everyday experience to help them understand that people are controlled either by sin or by righteousness. Alternate translation: “I am speaking about this in human terms” or “I am using examples from everyday life”

because of the weakness of your flesh (ULT)
I am writing to you in a way that ordinary people can understand...In the past it was as if you were slaves to your desires (UST)

Often Paul uses the word “flesh” as the opposite of “spirit.” Alternate translation: “because you do not fully understand spiritual things” (See: Metonymy)

you presented the parts of your body as slaves to uncleanness and to more and more lawlessness (ULT)
you did all kinds of impure and evil things (UST)

Here, “body parts” refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “offered yourselves as slaves to everything that is evil and not pleasing to God” (See: Synecdoche) present the parts of your body as slaves to righteousness for sanctification (ULT) act justly as God acts...he will set you apart for himself as his people (UST)

Here “body parts” refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: “offer yourselves as slaves to what is right before God so that he might set you apart and give you the power to serve him” (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

- to righteousness
- of...flesh
- sanctification
- to more and more lawlessness
- of...body
- parts of...body (2)
- just as
- as slaves
- as slaves (2)

Translation Words - UST

- act justly as God acts
- past it was as if you were slaves to your desires
• he will set you apart for himself as his people
• you did all kinds of impure and evil things
• you did all kinds of impure and evil things
• act justly as God acts (2)
• past it was as if you were slaves to your desires
• you did all kinds of impure and evil things
• act justly as God acts (2)
Romans 6:20

you were free from righteousness (ULT)

It is true that in the past, you behaved as people who were free from God’s power and righteousness (UST)

Here “free from righteousness” is a metaphor for not having to do what is righteous. The people were living as though they thought that they did not have to do what was right. Alternate translation: “It was as though you were free from righteousness” or “you behaved as though you did not have to do what was right” or (See: Metaphor and Irony)

Translation Words - ULT

• from righteousness
• of sin
• slaves
• free

Translation Words - UST

• God’s power and righteousness
• you did whatever your evil minds told you to do...You did not have to do things that were right
• you did whatever your evil minds told you to do). You did not have to do things that were right
• free from

ULT
20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness.

UST
20 It is true that in the past, you behaved as people who were free from God’s power and righteousness (because you did whatever your evil minds told you to do). You did not have to do things that were right.
Romans 6:21

At that time, what fruit then did you have of the things of which you are now ashamed (ULT)
so you did not benefit at all from doing...sinful things that you are now ashamed of (UST)

“Fruit” here is a metaphor for “result” or “outcome.” Paul is using a question to emphasize that sinning results in nothing good.
Alternate translation: “Nothing good came from those things that now cause you shame” or “You gained nothing by doing those things that now cause you shame” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• fruit
• then...of the things
• you are...ashamed
• is death

Translation Words - UST

• benefit at all from doing
• sinful things
• that you are now ashamed of
• your being separated from God

ULT
21 At that time, what fruit then did you have of the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is death.

UST
21 Nevertheless, doing those things resulted in your being separated from God, so you did not benefit at all from doing the sinful things that you are now ashamed of.
Romans 6:22

But now that you have been made free from sin and are enslaved to God (ULT)
But now you do not have to sin any longer. You are no longer slaves like that. Instead, you have become slaves of God (UST)

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: “But now that you have become free from sin and have become God’s slaves” or “But now that God has freed you from sin and made you his slaves” (See: Active or Passive)

But now that you have been made free from sin (ULT)
But now you do not have to sin any longer. You are no longer slaves like that (UST)

Being “free from sin” is a metaphor for being able not to sin. Alternate translation: “But now that God has made you able not to sin” (See: Metaphor) and are enslaved to God (ULT)

Instead, you have become slaves of God (UST)

Being “enslaved” to God is a metaphor for being able to serve and obey God. Alternate translation: “and God has made you able to serve him” (See: Metaphor)

you have your fruit for sanctification (ULT)
In return, he has set you apart…and he will allow (UST)

Here “fruit” is a metaphor for “result” or “benefit.” Alternate translation: “the benefit is your sanctification” or “the benefit is that you live in a holy way” (See: Metaphor) and...The result is eternal life (ULT)

Instead...as his...to live forever, with him (UST)

“The result of all of this is that you will live forever with God”

Translation Words - ULT

- is...life
- eternal
- sin
- to God
- sanctification
- fruit
- are enslaved
- you have been made free

Translation Words - UST

- to live forever, with him
- to live forever, with him
you do not have to sin any longer. You are no longer slaves like that
of God
he has set...apart
In return...and he will allow you have become slaves
you do not have to sin any longer. You are no longer slaves like that
Romans 6:23

For the wages of sin are death (ULT)
All who do what their evil minds tells them to do receive payment, too, but that payment is death. They will be apart from God forever (UST)

The word “wages” refers to a payment given to someone for their work. “For if you serve sin, you will receive spiritual death as payment” or “For if you continue sinning, God will punish you with spiritual death”

but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (ULT)
But as for God, he pays no wages to his slaves at all. Instead, he gives us a free gift: He allows us to live forever with him, joined to the Messiah Jesus our Lord (UST)

“but God gives eternal life to those who belong to Christ Jesus our Lord”

Translation Words - ULT

• is...life
• eternal
• Jesus
• gift
• Lord
• of sin
• of God
• Christ
• in Christ Jesus
• are death

ULT
23 For the wages of sin are death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Translation Words - UST

• He allows us to live
• forever with him
• Jesus
• he gives us a free gift
• Lord
• do what their evil minds tells them to do
• he gives us a free gift
• the Messiah
• joined to the Messiah Jesus
• is death. They will be apart from God forever
Romans 7

Romans 7 General Notes

Structure and formatting

“Or do you not know”

Paul uses this phrase to discuss a new topic, while connecting what follows with the previous teaching.

Special concepts in this chapter

“We have been released from the law”

Paul explains that the law of Moses is no longer in effect. While this is true, the timeless principles behind the law reflect the character of God. (See: law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh, the law)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Marriage

Scripture commonly uses marriage as a metaphor. Here Paul uses it to describe how the church relates to the law of Moses and now to Christ. (See: Metaphor)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Flesh

This is a complex issue. “Flesh” is possibly a metaphor for our sinful nature. Paul is not teaching that our physical bodies are sinful. Paul appears to be teaching that as long as Christians are alive (“in the flesh”), we will continue to sin. But our new nature will be fighting against our old nature. (See: flesh and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)
Romans 7:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul explains how the law controls those who want to live under the law.

Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to people who know about law), that the law controls a person for as long as he lives (ULT)
My fellow believers, you know about laws. So you certainly know that people have to obey laws only while they are alive (UST)

Paul asks this question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: “So you certainly know that people have to obey laws only while they are alive” (See: Rhetorical Question)

brothers (ULT)
My fellow believers, you know (UST)

Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

Translation Words - ULT

• he lives
• brothers
• law
• law
• as long as
• controls
• do you not know
• to people who know about

Translation Words - UST

• they are alive
• My fellow believers, you know
• about laws
• laws
• only while
• have to obey
• My fellow believers, you know
• My fellow believers, you know
Romans 7:2

Connecting Statement:
This verse begins a description of what Paul means by “the law controls a person for as long as he lives” (Romans 7:1).

the...married woman...to the...is bound by law...husband (ULT)
For example...a woman...must be faithful to her husband as long as he is alive (UST)

Here “bound by law to the husband” is a metaphor for a woman being united to her husband according to the law of marriage. Alternate translation: “according to the law, the married woman is united to the husband” (See: Metaphor)

the...married woman (ULT)
For example...a woman (UST)

This refers to any woman who is married.

Translation Words - ULT

• while he lives
• is bound
• by law
• law
• dies

Translation Words - UST

• a woman
• must be faithful
• must be faithful
• law
• dies, she does not have to act any longer as if she were married

ULT
2 For the married woman is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.

UST
2 For example, a woman must be faithful to her husband as long as he is alive. But if her husband dies, she does not have to act any longer as if she were married. The law releases her from the marriage.
Romans 7:3

Connecting Statement:
This verse ends a description of what Paul means by “the law controls a person for as long as he lives” (Romans 7:1).

she will be called an adulteress (ULT)
she will be an adulteress (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will consider her an adulteress” or “people will call her an adulteress” (See: Active or Passive) her husband...she is free from...law (ULT)

her...she no longer has to obey...law (UST)

Here being free from the law means not having to obey the law. In this case, the woman does not have to obey the law that says that a married woman cannot marry another man. Alternate translation: “she does not have to obey that law”

Translation Words - ULT

• while...is living
• she will be called
• an adulteress
• an adulteress
• law
• dies
• free

Translation Words - UST

• while...is alive
• she will be an adulteress
• she will be an adulteress
• an adulteress
• law
• dies
• she no longer has to obey
Romans 7:4

Therefore, my brothers (ULT)
In the same way, my brothers and sisters, when (UST)

This relates back to Romans 7:1.

brothers (ULT)
brothers and sisters, when (UST)

Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

you were also made dead to the law through the body of Christ (ULT)
you died with the Messiah on his cross, the law of God could no longer control you (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “you also died to the law when through Christ you died on the cross” (See: Active or Passive) that is, to him who was raised from the dead (ULT)

the Messiah, and he has raised...from the dead (UST)

“Raised” here is an idiom for “caused to live again.” This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: “to him who was caused to live again” or “to him whom God raised from the dead” or “to him whom God caused to live again” (See: Idiom)

we might produce fruit for God (ULT)
you might honor God. You can do this because you are alive again. God has joined you to...the Messiah (UST)

Here “fruit” is a metaphor for actions that please God. Alternate translation: “we might be able to do things pleasing to God” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• brothers
• for God
• law
• body
• of Christ
• we might produce fruit
• made dead
• the dead
• who was raised
• Therefore

Translation Words - UST

• brothers and sisters, when
• You can do this because you are alive again. God has joined you to
• died with...on his cross, the law of God could no longer control you
• you might honor God
• he has raised
• In the same way
Romans 7:5

to bear fruit for death (ULT)

So we did evil things that would lead God to separate us from him forever (UST)

Here “fruit” is a metaphor for a “result of one’s actions” or “outcome of one’s actions.” Alternate translation: “which resulted in spiritual-death” or “the outcome of which was our own spiritual death” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- sinful
- flesh
- law
- to bear fruit
- passions
- for death
- members

Translation Words - UST

- we were doing what our evil thoughts told us to do
- God’s law
- So we did evil things that would lead God
- we were doing what our evil thoughts told us to do
- to separate us from him forever
- we wanted to sin more and more

ULT

5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.

UST

5 When we were doing what our evil thoughts told us to do, when we learned God’s law, we wanted to sin more and more. So we did evil things that would lead God to separate us from him forever.
Romans 7:6

Connecting Statement:

Paul reminds us that God does not make us holy by the law.

we have been released from the law (ULT)
God has freed us from having to obey law of Moses (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God has released us from the law” (See: Active or Passive)

we have been released (ULT)
God has freed us (UST)

This pronoun refers to Paul and the believers. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

to that by which we were held (ULT)
the law can no longer tell us what to do. God has done this for us (UST)

This refers to the law. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “to the law which held us” (See: Active or Passive) of the letter (ULT)

that the law required (UST)

This refers to the law of Moses. Alternate translation: “the law of Moses” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• we were held
• law
• of the Spirit
• We have died
• might serve

Translation Words - UST

• can no longer tell us what to do. God has done this for us
• having to obey law of Moses
• that the Spirit shows us
• it is as though we have died
• may worship him
What will we say then (ULT)
Could we say that (UST)

Paul is introducing a new topic. (See: Rhetorical Question)

May it never be (ULT)
No, of course not! The law is not evil (UST)

“Of course that is not true!” This expression gives the strongest possible negative answer to the preceding rhetorical question. You may have a similar expression in your language that you could use here. See how you translated this in Romans 9:14.

I would never have known sin, if it were not through the law (ULT)
I did not really know what sin was until I learned about it in the law (UST)

Paul is speaking of sin as if it were a person who can act. (See: Personification)

sin (ULT)
must be evil (UST)

“my desire to sin”

Translation Words - ULT

- sin
- sin
- law itself
- the law
- law (2)
- For...covetousness
- You must...covet
- I would...have known
- I would...have known

Translation Words - UST

- must be evil
- what sin was
- laws themselves
- law
- law (2)
- it is evil to desire what is not yours
- You must...desire what is not yours
- I did...really know
- example, I did...realize that
Romans 7:8

But sin took the opportunity through the commandment and brought about every lust in me (ULT)

And because of what that commandment stated, my sinful desire to have things that belong to others caused me to covet in many ways. Our desire to (UST)

Paul continues comparing sin to a person who can act. (See: Personification)

lust (ULT)
to covet (UST)

This word includes both the desire to have what belongs to other people and wrong sexual desire.

without...sin...the law...is dead (ULT) is not stimulated when there...my sinful desire to have things that belong to others...is no law that prohibits our doing sinful things (UST)

“if there were no law, there would be no breaking of the law, so there would be no sin”

Translation Words - ULT

- sin
- sin (2)
- commandment
- the law
- is dead
- lust

Translation Words - UST

- my sinful desire to have things that belong to others
- sin (2)
- what that commandment stated
- law that prohibits our doing sinful things
- is no
- to covet
Romans 7:9

sin regained life (ULT)
I suddenly realized that I was sinning (UST)

This can mean 1) “I realized that I was sinning” or 2) “I strongly desired to sin” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT
- was alive
- sin
- commandment
- the law

Translation Words - UST
- used to sin without worrying about what I was doing
- I was sinning
- God had given us his law
- used to sin without worrying about what I was doing

ULT
9 But at one time I was alive without the law, but when the commandment came, sin regained life,

UST
9 Formerly, when I did not know what God's law required, I used to sin without worrying about what I was doing. But when I became aware that God had given us his law, I suddenly realized that I was sinning.
Romans 7:10

The commandment that was to bring life...turned out...to be death for me (ULT)
The law that was supposed to allow me to live forever, if I obeyed it, was leading me to die (UST)

Paul speaks of God’s condemnation as if it resulted primarily in physical death. Alternate translation: “God gave me the commandment so I would live, but it killed me instead” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• that was to bring life
• commandment
• died
• to be death

Translation Words - UST

• to allow me to live forever, if I obeyed
• law
• realized that I was apart from God
• die

ULT 10 and I died. The commandment that was to bring life turned out to be death for me.

UST 10 and I realized that I was apart from God. The law that was supposed to allow me to live forever, if I obeyed it, was leading me to die instead.
Romans 7:11

For sin took the opportunity through the commandment and deceived me, and through the commandment it killed me (ULT)

When I wanted to sin, I thought that I would live forever if I obeyed the law enough. But I was mistaken: I thought I could keep sinning at the same time. In fact, God was going to separate me from him forever because I did not truly obey the law (UST)

As in Romans 7:7-8, Paul is describing sin as a person who can do 3 things: take the opportunity, deceive, and kill. Alternate translation: “Because I wanted to sin, I deceived myself into thinking that I could sin and obey the commandment at the same time, but God punished me for disobeying the commandment by separating me from him” (See: Personification)

For sin...For sin (ULT)

In fact, God was going to separate...I thought I could keep sinning at the same time (UST)

“my desire to sin”

took the opportunity through the commandment (ULT)

When I wanted to sin, I thought that I would live forever if I obeyed the law enough...I thought I could keep sinning at the same time (UST)

Paul is comparing sin to a person who can act. See how you translated this in Romans 7:8. (See: Personification)

12 So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and righteous, and good.

UST
12 So we know that the law that God gave to Moses is perfectly good. Everything that God commands us to do is also without fault, just, and good.
Romans 7:13

Connecting Statement:

Paul talks about the struggle inside his inner man between sin in his inner man and his mind with the law of God—between sin and good.

Romans 7:25

But thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord (ULT)
I thank God that it is by Jesus the Messiah our Lord that he sets us free from the control of what our bodies desire (UST)

This is the answer to the question in 7:24.

So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind. However, with my flesh I serve the law of sin (ULT)
So with our minds, I on the one hand want to obey God's law. But also, I often let our sinful desires control me because of my old sinful attitude (UST)

The mind and flesh are used here to show how they compare to serve either God's law or the principle of sin. With the mind or intellect one can choose to please and obey God and with the flesh or physical nature to serve sin. Alternate translation: "My mind chooses to please God, but my flesh chooses to obey sin" (See: Metaphor)

Romans 8

Romans 8 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The first verse of this chapter is a transitional sentence. Paul concludes his teaching of Chapter 7 and leads into the words of Chapter 8.

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verse 36. Paul quotes these words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Indwelling of the Spirit

The Holy Spirit is said to live inside a person or inside their heart. If the Spirit is present, this signifies that a person is saved. (See: save, saved, safe, salvation)

“These are sons of God”

Jesus is the Son of God in a unique way. God also adopts Christians to be his children. (See: Son of God, the Son and adoption, adopt, adopted)

Predestination

Many scholars believe Paul in this chapter teaches on a subject known as “predestination.” This is related to the biblical concept of “predestine.” Some take this to indicate that God has, from before the foundation of the world, chosen some to be eternally saved. Christians have different views on what the Bible teaches on this subject. So translators need to take extra care when translating this chapter, especially with regards to elements of causation. (See: predestine, predestined and save, saved, safe, salvation)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

Paul poetically presents his teaching in verses 38 and 39 in the form of an extended metaphor. He explains that nothing can separate a person from the love of God in Jesus. (See: Metaphor)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

No condemnation

This phrase must be translated carefully to avoid doctrinal confusion. People are still guilty of their sin. God disapproves of acting sinfully, even after believing in Jesus. God still punishes the sins of believers, but Jesus has paid the punishment for their sin. This is what Paul expresses here. The word “condemn” has several possible meanings. Here Paul emphasizes that people who believe in Jesus are no longer punished eternally for their sin by being “condemned to hell.” (See: guilt, guilty and faith and condemn, condemned, condemnation)
Flesh

This is a complex issue. “Flesh” is possibly a metaphor for our sinful nature. Paul is not teaching that our physical bodies are sinful. Paul appears to be teaching that as long as Christians are alive (“in the flesh”), we will continue to sin. But our new nature will be fighting against our old nature. (See: flesh)
Romans 8:1

Connecting Statement:
Paul gives the answer to the struggle he has with sin and good.

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus (ULT)
So God will not condemn and punish those who are joined to the Messiah Jesus (UST)

Here “condemnation” refers to punishing people. Alternate translation: “God will not condemn and punish those who are joined to Christ Jesus” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

therefore (ULT)
So (UST)

Romans 8:2

the...law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus (ULT)
because...God's Spirit causes us to live in a new way...
we are joined to the Messiah Jesus (UST)

This refers to God's Spirit. Alternate translation: “God's Spirit in Christ Jesus” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) has set you free from the law of sin and death (ULT)

In this way, I no longer have to sin when I think about sinning, and I will no more be separated from God (UST)

Being free from the law of sin and death is a metaphor for not being controlled by the law of sin and death. Alternate translation: “has caused the law of sin and death to no longer control you” (See: Metaphor)

the law of sin and death

Possible meanings are that this refers to 1) the law, which provokes people to sin, and their sin causes them to die. Alternate translation: “the law which causes sin and death” or 2) the principle that people sin and die.

Translation Words - ULT

- of life
- Jesus
- of sin

Romans 8:3

For what the law was unable to do because it was weak through the flesh, God did (ULT)
We tried to obey God's law in order to live with God, but it was useless to think that we could—we could not stop sinning. So God helped us instead (UST)

Here the law is described as a person who could not break the power of sin. Alternate translation: “For the law did not have the power to stop us from sinning, because the power of sin within us was too strong. But God did stop us from sinning” (See: Personification)

through the flesh (ULT) could not stop sinning (UST)

“because of people's sinful nature“

He...sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh...an offering for sin...he condemned sin

The Son of God forever satisfied God's holy anger against our sin by giving his own body and human life as the eternal sacrifice for sin.

Son (ULT)
Son into the world in order that his Son might atone for our sin (UST)

This is an important title for Jesus, the Son of God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

because...the likeness of sinful flesh (ULT)
in order to live with God, but...His Son came having a body that was like the body of us who sin (UST)

“who looked like any other sinful human being”

• His Son came having a body that was like the body of us who sin
Romans 8:4

the requirements of the law might be fulfilled in us (ULT)
So we can now fulfill...all that God required in his law (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “we might fulfill what the law requires” (See: Active or Passive)

we who walk not according to the flesh (ULT)
We do this, not by our acting the way our old evil attitude desires (UST)

Walking on a path is a metaphor for how a person lives his life. The flesh is an idiom for sinful human nature. Alternate translation: “we who do not obey our sinful desires” (See: Metaphor or Idiom)

according to...but...the Spirit (ULT)
by...the way...but instead...living as God's Spirit desires us to live (UST)

“but who obey the Holy Spirit”

ULT
5 For those who live according to the flesh pay attention to the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit pay attention to the things of the Spirit.

UST
5 People who live by their evil attitudes think about pay attention to those attitudes. But people who live by what God's Spirit wants think about the things of the Spirit instead.
Romans 8:6

Connecting Statement:
Paul continues to contrast the flesh with the Spirit we now have.

the...mind set on the flesh...but the mind set on the Spirit (ULT)
Those...who think about and are concerned about what their evil attitude desires...But those who want what God's Spirit desires (UST)

Here Paul speaks of both the "flesh" and the "spirit" as if they were living persons. Alternate translation: "the way sinful people think...the way people who listen to the Holy Spirit think" (See: Personification)

ULT
7 This is because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God, for it is not subject to the law of God, for it is not able to do so.

UST
7 Let me explain this. To the extent that people want what their evil attitude desires, they are acting contrary to God. They do not obey his law. In fact, they are not even able to obey his law.
Romans 8:8

those who...are in the flesh (ULT)
The people...who do what their evil attitude tells them (UST)

This refers to people who do what their sinful nature tells them to do.

ULT
9 However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed God's Spirit lives in you. But if someone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to him.

UST
9 But we do not have to let our old evil nature control us. Instead, we can let God's Spirit control us, because he lives within us. If the Spirit who comes from the Messiah does not live in people, they do not belong to the Messiah.
Romans 8:10

if...Christ is in you (ULT)
since...the Messiah is living in you by his Spirit (UST)

How Christ lives in a person could be made explicit. Alternate translation: "If Christ lives in you through the Holy Spirit" (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

the body is dead with respect to sin (ULT)
God views your bodies as dead, so you no longer have to sin (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) a person is spiritually dead to the power of sin or 2) the physical body will still die because of sin. (See: Idiom)

the...spirit is alive with respect to righteousness (ULT)
And he views your...spirits as alive, because he has put you right with himself (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) a person is spiritually alive because God has given him power to do what is right or 2) God will bring the person back to life after he dies because God is righteous and gives believers eternal life. (See: Idiom)

Translation Words - ULT

of him who raised (ULT)
God caused (UST)

“of God, who raised”

of him who raised...Jesus (ULT)
causd Jesus (UST)

Here to raise is an idiom for causing someone who has died to become alive again. Alternate translation: “caused Jesus to live again” (See: Idiom)

So then (ULT)
Therefore (UST)

“Because what I have just told you is true”

brothers (ULT)
my fellow believers (UST)

Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

we are debtors (ULT)
we are obligated to live as (UST)

Paul is speaking of obedience as if it were paying back a debt. Alternate translation: “we need to obey” (See: Metaphor) but not to the flesh to live according to the flesh (ULT)

the Spirit directs us. We are not obligated to our old nature to live as our old nature wants us to (UST)

Again Paul speaks of obedience as if it were paying back a debt. You can include the implied word “debtors.” Alternate translation: “but we are not debtors to the flesh, and we do not have to obey our sinful desires” (See: Ellipsis and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

ULT
12 So then, brothers, we are debtors, but not to the flesh to live according to the flesh.

UST
12 Therefore, my fellow believers, we are obligated to live as the Spirit directs us. We are not obligated to our old nature to live as our old nature wants us to.
Romans 8:13

For if you live according to the flesh (ULT)
If you do what your old evil nature wants (UST)

“Because if you live only to please your sinful desires”

you are about to die (ULT)
you will surely not live forever with (UST)

“you will certainly be separated from God”

but if by the Spirit you put to death the body’s actions (ULT)
But if the Spirit stops you from doing those things (UST)

Paul speaks of the “old man,” crucified with Christ, as the person who is responsible for his sinful desires. Alternate translation: “but if by the power of the Holy Spirit you stop obeying your sinful desires” (See: Metaphor)

ULT
16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

UST
16 The Spirit himself confirms what our spirits say, that we are God's children.
Romans 8:17

heirs of God (ULT)
we...will one day receive what...God...has promised us (UST)

Paul speaks of the Christian believers as if they will inherit property and wealth from a family member. Alternate translation: “we also will one day receive what God has promised us” (See: Metaphor)

we are joint heirs...with Christ (ULT)
And we will receive this together with...the Messiah (UST)

Paul speaks of the Christian believers as if they will inherit property and wealth from a family member. God will give to us what he gives to Christ. Alternate translation: “we will also receive what God has promised us and Christ together” (See: Metaphor)

so that we may also be glorified with him (ULT)
in order that God may honor us (UST)

God will honor Christian believers when he honors Christ. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “that God may glorify us along with him” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• of God
• we may...be glorified with him
• we are children

Romans 8:18

Connecting Statement:

Paul reminds us as believers that our bodies will be changed at the redemption of our bodies in this section which ends in Romans 8:25.

For (ULT)
because (UST)

This emphasizes “I consider.” It does not mean “because.”

I consider...that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with (ULT)
I think...that what we suffer during the present time is not worth paying attention to...the (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “I cannot compare the sufferings of this present time with” (See: Active or Passive) glory that will be revealed (ULT) that God will reveal (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will reveal” or “God will make known” (See: Active or Passive)

Romans 8:19

the...eager expectation of the creation...for the...waits (ULT) are very eagerly...The things that God has created...are very eagerly...the time when he will reveal...waiting for (UST)

Paul describes everything that God created as a person who eagerly waits for something. (See: Personification) for the revealing of the sons of God (ULT)

the time when he will reveal who his true children are (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “for the time when God will reveal his children” (See: Active or Passive)

sons of God (ULT)
his true children are (UST)

Here this means all believers in Jesus. You can also translate this as “children of God.”

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 8:20

For the creation was subjected to futility (ULT)
God caused the things that he created to be unable to achieve what he had intended...because (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For God caused what he had created to be unable to achieve what he intended” (See: Active or Passive) not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it (ULT)

That was not because they wanted to fail. On the contrary, God made them that way (UST)

Here Paul describes “creation” as a person who can desire. Alternate translation: “not because this is what the created things wanted, but because it is what God wanted” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

• the certain hope
• For...to futility
• was subjected
• him who subjected it
• creation

Translation Words - UST

Romans 8:21

the creation itself will be delivered (ULT)
the things...he created will...no longer die (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will save creation” (See: Active or Passive) from slavery to decay (ULT)

one day...decay, and fall apart (UST)

Here being in slavery to decay is a metaphor for being certain to decay. Alternate translation: “from being like a slave to decay” (See: Metaphor) and that it will be brought into the freedom of the glory of the children of God (ULT)

He will free these things from that, in order that he can do the same wonderful things for these things that he will do for his children (UST)

“Freedom” here is in contrast with slavery to decay. It is a metaphor meaning that the creation will not decay. Alternate translation: “that it will become gloriously free from decay like the children of God” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• slavery
• of God
• glory
• children
• creation
• will be delivered
• freedom

Translation Words - UST

• one day...decay, and fall apart
• he
• things...the same wonderful things for these things

• will...no longer die
• He will free these...from that, in order that he can do
Romans 8:22

For we know that the whole creation groans and labors in pain together even now (ULT)
We know that until now it is as though all things that God created have been groaning together, and they want him to do those same wonderful things for them. But now it is just like a woman who is having the pains that come before she gives birth to a child (UST)

The creation is compared to a woman groaning while giving birth to a baby. Alternate translation: “For we know that everything that God created wants to be free and groans for it like a woman giving birth” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• creation
• groans
• we know

Translation Words - UST

• God created

Romans 8:23

waiting for our adoption, the redemption of our body (ULT) that God will give us, we groan inwardly. We groan while we wait eagerly for the time when we will receive our full rights as God's adopted children. That will include his freeing our bodies from the things that hinder us on earth. He will do this by giving us new bodies (UST)

Here “our adoption” means when we become full members of God's family, as adopted children. The word “redemption” means when God saves us. Alternate translation: “waiting for when we are fully members of God’s family and he saves our bodies from decay and death” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- our adoption
- of...body
- redemption
- Spirit
- firstfruits
- groan

Translation Words - UST

- the time when we will receive our full rights as God's adopted children
- He will do this by giving us new bodies
- That will include his freeing
- Spirit, who is like
- as we wait for everything
- groan

ULT
23 Not only that, but even we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit—even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, the redemption of our body.

UST
23 Not only do those things groan, but we ourselves also groan inwardly. We who have God's Spirit, who is like a partial gift we have received as we wait for everything that God will give us, we groan inwardly. We groan while we wait eagerly for the time when we will receive our full rights as God's adopted children. That will include his freeing our bodies from the things that hinder us on earth. He will do this by giving us new bodies.
Romans 8:24

For in this certain hope we were saved (ULT)
For God saved us because we had confidence in him (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For God saved us because we hoped in him” (See: Active or Passive)

Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he can see (ULT)
If we had now the things for which we have been waiting, we would not need to wait for them any longer. After all, if you possess something that you have been expecting to get, you certainly do not need to wait for it any longer (UST)

Paul uses a question to help his audience understand what “hope” is. Alternate translation: “But if we are confidently waiting, that means we do not yet have what we want. No one can confidently wait if he already has what he wants” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• we were saved
• certain hope
• hope
• hope
• hopes for

Translation Words - UST

• God saved us
• because we had confidence in him
• the things for which we have been waiting
• we would...need to wait for them any longer. After all
• you certainly do not need to wait for it any longer
Romans 8:25

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

• we have certain hope about
• patience

Translation Words - UST

• because we keep waiting expectantly to receive
• and patiently

ULT
25 But if we have certain hope about what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

UST
25 But because we keep waiting expectantly to receive what we do not yet have, we wait for it eagerly and patiently.
Romans 8:26

Connecting Statement:

Though Paul has been emphasizing that there is a struggle in believers between the flesh and the Spirit, he affirms that the Spirit is aiding us.

with inexpressible groans (ULT)
he groans in a way that cannot be expressed in words (UST) “groanings that we cannot express in words”

Translation Words - ULT

• with...groans
• we...know

Translation Words - UST

• Spirit
• Spirit knows; as (2)
• for us to pray
• Similarly
• he groans
• We do...know

ULT
26 But in the same way, the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with inexpressible groans.

UST
26 Similarly, God’s Spirit helps us when we are weak. We do not know what is proper for us to pray. But God’s Spirit knows; as he prays for us, he groans in a way that cannot be expressed in words.
Romans 8:27

ULT
27 But he who searches the hearts (ULT)
God...who examines our inner attitude (UST)

Here “He” refers to God. Here “hearts” is a metonym for a person’s thoughts and emotions. The phrase “searches the hearts” is a metaphor for examining thoughts and emotions. Alternate translation: “God, who knows all our thoughts and feelings” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 8:32

He who did not spare his own Son (ULT)
God did not spare even his very own Son (UST)

God the Father sent the Son of God, Jesus Christ, to the cross as the holy, infinite sacrifice necessary to satisfy God's infinite, holy nature against the sin of humanity. Here “Son” is an important title for Jesus, the Son of God. (See: Translating Son and Father)

but...delivered him up (ULT)
Instead...he turned him over to others to cruelly kill him (UST)

“but put him under the control of his enemies”

how will he not also with him freely give us all things (ULT)
he will also certainly give us freely everything that we need to live for him (UST)

Paul is using a question for emphasis. Alternate translation: “he will certainly and freely give us all things!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Romans 8:34

Who is the one who condemns (ULT)
No one can condemn us any longer (UST)

Paul uses a question for emphasis. He does not expect an answer. Alternate translation: “No one will condemn us!” (See: Rhetorical Question) who also is at the right hand of God (ULT) and he is ruling with God in the place of honor (UST)

To be at the “right hand of God” is a symbolic action of receiving great honor and authority from God. Alternate translation: “who is at the place of honor beside God” (See: Symbolic Action)

Translation Words - ULT

- the one who condemns
- Christ Jesus
- of God
- is interceding
- the right hand
- Christ
- is the one who died
- who was raised

Translation Words - UST

- can condemn us any longer
- The Messiah, Jesus
- with God
- the one who is pleading
- ruling...in the place of honor
- The Messiah
- is the one who died for us
- he also was raised from the dead
Romans 8:35

Who will separate us from the love of Christ (ULT)
Absolutely no one and nothing can cause the Messiah to stop loving us (UST)

Paul uses this question to teach that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ. Alternate translation: “No one will ever separate us from the love of Christ!” or “Nothing will ever separate us from the love of Christ!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword (ULT)
Even if someone afflicts us, or we were suffering from great need, or even if someone harms us, or even if we have nothing to eat, or even if we do not have enough clothes, or even if we live in a dangerous situation, or even if someone will kill us (UST)

The words “shall separate us from the love of Christ” are understood from the previous question. Alternate translation: “Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword separate us from the love of Christ?” (See: Ellipsis)

Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword (ULT)
Even if someone afflicts us, or we were suffering from great need, or even if someone harms us, or even if we have nothing to eat, or even if we do not have enough clothes, or even if we live in a dangerous situation, or even if someone will kill us (UST)

Paul uses this question to emphasize that even these things cannot separate us from the love of Christ. Alternate translation: “Even tribulation, distress, persecution, hunger, nakedness, danger, and sword cannot separate us from the love of Christ.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword (ULT)
Even if someone afflicts us, or we were suffering from great need, or even if someone harms us, or even if we have nothing to eat, or even if we do not have enough clothes, or even if we live in a dangerous situation, or even if someone will kill us (UST)

The abstract nouns can be expressed with verb phrases. Here “sword” is a metonym that represents being killed violently. Alternate translation: “Even if people cause us trouble, hurt us, take away our clothes and food, or kill us, they cannot separate us from the love of Christ.” (See: Abstract Nouns and Metonymy)

Tribulation, or distress (ULT)
Even if someone afflicts us...we were suffering from great need, or (UST)

These words both mean the same thing. (See: Doublet)

Romans 8:36

For your benefit (ULT)
it is written that David said to God...Because we are your people (UST)

Here “your” is singular and refers to God. Alternate translation: “For you” (See: Forms of You)

we are killed all day long (ULT) others repeatedly attempt to kill us (UST)

Here “we” refers to the one who wrote this part of Scripture, but not his audience, who was God. The phrase “all day long” is an exaggeration to emphasize how much danger they are in. Paul uses this part of Scripture to show that all who belong to God should expect difficult times. This can be translated in an active form. Alternate translation: “our enemies continually seek to kill us” (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We” and Hyperbole and Active or Passive)

We were considered as sheep for the slaughter (ULT)
They consider that we are only people to be killed, like a butcher considers that sheep are only animals to be slaughtered (UST)

Here Paul compares to livestock those whom people kill because they are loyal to God. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Our lives have no more value to them than the sheep they kill” (See: Simile and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• for the slaughter
• we are killed
• sheep
• Just as
• as neither...powerful beings (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) spiritual beings with power or 2) human beings with power.

Translation Words - ULT

- life
- angels
- powers
- governments
- death
- I have been convinced

Translation Words - UST

- what happens to us while we live
- angels
- powerful beings
- demons
- anything from the realm of the dead
- I am completely convinced

ULT 38 For I have been convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

UST 38 I am completely convinced that neither anything from the realm of the dead, nor what happens to us while we live, nor angels, nor demons, nor present events, nor future events, nor powerful beings.
Romans 8:39

Translation Words - UST

- he loves us by sending Jesus
- Lord to die
- to stop loving
- God
- can cause
- the Messiah
- he loves us by sending Jesus the Messiah...for us
- that God has created

ULT
39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

8:28 (1) Instead of God works all things together for good, some older versions read, all things work together for good.

UST
39 nor powerful beings in the sky or below it, nor anything else that God has created can cause God to stop loving us. God showed us that he loves us by sending Jesus the Messiah our Lord to die for us.
Romans 9

Romans 9 General Notes

Structure and formatting

In this chapter, Paul changes what he is teaching about. In Chapters 9-11, he focuses on the nation of Israel.

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 25-29 and 33 of this chapter. Paul quotes all of these words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Flesh

Paul uses the word “flesh” in this chapter only to refer to Israelites, people physically descending from Abraham through Jacob, who God named Israel. (See: flesh)

In other chapters, Paul uses the word “brother” to mean fellow Christians. However, in this chapter, he uses “my brothers” to mean his kinsmen the Israelites.

Paul refers to those who believe in Jesus as “children of God” and “children of the promise.”

Predestination

Many scholars believe Paul in this chapter teaches extensively on a subject known as “predestination.” This is related to the biblical concept of “predestine.” Some take this to indicate that God has, from before the foundation of the world, chosen some people to eternally save. Christians have different views on what the Bible teaches on this subject. So translators need to take extra care when translating this chapter. (See: predestine, predestined and save, saved, safe, salvation)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Stone of stumbling

Paul explains that while some Gentiles accepted Jesus as their savior by believing in him, most Jews were trying to earn their salvation and so rejected Jesus. Paul, quoting the Old Testament, describes Jesus as a stone that the Jews stumble over when walking. This “stone of stumbling” causes them to “fall.” (See: Metaphor)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“It is not everyone in Israel who truly belongs to Israel”

Paul uses the word “Israel” in this verse with two different meanings. The first “Israel” means the physical descendants of Abraham through Jacob. The second “Israel” means those who are God's people through faith. The UST reflects this.
Romans 9:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul tells of his personal desire that the people of the nation of Israel will be saved. Then he emphasizes the different ways in which God has prepared them to believe.

I tell the truth in Christ. I do not lie (ULT)
Because I am joined to the Messiah, I will tell you the truth. I am not lying (UST)

These two expressions mean basically the same thing. Paul uses them to emphasize that he is telling the truth. (See: Doublet) in...and my conscience bears witness with me...the Holy Spirit (ULT)

Because I am joined to...My conscience confirms what I say because the Holy Spirit (UST)

“the Holy Spirit controls my conscience and confirms what I say”

Translation Words - ULT

- Holy
- bears witness
- the Holy Spirit
- the truth
- conscience
- Christ
- in Christ

Translation Words - UST

- Holy
- confirms what
- because the Holy Spirit
- the truth
- conscience
- the Messiah
- Because I am joined to the Messiah
Romans 9:2

that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart (ULT)
I tell you that I grieve very greatly and deeply about my fellow Israelites (UST)

Here “unceasing pain in my heart” is an idiom that Paul uses to share his emotional distress. Alternate translation: “I tell you that I grieve very greatly and deeply” (See: Idiom)

sorrow...great...and unceasing pain (ULT)
I grieve...very greatly and deeply about my fellow Israelites (UST)

These two expressions mean basically the same thing. Paul uses them together to emphasize how great his emotions are. (See: Doublet)

Translation Words - ULT
- in...heart

Translation Words - UST
- deeply about my fellow Israelites
Romans 9:3

For I could wish that I myself would be cursed and set apart from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race according to the flesh (ULT)

I personally would be willing to let God curse me and, keep me apart from the Messiah forever if that would help my fellow Israelites, my natural kinsmen, to believe in the Messiah (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “I personally would be willing to let God curse me and, keep me apart from Christ forever if that would help my fellow Israelites, my own people group, to believe in Christ” (See: Active or Passive)

brothers (ULT)
fellow Israelites (UST)

Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

Romans 9:4

They are Israelites (ULT)
They, like me, are Israelites (UST)

“They, like me, are Israelites. God chose them to be Jacob’s descendants”

They have the adoption (ULT)
God chose them to be his children (UST)

Here Paul uses the metaphor of “adoption” to indicate that the Israelites are like God’s children. Alternate translation: “They have God as their father” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- adoption
- glory
- covenants
- Israelites
- promises
- gift of the law
- worship of God

Translation Words - UST

- God chose them to be his children
- It is to them that he showed how wonderful he is
- that he made the covenants
- Israelites
- God promised many things
- It is to them that he gave the law
- They are the ones who have the worship of God

ULT

4 They are Israelites. They have the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the gift of the law, and the worship of God, and the promises.

UST

4 They, like me, are Israelites. God chose them to be his children. It is to them that he showed how wonderful he is. It is with them that he made the covenants. It is to them that he gave the law. They are the ones who have the worship of God. They are the ones to whom God promised many things.
Romans 9:5

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

• May he be praised
• is God
• the flesh
• Amen
• Christ has come
• ancestors
• forever

Translation Words - UST

• that we praise him
• He is God
• was born as a human being
• This is true
• Messiah
• ancestors
• forever

ULT

5 Theirs are the ancestors from whom also Christ has come with respect to the flesh—he who is God over all. May he be praised forever. Amen.

UST

5 It was our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, whom God chose to begin our nation. And, most importantly, it was from us Israelites that the Messiah was born as a human being. He is God, the one who is worthy that we praise him forever! This is true!
Romans 9:6

Connecting Statement:

Paul emphasizes that those who are born in the family of Israel can really only be a true part of Israel through faith.

But it is not as though the promises of God have failed (ULT)
God promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that their descendants would all inherit his blessings. But although most of my fellow Israelites have rejected the Messiah, that does not prove that God has failed to do the things that he promised (UST)

“But God has not failed to keep his promises” or “God has kept his promises”

For it is not everyone in Israel who truly belongs to Israel

God did not make his promises to all the physical descendants of Israel (or Jacob), but to his spiritual descendants, that is, those who trust in Jesus.

Translation Words - ULT

• of God
• promises of God
• who is from Israel
• truly belongs to Israel (2)

Translation Words - UST

• the things that he promised
• the things that he promised
• who are descended from Jacob and who call themselves the people of Israel
• truly his people (2)
Romans 9:7

Neither are all Abraham's descendants truly his children (ULT)
And it is also not all of Abraham's natural descendants that God considers to be Abraham's true descendants (UST)

“Nor are they all children of God just because they are Abraham’s descendants”

Translation Words - ULT

- will be called
- truly his children
- Abraham's
- Isaac
- descendants
- descendants (2)

Translation Words - UST

- whom I will consider to be the true father
- God considers to be Abraham's true descendants
- Abraham's
- Isaac, not any of your other sons
- natural descendants
- of...descendants (2)

ULT
7 Neither are all Abraham's descendants truly his children. But, “It is through Isaac that your descendants will be called.”

UST
7 And it is also not all of Abraham's natural descendants that God considers to be Abraham's true descendants. Instead, God considers only some of them to be Abraham's true descendants. This agrees with what he told Abraham: “It is Isaac, not any of your other sons, whom I will consider to be the true father of your descendants.”
Romans 9:8

the children of the flesh...not (ULT) not all of Abraham's descendants (UST)

Here “children of the flesh” is a metonym that refers to the physical descendants of Abraham. Alternate translation: “not all of Abraham's descendants” (See: Metonymy) are...the children of God (ULT) are the people that God accepts as his own children (UST)

This is a metaphor that refers to people who are spiritual descendants, those who have faith in Jesus. (See: Metaphor)

the children of the...promise (ULT)
all of Abraham's descendants...when he promised to give Abraham descendants—it is these people whom (UST)

This refers to people who will inherit the promises that God gave to Abraham.

Translation Words - ULT

- of God
- flesh
- children
- are...the children (2)
- children (3)
- descendants
- promise

Translation Words - UST

- God
- all of Abraham's descendants
- all of Abraham's descendants
- are the people that...accepts as his own children (2)
- his own children (3)
- Abraham's true descendants and
- when he promised to give Abraham descendants—it is these people whom
Romans 9:9

of promise...this is the word (ULT)
This is what God promised Abraham...This is what God promised Abraham (UST)

“these are the words God used when he made the promise”

a son will be given to Sarah (ULT)
Sarah your wife will bear a son.” God promised this, and he made it happen (UST)

You can translate this in an active form to express that God will give a son to Sarah. Alternate translation: “I will give Sarah a son” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- a son
- of promise
- to Sarah
- time

Translation Words - UST

- a son.” God promised this, and he made it happen
- This is what God promised Abraham
- Sarah your wife
- time next year

ULT

9 For this is the word of promise: “At this time I will come, and a son will be given to Sarah.”

UST

9 This is what God promised Abraham:
“About this time next year I will come back to you, and Sarah your wife will bear a son.” God promised this, and he made it happen.
Romans 9:10

Paul refers to Isaac as “our father” because Isaac was the ancestor of Paul and of the Jewish believers in Rome. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Paul refers to Rebekah as “our mother” because Rebekah was the ancestor of Paul and of the Jewish believers in Rome. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Not only this, but after Rebekah also had conceived by one man, our father Isaac—

It was similar with Rebecca, the wife of Isaac, Abraham’s son, when Rebecca conceived twins.

“had become pregnant”
Romans 9:11

for the children were not yet born and had not yet done anything good or bad (ULT)
But before they were born, before they had done anything good or bad (UST)

“before the children were born and before they had done anything, whether good or bad” so that the purpose of God according to his choice might stand (ULT)

she received a message from God. (This message shows that God chooses people according to his own purposes (UST)

“so that what God wants to happen according to His choice will happen”

for the children were not yet born (ULT)
But before they were born (UST)

“before the children were born”

and had not yet done anything good or bad (ULT)
before they had done anything good or bad (UST)

“not because of anything they had done”

Translation Words - ULT

• of God
• his choice
• good
• bad

Translation Words - UST

• she received a message from God
• This message shows that God chooses people
• good
• bad
Romans 9:12

Connecting Statement:

It may be necessary in your language to place this verse between verse 10 and verse 11: “our father Isaac, it was said to her, ‘The older will serve the younger.’ Now the children were not yet born and had not yet done anything good or bad, but so that the purpose of God according to choice might stand—not because of actions, but because of him who calls. It is just”

because of him who calls (ULT) people...to (UST)

because of God

it was said to her, “The older will serve the younger (ULT)
he calls...She was told, “Your older son will serve your younger son (UST)

“God said to Rebecca, ‘The older son will serve the younger son’”

Translation Words - ULT

- him who calls
- actions
- will serve

Translation Words - UST

- he calls
- works
- will serve
Romans 9:13

Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated (ULT)
I chose Jacob, the younger son. I rejected Esau, the older son (UST)

The word “hated” is an exaggeration. God loved Jacob much more than he loved Esau. He did not literally hate Esau. (See: Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

• I loved
• but Esau
• Jacob
• It is just as
• had been written

Translation Words - UST

• I chose
• Esau, the older son
• Jacob, the younger son
• It is just what
• God said in the scriptures

ULT
13 It is just as had been written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

UST
13 It is just what God said in the scriptures: “I chose Jacob, the younger son. I rejected Esau, the older son.”
Romans 9:14

What then will we say (ULT)
Someone might ask me (UST)

Paul is using the question to get the attention of his readers. (See: Rhetorical Question)

Is there unrighteousness...May it never be (ULT) unjust...by choosing only certain people...I would reply...He is certainly not unjust (UST)

“That is not possible!” or “Certainly not!” This expression strongly denies that this could happen. You may have a similar expression in your language that you could use here.

Translation Words - ULT

- God
- Is there unrighteousness

Translation Words - UST

- God
- unjust
Romans 9:15

For he says to Moses (ULT)
God told Moses (UST)

Paul speaks about God's talking with Moses as if it is being done in the present time. Alternate translation: “For God said to Moses” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- I will have compassion
- I will have compassion
- I will have mercy
- I will have mercy
- to Moses

Translation Words - UST

- help anyone
- I choose
- I will pity
- I will pity
- Moses

ULT
15 For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.”

UST
15 God told Moses, “I will pity and help anyone whom I choose!”
Romans 9:16

it is not because of him who wills, nor because of him who runs

“it is not because of what people want or because they try hard”

nor because of him who runs (ULT) or because they try hard to please him (UST)

Paul speaks of a person who does good things in order to gain God’s favor as if that person were running a race. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• because of God
• who shows mercy

Translation Words - UST

• he himself
• has mercy
Romans 9:17

For the scripture says (ULT)
Moses recorded (UST)

Here the scripture is personified as if God were talking to Pharaoh. Alternate translation: “The scripture records that God said” (See: Personification)

I raised...up...I might demonstrate...my (ULT)
I made...king of Egypt...I might fight against...will help others respect (UST)

God is referring to himself.

you (ULT)
you (UST)
singular (See: Forms of You)

I raised you up (ULT)
I made you king of Egypt (UST)

“Raised” here is an idiom for “to cause something to be what it is.” Alternate translation: “I made you the powerful man that you are” (See: Idiom)

so that my name might be proclaimed (ULT) will help others respect...my reputation (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “that people might proclaim my name” (See: Active or Passive)

my name (ULT)
my reputation (UST)

This metonym refers either 1) to God in all of his being. Alternate translation: “who I am” or 2) To his reputation. Alternate translation: “how great I am” (See: Metonymy)

in all the earth (ULT)
and everyone in the world (UST)

“wherever there are people” (See: Hyperbole)

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 9:18

on whom he wishes, but...he makes stubborn (ULT)
the ones he wants to act kindly toward. And...he makes stubborn (UST)

God makes stubborn whoever he wishes to make stubborn.

