He promised it to them before all the ages of time.

Does God lie?

No.

Titus 1:3

To whom did God entrust his proclamation at the right time?

God entrusted it to the apostle Paul.

Titus 1:4

What was the relationship between Titus and Paul?

Titus was like a true son to Paul because of their common faith.

Titus 1:6

What must an elder's wife and children be like?

He must be the husband of one wife, and have faithful children who are not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion.

Titus 1:7

What are some of the character traits that an elder must avoid in order to be blameless?

He must not be arrogant, or easily angered, or addicted to wine, or a brawler, or greedy.

What position and responsibility does an overseer have in God's household?

He is like God's household manager.

Titus 1:8

What good qualities should an elder have?

An elder should be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, and self-controlled.

Titus 1:9

What must an elder's attitude be toward the message that he was taught?

He must hold tightly to it, and thus be able to encourage and rebuke others.

Titus 1:11

What were the false teachers doing by their teaching?

They were upsetting whole households.

What did the false teachers want?

They wanted shameful profit.

Titus 1:13

How should an elder treat these false teachers who damage the church?

He must rebuke them severely so they might be sound in the faith.

Titus 1:14

To what did Paul say they should not pay attention?

They should not pay attention to Jewish myths and to commandments of men.

Titus 1:15

In an unbelieving man, what is corrupted?

Both his mind and conscience are corrupted.

Titus 1:16

Although the corrupted man professes to know God, how does he deny him?

He denies God through his actions.

Titus 2

Titus 2:2

What are some characteristics that older men in the church should have?

They should be temperate, dignified, sensible, and sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance.

Titus 2:3

What are some characteristics that older women in the church should have?

They should be reverent, not slander, and be sober, and teach what is good.

Titus 2:4

What should the older women teach the younger women to do?

They should teach them to love and obey their husbands, and to love their children.

Titus 2:7

What should Titus do to be an example to the believers?

He should be an example of good works, integrity, and dignity.

Titus 2:8

What will happen to those who oppose Titus if he is a good example?

Those who oppose him will be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about him.

Titus 2:9

How are slaves who are believers to behave?

They are to obey their masters, be pleasing, and should not argue.

Titus 2:10

When Christian slaves behave as Paul has instructed, what effect will that have on others?

It will bring credit to the teaching about God our Savior.

Titus 2:11

Who can the grace of God save?

The grace of God can save everyone.

Titus 2:12

What does the grace of God train us to reject?

The grace of God trains us to reject godlessness and worldly passions.

Titus 2:13

What future event do believers look forward to receiving?

Believers look forward to receiving the blessed hope: the appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:14

Why did Jesus give himself for us?

He gave himself in order to redeem us from lawlessness, and to purify for himself a people who are zealous to do good works.

Titus 3