Translation Words - ULT

- God has mercy
- he makes stubborn

Translation Words - UST

- we know that God kindly helps
- he makes stubborn

ULT

18 So then, God has mercy on whom he wishes, but whom he wishes, he makes stubborn.

UST

18 So we know that God kindly helps the ones he wants to act kindly toward. And we also know that he makes stubborn anyone who he wants to be stubborn, such as Pharaoh.
Romans 9:19

You will say then to me (ULT)
Maybe one of you will say to me (UST)

Paul is talking to the critics of his teaching as though he were only talking to one person. You may need to use the plural here. (See: Forms of You)

Why then does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will (ULT)
Because God determines ahead of time everything that people do and no one can resist what God has wished, it is not right for God to punish those who sin (UST)

These rhetorical questions are complaints against God. You can translate them as strong statements. Alternate translation: “He should not find fault with us. No one has ever been able to withstand his will.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

does he...find fault...his (ULT)
it is not right for God to punish those who sin...God (UST)

The words “he” and “his” here refer to God.

For...will...For...his...will...has ever withstood (ULT)

“has...stopped him from doing what he wanted to do”

Translation Words - ULT

• For...his...will

Translation Words - UST

• God has wished
Romans 9:20

Will what has been molded say to the one who molds it, “Why did you make me this way (ULT)
A pot has no right to ask its maker, “Why did you make me like this (UST)

Paul uses the potter’s right to make any kind of container he wants from the clay as a metaphor for the creator’s right to do whatever he wants with his creation. Paul asks questions to emphasize his point. This can be translated as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “What a person has molded should never say to the one who molds it, ‘Why...way?’” (See: Metaphor and Rhetorical Question)

Why did you make me this way (ULT)
Why did you make me like this (UST)

This question is a rebuke and can be translated as a strong statement. Alternate translation: “You should not have made me this way!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• God

Translation Words - UST

• God! He is like a man who makes clay pots
Romans 9:21

Does the potter not have the right over the clay to make from the same lump a container for special use, and another container for daily use (ULT)
Instead, the potter certainly has the right to take a lump of clay and use part of it to make a beautiful pot that people will value highly—and then use the rest of the clay for a pot that someone will use every day. Certainly God has the same right (UST)

This rhetorical question is a rebuke. Alternate translation: “The potter certainly has the right...for daily use.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• special use
• the right
• daily use

Translation Words - UST

• that people will value highly

• his wrath
• of wrath
• prepared
• endured
• patience
• to make...known

Translation Words - UST

• God
• can powerfully punish people who have sinned
• he is angry about sin
• who caused him to be angry
• and who deserved
• he tolerated
• patiently
• to make clear that

ULT

22 But what if God, who is willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience containers of wrath prepared for destruction?

UST

22 Although God desires to show that he is angry about sin, and although he desires to make clear that he can powerfully punish people who have sinned, he tolerated very patiently the people who caused him to be angry and who deserved to be destroyed.
Romans 9:23

He might make known...his (ULT)
He might make clear...how very wonderfully he acts (UST)

The words “he” and “his” here refer to God.

Containers of mercy (ULT)
Those upon whom he has mercy (UST)

Paul speaks of people as if they were containers. Alternate translation: “people who deserve mercy” (See: Metaphor)

The riches of his glory upon (ULT)
How very wonderfully he acts toward (UST)

Paul compares God's wonderful actions here to great “riches.” Alternate translation: “his glory, which is of great value, upon” (See: Metaphor)

Which he had previously prepared for glory (ULT)
Whom he prepared ahead of time in order that they might live with him (UST)

Here “glory” refers to life in heaven with God. Alternate translation: “whom he prepared ahead of time in order that they might live with him” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- of...glory
- glory
- of mercy
- he might make known

Translation Words - UST

- how very wonderfully he acts

Romans 9:24

And what if he did this...for us (ULT)
he chose...That means us (UST)

The word “us” here refers to Paul and fellow believers. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

he also called (ULT)
he chose (UST)

Here “called” means God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.

Translation Words - ULT

• he also called
• the Jews
• the Gentiles

Translation Words - UST

• he chose
• us Jews
• non-Jews
Romans 9:25

Connecting Statement:

In this section Paul explains how Israel's unbelief as a nation was told ahead of time by the prophet Hosea.

As he says also in Hosea (ULT)
God has the right to choose from among both Jews and non-Jews, as the prophet Hosea wrote (UST)

Here “he” refers to God. Alternate translation: “As God says also in the book that Hosea wrote” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Hosea (ULT)
the prophet Hosea (UST)

Hosea was a prophet. (See: How to Translate Names)

I will call my people who were not my people

“I will choose for my people those who were not my people”

her beloved who was not beloved (ULT)
Many people whom...I did not love before, I will say that I now love them (UST)

Here “her” refers to Hosea's wife, Gomer, who represents the nation of Israel. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “I will choose her whom I did not love to be one whom I love” (See: Active or Passive) “calls out”

as the sand of the sea (ULT) are...that no one can count them, like sand particles beside the ocean (UST)

Here Paul compares the number of the people of Israel to the number of grains of sand in the sea. Alternate translation: “too many to count” (See: Simile)

will be saved (ULT)
will be saved (UST)

Paul uses the word “saved” in a spiritual sense. If God saves a person, it means that through believing in Jesus’ death on the cross, God has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished for his sin. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will save” (See: Active or Passive) 28 because the Lord will punish completely and speedily the people who live in that land, as he said that he would do.”

Romans 9:29

us...we

Here the words “us” and “we” refer to Isaiah and those to whom he spoke. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

we would be like Sodom, and we would have become like Gomorrah (ULT)
we would have become like the people of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, whom he completely destroyed (UST)

God killed all of the people of Sodom and Gomorrah because of their sin. Alternate translation: “we all would have been destroyed like the people of Sodom and Gomorrah” or “God would have destroyed all of us, like he destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• the Lord of hosts

Romans 9:30

What will we say then (ULT)
We must conclude this (UST)

Paul uses this question to get the attention of his readers. Alternate translation: “This is what we must say” (See: Rhetorical Question)

That the Gentiles (ULT)
The non-Jews...that (UST)

“We will say that the Gentiles“ who were not pursuing righteousness (ULT) were not trying to be holy (UST)

“who were not trying to please God” righteousness...that is by faith (ULT) right with himself...if they trusted in the Messiah (UST)

Here “by faith” refers to placing one's trust in Christ. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “because God made them right with him when they trusted in Christ” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- righteousness
- righteousness
- the Gentiles
- faith

Translation Words - UST

- to be holy
- God would put them
- right with himself
- the non-Jews
- if they trusted in the Messiah
Romans 9:31

did not attain it (ULT)
they were not able to (UST)

This means that the Israelites could not please God by trying to keep the law. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “were not able to please God by keeping the law because they could not keep it” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT
- of righteousness
- a law
- the law (2)
- Israel

Translation Words - UST
- to be holy
- by obeying God’s law
- law (2)
- the people of Israel
Romans 9:32

Why not (ULT)
They were not able to, because (UST)

This is an ellipsis. You can include the implied words in your translation. Paul asks this question to get the attention of his readers. Alternate translation: “Why could they not attain righteousness?” (See: Ellipsis and Rhetorical Question)

by works (ULT)
they tried to do certain things to persuade God...accept them (UST)

This refers to things that people do to try to please God. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “by trying to do things that would please God” or “by keeping the Law” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT
- works
- faith
- They stumbled over
- of stumbling
- stone of stumbling
- by

Translation Words - UST
- they tried to do certain things to persuade God...accept them
- to...Because they did not expect the
- Messiah to die, the Israelites felt disgusted concerning Jesus’ death
- which is like the stone on which people stumble
- Messiah to die, the Israelites felt disgusted concerning Jesus’ death...which is like the stone on which people stumble
- they tried to do certain things to persuade God...accept them

ULT
32 Why not? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling.

UST
32 They were not able to, because they tried to do certain things to persuade God to accept them. Because they did not expect the Messiah to die, the Israelites felt disgusted concerning Jesus’ death, which is like the stone on which people stumble.
Romans 9:33

as it has been written (ULT)
This is what a prophet said would happen (UST)

You can indicate that Isaiah wrote this. You can also translate it in an active form. Alternate translation: “as Isaiah the prophet wrote” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

in Zion (ULT)
in Israel (UST)

Here Zion is a metonym that represents Israel. Alternate translation: “in Israel” (See: Metonymy)

a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense (ULT)
one who is like a stone on which people will stumble.
What he does will make people angry (UST)

Both of these phrases mean basically the same thing and are metaphors that refer to Jesus and his death on the cross. It was as if the people stumbled over a stone because they were disgusted when they considered Jesus’ death on the cross. (See: Doublet and Metaphor)

He who believes...in it (ULT)
who believe in him (UST)

Because the stone stands for a person, you may need to translate “believes in him.”

Translation Words - ULT

• I am laying
• He who believes
• Zion
• will...be ashamed
• of stumbling
• a stone of stumbling
• as
• it has been written

Translation Words - UST

• I am placing
• who believe

• will...be ashamed
• on which people will stumble
• one who is like a stone on which people will stumble
• This is what a prophet said would happen
• This is what a prophet said would happen
Romans 10

Romans 10 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set prose quotations from the Old Testament farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text. The ULT does this with the quoted words in verse 8.

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 18-20 of this chapter, which are words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's righteousness

Paul teaches here that while many Jews earnestly tried to be righteous, they did not succeed. We cannot earn God's righteousness. God gives us Jesus' righteousness when we believe in him. (See: righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness and faith)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Paul uses many rhetorical questions in this chapter. He does this to convince his readers that God does not save only the Hebrew people, so Christians must be ready to go and share the gospel with the whole world. (See: Rhetorical Question and save, saved, safe, salvation)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“I will provoke you to jealousy by what is not a nation”

Paul uses this prophecy to explain that God will use the church to make the Hebrew people jealous. This is so they will seek God and believe the gospel. (See: prophet, prophecy, prophesy, seer, prophetess and jealous, jealousy and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
Romans 10:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul continues stating his desire for Israel to believe but emphasizes that both those who are Jews as well as everyone else can only be saved by faith in Jesus.

Brothers (ULT)
My fellow believers (UST)

Here this means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

the desire of my heart (ULT)
what I greatly desire (UST)

Here “heart” is a metonym for a person's emotions or inner being. Alternate translation: “my greatest desire” (See: Metonymy) is for them, for their salvation (ULT) for is that he will save my own people, the Jews (UST)

“is that God will save the Jews”

Translation Words - ULT

• their salvation
• Brothers
• God
• heart
• my request

Translation Words - UST

• he will save
• My fellow believers
• God earnestly
• I greatly desire
• I pray
Romans 10:2

I testify...about them (ULT)
I declare truthfully...about them (UST)

“I declare truthfully about them”

Translation Words - ULT

• for God
• I testify
• a zeal
• knowledge

Translation Words - UST

• God
• I declare truthfully
• they earnestly
• they do...understand how to go after him in the right way

ULT
2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

UST
2 I declare truthfully about them that although they earnestly go after God, they do not understand how to go after him in the right way.
Romans 10:3

For they do not know of God's righteousness (ULT)
They do not know how God puts people right with himself...so (UST)

Here “righteousness refers to the way God puts people right with himself. You can make this explicit in the translation. Alternate translation: “For they do not know how God puts people right with himself” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) of God's...They did not submit to the righteousness (ULT)

God...they do not accept what...wishes to do for them (UST)

“They did not accept God's way of putting people right with himself”

Translation Words - ULT

• righteousness
• righteousness (2)
• righteousness
• of God's
• of God (2)

Romans 10:4

For Christ is the fulfillment of the law (ULT)
The Messiah has perfectly obeyed the law in order...So the law is no longer necessary (UST)

“For Christ completely fulfilled the law” for righteousness for everyone who believes (ULT) to put everyone who believes in him right with God (UST)

Here “believes” means “trusts.” Alternate translation: “in order that he may make everyone who trusts in him right before God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• righteousness
• who believes
• Christ
• of the law

Translation Words - UST

• to put...right with God
• believes in him
• The Messiah
• the law in order

ULT

4 For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.

UST

4 The Messiah has perfectly obeyed the law in order to put everyone who believes in him right with God. So the law is no longer necessary.
Romans 10:5

about the righteousness that comes from the law (ULT) people who tried to obey all of God's laws (UST)

Paul speaks of “righteousness” as if it were alive and able to move. Alternate translation: “how the law makes a person right before God” (See: Personification)

The man who does these things will live by them (ULT)
It is the people who have done perfectly the things that the law requires who will live forever (UST)

In order to be made right with God through the law, a person would have to keep the law perfectly, which is not possible. Alternate translation: “The person who perfectly obeys the law will live because the law will make him right before God” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) will live (ULT)

who will live forever (UST)

The words “will live” can refer to 1) eternal life or 2) mortal life in fellowship with God.

Translation Words - ULT

• will live
• righteousness
• the law
• Moses
• writes

Translation Words - UST

• who will live forever

Romans 10:6

But the righteousness that comes from faith says this (ULT)

But those whom God puts right with himself because they trust in the Messiah—to them Moses says (UST)

Here “righteousness” is described as a person who can speak. Alternate translation: “But Moses writes this about how faith makes a person right before God” (See: Personification)

Do not say in your heart (ULT)

Moses says...There is no need for anyone (UST)

Moses was addressing the people as if he were speaking to only one person. Here “heart” is a metonym for a person’s mind or inner being. Alternate translation: “Do not say to yourself” (See: Forms of You and Metonymy)

Who will ascend into heaven (ULT)

There is no need for anyone...to try to climb up to heaven (UST)

Moses uses a question to teach his audience. His previous instruction of, “Do not say” requires a negative answer to this question. You can translate this question as a statement. Alternate translation: “No one is able to go up to heaven” (See: Rhetorical Question) that is, to bring Christ down (ULT)

that is, in order to bring the Messiah down to save us (UST)

“in order that they might have Christ come down to earth”

Translation Words - ULT

• heaven
• righteousness
• heart
• faith
• Christ

Translation Words - UST

• climb up to heaven
• whom God puts right with himself
• There is no need for anyone
• they trust in the Messiah

Romans 10:7

Who will descend into the abyss (ULT)
No one should try to go down to where the dead are (UST)

Moses uses a question to teach his audience. His previous instruction of, “Do not say” requires a negative answer to this question. You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: “No person can go down and enter the place where the spirits of dead persons are” (See: Rhetorical Question)

from the dead (ULT)
from the dead for us (UST)

From among all those who have died. This expression describes all dead people together in the underworld. To be brought up from among them is to become alive again.

the dead (ULT)
the dead for us (UST)

This word speaks of physical death.

Translation Words - ULT

• Christ
• abyss
• the dead

Translation Words - UST

• the Messiah
• where the dead are
• the dead for us
Romans 10:8

But what does it say (ULT)
But instead, those who believe in the Messiah can say what Moses wrote (UST)

The word “it” refers to “the righteousness” of Romans 10:6. Here Paul describes “righteousness” as a person who can speak. Paul uses a question to emphasize the answer he is about to give. Alternate translation: “But this is what Moses says” (See: Personification and Rhetorical Question)

The word is near you (ULT)
You can find out about God’s message very easily (UST)

Paul speaks of God’s message as if it were a person who can move. Alternate translation: “You have heard the message” (See: Personification)

The word is...in your mouth (ULT)
God’s message...You can speak about it (UST)

The word “mouth” is a metonym that refers to what a person says. Alternate translation: “You know how to speak...God’s message” (See: Metonymy)

The word is...in your heart (ULT)
God’s message...think about it (UST)

The phrase “in your heart” is metonym that refers to what a person thinks and believes. Alternate translation: “You know what...God’s message means” (See: Metonymy)

The...word of faith (ULT)
God’s...message...People must believe in the Messiah (UST)

“God’s message that tells us that we must believe in him”

Translation Words - ULT

- heart
- of faith
- we proclaim

Translation Words - UST

- think about it
- People must believe in the Messiah
- we proclaim
Romans 10:9

if with your mouth you confess Jesus as Lord (ULT)
if anyone of you confirms that Jesus is Lord (UST)

“if you confess that Jesus is Lord” believe in your heart (ULT)

if you truly believe (UST)

Here “heart” is a metonym for a person’s mind or inner person. Alternate translation: “believe in your mind” or “truly believe” (See: Metonymy) raised him from the dead (ULT) raised him from the dead (UST)

“Raised” here is an idiom for “caused to live again.” Alternate translation: “caused him to live again” (See: Idiom)

you will be saved (ULT)
he will save you (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will save you” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• you will be saved
• Jesus
• as Lord
• God
• heart
• you confess
• believe
• the dead
• raised

Translation Words - UST

• he will save you
• Jesus
• is Lord
• God

For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses unto salvation (ULT)

If people believe these things, God will put them right with himself. And for those who state publicly that Jesus is Lord—God will save them (UST)

Here “heart” is a metonym that represents the mind or will. Alternate translation: “For it is with the mind that a person trusts and is right before God, and it is with the mouth that a person confesses and God saves him” (See: Metonymy)

with the mouth (ULT)
those who state publicly that (UST)

Here “mouth” is a synecdoche that represents a person's capacity to speak. (See: Synecdoche)

Translation Words - ULT

• salvation
• righteousness
• with the heart
• one confesses
• one believes

Translation Words - UST

• God will save them
• God will put them right with himself
• If people believe these things...for
• Jesus is Lord

Romans 10:11

For scripture says (ULT)
It is written in the scriptures about the Messiah (UST)

Paul speaks of the Scripture as if it were alive and had a voice. You can make explicit who wrote the Scripture that Paul uses here. Alternate translation: “For Isaiah wrote in the Scriptures“ (See: Personification and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame (ULT)
Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed or ashamed (UST)

This is equivalent to: “Everyone who does not believe will be shamed.” The negative is used here for emphasis. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will honor everyone who believes in him” (See: Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• scripture
• who believes
• will...be put to shame

Translation Words - UST

Romans 10:12

For there is no difference between Jew and Greek (ULT)
In this way, God treats the Jews and the non-Jews the same (UST)

Paul implies that God will treat all people the same. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “In this way, God treats the Jews and the non-Jews the same” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) and he is rich to all who call upon him (ULT)

he greatly helps all who ask him to help them (UST)

Here “he is rich” means that God blesses richly. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “he richly blesses all who trust in him” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- who call upon
- Lord
- Jew
- Greek

Translation Words - UST

- ask...to help them
- Lord
- In this way, God treats the Jews and the non-Jews the same
- In this way, God treats the Jews and the non-Jews the same

ULT
12 For there is no difference between Jew and Greek. For the same Lord is Lord of all, and he is rich to all who call upon him.

UST
12 In this way, God treats the Jews and the non-Jews the same. Because he is the same Lord for all people who believe in him, he greatly helps all who ask him to help them.
Romans 10:13

For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved (ULT)
This is just like what the scriptures say: “The Lord God will save all those who ask him (UST)

Here the word “name” is a metonym for Jesus. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “The Lord will save everyone who trusts in him” (See: Metonymy and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• will be saved
• who calls on
• of the Lord
• name

Translation Words - UST

• will save
• those who ask him
• This is just like what the scriptures say...The Lord God
• This is just like what the scriptures say...The Lord God
Romans 10:14

How then can they call on him in whom they have not believed (ULT)
Most people have certainly not believed in the Messiah, and some people might try to explain why they have not done so. They might say, “People certainly cannot ask the Messiah to help them if they have not first believed in him (ULT)

Paul uses a question to emphasize the importance of taking the good news of Christ to those who have not heard. The word “they” refers to those who do not yet belong to God. Alternate translation: “Those who do not believe in God cannot call on him!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

how...can they believe in whom they have not heard (ULT)
if they have...first believed in him...they certainly cannot believe in him if they have not heard about him! And (UST)

Paul uses another question for the same reason. Alternate translation: “And they cannot believe in him if they have not heard his message!” or “And they cannot believe in him if they have not heard the message about him!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

can they believe in (ULT)
they certainly...believe in him...And (UST)

Here this means to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

how...can they hear without a preacher (ULT)
if they have...heard about him...they certainly cannot hear about him if someone does not preach to them about him (UST)

Paul uses another question for the same reason. Alternate translation: “And they cannot hear the message if someone does not tell them!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• can they call
• they have...believed
• can they believe in
• a preacher

Translation Words - UST

• ask...to help them
• if they have...first believed in him
• they certainly...believe in him...And
• if someone does...preach to them about him
Romans 10:15

How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the gospel (ULT)
It is wonderful when people come and bring good news (UST)

Paul uses “feet” to represent those who travel and bring the message to those who have not heard it. Alternate translation: “It is wonderful when messengers come and tell us the good news” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

• gospel
• can they preach
• of those who proclaim
• they are sent
• As
• it is written

Translation Words - UST

• good
• And those who could preach to them
• people come and bring...news
• about the Messiah, certainly cannot do so...God does...send them
• just like
• the scriptures say

ULT
15 And how can they preach, unless they are sent?—As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the gospel!”

UST
15 And those who could preach to them about the Messiah, certainly cannot do so if God does not send them. But if some believers preached to them, it would be just like the scriptures say: “It is wonderful when people come and bring good news!”
Romans 10:16

not all of them obeyed (ULT)
sent people to preach the message about the Messiah.
But not all the people of Israel have paid attention to
(UST)

Here “they” refers to the Jews. “not all of the Jews obeyed”

Lord, who has believed our message (ULT) when he felt very discouraged: “Lord, it seems as if hardly anyone believed what they heard us preach
(UST)

Paul is using this question to emphasize that Isaiah prophesied in the Scriptures that many Jews would not believe in Jesus. You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: “Lord, so many of them do not believe our message” (See: Rhetorical Question)

our message (ULT)
what they heard us preach (UST)

Here, “our” refers to God and Isaiah.

Translation Words - ULT

• Lord
• gospel
• has believed
• Isaiah
• obeyed
• message

Translation Words - UST

• when he felt very discouraged: “Lord
• good news
• it seems as if hardly anyone believed
• It is like what Isaiah
• have paid attention to
• they heard

ULT
16 But not all of them obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

UST
16 I would reply in this way to those who say such things: God has indeed sent people to preach the message about the Messiah. But not all the people of Israel have paid attention to the good news! It is like what Isaiah said when he felt very discouraged: “Lord, it seems as if hardly anyone believed what they heard us preach!”
Romans 10:17

faith comes from hearing (ULT) people are believing in the Messiah because they hear about him (UST)

Here “faith” refers to “believing in Christ”

faith...and hearing...by the word of Christ (ULT) people are believing in the Messiah...are hearing the message because others are preaching about the Messiah (UST)

“hearing by listening to the message about Christ”

Translation Words - ULT

• faith
• of Christ

Translation Words - UST

• people are believing in the Messiah
• about the Messiah

ULT
17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

UST
17 So then, I tell you that people are believing in the Messiah because they hear about him, and people are hearing the message because others are preaching about the Messiah!
Romans 10:18

But I say, “Did they not hear?” Yes, most certainly (ULT)
But if someone said...Of course the Israelites have heard this message,” I would say, “Yes, indeed! It is like what the scriptures say: “The people living (UST)

Paul uses a question for emphasis. You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: “But, I say the Jews certainly have heard the message about Christ” (See: Rhetorical Question and Direct and Indirect Quotations)

Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world (ULT) to those people...all over the world have seen the creation, and what it proves about who God is—even the people living in the most remote places in the world have understood this (UST)

Both of these statements mean basically the same thing and Paul uses them for emphasis. The word “their” refers to the sun, moon, and stars. Here they are described as human messengers that tell people about God. This refers to how their existence shows God’s power and glory. You can make explicit that Paul is quoting Scripture here. Alternate translation: “As the Scriptures record, ‘The sun, moon, and the stars are proof of God’s power and glory, and everyone in the world sees them and knows the truth about God.’” (See: Parallelism and Personification and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- world
- sound
- earth

Translation Words - UST

- world have understood this
- have seen the creation
- world
Romans 10:19

Moreover, I say, “Did Israel not know (ULT)
Furthermore, it is true that the Israelites really did hear this message (UST)

Paul uses a question for emphasis. The word “Israel” is a metonym for the people who lived in the nation of Israel. Alternate translation: “Again I tell you the people of Israel did know the message” (See: Rhetorical Question and Metonymy)

First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy…I will stir you up to anger (ULT)
They understood it, too, but they refused to believe it. Remember that Moses was the first one to warn the people like this. He told them that God said, “You think that the non-Jewish nations are not real nations at all. But some of them will believe in me, and I will bless them. Then you will envy them and…be angry at them…you (UST)

This means that Moses wrote down what God said. “I” refers to God, and “you” refers to the Israelites. Alternate translation: “First Moses says that God will provoke you…God will stir you up” (See: Forms of You and Direct and Indirect Quotations)

Did Israel not…by what is…a nation (ULT)
it is true that the Israelites really did hear this message…people who…do not think understand me (UST)

“by those you do not consider to be a real nation” or “by people who do not belong to any nation”

by what is…a nation without understanding (ULT) people who…do not think understand me (UST)

Here “without understanding” means that the people do not know God. Alternate translation: “By a nation with people who do not know me or my commands” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) you…I will stir…up to anger (ULT)

you…be angry at them (UST)

“I will make you angry” or “I will cause you to become angry”

you (ULT)
you (UST)

This refers to the nation of Israel. (See: Forms of You)

Translation Words - ULT

• without understanding
Did Israel not
Moses
a nation will provoke...to jealousy
know

Translation Words - UST

- people who...do not think understand me
- it is true that the Israelites really did hear this message
- They understood it, too, but they refused to believe it. Remember that Moses
- people who...do not think understand me
- people who...do not think understand me (2)
- will envy them and
- it is true that the Israelites really did hear this message
Romans 10:20

General Information:

Here the words “I,” “me,” and “my” refer to God.

Then Isaiah was very bold when he says (ULT)
Remember also that God said very boldly through Isaiah (UST)

This means the prophet Isaiah wrote what God had said.

I was found by those who did not seek me (ULT)
The non-Jews who did not try to know me will surely find me (UST)

Prophets often speak of things in the future as if they have already happened. This emphasizes that the prophecy will certainly come true. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Even though the Gentile people will not look for me, they will find me” (See: Active or Passive)

I appeared (ULT)
I will surely reveal what I am like (UST)

“I made myself known”

he says (ULT)
God said (UST)

“He” refers to God, who is speaking through Isaiah.

Translation Words - ULT

• Isaiah
• was very bold
• seek

Translation Words - UST

• through Isaiah
• very boldly
• who did...try to know
Romans 10:21

All the day long (ULT)
For a long time (UST)

This phrase is used to emphasize God's continual effort. “continually” to...I reached out my hands...a disobedient and stubborn people (ULT)

God also speaks about...I have held out my arms...the people who disobeyed and rebelled against me, in order to invite them to return to me (UST)

“I tried to welcome you and to help you, but you refused my help and continued to disobey”

Translation Words - ULT

• Israel
• hands
• a...people
• disobedient
• day

Translation Words - UST

• Israelites
• arms
• the people
• who disobeyed
• For a long time

ULT
21 But to Israel he says, “All the day long I reached out my hands to a disobedient and stubborn people.”

UST
21 But God also speaks about the Israelites. He says, “For a long time I have held out my arms to the people who disobeyed and rebelled against me, in order to invite them to return to me.”
Romans 11

Romans 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 9-10, 26-27, and 34-35, which are words from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Grafting

Paul uses the image of “grafting” to refer to the place of the Gentiles and Jews in the plans of God. Making one plant to be permanently part of another plant is called “grafting.” Paul uses the picture of God grafting the Gentiles as a wild branch into his saving plans. But God has not forgotten about the Jews, who are spoken of as the natural plant. God will also save Jews who believe in Jesus.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

“Did God reject his people? May it never be”

Whether Israel (the physical descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob) has a future in the plans of God, or if they have been replaced in the plans of God by the church, is a major theological issue in Chapters 9-11. This phrase is an important part of this section of Romans. It seems to indicate that Israel remains distinct from the church. Not all scholars arrive at this conclusion. Despite their currently rejecting Jesus as their Messiah, Israel has not exhausted the grace and mercy of God. (See: Christ, Messiah and grace, gracious and mercy, merciful)
Romans 11:1

Connecting Statement:

Though Israel as a nation has rejected God, God wants them to understand salvation comes by grace without works.

I say then (ULT)
If I should ask (UST)

“I, Paul, say then”

did God reject his people (ULT)
Has God rejected his people the Jews?” The answer would be...not rejected me (UST)

Paul asks this question so that he can answer the questions of other Jews who are upset that God has included the Gentiles among his people, while the hearts of the Jewish people have been hardened. (See: Rhetorical Question)

did...reject...May it never be (ULT)
Certainly not! Remember that...not rejected me (UST)

“That is not possible!” or “Certainly not!” This expression strongly denies that this could happen. You may have a similar expression in your language that you could use here. See how you translated this in Romans 9:14.

of the tribe of Benjamin (ULT)
I belong to the tribe of Benjamin, but God has (UST)

This refers to the tribe descended from Benjamin, one of the 12 tribes into which God divided the people of Israel.

Translation Words - ULT

• his...people
• God
• an Israelite
• of Abraham
• of Benjamin
• people
• a descendant
• did...reject
• of the tribe

Translation Words - UST

• his...people the Jews...The answer would be

• of Abraham
• of Benjamin, but God has
• people the Jews...The answer would be
• I am a descendant
• Has...rejected
• I belong to the tribe
Romans 11:2

whom he foreknew (ULT)
whom he chose long ago to be people whom he would bless (UST)

“whom he knew ahead of time”

do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel (ULT)
in a special way...Remember that...Elijah mistakenly complained to God about the people of Israel, as the scriptures say (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Surely you know what the Scriptures record about when Elijah pleaded with God against Israel” (See: Rhetorical Question)

what the scripture says (ULT)

Romans 11:3

they have killed (ULT)
they have killed (UST)

“They” refers to the people of Israel.

I alone am left (ULT)
I am the only one who believes in you who remains alive (UST)

The pronoun “I” here refers to Elijah.

they are seeking my life (ULT)
now they are trying to kill me (UST)

“desiring to kill me”

Translation Words - ULT

- life
- altars
- Lord
- prophets
- they are seeking

Translation Words - UST

- to kill
- altars
- Lord
- prophets
- now they are trying
Romans 11:4

But what does God's answer say to him (ULT)
God answered him like this: “You are not the only one left who is faithful to me (UST)

Paul is using this question to bring the reader to his next point. Alternate translation: “How does God answer him?” (See: Rhetorical Question) to him (ULT)

him (UST)

The pronoun “him” refers to Elijah.

seven thousand men (ULT)
seven thousand men in Israel, men (UST)

“How does God answer him?” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT

• answer
• to Baal
• have...bent

Translation Words - UST

• God
• Baal
• worshiped

4 But what does God’s answer say to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bent the knee to Baal.”

God answered him like this: “You are not the only one left who is faithful to me. I have taken care to keep for myself seven thousand men in Israel, men who have not worshiped the false god Baal.”
Romans 11:5

a remnant (ULT)
a leftover group of us Jews who have become believers. God has chosen us (UST)

Here this means a small part of people whom God chose to receive his grace.

Translation Words - ULT

• of grace
• the choice
• a remnant
• present time

Translation Words - UST

• to become believers only because he acts kindly toward us, in ways that we do not deserve
• to become believers only because he acts kindly toward us, in ways that we do not deserve
• a leftover group of us Jews who have become believers. God has chosen us
• at this time

ULT

5 Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant because of the choice of grace.

UST

5 So, similarly, there is also at this time a leftover group of us Jews who have become believers. God has chosen us to become believers only because he acts kindly toward us, in ways that we do not deserve.
Romans 11:6

But if it is by grace (ULT)
Since it is because he acts kindly toward those whom he chooses (UST)

Paul continues to explain how God's mercy works. Alternate translation: “But since God's mercy works by grace” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• it is by grace
• grace (2)
• works

Translation Words - UST

• it is because he acts kindly toward those whom he chooses
• he would not need to act kindly toward them
• they have done good things that he has chosen them

ULT
6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works. Otherwise grace would no longer be grace. [1]

UST
6 Since it is because he acts kindly toward those whom he chooses, it is not because they have done good things that he has chosen them. If God chose people because they did good deeds, then he would not need to act kindly toward them.
What then (ULT)
Since God chose only some (UST)

“What should we conclude?” Paul asks this question to move his reader to his next point. You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: “This is what we need to remember” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Translation Words - ULT
• chosen
• Israel
• The thing that...was seeking
• were hardened

Translation Words - UST
• the Jews whom God chose
• the Jews
• what they were looking
• remained unwilling to understand what God was telling them
Romans 11:8

God has given them a spirit of dullness, eyes so that they should not see, and ears so that they should not hear (ULT)

God caused them to be stubborn. They should be able to understand the truth about the Messiah, but they cannot. They should obey God when he speaks, but they do not (UST)

This is a metaphor about the fact that the people are spiritually dull. They are not able to hear or receive spiritual truth. (See: Metaphor)

a spirit of dullness (ULT)
to be stubborn (UST)

Here this means “having the characteristics of,” such as the “spirit of wisdom.”

eyes so that they should not see (ULT)
They should be able to understand the truth about the Messiah, but they cannot (UST)

The concept of seeing with one’s eyes was considered to be equivalent to gaining understanding.

so that...not...ears...they should...hear (ULT)
but they cannot...They should obey God when he speaks...but they do not (UST)

The concept of hearing with the ears was considered to be equivalent to obedience.

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• a spirit
• It is just as
• day
• it is written

Translation Words - UST

• God
• to be stubborn
• This is exactly what

Romans 11:9

Let their table become a net and a trap (ULT) cause his enemies’ senses to be dull: “Make them stupid, like animals that fall into nets or traps! May they feel as safe as if they were at their banquets (UST)

“Table” here is a metonym that represents feasting, and “net” and “trap” are metaphors that represent punishment. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Please, God, make their feasts like a trap that catches them” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor and Active or Passive)

a stumbling block (ULT)
catch (UST)

A “stumbling block” is anything that causes a person to trip so that he falls down. Here it represents something that tempts a person to sin. Alternate translation: “something that tempts them to sin” (See: Metaphor)

a retribution...for them (ULT)
you will destroy them (UST)

“something that allows you to take revenge on them”

Translation Words - ULT

• David
• a stumbling block
• a net
• a trap

Translation Words - UST

• King David
• catch
• nets
• traps! May they feel as safe as if they were at their banquets
Romans 11:10

bend their backs continually (ULT)
May you always make them suffer because of their troubles (UST)

Here “bend their back” is a metonym for forcing slaves to carry heavy loads on their backs. This is a metaphor for making them suffer. Alternate translation: “make them suffer like people carrying heavy loads” (See: Metonymy and Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- Let...be darkened
- bend

Translation Words - UST

- May they...the danger when it comes to them
- May you always make them suffer because of their troubles
Did they stumble so as to fall (ULT)
When the Jews sinned by not believing in the Messiah, did that mean they will always be apart from God? I would reply, “No, they have” (UST)

Paul uses this question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: “Has God rejected them forever because they sinned?” (See: Rhetorical Question)

Did they stumble...May it never be (ULT)
When the Jews sinned by not believing in the Messiah, did that mean...certainly not (UST)

“That is not possible!” or “Certainly not!” This expression strongly denies that this could happen. You may have a similar expression in your language that you could use here. See how you translated this in Romans 9:14.

to provoke...to jealousy (ULT) envy the way he blesses non-Jews, so that they will ask the Messiah to save them (UST)

See how you translated this phrase in Romans 10:19.

Translation Words - ULT

- salvation
- Gentiles
- failure
- Did they stumble
- to provoke...to jealousy

Translation Words - UST

- God is saving
- non-Jews in order to cause...to
- because they sinned
- When the Jews sinned by not believing in the Messiah, did that mean
- envy the way he blesses non-Jews, so that they will ask the Messiah to save them
Romans 11:12

if...their failure is the riches of the world, and if their loss is the riches of the Gentiles (ULT)
Since that is true, think...When the Jews rejected the Messiah, the result was that God abundantly blessed the other people in the world by offering them the opportunity to believe. And when the Jews failed spiritually, the result was that God abundantly blessed the non-Jews (UST)

Both of these phrases mean basically the same thing. If you need to, you can combine them in your translation. Alternate translation: “when the Jews failed spiritually, the result was that God abundantly blessed the non-Jews” (See: Doublet) is the riches of the world (ULT)

God abundantly blessed the other people in the world by offering them the opportunity to believe (UST)

Because the Jews rejected Christ, God richly blessed the Gentiles by giving them the opportunity to receive Christ.

of the world (ULT)
the other people in the world by offering them the opportunity to believe (UST)

Here the “world” is a metonym that refers to the people who live in the world, especially the Gentiles.

Translation Words - ULT

- failure
- of the Gentiles
- of the world
- will...completion be

Translation Words - UST

- When the Jews rejected the Messiah, the result was that
- the non-Jews
- the other people in the world by offering them the opportunity to believe
- the complete number of the Jews whom God has chosen will believe in the Messiah
Romans 11:13

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

- Gentiles
- to the Gentiles
- in ministry
- I take pride
- an apostle

Translation Words - UST

- non-Jews
- to non-Jews such as you, and
- work that God appointed...to do
- I highly value
- the apostle

ULT
13 But now I am speaking to you Gentiles, and as long as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I take pride in my ministry.

UST
13 Now it is to you non-Jews that I am saying what follows. I am the one who is the apostle to non-Jews such as you, and I highly value this work that God appointed me to do.
Romans 11:14

I will provoke to jealousy (ULT)
I will make...jealous (UST)

See how you translated this phrase in Romans 10:19.

those who are of my own flesh (ULT)
my fellow Jews (UST)

This refers to “my fellow Jews.”

Perhaps I will save some of them (ULT) with the result that some of them will believe and thus be saved (UST)

God will save those who believe. Alternate translation: “Perhaps some will believe and God will save them” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• I will save
• flesh
• I will provoke to jealousy

Translation Words - UST

• be saved
• fellow Jews
• I will make...jealous
Romans 11:15

For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world (ULT)
God has rejected most of my fellow Jews because they refused to believe, with the result that he made peace between himself and other people in the world. If that is what happened after most of the Jews rejected the Messiah, think about (UST)

“For if because God rejected them, he will reconcile the rest of the world to himself”

their rejection (ULT)
God has rejected most of my fellow Jews (UST)

The pronoun “their” refers to Jewish unbelievers.

of the world (ULT)
the world. If that is what happened after most of the Jews rejected the Messiah, think about (UST)

Here “the world” is a metonym for the people who live in the world. Alternate translation: “the people in the world” (See: Metonymy)

what will their acceptance be but life from the dead (ULT)
the excellent things that will happen after they trust in him. It will be like they have risen from the realm of the dead (UST)

Paul asks this question to emphasize that when God accepts the Jews, it will be a wonderful thing. You can translate it in an active form. Alternate translation: “how will it be when God accepts them? It will be like they have come back to life from among the dead!” or “then when God accepts them, it will be like they have died and become alive again!” (See: Rhetorical Question and Active or Passive)

the dead (ULT)
the dead (UST)

These words speak of all dead people together in the underworld.

Translation Words - ULT

• life
• of the world
• means the reconciliation
• the dead
• rejection

Translation Words - UST

• they have risen
• the world. If that is what happened after most of the Jews rejected the Messiah, think about
• he made peace between himself and other people in
• the dead
• God has rejected
Romans 11:16

But if the firstfruits are holy, so is the lump of dough (ULT)
Just like the whole lump of dough will belong to God if people offer to God the bread baked from the first part of it, so the Jews will belong to God (UST)

Paul is speaking of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the Israelites' ancestors, as if they were the first grain or “firstfruits” to be harvested. He is also speaking of the Israelites who are descendants of those men as if they were a “lump of dough” that they made from the grain. Alternate translation: “If Abraham is counted as the first of what has been offered to God, all of our ancestors who followed should also be counted as God’s possession” (See: Metaphor)

if the root is holy, so are the branches (ULT)
just like the branches of a tree will belong to God if the root belongs to God, so the descendants of our great Jewish ancestors who belonged to God will also some day belong to God (UST)

Paul is speaking of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the Israelites' ancestors, as if they were the root of a tree, and the Israelites who are descendants of those men, as if they were the tree’s “branches.” (See: Metaphor)

are holy (ULT)
people offer to God (UST)

The people always dedicated to God the first crops that they harvested. Here “firstfruits” stands for the first people to believe in Christ. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- are holy
- is holy (2)
- firstfruits

Translation Words - UST

- people offer to God
- belongs to God, so the descendants of (2)
- first
Romans 11:17

and if you, a wild olive branch (ULT)
each of you non-Jews whom (UST)

The pronoun “you,” and the phrase “a wild olive branch,” refer to the Gentile people who have accepted salvation through Jesus. (See: Forms of You and Metaphor)

But if some of the branches were broken off (ULT)
God has rejected many of the Jews, like people break off dead branches of a tree (UST)

Here Paul refers to the Jews who rejected Jesus as “broken branches.”
You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “But if someone broke off some of the branches” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

were grafted in among them (ULT)
God has accepted is like a branch of a uncultivated
olive tree (UST)

Here Paul speaks of the Gentile Christians as if they were “grafted branches.” You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God attached you to the tree among the remaining branches” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive) in the rich root of the olive tree (ULT) that someone spliced into the trunk of a cultivated olive tree. God has caused you to benefit...from how he blessed our first Jewish ancestors, just as branches benefit from the sap from the root of a cultivated olive tree (UST)

Here “the rich root” is a metaphor that refers to the promises of God. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• a wild olive branch
• olive

Translation Words - UST

• non-Jews
• the root of a cultivated olive tree
Romans 11:18

do not boast over the branches (ULT)
However, you non-Jews must not despise the Jews whom God rejected (UST)

Here “the branches” is a metaphor that stands for the Jewish people. Alternate translation: “do not say you are better than the Jewish people God has rejected” (See: Metaphor)

it is not you who supports the root, but the root that supports you (ULT)
Branches do not feed a root. Instead, the root feeds the branches. Similarly, God has helped you because of what you have received from the Jews! You have given the Jews nothing that helps them (UST)

Again Paul implies that the Gentile believers are branches. God saves them only because of the covenant promises that he made to the Jews. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• boast over
• you do boast
• supports

Translation Words - UST

• However, you non-Jews must...despise
• you want to boast because of how God has saved you, remember this
• do...feed
Romans 11:19

Branches were broken off (ULT)
God rejected the Jews like people break bad branches off a tree and throw them away, and he has done this (UST)

Here “branches” refers to the Jews who rejected Jesus and whom God has now rejected. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God broke branches off” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

I might be grafted in (ULT)
he might accept us non-Jews, just like people put branches of a wild olive tree into the trunk of a good tree (UST)

Paul uses this phrase to refer to the Gentile believers whom God has accepted. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “he might attach me in” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)
Romans 11:20

they were broken off (ULT)
God rejected them (UST)

The pronouns “their” and “they” refer to the Jewish people who did not believe.

but you stand firm because of your faith (ULT)
As for you, it is only because you believe in the Messiah that you stand strong! So do (UST)

Paul speaks of the Gentile believers remaining faithful as if they were standing firm and no one could move them. Alternate translation: “but you remain because of your faith” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• fear
• unbelief
• faith
• think too highly of yourself

Translation Words - UST

• be filled with awe
• did not believe in the Messiah
• it is only because you believe in the Messiah that
• become proud

ULT
20 That is true. Because of their unbelief they were broken off, but you stand firm because of your faith. Do not think too highly of yourself, but fear.

UST
20 I would reply that this is true. However, it is because the Jews did not believe in the Messiah, God rejected them. As for you, it is only because you believe in the Messiah that you stand strong! So do not become proud, but instead be filled with awe!
Romans 11:21

For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you (ULT)
Since God did not spare those unbelieving Jews, who grew up like a tree’s natural branches that came from the root, then know, if you do not believe, he will not spare you either (UST)

Here the “natural branches” refers to the Jewish people who rejected Jesus. Alternate translation: “Since God did not spare those unbelieving Jews, who grew up like a tree’s natural branches that came from the root, then know, if you do not believe, he will not spare you either (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• God

Translation Words - UST

Romans 11:22

the kind actions and the severity of God (ULT)
God acts kindly, but he also acts severely (UST)

Paul is reminding the Gentile believers that although God may act very kindly toward them, he will not hesitate to judge and punish them.

severity came on those who fell...comes on...God's kindness...you (ULT)
He has acted severely toward the Jews who have refused to trust in the Messiah...toward...God has acted kindly...you (UST)

This can be restated to remove the abstract nouns “severity” and “kindness.” Alternate translation: “God dealt harshly with the Jews who fell...but God acts kindly toward you” (See: Abstract Nouns)

those who fell (ULT)
the Jews who have refused to trust in the Messiah (UST)

Doing what is wrong is spoken of as if it is falling down. Alternate translation: “the Jews who have done wrong” or “the Jews who have refused to trust in Christ” (See: Metaphor)

if you continue in his kindness (ULT)
if you do not keep trusting in the Messiah (UST)

This can be restated to remove the abstract noun “kindness.” Alternate translation: “if you continue doing what is right so that he continues being kind to you” (See: Abstract Nouns)

Otherwise you also will be cut off (ULT) act severely...you do not keep trusting (UST)

Paul again uses the metaphor of a branch, which God can “cut off” if he needs to. Here “cut off” is a metaphor for rejecting someone. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “Otherwise God will cut you off” or “Otherwise God will reject you” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

- of God
- God's (2)
- will be cut off
- the kind actions
- kindness
- his kindness

Translation Words - UST

Romans 11:23

if they do not continue in their unbelief (ULT)
And if...the Jews believe in the Messiah (UST)

The phrase “do not continue in their unbelief” is a double negative. You can translate this in a positive form. Alternate translation: “if the Jews start believing in Christ” (See: Double Negatives)

will be grafted in (ULT)
God will also put them back into the tree again (UST)

Paul speaks of the Jews as if they were branches that could be grafted back into a tree if they start to believe in Jesus. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God will graft them back in” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

to graft...in (ULT)
to do that (UST)

This is a common process where the end of a live branch of one tree is inserted into another tree so that the new branch will continue to grow in that tree.

they...them (ULT)
And if...to do that (UST)

All occurrences of “they” or “them” refer to the Jews.

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• able
• unbelief

Translation Words - UST

• God
• able
• the Jews believe in the Messiah
Romans 11:24

For if you were cut out of what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more will these, who are the natural, be grafted back into their own olive tree (ULT)

You non-Jews who were previously apart from God have benefited from the ways in which God blessed the Jews. That is like taking branches that someone has cut from a wild olive tree—a tree that just grew without anyone planting it—and, contrary to what people usually do, splicing them into a cultivated olive tree. So God will much more readily receive back the Jews because they belonged to him before! That will be like putting the original branches that someone cut off, back into the olive tree to which they originally belonged (UST)

Paul continues speaking of the Gentile believers and Jews as if they were branches of a tree. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For if God had cut you out of what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature had grafted you into a good olive tree, how much more will he graft these Jews, who are the natural branches, into their own olive tree?” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive) who are the natural (ULT) people...original branches...someone cut off...to...

belonged (UST)

Paul is speaking of the Jews and Gentiles as if they were branches. The “natural branches” represent the Jews, and the “grafted branches” represent the Gentile believers. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

- were cut
- a good olive tree
- olive tree

Translation Words - UST

- who were previously apart from God have benefited from the ways in which

Here Paul uses a double negative. You can translate this in a positive form. Alternate translation: “I very much want you to be aware” (See: Double Negatives)

brothers (ULT)
My non-Jewish fellow believers (UST)

Here “brothers” means fellow Christians, including both men and women.

I...want (ULT)
I certainly want you to understand (UST)

The pronoun “I” refers to Paul.

you...you will...be...your own thinking (ULT)
I certainly want you to understand...you do...think...you do...think (UST)

The pronouns “you” and “your” refer to the Gentile believers.

in order that you will not be wise in your own thinking (ULT)
so that you do not think you know everything (UST)

Paul does not want the Gentile believers to think they are wiser than the Jewish unbelievers. Alternate translation: “so that you will not think you are wiser than you are” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

a partial hardening has occurred in Israel (ULT)
Many people of Israel will continue to be stubborn (UST)

Paul speaks of “hardening” or stubbornness as if it were a hardening of physical organs in the body. Some Jews have refused to accept salvation through Jesus. Alternate translation: “many people of Israel continue to be stubborn” (See: Metaphor) of...mystery...until...completion of the Gentiles come in (ULT) secret truth...until all the non-Jews whom God has chosen have believed in Jesus (UST)

The word “until” here implies that some Jews will believe after God has finished bringing the Gentiles into the church.

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 11:28

As far as the gospel is concerned (ULT)
the good news about the Messiah and now God treats them as (UST)

You can make explicit why Paul mentions the gospel. Alternate translation: “Because the Jews rejected the gospel” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

they are enemies for your sake (ULT)
The Jews rejected...his enemies. But that has helped you non-Jews (UST)

You can make explicit whose enemies they are, and how this was for the Gentiles' sake. Alternate translation: “they are God's enemies for your sake” or “God has treated them as enemies in order that you also might hear the gospel” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

as far as...is concerned...election (ULT)
But because...they are the people whom God chose (UST)

You can make explicit why Paul mentions election. Alternate translation: “because God has elected the Jews” or “because God has chosen the Jews” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

they are beloved because of their forefathers (ULT)
God still loves them because of what he promised to do for their ancestors (UST)

You can make explicit who loves the Jews and why Paul mentions their forefathers. You can also translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God still loves them because of what he promised to do for their ancestors” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

Romans 11:29

For the gifts and the call of God are unchangeable (ULT)
He still loves them, because he never changed his mind about what he has promised to give them, and about how he has called them to be his own people (UST)

Paul speaks of the spiritual and material blessings that God promised to give his people as if they were gifts. The call of God refers to the fact that God called the Jews to be his people. Alternate translation: “For God never changed his mind about what he has promised to give them, and about how he has called them to be his people” (See: Metaphor and Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Romans 12

Romans 12 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with the words of verse 20, which are from the Old Testament.

Many scholars believe Paul uses the word “therefore” in Romans 12:1 to refer back to all of Chapters 1-11. Having carefully explained the Christian gospel, Paul now explains how Christians should live in light of these great truths. Chapters 12-16 focus on living out one’s Christian faith. Paul uses many different commands in these chapters to give these practical instructions. (See: faith)

Special concepts in this chapter

Christian living

Under the law of Moses, people were required to offer temple sacrifices of animals or grain. Now Christians are required to live their lives as a type of sacrifice to God. Physical sacrifices are no longer required. (See: law of Moses, God’s law, law of Yahweh, the law)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Body of Christ

The body of Christ is an important metaphor or image used in Scripture to refer to the church. Each church member plays a unique and important function. Christians need each other. (See: body and Metaphor)
Romans 12:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul tells what the life of a believer should be and how believers should serve.

I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God (ULT)

My fellow believers, since God has acted mercifully toward you in so many ways, I appeal to all of you that (UST)

Here “brothers” refers to fellow believers, both male and female. Alternate translation: “Fellow believers, because of the great mercy that God has given you I very much want you” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) to present your bodies a living sacrifice (ULT)

you present yourselves like a sacrifice that is alive, a sacrifice that...give to (UST)

Here Paul uses the word “bodies” to refer to the whole person. Paul is comparing a believer in Christ who completely obeys God to the animals that the Jews killed and then offered to God. Alternate translation: “to offer yourselves completely to God while you are alive as if you were a dead sacrifice on a temple altar” (See: Synecdoche and Metaphor)

holy, acceptable to God (ULT)

God alone and that pleases him...right (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “a sacrifice that you give to God alone and that pleases him” or 2) “acceptable to God because it is morally pure” (See: Doublet)

your...This is...reasonable service (ULT) yourselves...This is the only...way to worship him (UST)

“This is the right way to worship God”

Romans 12:2

Do not...be conformed to this world (ULT)
Do...not...let unbelievers guide you in how you behave (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “Do not behave as the world behaves” or 2) “Do not think the way the world does.” (See: Metaphor)

Do not...be conformed to this world (ULT)
Do...not...let unbelievers guide you in how you behave (UST)

Possible meanings are 1) “Do not let the world tell you what to do and think” or 2) “Do not allow yourself to act and do what the world does.” (See: Active or Passive)

to this world (ULT)
Do...let unbelievers guide you in how you behave (UST)

This refers to unbelievers who live in the world. (See: Metonymy)

but be transformed by the renewal of your mind (ULT)
Instead, let God change your way of thinking and make it new (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “but let God change the way you think and behave” (See: Active or Passive)

- Do...let unbelievers guide you in how you behave
Romans 12:3

because of the grace that was given to me (ULT)
God has kindly appointed me to be his apostle, which I did not deserve (UST)

Here “grace” refers to God's choosing Paul to be an apostle and leader of the church. You can make this explicit in your translation. You can also translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “because God freely chose me to be an apostle” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive) that everyone who is among you should not think more highly of themselves than they ought to think (ULT) to every one of you: Do not think you are better than you really are (UST)

“that no one among you should think they are better than other people” to think. Instead...in a wise way (ULT) than you really are...Instead...in a sensible way (UST)

“But you should be wise in how you think about yourselves”

just as God has given out to each one a certain amount of faith (ULT)
a way that is the same as the way in which God has allowed you to trust in him (UST)

Paul implies here that believers have different abilities that correspond to their faith in God. Alternate translation: “since God has given each of you different abilities because of your trust in him” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• grace
• God...out
• of faith

Romans 12:4

For (ULT)
Although a person has (UST)

Paul uses this word to show that he will now explain why some Christians should not think they are better than others.

we have many members in one body (ULT)
one body, it consists of many parts. All of the parts are necessary for the body (UST)

Paul refers to all the believers in Christ as if they were different parts of the human body. He does this to illustrate that although believers may serve Christ in different ways, each person belongs to Christ and serves in an important way. (See: Metaphor)

members (ULT)
it consists of...parts. All of the parts are necessary for the body (UST)

These are such things as eyes, stomachs, and hands.

ULT

5 in the same way, we who are many are one body in Christ, and are individually members of each other.

UST

5 Similarly, we, although we are many, are united into one group because we are joined to the Messiah, and we belong to one another. So no one should act as though he is more important than the others!
Romans 12:6

But we have different gifts according to the grace that was given to us (ULT)
Instead, since each one of us can do different things because God makes us different from each other, we should do them eagerly and cheerfully (UST)

Paul speaks of believers' different abilities as being free gifts from God. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “God has freely given each of us the ability to do different things for him” (See: Metaphor)

according to the...proportion of his faith (ULT)
God makes us different from each other, we should do them eagerly and cheerfully...in a way that fits our...trust in God (UST)

Romans 13

Romans 13 General Notes

Structure and formatting

In the first part of this chapter, Paul teaches Christians to obey rulers who govern them. At that time, ungodly Roman rulers governed the land. (See: godly, godliness, ungodly, godless, ungodliness, godlessness)

Special concepts in this chapter

Ungodly rulers

When Paul teaches about obeying rulers, some readers will find this difficult to understand, especially in places where rulers persecute the church. Christians must obey their rulers as well as obey God, unless the rulers do not allow Christians to do something God explicitly commands them to do. There are times when a believer must submit to these rulers and suffer at their hands. Christians understand that this world is temporary and they will ultimately be with God forever. (See: eternity, everlasting, eternal, forever)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Flesh

This is a complex issue. “Flesh” is possibly a metaphor for our sinful nature. Paul is not teaching that our physical bodies are sinful. Paul appears to be teaching that as long as Christians are alive (“in the flesh”), we will continue to sin. But our new nature will be fighting against our old nature. (See: flesh and sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)
Romans 13:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul tells believers how to live under their rulers.

every soul...Let...be obedient (ULT)
Every believer...must obey (UST)

Here “soul” is a synecdoche for the whole person. “Every Christian should obey” or “Everyone should obey” (See: Synecdoche)

Romans 13:3

For rulers (ULT)
I say this, because (UST)

Paul uses this word to begin his explanation of Romans 13:2 and to tell about what will result if the government condemns a person.

For rulers...For rulers...are not a terror (ULT)
I say this, because...rulers do not cause...to be afraid (UST)

Rulers do not make good people afraid.

to good deeds...to good deeds...to evil deeds (ULT) people who do good deeds...people who do good deeds...Instead, they cause people who do evil to be afraid (UST)

People are identified with their “good deeds” or “evil deeds.”

Now do you desire to be unafraid of the one in authority (ULT)
Instead, they cause people who do evil to be afraid (UST)

Paul uses this question to get people to think about what they need to do in order not to be afraid of rulers. Alternate translation: “Let me tell you how you can be unafraid of the ruler.” (See: Rhetorical Question)

you will receive his approval (ULT)
they will praise you instead of punishing you (UST)

The government will say good things about people who do what is good.

Translation Words - ULT

Romans 13:5

not only because of the wrath, but also because of conscience

“not only so the government will not punish you, but also so you will have a clear conscience before God”

Translation Words - ULT

- conscience
- wrath
- you...obey

Translation Words - UST

- you know within yourselves that you should be subject to them
- they will punish you if you disobey them
- to obey the officials

ULT

5 Therefore you must obey, not only because of the wrath, but also because of conscience.

UST

5 So, it is necessary for you to obey the officials, not only because they will punish you if you disobey them, but also because you know within yourselves that you should be subject to them!
Romans 13:6

because of this (ULT)
It is for this reason that (UST)

“Because the government punishes evildoers”

Pay to everyone (ULT)
Give to all the officials (UST)

Paul is addressing the believers here, so this is plural. (See: Forms of You)

Tax to whom tax is due, toll to whom toll is due; fear to whom fear is due, honor to whom honor is due (ULT)
Pay taxes to those who require that you pay taxes. Pay duties on goods to those who require that you pay those duties. Respect those whom you ought to respect. Honor those whom you ought to honor (UST)

The word “Pay” is understood from the previous sentence. Alternate translation: “Pay tax to whom tax is due and toll to whom toll is due. Pay fear to whom fear is due and honor to him to whom honor is due” (See: Ellipsis) to whom tax is due...fear...fear is due...honor to whom honor is due (ULT) to those...Respect...you ought to respect. Honor those whom you ought to honor (UST)

Here paying fear and honor is a metaphor for fearing and honoring those who deserve to be feared and honored. Alternate translation: “Fear those who deserve to be feared, and honor those who deserved to be honored” or “Respect those whom you ought to respect, and honor those whom you ought to honor” (See: Metaphor)

toll is due (ULT)
those who require that you pay those duties (UST)

This is a kind of tax.

- neighbor

ULT

9 Indeed, the commandments: “Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not covet,” and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

UST

9 There are many things that God has commanded in his law, such as do not commit adultery, do not murder anyone, do not steal, and do not desire anything that belongs to someone else. But we can sum up the meaning of all the law in this sentence: “Love your neighbor as you love yourself.”
Romans 13:10

Love does not cause harm to one's neighbor (ULT)
If you love everyone around you, you will harm no one (UST)

This phrase portrays love as a person who is being kind to other people. Alternate translation: “People who love their neighbors do not harm them” (See: Personification)

Translation Words - ULT

- Love
- love is (2)
- of the law
- the fulfillment
- harm
- cause
- to one's neighbor

Translation Words - UST

- If you love everyone around you
- whoever loves others (2)
- all that God's law requires
- fulfills
- you will harm no one
- you will harm no one
- If you love everyone around you

ULT

10 Love does not cause harm to one's neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

UST

10 If you love everyone around you, you will harm no one. So whoever loves others fulfills all that God's law requires.
Romans 13:11

because we know the time, that it is already time for us to awake out of sleep (ULT)
Do what I have just told you, especially since you know...how important is the time in which we are now living. You know that it is time for you to be fully alert and active, like people who have awakened from sleeping (UST)

Paul speaks of the need for the Roman believers to change their behavior as if they needed to wake up from being asleep. (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• salvation
• we first believed
• time
• it is already time
• sleep
• to awake
• it is...time
• because we know

Translation Words - UST

• the Messiah will finally deliver us from this world's sin and sorrow
• we first believed in the Messiah
• how important is the time in which we are now living
• it is time
• to be fully alert and active, like people who have awakened from sleeping
• to be fully alert and active, like people who have awakened from sleeping

• Do what I have just told you, especially since you know
Romans 13:12

The night has advanced (ULT)
Our time to live in this world is almost ended, like a night that (UST)

Paul speaks of the time when people do evil deeds as night. Alternate translation: “The sinful time is almost over” or “It is as though the night is almost finished” (See: Metaphor)

the...day has come near (ULT) is nearly ended. The...time when the Messiah will return is near (UST)

Paul speaks of the time when people do what is right as the day. Alternate translation: “the time of righteousness will begin soon” or “It is as though it will soon be day” (See: Metaphor)

Let us therefore put aside the works of darkness (ULT)
So we must stop doing the wicked deeds that people like to do at night, and (UST)

Paul speaks of “works of darkness” as if they are clothing that a person puts aside. Here to “put aside” means to stop doing something. Here “darkness” is a metaphor for evil. Alternate translation: “Let us therefore stop doing the evil things that people do in the dark” (See: Metaphor)

let us put on...the armor of light (ULT)
we must be doing...the things that will help us resist evil, as soldiers who put on their armor in the daytime get ready to resist their enemies (UST)

Here “light” is a metaphor for what is good and right. Paul speaks of doing what is right as if it were putting on armor to protect one’s self. Alternate translation: “let us start doing what is right. Doing this will protect us from what is evil like armor protects a solider” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• works
• of darkness
• of light
• armor
• day
• let us put on

Translation Words - UST

• the...deeds that people like to do at night, and
• wicked
• daytime

Romans 13:13

Let us walk (ULT)
We must behave (UST)

Paul includes his readers and other believers with himself. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Let us walk appropriately, as in the day (ULT)
We must behave properly, as though the time when the Messiah will return were already here. We must (UST)

Paul speaks of living as true believers as if one were walking while it is day. Alternate translation: “Let us walk in a visible way knowing that everyone can see us” (See: Metaphor) in sexual immorality or in uncontrolled lust (ULT)

We must...commit any kind of sexual immorality or wild sensual behavior (UST)

These concepts mean basically the same thing. You can combine them in your translation. Alternate translation: “sexually immoral acts” (See: Doublet)

in strife (ULT)
We must...quarrel. We must not be (UST)

This refers to plotting against and arguing with other people.

jealousy (ULT)
jealous of other people (UST)

This refers to negative feelings against another person's success or advantage over others.

Translation Words - ULT

• jealousy
• in strife
• drunkenness
• Let us walk
• as
• the day
• in sexual immorality

Translation Words - UST

• the time when the Messiah will return were already here. We must
• We must...commit any kind of sexual immorality
Romans 13:14

put on the Lord Jesus Christ (ULT)
we should be like the Lord Jesus the Messiah so that others will see what he is like (UST)

Paul speaks of accepting the moral nature of Christ as if he were our outer clothing that people can see. (See: Metaphor)

put on (ULT)
we should be like (UST)

If your language has a plural form for commands, use it here.

make no provision for the flesh (ULT)
You should stop wanting to do the things that...your old evil nature (UST)

Here the “flesh” refers to the self-directed nature of people who oppose God. This is the sinful nature of human beings. Alternate translation: “do not allow your old evil heart any opportunity at all for doing wicked things” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

- Jesus Christ
- Lord
- flesh
- Christ
- to gratify its lusts
- put on

Translation Words - UST

- Jesus the Messiah so that others will see what he is like
- Lord
- your old evil nature
- the Messiah so that others will see what he is like
- wants to do
- we should be like
Romans 14

Romans 14 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verse 11 of this chapter, which Paul quotes from the Old Testament.

Special concepts in this chapter

Weak in faith

Paul teaches that Christians can have real faith and at the same time be “weak in faith” in a given situation. This describes Christians whose faith is immature, not strong, or misunderstood. (See: faith)

Dietary restrictions

Many religions in the ancient Near East restricted what was eaten. Christians have freedom to eat what they want. But they need to use this freedom wisely, in a way that honors the Lord and does not cause others to sin. (See: sin, sinful, sinner, sinning)

The judgment seat of God

The judgment seat of God or Christ represents a time when all people, including Christians, will be held accountable for the way they lived their lives.
Romans 14:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul encourages believers to remember that they are answerable to God.

But...anyone who is weak...in faith (ULT) who are not sure whether God will permit them to do certain things (UST)

This refers to those who felt guilty over eating and drinking certain things.

without giving judgment about arguments (ULT) do not argue with them about what they think. These questions are only personal opinions (UST)

“and do not condemn them for their opinions”

Translation Words - ULT

• giving judgment
• in faith
• receive

Translation Words - UST

• do not argue with them about what they think. These questions are only personal opinions
• who are not sure whether God will permit them to do certain things
• Accept

ULT

1 But receive anyone who is weak in faith, without giving judgment about arguments.

UST

1 Accept those who are not sure whether God will permit them to do certain things some people think are wrong. But when you accept them, do not argue with them about what they think. These questions are only personal opinions.
Romans 14:2

One person has faith to eat anything (ULT)
Some people believe that they may eat all kinds of food (UST)

Here “faith” refers to doing what a person believes God is telling him to do.

another...who is weak eats only vegetables (ULT)
Others believe that God does...not want them to eat certain things, so they believe that they may eat only vegetables (UST)

This describes a person who believes God does not want him to eat meat.

Translation Words - ULT

• has faith

Translation Words - UST

• believe
Romans 14:3

(There are no notes for this verse.)

Translation Words - ULT

• God
• may...judge
• has accepted

Translation Words - UST

• God himself
• must...condemn
• has accepted

ULT

3 May the one who eats everything not despise the one who does not; and may the one who does not eat everything not judge the other who eats everything. For God has accepted him.

UST

3 Anyone who thinks that it is all right to eat all kinds of food must not despise those who do not think that. Anyone who thinks it is not all right to eat all kinds of food must not condemn those who think differently, because God himself has accepted those people.
Romans 14:4

Who are you, who judges a servant belonging to someone else (ULT)
You are wrong when you evaluate somebody else’s servant. We are all...the...No one should judge another in this regard (UST)

Paul is using a question to scold those who are judging others. You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: “You are not God, and you are not allowed to judge one of his servants!” (See: Rhetorical Question)

you...who judges (ULT)
You are wrong when you...evaluate...the (UST)

The form of “you” here is singular. (See: Forms of You)

It is before his own master that he stands or falls (ULT)
God’s servants so God is the master of us all. He is...one who will decide whether those people have done wrong (UST)

Paul speaks of God as if he were a master who owned servants. Alternate translation: “Only the master can decide if he will accept the servant or not” (See: Metaphor)

But he will be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand (ULT)
one who will decide whether those people have done wrong...because he is able to keep them faithful to him (UST)

Paul speaks of the servant who is acceptable to God as if he were being “made to stand” instead of falling. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “But the Lord will accept him because he is able to make the servant acceptable” (See: Metaphor and Active or Passive)

Translation Words - ULT

• master
• Lord
• who judges
• a servant

Translation Words - UST

• master...He is
• he
• evaluate
• servant. We are all
Romans 14:5

One person values one day above another. Another values every day equally

“One person thinks one day is more important than all the others, but another person thinks that all days are the same”

Let each person be convinced in his own mind (ULT)
Each person should be fully convinced about such matters, thinking...for himself and not for others (UST)

You can make the full meaning explicit. You can also translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: "Let each person be sure what he is doing is to honor the Lord” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT
- values
- values (2)
- mind
- one day
- another day (2)
- day equally (3)

Translation Words - UST
- regard
- regard (2)
- for himself and not for others
- certain days
- other days (2)
- days as equally suitable for worshiping God (3)
Romans 14:6

He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord (ULT)
As for those who believe that they should worship on a certain day of the week, it is to honor the Lord that they worship on that day (UST)

Here “observes” refers to worshipping. Alternate translation: “The person who worships on a certain day does it to honor the Lord” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

he who eats (ULT)
those who think that it is all right to eat all kinds of food (UST)

The word “everything” is understood from Romans 14:3. It can be repeated here. Alternate translation: “the person who eats every kind of food” (See: Ellipsis)

for the Lord...eats (ULT)
the Lord...it is to honor...that they eat those foods (UST)

“eats to honor the Lord” or “eats that way in order to honor the Lord”

He who does not eat (ULT)
As for those who abstain from eating certain kinds of food, it is to honor...also (UST)

The word “everything” is understood from Romans 14:3. It can be repeated here. Alternate translation: “He who does not eat everything” or “The person who does not eat certain kinds of food” (See: Ellipsis)

Translation Words - ULT

- for the Lord
- for the Lord (2)
- for the Lord (3)
- to God
- to God (2)
- day

Translation Words - UST

- the Lord
- the Lord (2)
- the Lord that (3)
- God
- God for the food that they do eat. So these people are not wrong, even though they think differently (2)
- on a certain day of the week
Romans 14:7

For none of us lives for himself (ULT)
None of us should live merely to please ourselves (UST)

Here “lives for himself” means to live only to please oneself. Alternate translation: “None of us should live merely to please ourselves” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

none...of us (ULT)
None...of us (UST)

Paul is including his readers, so this is inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”) none dies for himself (ULT)

none of us should think that when we die, it affects only us (UST)

This means one's death affects other people. Alternate translation: “none of us should think that when we die, it affects only us” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- lives
- dies

Translation Words - UST

- should live
- should think that when we die
Romans 14:8

General Information:
Paul is speaking of both himself and his readers, so all instances of “we” are inclusive. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”)

Translation Words - ULT

- we live
- we live (2)
- we live (3)
- Lord
- Lord (2)
- Lord’s
- we die
- we die
- die (2)

Translation Words - UST

- we live, it is
- whom we belong to and should be trying to please, and not just ourselves. And (2)
- we live and (3)
- Lord
- Lord (2)
- Lord, for we belong to him
- we die, it is
- whom we should be trying to please
- we die (2)

ULT
8 For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Then whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.

UST
8 While we live, it is the Lord whom we belong to and should be trying to please, and not just ourselves. And when we die, it is the Lord whom we should be trying to please. So, while we live and also when we die, we should try to please the Lord, for we belong to him.
For to this purpose Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and those who are living.

For the Messiah died and became alive again in order that he might be Lord whom all people should obey, both those alive and those who are dead.
Romans 14:10

why do you judge your brother? And you, why do you despise your brother (ULT)
It is disgraceful that...say that God will punish your fellow believers who do not obey them...each one of us
(ULT)

By using these questions, Paul is demonstrating how he might need to scold individuals among his readers. Alternate translation: “it is wrong for you to judge your brother, and it is wrong for you to despise your brother!” or “stop judging and despising your brother!”
(See: Forms of You)

brother (ULT)
who do not obey them (UST)

Here this means a fellow Christian, male or female.

For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God (ULT)
For God will judge...each one of us (UST)

The “judgment seat” refers to God's authority to judge. Alternate translation: “For God will judge us all” (See: Metonymy)

Translation Words - ULT

• brother
• brother (2)
• of God
• do you judge

Translation Words - UST

• who do not obey them
• fellow believers (2)
• God
• say that God will punish
Romans 14:11

For it is written...As I (ULT)
We know this because it is written in the scriptures... (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For someone has written in the Scriptures: ‘As’” (See: Active or Passive)

As I live (ULT)
We know this because it is written in the scriptures (UST)

This phrase is used to start an oath or solemn promise. Alternate translation: “You can be certain that this is true” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information) to me...every knee will bend, and every tongue will confess to God (ULT)

Everyone will bow down before me! And everyone will praise me (UST)

Paul uses the words “knee” and “tongue” to refer to the whole person. Also, the Lord uses the word “God” to refer to himself. Alternate translation: “every person will bow and give praise to me” (See: Synecdoche and First, Second or Third Person)

Translation Words - ULT

• live
• the Lord
• to God
• will confess
• tongue
• it is written
• will bend

Translation Words - UST

• We know this because it is written in the scriptures
• We know this because it is written in the scriptures

• will praise
• We know this because it is written in the scriptures
• Everyone will bow down
Romans 14:12

will give an account of himself to God (ULT) will...have to tell God what we have done and let him decide whether or not he approves of it (UST)

“will have to explain our actions to God”

Translation Words - ULT

• to God

Translation Words - UST

• God
Romans 14:13

but instead decide this, that no one will place a stumbling block or a snare for his brother (ULT)

it is God who will judge everyone, we must...Instead, you must be determined to never cause another brother or sister to sin or to stop trusting the Messiah (UST)

Here “stumbling block” and “snare” mean basically the same thing. Alternate translation: “but instead make it your goal not to do or say anything that might cause a fellow believer to sin” (See: Doublet)

for his brother (ULT)
another brother or sister (UST)

Here this means a fellow Christian, male or female.

Translation Words - ULT

• brother
• let us...judge
• decide
• a stumbling block
• a snare

Translation Words - UST

• another brother or sister
• saying that God should punish
• you must be determined
• to sin
• or to stop trusting the Messiah
Romans 14:14

I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus (ULT)
Because I am joined to the Lord Jesus, I am absolutely certain (UST)

Here the words “know” and “am persuaded” mean basically the same thing; Paul uses them to emphasize his certainty. Alternate translation: “I am certain because of my relationship with the Lord Jesus” (See: Doublet)

nothing is unclean by itself (ULT)
nothing that by itself is wrong to eat (UST)

You can translate this in a positive form. Alternate translation: “everything by itself is clean” (See: Double Negatives)

by itself (ULT)
by itself (UST)

“by its nature” or “because of what it is”

Only for him who considers anything to be unclean, for him it is unclean (ULT)
But if people think it is wrong to eat something, then for them it is wrong to eat it. So you should not encourage them to eat it (UST)

Paul implies here that a person should stay away from anything that he thinks is unclean. You can make this explicit in your translation. Alternate translation: “But if a person thinks something is unclean, then for that person it is unclean and he should stay away from it” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• Jesus
• the Lord
• in the Lord Jesus
• am persuaded
• I know

Translation Words - UST

• Jesus

• Because I am joined to the Lord Jesus
• I am absolutely certain
• I am absolutely certain
Romans 14:15

if...because of food your brother is hurt (ULT)
If...you eat food that a fellow believer thinks...you might cause him to stop obeying God (UST)

“If you hurt your fellow believer's faith over the matter of food.” Here the word “your” refers to those who are strong in faith and “brother” refers to those who are weak in faith.

brother (ULT)
a fellow believer (UST)

Here this means a fellow Christian, male or female.

you are no longer walking in love (ULT)
would no longer be loving him (UST)

Paul speaks of the behavior of believers as if it were a walk. Alternate translation: “then you are no longer showing love” (See: Metaphor)

Translation Words - ULT

• destroy
• love
• brother
• Christ
• died
• you are...walking

Translation Words - UST

• Do...cause...to stop trusting in the Messiah. After all
• would...be loving him
• a fellow believer
• the Messiah
• died
• would...be loving him

ULT
15 For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy with your food one for whom Christ died.

UST
15 If you eat food that a fellow believer thinks is wrong to eat, you might cause him to stop obeying God. You would no longer be loving him. Do not cause any fellow believer to stop trusting in the Messiah. After all, the Messiah died for him, too!
So do not allow what you consider to be good to be spoken of as evil (ULT)
Similarly, do not do something that fellow believers would call bad, even if you think it is good (UST)

“If someone thinks that something is evil, do not do it, even if you consider it to be good”

Translation Words - ULT
- what...consider to be good
- allow...to be spoken of as evil

Translation Words - UST
- think it is good
- Similarly, do...do something that fellow believers would call bad
Romans 14:17

For the kingdom of God is not about food and drink, but about righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit (ULT)

When God rules how we live, we do not worry about what we eat and drink. Instead, we think about how what is the right way to obey him, have peace with each other, and rejoice because of the Holy Spirit (UST)

Paul argues that God set up his kingdom so he could give us a right relationship with himself, and to provide peace and joy. Alternate translation: “For God did not set up his kingdom so that he could rule over what we eat and drink. He set up his kingdom so we could have a right relationship with him, and so he could give us peace and joy” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

ULT
18 For the one who serves Christ in this way is acceptable to God and approved by people.

UST
18 Those who serve the Messiah by acting in such ways please God, and others will also respect them.
Romans 14:19

let us pursue the things of peace and the things that build up one another (ULT)
we should always eagerly try to live in a way that will cause peace among fellow Christians, and we should try to do what will help each other to trust and obey the Messiah (UST)

Here “build up one another” refers to helping each other grow in faith. Alternate translation: “let us seek to live peacefully together and help one another grow stronger in faith” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• of peace

Translation Words - UST

• peace among fellow Christians
Romans 14:20

Do not destroy the work of God because of food (ULT)
Do not destroy how God has helped any believer just because you want to eat a certain kind of food. It is true that (ULT)

You can make explicit the full meaning of this sentence. Alternate translation: “Do not undo what God has done for a fellow believer just because you want to eat a certain kind of food” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

but it is evil for that person who eats and causes him to stumble (ULT)
But if you eat something that another believer thinks is wrong, then you are encouraging him to do what he thinks is wrong (UST)

Here anything that “causes him to stumble” means it causes a weaker brother to do something that is against his conscience. Alternate translation: “but it would be a sin for someone to eat food, which another brother thinks is wrong to eat, if by eating this causes the weaker brother to do something that is against his conscience” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

ULT
22 The faith you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

UST
22 Let God tell you what things are right for you to do, but do not try to force others to accept what you believe. And you will please God if you have no doubts about your convictions about what is right and wrong to do.
Romans 14:23

But he who doubts is condemned if he eats (ULT)
But some believers fear that God will not be pleased if they eat certain kinds of food. And indeed, he will say...they have done wrong, if they do (UST)

You can translate this in an active form.Alternate translation: “God will say that the person does wrong if he is not sure if it is right to eat a certain food, but he eats it anyway” or “The person who is not sure if it is right to eat a certain food, but then eats it anyway will have a troubled conscience” (See: Active or Passive)

because it is not from faith (ULT) that...not do what they believe to be right (UST)

Anything that is “not from faith” is something that God does not want you to do. You can make explicit the full meaning here. Alternate translation: “God will say that he is wrong because he is eating something he believes God does not want him to eat” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

And whatever is not from faith is sin (ULT)
If we do anything without being certain that God approves of it, we are sinning (UST)

Anything that is “not from faith” is something that God does not want you to do. You can make explicit the full meaning here. Alternate translation: “you are sinning if you do something that you do not believe God wants you to do” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Romans 15 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set each line of poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with verses 9-11 and 21 of this chapter, which are words from the Old Testament.

Some translations set prose quotations from the Old Testament farther to the right on the page to make it easier to read. The ULT does this with the quoted words in verse 12.

In Romans 15:14, Paul begins to speak more personally. He shifts from teaching to telling of his personal plans.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Strong/Weak

These terms are used to refer to people who are mature and immature in their faith. Paul teaches that those who are strong in faith need to help those who are weak in faith. (See: faith)
Romans 15:1

Connecting Statement:

Paul concludes this section about believers’ living for others with reminding them how Christ lived.

Now (ULT) should (UST)

Translate this using the words your language uses to introduce a new idea into an argument.

we who are strong (ULT) Those of us believers who are sure that God allows us to do many more things than other believers think he allows them to do—we (UST)

Here “strong” refers to the people who are strong in their faith. They believe that God allows them to eat any kind of food. Alternate translation: “we who are strong in faith” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

we (ULT) than other believers think he allows them to do—we (UST)

This refers to Paul, his readers, and other believers. (See: Inclusive and Exclusive “We”) of the weak (ULT) be patient with them and allow them to inconvenience us (UST)

Here “the weak” refers to the people who are weak in their faith. They believe that God does not allow them to eat some kinds of food. Alternate translation: “those who are weak in faith” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

• who are strong
• to bear

Translation Words - UST

• who are sure that God allows us to do many more things
• be patient with them and allow them to inconvenience us
Romans 15:2

ULT

in order to build him up (ULT) things that will encourage them to trust in the Messiah (UST)

By this, Paul means to strengthen someone's faith. Alternate translation: “to strengthen his faith” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)

Translation Words - ULT

- is good
- neighbor

Translation Words - UST

- will help them
- fellow believers

ULT

2 Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, in order to build him up.

UST

2 Each of us should do the things that please our fellow believers, and things that will help them, things that will encourage them to trust in the Messiah.
Romans 15:3

it was just as it is written (ULT)
he tried to please God even when others insulted him.
That was as the scriptures say (UST)

Here Paul refers to a scripture where Christ (the Messiah) speaks to God. You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “the Messiah said to God in the scriptures” (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information and Active or Passive)

The insults of those who insulted you fell on me (ULT)
When people insulted you, it was as though they were also insulting me (UST)

The insults of those who insulted God fell on Christ.

• he tried to please God even when others insulted him. That was as
• the scriptures say

ULT
3 For even Christ did not please himself. Instead, it was just as it is written, “The insults of those who insulted you fell on me.”

UST
3 We should please our fellow believers, since the Messiah has set us an example. He did not do things to please himself. On the contrary, he tried to please God even when others insulted him. That was as the scriptures say: “When people insulted you, it was as though they were also insulting me.”
Romans 15:4

For whatever was previously written was written for our instruction (ULT)
Remember that all the things written in the scriptures are there to teach us (UST)

You can translate this in an active form. Alternate translation: “For in times past, the prophets wrote everything in the Scriptures to teach us” (See: Active or Passive)

Romans 16 General Notes

Structure and formatting

In this chapter, Paul gives personal greetings to some of the Christians in Rome. It was common to end a letter in the ancient Near East with this type of personal greeting.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Because of the personal nature of this chapter, much of the context is unknown. This will make translation more difficult. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
Romans 16:1

Connecting Statement:
Paul then greets many of the believers in Rome by name.

Abstract Nouns

Abstract nouns are nouns that refer to attitudes, qualities, events, or situations. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as happiness, weight, unity, friendship, health, and reason. This is a translation issue because some languages may express a certain idea with an abstract noun, while others would need a different way to express it.

Description

Remember that nouns are words that refer to a person, place, thing, or idea. Abstract Nouns are the nouns that refer to ideas. These can be attitudes, qualities, events, situations, or even relationships among these ideas. These are things that cannot be seen or touched in a physical sense, such as joy, peace, creation, goodness, contentment, justice, truth, freedom, vengeance, slowness, length, weight, and many, many more.

Some languages, such as Biblical Greek and English, use abstract nouns a lot. It is a way of giving names to actions or qualities so that people who speak these languages can talk about them as though they were things. For example, in languages that use abstract nouns, people can say, “I believe in the forgiveness of sin.” But some languages do not use abstract nouns very much. In these languages, they may not have the two abstract nouns “forgiveness” and “sin,” but they would express the same meaning in other ways. They would say, for example, “I believe that God is willing to forgive people after they have sinned,” using verb phrases instead of nouns for those ideas.

Reason this is a translation issue

The Bible that you translate from may use abstract nouns to express certain ideas. Your language might not use abstract nouns for some of those ideas; instead, it might use phrases to express those ideas. Those phrases will use other kinds of words such as adjectives, verbs, or adverbs to express the meaning of the abstract noun. For example, “What is its weight?” could be expressed as “How much does it weigh?” or “How heavy is it?”

Examples from the Bible

...from childhood you have known the sacred writings... (2 Timothy 3:15 ULT)

The abstract noun “childhood” refers to when someone is a child.

But godliness with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULT)

The abstract nouns “godliness” and “contentment” refer to being godly and content. The abstract noun “gain” refers to something that benefits or helps someone.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)

The abstract noun “salvation” here refers to being saved.

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be (2 Peter 3:9 ULT)

The abstract noun “slowness” refers how slowly something is done.

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5 ULT)

The abstract noun “purposes” refers to the things that people want to do and the reasons they want to do them.
Translation Strategies

If an abstract noun would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Reword the sentence with a phrase that expresses the meaning of the abstract noun. Instead of a noun, the new phrase will use a verb, an adverb, or an adjective to express the idea of the abstract noun.

...from childhood
you have known the sacred writings... (2 Timothy 3:15 ULT)
Ever since you were a child you have known the sacred writings.

But godliness
with contentment is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6 ULT)
But being godly and content is very beneficial.
But we benefit greatly when we are godly and content.
But we benefit greatly when we honor and obey God and when we are happy with what we have.

Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. (Luke 19:9 ULT)
Today the people in this house have been saved...
Today God has saved the people in this house...

The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be. (2 Peter 3:9 ULT)
The Lord does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider moving slowly to be.

He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. (1 Corinthians 4:5 ULT)
He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the things that people want to do and the reasons that they want to do them.

(Go back to: Introduction to Romans; Romans 1:18; 3:28; 4:15; 8:35; 11:22; 16:26)
Active or Passive

Some languages use both active and passive sentences. In active sentences, the subject does the action. In passive sentences, the subject is the one that receives the action. Here are some examples with their subjects underlined:

- ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.
- PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010.

Translators whose languages do not use passive sentences will need to know how they can translate passive sentences that they find in the Bible. Other translators will need to decide when to use a passive sentence and when to use the active form.

Description

Some languages have both active and passive forms of sentences.

- In the ACTIVE form, the subject does the action and is always mentioned.
- In the PASSIVE form, the action is done to the subject, and the one who does the action is not always mentioned.

In the examples of active and passive sentences below, we have underlined the subject.

- ACTIVE: My father built the house in 2010.
- PASSIVE: The house was built by my father in 2010.
- PASSIVE: The house was built in 2010. (This does not tell who did the action.)

Reasons this is a translation issue

All languages use active forms. Some languages use passive forms, and some do not. Some languages use passive forms only for certain purposes, and the passive form is not used for the same purposes in all of the languages that use it.

Purposes for the passive

- The speaker is talking about the person or thing the action was done to, not about the person who did the action.
- The speaker does not want to tell who did the action.
- The speaker does not know who did the action.

Translation Principles Regarding the Passive

- Translators whose language does not use passive forms will need to find another way to express the idea.
- Translators whose language has passive forms will need to understand why the passive is used in a particular sentence in the Bible and decide whether or not to use a passive form for that purpose in his translation of the sentence.

Examples from the Bible

And their shooters shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hittite was killed, too. (2 Samuel 11:24 ULT)
This means that the enemy's shooters shot and killed some of the king's servants, including Uriah. The point is what happened to the king's servants and Uriah, not who shot them. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on the king's servants and Uriah.

In the morning when the men of the town got up, the altar of Baal was broken down... (Judges 6:28 ULT)

The men of the town saw what had happened to the altar of Baal, but they did not know who broke it down. The purpose of the passive form here is to communicate this event from the perspective of the men of the town.

It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea (Luke 17:2 ULT)

This describes a situation in which a person ends up in the sea with a millstone around his neck. The purpose of the passive form here is to keep the focus on what happens to this person. Who does these things to the person is not important.

Translation Strategies

If your language would use a passive form for the same purpose as in the passage that you are translating, then use a passive form. If you decide that it is better to translate without a passive form, here are some strategies that you might consider.

1. Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who or what did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.
2. Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who or what did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like “they” or “people” or “someone.”
3. Use a different verb.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the same verb in an active sentence and tell who did the action. If you do this, try to keep the focus on the person receiving the action.

A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULT)

The king's servants gave Jeremiah a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

(2) Use the same verb in an active sentence, and do not tell who did the action. Instead, use a generic expression like “they” or “people” or “someone.”

It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. (Luke 17:2 ULT)

It would be better for him if they were to put a millstone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

It would be better for him if someone were to put a heavy stone around his neck and throw him into the sea.

(3) Use a different verb in an active sentence.

A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers. (Jeremiah 37:21 ULT)

He received a loaf of bread every day from the street of the bakers.

Apostrophe

Definition

An apostrophe is a figure of speech in which a speaker turns his attention away from his listeners and speaks to someone or something that he knows cannot hear him.

Description

He does this to tell his listeners his message or feelings about that person or thing in a very strong way.

Reason this is a translation issue

Many languages do not use apostrophe, and readers could be confused by it. They may wonder who the speaker is talking to, or think that the speaker is crazy to talk to things or people who cannot hear.

Examples from the Bible

Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you (2 Samuel 1:21 ULT)

King Saul was killed on Mount Gilboa, and David sang a sad song about it. By telling these mountains that he wanted them to have no dew or rain, he showed how sad he was.

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to you. (Luke 13:34 ULT)

Jesus was expressing his feelings for the people of Jerusalem in front of his disciples and a group of Pharisees. By speaking directly to Jerusalem as though its people could hear him, Jesus showed how deeply he cared about them.

He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: “Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, ‘See,… on you they will burn human bones.'” (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)

The man of God spoke as if the altar could hear him, but he really wanted the king, who was standing there, to hear him.

Translation Strategies

If apostrophe would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. But if this way of speaking would be confusing to your people, let the speaker continue speaking to the people that are listening to him as he tells them his message or feelings about the people or thing that cannot hear him. See the example below.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh: “Altar, altar! This is what Yahweh says, ‘See,… on you they will burn human bones.'” (1 Kings 13:2 ULT)

He said this about the altar: “This is what Yahweh says about this altar. ‘See,…they will burn people’s bones on it.'”

Mountains of Gilboa

, let there not be dew or rain on you (2 Samuel 1:21 ULT)

As for these mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on them

Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information

- Assumed knowledge is whatever a speaker assumes his audience knows before he speaks and gives them some kind of information. The speaker does not give the audience this information because he believes that they already know it.

- When the speaker does give the audience information, he can do so in two ways:
  - Explicit information is what the speaker states directly.
  - Implicit information is what the speaker does not state directly because he expects his audience to be able to learn it from what he says.

Description

When someone speaks or writes, he has something specific that he wants people to know or do or think about. He normally states this directly. This is explicit information.

The speaker assumes that his audience already knows certain things that they will need to think about in order to understand this information. Normally he does not tell people these things, because they already know them. This is called assumed knowledge.

The speaker does not always directly state everything that he expects his audience to learn from what he says. Implicit information is information that he expects people to learn from what he says even though he does not state it directly.

Often, the audience understands this implicit information by combining what they already know (assumed knowledge) with the explicit information that the speaker tells them directly.

Reasons this is a translation issue

All three kinds of information are part of the speaker's message. If one of these kinds of information is missing, then the audience will not understand the message. Because the target translation is in a language that is very different than the biblical languages and is made for an audience that lives in a very different time and place than the people in the Bible, many times the assumed knowledge or the implicit information is missing from the message. In other words, modern readers do not know everything that the original speakers and hearers in the Bible knew. When these things are important for understanding the message, it is helpful if you include this information in the text or in a footnote.

Examples from the Bible

> Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:20 ULT)

Jesus did not say what foxes and birds use holes and nests for, because he assumed that the scribe would have known that foxes sleep in holes in the ground and birds sleep in their nests. This is assumed knowledge.

Jesus did not directly say here “I am the Son of Man” but, if the scribe did not already know it, then that fact would be implicit information that he could learn because Jesus referred to himself that way. Also, Jesus did not state explicitly that he travelled a lot and did not have a house that he slept in every night. That is implicit information that the scribe could learn when Jesus said that he had nowhere to lay his head.

> Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you. (Matthew 11:21, 22 ULT)

Jesus assumed that the people he was speaking to knew that Tyre and Sidon were very wicked, and that the day of judgment is a time when God will judge every person. Jesus also knew that the people he was talking to believed that they were good and did not need to repent. Jesus did not need to tell them these things. This is all assumed knowledge.

An important piece of implicit information here is that the people he was speaking to would be judged more severely than the people of Tyre and Sidon would be judged because they did not repent.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat. (Matthew 15:2 ULT)

One of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating. People thought that in order to be righteous, they had to follow all the traditions of the elders. This was assumed knowledge that the Pharisees who were speaking to Jesus expected him to know. By saying this, they were accusing his disciples of not following the traditions, and thus not being righteous. This is implicit information that they wanted him to understand from what they said.

Translation Strategies

If readers have enough assumed knowledge to be able to understand the message, along with any important implicit information that goes with the explicit information, then it is good to leave that knowledge unstated and leave the implicit information implicit. If the readers do not understand the message because one of these is missing for them, then follow these strategies:

1. If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.
2. If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not have certain assumed knowledge, then provide that knowledge as explicit information.

Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:20 ULT) - The assumed knowledge was that the foxes slept in their holes and birds slept in their nests.

Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes to live in, and the birds of the sky have nests to live in, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head and sleep.”

it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT) - The assumed knowledge was that the people of Tyre and Sidon were very, very wicked. This can be stated explicitly.

...it will be more tolerable for those cities Tyre and Sidon, whose people were very wicked, at the day of judgment than for you.

or:

...it will be more tolerable for those wicked cities Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat. (Matthew 15:2 ULT) - The assumed knowledge was that one of the traditions of the elders was a ceremony in which people would wash their hands in order to be ritually clean before eating, which they must do to be righteous. It was not to remove germs from their hands to avoid sickness, as a modern reader might think.

Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not go through the ceremonial handwashing ritual of righteousness when they eat.

(2) If readers cannot understand the message because they do not know certain implicit information, then state that information clearly, but try to do it in a way that does not imply that the information was new to the original audience.

Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Matthew 8:19, 20 ULT) - The implicit information is that Jesus himself is the Son of Man. Other implicit information is that if the scribe wanted to follow Jesus, he would have to live like Jesus without a house.

Jesus said to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but I, the Son of Man, have no home to rest in. If you want to follow me, you will live as I live.”

it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you (Matthew 11:22 ULT) - The implicit information is that God would not only judge the people; he would punish them. This can be made explicit.

At the day of judgment, God will punish Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked, less severely than he will punish you.
or:
At the day of judgment, God will punish you more severely than Tyre and Sidon, cities whose people were very wicked.

Modern readers may not know some of the things that the people in the Bible and the people who first read it knew. This can make it hard for them to understand what a speaker or writer says, and to learn things that the speaker left implicit. Translators may need to state some things explicitly in the translation that the original speaker or writer left unstated or implicit.
Direct and Indirect Quotations

Description

There are two kinds of quotations: direct quotation and indirect quotation.

A direct quotation occurs when someone reports what another person said from the viewpoint of that original speaker. People usually expect that this kind of quotation will represent the original speaker’s exact words. In the example below, John would have said “I” when referring to himself, so the narrator, who is reporting John’s words, uses the word “I” in the quotation to refer to John. To show that these are John’s exact words, many languages put the words between quotation marks: “”.

- John said, “I do not know at what time I will arrive.”

An indirect quotation occurs when a speaker reports what someone else said, but in this case, the speaker is reporting it from his own point of view instead of from the original person’s point of view. This kind of quotation usually features changes in pronouns, and it often features changes in time, in word choices, and in length. In the example below, the narrator refers to John as “he” in the quotation and uses the word “would”, to replace the future tense indicated by “will”.

- John said that he did not know at what time he would arrive.

Why this is a translation issue

In some languages, reported speech can be expressed by either direct or indirect quotations. In other languages, it is more natural to use one rather than the other, or there is a certain meaning implied by using one rather than the other. So for each quotation, translators need to decide whether it is best to translate it as a direct quotation or an indirect quotation.

Examples from the Bible

The verses in the examples below contain both direct and indirect quotations. In the explanation below the verse, we have underlined the quotations.

He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, “Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULT)

• Indirect quote: He instructed him to tell no one,
• Direct quote: but told him, “Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest... “

Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not something that can be observed. Neither will they say, ‘Look here!’ or, ‘Look there!’ because the kingdom of God is among you.” (Luke 17:20-21 ULT)

• Indirect quote: Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come,
• Direct quote: Jesus answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not something that can be observed. Neither will they say, ‘Look here!’ or, ‘Look there!’ because the kingdom of God is among you.”
• Direct quotes: Neither will they say, ‘Look here!’ or, ‘Look there!’
Translation Strategies

If the kind of quote used in the source text would work well in your language, consider using it. If the kind of quote used in that context is not natural for your language, follow these strategies.

1. If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.
2. If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If a direct quote would not work well in your language, change it to an indirect quote.

He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, “Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” (Luke 5:14 ULT)

(2) If an indirect quote would not work well in your language, change it to a direct quote.

He instructed him, “Tell no one. Just go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

Double Negatives

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each express the meaning of “not.” Double negatives mean very different things in different languages. To translate sentences that have double negatives accurately and clearly, you need to know what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express this idea in your language.

Description

Negative words are words that have in them the meaning “not.” Examples in English are “no,” “not,” “none,” “no one,” “nothing,” “nowhere,” “never,” “nor,” “neither,” and “without.” Also, some words have prefixes or suffixes that mean “not” such as the underlined parts of these words: “un happy,” “im possible,” and “use less.” Some other kinds of words also have a negative meaning, such as “lack” or “reject,” or even “fight” or “evil.”

A double negative occurs when a clause has two words that each have a negative meaning.

It is not that we do not have authority... (2 Thessalonians 3:9 ULT)

And this better confidence did not happen without the taking of an oath,... (Hebrews 7:20 ULT.)

Be sure of this—wicked people will not go unpunished (Proverbs 11:21 ULT)

Reason this is a translation issue

Double negatives mean very different things in different languages.

• In some languages, such as Spanish, a double negative emphasizes the negative. The following Spanish sentence No vi a nadie is literally, “I did not see no one”. It has both the word ‘no’ next to the verb and ‘nadie,’ which means “no one”. The two negatives are seen as in agreement with each other, and the sentence means, “I did not see anyone”.

• In some languages, a second negative cancels the first one, creating a positive sentence. So, “He is not unintelligent” means “He is intelligent”.

• In some languages the double negative creates a positive sentence, but it is a weak statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” means, “He is somewhat intelligent”.

• In some languages, such as the languages of the Bible, the double negative can create a positive sentence, and often strengthens the statement. So, “He is not unintelligent” can mean “He is intelligent” or “He is very intelligent”.

To translate sentences with double negatives accurately and clearly in your language, you need to know both what a double negative means in the Bible and how to express the same idea in your language.

Examples from the Bible

...in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14 ULT)

This means “so that they will be fruitful”.

All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULT)

By using a double negative, John emphasized that the Son of God created absolutely everything. The double negative makes a stronger statement than the simple positive.
Translation Strategies

If double negatives are natural and are used to express the positive in your language, consider using them. Otherwise, you could consider these strategies:

1. If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is simply to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.
2. If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a strong positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “surely” or “absolutely.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is simply to make a positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives so that it is positive.

- For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses. (Hebrews 4:15 ULT)
  - “For we have a high priest who can feel sympathy for our weaknesses.”

- ...in order not to be unfruitful. (Titus 3:14 ULT)
  - “…so that they may be fruitful.”

(2) If the purpose of a double negative in the Bible is to make a strong positive statement, and if it would not do that in your language, remove the two negatives and put in a strengthening word or phrase such as “very” or “surely” or “absolutely.”

- Be sure of this—wicked people will not go un punished... (Proverbs 11:21 ULT)
  - “Be sure of this—wicked people will certainly be punished...”

All things were made through him and without him there was not one thing made that has been made. (John 1:3 ULT)

- “All things were made through him. He made absolutely everything that has been made.”

Doublet

Description

We are using the word “doublet” to refer to two words or phrases that are used together and either mean the same thing or mean very close to the same thing. Often they are joined with the word “and.” Unlike Hendiadys, in which one of the words modifies the other, in a doublet the two words or phrases are equal and are used to emphasize or intensify the one idea that is expressed by the two words or phrases.

Reason this is a translation issue

In some languages people do not use doublets. Or they may use doublets, but only in certain situations, so a doublet might not make sense in their language in some verses. People might think that the verse is describing two ideas or actions, when it is only describing one. In this case, translators may need to find some other way to express the meaning expressed by the doublet.

Examples from the Bible

- King David was old and advanced in years. (1 Kings 1:1 ULT)

  The underlined words mean the same thing. Together they mean that he was “very old.”

- ...he attacked two men more righteous and better than himself... (1 Kings 2:32 ULT)

  This means that they were “much more righteous” than he was.

- You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words (Daniel 2:9 ULT)

  This means that they had decided to lie, which is another way of saying that they intended to deceive people.

- ...as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:19 ULT)

  This means that he was like a lamb that did not have any defect—not even one.

Translation Strategies

If a doublet would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, consider these strategies.

1. Translate only one of the words or phrases.

2. If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words or phrases and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

3. If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate only one of the words.

  You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words (Daniel 2:9 ULT)

  “You have decided to prepare false things to say.”
(2) If the doublet is used to intensify the meaning, translate one of the words and add a word that intensifies it such as “very” or “great” or “many.”

- King David was old and advanced in years. (1 Kings 1:1 ULT)

- “King David was very old.”

(3) If the doublet is used to intensify or emphasize the meaning, use one of your language’s ways of doing that.

- ...a lamb without blemish and without spot... (1 Peter 1:19 ULT) - English can emphasize this with “any” and “at all.”

- “...a lamb without any blemish at all...”

Ellipsis

Description

Ellipsis is what happens when a speaker or writer leaves out one or more words from a sentence so that it normally should have to be a complete sentence. The speaker or writer does this because he knows that the hearer or reader will understand the meaning of the sentence and supply the words in his mind when he hears or reads the words that are there. For example:

...the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

(Psalm 1:5)

There is ellipsis in the second part because “nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous” is not a complete sentence. The speaker assumes that the hearer will understand what it is that sinners will not do in the assembly of the righteous by filling in the action from the previous clause. With the action filled in, the complete sentence would be:

...nor will sinners stand in the assembly of the righteous.

There are two types of ellipsis.

1. A Relative Ellipsis happens when the reader has to supply the omitted word or words from the context. Usually the word is in the previous sentence, as in the example above.

2. An Absolute Ellipsis happens when the omitted word or words are not in the context, but the phrases are common enough in the language that the reader is expected to supply what is missing from this common usage, or from the nature of the situation.

Reason this is a translation issue

Readers who see incomplete sentences or phrases may not know that there is information missing that the writer expects them to fill in. Or readers may understand that there is information missing, but they may not know what information is missing because they do not know the original biblical language, culture, or situation as the original readers did. In this case, they may fill in the wrong information. Or readers may misunderstand the ellipsis if they do not use ellipsis in the same way in their language.

Examples from the Bible

Relative Ellipsis

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox. (Psalm 29:6 ULT)

The writer wants his words to be few and to make good poetry. The full sentence with the information filled in would be:

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox.

But if we are afflicted, for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, for your comfort, …

(2 Corinthians 1:6)

The information that the reader must understand in the second parts of these sentences can be filled in from the first parts.
But if we are afflicted, we are afflicted for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, we are comforted for your comfort,…

Absolute Ellipsis

...when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, that I might receive my sight.” (Luke 18:40-41 ULT)

It seems that the man answered in an incomplete sentence because he wanted to be polite and not directly ask Jesus for healing. He knew that Jesus would understand that the only way he could receive his sight would be for Jesus to heal him. The complete sentence would be:

“Lord, I want you to heal me so that I might receive my sight.”

To Titus... Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior. (Titus 1:4 ULT)

The writer assumes that the reader will recognize this common form of a blessing or wish, so he does not need to include the full sentence, which would be:

To Titus... May you receive grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our savior.

Translation Strategies

If ellipsis would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add the missing words to the incomplete phrase or sentence.

...the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. (Psalm 1:5)

...the wicked will not stand in the judgment, and sinners will not stand in the assembly of the righteous

...when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, that I might receive my sight.” (Luke 18:40-41)

...when the blind man was near, Jesus asked him, “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, I want you to heal me so that I might receive my sight.”

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox

... (Psalm 29:6)

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and he makes Sirion skip like a young ox.

Euphemism

Description

A euphemism is a mild or polite way of referring to something that is unpleasant, embarrassing, or socially unacceptable, such as death or activities usually done in private.

Definition

...they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8 ULT)

This means that Saul and his sons "were dead". It is a euphemism because the important thing was not that Saul and his sons had fallen but that they were dead. Sometimes people do not like to speak directly about death because it is unpleasant.

Reason this is a translation issue

Different languages use different euphemisms. If the target language does not use the same euphemism as in the source language, readers may not understand what it means and they may think that the writer means only what the words literally say.

Examples from the Bible

...where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself... (1 Samuel 24:3 ULT)

The original hearers would have understood that Saul went into the cave to use it as a toilet, but the writer wanted to avoid offending or distracting them, so he did not say specifically what Saul did or what he left in the cave.

Mary said to the angel, “How will this happen, since I have not slept with any man?” (Luke 1:34 ULT)

In order to be polite, Mary uses a euphemism to say that she has never had sexual intercourse with a man.

Translation Strategies

If euphemism would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are other options:

1. Use a euphemism from your own culture.
2. State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a euphemism from your own culture.

...where there was a cave. Saul went inside to relieve himself

(1 Samuel 24:3 ULT) - Some languages might use euphemisms like these:

“...where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to dig a hole “
“...where there was a cave. Saul went into the cave to have some time alone “

Mary said to the angel, “How will this happen, since I have not slept with any man?” (Luke 1:34 ULT)
Mary said to the angel, “How will this happen, since I do not know a man?” - (This is the euphemism used in the original Greek)

(2) State the information plainly without a euphemism if it would not be offensive.

- they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. (1 Chronicles 10:8 ULT)

- “they found Saul and his sons dead on Mount Gilboa.”

(Go back to: Romans 1:24; 1:26; 1:27; 16:2)
First, Second or Third Person

Normally a speaker refers to himself as “I” and the person he is speaking to as “you”. Sometimes in the Bible a speaker refers to himself or to the person he is speaking to with terms other than “I” or “you”.

Description

- First person - This is how a speaker normally refers to himself. English uses the pronouns “I” and “we”. (Also: me, my, mine; us, our, ours)
- Second person - This is how a speaker normally refers to the person or people he is speaking to. English uses the pronoun “you”. (Also: your, yours)
- Third person - This is how a speaker refers to someone else. English uses the pronouns “he”, “she”, “it” and “they”. (Also: him, his, her, hers, its; them, their, theirs) Noun phrases like “the man” or “the woman” are also third person.

Reason this is a Translation Issue

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses the third person to refer to himself or to the people he is speaking to. Readers might think that the speaker was referring to someone else. They might not understand that he meant “I” or “you”.

Examples from the Bible

Sometimes people used the third person instead of “I” or “me” to refer to themselves.

But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34 ULT)

David referred to himself in the third person as “your servant” and “his”. He was calling himself Saul’s servant in order to show his humility before Saul.

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “…Do you have an arm like God’s? Can you thunder with a voice like him? (Job 40:6, 9 ULT)

God referred to himself in the third person with the words “God’s” and “him”. He did this to emphasize that he is God, and he is powerful.

Sometimes people use the third person instead of “you” or “your” to refer to the person or people they are speaking to.

Abraham answered and said, “Look what I have done, taking it upon myself to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes! (Genesis 18:27 ULT)

Abraham was speaking to the Lord, and referred to the Lord as “My Lord” rather than as “you”. He did this to show his humility before God.

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULT)

After saying “each of you,” Jesus used the third person “his” instead of “your”.
Translation Strategies

If using the third person to mean “I” or “you” would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Use the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you”.
2. Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”) instead of the third person.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the third person phrase along with the pronoun “I” or “you”.

But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father's sheep.” (1 Samuel 17:34)

But David said to Saul, “I, your servant, used to keep my father's sheep.”

(2) Simply use the first person (“I”) or second person (“you”) instead of the third person.

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like God's?

? Can you thunder with a voice like him? (Job 40:6, 9 ULT)

Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, “... Do you have an arm like mine?

Can you thunder with a voice like me?”

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart. (Matthew 18:35 ULT)

So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart.

Forms of You

Singular, Dual, and Plural

Some languages have more than one word for “you” based on how many people the word “you” refers to. The singular form refers to one person, and the plural form refers to more than one person. Some languages also have a dual form which refers to two people, and some languages have other forms that refer to three or four people.

Sometimes in the Bible a speaker uses a singular form of “you” even though he is speaking to a crowd.

• Singular Pronouns that Refer to Groups

Formal and Informal

Some languages have more than one form of “you” based on the relationship between the speaker and the person he is talking to. People use the formal form of “you” when speaking to someone who is older, or has higher authority, or is someone they do not know very well. People use the informal form when speaking to someone who is not older, or does not have higher authority, or is a family member or close friend.

How to Translate Names

Description

The Bible has names of many people, groups of people, and places. Some of these names may sound strange and be hard to say. Sometimes readers may not know what a name refers to, and sometimes they may need to understand what a name means. This page will help you see how you can translate these names and how you can help people understand what they need to know about them.

Meaning of names

Most names in the Bible have meaning. Most of the time, names in the Bible are used simply to identify the people and places they refer to. But sometimes the meaning of a name is especially important.

It was this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. (Hebrews 7:1 ULT)

Here the writer uses the name “Melchizedek” primarily to refer to a man who had that name, and the title “king of Salem” tells us that he ruled over a certain city.

His name “Melchizedek” means “king of righteousness,” and also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace.” (Hebrews 7:2 ULT)

Here the writer explains the meanings of Melchizedek’s name and title, because those things tell us more about the person. Other times, the writer does not explain the meaning of a name because he expects the reader to already know the meaning. If the meaning of the name is important to understand the passage, you can include the meaning in the text or in a footnote.

Reasons this is a translation issue

• Readers may not know some of the names in the Bible. They may not know whether a name refers to a person or place or something else.
• Readers may need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand the passage.
• Some names may have different sounds or combinations of sounds that are not used in your language or are unpleasant to say in your language. For strategies to address this problem, see Borrow Words.
• Some people and places in the Bible have two names. Readers may not realize that two names refer to the same person or place.

Examples from the Bible

You went over the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

Readers might not know that “Jordan” is the name of a river, “Jericho” is the name of a city, and “Amorites” is the name of a group of people.

she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Beerlahairoi; (Genesis 16:13-14 ULT)

Readers may not understand the second sentence if they do not know that “Beerlahairoi” means “Well of the Living One who sees me”.

She named him Moses and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULT)
Readers may not understand why she said this if they do not know that the name Moses sounds like the Hebrew words “pull out”.

_Saul_ was in agreement with his death (Acts 8:1 ULT)

It came about in Iconium that _Paul_ and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULT)

Readers may not know that the names Saul and Paul refer to the same person.

Translation Strategies

1. If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.
2. If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.
3. Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.
4. If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently.
5. Or if a person or place has two different names, then use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If readers cannot easily understand from the context what kind of a thing a name refers to, you can add a word to clarify it.

You went over the _Jordan_ and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the Amorites (Joshua 24:11 ULT)

You went over the _Jordan River_ and came to the _city of Jericho_. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with _the tribe of the Amorites_

Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because Herod wants to kill you.” (Luke 13:31 ULT)

Shortly after, some Pharisees came and said to him, “Go and leave here because _King Herod_ wants to kill you.

(2) If readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, copy the name and tell about its meaning either in the text or in a footnote.

She named him _Moses_ and said, “Because I drew him from the water.” (Exodus 2:11 ULT)

She named him _Moses (which sounds like 'drawn out'),_ and said, “Because I drew him from the water.”

(3) Or if readers need to understand the meaning of a name in order to understand what is said about it, and that name is used only once, translate the meaning of the name instead of copying the name.

...she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well _was called_ Beerlahairoi
...she said, “Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?” Therefore the well was called Well of the Living One who sees me;

(4) If a person or place has two different names, use one name most of the time and the other name only when the text tells about the person or place having more than one name or when it says something about why the person or place was given that name. Write a footnote when the source text uses the name that is used less frequently. For example, Paul is called “Saul” before Acts 13 and “Paul” after Acts 13. You could translate his name as “Paul” all of the time, except in Acts 13:9 where it talks about him having both names.

...a young man named Saul

(Acts 7:58 ULT)

The footnote would look like:

[1] Most versions say Saul here, but most of the time in the Bible he is called Paul.

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit; (Acts 13:9)

(5) Or if a person or place has two names, use whatever name is given in the source text, and add a footnote that gives the other name. For example, you could write “Saul” where the source text has “Saul” and “Paul” where the source text has “Paul.”

a young man named Saul

(Acts 7:58 ULT)

The footnote would look like:

[1] This is the same man who is called Paul beginning in Acts 13.

Then later in the story, you could translate this way:

But Saul, who is also called Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit;

Then after the story has explained the name change, you could translate this way.

It came about in Iconium that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the synagogue (Acts 14:1 ULT)

The footnote would look like:

Hyperbole

Description

A speaker or writer can use exactly the same words to say something that he means as completely true, or as generally true, or as a hyperbole. This is why it can be hard to decide how to understand a statement. For example, the sentence below could mean three different things.

- It rains here every night.
- 1. The speaker means this as literally true if he means that it really does rain here every night.
- 2. The speaker means this as a generalization if he means that it rains here most nights.
- 3. The speaker means this as a hyperbole if he wants to say that it rains more than it actually does, usually in order to express a strong attitude toward the amount of rain, such as being annoyed or being happy about it.

Hyperbole: This is a figure of speech that uses exaggeration. A speaker deliberately describes something by an extreme or even unreal statement, usually to show his strong feeling or opinion about it. He expects people to understand that he is exaggerating.

- They will not leave one stone upon another (Luke 19:44 ULT)
- This is an exaggeration. It means that the enemies will completely destroy Jerusalem.
- Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians (Acts 7:22 ULT)
- This hyperbole means that he had learned much of what the Egyptians knew and taught, and thus was as educated as any Egyptian.

Generalization: This is a statement that is true most of the time or in most situations that it could apply to.

- The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame, but honor will come to him who learns from correction. (Proverbs 13:18)
- These generalizations tell about what normally happens to people who ignore instruction and what normally happens to people who learn from correction. There may be some exceptions to these statements, but they are generally true.
- And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. (Matthew 6:7)
- This generalization tells about what Gentiles were known for doing. Many Gentiles did this. It does not matter if a few did not. The point was that the hearers should not join in this well-known practice.

Even though a hyperbole or a generalization may have a strong-sounding word like “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never,” it does not necessarily mean exactly “all,” “always,” “none,” or “never.” It simply means “most,” “most of the time,” “hardly any,” or “rarely.”

Reason this is a translation issue

1. Readers need to be able to understand whether or not a statement is literally true. If readers realize that a statement is not literally true, they need to be able to understand whether it is a hyperbole, a generalization, or a lie. (Though the Bible is completely true, it tells about people who did not always tell the truth.)
Examples from the Bible

Examples of Hyperbole

If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed...
(Mark 9:43 ULT)

When Jesus said to cut off your hand, he meant that we should do whatever extreme things we need to do in order not to sin. He used this hyperbole to show how extremely important it is to try to stop sinning.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. (1 Samuel 13:5 ULT)

The underlined phrase is an exaggeration for the purpose of expression the emotion that the Philistine army was overwhelming in number. It means that there were many, many soldiers in the Philistine army.

But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and even as it has taught you, remain in him. (1 John 2:27 ULT)

This is a hyperbole. It expresses the assurance that God's Spirit teaches us about all things that we need to know. God's Spirit does not teach us about everything that it is possible to know.

They found him, and they said to him, “Everyone is looking for you.” (Mark 1:37 ULT)

The disciples probably did not mean that everyone in the city was looking for Jesus, but that many people were looking for him, or that all of Jesus' closest friends there were looking for him. This is an exaggeration for the purpose of expressing the emotion that they and many others were worried about him.

Examples of Generalization

Can anything good come out of Nazareth? (John 1:46 ULT)

This rhetorical question is meant to express the generalization that there is nothing good in Nazareth. The people there had a reputation for being uneducated and not strictly religious. Of course, there were exceptions.

One of them, of their own prophets, has said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies.” (Titus 1:12 ULT)

This is a generalization that means that Cretans had a reputation to be like this because, in general, this is how Cretans behaved. It is possible that there were exceptions.

A lazy hand causes poverty, but the hand of the diligent makes him rich. (Proverbs 10:4 ULT)

This is generally true, and reflects the experience of most people. It is possible that there are exceptions in some circumstances.

Caution

Do not assume that something is an exaggeration just because it seems to be impossible. God does miraculous things.

...they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat... (John 6:19 ULT)

This is not hyperbole. Jesus really walked on the water. It is a literal statement.

Do not assume that the word “all” is always a generalization that means “most.”
Yahweh is righteous in all his ways and gracious in all he does. (Psalms 145:17 ULT)

Yahweh is always righteous. This is a completely true statement.

Translation Strategies

If the hyperbole or generalization would be natural and people would understand it and not think that it is a lie, consider using it. If not, here are other options.

1. Express the meaning without the exaggeration.
2. For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases.”
3. For a hyperbole or a generalization, add a word like “many” or “almost” to show that the hyperbole or generalization is not meant to be exact.
4. For a hyperbole or a generalization that has a word like “all,” always,” “none,” or “never,” consider deleting that word.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Express the meaning without the exaggeration.

The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: thirty thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

(1 Samuel 13:5 ULT)

(2) For a generalization, show that it is a generalization by using a phrase like “in general” or “in most cases”.

The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame...

In general, the one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame.

And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.

“And when you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the Gentiles generally do, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words.”

(Proverbs 13:18 ULT)

(3) For a hyperbole or a generalization, add a word like “many” or “almost” to show that the hyperbole or generalization is not meant to be exact.

Almost all the country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

Almost all the country of Judea and almost all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.”

or:

Many of the country of Judea and many of the people of Jerusalem went out to him.”

(Mark 1:5 ULT)

(4) For a hyperbole or a generalization that has a word like “all,” always,” “none,” or “never,” consider deleting that word.

The whole country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

The whole country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him.”
The country of Judea and the people of Jerusalem went out to him.

Hypothetical Situations

Consider these phrases: “If the sun stopped shining...”; “What if the sun stopped shining...”; “Suppose the sun stopped shining...”; and “If only the sun had not stopped shining.” We use such expressions to set up hypothetical situations, imagining what might have happened or what could happen in the future but probably will not. We also use them to express regret or wishes. These occur often in the Bible. You (the translator) need to translate them in a way that people will know that the event did not actually happen, and that they will understand why the event was imagined.

Description

Hypothetical situations are situations that are not real. They can be in the past, present, or future. Hypothetical situations in the past and present have not happened, and ones in the future are not expected to happen.

People sometimes tell about conditions and what would happen if those conditions were met, but they know that these things have not happened or probably will not happen. (The conditions are the phrase that start with “if.”)

- If he had lived to be one hundred years old, he would have seen his grandson's grandson. (But he did not.)
- If he lived to be one hundred years old, he would still be alive today. (But he is not.)
- If he lives to be one hundred years old, he will see his grandson's grandson. (But he probably will not.)

People sometimes express wishes about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- I wish he had come.
- I wish he were here.
- I wish he would come.

People sometimes express regrets about things that have not happened or that are not expected to happen.

- If only he had come.
- If only he were here.
- If only he would come.

Reason this Is a Translation Issue

- Translators need to recognize the different kinds of hypothetical situations in the Bible and understand that they are unreal.
- Translators need to know their own language's ways of talking about different kinds of hypothetical situations.

Examples from the Bible

Hypothetical situations in the past

“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.”

(Matthew 11:21 ULT)

Here in Matthew 11:21 Jesus said that if the people living in the ancient cities of Tyre and Sidon had been able to see the miracles that he performed, they would have repented long ago. The people of Tyre and Sidon did not actually see his miracles and they did not repent. He said this to rebuke the people of Chorazin and Bethsaida who had seen his miracles and yet did not repent.
Martha then said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” (John 11:21 ULT)

Martha said this to express her wish that Jesus had come sooner, so that her brother would not have died. But Jesus did not come sooner, and her brother did die.

Hypothetical situations in the present

Also, no man puts new wine into old wineskins. If he did that, the new wine would burst the skins, and the wine would be spilled, and the wineskins would be destroyed. (Luke 5:37 ULT)

Jesus told about what would happen if a person were to put new wine into old wineskins. But no one would do that. He used this imaginary situation as an example to show that there are times when it is unwise to mix new things with old things. He did this so that people could understand why his disciples were not fasting as people traditionally did.

Jesus said to them, “What man would there be among you, who, if he had just one sheep, and if this sheep fell into a deep hole on the Sabbath, would not grasp hold of it and lift it out? (Matthew 12:11 ULT)

Jesus asked the religious leaders what they would do on the Sabbath if one of their sheep fell into a hole. He was not saying that their sheep would fall into a hole. He used this imaginary situation to show them that they were wrong to judge him for healing people on the Sabbath.

Hypothetical situation in the future

Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. (Matthew 24:22 ULT)

Jesus was talking about a future time when very bad things would happen. He told what would happen if those days of trouble were to last a long time. He did this to show about how bad those days will be—so bad that if they lasted a long time, no one would be saved. But then he clarified that God will shorten those days of trouble, so that the elect (those he has chosen) will be saved.

Expressing emotion about a hypothetical situation

People sometimes talk about hypothetical situations in order to express regrets and wishes. Regrets are about the past and wishes are about the present and future.

The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by Yahweh’s hand in the land of Egypt when we were sitting by the pots of meat and were eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill our whole community with hunger.” (Exodus 16:3 ULT)

Here the Israelites were afraid that they would have to suffer and die of hunger in the wilderness, and so they wished that they had stayed in Egypt and died there with full stomachs. They were complaining, expressing regret that this had not happened.

I know what you have done, and that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot! (Revelation 3:15 ULT)

Jesus wished that the people were either hot or cold, but they are neither. He was rebuking them, expressing anger at this.

Translation Strategies

Find out how people speaking your language show:

- that something could have happened, but did not.
• that something could be true now, but is not.
• that something could happen in the future, but will not unless something changes.
• that they wish for something, but it does not happen.
• that they regret that something did not happen.

Use your language's ways of showing these kinds of things.

Idiom

An idiom is a figure of speech made up of a group of words that, as a whole, has a meaning that is different from what one would understand from the meanings of the individual words. Someone from outside of the culture usually cannot understand an idiom without someone inside the culture explaining its true meaning. Every language uses idioms. Some English examples are:

- You are pulling my leg. (This means, “You are telling me a lie.”)
- Do not push the envelope. (This means, “Do not take a matter to its extreme.”)
- This house is under water. (This means, “The debt owed for this house is greater than its actual value.”)
- We are painting the town red. (This means, “We are going around town tonight celebrating very intensely.”)

Description

An idiom is a phrase that has a special meaning to the people of the language or culture who use it. Its meaning is different than what a person would understand from the meanings of the individual words that form the phrase.

- he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULT)
- I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULT)
- Let these words go deeply into your ears. (Luke 9:44 ULT)

The words “set his face” is an idiom that means “decided”.

Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

- Sometimes people may be able to understand an idiom from another culture, but it might sound like a strange way to express the meaning.

The phrase “enter under my roof” is an idiom that means “enter my house”.

This idiom means “Listen carefully and remember what I say”.

Purpose:

An idiom is created in a culture probably somewhat by accident when someone describes something in an unusual way. But, when that unusual way communicates the message powerfully and people understand it clearly, other people start to use it. After a while, it becomes a normal way of talking in that language.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People can easily misunderstand idioms in the original languages of the Bible if they do not know the cultures that produced the Bible.
- People can easily misunderstand idioms that are in the source language Bibles if they do not know the cultures that made those translations.
- It is useless to translate idioms literally (according to the meaning of each word) when the target language audience will not understand what they mean.

Examples from the Bible

- Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULT)
- the children of Israel went out with a high hand. (Exodus 14:8 ASV)

This means, “We and you belong to the same race, the same family.”
This means, “The Israelites went out defiantly.”

the one who lifts up my head (Psalm 3:3 ULT)

This means, “the one who helps me.”

Translation Strategies

If the idiom would be clearly understood in your language, consider using it. If not, here are some other options.

1. Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.
2. Use a different idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate the meaning plainly without using an idiom.

Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.” (1 Chronicles 11:1 ULT)

...Look, we all belong to the same nation.

He resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. (Luke 9:51 ULT)

He started to travel to Jerusalem, determined to reach it.

I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof. (Luke 7:6 ULT)

I am not worthy that you should enter my house.

(2) Use an idiom that people use in your own language that has the same meaning.

Let these words go deeply into your ears (Luke 9:44 ULT)

Be all ears when I say these words to you.

“My eyes grow dim from grief (Psalm 6:7 ULT)

I am crying my eyes out

(Go back to: Romans 2:14; 2:15; 3:12; 4:12; 4:24; 6:4; 6:9; 6:10; 7:4; 8:4; 8:10; 8:11; 9:2; 9:17; 10:9; 12:16)
Inclusive and Exclusive “We”

Description

Some languages have more than one form of “we”: an inclusive form that means “I and you” and an exclusive form that means “I and someone else but not you.” The inclusive form includes the person being spoken to and possibly others. This is also true for “us,” “our,” “ours,” and “ourselves.” Some languages have inclusive forms and exclusive forms for each of these.

See the pictures. The people on the right are the people that the speaker is talking to. The yellow highlight shows who the inclusive “we” and the exclusive “we” refer to.

!we/us (inclusive)
!we/us (exclusive)

Reason this is a translation issue

The Bible was first written in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek languages. Like English, these languages do not have separate exclusive and inclusive forms for “we.” Translators whose language has separate exclusive and inclusive forms of “we” will need to understand what the speaker meant so they can decide which form of “we” to use.

Examples from the Bible

Inclusive

...the shepherds said one to each other, “Let us now go to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” (Luke 2:15 ULT)

The shepherds were speaking to one another. When they said “us,” they were including the people they were speaking to - one another.

Now it happened on one of those days that Jesus and his disciples entered into a boat, and he said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” Then they set sail. (Luke 8:22 ULT)

When Jesus said “us,” he was referring to himself and to the disciples he was speaking to, so this would be the inclusive form.

Exclusive

we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested to us (1 John 1:2 ULT)

John is telling people who have not seen Jesus what he and the other apostles have seen. So languages that have exclusive forms of “we” and “us” would use the exclusive forms in this verse.

They said, “We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we went and bought food for all this crowd of people.” (Luke 9:13 ULT)
In the first clause, the disciples are telling Jesus how much food they have among them, so this “we” could be the inclusive form or the exclusive form. In the second clause, the disciples are talking about some of them going to buy food, so that “we” would be the exclusive form, since Jesus would not go to buy food.

Irony

Description

Irony is a figure of speech in which the sense that the speaker intends to communicate is actually the opposite of the literal meaning of the words. Sometimes a person does this by using someone else’s words, but in a way that communicates that he does not agree with them. People do this to emphasize how different something is from what it should be, or how someone else’s belief about something is wrong or foolish. It is often humorous.

Jesus answered them, “People who are in good health do not need a physician, only people who are sick need one. I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance.” (Luke 5:31-32 ULT)

When Jesus spoke of “righteous people,” he was not referring to people who were truly righteous, but to people who wrongly believed that they were righteous. By using irony, Jesus communicated that they were wrong to think that they were better than others and did not need to repent.

Reason this is a translation issue

• If someone does not realize that a speaker is using irony, he will think that the speaker actually believes what he is saying. He will understand the passage to mean the opposite of what it was intended to mean.

Examples from the Bible

How well you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9 ULT)

Here Jesus praises the Pharisees for doing something that is obviously wrong. Through irony, he communicates the opposite of praise: He communicates that the Pharisees, who take great pride in keeping the commandments, are so far from God that they do not even recognize that their traditions are breaking God’s commandments. The use of irony makes the Pharisee’s sin more obvious and startling.

“Present your case,” says Yahweh; “present your best arguments for your idols,” says the King of Jacob. “Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.” (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)

People worshiped idols as if their idols had knowledge or power, and Yahweh was angry at them for doing that. So he used irony and challenged their idols to tell what would happen in the future. He knew that the idols could not do this, but by speaking as if they could, he mocked the idols, making their inability more obvious, and rebuked the people for worshipping them.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then; “the number of your days is so large!” (Job 38:20, 21 ULT)

Job thought that he was wise. Yahweh used irony to show Job that he was not so wise. The two underlined phrases above are irony. They emphasize the opposite of what they say, because they are so obviously false. They emphasize that Job could not possibly answer God’s questions about the creation of light because Job was not born until many, many years later.
Already you have all you could want! Already you have become rich! You began to reign—and that quite apart from us! (1 Corinthians 4:8 ULT)

The Corinthians considered themselves to be very wise, self-sufficient, and not in need of any instruction from the Apostle Paul. Paul used irony, speaking as if he agreed with them, to show how proudly they were acting and how far from being wise they really were.

Translation Strategies

If the irony would be understood correctly in your language, translate it as it is stated. If not, here are some other strategies.

1. Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.
2. Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony. The actual meaning of the irony is not found in the literal words of the speaker, but instead the true meaning is found in the opposite of the literal meaning of the speaker's words.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Translate it in a way that shows that the speaker is saying what someone else believes.

---

How well you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9 ULT)

You think that you are doing well when you reject God’s commandment so you may keep your tradition!

You act like it is good to reject God’s commandment so you may keep your tradition!

---

I did not come to call righteous people to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance. (Luke 5:32 ULT)

I did not come to call people who think that they are righteous to repentance, but to call sinners to repentance.

(2) Translate the actual, intended meaning of the statement of irony.

---

How well you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition! (Mark 7:9 ULT)

You are doing a terrible thing when you reject the commandment of God so you may keep your tradition!

“Present your case,” says Yahweh; “present your best arguments for your idols,” says the King of Jacob. “Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.” (Isaiah 41:21-22 ULT)

‘Present your case,’ says Yahweh; ‘present your best arguments for your idols,’ says the King of Jacob. Your idols cannot bring us their own arguments or come forward to declare to us what will happen so we may know these things well. We cannot hear them because they cannot speak to tell us their earlier predictive declarations, so we cannot reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them? Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then; the number of your days is so large!" (Job 38:20, 21 ULT)

Litotes

(Go back to: Romans 6:20)
Litotes

Description

Litotes is a figure of speech in which the speaker expresses a strong positive meaning by using two negative words or a negative word with a word that means the opposite of the meaning he intends. A few examples of negative words are “no”, “not”, “none”, and “never”. The opposite of “good” is “bad”. Someone could say that something is “not bad” to mean that it is extremely good.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some languages do not use litotes. People who speak those languages might not understand that a statement using litotes actually strengthens the positive meaning. Instead, they might think that it weakens or even cancels the positive meaning.

Examples from the Bible

1. For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless, (1 Thessalonians 2:1 ULT)

   By using litotes, Paul emphasized that his visit with them was very useful.

2. Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter. (Acts 12:18 ULT)

   By using litotes, Luke emphasized that there was a lot of excitement or anxiety among the soldiers about what happened to Peter. (Peter had been in prison, and even though there were soldiers guarding him, he escaped when an angel let him out. So they were very agitated.)

3. And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel. (Matthew 2:6 ULT)

   By using litotes, the prophet emphasized that Bethlehem would be a very important city.

Translation Strategies

If the litotes would be understood correctly, consider using it.

1. If the meaning with the negative would not be clear, give the positive meaning in a strong way.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the meaning with the negative would not be clear, give the positive meaning in a strong way.

   For you yourselves know, brothers, our coming to you was not useless.

“Now when it became day, there was great excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter.”

“Now when it became day, the soldiers were very concerned because of what had happened to Peter.”

Metaphor

Description

A metaphor is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of one thing as if it were a different thing because he wants people to think about how those two things are alike.

For example, someone might say:

- The girl I love is a red rose.

A girl and a rose are very different things, but the speaker considers that they are alike in some way. The hearer's task is to understand in what way they are alike.

The Parts of a Metaphor

The example above shows us that a metaphor has three parts. In this metaphor, the speaker is talking about "the girl I love". This is the Topic. The speaker wants the hearer to think about what is similar between her and "a red rose." The red rose is the Image to which he compares the girl. Most probably, he wants the hearer to consider that they are both beautiful. This is the Idea that the girl and the rose both share, and so we may also call it the Point of Comparison.

Every metaphor has three parts:

- The Topic, the item being immediately discussed by the writer/speaker.
- The Image, the physical item (object, event, action, etc.) which the speaker uses to describe the topic.
- The Idea, the abstract concept or quality that the physical Image brings to the mind of the hearer when he thinks of how the Image and the Topic are similar. Often, the Idea of a metaphor is not explicitly stated in the Bible, but it is only implied from the context. The hearer or reader usually needs to think of the Idea himself.

Using these terms, we can say that a metaphor is a figure of speech that uses a physical Image to apply an abstract Idea to the speaker's Topic.

Usually, a writer or speaker uses a metaphor in order to express something about a Topic, with at least one Point of Comparison (Idea) between the Topic and the Image. Often in metaphors, the Topic and the Image are explicitly stated, but the Idea is only implied. The writer/speaker often uses a metaphor in order to invite the readers/listeners to think about the similarity between the Topic and the Image and to figure out for themselves the Idea that is being communicated.

Speakers often use metaphors in order to strengthen their message, to make their language more vivid, to express their feelings better, to say something that is hard to say in any other way, or to help people remember their message.

Sometimes speakers use metaphors that are very common in their language. However, sometimes speakers use metaphors that are uncommon, and even some metaphors that are unique. When a metaphor has become very common in a language, often it becomes a "passive" metaphor, in contrast to uncommon metaphors, which we describe as being "active." Passive metaphors and active metaphors each present a different kind of translation problem, which we will discuss below.

Passive Metaphors

A passive metaphor is a metaphor that has been used so much in the language that its speakers no longer regard it as one concept standing for another. Linguists often call these "dead metaphors." Passive metaphors are extremely common. Examples in English include the terms “table leg”, “family tree”, “book leaf” (meaning a page in a book), or the word “crane” (meaning a large machine for lifting heavy loads). English speakers simply think of these words as having more than one meaning. Examples of passive metaphors in Biblical Hebrew include using the word “hand” to represent “power,” using the word “face” to represent “presence,” and speaking of emotions or moral qualities as if they were “clothing.”

Patterned Pairs of Concepts acting as Metaphors

Many ways of metaphorical speaking depend on pairs of concepts, where one underlying concept frequently stands for a different underlying concept. For example, in English, the direction UP (the Image) often represents the concepts of MORE or BETTER (the Idea). Because of this pair of underlying concepts, we can make sentences such as “The price of gasoline is going up,” “A highly intelligent man,” and also the opposite kind of idea: “The temperature is going down,” and “I am feeling very low.”

Patterned pairs of concepts are constantly used for metaphorical purposes in the world's languages, because they serve as convenient ways to organize thought. In general, people like to speak of abstract qualities (such as power, presence, emotions, and moral qualities) as if they were body parts, or as if they were objects that could be seen or held, or as if they were events that could be watched as they happened.

When these metaphors are used in normal ways, it is rare that the speaker and audience regard them as figurative speech. Examples of metaphors in English that go unrecognized are:

- “Turn the heat up.” MORE is spoken of as UP.
- “Let us go ahead with our debate.” DOING WHAT WAS PLANNED is spoken of as WALKING or ADVANCING.
- “You defend your theory well.” ARGUMENT is spoken of as WAR.
- “A flow of words” WORDS are spoken of as LIQUIDS.

English speakers do not view these as metaphorical expressions or figures of speech, so it would be wrong to translate them into other languages in a way that would lead people to pay special attention to them as figurative speech. For a description of important patterns of this kind of metaphor in biblical languages, please see Biblical Imagery - Common Patterns and the pages it will direct you to.

When translating something that is a passive metaphor into another language, do not treat it as a metaphor. Instead, just use the best expression for that thing or concept in the target language.

Active Metaphors

These are metaphors that people recognize as one concept standing for another concept, or one thing for another thing. They make people think about how the one thing is like the other thing, because in most ways the two things are very different. People also easily recognize these metaphors as giving strength and unusual qualities to the message. For this reason, people pay attention to these metaphors. For example,

> For you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. (Malachi 4:2 ULT)

Here God speaks about his salvation as if it were the sun rising in order to shine its rays on the people whom he loves. He also speaks of the sun's rays as if they were wings. Also, he speaks of these wings as if they were bringing medicine that would heal his people. Here is another example:

> Jesus said, “Go and tell that fox...,” (Luke 13:32 ULT)

Here, “that fox” refers to King Herod. The people listening to Jesus certainly understood that Jesus was intending for them to apply certain characteristics of a fox to Herod. They probably understood that Jesus intended to communicate that Herod was evil, either in a cunning way or as someone who was destructive, murderous, or who took things that did not belong to him, or all of these.

Active metaphors are the metaphors that need special care to translate correctly. To do so, you need to understand the parts of a metaphor and how they work together to produce meaning.
Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.” (John 6:35 ULT)

In this metaphor, Jesus called himself the bread of life. The Topic is “I” (meaning Jesus himself) and the Image is “bread.” Bread was the primary food that people ate in that place and time. The similarity between bread and Jesus is that people need both to live. Just as people need to eat food in order to have physical life, people need to trust in Jesus in order to have eternal life. The Idea of the metaphor is “life.” In this case, Jesus stated the central Idea of the metaphor, but often the Idea is only implied.

Purposes of Metaphor

- One purpose of metaphor is to teach people about something that they do not know (the Topic) by showing that it is like something that they already do know (the Image).
- Another purpose is to emphasize that something (the Topic) has a particular quality (the Idea) or to show that it has that quality in an extreme way.
- Another purpose is to lead people to feel the same way about the Topic as they would feel about the Image.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People may not recognize that something is a metaphor. In other words, they may mistake a metaphor for a literal statement, and thus misunderstand it.
- People may not be familiar with the thing that is used as an image, and so not be able to understand the metaphor.
- If the topic is not stated, people may not know what the topic is.
- People may not know the points of comparison that the speaker wants them to understand. If they fail to think of these points of comparison, they will not understand the metaphor.
- People may think that they understand the metaphor, but they do not. This can happen when they apply points of comparison from their own culture, rather than from the biblical culture.

Translation Principles

- Make the meaning of a metaphor as clear to the target audience as it was to the original audience.
- Do not make the meaning of a metaphor more clear to the target audience than you think it was to the original audience.

Examples from the Bible

Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, (Amos 4:1 ULT)

In this metaphor Amos speaks to the upper-class women of Samaria (“you”, the Topic) as if they were cows (the Image). Amos does not say what similarity(s) he intends between these women and cows. He wants the reader to think of them, and he fully expects that readers from his culture will easily do so. From the context, we can see that he means that the women are like cows in that they are fat and interested only in feeding themselves. If we were to apply similarities from a different culture, such as that cows are sacred and should be worshipped, we would get the wrong meaning from this verse.

NOTE: Amos does not actually mean that the women are cows. He speaks to them as human beings.

And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay. You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

The example above has two related metaphors. The Topics are “we” and “you,” and the Images are “clay” and “potter.” The similarity between a potter and God is the fact that both make what they wish out of their material. The potter makes what he wishes out of the clay, and God makes what he wishes out of his people. The Idea being expressed by the comparison between the potter’s clay and “us” is that neither the clay nor God’s people have a right to complain about what they are becoming.
Jesus used a metaphor here, but his disciples did not realize it. When he said “yeast,” they thought he was talking about bread, but “yeast” was the Image in his metaphor, and the Topic was the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Since the disciples (the original audience) did not understand what Jesus meant, it would not be good to state clearly here what Jesus meant.

Translation Strategies

If people would understand the metaphor in the same way that the original readers would have understood it, go ahead and use it. Be sure to test the translation to make sure that people do understand it in the right way.

If people do not or would not understand it, here are some other strategies.

1. If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, it is a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.
2. If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.
3. If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.” See Simile.
4. If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.
5. If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.
6. If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the Topic was.)
7. If the target audience would not know the intended similarity (the Idea) between the topic and the image, then state it clearly.
8. If none of these strategies is satisfactory, then simply state the Idea plainly without using a metaphor.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

1. If the metaphor is a common expression in the source language or expresses a patterned pair of concepts in a biblical language (that is, a passive metaphor), then express the Idea in the simplest way preferred by your language.

   Then one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, fell at his feet.

   (Mark 5:22 ULT)

   Then one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, immediately bowed down in front of him.

2. If the metaphor seems to be an active metaphor, you can translate it literally if you think that the target language also uses this metaphor in the same way to mean the same thing as in the Bible. If you do this, be sure to test it to make sure that the language community understands it correctly.

   It was because of your hard hearts that he wrote you this law, (Mark 10:5 ULT)

   It was because of your hard hearts that he wrote you this law,
We made no change to this one, but it must be tested to make sure that the target audience correctly understands this metaphor.

(3) If the target audience does not realize that it is a metaphor, then change the metaphor to a simile. Some languages do this by adding words such as “like” or “as.”

   And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay
   . You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

   And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are like clay. You are like a potter; and we all are the work of your hand.

(4) If the target audience would not know the Image, see Translate Unknowns for ideas on how to translate that image.

   Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad
   . (Acts 26:14 ULT)

   Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a pointed stick.

(5) If the target audience would not use that Image for that meaning, use an image from your own culture instead. Be sure that it is an image that could have been possible in Bible times.

   And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the clay
   . You are our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. (Isaiah 64:8 ULT)

   “And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the wood. You are our carver; and we all are the work of your hand.”
   “And yet, Yahweh, you are our father; we are the string. You are the weaver; and we all are the work of your hand.”

(6) If the target audience would not know what the Topic is, then state the topic clearly. (However, do not do this if the original audience did not know what the topic was.)

   Yahweh lives; may my rock
   be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)

   Yahweh lives; He is my rock. May he be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

(7) If the target audience would not know the intended similarity between the Topic and the Image, then state it clearly.

   Yahweh lives; may my rock
   be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted. (Psalm 18:46 ULT)

   Yahweh lives; may he be praised because he is the rock under which I can hide from my enemies. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

   Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick a goad
   . (Acts 26:14 ULT)

   Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? You fight against me and hurt yourself like an ox that kicks against its owner’s pointed stick.

(8) If none of these strategies are satisfactory, then simply state the idea plainly without using a metaphor.
I will make you become fishers of men. (Mark 1:17 ULT)

I will make you become people who gather men. Now you gather fish. I will make you gather people.

Metonymy

Description

Metonymy is a figure of speech in which an item (either physical or abstract) is called not by its own name, but by the name of something closely associated with it. A metonym is a word or phrase used as a substitute for something that it is associated with.

and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. (1 John 1:7 ULT)

The blood represents Christ’s death.

He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULT)

The cup represents the wine that is in the cup.

Metonymy can be used

• as a shorter way of referring to something
• to make an abstract idea more meaningful by referring to it with the name of a physical object associated with it

Reason this is a translation issue

The Bible uses metonymy very often. Speakers of some languages are not used to metonymy and they may not recognize it when they read it in the Bible. If they do not recognize the metonym, they will not understand the passage or, worse yet, they will get a wrong understanding of the passage. Whenever a metonym is used, people need to be able to understand what it represents.

Examples from the Bible

The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULT)

A throne represents the authority of a king. “Throne” is a metonym for “kingly authority,” “kingship,” or “reign.” This means that God would make him become a king who would follow King David.

Immediately his mouth was opened (Luke 1:64 ULT)

The mouth here represents the power to speak. This means that he was able to talk again.

...who warned you to flee from the wrath that is coming? (Luke 3:7 ULT)

The word “wrath” or “anger” is a metonym for “punishment.” God was extremely angry with the people, and as a result, he would punish them.

Translation Strategies

If people would easily understand the metonym, consider using it. Otherwise, here are some options.

1. Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.
2. Use only the name of the thing the metonym represents.
Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use the metonym along with the name of the thing it represents.

He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. (Luke 22:20 ULT)

“He took the cup in the same way after supper, saying, “The wine in this cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.”

(2) Use the name of the thing the metonym represents.

The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David. (Luke 1:32 ULT)

“The Lord God will give him the kingly authority of his father, David.”

or:

“The Lord God will make him king like his ancestor, King David.”

who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? (Luke 3:7 ULT)

“who warned you to flee from God’s coming punishment?”

To learn about some common metonyms, see Biblical Imagery - Common Metonyms.

Numbers

Description

There are many numbers in the Bible. They can be written as words (“five”) or as numerals (“5”). Some numbers are very large, such as “two hundred” (200), “twenty-two thousand” (22,000), or “one hundred million” (100,000,000). Some languages do not have words for all of these numbers. Translators need to decide how to translate numbers and whether to write them as words or numerals.

Some numbers are exact and others are rounded.

| Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram. (Genesis 16:16 ULT) |
| Eighty-six (86) is an exact number. |
| That day about three thousand men out of the people died. (Exodus 32:28 ULT) |
| Here the number three thousand is a round number. It may have been a little more than that or a little less than that. The word “about” shows that it is not an exact number. |

Reason this is a translation issue

Some languages do not have words for some of these numbers.

Translation Principles

- Exact numbers should be translated as closely and specifically as they can be.
- Rounded numbers can be translated more generally.

Examples from the Bible

When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch. After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Jared lived 962 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:18-20 ULT)

The numbers 162, eight hundred, and 962 are exact numbers and should be translated with something as close to those numbers as possible.

| Our sister, may you be the mother of thousands of ten thousands (Genesis 24:60 ULT) |
| This is a rounded number. It does not say exactly how many descendants she should have, but it was a huge number of them. |

Translation Strategies

1. Write numbers using numerals.
2. Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.
3. Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parentheses after them.
4. Combine words for large numbers.
5. Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.
Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

We will use the following verse in our examples:

Now, see, at great effort I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities. (1 Chronicles 22:14 ULT)

(1) Write numbers using numerals.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(2) Write numbers using your language's words or the gateway language words for those numbers.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(3) Write numbers using words, and put the numerals in parenthesis after them.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand (100,000) talents of gold, one million (1,000,000) talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(4) Combine words for large numbers.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house one hundred thousand talents of gold, a thousand thousand talents of silver, and bronze and iron in large quantities.

(5) Use a very general expression for very large rounded numbers and write the numeral in parentheses afterward.

I have prepared for Yahweh's house a great amount of gold (100,000 talents), ten times that amount of silver (1,000,000 talents), and bronze and iron in large quantities.

Consistency

Be consistent in your translations. Decide how the numbers will be translated, using numbers or numerals. There are different ways of being consistent.

• Use words to represent numbers all of the time. (You might have very long words.)
• Use numerals to represent numbers all of the time.
• Use words to represent the numbers that your language has words for and use numerals for the numbers that your language does not have words for.
• Use words for low numbers and numerals for high numbers.
• Use words for numbers that require few words and numerals for numbers that require more than a few words.
• Use words to represent numbers, and write the numerals in parentheses after them.

Consistency in the ULT and UST

The unfoldingWord® Literal Text (ULT) and the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) use words for numbers that have only one or two words (nine, sixteen, three hundred). They use numerals for numbers that have more than two words (the numerals “130” instead of “one hundred thirty”).

When Adam had lived 130 years, he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth. After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years, and then he died. (Genesis 5:3-5 ULT)

Parallelism

Description

In parallelism two phrases or clauses that are similar in structure or idea are used together. There are different kinds of parallelism. Some of them are the following:

1. The second clause or phrase means the same as the first. This is also called synonymous parallelism.
2. The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.
3. The second completes what is said in the first.
4. The second says something that contrasts with the first, but adds to the same idea.

Parallelism is most commonly found in Old Testament poetry, such as in the books of Psalms and Proverbs. It also occurs in Greek in the New Testament, both in the four gospels and in the apostles' letters.

Synonymous parallelism (the kind in which the two phrases mean the same thing) in the poetry of the original languages has several effects:

• It shows that something is very important by saying it more than once and in more than one way.
• It helps the hearer to think more deeply about the idea by saying it in different ways.
• It makes the language more beautiful and above the ordinary way of speaking.

Reason this is a translation issue

Some languages would not use synonymous parallelism. They would either think it odd that someone said the same thing twice, or they would think that the two phrases must have some difference in meaning. For them it is confusing, rather than beautiful.

Note: We use the term “synonymous parallelism” for long phrases or clauses that have the same meaning. We use the term Doublet for words or very short phrases that mean basically the same thing and are used together.

Examples from the Bible

(1) The second clause or phrase means the same as the first.

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path. (Psalm 119:105 ULT)

Both parts of the sentence are metaphors saying that God's word teaches people how to live.

You make him to rule over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet (Psalm 8:6 ULT)

Both lines say that God made man the ruler of everything.

(2) The second clarifies or strengthens the meaning of the first.

The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere, keeping watch over the evil and the good. (Proverbs 15:3 ULT)

The second line tells more specifically what Yahweh watches.

(3) The second completes what is said in the first.
I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. (Psalm 3:4 ULT)

The second line tells what Yahweh does in response to what the person does in the first clause.

(4) The second says something that contrasts with the first, but adds to the same idea.

For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish. (Psalm 1:6 ULT)

This contrasts what happens to righteous people with what happens to wicked people.

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. (Proverbs 15:1 ULT)

This contrasts what happens when someone gives a gentle answer with what happens when someone says something harsh.

Translation Strategies

For most kinds of parallelism, it is good to translate both of the clauses or phrases. For synonymous parallelism, it is good to translate both clauses if people in your language understand that the purpose of saying something twice is to strengthen a single idea. But if your language does not use parallelism in this way, then consider using one of the following translation strategies.

1. Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.
2. If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could include words that emphasize the truth such as “truly” or “certainly.”
3. If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could use words like “very,” “completely” or “all.”

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Combine the ideas of both clauses into one.

Until now you have deceived me and told me lies. (Judges 16:13, ULT) - Delilah expressed this idea twice to emphasize that she was very upset.

“Until now you have deceived me with your lies.”

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT) - The phrase “all the paths he takes” is a metaphor for “all he does.”

“Yahweh pays attention to everything a person does.”

For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel. (Micah 6:2 ULT) - This parallelism describes one serious disagreement that Yahweh had with one group of people. If this is unclear, the phrases can be combined:

“For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, Israel.”

(2) If it appears that the clauses are used together to show that what they say is really true, you could include words that emphasize the truth such as “truly” or “certainly.”

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

“Yahweh truly sees everything a person does.”
(3) If it appears that the clauses are used together to intensify an idea in them, you could use words like “very,” “completely” or “all.”

you have deceived me and told me lies. (Judges 16:13 ULT)

“All you have done is lie to me.”

Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes. (Proverbs 5:21 ULT)

“Yahweh sees absolutely everything that a person does.”

Personification

(Go back to: Romans 2:8; 2:19; 2:29; 3:4; 4:7; 10:18; 12:19)
Personification

Description

Personification is a figure of speech in which someone speaks of something as if it could do things that animals or people can do. People often do this because it makes it easier to talk about things that we cannot see:

Such as wisdom:

| Does not Wisdom call out? (Proverbs 8:1 ULT) |

Or sin:

| sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULT) |

People also do this because it is sometimes easier to talk about people's relationships with non-human things, such as wealth, as if they were relationships between people:

| You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULT) |

In each case, the purpose of the personification is to highlight a certain characteristic of the non-human thing. As in metaphor, the reader needs to think of the way that the thing is like a certain kind of person.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some languages do not use personification.
- Some languages use personification only in certain situations.

Examples from the Bible

| You cannot serve God and wealth. (Matthew 6:24 ULT) |

Jesus speaks of wealth as if it were a master whom people might serve. Loving money and basing one's decisions on it is like serving it as a slave would serve his master.

| Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice? (Proverbs 8:1 ULT) |

The author speaks of wisdom and understanding as if they are a woman who calls out to teach people. This means that they are not something hidden, but something obvious that people should pay attention to.

Translation Strategies

If the personification would be understood clearly, consider using it. If it would not be understood, here are some other ways for translating it:

1. Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.
2. In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as “like” or “as” to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.
3. Find a way to translate it without the personification.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add words or phrases to make the human (or animal) characteristic clear.

| ...sin crouches |
at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULT) - God speaks of sin as if it were a wild animal that is waiting for the chance to attack. This shows how dangerous sin is. An additional phrase can be added to make this danger clear.

...sin is at your door, waiting to attack you

(2) In addition to Strategy (1), use words such as “like” or “as” to show that the sentence is not to be understood literally.

...sin crouches at the door (Genesis 4:7 ULT) - This can be translated with the word “as.”

...sin is crouching at the door, just as a wild animal does waiting to attack a person.

(3) Find a way to translate it without the personification.

...even the winds and the sea obey him

(Matthew 8:27 ULT) - The men speak of the “wind and the sea” as if they are able to hear and obey Jesus, just as people can. This could also be translated without the idea of obedience by speaking of Jesus controlling them.

He even controls the winds and the sea.

NOTE: We have broadened our definition of “personification” to include “zoomorphism” (speaking of other things as if they had animal characteristics) and “anthropomorphism” (speaking of non-human things as if they had human characteristics) because the translation strategies for them are the same.
Pronouns - When to Use Them

Description

When we talk or write, we use pronouns to refer to people or things without always having to repeat the noun or name. Usually the first time we refer to someone in a story, we use a descriptive phrase or a name. The next time we might refer to that person with a simple noun or by name. After that we might refer to him simply with a pronoun, as long as we think that our listeners will be able to understand easily to whom the pronoun refers.

Now there was a Pharisee whose name was Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish Council. This man came to Jesus...Jesus replied to him (John 3:1-3 ULT)

In John 3, Nicodemus is first referred to with noun phrases and his name. Then he is referred to with the noun phrase “this man”. Then he is referred to with the pronoun “him”.

Each language has its rules and exceptions to this usual way of referring to people and things.

- In some languages the first time something is referred to in a paragraph or chapter, it is referred to with a noun rather than a pronoun.
- The main character is the person whom a story is about. In some languages, after a main character is introduced in a story, he is usually referred to with a pronoun. Some languages have special pronouns that refer only to the main character.
- In some languages, marking on the verb helps people know who the subject is. (See Verbs.) In some of these languages, listeners rely on this marking to help them understand who the subject is; and speakers will use a pronoun, noun phrase, or proper name only when they want either to emphasize or to clarify who the subject is.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- If translators use a pronoun at the wrong time for their language, readers might not know who the writer is talking about.
- If translators too frequently refer to a main character by name, listeners of some languages might not realize that the person is a main character, or they might think that there is a new character with the same name.
- If translators use pronouns, nouns, or names at the wrong time, people might think that there is some special emphasis on the person or thing it refers to.

Examples from the Bible

The example below occurs at the beginning of a chapter. In some languages it might not be clear whom the pronouns refer to.

Again Jesus walked into the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. They watched him to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath. (Mark 3:1-2 ULT)

In the example below, two men are named in the first sentence. It might not be clear whom “he” in the second sentence refers to.

Now after some days, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay an official visit to Festus. After he had been there for many days, Festus presented Paul's case to the king... (Acts 25:13-14 ULT)
Jesus is the main character of the book of Matthew, but in the verses below he is referred to four times by name. This may lead speakers of some languages to think that Jesus is not the main character. Or it might lead them to think that there is more than one person named Jesus in this story. Or it might lead them to think that there is some kind of emphasis on him, even though there is no emphasis.

At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to Jesus, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.” But Jesus said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?...”

Then Jesus left from there and went into their synagogue. (Matthew 12:1-9 ULT)

Translation Strategies

1. If it would not be clear to your readers to whom or to what a pronoun refers, use a name or a noun.
2. If repeating a noun or name would lead people to think that a main character is not a main character, or that the writer is talking about more than one person with that name, or that there is some kind of emphasis on someone when there is no emphasis, use a pronoun instead.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If it would not be clear to your readers to whom or to what a pronoun refers, use a name or a noun.

Again Jesus walked into the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. They watched him to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath. (Mark 3:1-2 ULT)

Again Jesus walked into the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. Some Pharisees watched Jesus to see if he would heal the man on the Sabbath. (Mark 3:1-2 UST)

(2) If repeating a noun or name would lead people to think that a main character is not a main character, or that the writer is talking about more than one person with that name, or that there is some kind of emphasis on someone when there is no emphasis, use a pronoun instead.

At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to Jesus, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.”

But Jesus said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?...”

Then Jesus left from there and went into their synagogue. (Matthew 12:1-9 ULT)

May be translated as:

At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. But when the Pharisees saw that, they said to him, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.

But he said to them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?...”

Then he left from there and went into their synagogue.

Rhetorical Question

A rhetorical question is a question that a speaker asks when he is more interested in expressing his attitude about something than in getting information about it. Speakers use rhetorical questions to express deep emotion or to encourage hearers to think deeply about something. The Bible contains many rhetorical questions, often to express surprise, to rebuke or scold the hearer, or to teach. Speakers of some languages use rhetorical questions for other purposes as well.

Description

A rhetorical question is a question that strongly expresses the speaker’s attitude toward something. Often the speaker is not looking for information at all. Or, if he is asking for information, it is not usually the information that the question appears to ask for. The speaker is more interested in expressing his attitude than in getting information.

Those who stood by said, “Is this how you insult God’s high priest?” (Acts 23:4 ULT)

The people who asked Paul this question were not asking about his way of insulting God’s high priest. Rather they used this question to accuse Paul of insulting the high priest.

The Bible contains many rhetorical questions. These rhetorical questions might be used for the purpose of expressing attitudes or feelings, rebuking people, teaching something by reminding people of something they know and encouraging them to apply it to something new, or introducing something they want to talk about.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some languages do not use rhetorical questions; for them a question is always a request for information.
- Some languages use rhetorical questions, but for purposes that are different or more limited than in the Bible.
- Because of these differences between languages, some readers might misunderstand the purpose of a rhetorical question in the Bible.

Examples from the Bible

Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULT)

Jezebel used the question above to remind King Ahab of something he already knew: he still ruled the kingdom of Israel. The rhetorical question made her point more strongly than if she had merely stated it, because it forced Ahab to admit the point himself. She did this in order to rebuke him for being unwilling to take over a poor man’s property. She was implying that since he was the king of Israel, he had the power to take the man’s property.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

God used the question above to remind his people of something they already knew: a young woman would never forget her jewelry or a bride forget her veils. He then rebuked his people for forgetting him, who is so much greater than those things.

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? (Job 3:11 ULT)

Job used the question above to show deep emotion. This rhetorical question expresses how sad he was that he did not die as soon as he was born. He wished that he had not lived.
And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? (Luke 1:43 ULT)

Elizabeth used the question above to show how surprised and happy she was that the mother of her Lord came to her.

Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

Jesus used the question above to remind the people of something they already knew: a good father would never give his son something bad to eat. By introducing this point, Jesus could go on to teach them about God with his next rhetorical question:

Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from heaven give good things to those who ask him? (Matthew 7:11 ULT)

Jesus used this question to teach the people in an emphatic way that God gives good things to those who ask him.

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to? It is like a mustard seed that a man took and threw into his garden...(Luke 13:18-19 ULT)

Jesus used the question above to introduce what he was going to talk about. He was about to compare the kingdom of God to something. In this case, he compared the kingdom of God to a mustard seed.

Translation Strategies

In order to translate a rhetorical question accurately, first be sure that the question you are translating truly is a rhetorical question and is not an information question. Ask yourself, “Does the person asking the question already know the answer to the question?” If so, it is a rhetorical question. Or, if no one answers the question, did the person who asked it expect to receive an answer? If not, it is a rhetorical question.

When you are sure that the question is rhetorical, then be sure that you understand the purpose for the rhetorical question. Is it to encourage or rebuke or shame the hearer? Is it to bring up a new topic? Is it to do something else?

When you know the purpose of the rhetorical question, then think of the most natural way to express that purpose in the target language. It might be as a question, or a statement, or an exclamation.

If using the rhetorical question would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider doing so. If not, here are other options:

1. Add the answer after the question.
2. Change the rhetorical question to a statement or exclamation.
3. Change the rhetorical question to a statement, and then follow it with a short question.
4. Change the form of the question so that it communicates in your language what the original speaker communicated in his.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Add the answer after the question.

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils?

Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Of course not! Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

565 / 952
Or what man among you is there who, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? None of you would do that!

What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to?

It is like a mustard seed... (Luke 13:18-19 ULT)

This is what the kingdom of God is like. It is like a mustard seed...

Is this how you insult God's high priest?

You should not insult God's high priest!

Why did I not die when I came out from the womb?

I wish I had died when I came out from the womb!

And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

How wonderful it is that the mother of my Lord has come to me!

Do you not still rule

the kingdom of Israel? (1 Kings 21:7 ULT)

You still rule the kingdom of Israel, do you not?

Or what man among you is there who

, if his son asks him for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone? (Matthew 7:9 ULT)

If your son asks you for a loaf of bread, would you give him a stone?

Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils

? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number! (Jeremiah 2:32 ULT)

What virgin would forget her jewelry, and what bride would forget her veils? Yet my poeple have forgotten me for days without number

Simile

A simile is an explicit comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. One is said to be “like” the other. It focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as”, or “than”.

Description

A simile is a comparison of two things that are not normally thought to be similar. It focuses on a particular trait the two items have in common, and it includes the words “like,” “as”, or “than”.

> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were worried and confused, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36)

Jesus compared the crowds of people to sheep without a shepherd. Sheep grow frightened when they do not have a good shepherd to lead them in safe places. The crowds were like that because they did not have good religious leaders.

> See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves. (Matthew 10:16 ULT)

Jesus compared his disciples to sheep and their enemies to wolves. Wolves attack sheep. Jesus’ enemies would attack his disciples.

> For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword. (Hebrews 4:12 ULT)

God’s word is compared to a two-edged sword. A two-edged sword is a weapon that can easily cut through a person’s flesh. God’s word is very effective in showing what is in a person’s heart and thoughts.

Purposes of Simile

- A simile can teach about something that is unknown by showing how it is similar to something that is known.
- A simile can emphasize a particular trait, sometimes in a way that gets people’s attention.
- Similes help form a picture in the mind or help the reader experience what he is reading about more fully.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- People may not know how the two items are similar.
- People may not be familiar with the item that something is compared to.

Examples from the Bible

> Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. (2 Timothy 2:3 ULT)

In this simile, Paul compares suffering with what soldiers endure, and he encourages Timothy to follow their example.

> for as the lightning appears when it flashes from one part of the sky to another part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in his day. (Luke 17:24 ULT)

This verse does not tell how the Son of Man will be like the lightning. But from the context we can understand from the verses before it that just as lighting flashes suddenly and everyone can see it, the Son of Man will come suddenly and everyone will be able to see him. No one will have to be told about it.
Translation Strategies

If people would understand the correct meaning of a simile, consider using it. If they would not, here are some strategies you can use:

1. If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.
2. If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.
3. Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) If people do not know how the two items are alike, tell how they are alike. However, do not do this if the meaning was not clear to the original audience.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves

(Matthew 10:16 ULT) - This compares the danger that Jesus' disciples would be in with the danger that sheep are in when they are surrounded by wolves.

See, I send you out among wicked people and you will be in danger from them as sheep are in danger when they are among wolves.

(Hebrews 4:12 ULT) - For the word of God is living and active and more powerful than a very sharp two-edged sword

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword

(2) If people are not familiar with the item that something is compared to, use an item from your own culture. Be sure that it is one that could have been used in the cultures of the Bible. If you use this strategy, you may want to put the original item in a footnote.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves

(Matthew 10:16 ULT) - If people do not know what sheep and wolves are, or that wolves kill and eat sheep, you could use some other animal that kills another.

See, I send you out as chickens in the midst of wild dogs.

(3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

How often I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings

(Matthew 23:37 ULT)

How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a mother closely watches over her infants, but you refused!

If you have faith even as small as a grain of mustard

(Matthew 17:20)

If you have faith even as small as a tiny seed,

(3) Simply describe the item without comparing it to another.

See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves

(Matthew 10:16 ULT)
See, I send you out among people who will want to harm you.

How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you did not agree! (Matthew 23:37 ULT)

How often I wanted to protect you, but you refused!

Symbolic Action

Description

A symbolic action is something that someone does in order to express a certain idea. For example, in some cultures people nod their head up and down to mean "Yes" or turn their head from side to side to mean "No". Symbolic actions do not mean the same things in all cultures. In the Bible, sometimes people perform symbolic actions and sometimes they only refer to the symbolic action.

Examples of symbolic actions

- In some cultures people shake hands when they meet to show that they are willing to be friendly.
- In some cultures people bow when they meet to show respect to each other.

Reason this is a translation issue

An action may have a meaning in one culture, and a different meaning or no meaning at all in another culture. For example, in some cultures raising the eyebrows means “I am surprised” or “What did you say?” In others cultures it means “Yes”.

In the Bible people did things that had certain meanings in their culture. When we read the Bible we might not understand what someone meant if we interpret the action based on what it means in our own culture.

You (the translator) need to understand what people in the Bible meant when they used symbolic actions. If an action does not mean the same thing in your own culture, then you need to figure out how to translate what the action meant.

Examples from the Bible

- Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet. (Luke 8:41 ULT)
  Meaning of symbolic action: He did this to show great respect to Jesus.

- Look, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to his home, and have a meal with him, and he with me. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)
  Meaning of symbolic action: When people wanted someone to welcome them into their home, they stood at the door and knocked on it.

Translation Strategies

If people would correctly understand what a symbolic action meant to the people in the Bible, consider using it. If not, here are some strategies for translating it.

1. Tell what the person did and why he did it.
2. Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.
3. Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning. Do this only in poetry, parables, and sermons. Do not do this when there actually was a person who did a specific action.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Tell what the person did and why he did it.
Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet. (Luke 8:41 ULT)

Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet in order to show that he greatly respected him.

Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20 ULT)

Look, I stand at the door and knock on it, asking you to let me in.

(2) Do not tell what the person did, but tell what he meant.

Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet. (Luke 8:41)

Jairus showed Jesus great respect.

Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20)

Look, I stand at the door and ask you to let me in.

(3) Use an action from your own culture that has the same meaning.

Jairus fell down at Jesus’ feet. (Luke 8:41 ULT) - Since Jairus actually did this, you should not substitute an action from your own culture.

Look, I stand at the door and knock. (Revelation 3:20 ULT) - Jesus was not standing at a real door. Rather he was speaking about wanting to have a relationship with people. So in cultures where it is polite to clear one’s throat when wanting to be let into a house, you could use that.

Look, I stand at the door and clear my throat.

(Go back to: Romans 8:34)
Synecdoche

Description

Synecdoche is a figure of speech in which a speaker uses a part of something to refer to the whole thing, or uses the whole to refer to a part.

My soul exalts the Lord. (Luke 1:46 ULT)

Mary was very happy about what the Lord was doing, so she said "my soul," which means the inner, emotional part of herself, to refer to her whole self.

the Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing something that is not lawful...?” (Mark 2:24 ULT)

The Pharisees who were standing there did not all say the same words at the same time. Instead, it is more likely that one man representing the group said those words.

Reasons this is a translation issue

- Some readers may not recognize the synecdoche and thus misunderstand the words as a literal statement.
- Some readers may realize that they are not to understand the words literally, but they may not know what the meaning is.

Example from the Bible

I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished (Ecclesiastes 2:11 ULT)

“My hands” is a synecdoche for the whole person, because clearly the arms and the rest of the body and the mind were also involved in the person’s accomplishments. The hands are chosen to represent the person because they are the parts of the body most directly involved in the work.

Translation Strategies

If the synecdoche would be natural and give the right meaning in your language, consider using it. If not, here is another option:

1. State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) State specifically what the synecdoche refers to.

"My soul

exalts the Lord." (Luke 1:46 ULT)

"I exalt the Lord,"

...the Pharisees

said to him (Mark 2:24 ULT)

...a representative of the Pharisees said to him...

...I looked on all the deeds that my hands
had accomplished... (Ecclesiastes 2:11 ULT)

I looked on all the deeds that I had accomplished

Textual Variants

Description

Thousands of years ago, people wrote the books of the Bible. Other people then copied them by hand and translated them. They did this work very carefully, and over the years many people made thousands of copies. However, people who looked at them later saw that there were small differences between them. Some copiers accidentally left out some words, or some mistook a word for another that looked like it. Occasionally they added words or even whole sentences, either by accident, or because they wanted to explain something. Modern Bibles are translations of the old copies. Some modern Bibles have some of these sentences that were added. In the ULT, these added sentences are usually written in footnotes.

Bible scholars have read many old copies and compared them with each other. For each place in the Bible where there was a difference, they have figured out which wordings are most likely correct. The translators of the ULT based the ULT on wordings that scholars say are most likely correct. Because people who use the ULT may have access to Bibles that are based on other copies, the ULT translators have sometimes included information about some of the differences between them, either in the ULT footnotes in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes.

Translators are encouraged to translate the text in the ULT and to write about added sentences in footnotes, as is done in the ULT. However, if the local church really wants those sentences to be included in the main text, translators may put them in the text and include a footnote about them.

Examples from the Bible

Matthew 18:10-11 ULT has a footnote about verse 11.

10 See that you do not despise any of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in heaven. 11 [1]

[1] Many authorities, some ancient, insert v. 11. For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

John 7:53-8:11 is not in the best earliest manuscripts. It has been included in the ULT, but it is marked off with square brackets ([ ]) at the beginning and end, and there is a footnote after verse 11.

53 [Then every man went to his own house.... 11 She said, “No one, Lord.” Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way; from now on sin no more.”] [2]

[2] The best earliest manuscripts do not have John 7:53-8:11

Translation Strategies

When there is a textual variant, you may choose to follow the ULT or another version that you have access to.

1. Translate the verses that the ULT does and include the footnote that the ULT provides.
2. Translate the verses as another version does, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

The translation strategies are applied to Mark 7:14-16 ULT, which has a footnote about verse 16.
14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him.” 16[1]

[1] The best ancient copies omit verse 16. If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(1) Translate the verses that the ULT does and include the footnote that the ULT provides.

14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him.” 16[1]

[1] The best ancient copies omit verse 16. If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

(2) Translate the verses as another version does, and change the footnote so that it fits this situation.

14 He called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand. 15 There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him. 16 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.” 1

Translate Unknowns

While working to translate the Bible, you (the translator) might find yourself asking: "How do I translate words like lion, fig tree, mountain, priest, or temple when people in my culture have never seen these things and we do not have a word for them?"

Description

Unknowns are things that occur in the source text that are not known to the people of your culture. The unfoldingWord® Translation Words pages and the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes will help you understand what they are. After you understand them, you will need to find ways to refer to those things so that people who read your translation will understand what they are.

We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

Bread is a particular food made by mixing finely crushed grains with oil, and then cooking the mixture so that it is dry. (Grains are the seeds of a kind of grass.) In some cultures people do not have bread and do not know what it is.

Reason this is a translation issue

• Readers may not know some of the things that are in the Bible because those things are not part of their own culture.
• Readers may have difficulty understanding a text if they do not know some of the things that are mentioned in it.

Translation Principles

• Use words that are already part of your language if possible.
• Keep expressions short if possible.
• Represent God's commands and historical facts accurately.

Examples from the Bible

I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals (Jeremiah 9:11 ULT)

Jackals are wild animals like dogs that live in only a few parts of the world. So they are not known in many places.

Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)

If wolves do not live where the translation will be read, the readers may not understand that they are fierce, wild animals like dogs that attack and eat sheep.

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT)

People may not know what myrrh is and that it was used as a medicine.

to him who made great lights (Psalm 136:7 ULT)

Some languages have terms for things that give light, like the sun and fire, but they have no general term for lights.

your sins...will be white like snow (Isaiah 1:18 ULT)
People in many parts of the world have not seen snow, but they may have seen it in pictures.

Translation Strategies

Here are ways you might translate a term that is not known in your language:

1. Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.
2. Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.
3. Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.
4. Use a word that is more general in meaning.
5. Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

Examples of Translation Strategies Applied

(1) Use a phrase that describes what the unknown item is, or what is important about the unknown item for the verse being translated.

Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly ravenous wolves

. (Matthew 7:15 ULT)

Beware of false prophets, those who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are truly hungry and dangerous animals.

“Ravenous wolves” is part of a metaphor here, so the reader needs to know that they are very dangerous to sheep in order to understand this metaphor. (If sheep are also unknown, then you will need to also use one of the translation strategies to translate sheep, or change the metaphor to something else, using a translation strategy for metaphors. See Translating Metaphors.)

We have here only five loaves of bread

and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

We have here only five loaves of baked grain seeds and two fish

(2) Substitute something similar from your language if doing so does not falsely represent a historical fact.

your sins...will be white like snow

(Isaiah 1:18 ULT) This verse is not about snow. It uses snow in a figure of speech to help people understand how white something will be.

your sins...will be white like milk your sins...will be white like the moon

(3) Copy the word from another language, and add a general word or descriptive phrase to help people understand it.

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with myrrh

. But he refused to drink it. (Mark 15:23 ULT) - People may understand better what myrrh is if it is used with the general word “medicine.”

Then they tried to give Jesus wine that was mixed with a medicine called myrrh. But he refused to drink it.

We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULT) - People may understand better what bread is if it is used with a phrase that tells what it is made of (seeds) and how it is prepared (crushed and baked).

- We have here only five loaves of baked crushed seed bread and two fish

(4) Use a word that is more general in meaning.

- I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals

(Jeremiah 9:11 ULT)

- I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for wild dogs

We have here only five loaves of bread

and two fish (Matthew 14:17 ULT)

- We have here only five loaves of baked food and two fish

(5) Use a word or phrase that is more specific in meaning.

- to him who made great lights

(Psalm 136:7 ULT)

- to him who made the sun and the moon

Translating Son and Father

Door43 supports Bible translations that represent these concepts when they refer to God.

Biblical Witness

"Father" and "Son" are names that God calls himself in the Bible.

The Bible shows that God called Jesus his Son:

After he was baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water, and...a voice came out of the heavens saying, “This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him.” (Matthew 3:16-17 ULT)

The Bible shows that Jesus called God his Father:

Jesus said, “I praise you Father, Lord of heaven and earth,...no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son” (Matthew 11:25-27 ULT) (See also: John 6:26-57)

Christians have found that “Father” and “Son” are the ideas that most essentially describe the eternal relationship of the First and Second Persons of the Trinity to each other. The Bible indeed refers to them in various ways, but no other terms reflect the eternal love and intimacy between these Persons, nor the interdependent eternal relationship between them.

Jesus referred to God in the following terms:

Baptize them into the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19 ULT)

The intimate, loving relationship between the Father and the Son is eternal, just as they are eternal.

The Father loves the Son. (John 3:35-36; 5:19-20 ULT)

I love the Father, I do what the Father commands me, just as he gave me the commandment. (John 14:31 ULT)

...no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son. (Luke 10:22 ULT)

The terms “Father” and “Son” also communicate that the Father and the Son are of the same essence; they are both eternal God.

Jesus said, “Father, glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you...I glorified you on the earth,...Now Father, glorify me...with the glory that I had with you before the world was created.” (John 17:1-5 ULT)

But in these last days, he [God the Father] has spoken to us through a Son, whom he appointed to be the heir of all things. It is through him that God also made the universe. He is the brightness of God's glory, the very character of his essence. He even holds everything together by the word of his power. (Hebrews 1:2-3 ULT)

Jesus said to him, “I have been with you for so long and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? (John 14:9 ULT)
Human Relationships

Human fathers and sons are not perfect, but the Bible still uses those terms for the Father and Son, who are perfect.

Just as today, human father-son relationships during Bible times were never as loving or perfect as the relationship between Jesus and his Father. But this does not mean that the translator should avoid the concepts of father and son. The Scriptures use these terms to refer to God, the perfect Father and Son, as well as to sinful human fathers and sons. In referring to God as Father and Son, choose words in your language that are widely used to refer to a human “father” and “son.” In this way you will communicate that God the Father and God the Son are of the same divine essence (they are both God), just as a human father and son are of the same human essence (they are both human and share the same human characteristics).

Translation Strategies

1. Think through all the possibilities within your language to translate the words “son” and “father.” Determine which words in your language best represent the divine “Son” and “Father.”
2. If your language has more than one word for “son,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “only son” (or “first son” if necessary).
3. If your language has more than one word for “father,” use the word that has the closest meaning to “birth father,” rather than “adoptive father.”

Abraham, Abram

Facts:

Abram was a Chaldean man from the city of Ur who was chosen by God to be the forefather of the Israelites. God changed his name to "Abraham."

- The name "Abram" means "exalted father."
- "Abraham" means "father of many."
- God promised Abraham that he would have many descendants, who would become a great nation.
- Abraham believed God and obeyed him. God led Abraham to move from Chaldea to the land of Canaan.
- Abraham and his wife Sarah, when they were very old and living in the land of Canaan, had a son, Isaac.

abyss, bottomless pit

Definition:

The term “abyss” refers to a very large, deep hole or chasm that has no bottom.

• In the Bible, “the abyss” is a place of punishment.
• For example, when Jesus commanded evil spirits to come out of a man, they begged him not to send them to the abyss.
• The word “abyss” could also be translated as “bottomless pit” or “deep chasm.”
• This term should be translated differently from “hades,” “sheol,” or “hell.”

Adam

Facts:

Adam was the first person whom God created. He and his wife Eve were made in the image of God.

- God formed Adam from dirt and breathed life into him.
- Adam's name sounds similar to the Hebrew word for "red dirt" or "ground."
- The name "Adam" is the same as the Old Testament word for "mankind" or "human being."
- All people are descendants of Adam and Eve.
- Adam and Eve disobeyed God. This separated them from God and caused sin and death to come into the world.

- 01:09 Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image to be like us."
- 01:10 This man's name was Adam. God planted a garden where Adam could live, and put him there to care for it.
- 01:12 Then God said, "It is not good for man to be alone." But none of the animals could be Adam's helper.
- 02:11 And God clothed Adam and Eve with animal skins.
- 02:12 So God sent Adam and Eve away from the beautiful garden.
- 49:08 When Adam and Eve sinned, it affected all of their descendants.
- 50:16 Because Adam and Eve disobeyed God and brought sin into this world, God cursed it and decided to destroy it.

adoption, adopt, adopted

Definition:

The terms “adopt” and “adoption” refer to the process of someone legally becoming the child of people who are not his biological parents.

- The Bible uses “adoption” and “adopt” in a figurative way to describe how God causes people to be part of his family, making them his spiritual sons and daughters.
- As adopted children, God makes believers to be co-heirs with Jesus Christ, giving them all of the privileges of sons and daughters of God.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated with a term that the language of translation uses to describe this special parent-child relationship. Make sure it is understood that this has a figurative or spiritual meaning.
- The phrase “experience adoption as sons” could be translated as “be adopted by God as his children” or “become God's (spiritual) children.”
- To “wait for the adoption of sons” could be translated as “look forward to becoming God's children” or “wait expectantly for God to receive as children.”
- The phrase “adopt them” could be translated as “receive them as his own children” or “make them his own (spiritual) children.”

adultery, adulterous, adulterer, adulteress

Definition:
The term “adultery” refers to a sin that occurs when a married person has sexual relations with someone who is not that person's spouse. Both of them are guilty of adultery. The term “adulterous” describes this kind of behavior or any person who commits this sin.

- The term “adulterer” refers generally to any person who commits adultery.
- Sometimes the term “adulteress” is used to specify that it was a woman who committed adultery.
- Adultery breaks the promises that a husband and wife made to each other in their covenant of marriage.
- God commanded the Israelites to not commit adultery.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the target language does not have one word that means “adultery,” this term could be translated with a phrase such as “having sexual relations with someone else's wife” or “being intimate with another person's spouse.”
- Some languages may have an indirect way of talking about adultery, such as “sleeping with someone else's spouse” or “being unfaithful to one's wife.” (See: euphemism)

adversary, enemy

Definition:

An “adversary” is a person (or group of people) who is opposed to someone else. The term “enemy” has a similar meaning.

- Your adversary can be a person who tries to oppose or harm another person.
- When two nations fight, each can be called an “adversary” of the other.
- In the Bible, the devil is referred to as an “adversary” and an “enemy.”
- The term “adversary” may be translated as “opponent” or “enemy,” but it suggests a stronger form of opposition.

advice, advise, advisor, counsel, counselor, counsels

Definition:

The terms “counsel” and “advice” have the same meaning and refer to helping someone decide wisely about what to do in a certain situation. A wise “counselor” or “advisor” is someone who gives advice or counsel that will help a person make right choices.

- Kings often have official advisors or counselors to help them decide important matters that affect the people they are ruling.
- Sometimes the advice or counsel that is given is not good. Evil advisors may urge a king to take action or make a decree that will harm him or his people.
- Depending on the context, “advice” or “counsel” could also be translated as “help in deciding” or “warnings” or “exhortations” or “guidance.”
- The action, to “counsel” could be translated as to “advise” or to “make suggestions” or to “exhort.”
- Note that “counsel” is a different word than “council,” which refers to a group of people.

age, aged

Definition:

The term “age” refers to the number of years a person has lived. It also used to refer generally to a time period.

- Other words used to express an extended period of time include “era” and “season.”
- Jesus refers to “this age” as the present time when evil, sin, and disobedience fill the earth.
- There will be a future age when righteousness will reign over a new heaven and a new earth.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “age” could also be translated as “era” or “number of years old” or “time period” or “time.”
- The phrase “at a very old age” could be translated as “at many years old” or “when he was very old” or “when he had lived a very long time.”
- The phrase “this present evil age” means “during this time right now when people are very evil.”

altar

Definition:

An altar was a raised structure on which the Israelites burned animals and grains as offerings to God.

- During Bible times, simple altars were often made by forming a mound of packed-down dirt or by carefully placing large stones to form a stable pile.
- Some special box-shaped altars were made of wood overlaid with metals such as gold, brass, or bronze.
- Other people groups living near the Israelites also built altars to offer sacrifices to their gods.

amazed, amazement, astonished, marvel, marveled, marvelous, wonder, dumbfounded

Definition:

All these terms refer to being very surprised because of something extraordinary that happened.

• Some of these words are translations of Greek expressions that mean “struck with amazement” or “standing outside of (oneself).” These expressions show how very surprised or shocked the person was feeling. Other languages might also have ways to express this.
• Usually the event that caused the wonder and amazement was a miracle, something only God could do.
• The meaning of these terms can also include feelings of confusion because what happened was totally unexpected.
• Other ways to translate these words could be “extremely surprised” or “very shocked.”
• Related words include “marvelous” (amazing, wonderful), “amazement,” and “astonishment.”
• In general, these terms are positive and express that the people were happy about what had happened.

amen, truly

Definition:
The term “amen” is a word used to emphasize or call attention to what a person has said. It is often used at the end of a prayer. Sometimes it is translated as “truly.”

- When used at the end of a prayer, “amen” communicates agreement with the prayer or expresses a desire that the prayer be fulfilled.
- In his teaching, Jesus used “amen” to emphasize the truth of what he said. He often followed that by “and I say to you” to introduce another teaching that related to the previous teaching.
- When Jesus uses “amen” this way, some English versions (and the ULT) translate this as “verily” or “truly.”
- Another word meaning “truly” is sometimes translated as “surely” or “certainly” and is also used to emphasize what the speaker is saying.

Translation Suggestions:

- Consider whether the target language has a special word or phrase that is used to emphasize something that has been said.
- When used at the end of a prayer or to confirm something, “amen” could be translated as “let it be so” or “may this happen” or “that is true.”
- When Jesus says, “truly I tell you,” this could also be translated as “Yes, I tell you sincerely” or “That is true, and I also tell you.”
- The phrase “truly, truly I tell you” could be translated as “I tell you this very sincerely” or “I tell you this very earnestly” or “what I am telling you is true.”

ancestor, father, fathered, forefather, grandfather

Definition:

The term “father” refers to a person’s male parent.

- The terms “father” and “forefather” are often used to refer to a male ancestor(s) of a certain person or people group. This could also be translated a “ancestor” or “ancestral father.”
- The expression “the father of” can figuratively refer to a person who is the leader a group of related people or the source of something. For example, in Genesis 4 “the father of all who live in tents” could mean, “the first clan leader of the first people who ever lived in tents.”
- The apostle Paul figuratively called himself the “father” of those he had helped to become Christians through sharing the gospel with them.

Translation Suggestions

- When talking about a father and his literal son, this term should be translated using the usual term to refer to a father in the language.
- “God the Father” should also be translated using the usual, common word for “father.”
- When referring to forefathers, this term could be translated as “ancestors” or “ancestral fathers.”
- When Paul refers to himself figuratively as a father to believers in Christ, this could be translated as “spiritual father” or “father in Christ.”
- Sometimes the word “father” can be translated as “clan leader,” depending on the context.
- The phrase “father of all lies” could be translated as “source of all lies” or “the one from whom all lies come.”

angel, archangel

Definition:
An angel is a powerful spirit being whom God created. Angels exist to serve God by doing whatever he tells them to do. The term “archangel” refers to the angel who rules or leads all the other angels.

- The word “angel” literally means “messenger.”
- The term “archangel” literally means “chief messenger.” The only angel referred to in the Bible as an “archangel” is Michael.
- In the Bible, angels gave messages to people from God. These messages included instructions about what God wanted the people to do.
- Angels also told people about events that were going to happen in the future or events that had already happened.
- Angels have God's authority as his representatives and sometimes in the Bible they spoke as if God himself was speaking.
- Other ways that angels serve God are by protecting and strengthening people.
- A special phrase, “angel of Yahweh,” has more than one possible meaning: 1) It may mean “angel who represents Yahweh” or “messenger who serves Yahweh.” 2) It may refer to Yahweh himself, who looked like an angel as he talked to a person. Either one of these meanings would explain the angel's use of “I” as if Yahweh himself was talking.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “angel” could include “messenger from God” or “God's heavenly servant” or “God’s spirit messenger.”
- The term “archangel” could be translated as “chief angel” or “head ruling angel” or “leader of the angels.”
- Also consider how these terms are translated in a national language or another local language.
- The phrase “angel of Yahweh” should be translated using the words for “angel” and “Yahweh.” This will allow for different interpretations of that phrase. Possible translations could include “angel from Yahweh” or “angel sent by Yahweh” or “Yahweh, who looked like an angel.”

- 02:12 God placed large, powerful angels at the entrance to the garden to keep anyone from eating the fruit of the tree of life.
- 22:03 The angel responded to Zechariah, “I was sent by God to bring you this good news.”
Suddenly, a shining angel appeared to them (the shepherds), and they were terrified. The angel said, “Do not be afraid, because I have some good news for you.”

Suddenly, the skies were filled with angels praising God’s glory.

Then angels came and took care of Jesus.

Jesus was very troubled and his sweat was like drops of blood. God sent an angel to strengthen him.

“I could ask the Father for an army of angels to defend me.”

asleep, fall asleep, sleep, sleeper, sleepless

Definition:

These terms can have figurative meanings relating to death.

- To “sleep” or “be asleep” can be a metaphor meaning to “be dead.” (See: Metaphor)
- The expression “fall asleep” means start sleeping, or, figuratively, die.
- To “sleep with one’s fathers” means to die, as one’s ancestors have, or to be dead, as one’s ancestors are.

Translation Suggestions:

- To “fall asleep” could be translated as to “suddenly become asleep” or to “start sleeping” or to “die,” depending on its meaning.
- Note: It is especially important to keep the figurative expression in contexts where the audience did not understand the meaning. For example, when Jesus told his disciples that Lazarus was “sleeping” they thought he meant that Lazarus was just sleeping naturally. In this context, it would not make sense to translate this as “he died.”
- Some project languages may have a different expression for death or dying which could be used if the expressions “sleep” and “asleep” do not make sense.

Baal

Facts:

“Baal” means “lord” or “master” and was the name of the primary false god that was worshiped by the Canaanites.

- There were also local false gods that had “Baal” as part of their names, such as “Baal of Peor.” Sometimes all these gods together are referred to as “the Baals.”
- Some people had names that included the word “Baal” in them.
- The worship of Baal included evil practices such as sacrificing children and using prostitutes.
- At different time periods throughout their history, the Israelites also became deeply involved in Baal worship, following the example of the pagan nations around them.
- During the reign of King Ahab, God’s prophet Elijah set up a test to prove to the people that Baal does not exist and that Yahweh is the only true God. As a result, the prophets of Baal were destroyed and the people started worshiping Yahweh again.

believe, believer, belief, unbeliever, unbelief

Definition:

The terms “believe” and “believe in” are closely related, but have slightly different meanings:

1. believe

   • To believe something is to accept or trust that it is true.
   • To believe someone is to acknowledge that what that person has said is true.

2. believe in

   • To “believe in” someone means to “trust in” that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he always speaks the truth, and that he will do what he has promised to do.
   • When a person truly believes in something, he will act in such a way that shows that belief.
   • The phrase “have faith in” usually has the same meaning as “believe in.”
   • To “believe in Jesus” means to believe that he is the Son of God, that he is God himself who also became human and who died as a sacrifice to pay for our sins. It means to trust him as Savior and live in a way that honors him.

3. believer

In the Bible, the term “believer” refers to someone who believes in and relies on Jesus Christ as Savior.

   • The term “believer” literally means “person who believes.”
   • The term “Christian” eventually came to be the main title for believers because it indicates that they believe in Christ and obey his teachings.

4. unbelief

The term “unbelief” refers to not believing something or someone.

   • In the Bible, “unbelief” refers to not believing in or not trusting in Jesus as one’s Savior.
   • A person who does not believe in Jesus is called an “unbeliever.”

Translation Suggestions:

   • To “believe” could be translated as to “know to be true” or “know to be right.”
   • To “believe in” could be translated as “trust completely” or “trust and obey” or “completely rely on and follow.”
   • Some translations may prefer to say “believer in Jesus” or “believer in Christ.”
   • This term could also be translated by a word or phrase that means “person who trusts in Jesus” or “someone who knows Jesus and lives for him.”
   • Other ways to translate “believer” could be “follower of Jesus” or “person who knows and obeys Jesus.”
   • The term “believer” is a general term for any believer in Christ, while “disciple” and “apostle” were used more specifically for people who knew Jesus while he was alive. It is best to translate these terms in different ways, in order to keep them distinct.
   • Other ways to translate “unbelief” could include “lack of faith” or “not believing.”
   • The term “unbeliever” could be translated as “person who does not believe in Jesus” or “someone who does not trust in Jesus as Savior.”

Definition:
In the Bible, the term “blasphemy” refers to speaking in a way that shows a deep disrespect for God or people. To “blaspheme” someone is to speak against that person so that others think something false or bad about him.

- Most often, to blaspheme God means to slander or insult him by saying things that are not true about him or by behaving in an immoral way that dishonors him.
- It is blasphemy for a human being to claim to be God or to claim that there is a God other than the one true God.
- Some English versions translate this term as “slander” when it refers to blaspheming people.

Translation Suggestions:
- To “blaspheme” can be translated as to “say evil things against” or to “dishonor God” or to “slander.”
- Ways to translate “blasphemy” could include “speaking wrongly about others” or “slander” or “spreading false rumors.”

bless, blessed, blessing

Definition:

To “bless” someone or something means to cause good and beneficial things to happen to the person or thing that is being blessed.

• Blessing someone also means expressing a desire for positive and beneficial things to happen to that person.
• In Bible times, a father would often pronounce a formal blessing on his children.
• When people “bless” God or express a desire that God be blessed, this means they are praising him.
• The term “bless” is sometimes used for consecrating food before it is eaten, or for thanking and praising God for the food.

Translation Suggestions:

• To “bless” could also be translated as to “provide abundantly for” or to “be very kind and favorable toward.”
• “God has brought great blessing to” could be translated as “God has given many good things to” or “God has provided abundantly for” or “God has caused many good things to happen to”.
• “He is blessed” could be translated as “he will greatly benefit” or “he will experience good things” or “God will cause him to flourish.”
• “Blessed is the person who” could be translated as “How good it is for the person who.”
• Expressions like “blessed be the Lord” could be translated as “May the Lord be praised” or “Praise the Lord” or “I praise the Lord.”
• In the context of blessing food, this could be translated as “thanked God for the food” or “praised God for giving them food” or “consecrated the food by praising God for it.”

blood

Definition:
The term “blood” refers to the red liquid that comes out of a person's skin when there is an injury or wound. Blood brings life-giving nutrients to a person's entire body.

- Blood is a metaphor for life, and when it is shed or poured out, it is a metaphor for the loss of life, or death.
- When people made sacrifices to God, they killed an animal and poured its blood on the altar. This symbolized the sacrifice of the animal's life to pay for people's sins.
- The expression “flesh and blood” refers to human beings.
- The expression “own flesh and blood” refers to people who are biologically related.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term should be translated with the term that is used for blood in the target language.
- The expression “flesh and blood” could be translated as “people” or “human beings.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “my own flesh and blood” could be translated as “my own family” or “my own relatives” or “my own people.”
- If there is an expression in the target language that is used with this meaning, that expression could be used to translate “flesh and blood.”

boast, boastful

Definition:

The term “boast” means to talk proudly about something or someone. Often it means to brag about oneself.

- Someone who is “boastful” talks about himself in a proud way.
- God rebuked the Israelites for “boasting in” their idols. They arrogantly worshiped false gods instead of the true God.
- The Bible also talks about people boasting in such things as their wealth, their strength, their fruitful fields, and their laws. This means that they were proud about these things and did not acknowledge that God is the one who provided these things.
- God urged the Israelites to instead “boast” or be proud about the fact that they know him.
- The apostle Paul also talks about boasting in the Lord, which means being glad and thankful to God for all he has done for them.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “boast” could include “brag” or “talk proudly” or “be proud.”
- The term “boastful” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “full of prideful talk” or “prideful” or “talking proudly about oneself.”
- In the context of boasting in or about knowing God, this could be translated as “take pride in” or “exalt in” or “be very glad about” or “give thanks to God about.”
- Some languages have two words for “pride”: one that is negative, with the meaning of being arrogant, and the other that is positive, with the meaning of taking pride in one's work, family, or country.

body

Definition:

The term “body” literally refers to the physical body of a person or animal. This term is also used figuratively to refer to an object or whole group that has individual members.

- Often the term “body” refers to a dead person or animal. Sometimes this is referred to as a “dead body” or a “corpse.”
- When Jesus said to the disciples at his last Passover meal, “This (bread) is my body,” he was referring to his physical body that would be “broken” (killed) to pay for their sins.
- In the Bible, Christians as a group are referred to as the “body of Christ.”
- Just as a physical body has many parts, the “body of Christ” has many individual members.
- Each individual believer has a special function in the body of Christ to help the whole group work together to serve God and bring him glory.
- Jesus is also referred to as the “head” (leader) of the “body” of his believers. Just as a person's head tells his body what to do, so Jesus is the one who guides and directs Christians as members of his “body.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The best way to translate this term would be with the word that is most commonly used to refer to a physical body in the project language. Make sure that the word used is not an offensive term.
- When referring collectively to believers, for some languages it may be more natural and accurate to say “spiritual body of Christ.”
- When Jesus says, “This is my body,” it is best to translate this literally, with a note to explain it if needed.
- Some languages may have a separate word when referring to a dead body, such as “corpse” for a person or “carcass” for an animal. Make sure the word used to translate this makes sense in the context and is acceptable.

bold, boldness, emboldened

Definition:

These terms all refer to having courage and confidence to speak the truth and do the right thing even when it is difficult or dangerous.

- A “bold” person is not afraid to say and do what is good and right, including defending people who are being mistreated. This could be translated as “courageous” or “fearless.”
- In the New Testament, the disciples continued to “boldly” preach about Christ in public places, in spite of the danger of being put in jail or killed. This could be translated as “confidently” or “with strong courage” or “courageously.”
- The “boldness” of these early disciples in speaking the good news of Christ’s redeeming death on the cross resulted in the gospel being spread throughout Israel and nearby countries and finally, to the rest of the world. “Boldness” could also be translated as “confident courage.”

bow, bow down, knelt, bend, bend the knee

Definition:
To bow means to bend over to humbly express respect and honor toward someone. To “bow down” means to bend over or kneel down very low, often with face and hands toward the ground.

- Other expressions include “bow the knee” (meaning to kneel) and “bow the head” (meaning to bend the head forward in humble respect or in sorrow).
- Bowing down can also be a sign of distress or mourning. Someone who is “bowed down” has been brought to a low position of humility.
- Often a person will bow in the presence of someone who is of higher status or greater importance, such as kings and other rulers.
- Bowing down before God is an expression of worship to him.
- In the Bible, people bowed down to Jesus when they realized from his miracles and teaching that he had come from God.
- The Bible says that when Jesus comes back someday, everyone will bow the knee to worship him.

Translation Suggestions:
- Depending on the context, this term could be translated with a word or phrase that means “bend forward” or “bend the head” or “kneel.”
- The term “bow down” could be translated as “kneel down” or “prostrate oneself.”
- Some languages will have more than one way of translating this term, depending on the context.

brother

Definition:

The term “brother” refers to a male sibling who shares at least one biological parent.

- In the Old Testament, the term “brothers” is also used as a general reference to relatives or associates, such as members of the same tribe, clan, occupation, or people group. When used in this way, the term can refer to both men and women.
- In the New Testament, the apostles often use the term “brothers” to refer to fellow Christians, including both men and women.
- A few times in the New Testament, the apostles used the term “sister” when referring specifically to a fellow Christian who was a woman, or to emphasize that both men and women are being included. For example, James emphasizes that he is talking about all believers when he refers to “a brother or sister who is in need of food or clothing.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological brother, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- In the Old Testament especially, when “brothers” is used very generally to refer to members of the same family, clan, or people group, possible translations could include “relatives” or “clan members” or “fellow Israelites.”
- In the context of referring to a fellow believer in Christ, this term could be translated as “brother in Christ” or “spiritual brother.”
- If both males and females are being referred to and “brother” would give a wrong meaning, then a more general kinship term could be used that would include both males and females.
- Other ways to translate this term so that it refers to both male and female believers could be “fellow believers” or “Christian brothers and sisters.”
- Make sure to check the context to determine whether only men are being referred to, or whether both men and women are included.

bury, buried, burial

Definition:

The term “bury” refers to putting an object (usually a dead body) into a hole or other burial place and then covering it with dirt or stones, etc. The term “burial” is the act of burying something, or it can be used to describe a place where something has been buried.

• Often people bury a dead body by placing it into a deep hole in the ground and then covering it with dirt.
• Sometimes the dead body is placed in a box-like structure, such as a coffin, before burying it.
• In Bible times, dead people were often buried in a cave or similar place. After Jesus died, his body was wrapped in cloths and placed in a stone tomb that was sealed with a large boulder.
• The terms “burial place” or “burial room” or “burial chamber” or “burial cave” always refer to a place where a dead body is buried.
• Other things can also be buried, such as when Achan buried silver and other things that he had stolen from Jericho.
• The phrase “buried his face” usually means “covered his face with his hands.”
• Sometimes the word “hide” can mean “bury” as when Achan hid things in the ground that he had stolen from Jericho. This meant he buried them in the ground.

call, call out

Definition:
The terms “call” and “call out” usually mean to speak loudly, but the term “call” can also mean to name or summon a person. There are also some other meanings.

- To “call out” to someone means to shout, to announce, or to proclaim. It can also mean to ask someone for help, especially God.
- Often in the Bible, “call” has a meaning of “summon” or “command to come” or “request to come.”
- God calls people to come to him and be his people. This is their “calling.”
- When God “calls” people, it means that God has appointed or chosen people to be his children, to be his servants and proclaimers of his message of salvation through Jesus.
- This term is also used in the context of naming someone. For example, “His name is called John,” means, “He is named John” or “His name is John.”
- To be “called by the name of” means that someone is given the name of someone else. God says that he has called his people by his name.
- A different expression, “I have called you by name” means that God has specifically chosen that person.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “call” could be translated by a word that means “summon,” which includes the idea of being intentional or purposeful in calling.
- The expression “call out to you” could be translated as “ask you for help” or “pray to you urgently.”
- When the Bible says that God has “called” us to be his servants, this could be translated as, “specially chose us” or “appointed us” to be his servants.
- “You must call his name” can also be translated as, “you must name him.”
- “His name is called” could also be translated as, “his name is” or “he is named.”
- To “call out” could be translated as, “say loudly” or “shout” or “say with a loud voice.” Make sure the translation of this does not sound like the person is angry.
- The expression “your calling” could be translated as “your purpose” or “God's purpose for you” or “God's special work for you.”
- To “call on the name of the Lord” could be translated as “seek the Lord and depend on him” or “trust in the Lord and obey him.”
- To “call for” something could be translated by “demand” or “ask for” or “command.”
- The expression “you are called by my name” could be translated as, “I have given you my name, showing that you belong to me.”
- When God says, “I have called you by name,” this could be translated as, “I know you and have chosen you.”

captive, captivate, captivity, catch, captured

Definition:

The terms “captive” and “captivity” refer to capturing people and forcing them to live somewhere they do not want to live, such as in a foreign country.

- The Israelites from the kingdom of Judah were held captive in the kingdom of Babylonia for 70 years.
- Captives are often required to work for the people or nation that captured them.
- Daniel and Nehemiah were Israelite captives who worked for the Babylonian king.
- The expression to “take captive” is another way of talking about capturing someone.
- The expression, “carry you away captive” could also be translated as, “force you to live as captives” or “take you away to another country as prisoners.”
- In a figurative sense, the apostle Paul tells Christians to “take captive” every thought and make it obedient to Christ.
- He also talks about how a person can be “taken captive” by sin, which means he is “controlled by” sin.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, to be “held captive” could also be translated by, “not allowed to be free” or “kept in prison” or “forced to live in a foreign country.”
- The expression, “led captive” or “taken captive” could be translated as, “captured” or “imprisoned” or “forced to go to a foreign land.”
- The term “captives” could also be translated as, “people who were captured” or “enslaved people.”
- Depending on the context, “captivity” could also be translated as, “imprisonment” or “exile” or “forced stay in a foreign country.”

children, child, offspring

Definition:
The term “child” (plural “children”) refers to the offspring of a man and woman. The term is often used more generally to refer to anyone who is young in age and is not yet a fully grown adult. The term “offspring” is a general reference to the biological descendants of people or animals.

- In the Bible, disciples or followers are sometimes called “children.”
- Often the term “children” is used to refer to a person's descendants.
- Often in the Bible, “offspring” has the same meaning as “children” or “descendants.”
- The term “seed” is sometimes used figuratively to refer to offspring.
- The phrase “children of” can refer to being characterized by something. Some examples of this would be:
  - children of the light
  - children of obedience
  - children of the devil
- This term can also refer to the Church. For example, sometimes the New Testament refers to people who believe in Jesus as “children of God.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “children” could be translated as “descendants” when it is referring to a person's great-grandchildren or great-great-grandchildren, etc.
- Depending on the context, “children of” could be translated as, “people who have the characteristics of” or “people who behave like.”
- If possible, the phrase, “children of God” should be translated literally since an important biblical theme is that God is our heavenly Father. A possible translation alternate would be, “people who belong to God” or “God's spiritual children.”
- When Jesus calls his disciples “children,” this could also be translated as, “dear friends” or “my beloved disciples.”
- When Paul and John refer to believers in Jesus as “children,” this could also be translated as “dear fellow believers.”
- The phrase, “children of the promise” could be translated as, “people who have received what God promised them.”

chosen, choose, chosen people, Chosen One, elect

Definition:
The term “the elect” literally means “chosen ones” or “chosen people” and refers to those whom God has appointed or selected to be his people. “Chosen One” or “Chosen One of God” is a title that refers to Jesus, who is the chosen Messiah.

• The term “choose” means to select something or someone or to decide something. It is often used to refer to God appointing people to belong to him and to serve him.
• To be “chosen” means to be “selected” or “appointed” to be or do something.
• God chose people to be holy, to be set apart by him for the purpose of bearing good spiritual fruit. That is why they are called “the chosen (ones) or “the elect.”
• The term “chosen one” is sometimes used in the Bible to refer to certain people such as Moses and King David whom God had appointed as leaders over his people. It is also used to refer to the nation of Israel as God's chosen people.
• The phrase “the elect” is an older term that literally means “the chosen ones” or “the chosen people.” This phrase in the original language is plural when referring to believers in Christ.
• In older English Bible versions, the term “elect” is used in both the Old and New Testaments to translate the word for “chosen one(s).” More modern versions use “elect” only in the New Testament, to refer to people who have been saved by God through faith in Jesus. Elsewhere in the Bible text, they translate this word more literally as “chosen ones.”

Translation Suggestions:
• It is best to translate “elect” with a word or phrase that means “chosen ones” or “chosen people.” This could also be translated as “people whom God chose” or “the ones God appointed to be his people.”
• The phrase “who were chosen” could also be translated as “who were appointed” or “who were selected” or “whom God chose.”
• “I chose you” could be translated as “I appointed you” or “I selected you.”
• In reference to Jesus, “Chosen One” could also be translated as “God's chosen One” or “God's specially appointed Messiah” or “the One God appointed (to save people).”

Christ, Messiah

Facts:

The terms “Messiah” and “Christ” mean “Anointed One” and refer to Jesus, God's Son.

- Both “Messiah” and “Christ” are used in the New Testament to refer to God's Son, whom God the Father appointed to rule as king over his people, and to save them from sin and death.
- In the Old Testament, the prophets wrote prophecies about the Messiah hundreds of years before he came to earth.
- Often a word meaning “anointed (one)” is used in the Old Testament to refer to the Messiah who would come.
- Jesus fulfilled many of these prophecies and did many miraculous works that proves he is the Messiah; the rest of these prophecies will be fulfilled when he returns.
- The word “Christ” is often used as a title, as in “the Christ” and “Christ Jesus.”
- “Christ” also came to be used as part of his name, as in “Jesus Christ.”

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated using its meaning, “the Anointed One” or “God's Anointed Savior.”
- Many languages use a transliterated word that looks or sounds like “Christ” or “Messiah.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- The transliterated word could be followed by the definition of the term as in, “Christ, the Anointed One.”
- Be consistent in how this is translated throughout the Bible so that it is clear that the same term is being referred to.
- Make sure the translations of “Messiah” and “Christ” work well in contexts where both terms occur in the same verse (such as John 1:41).

church, Church

Definition:

In the New Testament, the term “church” refers to a local group of believers in Jesus who regularly met together to pray and hear God's word preached. The term “the Church” often refers to all Christians.

- This term literally refers to a “called out” assembly or congregation of people who meet together for a special purpose.
- When this term is used to refer to all believers everywhere in the whole body of Christ, some Bible translations capitalize the first letter (“Church”) to distinguish it from the local church.
- Often the believers in a particular city would meet together in someone's home. These local churches were given the name of the city such as the “church at Ephesus.”
- In the Bible, “church” does not refer to a building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “church” could be translated as a “gathering together” or “assembly” or “congregation” or “ones who meet together.”
- The word or phrase that is used to translate this term should also be able to refer to all believers, not just one small group.
- Make sure that the translation of “church” does not just refer to a building.
- The term used to translate “assembly” in the Old Testament could also be used to translate this term.
- Also consider how it is translated in a local or national Bible translation. (See: How to Translate Unknowns.)

- 46:09 Most of the people in Antioch were not Jews, but for the first time, very many of them also became believers. Barnabas and Saul went there to teach these new believers more about Jesus and to strengthen the church.
- 46:10 So the church in Antioch prayed for Barnabas and Saul and placed their hands on them. Then they sent them off to preach the good news of Jesus in many other places.
- 47:13 The good news of Jesus kept spreading, and the Church kept growing.
- 50:01 For almost 2,000 years, more and more people around the world have been hearing the good news about Jesus the Messiah. The Church has been growing.

circumcise, circumcised, circumcision, uncircumcised, uncircumcision

Definition:

The term “circumcise” means to cut off the foreskin of a man or male child. A circumcision ceremony may be performed in connection with this.

- God commanded Abraham to circumcise every male among his family and servants as a sign of God's covenant with them.
- God also commanded Abraham's descendants to continue to do this for every baby boy born into their households.
- The phrase, “circumcision of the heart” refers figuratively to the “cutting away” or removal of sin from a person.
- In a spiritual sense, “the circumcised” refers to people whom God has purified from sin through the blood of Jesus and who are his people.
- The term “uncircumcised” refers to those who have not been circumcised physically. It can also refer figuratively to those who have not been circumcised spiritually, who do not have a relationship with God.

The terms “uncircumcised” and “uncircumcision” refer to a male who has not been physically circumcised. These terms are also used figuratively.

- Egypt was a nation that also required circumcision. So when God talks about Egypt being defeated by the “uncircumcised,” he is referring to people whom the Egyptians despised for not being circumcised.
- The Bible refers to people who have an “uncircumcised heart” or who are “uncircumcised in heart.” This a figurative way of saying that these people are not God's people, and are stubbornly disobedient to him.
- If a word for circumcision is used or known in the language, “uncircumcised” could be translated as “not circumcised.”
- The expression “the uncircumcision” could be translated as “people who are not circumcised” or “people who do not belong to God,” depending on the context.
- Other ways to translate figurative senses of this term could include “not God's people” or “rebellious like those who don't belong to God” or “people who have no sign of belonging to God.”
- The expression “uncircumcised in heart” could be translated as “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to believe.” However, if possible it is best to keep the expression or a similar one since spiritual circumcision is an important concept.

Translation Suggestions:

- If the culture of the target language performs circumcisions on males, the word used to refer to this should be used for this term.
- Other ways to translate this term would be, “cut around” or “cut in a circle” or “cut off the foreskin.”
- In cultures where circumcision is not known, it may be necessary to explain it in a footnote or glossary.
- Make sure the term used to translate this does not refer to females. It may be necessary to translate this with a word or phrase that includes the meaning of “male.”

clean, wash

Definition:
The term “clean” generally refers either to removing dirt or stains from something or to not having any dirt or stain in the first place. The term “wash” refers specifically to action of removing dirt or stains from something.

- “Cleanse” is the process of making something “clean.” It could also be translated as “wash” or “purify.”
- In the Old Testament, God told the Israelites which animals he had specified as ritually “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” Only the clean animals were permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice. In this context, the term “clean” means that the animal was acceptable to God for use as a sacrifice.
- A person who had certain skin diseases would be unclean until the skin was healed enough to no longer be contagious. Instructions for cleansing the skin had to be obeyed in order for that person to be declared “clean” again.
- Sometimes “clean” is used figuratively to refer to moral purity, meaning to be "clean" from sin.

In the Bible, the term “unclean” is used figuratively to refer to things that God declared to be unfit for his people to touch, eat, or sacrifice.

- God gave the Israelites instructions about which animals were “clean” and which ones were “unclean.” The unclean animals were not permitted to be used for eating or for sacrifice.
- People with certain skin diseases were said to be “unclean” until they were healed.
- If the Israelites touched something “unclean,” they themselves would be considered unclean for a certain period of time.
- Obeying God's commands about not touching or eating unclean things kept the Israelites set apart for God's service.
- This physical and ritual uncleanness was also symbolic of moral uncleanness.
- In another figurative sense, an “unclean spirit” refers to an evil spirit.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could be translated with the common word for “clean” or “pure” (in the sense of being not dirty).
- Other ways to translate this could include, “ritually clean” or “acceptable to God.”
- “Cleanse” could be translated by “wash” or “purify.”
- Make sure that the words used for “clean” and “cleanse” can also be understood in a figurative sense.
- The term “unclean” could also be translated as “not clean” or “unfit in God's eyes” or “physically unclean” or “defiled.”
- When referring to a demon as an unclean spirit, “unclean” could be translated as “evil” or “defiled.”
- The translation of this term should allow for spiritual uncleanness. It should be able to refer to anything that God declared as unfit for touching, eating, or sacrifice.

clothe, clothed, clothes, clothing, unclothed, garments

Definition:

When used figuratively in the Bible, “clothed with” means to be endowed or equipped with something. To “clothe” oneself with something means to seek to have a certain character quality.

- In the same way that clothing is external to your body and is visible to all, when you are “clothed” with a certain character quality, others can readily see it. To “clothe yourself with kindness” means to let your actions be so characterized by kindness that it is easily seen by everyone.
- To be “clothed with power from on high” means to have power given to you.
- This term is also used to express negative experiences, such as “clothed with shame” or “clothed with terror.”

Translation Suggestions:

- If possible, it is best to keep the literal figure of speech, “clothe yourselves with.” Another way to translate this could be “put on” if this refers to putting on clothes.
- If that does not give the correct meaning, other ways to translate “clothed with” could be “showing” or “manifesting” or “filled with” or “having the quality of.”
- The term “clothe yourself with” could also be translated as “cover yourself with” or “behave in a way that shows.”

command, commandment

Definition:

The term “command” means to order someone to do something. The term “commandment” refers to the thing that a person is commanded to do.

- The term “commandment” sometimes refers to certain commands of God which are more formal and permanent, such as the “Ten Commandments.”
- A command can be positive (“Honor your parents”) or negative (“Do not steal”).
- To “take command” means to “take control” or “take charge” of something or someone.

Translation Suggestions

- It is best to translate this term differently from the term, “law.” Also compare with the definitions of “decree” and “statute.”
- Some translators may prefer to translate “command” and “commandment” with the same word in their language.
- Others may prefer to use a special word for commandment that refers to lasting, formal commands that God has made.

conscience

Definition:

The conscience is the part of a person's thinking through which God makes him aware that he is doing something sinful.

- God gave people a conscience to help them know the difference between what is right and what is wrong.
- A person who obeys God is said to have a “pure” or “clear” or “clean” conscience.
- If a person has a “clear conscience” it means that he is not hiding any sin.
- If someone ignores their conscience and no longer feels guilty when he sins, this means his conscience is no longer sensitive to what is wrong. The Bible calls this a “seared” conscience, one that is “branded” as if with a hot iron. Such a conscience is also called “insensitive” and “polluted.”
- Possible ways to translate this term could include, “inner moral guide” or “moral thinking.”

covenant

Definition:
In the Bible, the term "covenant" refers to a formal, binding agreement between two parties that one or both parties must fulfill.

- This agreement can be between individuals, between groups of people, or between God and people.
- When people make a covenant with each other, they promise that they will do something, and they must do it.
- Examples of human covenants include marriage covenants, business agreements, and treaties between countries.
- Throughout the Bible, God made several different covenants with his people.
- In some of the covenants, God promised to fulfill his part without conditions. For example, when God established his covenant with mankind promising to never destroy the earth again with a worldwide flood, this promise had no conditions for people to fulfill.
- In other covenants, God promised to fulfill his part only if the people obeyed him and fulfilled their part of the covenant.

The term "new covenant" refers to the commitment or agreement God made with his people through the sacrifice of his Son, Jesus.

- God's "new covenant" was explained in the part of the Bible called the "New Testament."
- This new covenant is in contrast to the "old" or "former" covenant that God had made with the Israelites in Old Testament times.
- The new covenant is better than the old one because it is based on the sacrifice of Jesus, which completely atoned for people's sins forever. The sacrifices made under the old covenant did not do this.
- God writes the new covenant on the hearts those who become believers in Jesus. This causes them to want to obey God and to begin to live holy lives.
- The new covenant will be completely fulfilled in the end times when God establishes his reign on earth. Everything will once again be very good, as it was when God first created the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include, "binding agreement" or "formal commitment" or "pledge" or "contract."
- Some languages may have different words for covenant depending on whether one party or both parties have made a promise they must keep. If the covenant is one-sided, it could be translated as "promise" or "pledge."
- Make sure the translation of this term does not sound like people proposed the covenant. In all cases of covenants between God and people, it was God who initiated the covenant.
- The term "new covenant" could be translated as "new formal agreement" or "new pact" or "new contract."
- The word "new" in these expressions has the meaning of "fresh" or "new kind of" or "another."

- 05:04 “I will make Ishmael a great nation, too, but my covenant will be with Isaac.”
- 06:04 After a long time, Abraham died and all of the promises that God had made to him in the covenant were passed on to Isaac.
- 07:10 The covenant promises God had promised to Abraham and then to Isaac now passed on to Jacob.
- 13:02 God said to Moses and the people of Israel, “If you will obey my voice and keep my covenant, you will be my prized possession, a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.”
- 13:04 Then God gave them the covenant and said, “I am Yahweh, your God, who saved you from slavery in Egypt. Do not worship other gods.”
- 15:13 Then Joshua reminded the people of their obligation to obey the covenant that God had made with the Israelites at Sinai.
- 21:05 Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised that he would make a New Covenant, but not like the covenant God made with Israel at Sinai. In the New Covenant, God would write his law on the people’s hearts, the people would know God personally, they would be his people, and God would forgive their sins. The Messiah would start the New Covenant.
- 21:14 Through the Messiah’s death and resurrection, God would accomplish his plan to save sinners and start the New Covenant.
- 38:05 Then Jesus took a cup and said, “Drink this. It is my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me every time you drink it.”
- 48:11 But God has now made a New Covenant that is available to everyone. Because of this New Covenant, anyone from any people group can become part of God’s people by believing in Jesus.

create, created, creation, creator

Definition:

The term “create” means to make something or to cause something to be. Whatever is created is called a “creation.” God is called the “Creator” because he caused everything in the entire universe to come into existence.

- When this term is used to refer to God creating the world, it means he made it out of nothing.
- When human beings “create” something, it means they made it out of things that already existed.
- Sometimes “create” is used in a figurative way to describe something abstract, such as creating peace, or creating a pure heart in someone.
- The term “creation” can refer to the very beginning of the world when God first created everything. It can also be used to refer generally to everything that God created. Sometimes the word “creation” refers more specifically to just the people in the world.

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages may have to directly say that God created the world “out of nothing” to make sure this meaning is clear.
- The phrase, “since the creation of the world” means, “since the time when God created the world.”
- A similar phrase, “at the beginning of creation” could be translated as, “when God created the world at the beginning of time,” or “when the world was first created.”
- To preach the good news to “all creation” means to preach the good news to “all people everywhere on earth.”
- The phrase “Let all creation rejoice” means “Let everything that God created rejoice.”
- Depending on the context, “create” could be translated as “make” or “cause to be” or “make out of nothing.”
- The term “the Creator” could be translated as “the One who created everything” or “God, who made the whole world.”
- Phrases like “your Creator” could be translated as “God, who created you.”

cut off

Definition:
The expression “be cut off” is an expression that means to be excluded, banished or isolated from the main group. It can also refer to being killed as an act of divine judgment for sin.

  • In the Old Testament, disobeying God's commands resulted in being cut off, or separated, from God's people and from his presence.
  • God also said he would “cut off” or destroy the non-Israelite nations, because they did not worship or obey him and were enemies of Israel.
  • The expression “cut off” is also used to refer to God causing a river to stop flowing.

Translation Suggestions:

  • The expression “be cut off” could be translated as “be banished” or “be sent away” or “be separated from” or “be killed” or “be destroyed.”
  • Depending on the context, to “cut off” could be translated as, to “destroy” or to “send away” or to “separate from” or to “destroy.”
  • In the context of flowing waters being cut off, this could be translated as “were stopped” or “were caused to stop flowing” or “were divided.”
  • The literal meaning of cutting something with a knife should be distinguished from the figurative uses of this term.

darkness

Definition:
The term “darkness” literally means an absence of light. There are also several figurative meanings of this term:

- As a metaphor, “darkness” means “impurity” or “evil” or “spiritual blindness.”
- It also refers to anything related to sin and moral corruption.
- The expression “dominion of darkness” refers to all that is evil and ruled by Satan.
- The term “darkness” can also be used as a metaphor for death. (See: Metaphor)
- People who do not know God are said to be “living in darkness,” which means they do not understand or practice righteousness.
- God is light (righteousness) and the darkness (evil) cannot overcome that light.
- The place of punishment for those who reject God is sometimes referred to as “outer darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term literally, with a word in the project language that refers to the absence of light. This could also be a term that refers to the darkness of a room with no light or to the time of day when there is no light.
- For the figurative uses, it is also important to keep the image of darkness in contrast to light, as a way to describe evil and deception in contrast to goodness and truth.
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could be, “darkness of night” (as opposed to “light of day”) or “not seeing anything, like at night” or “evil, like a dark place”.

declare, proclaim, announce

Definition:

The terms “declare” and “declaration” refer to making a formal or public statement, often to emphasize something. Other terms with similar meaning include “proclaim,” “proclamation,” “announce,” and “announcement.”

• A “declaration” not only emphasizes the importance of what is being proclaimed, but it also calls attention to the one making the declaration.
• For example, in the Old Testament, a message from God is often preceded by “the declaration of Yahweh” or “this is what Yahweh declares.” This expression emphasizes that it is Yahweh himself who is saying this. The fact that the message comes from Yahweh shows how important that message is.

Translation Suggestions:

• Depending on the context, “declare” could also be translated as “proclaim” or “publicly state” or “strongly say” or “emphatically state.”
• The term “declaration” could also be translated as “statement” or “proclamation.”
• The phrase “this is Yahweh’s declaration” could be translated as “this is what Yahweh declares” or “this is what Yahweh says.”

deliver, deliverer, deliverance, hand over, turn over, released, rescue

Definition:

To “deliver” someone means to rescue that person. The term “deliverer” refers to someone who rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers. The term “deliverance” refers to what happens when someone rescues or frees people from slavery, oppression, or other dangers.

- In the Old Testament, God appointed deliverers to protect the Israelites by leading them in battle against other people groups who came to attack them.
- These deliverers were also called “judges” and the Old Testament book of Judges records the time in history when these judges were governing Israel.
- God is also called a “deliverer.” Throughout the history of Israel, he delivered or rescued his people from their enemies.
- The term “deliver over to” or “deliver up to” has a very different meaning of handing or turning someone over to an enemy, such as when Judas delivered Jesus over to the Jewish leaders.

Translation Suggestions:

- In the context of helping people escape from their enemies, the term “deliver” can be translated as “rescue” or “liberate” or “save.”
- When it means to deliver someone over to the enemy, “deliver over” can be translated as “betray to” or “hand over” or “give over.”
- The word “deliverer” can also be translated as “rescuer” or “liberator.”
- When the term “deliverer” refers to the judges who led Israel, it could also be translated as “governor” or “judge” or “leader.”

die, dead, deadly, death,

Definition:
The term "death" refers to being physically dead instead of alive.

1. Physical death
   - To "die" means to stop living. Death is the end of physical life.
   - The expression "put to death" refers to killing or murdering someone, especially when a king or other ruler gives an order for someone to be killed.

2. Eternal death
   - Eternal death is the separation of a person from God.
   - This is the kind of death that happened to Adam when he sinned and disobeyed God. His relationship with God was broken. He became ashamed and tried to hide from God.
   - This same kind of death happens to every person, because we sin. But God gives us eternal life when we have faith in Jesus Christ.

Translation Suggestions:

- To translate this term, it is best to use the everyday, natural word or expression in the target language that refers to death.
- In some languages, to "die" may be expressed as to “not live.” The term “dead” may be translated as “not alive” or “not having any life” or “not living.”
- Many languages use figurative expressions to describe death, such as to “pass away” in English. However, in the Bible it is best to use the most direct term for death that is used in everyday language.
- In the Bible, eternal life and eternal death are often compared to physical life and physical death. It is important in a translation to use the same word or phrase for both physical death and eternal death.
- In some languages it may be more clear to say "eternal death" when the context requires that meaning. Some translators may also feel it is best to say “physical death” in contexts where it is being contrasted to spiritual death.
- The expression “the dead” is a nominal adjective that refers to people who have died. Some languages will translate this as “dead people” or “people who have died.” (See: nominal adjective)
- The expression "put to death" could also be translated as “kill” or “murder” or “execute.”

firstborn

Definition:
The term “firstborn” refers to an offspring of people or animals that is born first, before the other offspring are born.

- In the Bible, “firstborn” usually refers to the first male offspring that is born.
- In Bible times, the firstborn son was given a place of prominence and twice as much of his family inheritance as the other sons.
- Often it was the firstborn male of an animal that was sacrificed to God.
- This concept can also be used figuratively. For example, the nation of Israel is called God's firstborn son because God gave it special privileges over other nations.
- Jesus, the Son of God is called God's firstborn because of his importance and authority over everyone else.

Translation Suggestions:
- When “first-born” occurs in the text alone, it could also be translated as “firstborn male” or “firstborn son,” since that is what is implied. (See: Assumed Knowledge and Implicit Information)
- Other ways to translate this term could include “the son who was born first” or “the eldest son” or “the number one son.”
- When used figuratively to refer to Jesus, this could be translated with a word or phrase that means “the son who has authority over everything” or “the Son who is first in honor.”
- Caution: Make sure the translation of this term in reference to Jesus does not imply that he was created.

firstfruits

Definition:
The term “firstfruits” refers to a portion of the first crop of fruits and vegetables that was reaped during each harvest season.

- The Israelites offered these first fruits to God as a sacrificial offering.
- This term is also used figuratively in the Bible to refer to a firstborn son as being the first fruits of the family. That is, because he was the first son to be born into that family, he was the one who carried on the family name and honor.
- Because Jesus rose from the dead, he is called the “firstfruits” of all believers in him, believers who have died but who will some day come back to life.
- Believers in Jesus are also called the “firstfruits” of all creation, indicating the special privilege and position of those whom Jesus redeemed and called to be his people.

Translation Suggestions:

- The literal use of this term could be translated as “first portion (of crops)” or “first part of the harvest.”
- If possible, the figurative uses should be translated literally, to allow for different meanings in different contexts. This will also show the correlation between the literal meaning and the figurative uses.

flesh

Definition:
In the Bible, the term “flesh” literally refers to the soft tissue of the physical body of a human being or animal.

- The Bible also uses the term “flesh” in a figurative way to refer to all human beings or all living creatures.
- In the New Testament, the term “flesh” is used to refer to the sinful nature of human beings. This is often used in contrast to their spiritual nature.
- The expression “own flesh and blood” refers to someone who is biologically related to another person, such as a parent, sibling, child, or grandchild.
- The expression “flesh and blood” can also refer to a person’s ancestors or descendants.
- The expression “one flesh” refers to the physical uniting of a man and woman in marriage.

Translation Suggestions:
- In the context of an animal's body, “flesh” could be translated as “body” or “skin” or “meat.”
- When it is used to refer generally to all living creatures, this term could be translated as “living beings” or “everything that is alive.”
- When referring in general to all people, this term could be translated as “people” or “human beings” or “everyone who lives.”
- The expression “flesh and blood” could also be translated as “relatives” or “family” or “kinfolk” or “family clan.” There may be contexts where it could be translated as “ancestors” or “descendants.”
- Some languages may have an expression that is similar in meaning to “flesh and blood.”
- The expression “become one flesh” could be translated as “unite sexually” or “become as one body” or “become like one person in body and spirit.” The translation of this expression should be checked to make sure it is acceptable in the project language and culture. (See: euphemism). It should also be understood that this is figurative, and does not mean that a man and a woman who “become one flesh” literally become one person.

forgive, forgiven, forgiveness, pardon, pardoned

Definition:

To forgive someone means to not hold a grudge against that person even though they did something hurtful. “Forgiveness” is the act of forgiving someone.

- Forgiving someone often means not punishing that person for something he has done wrong.
- This term can be used figuratively to mean “cancel,” as in the expression “forgive a debt.”
- When people confess their sins, God forgives them based on Jesus’ sacrificial death on the cross.
- Jesus taught his disciples to forgive others as he has forgiven them.

The term “pardon” means to forgive and not punish someone for his sin.

- This word has the same meaning as “forgive” but may also include the meaning of a formal decision to not punish someone who is guilty.
- In a court of law, a judge can pardon a person found guilty of a crime.
- Even though we are guilty of sin, Jesus Christ pardoned us from being punished in hell, based on his sacrificial death on the cross.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “forgive” could be translated as “pardon” or “cancel” or “release” or “not hold against” (someone).
- The term “forgiveness” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “practice of not resenting” or “declaring (someone) as not guilty” or “the act of pardoning.”
- If the language has a word for a formal decision to forgive, that word could be used to translate “pardon.”

found, founder, foundation

Definition:

The verb “found” means build, create, or lay a base for. The phrase “founded on” means supported by or based on. A “foundation” is the base of support on which something is built or created.

- The foundation of a house or building must be strong and dependable in order to support the entire structure.
- The term “foundation” can also refer to the beginning of something or to the time when something was first created.
- In a figurative sense, believers in Christ are compared to a building that is founded on the teachings of the apostles and prophets, with Christ himself being the cornerstone of the building.
- A “foundation stone” was a stone that was laid as part of the foundation. These stones were tested to make sure they were strong enough to support an entire building.

Translation Suggestions:

- The phrase “before the foundation of the world” could be translated as “before the creation of the world” or “before the time when the world first existed” or “before everything was first created.”
- The term “founded on” could be translated as “securely built on” or “firmly based on.”
- Depending on the context, “foundation” could be translated as “strong base” or “solid support” or “beginning” or “creation.”

fruit, fruitful, unfruitful

Definition:

The term “fruit” literally refers to the part of a plant that can be eaten. Something that is “fruitful” has a lot of fruit. These terms are also used figuratively in the Bible.

- The Bible often uses “fruit” to refer to a person's actions. Just as fruit on a tree shows what kind of tree it is, in the same way a person's words and actions reveal what his character is like.
- A person can produce good or bad spiritual fruit, but the term “fruitful” always has the positive meaning of producing much good fruit.
- The term “fruitful” is also used figuratively to mean “prosperous.” This often refers to having many children and descendants, as well as having plenty of food and other wealth.
- In general, the expression “fruit of” refers to anything that comes from or that is produced by something else. For example, the “fruit of wisdom” refers to the good things that come from being wise.
- The expression “fruit of the land” refers generally to everything that the land produces for people to eat. This includes not only fruits such as grapes or dates, but also vegetables, nuts, and grains.
- The figurative expression “fruit of the Spirit” refers to godly qualities that the Holy Spirit produces in the lives of people who obey him.
- The expression “fruit of the womb” refers to “what the womb produces--"that is children.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term using the general word for “fruit” that is commonly used in the project language to refer to the edible fruit of a fruit tree. In many languages it may be more natural to use the plural, “fruits” whenever it refers to more than one fruit.
- Depending on the context, the term “fruitful” could be translated as “producing much spiritual fruit” or “having many children” or “prosperous.”
- The expression “fruit of the land” could also be translated as “food that the land produces” or “food crops that are growing in that region.”
- When God created animals and people, he commanded them to “be fruitful and multiply,” which refers to having many offspring. This could also be translated as “have many offspring” or “have many children and descendants” or “have many children so that you will have many descendants.”
- The expression “fruit of the womb” could be translated as “what the womb produces” or “children a women gives birth to” or just “children.” When Elizabeth says to Mary “blessed is the fruit of your womb,” she means “blessed is the child you will give birth to.” The project language may also have a different expression for this.
- Another expression “fruit of the vine,” could be translated as “vine fruit” or “grapes.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “will be more fruitful” could also be translated as “will produce more fruit” or “will have more children” or “will be prosperous.”
- The apostle Paul's expression “fruitful labor” could be translated as “work that brings very good results” or “efforts that result in many people believing in Jesus.”
- The “fruit of the Spirit” could also be translated as “works that the Holy Spirit produces” or “words and actions that show that the Holy Spirit is working in someone.”

Gentile

Facts:

The term “Gentile” refers to anyone who is not a Jew. Gentiles are people who are not descendants of Jacob.

- In the Bible, the term “uncircumcised” is also used figuratively to refer to Gentiles because many of them did not circumcise their male children as the Israelites did.
- Because God chose the Jews to be his special people, they thought of the Gentiles as outsiders who could never be God's people.
- The Jews were also called “Israelites” or “Hebrews” at different times in history. They referred to anyone else as a “Gentile.”
- Gentile could also be translated as “not a Jew” or “non-Jewish” or “not an Israelite” (Old Testament) or “non-Jew.”.
- Traditionally, Jews would neither eat with nor associate with Gentiles, which at first caused problems within the early church.

glory, glorious, glorify

Definition:

The term “glory” is a general term for a family of concepts including value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, or majesty. The term “glorify” means to ascribe glory to someone or something, or to show or tell how glorious something or someone is.

- In the Bible, the term “glory” is especially used to describe God, who is more valuable, more worthy, more important, more honorable, more splendid, and more majestic than anyone or anything in the universe. Everything about his character reveals his glory.
- People can glorify God by telling about the wonderful things he has done. They can also glorify God by living in accordance with God's character, because doing so shows to others his value, worth, importance, honor, splendor, and majesty.
- The expression to “glory in” means to boast about or take pride in something.

Old Testament

- The specific phrase “the glory of Yahweh” in the Old Testament usually refers to some perceptible manifestation of Yahweh’s presence in a particular location.

New Testament

- God the Father will glorify God the Son by revealing to all people the full extent of how glorious Jesus is.
- Everyone who believes in Christ will be glorified with him. This use of the term "glorify" carries a unique meaning. It means that when people who believe in Christ are raised to life, they will be changed physically to be like Jesus as he appeared after his resurrection.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “glory” could include “splendor” or “majesty” or “awesome greatness” or “extreme value.”
- The term “glorious” could be translated as “full of glory” or “extremely valuable” or “brightly shining” or “awesomely majestic.”
- The expression “give glory to God” could be translated as “honor God’s greatness” or “praise God because of his splendor” or “tell others how great God is.”
- The expression “glory in” could also be translated as “praise” or “take pride in” or “boast about” or “take pleasure in.”
- “Glorify” could also be translated as “give glory to” or “bring glory to” or “cause to appear great.”
- The phrase “glorify God” could also be translated as “praise God” or “talk about God’s greatness” or “show how great God is” or “honor God (by obeying him).”
- The term “be glorified” could also be translated as, “be shown to be very great” or “be praised” or “be exalted.”

God

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “God” refers to the eternal being who created the universe out of nothing. God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God's personal name is “Yahweh.”

- God has always existed; he existed before anything else existed, and he will continue to exist forever.
- He is the only true God and has authority over everything in the universe.
- God is perfectly righteous, infinitely wise, holy, sinless, just, merciful, and loving.
- He is a covenant-keeping God, who always fulfills his promises.
- People were created to worship God and he is the only one they should worship.
- God revealed his name as “Yahweh,” which means “he is” or “I am” or “the One who (always) exists.”
- The Bible also teaches about false “gods,” which are nonliving idols that people wrongly worship.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “God” could include “Deity” or “Creator” or “Supreme Being” or “Supreme Creator” or “Infinite Sovereign Lord” or “Eternal Supreme Being.”
- Consider how God is referred to in a local or national language. There may also already be a word for “God” in the language being translated. If so, it is important to make sure that this word fits the characteristics of the one true God as described above.
- Many languages capitalize the first letter of the word for the one true God, to distinguish it from the word for a false god. Another way to make this distinction would be to use different terms for “God” and “god.”
  NOTE: In the biblical text, when a person who does not worship Yahweh speaks about Yahweh and uses the word “god,” it is acceptable to render the term without a capital letter in reference to Yahweh (see Jonah 1:6, 3:9).
- The phrase “I will be their God and they will be my people” could also be translated as “I, God, will rule over these people and they will worship me.”

God the Father, heavenly Father, Father

Facts:

The terms “God the Father” and “heavenly Father” refer to Yahweh, the one true God. Another term with the same meaning is “Father,” used most often when Jesus was referring to him.

- God exists as God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Each one is fully God, and yet they are only one God. This is a mystery that mere humans cannot fully understand.
- God the Father sent God the Son (Jesus) into the world and he sends the Holy Spirit to his people.
- Anyone who believes in God the Son becomes a child of God the Father, and God the Holy Spirit comes to live in that person. This is another mystery that human beings cannot fully understand.

Translation Suggestions:

- In translating the phrase “God the Father,” it is best to translate “Father” with the same word that the language naturally uses to refer to a human father.
- The term “heavenly Father” could be translated by “Father who lives in heaven” or “Father God who lives in heaven” or “God our Father from heaven.”
- Usually “Father” is capitalized when it, refers to God.

god, false god, goddess, idol, idolater, idolatrous, idolatry

Definition:
A false god is something that people worship instead of the one true God. The term “goddess” refers specifically to a female false god.

- These false gods or goddesses do not exist. Yahweh is the only God.
- People sometimes make objects into idols to worship as symbols of their false gods.
- In the Bible, God's people frequently turned away from obeying him in order to worship false gods.
- Demons often deceive people into believing that the false gods and idols they worship have power.
- Baal, Dagon, and Molech were three of the many false gods that were worshiped by people in Bible times.
- Asherah and Artemis (Diana) were two of the goddesses that ancient peoples worshiped.

An idol is an object that people make so they can worship it. Something is described as “idolatrous” if it involves giving honor to something other than the one true God.

- People make idols to represent the false gods that they worship.
- These false gods do not exist; there is no God besides Yahweh.
- Sometimes demons work through an idol to make it seem like it has power, even though it does not.
- Idols are often made of valuable materials like gold, silver, bronze, or expensive wood.
- An “idolatrous kingdom” means a “kingdom of people who worship idols” or a “kingdom of people who worship earthly things.”
- The term “idolatrous figure” is another word for a “carved image” or an “idol.”

Translation Suggestions:

- There may already be a word for “god” or “false god” in the language or in a nearby language.
- The term “idol” could be used to refer to false gods.
- In English, a lower case “g” is used to refer to false gods, and upper case “G” is used to refer to the one true God. Other languages also do that.
- Another option would be to use a completely different word to refer to the false gods.
- Some languages may add a word to specify whether the false god is described as male or female.

godly, godliness, ungodly, godless, ungodliness, godlessness

Definition:

The term “godly” is used to describe a person who acts in a way that honors God and shows what God is like. “Godliness” is the character quality of honoring God by doing his will.

- A person who has godly character will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit, such as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and self-control.
- The quality of godliness shows that a person has the Holy Spirit and is obeying him.

The terms “ungodly” and “godless” describe people who are in rebellion against God. Living in an evil way, without thought of God, is called “ungodliness” or “godlessness.”

- The meanings of these words are very similar. However, “godless” and “godlessness” may describe a more extreme condition in which people or nations do not even acknowledge God or his right to rule them.
- God pronounces judgment and wrath on ungodly people, on everyone who rejects him and his ways.

Translation Suggestions:

Gomorrah

Facts:

Gomorrah was a city located in a fertile valley near Sodom, where Abraham’s nephew Lot chose to live.

- The exact location of Gomorrah and Sodom is unknown, but there are indications that they may have been located directly south of the Salt Sea, near the Valley of Siddim.
- There were many kings at war in the region where Sodom and Gomorrah were located.
- When Lot’s family was captured in a conflict between Sodom and other cities, Abraham and his men rescued them.
- Not long after that, Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed by God because of the wickedness of the people who lived there.

grave, gravediggers, tomb, burial place

Definition:

The terms “tomb” and “grave” refer to a place where people put the body of a person who has died. A “burial place” is a more general term that also refers to this.

- The Jews sometimes used natural caves as tombs, and sometimes they dug caves into rock in the side of a hill.
- In New Testament times, it was common to roll a large, heavy stone in front of the opening of a tomb in order to close it.
- If the target language the word for a tomb can only refer to a hole in which the body is placed below the ground, other ways to translate this could include “cave” or “hole in the side of a hill.”
- The phrase “the grave” is often used generally and figuratively to refer to the condition of being dead or a place where the souls of dead people are.

Definition:
The term “guilt” refers to the fact of having sinned or committed a crime.

- To “be guilty” means to have done something morally wrong, that is, to have disobeyed God.
- The opposite of “guilty” is “innocent.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Some languages might translate “guilt” as “the weight of sin” or “the counting of sins.”
- Ways to translate to “be guilty” could include a word or phrase that means, to “be at fault” or “having done something morally wrong” or “having committed a sin.”

hand

Definition:

The word “hand” refers to the part of the body at the end of the arm. In the Bible, this term is associated with a person's power, control, or action, whether it be in reference to God or in reference to a human person.

Some of the various uses of the term “hand” include the following:

- To “lay a hand on” means to “harm.”
- To “save from the hand of” means to prevent someone from being harmed by another person.
- The position of being “on the right hand” means “on the right side” or “to the right.”
- The expression “by the hand of” someone means “by” or “through” the action of that person. For example, the phrase “by the hand of the Lord” means that God caused something to happen.
- Expressions such as “hand over to” or “deliver into the hands of” refer to causing someone to be under the control or power of someone else.
- The term “laying on of hands” can refer to placing a hand on a person in order to dedicate that person to God's service, to pray for healing, or to ask God to bless that person.
- When Paul says “written by my hand,” it means that he himself wrote that part of the letter rather than speaking it to someone else to write down.

Translation Suggestions

- These expressions and other figures of speech could be translated using other figurative expressions that have the same meaning. Or the meaning could be translated using direct, literal language (see examples above).
- The expression “handed him the scroll” could also be translated as “gave him the scroll” or “put the scroll in his hand.” It was not given to him permanently, but just for the purpose of using it at that time.
- An expression such as “delivered them into the hands of their enemies” or “handed them over to their enemies,” could be translated as, “allowed their enemies to conquer them” or “caused them to be captured by their enemies” or “empowered their enemies to gain control over them.”
- To “die by the hand of” could be translated as “be killed by.”
- The expression “on the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of.”
- In regard to Jesus being “seated at the right hand of God,” if this does not communicate in the language that it refers to a position of high honor and equal authority, a different expression with that meaning could be used. Or a short explanation could be added: “on the right side of God, in the position of highest authority.”

head

Definition:

The word “head” refers to the uppermost body part of a human body, above the neck. This term is often used figuratively to mean many different things, including “top,” “first,” “beginning,” “source,” and other concepts.

Some examples of various uses of the term "head" include:

- The expression “no razor will ever touch his head” means that he should never cut or shave his hair.
- The expression “let their blood be on his own head” means that the man is responsible for their deaths and will receive the punishment for that.
- The expression “heads of grain” refers to the top part of wheat or barley plants that contains the seeds. Similarly, the expression "head of a mountain" refers to the top part of the mountain.
- The term “head” can also refer to the beginning or source of something, or the first in a series of things (can be objects or people).
- Often the term “head” refers to the most important person in a group or to a person who is in authority over others. For example, the phrase “You have made me the head over nations” means “You have made me the ruler...” or “You have given me authority over....”

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term “head” could be translated as “authority” or “ruler” or “the one who is responsible for.”
- The expression “will be on his own head” could be translated as “will be on him” or “he will be punished for” or “he will be held responsible for” or “he will be considered guilty for.”
- Depending on the context, some other ways to translate this term might include “top” or “beginning” or “source” or “leader.”

heart

Definition:

The term “heart” refers to the internal bodily organ that pumps blood throughout the body in people and animals. However, in the Bible the term “heart” is often used figuratively to refer to a person's thoughts, emotions, desires, or will.

- To have a “hard heart” is a common expression that means a person stubbornly refuses to obey God.
- The expressions “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” mean to do something with complete sincerity, commitment, or willingness, holding nothing back.
- The expression “take it to heart” means to treat something seriously and apply it to one's life.
- The term “brokenhearted” describes a person who is very sad. That person has been deeply hurt emotionally.

Translation Suggestions

- Some languages use a different body part such as “stomach” or “liver” to refer to these ideas.
- Other languages may use one word to express some of these concepts and another word to express others.
- If “heart” or other body part does not have this meaning, some languages may need to express this literally with terms such as “thoughts” or “emotions” or “desires.”
- Depending on the context, “with all my heart” or “with my whole heart” could be translated as “with all my energy” or “with complete dedication” or “completely” or “with total commitment.”
- The expression “take it to heart” could be translated as “treat it seriously” or “carefully think about it.”
- The expression “hard-hearted” could also be translated as “stubbornly rebellious” or “refusing to obey” or “continually disobeying God.”
- Ways to translate “brokenhearted” could include “very sad” or “feeling deeply hurt.”

heaven, sky, heavens, heavenly

Definition:

The term that is translated as “heaven” usually refers to where God lives. The same word can also mean “sky,” depending on the context.

- The term “heavens” refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars. It also includes the heavenly bodies, such as far-off planets, that we can’t directly see from the earth.
- The term “sky” refers to the blue expanse above the earth that has clouds and the air we breathe. Often the sun and moon are also said to be “up in the sky.”
- In some contexts in the Bible, the word “heaven” could refer to either the sky or the place where God lives.

Translation Suggestions:

- For “kingdom of heaven” in the book of Matthew, it is best to keep the word “heaven” since this is distinctive to Matthew’s gospel.
- The terms “heavens” or “heavenly bodies” could also be translated as, “sun, moon, and stars” or “all the stars in the universe.”
- The phrase, “stars of heaven” could be translated as “stars in the sky” or “stars in the galaxy” or “stars in the universe.”

heir

Definition:
An “heir” is a person who legally receives property or money that belonged to a person who has died.

- In Bible times, the main heir was the firstborn son, who received most of the property and money of his father.
- The Bible also uses “heir” in a figurative sense to refer to person who as a Christian receives spiritual benefits from God, his spiritual father.
- As God’s children, Christians are said to be “joint heirs” with Jesus Christ. This could also be translated as “co-heirs” or “fellow heirs” or “heirs together with.”
- The term “heir” could be translated as “person receiving benefits” or whatever expression is used in the language to communicate the meaning of someone who receives property and other things when a parent or other relative dies.

Holy Spirit, Spirit of God, Spirit of the Lord, Spirit

Facts:

These terms all refer to the Holy Spirit, who is God. The one true God exists eternally as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

- The Holy Spirit is also referred to as “the Spirit” and “Spirit of Yahweh” and “Spirit of truth.”
- Because the Holy Spirit is God, he is absolutely holy, infinitely pure, and morally perfect in all his nature and in everything he does.
- Along with the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit was active in creating the world.
- When God’s Son, Jesus, returned to heaven, God sent the Holy Spirit to his people to lead them, teach them, comfort them, and enable them to do God’s will.
- The Holy Spirit guided Jesus and he guides those who believe in Jesus.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term could simply be translated with the words used to translate “holy” and “spirit.”
- Ways to translate this term could also include “Pure Spirit” or “Spirit who is Holy” or “God the Spirit.”

holy, holiness, unholy, sacred

Definition:

The terms “holy” and “holiness” refer to the character of God that is totally set apart and separated from everything that is sinful and imperfect.

- Only God is absolutely holy. He makes people and things holy.
- A person who is holy belongs to God and has been set apart for the purpose of serving God and bringing him glory.
- An object that God has declared to be holy is one that he has set apart for his glory and use, such as an altar that is for the purpose of offering sacrifices to him.
- People cannot approach him unless he allows them to, because he is holy and they are merely human beings, sinful and imperfect.
- In the Old Testament, God set apart the priests as holy for special service to him. They had to be ceremonially cleansed from sin in order to approach God.
- God also set apart as holy certain places and things that belonged to him or in which he revealed himself, such as his temple.

Literally, the term “unholy” means “not holy.” It describes someone or something that does not honor God.

- This word is used to describe someone who dishonors God by rebelling against him.
- A thing that is called “unholy” could be described as being common, profane or unclean. It does not belong to God.

The term “sacred” describes something that relates to worshiping God or to the pagan worship of false gods.

- In the Old Testament, the term “sacred” was oftentimes to describe the stone pillars and other objects used in the worship of false gods. This could also be translated as “religious.”
- “Sacred songs” and “sacred music” refer to music that was sung or played for God’s glory. This could be translated as “music for worshipping Yahweh” or “songs that praise God.”
- The phrase “sacred duties” referred to the “religious duties” or “rituals” that a priest performed to lead people in worshiping God. It could also refer to the rituals performed by a pagan priest to worship a false god.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “holy” might include “set apart for God” or “belonging to God” or “completely pure” or “perfectly sinless” or “separated from sin.”
- To “make holy” is often translated as “sanctify” in English. It could also be translated as “set apart (someone) for God’s glory.”
- Ways to translate “unholy” could include “not holy” or “not belonging to God” or “not honoring to God” or “not godly.”
- In some contexts, “unholy” could be translated as “unclean.”

honor

Definition:

The terms “honor” and to “honor” refer to giving someone respect, esteem, or reverence.

- Honor is usually given to someone who is of higher status and importance, such as a king or God.
- God instructs Christians to honor others.
- Children are instructed to honor their parents in ways that include respecting them and obeying them.
- The terms “honor” and “glory” are often used together, especially when referring to Jesus. These may be two different ways of referring to the same thing.
- Ways of honoring God include thanking and praising him, and showing him respect by obeying him and living in a way that shows how great he is.

Translation Suggestions:

- Other ways to translate “honor” could include “respect” or “esteem” or “high regard.”
- The term to “honor” could be translated as to “show special respect to” or to “cause to be praised” or to “show high regard for” or to “highly value.”

hope, hoped

Definition:
Hope is strongly desiring something to happen. Hope can imply either certainty or uncertainty regarding a future event.

- In the Bible, the term “hope” also has the meaning of “trust,” as in “my hope is in the Lord.” It refers to a sure expectation of receiving what God has promised his people.
- Sometimes the ULT translates the term in the original language as “confidence.” This happens mostly in the New Testament in situations where people who believe in Jesus as their Savior have the assurance (or confidence or hope) of receiving what God has promised.
- To have “no hope” means to have no expectation of something good happening. It means that it is actually very certain that it will not happen.

Translation Suggestions:
- In some contexts, the term to “hope” could also be translated as to “wish” or to “desire” or to “expect.”
- The expression “nothing to hope for” could be translated as “nothing to trust in” or “no expectation of anything good.”
- To “have no hope” could be translated as “have no expectation of anything good” or “have no security” or “be sure that nothing good will happen.”
- The expression “have set your hopes on” could also be translated as “have put your confidence in” or “have been trusting in.”
- The phrase “I find hope in your Word” could also be translated as “I am confident that your Word is true” or “Your Word helps me trust in you” or “When I obey your Word, I am certain to be blessed.”
- Phrases such as “hope in” God could also be translated as, “trust in God” or “know for sure that God will do what he has promised” or “be certain that God is faithful.”

Hosea

Facts:

Hosea was a prophet of Israel who lived and prophesied about 750 years before the time of Christ.

- His ministry lasted for many years through the reigns of several kings, such as Jeroboam, Zechariah, Jotham, Ahaz, Hoshea, Uzziah, and Hezekiah.
- Hosea was told by God to marry a prostitute named Gomer and to continue to love her, even though she was unfaithful to him.
- This was a picture of God's love for his unfaithful people, Israel.
- Hosea prophesied against the people of Israel because of their sin, warning them to turn away from worshipping idols.

Definition:

In addition to being used to refer to when or how long something took place, the term “hour” is also used in several figurative ways:

- Sometimes “hour” refers to a regular, scheduled time to do something, such as the “hour of prayer.”
- When the text says that the “hour had come” for Jesus to suffer and be put to death, this means that it was the appointed time for this to happen—the time that God had selected long ago.
- The term “hour” is also used to mean “at that moment” or “right then.”
- When the text talks about the “hour” being late, this means that it was late in the day, when the sun would soon be setting.

Translation Suggestions:

- When used figuratively, the term “hour” can be translated as “time” or “moment” or “appointed time.”
- The phrase “in that very hour” or “the same hour” could be translated as “at that moment” or “at that time” or “immediately” or “right then.”
- The expression “the hour was late” could be translated as “it was late in the day” or “it would soon be getting dark” or “it was late afternoon.”

hour, moment, immediately, for a while

Definition:

The term “hour” is often used in the Bible to tell what time of day a certain event took place. It is also used figuratively to mean “time” or “moment.”

- The Jews counted daylight hours starting at sunrise (around 6 a.m.). For example, “the ninth hour” meant “around three in the afternoon.”
- Nighttime hours were counted starting at sunset (around 6 p.m.). For example, “the third hour of the night” meant “around nine in the evening” in our present-day system.
- Since references to time in the Bible will not correspond exactly to the present-day time system, phrases such as “around nine” or “about six o’clock” could be used.
- Some translations might add phrases like “in the evening” or “in the morning” or “in the afternoon” to make it clear what time of day is being talked about.
- The phrase, “in that hour” could be translated as, “at that time” or “in that moment.”
- Referring to Jesus, the expression “his hour had come” could be translated as, “the time had come for him to” or “the appointed time for him had come.”

house

Definition:

The term “house” refers to a small building, shelter, or tent, usually the place where a family sleeps. The term is often used figuratively in the Bible to mean various concepts such as “household” or “descendants,” etc.

- Sometimes the term "house" means “household,” referring to the people who live together in one house.
- Sometimes the term "house" means "family" or "descendants," referring to all the people related to or descended from a particular person. For example, the phrase “house of David” refers to all the descendants of King David.
- The terms “house of God” and “house of Yahweh” refer to the tabernacle or temple. These expressions can also refer generally to a central place where Yahweh was worshipped.
- The phrase “house of Israel” can refer generally to the entire nation of Israel or more specifically to the tribes of the northern kingdom of Israel.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, "house" could be translated as "household" or "people" or "family" or "descendants" or "temple" or "dwelling place."
- The phrase “house of David” could be translated as “clan of David” or “family of David” or “descendants of David.” Related expressions could be translated in a similar way.
- Different ways to translate “house of Israel” could include “people of Israel” or “Israel's descendants” or “Israelites.”
- The phrase “house of Yahweh” could be translated as “Yahweh's temple” or “place where Yahweh is worshiped” or “place where Yahweh meets with his people” or “where Yahweh dwells.” The phrase “house of God” could be translated in a similar way.

Image, carved image, cast metal images, figure, carved figure, statue

Definition:

These terms are all used to refer to idols that have been made for worshiping a false god. In the context of worshiping idols, the term “image” is a shortened form of “carved image.”

- A “carved image” or “carved figure” is a wooden object that has been made to look like an animal, person, or thing.
- A “cast metal figure” is an object or statue created by melting metal and pouring it into a mold that is in the shape of an object, animal, or person.
- These wooden and metal objects were used in the worship of false gods.
- The term “image” when referring to an idol could either refer to a wooden or metal idol.

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to an idol, the term “image” could also be translated as “statue” or “engraved idol” or “carved religious object.”
- It may be more clear in some languages to always use a descriptive word with this term, such as “carved image” or “cast metal figure,” even in places where only the term “image” or “figure” is in the original text.
- Make sure it is clear that this term is different than the term used to refer to being in the image of God.

in Christ, in Jesus, in the Lord, in him

Definition:

The phrase “in Christ” and related terms refer to the state or condition of being in relationship with Jesus Christ through faith in him.

- Other related terms include “in Christ Jesus, in Jesus Christ, in the Lord Jesus, in the Lord Jesus Christ.”
- Possible meanings for the term “in Christ” could include “because you belong to Christ” or “through the relationship you have with Christ” or “based on your faith in Christ.”
- These related terms all have the same meaning of being in a state of believing in Jesus and being his disciple.
- Note: Sometimes the word “in” belongs with the verb. For example, “share in Christ” means to “share in” the benefits that come from knowing Christ. To “glory in” Christ means to be glad and give praise to God for who Jesus is and what he has done. To “believe in” Christ means to trust him as Savior and know him.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, different ways to translate “in Christ” and “in the Lord” (and related phrases) could include:
  - “who belong to Christ”
  - “because you believe in Christ”
  - “because Christ has saved us”
  - “in service to the Lord”
  - “relying on the Lord”
  - “because of what the Lord has done.”
- People who “believe in” Christ or who “have faith in” Christ believe what Jesus taught and are trusting him to save them because of his sacrifice on the cross that paid the penalty for their sins. Some languages may have one word that translates verbs like “believe in” or “share in” or “trust in.”

iniquity

Definition:

The term “iniquity” is a word that is very similar in meaning to the term “sin,” but may more specifically refer to conscious acts of wrongdoing or great wickedness.

- The word “iniquity” literally means a twisting or distorting (of the law). It refers to major injustice.
- Iniquity could be described as deliberate, harmful actions against other people.
- Other definitions of iniquity include “perversity” and “ depravity,” which are both words that describe conditions of terrible sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “iniquity” could be translated as “wickedness” or “pervasive actions” or “harmful acts.”
- Often, “iniquity” occurs in the same text as the word “sin” and “transgression” so it is important to have different ways of translating these terms.

inocent

Definition:

The term “innocent” means to not be guilty of a crime or other wrongdoing. It can also refer more generally to people who are not involved in evil things.

- A person accused of doing something wrong is innocent if he has not committed that wrong.
- Sometimes the term “innocent” is used to refer to people who have done nothing wrong to deserve the bad treatment they are receiving, as in an enemy army attacking “innocent people.”
- In the Bible, “blood” can represent “killing,” so “innocent blood” refers to “killing people who did not deserve to die.”

Translation Suggestions:

- In most contexts, the term “innocent” can be translated as “not guilty” or “not responsible” or “not to blame” for something.
- When referring in general to innocent people, this term could be translated as “who have done nothing wrong” or “who are not involved in evil.”
- “To shed innocent blood” can be translated as "to kill people who did not deserve to die."

Isaac

Facts:

Isaac was the only son of Abraham and Sarah. God had promised to give them a son even though they were very old.

• The name “Isaac” means “he laughs.” When God told Abraham that Sarah would give birth to a son, Abraham laughed because they were both very old. Some time later, Sarah also laughed when she heard this news.
• But God fulfilled his promise and Isaac was born to Abraham and Sarah in their old age.
• God told Abraham that the covenant he had made with Abraham would also be for Isaac and his descendants forever.
• When Isaac was a youth, God tested Abraham’s faith by commanding him to sacrifice Isaac.
• Isaac's son Jacob had twelve sons whose descendants later became the twelve tribes of the nation of Israel.

Israel, Israelite, Jacob

Facts:

Jacob was the younger twin son of Isaac and Rebekah.

- Jacob's name means “he grabs the heel” which is an expression meaning “he deceives.” As Jacob was being born, he was holding onto the heel of his twin brother Esau.
- Many years later, God changed Jacob's name to “Israel,” which means “he struggles with God.”
- Jacob was clever and deceptive. He found ways to take the firstborn blessing and inheritance rights from his older brother, Esau.
- Esau was angry and planned to kill him so Jacob left his homeland. But years later Jacob returned with his wives and children to the land of Canaan where Esau was living, and their families lived peacefully near each other.
- Jacob had twelve sons. Their descendants became the twelve tribes of Israel.
- A different man named Jacob is listed as being Joseph's father in Matthew's genealogy.

it is written

Definition:

The phrase “as it is written” or “what is written” occurs frequently in the New Testament and usually refers to commands or prophecies that were written in the Hebrew scriptures.

- Sometimes “as it is written” refers to what was written in the Law of Moses.
- Other times it is a quote from what one of the prophets wrote in the Old Testament.
- This could be translated “as it is written in the Law of Moses” or “as the prophets wrote long ago” or “what it says in God’s laws that Moses wrote down long ago”.
- Another option is to keep “It is written” and give a footnote that explains what this means.

jealous, jealousy

Definition:

The terms “jealous” and “jealousy” refer to a strong desire to protect the purity of a relationship. They can also refer to a strong desire to keep possession of something or someone.

- These terms are often used to describe the angry feeling that a person has toward a spouse who has been unfaithful in their marriage.
- When used in the Bible, these terms often refer to God's strong desire for his people to remain pure and unstained by sin.
- God is also “jealous” for his name, desiring that it be treated with honor and reverence.
- Another meaning of jealous involves being angry that someone else is successful or more popular. This is close in meaning to the word “envious.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “jealous” could include “strong protective desire” or “possessive desire.”
- The term “jealousy” could be translated as “strong protective feeling” or “possessive feeling.”
- When talking about God, make sure the translation of these terms does not give a negative meaning of being resentful of someone else.
- In the context of people’s wrong feelings of anger toward other people who are more successful, the terms “envious” and “envy” could be used. But these terms should not be used for God.

Jerusalem

Facts:

Jerusalem was originally an ancient Canaanite city that later became the most important city in Israel. It is located about 34 kilometers west of the Salt Sea and just north of Bethlehem. It is still the capital city of Israel today.

- The name "Jerusalem" is first mentioned in the book of Joshua. Other Old Testament names for this city include "Salem" ("city of Jebus," and "Zion." Both "Jerusalem" and "Salem," have the root meaning of "peace."
- Jerusalem was originally a Jebusite fortress called "Zion" which King David captured and made into his capital city.
- It was in Jerusalem that David's son Solomon built the first temple in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, which was the mountain where Abraham had offered his son Isaac to God. The temple was rebuilt there after it was destroyed by the Babylonians.
- Because the temple was in Jerusalem, the major Jewish festivals were celebrated there.
- People normally referred to going "up" to Jerusalem since it is located in the mountains.

- 18:02 In Jerusalem, Solomon built the Temple for which his father David had planned and gathered materials.
- 20:07 They (Babylonians) captured the city of Jerusalem, destroyed the Temple, and took away all the treasures of the city and the Temple.
- 20:12 So, after seventy years in exile, a small group of Jews returned to the city of Jerusalem in Judah.
- 38:01 About three years after Jesus first began preaching and teaching publicly, Jesus told his disciples that he wanted to celebrate this Passover with them in Jerusalem, and that he would be killed there.
- 38:02 After Jesus and the disciples arrived in Jerusalem, Judas went to the Jewish leaders and offered to betray Jesus to them in exchange for money.
- 42:08 “It was also written in the scriptures that my disciples will proclaim that everyone should repent in order to receive forgiveness for their sins. They will do this starting in Jerusalem, and then go to all people groups everywhere.”
- 42:11 Forty days after Jesus rose from the dead, he told his disciples, “Stay in Jerusalem until you receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you.”

Jesse

Facts:

Jesse was the father of King David and the grandson of Ruth and Boaz.

- Jesse was from the tribe of Judah.
- He was an “Ephrathite,” which means he was from the region of Ephrathah. The town of Bethlehem was located in the region of Ephrathah.
- The prophet Isaiah prophesied about a “shoot” or “branch” that would come from the “root of Jesse” and bear fruit. This refers to Jesus, who was a descendant of Jesse.

Jesus, Jesus Christ, Christ Jesus

Facts:

Jesus is God’s Son. The name “Jesus” means “Yahweh saves.” The term “Christ” is a title that means “anointed one” and is another word for Messiah.

- The two names are often combined as “Jesus Christ” or “Christ Jesus.” These names emphasize that God’s Son is the Messiah, who came to save people from being punished eternally for their sins.
- In a miraculous way, the Holy Spirit caused the eternal Son of God to be born as a human being. His mother was told by an angel to call him “Jesus” because he was destined to save people from their sins.
- Jesus did many miracles that revealed that he is God and that he is the Christ, or the Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:

- In many languages “Jesus” and “Christ” are spelled in a way that keeps the sounds or spelling as close to the original as possible. For example, “Jesucristo,” “Jezus Christus,” “Yesus Kristus,” and “Hesukristo” are some of the ways that these names are translated into different languages.
- For the term “Christ,” some translators may prefer to use only some form of the term “Messiah” throughout.
- Also consider how these names are spelled in a nearby local or national language.

Definition:

joy

The term "joy" refers to a feeling of delight or deep satisfaction. The related term "joyful" describes a person who feels very glad and is full of deep happiness.

- A person feels joy when he has a deep sense that what he is experiencing is very good.
- God is the one who gives true joy to people.
- Having joy does not depend on pleasant circumstances. God can give people joy even when very difficult things are happening in their lives.
- Sometimes places are described as joyful, such as houses or cities. This means that the people who live there are joyful.

rejoice

The term "rejoice" means to be full of joy and gladness.

- This term often refers to being very happy about the good things that God has done.
- It could be translated as "be very happy" or "be very glad" or "be full of joy."
- When Mary said "my soul rejoices in God my Savior," she meant "God my Savior has made me very happy" or "I feel so joyful because of what God my Savior has done for me."

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "joy" could also be translated as "gladness" or "delight" or "great happiness."
- The phrase, "be joyful" could be translated as "rejoice" or "be very glad" or it could be translated "be very happy in God's goodness."
- A person who is joyful could be described as "very happy" or "delighted" or "deeply glad."
- A phrase such as "make a joyful shout" could be translated as "shout in a way that shows you are very happy."

Judea

Facts:
The term "Judea" refers to an area of land in ancient Israel. It is sometimes used in a narrow sense and other times in a broad sense.

- Sometimes "Judea" is used in a narrow sense to refer only to the province located in the southern part of ancient Israel just west of the Dead Sea. Some translations call this province "Judah."
- Other times "Judea" has a broad sense and refers to all the provinces of ancient Israel, including Galilee, Samaria, Perea, Idumea and Judea (Judah).
- If translators want to make the distinction clear, the broad sense of Judea could be translated as "Judea Country" and the narrow sense could be translated as "Judea Province," or "Judah Province" since this is the part of ancient Israel where the tribe of Judah had originally lived.

judge, judgment

Definition:

The terms “judge” and “judgment” often refer to making a decision about whether or not something is good, wise, or right.

• The “judgment of God” often refers to his decision to condemn something or someone as sinful.
• God’s judgment usually includes punishing people for their sin.
• The term “judge” can also mean “condemn.” God instructs his people not to judge each other in this way.
• Another meaning is “arbitrate between” or “judge between,” as in deciding which person is right in a dispute between them.
• In some contexts, God’s “judgments” are what he has decided is right and just. They are similar to his decrees, laws, or precepts.
• “Judgment” can refer to wise decision-making ability. A person who lacks “judgment” does not have the wisdom to make wise decisions.

Translation Suggestions:

• Depending on the context, ways to translate to “judge” could include to “decide” or to “condemn” or to “punish” or to “decree.”
• The term “judgment” could be translated as “punishment” or “decision” or “verdict” or “decree” or “condemnation.”
• In some contexts, the phrase “in the judgment” could also be translated as “on judgment day” or “during the time when God judges people.”

just, justice, unjust, injustice, justify, justification

Definition:

“Just” and “justice” refer to treating people fairly according to God’s laws. Human laws that reflect God’s standard of right behavior toward others are also just.

- To be “just” is to act in a fair and right way toward others. It also implies honesty and integrity to do what is morally right in God’s eyes.
- To act “justly” means to treat people in a way that is right, good, and proper according to God’s laws.
- To receive “justice” means to be treated fairly under the law, either being protected by the law or being punished for breaking the law.
- Sometimes the term “just” has the broader meaning of “righteous” or “following God’s laws.”

The terms “unjust” and “unjustly” refer to treating people in an unfair and often harmful manner.

- An “injustice” is something bad that is done to someone that the person did not deserve. It refers to treating people unfairly.
- Injustice also means that some people are treated badly while others are treated well.
- Someone who is acting in an unjust way is being “partial” or “prejudiced” because he is not treating people equally.

The terms “justify” and “justification” refer to causing a guilty person to be righteous. Only God can truly justify people.

- When God justifies people, he forgives their sins and makes it as though they have no sin. He justifies sinners who repent and trust in Jesus to save them from their sins.
- “Justification” refers to what God does when he forgives a person’s sins and declares that person to be righteous in his sight.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate “just” could include “morally right” or “fair.”
- The term “justice” could be translated as “fair treatment” or “deserved consequences.”
- To “act justly” could be translated as “treat fairly” or “behave in a just way.”
- In some contexts, “just” could be translated as “righteous” or “upright.”
- Depending on the context, “unjust” could also be translated as “unfair” or “partial” or “unrighteous.”
- The phrase “the unjust” could be translated as “the unjust ones” or “unjust people” or “people who treat others unfairly” or “unrighteous people” or “people who disobey God.”
- The term “unjustly” could be translated as, “in an unfair manner” or “wrongly” or “unfairly.”
- Ways to translate “injustice” could include, “wrong treatment” or “unfair treatment” or “acting unfairly.”
  (See: abstractnouns)
- Other ways to translate “justify” could include “declare (someone) to be righteous” or “cause (someone) to be righteous.”
- The term “justification” could be translated as “being declared righteous” or “becoming righteous” or “causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “resulting in justification” could be translated as “so that God justified many people” or “which resulted in God causing people to be righteous.”
- The phrase “for our justification” could be translated as “in order that we could be made righteous by God.”

kin, kinfolk, kindred, kinsman

Definition:
The term “kin” refers to a person’s blood relatives, considered as a group. The word “kinsman” refers specifically to a male relative.

• “Kin” can only refer to a person's close relatives, such as parents and siblings, or it can also include more distant relatives, such as an aunts, uncles, or cousins.
• In ancient Israel, if a man died, his nearest male relative was expected to marry his widow, manage his property, and help carry on his family name. This relative was called a “kinsman-redeemer.”
• This term “kin” could also be translated as, “relative” or “family member.”

kind [NOT kindness]

Definition:
The term “kind” refers to a group or classification of something(s) that share some common characteristics but not all characteristics.

- In the Bible, this term is specifically used to refer to the distinctive kinds of plants and animals that God made when he created the world.
- Often there are many different variations or species within each “kind.” For example, horses, zebras, and donkeys are all members of the same “kind,” but they are different species.
- The main thing that distinguishes each “kind” as a separate group is that members of that group can reproduce more of their same “kind.” Members of different kinds cannot do that with each other.

Translation Suggestions
- Ways to translate this term could include “type” or “class” or “group” or “animal (plant) group” or “category.”

kingdom

Definition:

A kingdom is a group of people ruled by a king. It also refers to the realm or political regions over which a king or other ruler has control and authority.

- A kingdom can be of any geographical size. A king might govern a nation or country or only one city.
- The term "kingdom" can also refer to a spiritual reign or authority, as in the term "kingdom of God."
- God is the ruler of all creation, but the term “kingdom of God” especially refers to his reign and authority over the people who have believed in Jesus and who have submitted to his authority.
- The Bible also talks about Satan having a “kingdom” in which he temporarily rules over many things on this earth. His kingdom is evil and is referred to as “darkness.”

Translation Suggestions:

- When referring to a physical region that is ruled over by a king, the term "kingdom" could be translated as “country (ruled by a king)” or “king's territory” or “region ruled by a king.”
- In a spiritual sense, “kingdom” could be translated as “ruling” or “reigning” or “controlling” or “governing.”
- One way to translate “kingdom of priests” might be “spiritual priests who are ruled by God.”
- The phrase “kingdom of light” could be translated as “God's reign that is good like light” or “when God, who is light, rules people” or “the light and goodness of God's kingdom.” It is best to keep the word “light” in this expression since that is a very important term in the Bible.
- Note that the term “kingdom” is different from an empire, in which an emperor rules over several countries.

kingdom of God, kingdom of heaven

Definition:
The terms “kingdom of God” and “kingdom of heaven” both refer to God’s rule and authority over his people and over all creation.

- The Jews often used the term “heaven” to refer to God, to avoid saying his name directly. (See: metonymy)
- In the New Testament book that Matthew wrote, he referred to God’s kingdom as “the kingdom of heaven,” probably because he was writing primarily for a Jewish audience.
- The kingdom of God refers to God ruling people spiritually as well as ruling over the physical world.
- The Old Testament prophets said that God would send the Messiah to rule with righteousness. Jesus, the Son of God, is the Messiah who will rule over God’s kingdom forever.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “kingdom of God” can be translated as “God's rule (as king)” or “when God reigns as king” or “God's rule over everything.”
- The term “kingdom of heaven” could also be translated as “God's rule from heaven as king” or “God in heaven reigning” or “heaven's reign” or “heaven ruling over everything.” If it is not possible to translate this simply and clearly, the phrase “kingdom of God” could be translated instead.
- Some translators may prefer to capitalize “Heaven” to show that it refers to God. Others may include a note in the text, such as “kingdom of heaven (that is, ‘kingdom of God’).”
- A footnote at the bottom of the page of a printed Bible may also be used to explain the meaning of “heaven” in this expression.

- 28:06 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “It is extremely hard for rich people to enter into the kingdom of God! Yes, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”
- 29:02 Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.”
- 34:01 Jesus told many other stories about the kingdom of God. For example, he said, “The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed that someone planted in his field.”
- 34:03 Jesus told another story, “The kingdom of God is like yeast that a woman mixes into some bread dough until it spreads throughout the dough.”
• 34:04 “The kingdom of God is also like hidden treasure that someone hid in a field. Another man found the treasure and then buried it again.”
• 34:05 “The kingdom of God is also like a perfect pearl of great value.”

kiss

Definition:
A kiss is an action in which one person puts his lips to another person's lips or face. This term can also be used figuratively.

- Some cultures kiss each other on the cheek as a form of greeting or to say goodbye.
- A kiss can communicate deep love between two people, such as a husband and wife.
- The expression to “kiss someone farewell” means to say goodbye with a kiss.
- Sometimes the word “kiss” is used to mean “say goodbye to.” When Elisha said to Elijah, “Let me first go and kiss my father and mother,” he wanted to say goodbye to his parents before leaving them to follow Elijah.

know, knowledge, unknown, distinguish

Definition:

The term "know" and "knowledge" means generally to understand something or someone. It can also mean to be aware of a fact or to be familiar with a person. The expression "to make known" means to tell information.

- The term "knowledge" refers to information that people know. It can apply to knowing physical concepts or abstract concepts.
- To "know about" God means to understand facts about him because of what he has revealed to us.
- To "know" God means to have a relationship with him. This also applies to knowing people.
- To know God's will means to be aware of what he has commanded, or to understand what he wants a person to do.
- To "know the Law" means to be aware of what God has commanded or to understand what God has instructed in the laws he gave to Moses.
- Sometimes "knowledge" is used as a synonym for "wisdom," which includes living in a way that is pleasing to God.
- The "knowledge of God" is sometimes used as a synonym for the "fear of Yahweh."

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, ways to translate "know" could include “understand” or “be familiar with” or “be aware of” or “be acquainted with” or “be in relationship with.”
- In the context of understanding the difference between two things, the term is usually translated as "distinguish." When used in this way, the term is often followed by the preposition "between."
- Some languages have two different words for “know,” one for knowing facts and one for knowing a person and having a relationship with him.
- The term “make known” could be translated as “cause people to know” or “reveal” or “tell about” or “explain.”
- To “know about” something could be translated as “be aware of” or “be familiar with.”
- The expression “know how to” means to understand the process or method of getting something done. It could also be translated as “be able to” or “have the skill to.”
- The term “knowledge” could also be translated as “what is known” or “wisdom” or “understanding,” depending on the context.

law of Moses, God's law, law of Yahweh, the law

Definition:
All these terms refer to the commandments and instructions that God gave Moses for the Israelites to obey. The terms “law” and “God's law” are also used more generally to refer to everything God wants his people to obey.

- Depending on the context, the “law” can refer to:
  - the Ten Commandments that God wrote on stone tablets for the Israelites
  - all the laws given to Moses
  - the first five books of the Old Testament
  - the entire Old Testament (also referred to as “scriptures” in the New Testament).
  - all of God's instructions and will
- The phrase “the law and the prophets” is used in the New Testament to refer to the Hebrew scriptures (or “Old Testament”)

Translation Suggestions:
- These terms could be translated using the plural, “laws,” since they refer to many instructions.
- The “law of Moses” could be translated as “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Depending on the context, “the law of Moses” could also be translated as “the law that God told to Moses” or “God's laws that Moses wrote down” or “the laws that God told Moses to give to the Israelites.”
- Ways to translate “the law” or “law of God” or “God's laws” could include “laws from God” or “God's commands” or “laws that God gave” or “everything that God commands” or “all of God's instructions.”
- The phrase “law of Yahweh” could also be translated as “Yahweh's laws” or “laws that Yahweh said to obey” or “laws from Yahweh” or “things Yahweh commanded.”

law, principle

Definition:

A “law” is a legal rule that is usually written down and enforced by someone in authority. A “principle” is a guideline for decision-making and behavior, and is usually not written down or enforced. However, sometimes the term “law” is used to mean a “principle.”

- A “law” is similar to a “decree,” but the term “law” is generally used to refer to something written rather than spoken.
- Both “law” and “principle” can refer to a general rule or belief that guides a person's behavior.
- This meaning of “law” is different from its meaning in the term “law of Moses,” where it refers to commands and instructions that God gave the Israelites.
- When a general law is being referred to, “law” could be translated as “principle” or “general rule.”

lawful, unlawful, not lawful, lawless, lawlessness

Definition:

The term “lawful” refers to something that is permitted to be done according to a law or other requirement. The opposite of this is “unlawful,” which simply means “not lawful.”

- In the Bible, something was “lawful” if it was permitted by God's moral law, or by the Law of Moses and other Jewish laws. Something that was “unlawful” was “not permitted” by those laws.
- To do something “lawfully” means to do it “properly” or “in the right way.”
- Many of the things that the Jewish laws considered lawful or not lawful were not in agreement with God's laws about loving others.
- Depending on the context, ways to translate “lawful” could include “permitted” or “according to God's law” or “following our laws” or “proper” or “fitting.”
- The phrase “Is it lawful?” could also be translated as “Do our laws allow?” or “Is that something our laws permit?”

The terms “unlawful” and “not lawful” are used to describe actions that break a law.

- In the New Testament, the term "unlawful" is not only used to refer to breaking God's laws, but also often refers to breaking Jewish man-made laws.
- Over the years, the Jews added to the laws that God gave to them. The Jewish leaders would call something “unlawful” if it did not conform to their man-made laws.
- When Jesus and his disciples were picking grain on a Sabbath day, the Pharisees accused them of doing something “unlawful” because it was breaking the Jewish laws about not working on that day.
- When Peter stated that eating unclean foods was “unlawful” for him, he meant that if he ate those foods he would be breaking the laws God had given the Israelites about not eating certain foods.

The term “lawless” describes a person who does not obey laws or rules. When a country or group of people are in a state of “lawlessness,” there is widespread disobedience, rebellion, or immorality.

- A lawless person is rebellious and does not obey God's laws.
- The apostle Paul wrote that in the last days there will be a “man of lawlessness,” or a “lawless one,” who will be influenced by Satan to do evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term "unlawful" should be translated using a word or expression that means “not lawful” or “lawbreaking.”

life, live, living, alive

Definition:

The term "life" refers to being physically alive as opposed to being physically dead.

1. Physical life

- A “life” can also refer to an individual person as in “a life was saved”.
- Sometimes the word “life” refers to the experience of living as in, “his life was enjoyable.”
- It can also refer to a person's lifespan, as in the expression, “the end of his life.”
- The term “living” may refer to being physically alive, as in “my mother is still living.” It may also refer to dwelling somewhere as in, “they were living in the city.”
- In the Bible, the concept of “life” is often contrasted with the concept of “death.”

2. Eternal life

- A person has eternal life when he believes in Jesus. God gives that person a transformed life with the Holy Spirit living in him.
- The opposite of eternal life is eternal death, which means being separated from God and experiencing eternal punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “life” can be translated as “existence” or “person” or “soul” or “being” or “experience.”
- The term “live” could be translated by “dwell” or “reside” or “exist.”
- The expression “end of his life” could be translated as “when he stopped living.”
- The expression “spared their lives’ could be translated as “allowed them to live” or “did not kill them.”
- The expression “they risked their lives” could be translated as “they put themselves in danger” or “they did something that could have killed them.”
- When the Bible text talks about eternal life, the term “life” could be translated in the following ways: “eternal life” or “God making us alive in our spirits” or “new life by God’s Spirit” or “being made alive in our inner self.”
- Depending on the context, the expression “give life” could also be translated as “cause to live” or “give eternal life” or “cause to live eternally.”

light, lighting, lightning, daylight, sunlight, twilight, enlighten

Definition:

There are several figurative uses of the term “light” in the Bible. It is often used as a metaphor for righteousness, holiness, and truth. (See: Metaphor)

- Jesus said, “I am the light of the world” to express that he brings God's true message to the world and rescues people from the darkness of their sin.
- Christians are commanded to “walk in the light,” which means they should be living the way God wants them to and avoiding evil.
- The apostle John stated that “God is light” and in him there is no darkness at all.
- Light and darkness are complete opposites. Darkness is the absence of all light.
- Jesus said that he was “the light of the world” and that his followers should shine like lights in the world by living in a way that clearly shows how great God is.
- “Walking in the light” represents living in a way that pleases God, doing what is good and right. Walking in darkness represents living in rebellion against God, doing evil things.

Translation Suggestions:

- When translating, it is important to keep the literal terms “light” and “darkness” even when they are used figuratively.
- It may be necessary to explain the comparison in the text. For example, “walk as children of light” could be translated as, “live openly righteous lives, like someone who walks in bright sunlight.”
- Make sure that the translation of “light” does not refer to an object that gives light, such as a lamp. The translation of this term should refer to the light itself.

like, likeminded, likeness, likewise, alike, unlike, as if

Definition:

The terms “like” and “likeness” refer to something being the same as, or similar to, something else.

- The word “like” is also often used in a figurative expressions called a “simile” in which something is compared to something else, usually highlighting a shared characteristic. For example, “his clothes shined like the sun” and “the voice boomed like thunder.” (See: Simile)
- To “be like” or “sound like” or “look like” something or someone means to have qualities that are similar to the thing or person being compared to.
- People were created in God’s “likeness,” that is, in his “image.” It means that they have qualities or characteristics that are “like” or “similar to” qualities that God has, such as the ability to think, feel, and communicate.
- To have “the likeness of” something or someone means to have characteristics that look like that thing or person.

Translation Suggestions

- In some contexts, the expression “the likeness of” could be translated as “what looked like” or “what appeared to be.”
- The expression “in the likeness of his death” could be translated as “sharing in the experience of his death” or “as if experiencing his death with him.”
- The expression “in the likeness of sinful flesh” could be translated as “being like a sinful human being” or to “be a human being.” Make sure the translation of this expression does not sound like Jesus was sinful.
- “In his own likeness” could also be translated as to “be like him” or “having many of the same qualities that he has.”
- The expression “the likeness of an image of perishable man, of birds, of four-footed beasts and of creeping things” could be translated as “idols made to look like perishable humans, or animals, such as birds, beasts, and small, crawling things.”

lord, Lord, master, sir

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “lord” generally refers to someone who has ownership or authority over other people. In the Bible, however, the term is used to address many different kinds of people, including God.

- This word is sometimes translated as “master” when addressing Jesus or when referring to someone who owns slaves.
- Some English versions translate this as “sir” in contexts where someone is politely addressing someone of higher status.

When “Lord” is capitalized, it is a title that refers to God. (Note, however, that when it is used as a form of addressing someone or it occurs at the beginning of a sentence it may be capitalized and have the meaning of “sir” or “master.”)

- In the Old Testament, this term is also used in expressions such as “Lord God Almighty” or “Lord Yahweh” or “Yahweh our Lord.”
- In the New Testament, the apostles used this term in expressions such as “Lord Jesus” and “Lord Jesus Christ,” which communicate that Jesus is God.
- The term “Lord” in the New Testament is also used alone as a direct reference to God, especially in quotations from the Old Testament. For example, the Old Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh” and the New Testament text has “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.”
- In the ULT and UST, the title “Lord” is only used to translate the actual Hebrew and Greek words that mean “Lord.” It is never used as a translation of God’s name (Yahweh), as is done in many translations.
- Some languages translate “Lord” as “Master” or “Ruler” or some other term that communicates ownership or supreme rule.
- In the appropriate contexts, many translations capitalize the first letter of this term to make it clear to the reader that this is a title referring to God.
- For places in the New Testament where there is a quote from the Old Testament, the term “Lord God” could be used to make it clear that this is a reference to God.

Translation Suggestions:

- This term can be translated with the equivalent of “master” when it refers to a person who owns slaves. It can also be used by a servant to address the person he works for.
- When it refers to Jesus, if the context shows that the speaker sees him as a religious teacher, it can be translated with a respectful address for a religious teacher, such as “master.”
- If the person addressing Jesus does not know him, “lord” could be translated with a respectful form of address such as “sir.” This translation would also be used for other contexts in which a polite form of address to a man is called for.
- When referring to God the Father or to Jesus, this term is considered a title, written as “Lord” (capitalized) in English.

love, beloved

Definition:

To love another person is to care for that person and do things that will benefit him. There are different meanings for "love" some languages may express using different words:

1. The kind of love that comes from God is focused on the good of others even when it doesn't benefit oneself. This kind of love cares for others, no matter what they do. God himself is love and is the source of true love.
   - Jesus showed this kind of love by sacrificing his life in order to rescue us from sin and death. He also taught his followers to love others sacrificially.
   - When people love others with this kind of love, they act in ways that show they are thinking of what will cause the others to thrive. This kind of love especially includes forgiving others.
   - In the ULT, the word "love" refers to this kind of sacrificial love, unless a Translation Note indicates a different meaning.

2. Another word in the New Testament refers to brotherly love, or love for a friend or family member.
   - This term refers to natural human love between friends or relatives.
   - The term can also be used in such contexts as, “They love to sit in the most important seats at a banquet.” This means that they “like very much” or “greatly desire” to do that.

3. The word “love” can also refer to romantic love between a man and a woman.

Translation Suggestions:

- Unless indicated otherwise in a Translation Note, the word “love” in the ULT refers to the kind of sacrificial love that comes from God.
- Some languages may have a special word for the kind of unselfish, sacrificial love that God has. Ways to translate this might include, "devoted, faithful caring" or "care for unselfishly" or "love from God." Make sure that the word used to translate God's love can include giving up one's own interests to benefit others and loving others no matter what they do.
- Sometimes the English word “love” describes the deep caring that people have for friends and family members. Some languages might translate this with a word or phrase that means, “like very much” or “care for” or “have strong affection for.”
- In contexts where the word “love” is used to express a strong preference for something, this could be translated by “strongly prefer” or “like very much” or “greatly desire.”
- Some languages may also have a separate word that refers to romantic or sexual love between a husband and wife.
- Many languages must express “love” as an action. So for example, they might translate “love is patient, love is kind” as, “when a person loves someone, he is patient with him and kind to him.”

Facts:

Moses was a prophet and leader of the Israelite people for over 40 years.

- When Moses was a baby, Moses' parents put him in a basket in the reeds of the Nile River to hide him from the Egyptian Pharaoh. Moses' sister Miriam watched over him there. Moses' life was spared when the pharaoh's daughter found him and took him to the palace to raise him as her son.
- God chose Moses to free the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and to lead them to the Promised Land.
- After the Israelites' escape from Egypt and while they were wandering in the desert, God gave Moses two stone tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them.
- Near the end of his life, Moses saw the Promised Land, but didn't get to live in it because he disobeyed God.

name

Definition:

The term “name” refers to the word by which a specific person or thing is called. In the Bible, however, the term “name” is used in several different ways to refer to several different concepts.

• In some contexts, “name” could refer to a person’s reputation, as in “let us make a name for ourselves.”
• The term “name” could also refer to the memory of something. For example, “cut off the names of the idols” means to destroy those idols so that they are no longer remembered or worshiped.
• Speaking “in the name of God” meant speaking with his power and authority, or as his representative.
• The “name” of someone could refer to the entire person, as in “there is no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.” (See: metonymy)

Translation Suggestions:

• An expression like “his good name” could be translated as “his good reputation.”
• Doing something “in the name of” could be translated as “with the authority of” or “with the permission of” or “as the representative of” that person.
• The expression “make a name for ourselves” could be translated “cause many people to know about us” or “make people think we are very important.”
• The expression “call his name” could be translated as “name him” or “give him the name.”
• The expression “those who love your name” could be translated as “those who love you.”
• The expression “cut off the names of idols” could be translated as “get rid of pagan idols so that they are not even remembered” or “cause people to stop worshiping false gods” or “completely destroy all idols so that people no longer even think about them.”

nation

Definition:
A nation is a large group of people ruled by some form of government. The people of a nation often have the same ancestors and share a common ethnicity.

- A "nation" usually has a well-defined culture and territorial boundaries.
- In the Bible, a "nation" could be a country (like Egypt or Ethiopia), but often it is more general and refers to a people group, especially when used in the plural. It is important to check the context.
- Nations in the Bible included the Israelites, the Philistines, the Assyrians, the Babylonians, the Canaanites, the Romans, and the Greeks, among many others.
- Sometimes the word "nation" was used figuratively to refer to the ancestor of a certain people group, as when Rebekah was told by God that her unborn sons were "nations" that would fight against each other. This could be translated as "the founders of two nations" or the "ancestors of two people groups."
- The word translated as "nation" was also sometimes used to refer to "Gentiles" or to people who do not worship Yahweh. The context usually makes the meaning clear.

Translation Suggestions:
- Depending on the context, the word "nation" could also be translated as "people group" or "people" or "country."
- If a language has a term for "nation" that is distinct from these other terms, then that term can be used wherever it occurs in the Bible text, as long as it is natural and accurate in each context.
- The plural term "nations" can often be translated as "people groups."
- In certain contexts, this term could also be translated as "Gentiles" or "nonjews."

neighbor, neighborhood, neighboring

Definition:

The term “neighbor” usually refers to a person who lives nearby. It can also refer more generally to someone who lives in the same community or people group.

- A “neighbor” is someone who would be protected and treated kindly because he is part of the same community.
- In the New Testament parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus used the term “neighbor” figuratively, expanding its meaning to include all human beings, even someone who is considered an enemy.
- If possible, it is best to translate this term literally with a word or phrase that means “person who lives nearby.”

obey, obedient

Definition:

The term “obey” means to do what has been commanded by a person or law. The term “obedient” describes someone who obeys. Sometimes a command prohibits doing something, as in “do not steal.” In this case, to “obey” means not to steal.

- Usually the term “obey” is used in the context of obeying the commands or laws of a person in authority. For example, people obey laws which are created by the leaders of a country, kingdom, or other organization.
- Children obey their parents, people obey God, and citizens obey the laws of their country.
- When someone in authority commands people not to do something, they obey by not doing that.
- Ways to translate obey could include a word or phrase that means “do what is commanded” or “follow orders” or “do what God says to do.”
- The term “obedient” could be translated as “doing what was commanded” or “following orders” or “doing what God commands.”

olive

Definition:
The olive is the small, oval fruit from an olive tree, which is mostly grown in the regions surrounding the Mediterranean Sea.

• Olive trees are a type of large evergreen shrub with tiny white flowers. They grow best in hot weather and can survive well with little water.
• The olive tree's fruit starts out green and changes to black as they ripen. Olives were useful for food and for the oil that could be extracted from them.
• Olive oil was used for cooking in lamps and for religious ceremonies.
• In the Bible, olive trees and branches are sometimes used figuratively to refer to people.

Paul, Saul

Facts:

Paul was a leader of the early church who was sent by Jesus to take the good news to many other people groups.

• Paul was a Jew who was born in the Roman city of Tarsus, and was therefore also a Roman citizen.
• Paul was originally called by his Jewish name, Saul.
• Saul became a Jewish religious leader and arrested Jews who became Christians because he thought they were dishonoring God by believing in Jesus.
• Jesus revealed himself to Saul in a blinding light and told him to stop hurting Christians.
• Saul believed in Jesus and began teaching his fellow Jews about him.
• Later, God sent Saul to teach non-Jewish people about Jesus and started churches in different cities and provinces of the Roman empire. At this time he started being called by the Roman name “Paul.”
• Paul also wrote letters to encourage and teach Christians in the churches in these cities. Several of these letters are in the New Testament.

perish

Definition:
The term “perish” means to die or be destroyed, usually as the result of violence or disaster. In the New Testament, it often has the spiritual meaning of being lost or separated from the people of God.

Spiritual Meaning of "Perish:"

• People who are “perishing” are those who have refused to trust in Jesus for their salvation.
• Those who “perish” will not live eternally with God in heaven. Instead, they will live eternally in hell under God's punishment.
• Everyone will die physically, but only those who do not trust in Jesus for their salvation will perish eternally.
• When "perish" is used in a spiritual sense, make sure that your translation expresses this differently than dying physically.

Translation Suggestions:

• Depending on the context, ways to translate this term could include "be lost from God's people," “die eternally,” “be punished in hell,” or “be destroyed.”
• Try to use a term or expression that does not only mean "die physically" or “cease to exist.”

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 21:14 The prophets foretold that the Messiah would die and that God would also raise him from the dead.
"Jesus is not here. He has risen from the dead, just like he said he would!"

"Although Jesus died, God raised him from the dead. This fulfills the prophecy which says, 'You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.' We are witnesses to the fact that God raised Jesus to life again."

"You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead."

Peter answered them, "This man stands before you healed by the power of Jesus the Messiah. You crucified Jesus, but God raised him to life again!"

This meant that Satan would kill the Messiah, but God would raise him to life again, and then the Messiah will crush the power of Satan forever.

He (Jesus) walked on water, calmed storms, healed many sick people, drove out demons, raised the dead to life, and turned five loaves of bread and two small fish into enough food for over 5,000 people.

You must believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that he died on the cross instead of you, and that God raised him to life again.

redeem, redeemer, redemption

Definition:

The term “redeem” refers to buying back something or someone that has been previously owned or held captive. A “redeemer” is someone who redeems something or someone.

- God gave laws to the Israelites about how to redeem people or things. For example, someone could redeem a person who was in slavery by paying the price so that the slave could go free. The word “ransom” also refers to this practice.
- If someone's land had been sold, a relative of that person could “redeem” or “buy back” that land so that it would stay in the family.
- These practices show how God redeems people who are in slavery to sin. When he died on the cross, Jesus paid the full price for people's sins and redeemed all those who trust in him for salvation. People who have been redeemed by God are set free from sin and its punishment.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “redeem” could also be translated as “buy back” or “pay to free (someone)” or “ransom.”
- The term “redemption” could be translated as “ransom” or “freedom payment” or “buying back.”
- The words “ransom” and “redeem” have basically the same meaning, so some languages may have only one term to translate both these words. The word “ransom,” however, can also mean the payment necessary to “redeem” something or someone. The term “redeem” never refers to the actual payment itself.

reward, prize, deserve,

Definition:

The term “reward” refers to what a person receives because of something he has done, either good or bad. To “reward” someone is to give someone something he deserves. However, this is different than the concept of “wages,” which refers to payment (often money) given in exchange for work performed.

- A reward can be a good or positive thing that a person receives because he has done something well or because he has obeyed God.
- Sometimes a reward can refer to negative things that may result from bad behavior, such as the statement “the reward of the wicked.” In this context “reward” refers to the punishment or negative consequences they receive because of their sinful actions.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, the term “reward” could be translated as “payment” or “something that is deserved” or “punishment.”
- To “reward” someone could be translated by to “repay” or to “punish” or to “give what is deserved.”
- Make sure the translation of this term does not refer to wages. A reward is not specifically about earning money as part of a job.

right hand

Definition:

The figurative expression “right hand” refers to the place of honor or strength on the right side of a ruler or other important individual.

- The right hand is also used as a symbol of power, authority, or strength.
- The Bible describes Jesus as sitting “at the right hand of” God the Father as the head of the body of believers (the Church) and in control as ruler of all creation.
- A person's right hand was used to show special honor when placed on the head of someone being given a blessing (as when the patriarch Jacob blessed Joseph's son Ephraim).
- To “serve at the right hand” of someone means to be the one whose service is especially helpful and important to that person.

Translation Suggestions:

- Sometimes the term “right hand” literally refers to a person's right hand, as when Roman soldiers put a staff into Jesus’ right hand to mock him. This should be translated using the term that the language uses to refer to this hand.
- Regarding figurative uses, if an expression that includes the term “right hand” does not have the same meaning in the project language, then consider whether that language has a different expression with the same meaning.
- The expression “at the right hand of” could be translated as “on the right side of” or “in the place of honor beside” or “in the position of strength” or “ready to help.”
- Ways to translate “with his right hand” could include “with authority” or “using power” or “with his amazing strength.”
- The figurative expression “his right hand and his mighty arm” uses two ways of emphasizing God's power and great strength. One way to translate this expression could be “his amazing strength and mighty power.” (See: parallelism)
- The expression “their right hand is falsehood” could be translated as, “even the most honorable thing about them is corrupted by lies” or “their place of honor is corrupted by deception” or “they use lies to make themselves powerful.”

righteous, righteousness, unrighteous, unrighteousness, upright, uprightness

Definition:

The term “righteousness” refers to God's absolute goodness, justice, faithfulness, and love. Having these qualities makes God “righteous.” Because God is righteous, he must condemn sin.

- These terms are also often used to describe a person who obeys God and is morally good. However, because all people have sinned, no one except God is completely righteous.
- Examples of people the Bible who were called “righteous” include Noah, Job, Abraham, Zachariah, and Elisabeth.
- When people trust in Jesus to save them, God cleanses them from their sins and declares them to be righteous because of Jesus' righteousness.

The term “unrighteous” means to be sinful and morally corrupt. “Unrighteousness” refers to sin or the condition of being sinful.

- These terms especially refer to living in a way that disobeys God's teachings and commands.
- Unrighteous people are immoral in their thoughts and actions.
- Sometimes “the unrighteous” refers specifically to people who do not believe in Jesus.

The terms “upright” and “uprightness” refer to acting in a way that follows God's laws.

- The meaning of these words includes the idea of standing up straight and looking directly ahead.
- A person who is “upright” is someone who obeys God's rules and does not do things that are against his will.
- Terms such as “integrity” and “righteous” have similar meanings and are sometimes used in parallelism constructions, such as “integrity and uprightness.” (See: parallelism)

Translation Suggestions:

- When it describes God, the term “righteous” could be translated as “perfectly good and just” or “always acting rightly.”
- God's “righteousness” could also be translated as “perfect faithfulness and goodness.”
- When it describes people who are obedient to God, the term “righteous” could also be translated as “morally good” or “just” or “living a God-pleasing life.”
- The phrase “the righteous” could also be translated as “righteous people” or “God-fearing people.”
- Depending on the context, “righteousness” could also be translated with a word or phrase that means “goodness” or “being perfect before God” or “acting in a right way by obeying God” or “doing perfectly good
- The term “unrighteous” could simply be translated as “not righteous.”
- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this could include “wicked” or “immoral” or “people who rebel against God” or “sinful.”
- The phrase “the unrighteous” could be translated as “unrighteous people.”
- The term “unrighteousness” could be translated as “sin” or “evil thoughts and actions” or “wickedness.”
- If possible, it is best to translate this in a way that shows its relationship to “righteous, righteousness.”
- Ways to translate “upright” could include “acting rightly” or “one who acts rightly” or “following God's laws” or “obedient to God” or “behaving in a way that is right.”
- The term “uprightness” could be translated as “moral purity” or “good moral conduct” or “rightness.”
- The phrase “the upright” could be translated as “people who are upright” or “upright people.”

rule, ruler, ruling, overrules

Definition:

The term “ruler” is a general reference to a person who has authority over other people, such as a leader of a country, kingdom, or religious group. A ruler is one who “rules,” and his authority is his “rule.”

- In the Old Testament, a king was sometimes referred to generally as a “ruler,” as in the phrase “appointed him ruler over Israel.”
- God was referred to as the ultimate ruler, who rules over all other rulers.
- In the New Testament, the leader of a synagogue was called a “ruler.”
- Another type of ruler in the New Testament was a “governor.”
- Depending on the context, “ruler” could be translated as “leader” or “person who has authority over.”
- The action to “rule” means to “lead” to “have authority over.” It is means the same thing as “reign” when it refers to the ruling of a king.

sacrifice, sacrifices, offering

Definition:

In the Bible, the terms “sacrifice” and “offering” refer to special gifts given to God as an act of worshiping him. People also offered sacrifices to false gods.

sacrifice

- Sacrifices to God often involved the killing of an animal.
- Only the sacrifice of Jesus, God’s perfect, sinless Son, can completely cleanse people from sin animal sacrifices could never do that.

offering

- The word “offering” generally refers to anything that is offered or given. The term “sacrifice” refers to something that is given or done at great cost to the giver.
- Offerings to God were specific things that he commanded the Israelites to give in order to express devotion and obedience to him.
- The names of the different offerings, such as “burnt offering” and “peace offering,” indicated what kind of offering was being given.

Translation Suggestions

- The term “offering” could also be translated as “a gift to God” or “something given to God” or “something valuable that is presented to God.”
- Depending on the context, the term “sacrifice” could also be translated as “something valuable given in worship” or “a special animal killed and presented to God.”
- The action to “sacrifice” could be translated as to “give up something valuable” or to “kill an animal and give it to God.”
- Another way to translate “present yourself as a living sacrifice” could be “as you live your life, offer yourself to God as completely as an animal is offered on an altar.”

Examples from the Bible stories:

- 03:14 After Noah got off the boat, he built an altar and sacrificed some of each kind of animal which could be used for a sacrifice. God was happy with the sacrifice and blessed Noah and his family.
- 05:06 “Take Isaac, your only son, and kill him as a sacrifice to me.” Again Abraham obeyed God and prepared to sacrifice his son.
- 05:09 God had provided the ram to be the sacrifice instead of Isaac.
13:09 Anyone who disobeyed God’s law could bring an animal to the Tent of Meeting as a sacrifice to God. A priest would kill the animal and burn it on the altar. The blood of the animal that was sacrificed covered the person’s sin and made that person clean in God’s sight.

17:06 David wanted to build a temple where all the Israelites could worship God and offer him sacrifices.

48:06 Jesus is the Great High Priest. Unlike other priests, he offered himself as the only sacrifice that could take away the sin of all the people in the world.

48:08 But God provided Jesus, the Lamb of God, as a sacrifice to die in our place.

49:11 Because Jesus sacrificed himself, God can forgive any sin, even terrible sins.

saint

Definition:
The term “saints” literally means “holy ones” and refers to believers in Jesus.

- Later in church history, a person known for his good works was given the title “saint,” but that was not how this term was used during New Testament times.
- Believers in Jesus are saints or holy ones, not because of what they have done, but rather because of their faith in the saving work of Jesus Christ. He is the one who makes them holy.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “saints” could include “holy ones” or “holy people” or “holy believers in Jesus” or “set apart ones.”
- Be careful not to use a term that refers to people of only one Christian group.

sanctify, sanctification

Definition:
To sanctify is to set apart or to make holy. Sanctification is the process of being made holy.

• In the Old Testament, certain people and things were sanctified, or set apart, for service to God.
• The New Testament teaches that God sanctifies people who believe in Jesus. That is, he makes them holy and sets them apart to serve him.
• Believers in Jesus are also commanded to sanctify themselves to God, to be holy in everything they do.

Translation Suggestions:
• Depending on the context, the term “sanctify” can be translated as “set apart” or “make holy” or “purify.”
• When people sanctify themselves, they purify themselves and dedicate themselves to God’s service. Often the word “consecrate” is used in the Bible with this meaning.
• When its meaning is “consecrate,” this term could be translated as “dedicate someone (or something) to God’s service.”
• Depending on the context, the phrase “your sanctification” could be translated as “making you holy” or “setting you apart (for God)” or “what makes you holy.”

Satan, devil, evil one

Facts:

Although the devil is a spirit being that God created, he rebelled against God and became God's enemy. The devil is also called “Satan” and “the evil one.”

- The devil hates God and all that God created because he wants to take the place of God and be worshiped as God.
- Satan tempts people to rebel against God.
- God sent his Son, Jesus, to rescue people from Satan's control.
- The name “Satan” means “adversary” or “enemy.”
- The word “devil” means “accuser.”

Translation Suggestions:

- The word “devil” could also be translated as “the accuser” or “the evil one” or “the king of evil spirits” or “the chief evil spirit.”
- “Satan” could be translated as “Opponent” or “Adversary” or some other name that shows that he is the devil.
- These terms should be translated differently from demon and evil spirit.
- Consider how these terms are translated in a local or national language.

- 21:01 The snake who deceived Eve was Satan. The promise meant that the Messiah who would come would defeat Satan completely.
- 25:06 Then Satan showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and all their glory and said, “I will give you all this if you bow down and worship me.”
- 25:08 Jesus did not give in to Satan's temptations, so Satan left him.
- 33:06 So Jesus explained, “The seed is the word of God. The path is a person who hears God's word, but does not understand it, and the devil takes the word from him.”
- 38:07 After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.
- 48:04 God promised that one of Eve's descendants would crush Satan's head, and Satan would wound his heel. This meant that Satan would kill the Messiah, but God would raise him to life again, and then the Messiah will crush the power of Satan forever.
- 49:15 God has taken you out of Satan's kingdom of darkness and put you into God's kingdom of light.
- 50:09 “The weeds represent the people who belong to the evil one. The enemy who planted the weeds represents the devil.”
• 50:10 “When the world ends, the angels will gather together all the people who belong to the devil and throw them into a raging fire, where they will cry and grind their teeth in terrible suffering.”

• 50:15 When Jesus returns, he will completely destroy Satan and his kingdom. He will throw Satan into hell where he will burn forever, along with everyone who chose to follow him rather than to obey God.

save, saved, safe, salvation

Definition:

The term “save” refers to keeping someone from experiencing something bad or harmful. To “be safe” means to be protected from harm or danger.

• In a physical sense, people can be saved or rescued from harm, danger, or death.
• In a spiritual sense, if a person has been “saved,” then God, through Jesus’ death on the cross, has forgiven him and rescued him from being punished in hell for his sin.
• People can save or rescue people from danger, but only God can save people from being punished eternally for their sins.

The term “salvation” refers to being saved or rescued from evil and danger.

• In the Bible, “salvation” usually refers to the spiritual and eternal deliverance granted by God to those who repent of their sins and believe in Jesus.
• The Bible also talks about God saving or delivering his people from their physical enemies.

Translation Suggestions:

• Ways to translate “save” could include “deliver” or “keep from harm” or “take out of harm's way” or “keep from dying.”
• In the expression “whoever would save his life,” the term “save” could also be translated as “preserve” or “protect.”
• The term “safe” could be translated as “protected from danger” or “in a place where nothing can harm.”
• The term “salvation” could also be translated using words related to “save” or “rescue,” as in “God's saving people (from being punished for their sins)” or “God's rescuing his people (from their enemies).”
• “God is my salvation” could be translated as “God is the one who saves me.”
• “You will draw water from the wells of salvation” could be translated as “You will be refreshed as with water because God is rescuing you.”

seal, sealed, unsealed

Definition:
To term “seal” means to close an object with something (usually called a “seal”) that makes the object impossible to open without breaking the seal.

• Often a seal is marked with a design to show who it belongs to.
• Melted wax was used to seal letters or other documents that needed to be protected. When the wax cooled and hardened, the letter could not be opened without breaking the wax seal. The person who received the letter would see the unbroken seal and know that no one had opened it.
• A seal was put on the stone in front of Jesus’ grave in order to keep anyone from moving the stone.
• Paul figuratively refers to the Holy Spirit as a “seal” showing that our salvation is secure.

seed, semen

Definition:
A "seed" is the part of a plant that gets planted in the ground to reproduce more of the same kind of plant. However, in the Bible the term "seed" is used figuratively to mean several different things.

- The term "seed" is used figuratively and euphemistically to refer to the tiny cells inside a man that combine with cells of a woman to cause a baby to grow inside her. A collection of these cells is called "semen."
- Related to this, "seed" is also used to refer to a person's offspring or descendants.
- This word often has a plural meaning, referring to more than one seed grain or more than one descendant.
- In the parable of the farmer planting seeds, Jesus compared his seeds to the Word of God, which is planted in people's hearts in order to produce good spiritual fruit.
- The apostle Paul also uses the term “seed” to refer to the Word of God.

Translation Suggestions:
- For a literal seed, it is best to use the literal term for “seed” that is used in the target language for what a farmer plants in his field.
- The literal term should also be used in contexts where it refers figuratively to God's Word.
- For the figurative use that refers to people who are of the same family line, it may be more clear to use the word “descendant” or “descendants” instead of "seed." Some languages may have a word that means “children and grandchildren.”
- For a man or woman's “seed,” consider how the target expresses this in a way that will not offend or embarrass people. (See: euphemism)

send, sent, send out

Definition:

To “send” is to cause someone or something to go somewhere. To “send out” someone is to tell that person to go on an errand or a mission.

- Often a person who is “sent out” has been appointed to do a specific task.
- Phrases like “send rain” or “send disaster” mean to “cause...to come.” This type of expression is usually used in reference to God causing these things to happen.
- The term “send” is also used in expressions such as to “send word” or to “send a message,” which means to give someone a message to tell someone else.
- To “send” someone “with” something can mean to “give” that thing “to” someone else, usually moving it some distance in order for the person to receive it.
- Jesus frequently used the phrase “the one who sent me” to refer to God the Father, who “sent” him to earth to redeem and save people. This could also be translated as “the one who commis servant, serve, slave, worker, young man, young women

Definition:

The term “serve” generally means to do work, and the concept can be applied in a wide variety of contexts. The term refers to a person who works for (or obeys) another person, either by choice or by force. In the Bible, any of the following people might be called a “servant:” a slave, a young female worker, a young male worker, someone who obeys God, and others. In biblical times, there was less of a difference between a “servant” and a “slave” than there is today. Both servants and slaves were an important part of a household, and many servants were treated almost like members of the family. Sometimes a servant would choose to become a lifetime servant to his master.

- A slave was a kind of servant who was the property of the person he worked for. The person who bought a slave was called his “owner” or “master.” Some masters treated their slaves very cruelly, while other masters treated their slaves very well, as a servant who was a valued member of the household.
- In ancient times, some people willingly became slaves to a person they owed money to in order to pay off their debt to that person.
- In the context of a person serving guests, this term means “care for” or “serve food to” or “provide food for.” When Jesus told the disciples to “serve” the fish to the people, this could be translated as, “distribute” or “hand out” or “give.”
- In the Bible, the phrase “I am your servant” was used as a sign of respect and service to a person of higher rank, such as a king. It did not mean that the person speaking was an actual servant.
- The term “serve” can also be translated as “minister to” or “work for” or “take care of” or “obey,” depending on the context.
- In the Old Testament, God's prophets and other people who worshiped God were often referred to as his “servants.”
- To “serve God” can be translated as to “worship and obey God” or to “do the work that God has commanded.”
- In the New Testament, people who obeyed God through faith in Christ were often called his “servants.”
- To “serve tables” means to bring food to people who are sitting at tables, or more generally, to “distribute food.”
- People who teach others about God are said to serve both God and the ones they are teaching.
- The apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthian Christians about how they used to “serve” the old covenant. This refers to obeying the laws of Moses. Now they “serve” the new covenant. That is, because of Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross, believers in Jesus are enabled by the Holy Spirit to please God and live holy lives.
- Paul talks about their actions in terms of their “service” to either the old or new covenant. This could be translated as “serving” or “obeying” or “devotion to.”

sexual immorality, immorality, immoral, fornication

Definition:

The term “sexual immorality” refers to sexual activity that takes place outside the marriage relationship of a man and a woman. This is against God's plan. Older English Bible versions call this “fornication.”

- This term can refer to any kind of sexual activity that is against God's will, including homosexual acts and pornography.
- One type of sexual immorality is adultery, which is sexual activity specifically between a married person and someone who is not that person's spouse.
- Another type of sexual immorality is “prostitution,” which involves being paid to have sex with someone.
- This term is also used figuratively to refer to Israel's unfaithfulness to God when they worshiped false gods.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sexual immorality” could be translated as “immorality” as long as the correct meaning of the term is understood.
- Other ways to translate this term could include “wrong sexual acts” or “sex outside of marriage.”
- This term should be translated in a different way from the term “adultery.”
- The translation of this term's figurative uses should retain the literal term if possible since there is a common comparison in the Bible between unfaithfulness to God and unfaithfulness in the sexual relationship.

shame, ashamed, disgrace, humiliate, reproach

Definition:
The term “shame” refers to the painful feeling of being disgraced or humiliated that a person feels when they do something that others consider dishonorable or improper.

- Something that is “shameful” is “improper” or “dishonorable.”
- The term “ashamed” describes how a person feels when he has done something improper or dishonorable.
- The term “humiliate” means to cause someone to feel shamed or disgraced, usually publicly. The act of shaming someone is called “humiliation.”
- To “reproach” someone means to criticize or disapprove of that person’s character or behavior.
- The phrase “put to shame” means to defeat people or expose their actions so that they feel ashamed of themselves. The prophet Isaiah said that those who make and worship idols will be put to shame.
- The term “disgraceful” can be used to describe a sinful act or the person who did it. When a person does something sinful, it can cause him to be in a state of disgrace or dishonor.
- Sometimes a person who is doing good things is treated in a way that causes him disgrace or shame. For example, when Jesus was killed on a cross, this was a disgraceful way to die. Jesus had done nothing wrong to deserve this disgrace.
- When God humbles someone, it means that he is causing a prideful person to experience failure to help him overcome his pride. This is different from humiliating someone, which is often done in order to hurt that person.
- Saying that a person is “above reproach” or “beyond reproach” or “without reproach” means that this person behaves in a God-honoring way and there is little or nothing that could be said in criticism of him.

Translation Suggestions

- Ways to translate “disgrace” could include “shame” or “dishonor.”
- Ways to translate “disgraceful” could include “shameful” or dishonoring.”
- To “humiliate” could also be translated as to “shame” or to “cause to feel shame” or to “embarrass.”

sign, proof, reminder

Definition:
A sign is an object, event, or action that communicates a special meaning.

- Signs can help people to remember a promise that God has made:
  - The rainbows God creates in the sky are signs to remind people that he has promised he will never again destroy all life with a worldwide flood.
  - God commanded the Israelites to circumcise their sons as a sign of his covenant with them.
  - In the Old Testament, God tells his people that he will “confirm” his covenant with them. This means he is stating that he will keep the promises he made in that covenant.

- Signs can reveal or point to something:
  - An angel gave shepherds a sign that would help them know which baby in Bethlehem was the newborn Messiah.
  - Judas kissed Jesus as a sign to the religious leaders that Jesus was the one they should arrest.

- Signs can prove that something is true:
  - The miracles performed by the prophets and apostles were signs that proved they were speaking God's message.
  - The miracles that Jesus performed were signs that proved he was truly the Messiah.

Translation Suggestions:
- Depending on its context, “sign” could also be translated as “signal” or “symbol” or “mark” or “evidence” or “proof” or “gesture.”
- To “make signs with the hands” could also be translated as “motion with the hands” or “gesture with the hands” or “make gestures.”
- In some languages, there may be one word for a “sign” that proves something and a different word for a “sign” that is a miracle.

sin, sinful, sinner, sinning

Definition:

The term “sin” refers to actions, thoughts, and words that are against God’s will and laws. Sin can also refer to not doing something that God wants us to do.

- Sin includes anything we do that does not obey or please God, even things that other people don't know about.
- Thoughts and actions that disobey God's will are called “sinful.”
- Because Adam sinned, all human beings are born with a “sinful nature,” a nature that that controls them and causes them to sin.
- A “sinner” is someone who sins, so every human being is a sinner.
- Sometimes the word “sinners” was used by religious people like the Pharisees to refer to people who didn't keep the law as well as the Pharisees thought they should.
- The term “sinner” was also used for people who were considered to be worse sinners than other people. For example, this label was given to tax collectors and prostitutes.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “sin” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “disobedience to God” or “going against God's will” or “evil behavior and thoughts” or “wrongdoing.”
- To “sin” could also be translated as to “disobey God” or to “do wrong.”
- Depending on the context “sinful” could be translated as “full of wrongdoing” or “wicked” or “immoral” or “evil” or “rebelling against God.”
- Depending on the context the term “sinner” could be translated with a word or phrase that means, “person who sins” or “person who does wrong things” or “person who disobeys God” or “person who disobeys the law.”
- The term “sinners” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “very sinful people” or “people considered to be very sinful” or “immoral people.”
- Ways to translate “tax collectors and sinners” could include “people who collect money for the government, and other very sinful people” or “very sinful people, including (even) tax collectors.”
- Make sure the translation of this term can include sinful behavior and thoughts, even those that other people don't see or know about.
- The term “sin” should be general, and different from the terms for “wickedness” and “evil.”

sister

Definition:

A sister is a female person who shares at least one biological parent with another person. She is said to be that other person's sister or the sister of that other person.

- In the New Testament, “sister” is also used figuratively to refer to a woman who is a fellow believer in Jesus Christ.
- Sometimes the phrase “brothers and sisters” is used to refer to all believers in Christ, both men and women.
- In the Old Testament book Song of Songs, “sister” refers to a female lover or spouse.

Translation Suggestions:

- It is best to translate this term with the literal word that is used in the target language to refer to a natural or biological sister, unless this would give wrong meaning.
- Other ways to translate this could include “sister in Christ” or “spiritual sister” or “woman who believes in Jesus” or “fellow woman believer.”
- If possible, it is best to use a family term.
- If the language has a feminine form for “believer,” this may be a possible way to translate this term.
- When referring to a lover or wife, this could be translated using a feminine form of “loved one” or “dear one.”

snare, ensnare, entrap, trap, trapped, pitfall

Definition:
The terms “snare” and “trap” refer to devices that are used to catch animals and keep them from escaping. To “snare” or “ensnare” is to catch with a snare, and to “trap” or “entrap” is to catch with a trap. In the Bible, these terms were also used figuratively to talk about how sin and temptation are like hidden traps that catch people and harm them.

- A “snare” is a loop of rope or wire that suddenly pulls tight when an animal steps into it, ensnaring its leg.
- A “trap” is usually made of metal or wood and has two parts that suddenly and powerfully close together, catching an animal so it can't get away. Sometimes a trap can be a deep hole that has been made in order to get something to fall into it.
- Usually the snare or trap is hidden so that its prey is taken by surprise.
- The phrase “set a trap” means to get a trap ready to capture something.
- To “fall into a trap” refers to falling into a deep hole or pit that was dug and hidden in order to catch an animal.
- A person who is starts sinning and cannot stop can be described as “ensnared by sin” in a figurative reference to the way an animal can be ensnared and cannot escape.
- Just as an animal is endangered and hurt by being in a trap, so a person caught in the trap of sin is being harmed by that sin and needs to be set free.

Sodom

Definition:

Sodom was a city in the southern part of Canaan where Abraham’s nephew Lot lived with his wife and children.

- The land of the region surrounding Sodom was very well watered and fertile, so Lot chose to live there when he first settled in Canaan.
- The exact location of this city is not known because Sodom and the nearby city of Gomorrah were completely destroyed by God as punishment for the evil things the people there were doing.
- The most significant sin that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah were practicing was homosexuality.

soldier, warrior

Facts:
The terms “warrior” and “soldier” both can refer to someone who fights in an army. But there are also some differences.

- Usually the term “warrior” is a general, broad term to refer to a man who is gifted and courageous in battle.
- Yahweh is figuratively described as a “warrior.”
- The term “soldier” more specifically refers to someone who belongs to a certain army or who is fighting in a certain battle.
- Roman soldiers in Jerusalem were there to keep order and to carry out duties such as executing prisoners. They guarded Jesus before crucifying him and some were ordered to stand guard at his tomb.

son

Definition:
The male offspring of a man and a woman is called their "son" for his entire life. He is also called a son of that man and a son of that woman. An “adopted son” is a male who has been legally placed into the position of being a son.

• In the Bible, the phrase “son of” can be used to identify a person’s father, mother, or an ancestor from some previous generation. This phrase is used in genealogies and many other places.
• Using “son of” to give the name of the father frequently helps distinguish people who have the same name. For example, “Azariah son of Zadok” and “Azariah son of Nathan” in 1 Kings 4, and “Azariah son of Amaziah” in 2 Kings 15 are three different men.

Translation Suggestions:
• In most occurrences of this term, it is best to translate “son” by the literal term in the language that is used to refer to a son.
• When translating the term “Son of God,” the project language’s common term for "son" should be used.
• Sometimes “sons” can be translated as “children,” when both males and females are being referred to. For example, “sons of God” could be translated as “children of God” since this expression also includes girls and women.

Son of God, the Son

Facts:

The term “Son of God” refers to Jesus, the Word of God, who came into the world as a human being. He is also often referred to as “the Son.”

- The Son of God has the same nature as God the Father, and is fully God.
- God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are all of one essence.
- Unlike human sons, the Son of God has always existed.
- In the beginning, the Son of God was active in creating the world, along with the Father and the Holy Spirit.

Because Jesus is God's Son, he loves and obeys his Father, and his Father loves him.

Translation Suggestions:

- For the term “Son of God,” it is best to translate “Son” with the same word the language would naturally use to refer to a human son.
- Make sure the word used to translate “son” fits with the word used to translate “father” and that these words are the most natural ones used to express a true father-son relationship in the project language.
- Using a capital letter to begin “Son” may help show that this is talking about God.
- The phrase “the Son” is a shortened form of “the Son of God,” especially when it occurs in the same context as “the Father.”

sons of God, children of God

Definition:
The term “sons of God” is a figurative expression that has several possible meanings.

- In the New Testament, the term “sons of God” refers to all believers in Jesus and is often translated as “children of God” since it includes both males and females.
- This use of the term speaks of a relationship with God that is like the relationship between a human son and his father, with all the privileges associated with being sons.
- Some people interpret the term “sons of God” that appears in Genesis 6 to mean fallen angels—evil spirits or demons. Others think it may refer to powerful political rulers or to the descendants of Seth.
- In the New Testament, the term “sons of God” refers to all believers in Jesus and is often translated as “children of God” since it includes both males and females.
- This use of the term speaks of a relationship with God that is like the relationship between human sons and their father, with all the privileges associated with being sons.
- The title “Son of God” is a different term: it refers to Jesus, who is God's only Son.

Translation Suggestions:

- When “sons of God” refers to believers in Jesus, it could be translated as “children of God.”
- In Genesis 6:2 and 4 ways to translate “sons of God” could include “angels,” “spirit beings,” “supernatural creatures,” or “demons.”

soul, self

Definition:

The term "soul" can either refer generally to the non-physical part of a person or refer specifically to a person's awareness of themselves as a person distinct from others.

- In the Bible, the terms "soul" and "spirit" may be two different concepts, or they may be two terms that refer to the same concept.
- When a person dies, his soul leaves his body.
- In contrast to the body, the "soul" can be spoken of as the part of a person that "relates to God."
- The word "soul" is sometimes used figuratively to refer to the whole person. For example, "the soul who sins" means "the person who sins" and "my soul is tired" means, "I am tired."

Translation Suggestions:

- The term "soul" could also be translated as "inner self" or "inner person."
- In some contexts, "my soul" could be translated as "I" or "me."
- Usually the phrase "the soul" can be translated as "the person" or "he" or "him," depending on the context.
- Some languages might only have one word for the concepts "soul" and "spirit."
- In Hebrews 4:12, the figurative phrase "dividing soul and spirit" could mean "deeply discerning or exposing the inner person."

spirit, spiritual

Definition:
The term “spirit” refers to the non-physical part of people which cannot be seen. When a person dies, his spirit leaves his body. “Spirit” can also refer to an attitude or emotional state.

- The term “spirit” can refer to a being that does not have a physical body, especially an evil spirit.
- A person’s spirit is the part of him that can know God and believe in him.
- In general, the term “spiritual” describes anything in the non-physical world.
- In the Bible, it especially refers to anything that relates to God, specifically to the Holy Spirit.
- For example, “spiritual food” refers to God’s teachings, which give nourishment to a person’s spirit, and “spiritual wisdom” refers to the knowledge and righteous behavior that come from the power of the Holy Spirit.
- God is a spirit and he created other spirit beings, who do not have physical bodies.
- Angels are spirit beings, including those who rebelled against God and became evil spirits.
- The term “spirit of” can also mean “having the characteristics of,” such as in “spirit of wisdom” or “in the spirit of Elijah.”
- Examples of “spirit” as an attitude or emotion would include “spirit of fear” and “spirit of jealousy.”

Translation Suggestions:
- Depending on the context, some ways to translate “spirit” might include “non-physical being” or “inside part” or “inner being.”
- In some contexts, the term “spirit” could be translated as “evil spirit” or “evil spirit being.”
- Sometimes the term “spirit” is used to express the feelings of a person, as in “my spirit was grieved in my inmost being.” This could also be translated as “I felt grieved in my spirit” or “I felt deeply grieved.”
- The phrase “spirit of” could be translated as “character of” or “influence of” or “attitude of” or “thinking (that is) characterized by.”

stiff-necked, stubborn, stubbornness

Definition:

The term "stiff-necked" is an idiom used in the Bible to describe people who keep disobeying God and refuse to repent. Such people are very proud and will not submit to God's authority.

- Similarly, the term "stubborn" describes a person who refuses to change his mind or actions even when urged to do so. Stubborn people will not listen to good advice or warnings that other people give them.
- The Old Testament described the Israelites as "stiff-necked" because they did not listen to the many messages from God's prophets who urged them to repent and turn back to Yahweh.
- If a neck is "stiff" it does not bend easily. The project language may have a different idiom that communicates that a person is "unbending" in that he refuses to change his ways.
- Other ways to translate this term could include "pridefully stubborn" or "arrogant and unyielding" or "refusing to change."

strength, strengthen, strong

Facts:

The term “strength” refers to physical, emotional, or spiritual power. To “strengthen” someone or something means to make that person or object stronger.

- “Strength” can also refer to the power to withstand some kind of opposing force.
- A person has “strength of will” if he is able to avoid sinning when tempted.
- One writer of the Psalms called Yahweh his “strength” because God helped him to be strong.
- If a physical structure like a wall or building is being “strengthened,” people are rebuilding the structure, reinforcing it with more stones or brick so that it can withstand an attack.

Translation Suggestions

- In general, the term “strengthen” can be translated as “cause to be strong” or “make more powerful.”
- In a spiritual sense, the phrase “strengthen your brothers” could also be translated as “encourage your brothers” or “help your brothers to persevere.”
- The following examples show the meaning of these terms, and therefore how they can be translated, when they are included in longer expressions.
  - “puts strength on me like a belt” means “causes me to be completely strong, like a belt that completely surrounds my waist.”
  - “in quietness and trust will be your strength” means “acting calmly and trusting in God will make you spiritually strong.”
  - “will renew their strength” means “will become stronger again.”
  - “by my strength and by my wisdom I acted” means “I have done all this because I am so strong and wise.”
  - “strengthen the wall” means “reinforce the wall” or “rebuild the wall.”
  - “I will strengthen you” means “I will cause you to be strong”
  - “in Yahweh alone are salvation and strength” means “Yahweh is the only one who saves us and strengthens us.”

sword, swordsman

Definition:

A sword is a flat-bladed metal weapon used to cut or stab. It has a handle and a long, pointed blade with a very sharp cutting edge.

- In ancient times the length of a sword's blade was about 60 to 91 centimeters.
- Some swords have two sharp edges and are called "double-edged" or "two-edged" swords.
- Jesus' disciples had swords for self defense. With his sword, Peter cut off the ear of the high priest's servant.
- Both John the Baptist and the apostle James were beheaded with swords.

Translation Suggestions

- A sword is used as a metaphor for God's word. God's teachings in the Bible exposed people's innermost thoughts and convicted them of their sin. In a similar way, a sword cuts deeply, causing pain. (See: Metaphor)
- One way to translate this figurative use would be, "God's word is like a sword, which cuts deeply and exposes sin."
- Another figurative use of this term occurred in the book of Psalms, where the tongue or speech of a person was compared to a sword, which can injure people. This could be translated as "the tongue is like a sword that can badly injure someone."
- If swords are not known in your culture, this word could be translated with the name of another long-bladed weapon that is used to cut or stab.
- A sword could also be described as a "sharp weapon" or "long knife." Some translations could include a picture of a sword.

tax, taxed, taxation, taxpayers, tax collector,

Definition:

The terms “tax” and “taxes” refer to money or goods that people pay to a government that is in authority over them. A “tax collector” was a government worker whose job was to receive money that people were required to pay the government in taxes.

- The amount of money that is paid as a tax is usually based on the value of an item or on how much a person's property is worth.
- In the time of Jesus and the apostles, the Roman government required taxes from everyone living in the Roman empire, including the Jews.
- If taxes are not paid, the government can take legal action against a person to get the money that is owed.
- Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem to be counted in the census held to tax everyone living in the Roman empire.
- The term “tax” could also be translated as, “required payment” or “government money” or “temple money,” depending on the context.
- To “pay taxes” could also be translated as to “pay money to the government” or “receive money for the government” or “make the required payment.” To “collect taxes” could be translated as to “receive money for the government.
- A “tax collector” is someone who works for the government and receives the money that people are required to pay it.
- The people who collected taxes for the Roman government would often demand more money from the people than the government required. The tax collectors would keep the extra amount for themselves.
- Because tax collectors cheated people in this way, the Jews considered them to be among the worst of sinners.
- The Jews also considered Jewish tax collectors to be traitors to their own people because they worked for the Roman government which was oppressing the Jewish people.
- The phrase, “tax collectors and sinners” was a common expression in the New Testament, showing how much the Jews despised tax collectors.

testimony, testify, witness, eyewitness

Definition:

When a person gives “testimony” he makes a statement about something he knows, claiming that the statement is true. To “testify” is to give “testimony.”

- Often a person “testifies” about something he has experienced directly.
- A witness who gives “false testimony” does not tell the truth about what happened.
- Sometimes the term “testimony” refers to a prophecy that a prophet has stated.
- In the New Testament, this term was often used to refer to how Jesus’ followers testified about the events of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.

The term “witness” refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually a witness is also someone who testifies about what they know is true. The term “eyewitness” emphasizes that the person was actually there and saw what happened.

- To “witness” something means to see it happen.
- At a trial, a witness “gives witness” or “bears witness.” This has the same meaning as “testify.”
- Witnesses are expected to tell the truth about what they have seen or heard.
- A witness who does not tell the truth about what happened is called a “false witness.” He is said to “give false witness” or to “bear false witness.”
- The expression “be a witness between” means that something or someone will be evidence that a contract has been made. The witness will make sure each person does what he has promised to do.

Translation Suggestions:

- The term “testify” or “give testimony” could also be translated as, “tell the facts” or “tell what was seen or heard” or “tell from personal experience” or “give evidence” or “tell what happened.”
- Ways to translate “testimony” could include, “report of what happened” or “statement of what is true” or “evidence” or “what has been said” or “prophecy.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony to them” could be translated as, to “show them what is true” or to “prove to them what is true.”
- The phrase, “as a testimony against them” could be translated as, “which will show them their sin” or “exposing their hypocrisy” or “which will prove that they are wrong.”
- To “give false testimony” could be translated as “say false things about” or “state things that are not true.”
- The term “witness” or “eyewitness” could be translated with a word or phrase that means “person seeing it” or “the one who saw it happen” or “those who saw and heard (those things).”
- Something that is “a witness” could be translated as “guarantee” or “sign of our promise” or “something that testifies that this is true.”
- The phrase “you will be my witnesses” could also be translated as “you will tell other people about me” or “you will teach people the truth that I taught you” or “you will tell people what you have seen me do and heard me teach.”
- To “witness to” could be translated as to “tell what was seen” or to “testify” or to “state what happened.”
- To “witness” something could be translated as to “see something” or to “experience something happen.”

time, untimely, date

Facts:
In the Bible the term “time” was often used figuratively to refer to a specific season or period of time when certain events took place. It has a meaning similar to “age” or “epoch” or “season.”

- In both Daniel and Revelation speak of a “time” of great trouble or tribulation that will come upon the earth.
- In the phrase “time, times, and half a time” the term “time” means “year.” This phrase refers to a three-and-a-half-year period of time during the great tribulation at the end of this present age.
- “Time” can mean “occasion” in a phrase like “third time.” The phrase “many times” can mean “on many occasions.”
- To be “on time” means to arrive when expected, not late.
- Depending on the context, the term “time” could be translated as, “season” or “time period” or “moment” or “event” or “occurrence.”
- The phrase “times and seasons” is a figurative expression which states the same idea twice. This could also be translated as “certain events happening in certain time periods.” (See: doublet)

to minister, ministry

Definition:
In the Bible, the term “ministry” refers to serving others by teaching them about God and caring for their spiritual needs.

• In the Old Testament, the priests would “minister” to God in the temple by offering sacrifices to him.
• Their “ministry” also included taking care of the temple and offering prayers to God on behalf of the people.
• The job of “ministering” to people can include serving them spiritually by teaching them about God.
• It can also refer to serving people in physical ways, such as caring for the sick and providing food for the poor.

Translation Suggestions:
• In the context of ministering to people, to “minister” could also be translated as to “serve” or to “care for” or to “meet the needs of.”
• When referring to ministering in the temple, the term “minister” could be translated as “serve God in the temple” or “offer sacrifices to God for the people.”
• In the context of ministering to God, this could be translated as to “serve” or to “work for God.”
• The phrase “ministered to” could also be translated as “took care of” or “provided for” or “helped.”

tongue, language

Definition:

The term "tongue" refers to the organ inside a person's mouth that is used to speak. The term is often used figuratively to mean "language" or "speaking." There also several other figurative meanings as well.

- In the Bible, the most common figurative meaning for this term is "language" or "speech."
- Sometimes "tongue" may refer to a human language spoken by a certain people group.
- Other times it refers to a supernatural language that the Holy Spirit gives believers in Christ as one of the "gifts of the Spirit."
- In the book of Acts, the expression "tongues" of fire refers to "flames" of fire, presumably shaped like tongues.

Translation Suggestions

- Depending on the context, the term "tongue" can be translated as "language" or "supernatural language." If it is not clear which one it is referring to, it is better to translate it as "language."
- When referring to fire, this term could be translated as "flames."
- The expression "my tongue rejoices" could be translated as "I rejoice and praise God" or "I am joyfully praising God."
- The phrase, "tongue that lies" could be translated as "person who tell lies" or "people who lie."
- Phrases such as "with their tongues" could be translated as "with what they say" or "by their words."

transgress, transgression

Definition:

The term “transgress” means to cross a line or to violate a boundary. The term is often used figuratively, meaning to break a command, rule, or moral code.

- This term is very similar to the word "trespass," but is generally used more often to describe violations against God than against other people.
- To “transgress” can also be described as to “cross a line,” that is, to go beyond a limit or boundary that has been set for the good of the person and others.

Translation Suggestions:

- To "trangress" could be translated as to “sin” or to “disobey” or to “rebel.”
- If a verse or passage uses two terms that mean "sin" or "transgress" or "trespass," it is important, if possible, to use different ways to translate these terms. When the Bible uses two or more terms with similar meanings in the same context, usually its purpose is to emphasize what is being said or to show its importance.

trespass

Definition:

The term “trespass” means to cross a line or to violate a boundary. This term is often used figuratively, meaning to break a law or to violate the rights of another person.

- This term is very similar to the word "transgression," but is generally used more often to describe violations against other people than against God.
- A trespass can be a violation of a moral law or a civil law.
- A trespass can also be a sin committed against another person.
- This term is related to the terms “sin” and “transgress,” especially as it relates to disobeying God. All sins are trespasses against God.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, to "trespass against" could be translated as to "sin against" or to "break the rule."
- Some languages may have an expression like “cross the line” that could be used to translate “trespass.”
- Consider how this term fits with the meaning of the surrounding Bible text and compare it to other terms that have a similar meaning, such as “transgress” and “sin.”

voice

Definition:

The term “voice” refers to audible sound that a person makes when speaking or communicating. In the Bible, the term can be used figuratively to refer to the concepts of sound, communication, and/or obedience.

Translation Suggestions

- The expression “to hear someone's voice” can mean either “to hear someone speaking” or “to heed what someone says.”
- The Bible describes God as "speaking" and having a "voice," even though God doesn't have a physical body in the same way a human being does.
- The term "voice" sometimes implies the presence of a person, as in this statement: “A voice is heard in the desert saying, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord.’” This could be translated as “A person is heard calling out in the desert....” (See: synecdoche)
- However, sometimes the word “voice” is used for objects that cannot literally speak, such as when David exclaims in the psalms that the heavens have a “voice” that reaches the whole earth. This means that the objects in the sky communicate something to human beings about God the Creator. (See: metaphor)

wine, wineskin, new wine

Definition:

In the Bible, the term “wine” refers to a kind of fermented drink made from the juice of a fruit called grapes. Wine was stored in “wineskins,” which were containers made out of animal skin.

- The term “new wine” referred to grape juice that had just been taken from the grape and was not fermented yet. Sometimes the term “wine” also referred to unfermented grape juice.
- To make wine, grapes are crushed in a wine press so that the juice comes out. The juice eventually ferments and alcohol forms in it.
- In Bible times, wine was the normal drink with meals. It did not have as much alcohol as present-day wine has.
- Before wine was served for a meal, it was often mixed with water.
- A wineskin that was old and brittle would get cracks in it, which allowed the wine to leak out. New wineskins were soft and flexible, which meant they did not tear easily and could store the wine safely.
- If wine is unknown in your culture, it could be translated as “fermented grape juice” or “fermented drink made from a fruit called grapes” or “fermented fruit juice.” (See: How to Translate Unknowns)
- Ways to translate “wineskin” could include “bag for wine” or “animal skin wine bag” or “animal skin container for wine.”

wise, wisdom

Definition:
The term “wise” describes someone who understands what is the right and moral thing to do and then does that. “Wisdom” is the understanding and practice of what is true and morally right.

• Being wise includes the ability to make good decisions, especially choosing to do what pleases God.
• People become wise by listening to God and humbly obeying his will.
• A wise person will show the fruits of the Holy Spirit in his life, such as joy, kindness, love, and patience.

Translation Suggestions:

• Depending on the context, other ways to translate “wise” could include “obedient to God” or “sensible and obedient” or “God-fearing.”
• “Wisdom” could be translated by a word or phrase that means “wise living” or “sensible and obedient living” or “good judgment.”
• It is best to translate “wise” and “wisdom” in such a way that they are different terms from other key terms like righteous or obedient.

womb

Definition:

The term “womb” refers to where a baby grows inside its mother.

- This is an older term that is sometimes used in order to be polite and less direct. (See: euphemism)
- A more modern term for womb is “uterus.”
- Some languages use a word like “belly” to refer to a woman’s womb or uterus.
- Use a word for this in the project language that is well-known, natural, and acceptable.

word of God, word of Yahweh, word of the Lord, word of truth, scripture

Definition:
In the Bible, the term “word of God” refers to anything that God has communicated to people. This includes spoken and written messages. Jesus is also called “the Word of God.”

- The term “scriptures” means “writings.” It is only used in the New Testament and refers to the Hebrew scriptures, which is the Old Testament. These writings were God’s message that he had told people to write down so that many years in the future people could still read it.
- The related terms “word of Yahweh” and “word of the Lord” often refer to a specific message from God that was given to a prophet or other person in the Bible.
- Sometimes this term occurs as simply “the word” or “my word” or “your word” (when talking about God’s word).
- In the New Testament, Jesus is called “the Word” and “the Word of God.” These titles mean that Jesus fully reveals who God is, because he is God himself.

The term “word of truth” is another way of referring to “God’s word,” which is his message or teaching. It does not refer to just one word.

- God’s word of truth includes everything that God has taught people about himself, his creation, and his plan of salvation through Jesus.
- This term emphasizes the fact that what God has told us is true, faithful, and real.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways to translate this term could include “the message of Yahweh” or “God’s message” or “the teachings from God.”
- It may be more natural in some languages to make this term plural and say “God’s words” or “the words of Yahweh.”
- The expression “the word of Yahweh came” is often used to introduce something that God told his prophets or his people. This could be translated as “Yahweh spoke this message” or “Yahweh spoke these words.”
- The term “scripture” or “scriptures” could be translated as “the writings” or “the written message from God.”
- This term should be translated differently from the translation of the term “word.”
- When “word” occurs alone and it refers to God’s word, it could be translated as “the message” or “God’s word” or “the teachings.” Also consider the alternate translations suggested above.
- When the Bible refers to Jesus as “the Word,” this term could be translated as “the Message” or “the Truth.”
- “Word of truth” could be translated as “God’s true message” or “God’s word, which is true.”
- It is important for the translation of this term to include the meaning of being true.

work, works, deeds

Definition:

The term “work” refers generally either to the action of expending effort in order to accomplish something, or to the result of that action. The term "works" refers generally to actions as a whole (that is, things that have been done or that need to be done).

• In the Bible, these terms are commonly used both in reference to God and humans.
• When used in reference to God, the term "work" in the Bible often refers to God's action of creating the universe or saving his people (either from enemies, from sin, or both).
• God's works refer to all the things he does or has done, including creating the world, saving sinners, providing for the needs of all creation and keeping the entire universe in place.
• The works or deeds that a person does can be either good or evil.

Translation Suggestions:

• Other ways to translate “works” could be “deeds” or “actions” or “things that are done.”
• God's "works" or “deeds” or the "work of his hands" could also be translated as “miracles” or “mighty acts” or “things that God does.”
• The expression “the work of God” could be translated as “the things that God is doing” or “the miracles God does” or “everything that God has accomplished.”
• The term “work” can just be the singular of “works” as in “every good work” or “every good deed.”
• When work is done for God or others, it can be translated as “service” or “ministry.”

world, worldly

Definition:

The term “world” usually refers to the part of the universe where people live: the earth. The term “worldly” describes the evil values and behaviors of people living in this world.

- In its most general sense, the term “world” refers to the heavens and the earth, as well as everything in them.
- In many contexts, “world” actually means “people in the world.”
- Sometimes it is implied that this refers to the evil people on earth or the people who do not obey God.
- The apostles also used “world” to refer to the selfish behaviors and corrupt values of the people living in this world. This can include self-righteous religious practices which are based on human efforts.
- People and things characterized by these values are said to be “worldly.”

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, “world” could also be translated as “universe” or “people of this world” or “corrupt things in the world” or “evil attitudes of people in the world.”
- The phrase “all the world” often means “many people” and refers to the people living in a certain region. For example, “all the world came to Egypt” could be translated as “many people from the surrounding countries came to Egypt” or “people from all the countries surrounding Egypt came there.”
- Another way to translate “all the world went to their hometown to be registered in the Roman census” would be “many of the people living in regions ruled by the Roman empire went...”
- Depending on the context, the term “worldly” could be translated as, “evil” or “sinful” or “selfish” or “ungodly” or “corrupt” or “influenced by the corrupt values of people in this world.”
- The phrase “saying these things in the world” can be translated as “saying these things to the people of the world.”
- In other contexts, “in the world” could also be translated as “living among the people of the world” or “living among ungodly people.”

Wrath, fury

Definition:

Wrath is an intense anger that is sometimes long-lasting. The Bible describes both people and God as experiencing intense anger. When speaking about God's "wrath," make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful fit of rage (which might be true of a human person).

- In the Bible, "wrath" often refers to God's righteous judgment of sin and punishment of people who rebel against him.
- The "wrath of God" can also refer to his judgment and punishment for sin.
- God's wrath is the righteous penalty for those who do not repent of their sin.

Translation Suggestions:

- Depending on the context, other ways this term could be translated include "intense anger" or "righteous judgment" or "anger."
- God's wrath is just and holy. When talking about God's wrath, make sure the word or phrase used to translate this term does not refer to a sinful human rage.

Yahweh of hosts, God of hosts, host of heaven, host of the heavens, Lord of hosts

Definition:

The terms “Yahweh of hosts” and “God of hosts” are titles that express God's authority over the thousands of angels who obey him.

- The term “host” or “hosts” is a word that refers to a large number of something, such as an army of people or the massive number of stars. It can also refer to all the many spirit beings, including evil spirits. The context makes it clear what is being referred to.
- Phrases similar to “host of the heavens” refer to all the stars, planets and other heavenly bodies.
- In the New Testament, the phrase, “Lord of hosts” means the same as “Yahweh of hosts” but it cannot be translated that way since the Hebrew word “Yahweh” is not used in the New Testament.

Translation Suggestions:

- Ways to translate “Yahweh of hosts” could include, “Yahweh, who rules all the angels” or “Yahweh, the ruler over armies of angels” or “Yahweh, the ruler of all creation.”
- The phrase “of hosts” in the terms “God of hosts” and “Lord of hosts” would be translated the same way as in the phrase “Yahweh of hosts” above.
- Certain churches do not accept the literal term “Yahweh” and prefer to use the capitalized word, “LORD” instead, following the tradition of many Bible versions. For these churches, a translation of the term “LORD of hosts” would be used in the Old Testament for “Yahweh of hosts.”

year

Definition:

When used literally, the term “year” in the Bible refers to a period of time lasting 354 days. This is according to the lunar calendar system which is based on the time it takes for the moon to go around the earth.

- A year in the modern-day solar calendar lasts 365 days divided into twelve months, based on the amount of time it takes for the earth to travel around the sun.
- In both calendar systems a year has twelve months. But an extra thirteenth month is sometimes added to the year in the lunar calendar to make up for the fact that a lunar year is eleven days less than a solar year. This helps keep the two calendars more in line with each other.
- In the Bible, the term “year” is also used in a figurative sense to refer to a general time when a special event takes place. Examples of this include, “the year of Yahweh” or “in the year of drought” or “the favorable year of the Lord.” In these contexts, “year” could be translated as “time” or “season” or “time period.”

zeal, zealous

Definition:
The terms “zeal” and “zealous” refer to being strongly devoted to supporting a person or idea.

- Zeal includes having strong desire and actions that promote a good cause. It is often used to describe someone who faithfully obeys God and teaches others to do that too.
- Being zealous includes putting intense effort into doing something and continuing to persevere in that effort.
- The “zeal of the Lord” or the “zeal of Yahweh” refers to God's strong, persistent actions to bless his people or to see justice done.

Translation Suggestions:
- To “be zealous” could also be translated by, “be strongly diligent” or “make an intense effort.”
- The term “zeal” could also be translated as “energetic devotion” or “eager determination” or “righteous enthusiasm.”
- The phrase, “zeal for your house” could be translated, “strongly honoring your temple” or “fervent desire to take care of your house.”

Zion, Mount Zion

Definition:

Originally, the term “Zion” or “Mount Zion” referred to a stronghold or fortress that King David captured from the Jebusites. Both these terms became other ways of referring to Jerusalem.

- Mount Zion and Mount Moriah were two of the hills that the city of Jerusalem was located on. Later, “Zion” and “Mount Zion” became used as general terms to refer to both of these mountains and to the city of Jerusalem. Sometimes they also referred to the temple that was located in Jerusalem. (See: metonymy)
- David named Zion, or Jerusalem, the “City of David.” This is different from David’s hometown, Bethlehem, which was also called the City of David.
- The term “Zion” is used in other figurative ways, to refer to Israel or to God’s spiritual kingdom or to the new, heavenly Jerusalem that God will create.
